PROCEEDINGS AND DEBATES OF THE 104th CONGRESS, FIRST SESSION

Vol. 141

WASHINGTON, TUESDAY, OCTOBER 17, 1995

No. 160

House of Representatives

The House met at 12:30 p.m. and was called to order by the Speaker pro tempore [Mr. CLINGER].

DESIGNATION OF SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE

The SPEAKER pro tempore laid before the House the following communication from the Speaker:

WASHINGTON, DC,
October 17, 1995.

I hereby designate the Honorable WILLIAM F. CLINGER, Jr., to act as Speaker pro tempore on this day.

NEWT GINGRICH,
Speaker of the House of Representatives.

MORNING BUSINESS

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to the order of the House of May 12, 1995, the Chair will now recognize Members from lists submitted by the majority and minority leaders for morning hour debates. The Chair will alternate recognition between the parties, with each party limited to not to exceed 30 minutes, and each Member, except the majority and minority leader, limited to not to exceed 5 minutes.

JOSEPH ROTBLAT, NOBEL PEACE PRIZE WINNER, CONDEMNS FRENCH NUCLEAR TESTS

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Under the Speaker's announced policy of May 12, 1995, the gentleman from American Samoa [Mr. FALEOMAVAEGA] is recognized during morning business for 5 minutes.

Mr. FALEOMAVAEGA. Mr. Speaker, on the first day of this month, the Government of France exploded another nuclear bomb in the South Pacific, its second detonation in a new series of tests. France's nuclear bomb—involving a 110 kiloton blast—was seven times more destructive than the bomb that we exploded in Hiroshima 50 years ago.

Mr. Speaker, as we recall the destructive nuclear fury that was first unleashed in history against the people of Hiroshima and Nagasaki, I think it most appropriate to recognize Mr. Joseph Rotblat, a physicist working on the manhattan nuclear bomb project during WW II who quit in protest because of his convictions, and who was personally devastated when he learned of the bomb's consequences in Japan.

Mr. Speaker, I want to congratulate Mr. Rotblat, a Polish-born scientist, who has just been awarded the Nobel Peace Prize by the Norwegian Nobel Committee. Mr. Rotblat, the world's first protester against nuclear weapons, has devoted his entire life to ending the madness of the nuclear arms race. He is the founding member of the Pugwash Conference on Science and World Affairs, as well as the Stockholm International Peace Research Institute, a leading think tank on security and disarmament issues.

Mr. Speaker, at a time France is thumbing its nose at the international community, over 160 nations have officially protested this madness by President Chirac and the Government of France to continued exploding of nuclear bombs in the South Pacific, I find it highly commendable that the Nobel Peace Prize has been awarded to Mr. Rotblat, one of the world's most eminent and vocal opponents of nuclear testing.

Mr. Speaker, Mr. Rotblat has condemned France's resumption of nuclear testing and has written French President Chirac, urging that France immediately cancel its tests. Mr. Rotblat says, "There is no reason at all in my opinion for President Chirac to resume tests. I can't see any tactical reason at all. I can only see this as an attempt to make their bomb a little better, or develop perhaps a new type." That is right, Mr. Speaker, a bomb a little better. To kill more people.

The two bombs that we exploded in Japan, Mr. Speaker, accounted for over 290,000 men, women, and children who died as a result of those nuclear explosions. What madness, what madness, Mr. Speaker. We can say that let us get rid of chemical and biological warfare, but let us continue dropping nuclear bombs.

Mr. Speaker, again, I commend Mr. Rotblat for his life's work and the Nobel Committee for their selection of Mr. Rotblat as a Nobel recipient. By these actions, the Nobel Committee on behalf of the world community has sent a strong message of protest to the French Government and I would hope that Paris would respond by immediately canceling their nuclear testing in the South Pacific.

What arrogance, Mr. Speaker, that President Chirac has the unmitigated gall to do this. For over 30 years they have been exploding nuclear bombs in the South Pacific. The American people do not know the suffering of the some 100,000 or 200,000 people who live in those islands, and, yes, 28 million people who live in that region. We just have not taken a better understanding of the very real serious problem we have there in the Pacific.

While President Chirac is drinking his sweet wine in Paris, some 200,000 people's lives are at stake if that Murorua atoll should break and leak, and there are already indications of leakages because of the 168 nuclear bombs that have been exploded on that atoll alone.

What arrogance, Mr. Speaker, what arrogance.

ANTI-BOMB PHYSICIST WINS PEACE PRIZE—
NOBEL "PROTEST" AGAINST ATOMIC TESTS SHARED WITH ARMS CONTROL GROUP

(By Fred Barbash)

LONDON, October 13.—The Nobel Peace Prize was awarded today to Joseph Rotblat, a British physicist who helped invent atomic weapons in the 1940s, and the organization dedicated to doing away with them that he later formed with Albert Einstein and Bertrand Russell.

This year's prize stands as a "protest" against French and Chinese nuclear testing, the chairman of the Norwegian Nobel Committee, Francis Sejersted, said in Oslo as he announced the award to Rotblat and the Pugwash Conferences on Science and World Affairs.

Rotblat, 86, who walked out of the secret U.S. government laboratory at Los Alamos, N.M., in 1944 after deciding the atomic bomb being developed there was unnecessary, also used the occasion to express his "outrage" at France's two recent nuclear tests in the South Pacific.

Since 1957, the Pugwash Conferences have been assembling select groups of scientists, including many of the brains behind the American, Russian and British nuclear arsenals, for private exchanges on arms control. They have opened up lines of communication among such scientists, serving as forums for both technical and political issues, and as back channels to top-level policymakers. Subsequently the conferences were broadened beyond the scientific community.

Rotblat said today that the organization's goal is, and always has been, to convince governments that "the genie can be put back in the bottle."

A French Foreign Ministry spokesman offered congratulations to Rotblat today, the Reuter news agency reported, but Prime Minister Alain Juppe rejected appeals that France end its nuclear testing program and said the award would have no effect on "policies we have adopted for reasons of national interest."

While no single treaty or agreement can be traced precisely to Pugwash discussions, according to historians of the nuclear era as well as Rotblat, the conferences have addressed complex problems—such as anti-ballistic missile systems, test ban monitoring and the spread of chemical and biological weapons—long before they reached the formal negotiating tables of world leaders. They are considered to have exercised at the very least a subtle influence on virtually every major contemporary arms accord.

More broadly, the organization, which has 10 Nobel laureates among its charter members, was among the first of what are now many such groups designed to encourage scientists to confront—and control—the uses of their science.

The group was cited by the Nobel committee for its efforts to "diminish the part played by nuclear arms in international politics and in the longer run to eliminate such arms." It has made scientists "take responsibility for their inventions," it said.

Unlike with last year's Peace Prize—awarded jointly to Israeli leaders Shimon Peres and Yitzhak Rabin and Palestine Liberation Organization leader Yasser Arafat—names of the recipients of this one were not leaked in advance. Indeed, neither Rotblat nor the Pugwash Conferences, of which he is president, was on any of the speculative "short lists" published in the Norwegian press.

The Pugwash Conferences, along with philosopher and antiwar activist Bertrand Russell, were viewed with suspicion by some fervent anti-communists during the 1950s and by ardent Cold Warriors afterward. But the organization has been respected for years by arms control professionals. Until today, however, it was relatively unknown to the rest of the world, as was Rotblat, a cheerful, intense man who says he still "wakes up in a cold sweat" when he hears about such events as France's nuclear tests.

"Who would expect that a little man like myself and a little-known movement, unknown to the general public," would get the Nobel Peace Prize, Rotblat said today as he walked briskly from the organization's grungy office near London's Russell Square to a news conference. "Who is he?" bystanders asked reporters as they followed him.

Rotblat, a native of Poland, was working on a one-year atom bomb project at the University of Liverpool in 1939 when the British team of which he was a part joined U.S. scientists working on the Manhattan Project to develop an atomic bomb at Los Alamos.

"I started to work in 1939 on the atom bomb," he said in an interview today. "I was afraid that German scientists would build the weapon and use it to rule the world. I thought that the only way this could be prevented was if we built it too and threatened to retaliate—the classical concept of nuclear deterrence."

Two new pieces of information gained at Los Alamos persuaded him to leave. First, he said, he learned that a major purpose for the bomb was to threaten the Soviet Union, which was then a World War II ally.

Then, he said, "at the end of 1944 I learned that the Germans had abandoned their project; the purpose of my being on the project was gone." When he informed his superiors at Los Alamos that he was leaving, he said they "accused me of being a spy" who was planning to turn over atomic secrets to the Russians. After refuting the accusation, and agreeing for security reasons to a fabricated story about why he was leaving, he was allowed to return to Britain, where he switched from nuclear physics to nuclear medicine.

When he heard that the United States had dropped the bomb on Hiroshima, he said, he was "devastated. . . . I did not expect it would be used as soon as it was made. I felt angry, worried and fearful about the future of our civilization."

"The world didn't know it, but we knew that scientists were capable of making a bomb a thousand times more powerful—a hydrogen bomb."

In 1955, he and Russell decided to seek the help of Einstein in warning the world of the danger they foresaw. From that collaboration came the "Russell-Einstein Manifesto," which declared that "such weapons threaten the continued existence of mankind." Among the signers were 10 men who were or would become Nobel laureates, including Max Born, Percy W. Bridgman, Einstein, Frederic Joliot-Curie, Hermann J. Muller, Linus Pauling, Cecil F. Powell and Rotblat.

From the manifesto emerged the Pugwash Conferences, so named because the first one was financed by American industrialist Cyrus Eaton and held at his retreat in the village of Pugwash, Nova Scotia.

The meetings, which were by invitation only, tended to be small—groups of 25—and moved from country to country.

While participants often read from prepared papers, they could be and were challenged in open give-and-take sessions, according to accounts of meetings by historians.

Invitees have included not only scientists committed to arms control—such as Rotblat—but top-level government scientists guiding the rapid Cold War nuclear arms buildup. Soviet physicists Andrei Sakharov and Igor Tamm and Princeton scientist Frank von Hippel were among the participants.

Rotblat said today he has never been able to say with any precision how much the Pugwash discussions influenced the Soviet position on arms limitations.

At the very least, he said, they opened channels of communication among scientists on both sides of the arms race.

He said he is certain that Pugwash discussions influenced Soviet leader Mikhail Gorbachev's thinking on nuclear issues through the participation of Yevgeny Velikhov, one of the former Soviet leader's key science advisers, who helped persuade Gorbachev not to try to match President Ronald Reagan's Strategic Defense Initiative.

Experts said today that the Pugwash meetings also have contributed significantly to the nuclear testing moratorium observed by the United States and the Soviet Union; to resolving complex issues involving testing verification and monitoring; to the intermediate-range nuclear forces treaty of 1987; and to the nuclear Non-Proliferation Treaty of 1968, designed to stop the spread of nuclear weapons to countries that do not already possess them.

Indeed, the idea for the treaty was first discussed at a Pugwash meeting in 1958, according to the organization's official history.

The peace prize, which will be formally awarded in Oslo in December, carries an award of $1 million. Asked what would be done with the money, Rotblat gestured toward his cramped and cluttered office.

"I haven't really thought about it," he said. "But look around you."

ROTLAT, FIRST NUCLEAR PROTESTER, WINS
PEACE PRIZE

LONDON, October 13.—Polish-born Joseph Rotblat may have been the world's first protester against nuclear weapons, quitting the Manhattan project to build America's atom bomb in 1945 because of his convictions.

The physicist, who was awarded the 1995 Nobel Peace Prize on Friday, went on to become one of the world's most vocal and effective opponents of the nuclear arms race.

The 86-year-old, who lost his wife in the Holocaust, won the Prize jointly with the Pugwash Conferences on Science and World Affairs, of which he was a founder member and is now chairman.

He is also a founding member of the Stockholm International Peace Research Institute (SIPRI), a leading "think-tank" on security and disarmament issues.

Rotblat lives in London where he was professor of physics at the University of London. He has been a British subject since 1946.

He was a refugee from Hitler's Europe who was working at Liverpool University in northern England when World War Two broke out.

He began research on the potential of atomic power in Britain in 1940.

He became a member of a group of British-based scientists who worked on the secret Manhattan Project. But he left the project as Germany headed for defeat, making him possibly the world's first anti-nuclear arms protester.

Rotblat was the only scientist to leave the Manhattan project base at Los Alamos, New Mexico, where the atomic bomb was developed that later devastated Hiroshima and Nagasaki.

His departure was officially said to have been because he wanted to return to Europe to search for his wife.

After the end of World War Two, he founded the Atomic Scientists Association, the forerunner to the Pugwash organisation. He later became president of the organisation, which was dedicated to arms control.

Although Rotblat had always been conscious of the disastrous consequences that the development of nuclear weapons could entail, he had felt compelled to work on the Manhattan project to develop the atomic bomb before Germany could do so.

When it became clear that Germany had given up working on the atomic bomb, he pulled out of the project and did not know the bomb had been completed until it was dropped on Hiroshima.

He was said to have been "devastated" by the consequences of its use on Japan in the dying days of the Pacific war and dedicated his life to campaigning against the nuclear arms race, urging other scientists to do so.

FRANCE UNEASILY CONGRATULATES ROTBLAT ON NOBEL

(By Alistair Doyle)

PARIS, October 13.—France uneasily congratulated ban-the-bomb scientist Joseph Rotblat on winning the Nobel Peace Prize on Friday, dodging the laureate's condemnation of French nuclear tests in the South Pacific.

"We congratulate the Nobel Peace Prize laureate," Foreign Ministry spokesman Jacques Rummelhardt told reporters. "France wants disarmament, including nuclear disarmament, in security."

"Security will permit disarmament," he told the ministry's regular daily press briefing, adding: "French policy aims to establish security."

Despite Paris's official congratulations, the award to the veteran nuclear physicist-turned-peace campaigner seemed set to make the French government squirm.

Pierre Lellouche, a member of parliament and former strategic affairs adviser to President Jacques Chirac, said he was "perfectly scandalised" and accused the group Rotblat heads of being a former tool of Soviet propaganda.

Both Rotblat and the Norwegian Nobel Committee wasted no time in urging France to cancel nuclear tests. Paris broke a three-year moratorium last month by detonating an underground nuclear device in French Polynesia.

Rotblat, 86, said he hoped the prize "is a message not only to the French but to the Chinese as well." China and France are the only official nuclear powers still testing.

Rotblat wrote to President Jacques Chirac last month protesting against the French tests. "I think it's very bad," he told Reuters in London on Friday.

"There is no reason at all in my opinion for President Chirac to resume tests. I can't see any tactical reason at all. I can only see this as an attempt maybe to make their bomb a little better, or develop perhaps a new type."

Nobel Committee chairman Francis Sejersted told Reuters Television: "The specific message to the French is a protest against the nuclear tests, as it is a protest against nuclear tests in general and nuclear armaments in general."

France has staged two tests since early September despite howls of outrage abroad. Chirac says tests are vital to check France's nuclear arsenal and plans as many as six more before banning testing for ever.

France's La Chaine Info television commented that the impact of the Nobel decision on French diplomacy would hardly have been worse had environmental group Greenpeace won.

Rotblat, who helped develop the first atom bomb in the United States in hopes it would never be used, shared the million-dollar prize with the Pugwash Conferences on Science and World Affairs which he chairs.

Lellouche said: "I am personally—and as a specialist in these matters—perfectly scandalised by the fact that an organisation which one knows was openly manipulated by the Soviets should be honoured in this way at a time when everyone knows the controversy about the French tests."

The Pugwash conferences played a back-room role in the Cold War, bringing together scientists, scholars and public figures from East and West to discuss nuclear and other security issues.

AUSTRALIA LAUDS PRIZE FOR ANTI-NUCLEAR CAMPAIGNER

SYDNEY, October 14.—Australia, a fierce opponent of French nuclear testing in the South Pacific, welcomed on Saturday the award of the 1995 Nobel Peace Prize to anti-nuclear campaigner Joseph Rotblat.

A Foreign Ministry spokesman said Australia applauded Rotblat's remark that he hoped the prize would send "a message not only to the French but to the Chinese as well."

"We certainly welcome those remarks from someone as eminent as a Nobel Peace Prize winner and it reinforces the wide range of interests against the nuclear testing programmes," the spokesman told Reuters.

"It basically reinforces the need for a comprehensive test ban treaty, which Australia has been consistently working towards over so many years."

Rotblat, a nuclear physicist who devoted his life to trying to ban the bomb he helped create, won the Nobel Peace Prize on Friday and seized the opportunity to spread his anti-nuclear message.

The Norwegian Nobel Committee, which awarded the prize to the 86-year-old peace campaigner and the Pugwash organisation he founded, also made clear it was intended as a protest against French nuclear tests.

France, which is carrying out a series of tests in the South Pacific, and China are the only nuclear powers still carrying out tests.

Australia has said French and Chinese nuclear tests threaten to undermine negotiations for a Comprehensive Test Ban Treaty due for completion next year by encouraging more non-nuclear powers to develop atomic weapons.

Canberra is especially critical of French testing, arguing Paris should, like Beijing, test on their home soil. Having failed to prevent the resumption of tests in French Polynesia, Australia is now trying to embarrass France in world forums.

Australia will seek condemnation of nuclear testing at next month's Commonwealth Heads of Government Meeting in New Zealand.

It is also lobbying with Japan and New Zealand for an anti-testing resolution within the United Nations.

OAS HITS FRENCH TESTS

French nuclear tests are detrimental to peace and international security, the Mexican ambassador to the OAS said as she assumed the rotating presidency of the organization's permanent council.

Ambassador Carmen Moreno de Del Cueto restated the Organization of American States' call for France to end its tests in the South Pacific.

"I deeply regret that the French government has ignored [our] call . . . to suspend the nuclear tests," she said. "I reiterate our call . . . and urge the French government to finally suspend their nuclear tests, which do not contribute to either peace or international security."

Mrs. Moreno de Del Cueto thanked the OAS for its gradual reforms.

"Little by little the OAS has moved forward in pluralism and tolerance and has begun to eliminate the radical bad habits of the Cold War," she said last week.

DO NOT USE SCARE TACTICS

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Under the Speaker's announced policy of May 12, 1995, the gentleman from Kentucky [Mr. WHITFIELD] is recognized during morning business for 3 minutes.

Mr. WHITFIELD. Mr. Speaker, I have in my hands today an article taken from yesterday's Wall Street Journal entitled "Clinton Recruits Campaign Team of Nasty Boys." I would like to just read the first paragraph:

Gearing up for 1996, President Clinton is fielding a motley crew of reelection strategists with reputations for shrewdness and ruthless tactics. A mainstay on his team, New Yorker Henry Sheikoph, readily boasts, "I subscribe to terror." Last year, in speaking to a convention of political consultants, Mr. Sheikoph told a gathering that terror works in political campaigns because it is so easy to make people hate.

What a sad commentary that is on the political system in America that political strategists would deliberately be trying to terrorize and scare people in America, and the efforts to terrorize have already started in the area of Medicare.

As you know Medicare will be bankrupt by the year 2002, according to the President's own board of trustees, and we are committed to preserving that plan, to make it a better plan than it is today. Under the Republican plan, we are going to be spending $355 billion more over the next 6 years, 7 years, on Medicare than were spent in the past 7 years.

But more important than that, if you work in a major corporation today or if you work in the Federal Government today, or if you are in the U.S. Congress today, you have options to choose your health care from five or six different plans. But if you are a senior citizen in America today, you have one option, a fee-for-service option.

Some suburban areas and urban areas, you have an HMO that you can participate in. But we are going to provide senior citizens with additional options. If they want to keep the system they have today, they can do so. If they want to go to an HMO, they can do so. If they want to go to provider service networks, they can do so. If they want to be into a medical savings account, paid for by the Government, they can do so.

So I would urge the President, I would urge those Members of the Democratic Party who are trying to use this issue to scare the American people, to come forward and be honest and say, "Yes, this is going to be a better system."

We do not need nasty boys, so to speak, running political campaigns in America.

MEDICARE FRAUD AND ABUSE

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Under the Speaker's announced policy of May 12, 1995, the gentlewoman from Connecticut [Ms. DELAUR] is recognized during morning business for 5 minutes.

Ms. DELAURO. Mr. Speaker, this week the House of Representatives will take up unprecedented cuts of $270 billion from Medicare which has been a lifeline for over 37 million seniors. During its 30 year legacy, Medicare has provided our elders with the security of health care coverage and has lifted millions of our seniors out of poverty. Medicare is a solemn contract between this Nation and our elders. It should not be tampered with lightly.

Over the years, those of us genuinely concerned with strengthening the Medicare system have urged a crackdown on Medicare fraud. The Congressional Budget Office estimates that stopping the growing problem of fraud will reap billions of dollars in savings.

But you don't need some policy-wonk's study to tell you that the system is rampant with waste, fraud, and abuse. Just visit one of our Nation's senior centers and sit down for a senior lunch and ask one of our senior citizens to show you their bills.

However, the Republican bill we will take up later this week does not toughen enforcement. It does not even defend the status quo. Even worse, the Republicans turn back the clock on cracking down on Medicare fraud.

Sadly, I am not surprised. As Speaker GINGRICH said last week in this Washington Times article, in his feeble effort to defend GOP moves to reduce penalties and enforcement efforts against Medicare fraud: "murderers out after 3 years" and rapists who don't even get tried." "For the moment, I'd rather lock up the murderers, the rapists and the drug dealers," he said. "Once we start getting some vacant jail space, I'd be glad to look at it."

The Republican leadership is not interested in correcting and punishing the criminal elements in the Medicare system. Because that may hurt the special interest supporters in the medical industry.

Their priority is to ensure that the special interest supporters in the medical industry are taken care of, with minimal losses in this debate on cutting Medicare.

So, while the Speaker cuts a deal in a backroom with the American Medical Association to make sure that the interests of doctors are protected, while the health care cheats make a fast buck at the government's expense, seniors are being asked to pay more in out-of-pocket costs and deductibles.

My colleagues on the other side of the aisle have abandoned the most obvious of the potential savings in the Medicare program: Combating Medicare fraud and abuse. I introduced legislation this Congress, the Health Care Prosecution Act, to do just that. My bill stops health care cheats in their tracks, retrieves the financial losses in restitution and fines, and puts the criminals behind bars so that they are unable to promulgate more health care scams in the future.

Further, my legislation establishes a temporary health care fraud and abuse commission to study the nature, and extent of fraud in our system. The commission would make recommendations to Congress on innovative approaches to attack fraud.

Mr. Speaker, I think my bill is a good one but it is not the only effective way to crack down on fraud. There are lots of good ideas out there about how to rid our system of the scams that are ripping off our Nation's seniors and taxpayers.

I am sorry that my Republican colleagues have chosen to pursue none of them.

THE GOAL OF THE MEDICARE PRESERVATION ACT

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Under the Speaker's announced policy of May 12, 1995, the gentleman from Ohio [Mr. HOKE] is recognized during morning business for 5 minutes.

Mr. HOKE. Mr. Speaker, on April 3, 1995, the Medicare trustees, which include three members of the President's Cabinet, issued the following warning: "Medicare begins going bankrupt next year, and unless prompt and decisive action is taken, Medicare will be completely out of money by 2002."

There is no reason to doubt the accuracy of the report or its conclusion, and I urge every American to obtain an official summary of the report from their Congressman's or Congresswoman's office to judge for themselves. They can get that by calling 202-225-3121, that is, 202-225-3121. Ask for an official 14 page summary of the Medicare trustees' report.

This week, the House of Representatives will take a giant step forward toward putting Medicare back on sound fiscal footing and giving our seniors the same choices enjoyed by Federal employees, including Members of Congress and all citizens in the private sector when it passes the Medicare Preservation Act of 1995.

The goal of the Medicare Preservation Act is to preserve Medicare for current beneficiaries, protect future beneficiaries, and strengthen it through reforms that have been tested and proven in the private sector. The bottom line is that if Medicare is not reformed, either seniors will be forced to accept sharply curtailed medical services or working Americans will be forced to pay increased payroll taxes estimated by the Heritage Foundation to cost my constituents in northeastern Ohio an average of an additional $1,200 per year.

Under the Medicare Preservation Act, total Medicare spending will increase, will increase, will increase, will increase 54 percent from $161 billion in 1995 to $274 billion in 2002.

On an annual per beneficiary basis, average spending will increase, that was increase, from $4,800 today to more than $6,700 in 2002. Obviously not only is Medicare not being cut, but at an average increase of about 6.5 percent per year it will grow faster than the current 2.3 percent of private sector medical inflation and more than fast enough to accommodate all new entrants into the system. Only in the bizarre and convoluted world of Washington bookkeeping and partisan bickering can such an indisputable spending increase be called a cut.

The Medicare Preservation Act will give seniors the same four choices that all Federal employees, including Members of Congress, have. First, if they want to, seniors can stay with the current Medicare system exactly as it is today, and, if they choose another option and decide later they want to return to traditional Medicare, they can do that, too. No senior citizen will be forced to give up his or her current Medicare coverage, switch doctors, or be forced into a plan that they do not want.

Second, seniors can opt for managed care and join a health maintenance organization, or HMO, in which beneficiaries agree to receive their medical care from a defined pool of providers in exchange for lower out-of-pocket expenses and broader coverage, which might include prescription drugs, dental care, and eye wear. Many seniors, particularly those those private physicians are already associated with the HMO that they choose, will find this to be an attractive alternative.

Third, seniors can opt for a medical savings account plan which uses the beneficiary's Medicare stipend to fund both catastrophic health insurance plus an MSA, a medical savings account, out of which seniors would pay for routine medical needs. Seniors choosing this plan would have complete control over the money they spend on medical care, and any money left over in the medical savings account at the end of the year would belong to the senior, not to the insurance company nor to the Government. Seniors can join provider service networks similar to HMO's organized by doctors and hospitals themselves.

The Medicare Preservation Act will also aggressively attack waste, fraud, and abuse that has contributed so much to Medicare's rising costs. Incredibly, the Congressional Budget Office has estimated that as much as 20 percent of Medicare spending is fraudulent. The Medicare Preservation Act requires the Department of Health and Human Services to identify and eliminate these huge losses, including financially rewarding Medicare recipients who report abuses. It makes doctors and hospitals accountable for their actions, and imposes stiff new penalties on anyone caught defrauding Medicare.

Another important point is that the portion of Medicare part B costs paid by seniors through premiums, currently 31.5 percent, will not change. Over the past 7 years, part B premiums have nearly doubled, rising from $24.80 in 1988 to $46.10 today.

Mr. Speaker, that is the plan. It is innovative, responsible, and cost effective, and we are going to pass it on Thursday.

SAVING MEDICARE

The SPEAKER pro tempore (Mr. CLINGER). Under the Speaker's announced policy of May 12, 1995, the gentleman from New Jersey [Mr. PALLONE] is recognized during morning business for 5 minutes.

Mr. PALLONE. Mr. Speaker, I would also like to use my time to talk about Medicare. As we know, the Republican leadership plans to bring up their cuts in Medicare and their program that in my opinion will destroy the Medicare system in the bill this Thursday, without really any significant debate that has occurred so far.

I think there are many aspects of this Republican Medicare plan that disturb me greatly, but the one thing I think that has not been stressed enough is how this is going to have such a negative impact on the quality of health care in the United States.

There was an article last Friday in the New York Times, an op-ed by Mr. Melvin Connor out of Atlanta. He says essentially what these changes in Medicare as well as Medicaid are going to do is to create a third-world atmosphere, essentially, for health care in the United States. He calls it "Medicare and the Third Worldization of America."

The reason he says this essentially is because when you take so much money out of the health care system, out of Medicare and out of Medicaid—and we are talking about $450 billion—the inevitable result is that the system is squeezed so much that the quality of health care suffers.

Few people I think realize this. Many of us realize that our country has the best health care system in the world. It is not always evenly distributed. A lot of the poor people or the poor elderly oftentimes do not have the best quality care or access to that best quality care. But the bottom line is that the system as a whole works fairly well right now, and we do have the best quality care in the world.

But what this proposal does, what the Republican proposal does, is to basically cap the Medicare Program and limit Medicare spending to specific dollar amounts in the law. These caps—and not the choice that the Republicans talk about, which is not going to be there—these caps on Medicare spending essentially yield the enormous Medicare budget savings that the Republicans keep talking about.

But the problem is that the caps on spending bear no relationship whatsoever to the costs of health care. Instead, they were set up to produce the budget savings Republicans need to pay for their tax cut for the wealthy. When inflation and enrollment growth push Medicare costs beyond these arbitrary budget caps, Medicare and the elderly and disabled citizens that are part of the program will be at serious risk.

Now, one of the previous speakers this morning talked about the trustees and said well, we have to do something to Medicare; otherwise it is going to go broke.

That simply is not true. If you look at the trustees report that comes out this year that estimates that the program has another 7 years, every year over the last 25 or 30 years the trustees have come out with a report. Sometimes they have predicted insolvency in 2 years, sometimes in 7, sometimes in 10.

The bottom line is that the trustees are not saying that this kind of a cut, that this magnitude of a cut in the Medicare Program, is what is necessary in order to keep Medicare solvent. In fact, in a letter that I previously quoted from Robert Rubin, the Secretary of the Treasury, dated September 21, to the Speaker, to Speaker GINGRICH, he simply said:

No Member of Congress should vote for $270 billion in Medicare cuts believing that reductions of this size have been recommended by the Medicare trustees or that such reductions are needed now to prevent an imminent funding crisis. That would be factually incorrect.

In fact, the trustees have not said that. The trustees have said that something like $90 billion in savings would do fine in order to keep the Medicare Program solvent well beyond the next 7 years.

What we are talking about here is an effort to basically squeeze all this money out of the Medicare Program and provide us essentially with a third world health care system just in order to achieve a tax cut for the wealthy. If anybody doubts that, I would suggest to them that they look at what came out of the House Committee on Commerce, which is the committee that I serve on in Congress. We tried in the Committee on Commerce when we were marking up the Medicare bill last week to make the point that if you really felt that these cuts were not being achieved in order to give a tax break for the wealthy, then why not take the Medicare Program out of this budget reconciliation bill that we are considering in Congress right now?

In other words, if the Republicans really believe that they are trying to save Medicare, rather than take this money that they are cutting and using it for a tax cut for the wealthy, then why do they need to deal with Medicare in the context of the budget? Why do they not give us some time, a couple weeks, a couple months, to look at the Medicare Program, to look at all its different aspects, and try to deal with it in a way that tries to come up with a better quality health care system, not a worse one?

The answer is very simple. They were not willing to do that. We actually submitted an amendment in the Committee on Commerce to take the bill out of the reconciliation, and it failed along a partisan vote line because the Republicans are not serious. They want to use the money for the tax cut.

THE RAPID GROWTH IN TRAVEL AND TOURISM

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Under the Speaker's announced policy of May 12, 1995, the gentleman from Wisconsin [Mr. ROTH] is recognized during morning business for 5 minutes.

Mr. ROTH. Mr. Speaker, America needs a bold agenda for change, change not only in the way we do business, but in a new way at looking at the world. Consider for a moment that the single largest global revenue producer for individuals and governments, travel and tourism, has been almost totally ignored. Yet, like a sleeping giant, travel and tourism is awakening from its slumber, and everyone, particularly the politicians, will have to stand and take notice.

This year, travel and tourism is finally getting a little of the recognition it deserves, and justly so. Travel and tourism employs some 204 million worldwide, almost as many people as we have living in the United States minus California. That equals 10 percent of the global work force.

Tourism produces $655 billion in tax revenue. More than 10 percent of all capital investment worldwide goes into travel and tourism. Maybe that is why travel and tourism is growing 23 percent faster than the world economy.

But the most revealing statistic, the one that should make all of us collectively hang a welcome sign on every port of entry into the United States, is that there is an increase of some 50 million travelers, an increase of some 50 million travelers worldwide in the next 5 years. This could mean tens of thousands of new jobs for American workers, but only if we in Congress have the foresight to take advantage of this remarkable opportunity.

Yet when it comes to travel and tourism, we in Congress have been more than willing to take a back seat to any other country in the world, any country, that is willing to put priority in job creation. We in Congress have been oblivious to the dynamics of travel and tourism, the tremendous force in this industry, the tremendous force it has on our economy. We are all too often engrossed in issues of the day and fail to take a look at the big picture.

That is why as chairman of the 297-member Travel and Tourism Caucus, the largest caucus in Congress, I ask all Members to focus on the juggernaut of this global economy.

Also, on a personal note for each Member, let me repeat a fact that you are all acquainted with. Travel and tourism is either the first, second, or third largest employer in your congressional district. These are the businesses, the working men and women in your district. Think of them when you think of travel and tourism. Virtually all over the world, and particularly in the United States, travel and tourism is the predominant industry for jobs that our people need. But note well, the United States is losing its market share in travel and tourism, and this means that we are losing jobs and tax revenue.

Effectively ignored all too often by Congress for its economic benefits, travel and tourism has had a rough row to hoe, a road full of tax pitfalls, disincentives and economic roadblocks, and American workers, small businesses and local economies, especially in our small towns, have suffered.

What should we do? I will start by telling you what I am not willing to do. I am not willing to see thousands of new jobs created in other countries and sit back wondering why it did not happen here in the United States. I am not willing to see Main Street, America fade away and then wonder was there something I could have done or other Members of Congress could have done.

On October 30 and 31 of this year, in a few days, we will hold the first ever White House Conference on Travel and Tourism. We are going to strategize on a national tourism plan that will create jobs here in America, keep Main Street alive, and pump new tourism dollars into our local economies.

As a member of the Travel and Tourism Caucus, this is your conference, too. Come, take part, and get in step with the American working people. One out of every nine workers is employed by travel and tourism. Just think of the tremendous impact this industry has on your congressional district.

For us the travel and tourism industry is the No. 1 source of foreign revenue. Fifty-six billion dollars came into the United States last year because of foreign tourists, $56 billion that we did not have to get from our taxpayers here in this country. Travel and tourism has moved to the forefront of our national economy. It cannot be ignored, and justly so.

Mr. Speaker, if the Members have not already done so, I invite them as Members of Congress to join the 297 members of the Travel and Tourism Caucus. Join us on October 30 and 31 at the White House conference and get involved in this blockbuster industry of the 1990's and the 21st century.

Let me predict that as we move into the new century, travel and tourism will be No. 1 in jobs, No. 1 in revenue, No. 1 in economic activity, and I invite you all to join the Travel and Tourism Caucus today.

MORE COMPREHENSIVE DEBATE NEEDED ON MEDICARE PLAN

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Under the Speaker's announced policy of May 12, 1995, the gentleman from Illinois [Mr. DURBIN] is recognized during morning business for 5 minutes.

Mr. DURBIN. Mr. Speaker, if the Gingrich Republican plan to cut $270 billion out of Medicare is such a good idea, why were there no committee hearings to speak of? Why was this bill not brought to the floor so Members could have an opportunity to amend it and debate it at length?

In fact, this week on the floor of the House of Representatives in Washington, DC, we will consider this $270 billion cut in Medicare, the biggest cut in the history of this program, with only a handful of days of hearings in various committees, and a very limited opportunity for debate. It is no surprise that over the weekend, if you read the New York Times, you find that more things are starting to trickle out in terms of what is included in this Medicare change.

Some of the changes that are being proposed are absolutely horrible. One of the worst relates to the fraud and abuse of the Medicare system. Most of the people that we talk to, who are on Medicare, believe the system needs to be changed and improved. I certainly do.

One of the first places they suggest that we turn to is to stop overbilling, stop the overcharging of the Government for medical services. We know that the vast majority of health care providers under Medicare are honest, ethical people. The doctors, the hospital administrators, those who provide various medical equipment and medical supplies are by and large very honest people, but 1 or 2 percent of them are not and they cost us as taxpayers dearly.

The General Accounting Office estimates that about 10 percent of all the billing to Medicare each year is fraudulent, to the tune of about $18 billion a year, more than enough to make Medicare a sound system for years to come. Unfortunately, if we look closely at what Mr. GINGRICH has proposed under his Medicare reform, we find instead of tightening it up to eliminate the fraud and to eliminate the abuse, the gentleman takes a step in the opposite direction. He lifts the burden now put on Medicare providers so that they cannot be guilty of self-referral.

What is self-referral? OK. A senior goes to the doctor, the doctors takes a look at the person and says, "I think you need a test." Now, how many of us would argue with a doctor at that point? "If I need a test, Doctor, and you think it is right, let us do it." But we found out something curious. If the doctor owns the laboratory that performs the test, the inspector general's office finds out that 45 percent more tests are ordered.

The doctor is not only making money out of the examination, the doctor is making money out of the test. In fact, they are overtesting the patients, beyond what they need for good health care. We put in some regulations and said let us put an end to it. If a patient needs it, if a patient needs a test, let us do it, but this sort of self-referral so that some doctors who own the labs can make more money is a rip-off.

Well, guess what? Along comes the Gingrich Medicare proposal and the whole question of self-referral is pushed to the back.

Then there is a question of kickbacks. We honestly found in the last 2 years dramatic instances of kickbacks, where one group of physicians was referring to another group of physicians, when it was totally unnecessary, and the second group of physicians would kick back some money to the first group for the referral. In one instance, one group paid over $300 million in fines for these kickbacks under Medicare. In the second instance, over $150 million in fines.

So what does the Gingrich Medicare bill do about this? Sad to say, it makes it easier for this kind of kickback to take place. It reduces the likelihood that any medical provider is going to be found of any kind of criminal penalty as a result of this kind of waste and abuse.

Mr. Speaker, there should be things Democrats and Republicans agree on in this town when it comes to Medicare. The first and foremost of these should be that the seniors should not be ripped off, they should not pay more out-of-pocket for medical care than they ought to, but, more importantly is, taxpayers should not be ripped off.

Why in the world at a time when we are facing these deficits should we allow this Medicare system to become so lax and so flabby that, in fact, it is overcharging taxpayers to the tune of more than $18 billion a year? So along come my Republican friends, having sat down and struck a deal with the doctors of America, the AMA, and they are going to relax the standards when it comes to waste and fraud. That is not fair. I do not think anybody in this country believes that is fair. It may be a sweetheart deal, but it is one that should see the light of day.

Mr. Speaker, it should trouble everybody listening to this that the fact is we are going to consider the most significant change in Medicare this week by the Gingrich Republicans without the light of day, without an opportunity to bring these proposals before the public. We will hear about them, but I hope we hear about them before it is too late.

SUPPORT THE MEDICARE PRESERVATION ACT

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Under the Speaker's announced policy of May 12, 1995, the gentleman from Maryland [Mr. BARTLETT] is recognized during morning business for 5 minutes.

Mr. BARTLETT of Maryland. Mr. Speaker, this week, this Thursday, the House of Representatives will vote on a plan that will save and preserve the Medicare program for the current generation of senior citizens by introducing choice and competition into this 30-year-old health insurance program for the elderly and disabled.

Let me start by reviewing why these changes are necessary. Then I want to talk about some of these changes.

The trustees of Medicare, four of them appointed by President Clinton, three of them Cabinet Secretaries, warned America in their April annual report that the Medicare part A trust fund that pays hospital bills will go bankrupt by 2002.

Beginning next year, in 1996, for the first time in the history of Medicare, more money will be spent on senior's hospital bills than will come into the trust fund from the payroll taxes that are paid out of the wages of current workers.

If we do nothing, seniors' out-of-pocket costs would continue to climb and Medicare would be bankrupt in 7 years.

If we do nothing and Medicare goes bankrupt, the Government does not have the authority to pay for the hospital bills of any one senior, let alone the 37 million who now depend on it, and the millions more who will need it in the future.

Clearly doing nothing was not a responsible or acceptable option. The problem will not go away—it will only get worse.

Republicans stepped up to the challenge of saving Medicare because Medicare is a vital program that is too important for politics as usual. That is why we began in the spring and have continued throughout year to hold hearings here in Washington. In fact, between the House and the Senate there have been 50 hearings.

More importantly, we have held meetings back at home with seniors, doctors, nurses, hospital administrators, insurance companies, advocacy groups such as the American Association of Retired Persons—AARP.

Based on what the people in western Maryland told me and what other members learned from their constituents, we developed the Medicare Preservation Act.

The Medicare Preservation Act is based on two simple, but effective principles: First, choice for seniors, and second, competition among health care providers.

Choice and competition always do two things in our free enterprise system: Lower costs, and improve quality. That is what the Medicare Preservation Act is about. That is what the Medicare Preservation Act will do. It will give seniors the right to choose the health care and health care insurance plan that best meets their needs, not the Government's. It will give seniors the choice between traditional Medicare or new options.

If seniors do nothing, they will keep traditional Medicare. It will preserve seniors' right to keep their current doctor and hospital. I have two special concerns that the Medicare Preservation Act solves.

Rural areas of America, such as western Maryland, will greatly benefit from the new option of provider service networks—or PSN's. Provider service networks are collaborative partnerships between hospitals and doctors that will compete against insurance companies. Provider service networks already exist in western Maryland, but they are hampered by unbelievable amounts of redtape.

The unnecessary redtape is eliminated under the Medicare Preservation Act so that doctors and hospitals can concentrate on what they want to do and should do—take care of patients. That is why the Maryland State Medical Society supports the Medicare Preservation Act.

Seniors know that fraud is a big problem in Medicare. The GAO estimates 10 percent or so. The Heritage Foundation estimates up to 20 percent of Medicare costs—that is up to $32 billion is estimated to be lost to waste, fraud or abuse each year.

For instance, Mr. Charles Hardy of Cumberland, MD, found that Medicare was billed for services for his mother—after she died. The Medicare Preservation Act attacks waste, fraud, and abuse in two ways.

First, it sets up a rebate program that will award people like Mr. Hardy with 10 percent of savings over $1,000. Mr. Hardy got no reward for being diligent. People like Mr. Hardy deserve a reward for taking the time and trouble to look for and report mistakes they find in Medicare bills. Health care providers need to be aware that people like Mr. Hardy are paying attention.

Second, the new options for seniors that will be created by the Medicare Preservation Act means that doctors and hospitals, health management organizations, insurance companies, and provider service networks will have to compete for senior's business based on quality and price.

The Medicare Preservation Act is a real, honest, practical, long term, solution that will save Medicare because it is based upon the two key advantages that we seniors have.

We are smart because of the accumulated wisdom of our experience.

We have the time to pick the plan that is right for us.

I urge all of my colleagues to join me in supporting the Medicare Preservation Act.

SUPPRESSION OF POLITICAL ADVOCACY AND FREE SPEECH

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Under the Speaker's announced policy of May 12, 1995, the gentleman from Colorado [Mr. SKAGGS] is recognized during morning business for 5 minutes.

Mr. SKAGGS. Mr. Speaker, I would like to address for just a few minutes a proposal that is pending in the House that is generally referred to as the Istook amendment or the Istook-McIntosh proposal. What, one may ask, is that about? Well, this is an effort to set up a very, very complicated system for regulating, if one can believe this, regulating and really suppressing political speech and political advocacy in this democracy, which is based, of course, on freedom of political speech and association.

There are many, many aspects to this proposal, but it is often masqueraded, anyway, under the guise of ending welfare for lobbyists. And that may sound like a catchy and compelling concept until we realize who it is that we are talking about. This proposal is intended to get at such organizations as the American Red Cross, the United Church of Christ, the YMCA, the Girl Scouts, a whole range of mainstream American charitable and philanthropic organizations that happen, in addition to their regular activities in our communities, to be involved in some fashion or other in the debate and consideration in America of good public policy.

Many of these organizations, as are well known, are involved in a whole range of philanthropic and charitable activities in their communities in their States. They learn about the problems in our society from those activities, and, understandably, they exercise their first amendment rights to communicate those concerns to State and local and Federal policymakers and legislators. This proposal would put limits on what they can do to help us in the Congress or in the State capitals do a better job.

Why? Well, I cannot really answer that question. The proponents of this proposal seem to think that we should go back to a kind of 19th century view of charity, in which the only thing that is legitimate is to feed the poor, house the homeless, do the fundamental good works, which are clearly very, very important. But if they learn something from that, that might help inform Government to do its job better, well, that is out of line.

Mr. Speaker, this reminds me of our colleague from Georgia, Mr. GINGRICH's, comments about wanting to go back to a kind of 19th century orphanage way of dealing with children who do not have the advantages of having both parents at home.

Now, this is being called, this effort to get at the political activities of nonprofits and, for that matter, individuals and businesses that happen to be involved in the political life of this country, going after one of Washington's dirty little secrets; that is that somehow the idea that the YMCA or the Girl Scouts or the American Red Cross might be involved in political advocacy is an anathema.

Mr. Speaker, I think it may also have something to do with wanting to divert attention from one of the real dirty little secrets in town right now, which is the avoidance of dealing with real lobbying reform and real gift reform around this place. We are preoccupied in this proposal, again with, I think, a real diversionary tactic.

When I am home, I at least do not have a lot of people coming up to me saying, "Congressman, I wish you would rein in the Girl Scouts from being quite so active politically. It is just an outrage." Or commenting about how dangerous it is to American society to have the YMCA involved in the debate about child care.

But while we are off on this tangent, people are being distracted from the fundamental inaction in the House of Representatives on real, central, political reform here in the House; namely, getting to the activities of real lobbyists and their inappropriate ways of trying to influence decisions here through a whole range of extracurricular activities, whether it is gifts or meals or junkets or what have you.

Mr. Speaker, why haven't we taken up that legislation which most Members of the House arrived in January saying ought to be central to our reform agenda around here? Why are we not doing that, rather than messing around with this very, very trivializing and, I think, insulting diversion about wanting to make sure that the Girl Scouts do not have too much say in the political life of this country.

RECESS

The SPEAKER pro tempore (Mr. CLINGER). There being no further requests for morning business, pursuant to clause 12, rule I, the House will stand in recess until 2 p.m.

Accordingly (at 1 o'clock and 15 minutes p.m.), the House stood in recess until 2 p.m.

AFTER RECESS

The recess having expired, the House was called to order by the Speaker pro tempore (Mr. RIGGS) at 2 p.m.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Rev. James David Ford, D.D., offered the following prayer:

We pray, gracious God, for a clear vision of ourselves and of the world in which we live and work and have our being. Enable us to see ourselves as we truly are—created in Your image and marked by opportunities to be the people You would have us be—and also aware that we often miss the mark and lose the vision. We know, O God, that if we do not see the heavenly vision and miss the direction for our lives, our steps will wander and we will lose our way. Open our eyes, gracious God, so we see the path to freedom and opportunity and of service to others. This is our earnest prayer. Amen.

JOURNAL

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair has examined the Journal of the last day's proceedings and announced to the House his approval thereof.

Pursuant to clause 1 of rule I, the Journal stands approved.

Mr. LINDER. Mr. Speaker, pursuant to clause 1, rule I, I demand a vote on agreeing to the Speaker's approval of the Journal.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The question is on the Chair's approval of the Journal.

The question was taken; and the Speaker pro tempore announced that the ayes appeared to have it.

Mr. LINDER. Mr. Speaker, I object to the vote on the ground that a quorum is not present and make the point of order that a quorum is not present.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to clause 5, rule I, further proceedings on this question are postponed.

The point of no quorum is considered withdrawn.

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The gentleman from Ohio [Mr. TRAFICANT] will lead the House in the Pledge of Allegiance.

Mr. TRAFICANT led the Pledge of Allegiance as follows:

I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America, and to the Republic for which it stands, one nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair appoints, without objection, Mr. OBERSTAR as a conferee for consideration of House amendment No. 4 for the conference on the bill S. 395 to fill the vacancy resulting from the resignation from the House of the gentleman from California, Mr. Mineta.

There was no objection.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Clerk will notify the Senate of the change in conferees.

ACT NOW TO PRESERVE MEDICARE

(Mr. LINDER asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. LINDER. Mr. Speaker, Medicare is a lot like a 1965 model car. It is comfortable transportation, but it may not always be reliable. The 1965 model lacks the efficiency of the newer cars and is expensive to maintain.

The Medicare Preservation Act would allow folks to have the health care equivalent of a new car with air-conditioning, better gas mileage, or other options of their choice. The technology has improved and the new safety features are important. Of course, those who prefer the classic car are welcome to keep it.

I urge the American people and particularly our senior citizens to be informed consumers. Do not be hastily swayed by the advertising of AARP and other groups which depend on Government spending and bureaucracy for their livelihoods.

When individuals in my district in Georgia understand the facts of the Medicare crisis they soon realize that the Medicare Preservation Act is the best solution. They know we must act now to save Medicare for today's retirees and preserve it for the next generation.

SPECIAL INTERESTS WINNING IN REPUBLICAN MEDICARE PROPOSAL

(Ms. DELAURO asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend her remarks.)

Ms. DELAURO. Mr. Speaker, last week, we learned the extent to which the special interests are winning out over the public interests when it comes to the Republican Medicare proposal. Two groups came to Washington to protest the GOP plan to cut $270 billion from Medicare; one group got a $3 billion deal, the other got arrested.

Here is a photo, of 67-year-old Roberta Saxton as she is handcuffed by Capitol Police. Her crime? She came to the people's House to ask questions about plans to change her health care plan.

While Roberta was being arrested, the American Medical Association was treated to a different reception. They did not get handcuffed, they got handed a $3 billion deal in a private meeting with Speaker GINGRICH. As the New York Times editorialized this weekend in a piece entitled "Bribes for the Doctors"—the Speaker's concessions made an already bad Medicare bill substantially worse. This bill was never designed to give the elderly high quality health care. It is less likely to do so now.

MEDICARE PRESERVATION ACT WILL PRESERVE, PROTECT, AND STRENGTHEN MEDICARE

(Mr. JONES asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. JONES. Mr. Speaker, the Republican Party has boldly led the 104th Congress in the effort to save Medicare. However, these efforts are being challenged by Washington-based special interest groups who are receiving tax dollars.

The AFL-CIO has received $1.3 million in Federal grants but has spent $1.4 million attacking Medicare. The AARP has received $24 million and the National Council of Senior Citizens received $71 million. The American taxpayers should not be forced to fund lobbyists who intentionally mislead our elderly.

The Medicare Preservation Act will preserve Medicare for future generations, protect the program so that Medicare will stay as the beneficiaries know it to be, and strengthen it to provide coverage options, that empower citizens to choose the health plan that fits their needs.

Instead of helping save Medicare, these special interest groups are trying to hold back the progress that must be made.

IN MEMORY OF MEREDITH MILLER

(Mr. GIBBONS asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. GIBBONS. Mr. Speaker, we pause here today for just a moment to remember Meredith Miller.

Meredith Miller was murdered a year ago today as she was returning from studying to her residence in Virginia.

Meredith Miller was one of those wonderful kinds of persons. She was a very bright student, a wonderful giver. She gave of herself to many wonderful causes, and she was preparing to lead a really spectacular life.

Her murder was unusually brutal. It was a terrible loss of a wonderful life and a terrible loss to her mother and father and her brother and her kin and family and friends who reside in my congressional district.

We all loved Meredith Miller. She was the kind of person we want our daughters to be. She was the kind of American we want our fellow citizens to be.

Justice was done. The murderers were captured. The murderers were tried and sentenced, and they are now serving time in jail. But nothing can return to Meredith Miller her life or to her family their wonderful daughter and sister.

All murder is useless, but Meredith Miller's murder was useless, tragic, and a horrible crime.

Let us pause and remember Meredith Miller.

MEREDITH MILLER WILL ALWAYS BE REMEMBERED

(Mr. BUNN of Oregon asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. BUNN of Oregon. Mr. Speaker, before we start today's business, I would like all of my colleagues to help me remember a young woman dedicated to change. This young woman's story is one that all of my colleagues, on both sides of the aisle, should keep close to their hearts. Her name is Meredith Miller.

Meredith Miller was a student at the George Washington University. Exactly 1 year ago today, she was returning from a study session when she became the victim of a murder. Meredith was an honor student at Princeton University and was attending graduate school here working toward her Masters Degree. She was pursuing her dream, to make a positive change in this world, but her dream was taken from her.

A member of my staff was a friend of hers and has told me that she was an inspiration to all the people she touched. We can all learn something from the tragic events that took Mary away from her family and friends; do not take anything in this life for granted, live each day to its fullest, and give thanks to the Lord for all that He has given you.

We, as Members of Congress and leaders of this Nation, must work to keep our streets safe and bring criminals to justice. If the dreams of the next generation of leaders, of which Mary was certainly one, are to be fulfilled we must lay that foundation today. We are charged with the duty of ensuring that the hopes and dreams of our Nation's future leaders, such as Mary, can someday be reached.

Meredith, your friends and family want you to know that you may be gone but you will never be forgotten.

THE MILLION MAN MARCH

(Mr. TRAFICANT asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. TRAFICANT. Mr. Speaker, I attended the Million Man March. I thought it was the right thing to do.

Many of my constituents were there. They happened to be black. They also happened to be Americans, and I try to honestly be a Congressman for all people.

The Million Man March was a success. The message was powerful. The themes were responsible: self-responsibility, self-actualization, economic independence, morality, love, parenthood. Those are good messages for all America.

Mr. Speaker, in closing, there is a reality here. The Pope and Billy Graham are great human beings, but the Pope and Billy Graham and all of the religious leaders of the world will not solve the race problem in America. It is going to, in fact, require the help of all people. Congress should join in and commend that march. It was good for the country.

JOIN US IN SAVING MEDICARE

(Mr. METCALF asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. METCALF. Mr. Speaker, it would have been simple for the new Republican majority to ignore Medicare's impending bankruptcy, hide the problem, create a quick fix, and let a Congress 2 or 4 years down the road worry about our seniors. But that is not what the American people elected us to do. The people spoke clearly when they elected the new majority. They expect more from us because they realize those previously in control refused to accept the responsibility of leadership.

The people expect us to do what is right, and we will preserve and protect and strengthen Medicare for the next generation, not just for the next election. We will not play politics with this issue.

I urge all Members of this House to stop the scare tactics and join with us to save Medicare.

CRACK DOWN ON MEDICARE FRAUD

(Mr. BROWN of Ohio asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. BROWN of Ohio. Mr. Speaker, in an editorial on Friday, USA Today said:

Medicare reform invites doctors to bend the rules. Easing limits on physicians' self-referral is bound to cost the program billions it cannot afford.

USA Today called the deal cut between the American Medical Association and the Speaker a payoff to the AMA. It simply eliminates fraud by legalizing it.

Another newspaper said the Speaker's concessions made an already bad Medicare bill substantially worse. This bill was never designed to give the elderly high-quality care.

What concerns me most about that, Mr. Speaker, is that we can save, and this is a conservative estimate, we can save $100 billion over the next 7 years by going after fraud.

Instead of cutting Medicare $270 billion to give tax breaks to the wealthy, we should go after fraud aggressively. Crack down on fraud, that is what the Medicare debate should be about, not cutting Medicare, raising people's premiums and deductibles and copay $1,000 per person per year so we can give a tax break to the wealthiest Americans.

SETTING THE RECORD STRAIGHT ON MEDICARE

(Mr. LEWIS of Kentucky asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. LEWIS of Kentucky. Mr. Speaker, why are Democrats willing to destroy Medicare and then point an accusing finger at Republicans when we are working hard to save it?

The Democrats' arguments regarding the Republican Medicare plan simply make no sense. They say that Republicans want to destroy Medicare. They say we want to raise premiums and deductibles to pay for a tax cut for the rich. They say we want to close hospitals and deny children and babies access to decent health care. I resent those remarks, especially since my parents are 78 years old and depend on Medicare.

These claims are beyond ludicrous, and by even the most casual scrutiny, no politician in their right mind would ever support such draconian measures, especially when their friends and family would be harmed.

Let us set the record straight. Republicans will provide more choices for seniors. Slowing of Medicare growth cannot and will not be used to fund our tax cuts. Our plan preserves, protects and strengthens Medicare. It is supported by AMA and the U.S. Chamber of Commerce, among others. Come on, Democrats, start making sense. Think before you speak.

PRIVATE "HEARINGS"

(Miss COLLINS of Michigan asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend her remarks.)

Miss COLLINS of Michigan. Mr. Speaker, I rise to call attention to one of the many undemocratic practices being utilized by the majority party during this session of the Congress. As I am sure you are aware, certain Members of the U.S. House of Representatives—including some freshmen Members—have been claiming to have held something they carelessly refer to as hearings on legislation introduced—or to be introduced—in this Congress, when in fact some of these so-called hearings were conducted without notice to Members of the opposite political party. Others of these so-called hearings were nothing more than secret meetings with special interest groups, not hearings at all. Some of these same Members have then falsely claimed credit for holding an exaggerated number of hearings on certain important bills—including the bill designed to dismantle the Commerce Department, Medicare/Medicaid, and the Clean Water Act—when in reality they were conducting private meetings that arbitrarily denied participation in the legislative process to members of the Democratic party and all other concerned citizens who might be adversely impacted by such legislation. I think it is time to call a halt to such abuses of the legislative process.

VOTE "YES" FOR THE MEDICARE PRESERVATION ACT

(Mr. HEFLEY asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. HEFLEY. Mr. Speaker, Medicare is going bankrupt. It took a while, but my Democrat colleagues have finally accepted this fact, and they are now presenting a plan to reform Medicare. This afternoon, I would like to compare their plan with ours.

The Republican plan provides a long-term solution. The Democrat plan ignores the root of Medicare's problems and simply postpones Medicare's bankruptcy for 3 years.

The Republican plan focuses on accountability—it's a fair and realistic plan. The Democrat plan is the epitome of politics as usual—it offers nonsolutions that fail to preserve the program.

In short, the Republican plan saves Medicare from bankruptcy. The Democrat plan saves Democrats for the next election.

Mr. Speaker, the list of major senior groups, medical associations, and others supporting the Republican plan grows every day. I urge my colleagues to vote to save Medicare. Vote "yes" for the Medicare Preservation Act.

TAKE MEDICARE PLAN TO THE TRUSTEES

(Mrs. SCHROEDER asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend her remarks.)

Mrs. SCHROEDER. Mr. Speaker, I think as we talk about Medicare, the real issue is the trustees. We have some nonpoliticians here, trustees, who oversee Medicare. As we hear people on the other side accusing us of MediScare or that their program is better, or whatever they want to say, all I want to say to them is please take your plan to the trustees and see if it fits what the trustees have asked for.

When they were arresting seniors last week, one senior, as her handcuffs were being put on, looked up at the police officer and said: "Do you have a mother? Why would you do this to me?"

Well, I think all of us do not want to scare our senior citizens, our mothers, or anyone else. The ones they will believe in is the trustees. We will take our plan to the trustees. We dare them to take their plan to the trustees and get their seal of approval.

PRESERVE AND STRENGTHEN MEDICARE

(Mr. KINGSTON asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. KINGSTON. Mr. Speaker, it is interesting the previous speaker would say that, take your plan to the trustees. They are a bunch of politicians, Reich, Shalala, and Rubin, all appointed by President Clinton. As the gentlewoman well knows, not one of them is an elected Member of Congress. I do not think Members of Congress need to go around pandering to Clinton administration trustees, saying would you please accept our plan. You are all good Democrats.

As the gentlewoman knows, Medicare is a 1964 Blue Cross plan. I want to do something for my mom. I do not want her to drive around in a 1964 Chevrolet Biscayne that we used to have when I was a kid.

We are trying to do what I hope the Democrats are trying to do: Protect, preserve, and strengthen Medicare. We want your help. I agree with the gentlewoman it should not be partisan. It bothers me when I hear countless speech after speech, partisan flame throwing back and forth.

We have to decrease the inflation rate. Medicare is up to an 11-percent inflation rate. We have to bring it down to the 4- to 6-percent range. We have been accused of cutting Medicare, but we are going from $4,800 to $6,700 per recipient. We want seniors to have the options and choices on physicians, and so forth.

Mrs. SCHROEDER. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman yield?

Mr. KINGSTON. I yield to the gentlewoman from Colorado.

Mrs. SCHROEDER. Mr. Speaker, I would say for my mom, I would rather have trustees look at it rather than Members of Congress.

Mr. KINGSTON. Mr. Speaker, reclaiming my time, my mom does not trust them. She trusts me.

DO NOT CUT MEDICARE FOR A TAX CUT

(Mr. HILLIARD asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. HILLIARD. Mr. Speaker, the Republican plan on Medicare is a falsehood on the people of this country. It is detrimental to all of those persons who are above 60. It is detrimental to everything that America should stand for.

We talked about trustees a minute ago, Mr. Speaker. Every person in this country should have trust in this body, trust to do what is right, especially for those persons who have worked all of their lives and who in the twilight of their years see this body snatch from them their Medicare, their Medicaid benefits, that they are due because of trust that they place in this body. They trust us to do the right thing.

Mr. Speaker, we have failed to do the right thing because we have taken money, we are attempting to take money from Medicare just to support a tax cut for rich.

CORRECTING TECHNICAL ERRORS IN ENROLLMENT OF H.R. 1594, ECONOMICALLY TARGETED IN- VESTMENTS IN CONNECTION WITH EMPLOYEE BENEFIT PLANS

Mr. GOODLING. Mr. Speaker, I offer a concurrent resolution (H. Con. Res. 108) to correct technical errors in the enrollment of the bill, H.R. 1594, and I ask unanimous consent for its immediate consideration.

The SPEAKER pro tempore (Mr. RIGGS). Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Pennsylvania?

Mr. OWENS. Mr. Speaker, reserving the right to object, I would ask the gentleman from Pennsylvania [Mr. GOODLING] to explain his request.

Mr. GOODLING. Mr. Speaker, during consideration of the bill H.R. 1594, the Committee of the Whole adopted an amendment offered by Mr. TRAFICANT, which we intended to be language contained in the House Report 104-238. Unfortunately, the language offered was not identical to the House report; hence, this resolution would instruct a correction of the House-passed bill.

Mr. OWENS. Mr. Speaker, further reserving my right to object, I rise in support of the unanimous-consent report.

Mr. Speaker, I withdraw my reservation of objection.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Pennsylvania [Mr. GOODLING]?

There was no objection.

The Clerk read the concurrent resolution, as follows:

H. CON. RES. 108

Resolved by the House of Representatives (the Senate concurring). That, in the enrollment of the bill (H.R. 1594) to place restrictions on the promotion by the Department of Labor and other Federal agencies and instrumentalities of economically targeted investments in connection with employee benefit plans, the Clerk of the House of Representatives shall, in section 5 of the bill, strike "Nothing" and all that follows through the end of such section and insert the following: "Nothing in this Act is intended to affect the ability of the Department of Labor to issue advisory opinions, information letters, technical releases, prohibited transaction exemptions, or other pronouncements interpreting and applying the fiduciary responsibility rules of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 in relation to particular factual situations, or exempting specific transactions from the prohibited transaction provisions of such Act (pursuant to sections 406 and 408 of such Act (29 U.S.C. 1106, 1108)).".

The concurrent resolution was agreed to.

A motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

ANNOUNCEMENT BY THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to the provisions of clause 5 of rule I, the Chair announces that he will postpone further proceedings today on each motion to suspend the rules on which a recorded vote or the yeas and nays are ordered or on which the vote is objected to under clause 4 of rule XV. Such rollcall votes, if postponed, will be taken after debate has concluded on all motions to suspend the rules, but not before 5 p.m. today.

REVERSING SUPREME COURT DECISION IN ADAMS FRUIT VERSUS BARRETT

Mr. GOODLING. Mr. Speaker, I move to suspend the rules and pass the bill (H.R. 1715) respecting the relationship between workers' compensation benefits and the benefits available under the Migrant and Seasonal Agricultural Worker Protection Act as amended.

"(4)(A) the defendant violated a safety standard prescribed by the Secretary under section 401(b),

"(B) such safety violation resulted in an injury or death described in paragraph (1)(B), and

"(C) the defendant at the time of the violation of section 401(b) also was—

"(i) an unregistered farm labor contractor in violation of section 101(a), or

"(ii) a person who utilized the services of a farm labor contractor of the type specified in clause (i) without taking reasonable steps to determine that the farm labor contractor possessed a valid certificate of registration authorizing the performance of the farm labor contracting activities which the contractor was requested or permitted to perform with the knowledge of such person, the court shall award not more than $10,000 per plaintiff per violation with respect to whom the court made the finding described in paragraph (1), (2), (3), or (4), except that multiple infractions of a single provision of this Act shall constitute only one violation

(b) EFFECTIVE DATE.—The amendment made by subsection (a) shall apply to all cases in which a final judgment has not been entered.

SEC. 3. TOLLING OF STATUTE OF LIMITATIONS.

Section 504 of the Migrant and Seasonal Agricultural Worker Protection Act (29 U.S.C. 1854), as amended by section 2, is amended by adding after subsection (e) the following:

"(f) If it is determined under a State workers' compensation law that the workers' compensation law is not applicable to a claim for bodily injury or death of a migrant or seasonal agricultural worker, the statute of limitations for bringing an action for actual damages for such injury or death under subsection (a) shall be tolled for the period during which the claim for such injury or death under such State workers' compensation law was pending. The statute of limitations for an action for other actual damages, statutory damages, or equitable relief arising out of the same transaction or occurrence as the injury or death of the migrant or seasonal agricultural worker shall be tolled for the period during which the claim for such injury or death was pending under the State workers' compensation law."

SEC. 4. DISCLOSURE OF WORKERS' COMPENSATION COVERAGE.

(a) MIGRANT WORKERS.—Section 201(a) of the Migrant and Seasonal Agricultural Worker Protection Act (29 U.S.C. 1821(a)) is amended by striking "and" at the end of paragraph (6), by striking the period at the end of paragraph (7) and inserting "; and", and by adding after paragraph (7) the following:

"(8) whether State workers' compensation insurance is provided, and, if so, the name of the State workers' compensation insurance carrier, the name of the policyholder of such insurance, the name and the telephone number of each person who must be notified of an injury or death, and the time period within which such notice must be given.

Compliance with the disclosure requirement of paragraph (8) for a migrant agricultural worker may be met if such worker is given a photocopy of any notice regarding workers' compensation insurance required by law of the State in which such worker is employed. Such worker shall be given such disclosure regarding workers' compensation at the time of recruitment or if sufficient information is unavailable at that time, at the earliest practicable time but in no event later than the commencement of work."

(b) SEASONAL WORKERS.—Section 301(a)(1) of the Migrant and Seasonal Agricultural Worker Protection Act (29 U.S.C. 1831(a)(1)) is amended by striking "and" at the end of subparagraph (F), by striking the period at the end of subparagraph (G) and inserting "; and", and by adding after subparagraph (G) the following:

Compliance with the disclosure requirement of subparagraph (H) may be met if such worker is given, upon request, a photocopy of any notice regarding workers' compensation insurance required by law of the State in which such worker is employed."

(c) EFFECTIVE DATE.—The amendments made by subsections (a) and (b) shall take effect upon the expiration of 90 days after the date final regulations are issued by the Secretary of Labor to implement such amendments.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to the rule, the gentleman from Pennsylvania [Mr. GOODLING] will be recognized for 20 minutes, and the gentleman from New York [Mr. OWENS] will be recognized for 20 minutes.

The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Pennsylvania [Mr. GOODLING].

Mr. GOODLING. Mr. Speaker, I yield myself such time as I may consume.

Mr. Speaker, H.R. 1715 clarifies the relationship between workers' compensation benefits and the private right of action available under Migrant and Seasonal Agricultural Workers Protection Act [MSPA].

H.R. 1715 reverses the Supreme Court's ruling in Adams Fruit Company, Inc. versus Barrett. In that case the Supreme Court held that agricultural workers covered by MSPA could sue for actual damages over injury or death under the private right of action provided under the act, even though the workers are covered for those injuries under State workers' compensation law. In so doing, the Supreme Court rejected the principle of the exclusivity of workers' compensation, which is a fundamental rationale and underpinning for workers' compensation in this country.

As a result of this decision, many agricultural employers in this country face liability for injuries suffered by farm workers even though they have provided workers' compensation coverage for these workers. At the same time, and because not all States require workers' compensation coverage of farm workers, the dual liability of agricultural employers above and beyond workers' compensation insurance serves to discourage more agricultural employers from providing workers' compensation coverage for farm workers.

Mr. Speaker, I introduced H.R. 1715 in May, along with a bipartisan group of cosponsors: Representatives FAZIO, BALLENGER, ANDREWS, FAWELL, STEN-

HOLM, HOEKSTRA, THURMAN, FUNDERBURK, and DOOLEY.

The Economic and Educational Opportunities Committee voted to report H.R. 1715 as introduced on July 22. As introduced, H.R. 1715 was a single section bill that simply reversed the Adams Fruit decision and provided that where State workers' compensation is applicable and coverage is provided, workers' compensation shall be the farm workers exclusive remedy and the employer's sole liability under MSPA for bodily injury or death.

Subsequent to the committee's passage of the bill, several weeks of intensive negotiation took place among the staffs of Republican and Democratic Members along with representatives of national agricultural employer groups and farm workers organizations. As a result of those negotiations, I am today offering a substitute to H.R. 1715 which has the support of not only myself and the other cosponsors of H.R. 1715, but of Members who had concerns with the original bill.

The substitute bill has five sections. Section 1 is similar to the language of the original H.R. 1715, and reverses the Adams Fruit decision. Section 2 provides for increased statutory damages under MSPA under certain limited circumstances described in the bill. Section 3 provides for tolling of the statute of limitations on actions brought under MSPA during the time period in which a claim under State workers' compensation is pending. Section 4 requires disclosure of information regarding workers' compensation coverage to migrant or seasonal agricultural workers. Section 5 requires the Department of Labor to determine the level of liability insurance required of employers engaged in transportation of migrant or seasonal agricultural workers.

I believe that the concerns with this legislation as it was passed by the Economic and Educational Opportunities Committee have been addressed in the substitute that is being offered today. I want to especially thank several Members for their efforts and willingness to work with us in forging this bipartisan agreement: Mr. CLAY, Mr. OWENS, Mr. BERMAN, and Mr. MILLER, along with the group of original cosponsors of H.R. 1715 that I have already mentioned.

For those who may later be reading these comments, I also want to call attention to the fact that a more extensive joint statement of legislative intent reflecting the understandings of myself, Mr. CLAY, Mr. BALLENGER, and Mr. OWENS regarding this substitute to H.R. 1715 is printed in the CONGRESSIONAL RECORD of Friday, October 13, 1995.

It is my hope and expectation that we will quickly pass H.R. 1715 today and that the Senate will likewise pass it on a bipartisan basis and send the bill to the President for his signature. Again, I want to thank many Members from both sides, and particularly Mr. CLAY, Mr. OWENS, Mr. BERMAN, and Mr.

FAZIO for their willingness to work with us to reach this bipartisan agreement on this legislation.

Mr. Speaker, I reserve the balance of my time.

Mr. OWENS. Mr. Speaker, I yield myself such time as I may consume.

Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of the amendment offered by the gentleman from Pennsylvania [Mr. GOODLING]. I want to express my appreciation to the distinguished chairman of the Economic and Educational Opportunities Committee, Mr. GOODLING, and to the chairman of the Subcommittee on Work Force Protections, Mr. BALLENGER, for their willingness to seek consensus with the ranking member of our committee, Mr. CLAY, and myself on this legislation. I also want to acknowledge the efforts of three gentlemen from California, Mr. MILLER, Mr. BERMAN, and Mr. FAZIO. The efforts of all three gentlemen have been instrumental in the development of the amendment before us.

The legislation before us is a compromise. Those of us who have sought to represent the interests of farm workers have had to make difficult concessions. Nevertheless, unlike the bill reported by committee, the amendment before us also contains important provisions to ensure that H.R. 1715 reflects the interests of farmworkers as well as growers. Among other provisions, the amendment provides for notification of farmworkers of their rights under State workers' compensation laws, tolls the statute of limitations while State workers' compensation claims are pending, and enhances statutory damages for certain egregious violations of the Migrant and Seasonal Agricultural Workers Protection Act. I refer my colleagues to page E1943 of the CONGRESSIONAL RECORD of last Friday, October 13, in which the gentleman from Pennsylvania [Mr. GOODLING] placed a definitive explanation of the amendment before us.

I fully support the amendment of the gentleman from Pennsylvania and believe this legislation now merits the support of my colleagues. I urge the House to suspend the rules and pass H.R. 1715.

Mr. Speaker, I reserve the balance of my time.

□ 1430

Mr. GOODLING. Mr. Speaker, I yield such time as he may consume to the gentleman from Florida [Mr. CANADY].

Mr. CANADY of Florida. Mr. Speaker, I yield to the gentleman from North Carolina.

(Mr. BALLENGER asked and was given permission to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. BALLENGER. Mr. Speaker, I strongly support H.R. 1715, a bill to clarify the relationship between workers compensation benefits and the private right of action for certain job-related injuries under the Migrant and Seasonal Agricultural Worker Protection Act [MSPA]. In the 1990 decision on the Adams Fruit case, the Supreme Court interpreted MSPA to provide for a private right of action for certain job-related injuries, even if the individual was covered by workers compensation at the time of the injury.

H.R. 1715 would reverse the Supreme Court's ruling, which essentially permits migrant and seasonal farmworkers to seek dual remedies. Agricultural employers could be exposed to potentially enormous liability for damages, in spite of the fact that they have contributed into the workers compensation system. The purpose of workers compensation is to provide a prompt and reasonable remedy to the injured worker without delay or expense. Employers pay into workers compensation programs to avoid being exposed to additional liability. Moreover, in States where agricultural employers are not required to provide workers compensation for migrant and seasonal farmworkers, the Supreme Court's decision may act as a disincentive for employers to provide coverage for those workers.

I urge my colleagues to support Chairman GOODLING's substitute amendment to H.R. 1715. This package of legislative changes to MSPA is fully supported by agricultural employers and farmworker organizations. Not only will this amendment permanently reverse the Adams Fruit decision, it also adds provisions to MSPA which encourage employers to provide safe transportation for farmworkers. This bipartisan agreement has the support of Members on both sides of the aisle. I commend the chairman of the committee, Mr. GOODLING, as well as Mr. CLAY and Mr. OWENS for their success in forging a compromise on this important issue.

Mr. CANADY of Florida. Mr. Speaker, let me begin by thanking Chairman GOODLING for allowing me the opportunity to address the House in support of H.R. 1715, a bill to overturn the Supreme Court's decision in Adams Fruit versus Barrett. And I also want to thank you for all your hard work and dedication in bringing this measure before us today.

Mr. Chairman, in 1990 the Supreme Court, in handing down the Adams Fruit decision, held that injured farmworkers may bring a private right of action under the Migrant and Seasonal Agricultural Worker Protection Act. This was allowed even though the workers had already received workers compensation benefits for those same injuries. The implications of this decision have been quite troubling.

First, this decision undermines the exclusivity of workers compensation as a remedy—both in the context of agricultural law and beyond. The workers comp system was designed to be a trade in which employees forego the right to a tort remedy in exchange for expeditious relief without questions of liability or contributory negligence. The Adams Fruit decision does an end-run around this important bargain and opens up employers to costly litigation and open-ended liability for workplace injuries they thought they were insuring themselves against.

Second, it is important to note that farmworkers will also suffer if the Court's decision is allowed to stand. The Adams Fruit decision removes an incentive for agricultural employers to provide workers compensation coverage. In several States, farmworker coverage on workers comp remains optional. The Court's decision provides employers in those States with little reason to exercise that option. For injured farmworkers, lengthy, costly, and uncertain suits are no substitute for the quick and dependable relief of workers compensation.

The bill before us today, Mr. Chairman, ensures that the integrity of this crucial remedy remains available to all farmworkers and all employers. By reversing Adams Fruit and reaffirming the exclusivity of workers compensation, this legislation returns us to Congress' original intent in enacting the statute's current remedial scheme.

This bill is good for agricultural workers and it is good for agricultural employers. I urge my colleagues to support this measure and I look forward to seeing this bill passed by the House today.

Mr. OWENS. Mr. Speaker, I yield such time as he may consume to the gentleman from California [Mr. MILLER].

Mr. MILLER of California. Mr. Speaker, I thank the gentleman for yielding me time, and I rise in support of the compromise version of H.R. 1715, a bill that addresses the Supreme Court decision in the Adams Fruit case.

The bill as originally introduced would have prohibited farmworkers from both receiving workers compensation and suing in court for violations under MSPA [the Migrant and Seasonal Agricultural Worker Protection Act]. The compromise bill we are considering today would achieve that purpose, while at the same time providing some needed safeguards for farmworkers and some deterrence to would-be violators.

I offered in committee an amendment to strengthen the deterrence in the bill by addressing egregious violations of the law, and I am satisfied that the essence of my amendment was incorporated in the compromise version of this bill.

The bill changes the current statutory damages from $500 dollars to $10,000 dollars for egregious cases in which a worker was injured or killed in an accident where alcohol or drugs were involved, where an employer has a history of violations, where the employer willfully makes a vehicle dangerous, or where the employer uses an unregistered farm-labor contractor.

The increase in statutory damages is very much needed to provide a deterrence against violations. As we all know, farmworkers are some of the most exploited workers in America: kids are used in the fields in clear violation of child labor laws; workers are crammed into grossly unsafe, uninsured vehicles that have no seats or safety belts and are injured, maimed and killed; work-site sanitation is poor or nonexistent; and wages are skimmed by unscrupulous farm-labor contractors.

Enhanced penalties in H.R. 1715 provides needed deterrence to some of these violations, and I therefore urge my colleagues to support this legislation.

Again, Mr. Speaker, I thank the gentleman from New York [Mr. OWENS], for yielding and for his help during these negotiations, and I also thank the chairman of the committee, the gentleman from Pennsylvania [Mr. GOODLING].

Mr. GOODLING. Mr. Speaker, I have no further requests for time, and I yield back the balance of my time.

Mr. OWENS. Mr. Speaker, I yield such time as he may consume to the gentleman from California [Mr. FAZIO].

Mr. FAZIO of California. Mr. Speaker, I thank my friend for yielding. This is a very fair and balanced bill. It has taken a number of years to get calibrated so that we can pass it on suspension.

I want to thank the gentleman from Pennsylvania, Mr. GOODLING, and the gentleman from Missouri, Mr. BILL CLAY, and the gentleman from New York, Mr. MAJOR OWENS, and the gentleman from North Carolina, Mr. CASS BALLENGER, for seeing this effort through to conclusion this year. But I also want to thank my friends, the gentlemen from California, Messrs. HOWARD BERMAN, GEORGE MILLER, and CAL COOLEY, for working so diligently in the last Congress and on into this one to find the right balance so that we could come to closure on this very important issue for agricultural employers and for farmworkers.

Leon Panetta, Rick Lehman, and Austin Murphy, former Members of this body, contributed greatly during their tenure here. In fact, this is the result of 5 years of discussions, but it is a bill that needed to be enacted because it reverses a Supreme Court decision in the Adams Fruit case that unfairly placed agricultural employees in the United States and employers in an untenable position.

Mr. Speaker, agricultural employers were the only people who were eligible both to be sued in court under the tort liability system and required to provide worker's compensation coverage so that they could be sued for workplace injuries by their employees. That double jeopardy needed to be repaired, and, in doing so, we have written a bill that also benefits farmworkers by removing any disincentives to supplying worker's compensation, also encouraging employers to maintain safe transportation practices, the area that was most at issue in terms of these kinds of problems.

Mr. Speaker, it did so by creating four new areas where increased damages are available for transportation related violations. It gives the Secretary of Labor authority to establish appropriate levels of vehicle insurance, given the fact that the Interstate Commerce Commission levels have made it difficult for some involved in farmworker transportation to obtain insurance.

This is a bill that will make sure that farmworkers truly get to exercise their remedy under workers compensation. I think it is a good bill. It certainly is long overdue. I would hope the administration would support it and the President sign it into law. I would ask my colleagues in both parties to sign off on what the gentleman from New York, Mr. OWENS, has described as a cease-fire in the war between the sides on this committee and, I think, a fine example of bipartisanship.

Mr. Speaker, I rise today in support of H.R. 1715, a bill that would reverse the effect of the U.S. Supreme Court in the Adams Fruit Company versus Barrett case. The Supreme Court held that an action for damages under the migrant and seasonal agricultural worker protection was preserved and could be maintained by injured farm workers, even though the farm workers were covered under State workers' compensation for the same injuries suffered in the course of employment.

I commend Chairman BILL GOODLING and ranking member BILL CLAY of the Economic and Educational Opportunities Committee for bringing this bill to the floor along with ranking member MAJOR OWENS and Chairman CASS BALLENGER of the Subcommittee on Workforce Protections. HOWARD BERMAN has also played a leading role in crafting this compromise. But it is also some measure of how long we have been at this that I also want to recognize three former members—Leon Panetta and Rick Lehman from my home State of California, and former subcommittee chairman Austin Murphy—all three of whom were instrumental in moving forward with this compromise during the last Congress.

This bill is the product of 5 years of extensive discussion between representatives of agriculture and farmworkers from throughout the United States. It is a balanced bill, stemming from two hearings before the former Education and Labor Committee, one of which I participated in in California along with then chairman Austin Murphy and my California colleagues CAL DOOLEY, Rick Lehman, HOWARD BERMAN, and GEORGE MILLER. A more recent hearing was held this past summer here in Washington. So the issues addressed in this legislation have been thoroughly considered by the committee and the problems raised are addressed in a balanced way that reflects the realities of the agricultural workplace.

The cornerstone of the bill is the reversal of the Adams Fruit decision, which unfairly places agricultural employers throughout the United States in the position of being the only employers in America who can be mandated under State law to provide workers' compensation—it is mandatory in my own State of California—yet still be sued for unlimited damages in State court for the workplace injuries already compensated under the workers' compensation system.

The decision by the Supreme Court in 1990 was very unfortunate. I felt it was important to respond quickly and strongly, and we temporarily reversed the decision in 1992 as part of the legislative branch appropriations bill, Public Law 192–392.

The legislation before us makes permanent what we accomplished in 1992. Workers' compensation will now be the exclusive remedy for workplace injuries where workers' compensation is provided. Agricultural employers will now be treated the same as all other employers in this country. If workers' compensation is not provided, however, workers will have the right to sue for actual damages under the Migrant and Seasonal Agricultural Worker Protection Act [MSPA].

In addition to providing equity to agricultural employers, this legislation also benefits farmworkers. Because of the transient nature of migrant farmworkers, workers' compensation is very beneficial to them because it provides immediate medical, disability, or death benefits. Without such benefits they would have to sue in a location far from their homes and wait with uncertainty for several years before the court system resolved their claim. Yet with the Adams Fruit decision, agricultural employers in a number of States which make the providing of workers' compensation by employers voluntary have no incentive to provide it, because they still can be sued. But as a result of this legislation, employers will be encouraged to provide workers' compensation to farmworkers.

This bill will also encourage employers to maintain safe transportation practices for their workers. It elevates the statutory damages available to migrant and seasonal farmworkers if those subject to MSPA engage ignore the existing transportation safety requirements of MSPA. The bill creates four new areas where increased damages are available for transportation-related violations. Whatever deterrence to unsafe practices was created by the Adams Fruit decision will be offset more than adequately by the availability of the new transportation-safety provisions.

Finally, the bill gives the Secretary of Labor the authority to establish the appropriate levels of vehicle insurance coverage to be required under MSPA. Currently, the Secretary has to follow ICC-mandated levels. The ICC levels have made it difficult for those involved in farmworker transportation to obtain insurance, thus exposing them to liability and preventing farmworkers from getting needed protection. This provision will allow the Secretary of Labor to balance the need to protect farmworkers' health and safety against undue burdens to agricultural employers and associations and farm labor contractors.

In short, this legislation is an excellent product. It treats agricultural employers the same as other employers, it encourages the provision of workers' compensation to farmworkers, and it encourages transportation safety—a source of many injury claims arising under MSPA. It is evenhanded and fair. While we have taken a long time getting here, the final product is worth the wait. I urge my colleagues to support this bill.

I will also ask the President to sign it, and I believe the administration has given a strong indication in this regard. Secretary of Labor Robert Reich sent a letter to the Economic and Educational Opportunities Committee during its hearing on H.R. 1715, the predecessor to this bill, this past summer and indicated his support for the intent of the legislation in reversing the Adams Fruit decision. He also indicated that farmworker reforms should be a part of it, and the committee has responded to his request. I believe the bill meets the Secretary's and the administration's concerns. It reverses Adams Fruit and contains farmworker reforms. I urge my colleagues to support this long and bipartisan effort, and I look forward to seeing it signed into law.

Mr. OWENS. Mr. Speaker, I yield such time as he may consume to the gentleman from California [Mr. BERMAN].

(Mr. BERMAN asked and was given permission to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. BERMAN. Mr. Speaker, I want to thank the chairman of the committee and my colleagues, the gentleman from New York, Mr. OWENS, and the gentleman from Missouri, BILL CLAY, for all of their help in bringing us to this point. I want to make a few comments.

This bill is a very different bill than the bill that was originally introduced or the bill that came out of the Committee on Economic and Educational Opportunity, or whatever that committee is now called. There are a couple of points to make.

First of all, Mr. Speaker, my colleague from Virginia kept talking about the Adams Fruit decision as if it was wrong, because State law somehow would, because State law somehow would preempt Federal law; that is the Migrant and Seasonal Agricultural Worker Protection Act. The court decision was the recognition, everyone knows, that Federal law preempts State law.

On the other hand, Mr. Speaker, there were many weaknesses in that Federal law and some of which we have addressed. This is no longer a bill that allows a grower in a State which has no coverage for farm workers or only partial coverage for farm workers or only voluntary coverage for farm workers to avoid workers compensation and also to immunize himself from any lawsuit. That particular issue has been affected and dealt with through the amendments.

It is also no longer a bill which leaves the inadequate penalty structures of the existing Migrant and Seasonal Agricultural Worker Protection Act, because, in the context of this particular Congress, and in this situation, this seemed to me like, and others, like the best possible arrangement that we could get in terms of the two different needs.

Mr. Speaker, I support this compromise and urge its adoption.

Mr. GOODLING. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman yield?

Mr. BERMAN. I yield to the gentleman from Pennsylvania.

Mr. GOODLING. Mr. Speaker, we are called the Golden Opportunity Committee.

Mr. BERMAN. I assume golden not having any reference to age?

Mr. GOODLING. Grimes Golden, Golden Delicious.

Mr. BERMAN. Mr. Speaker, I thank the gentleman for his correction of my earlier remarks and yield back the balance of my time.

Mr. OWENS. Mr. Speaker, I have no further requests for time, and I yield back the balance of my time.

The SPEAKER pro tempore (Mr. RIGGS). The question is on the motion offered by the gentleman from Pennsylvania [Mr. GOODLING] that the House suspend the rules and pass the bill, H.R. 1715, as amended.

The question was taken; and (two-thirds having voted in favor thereof) the rules were suspended and the bill, as amended, was passed.

A motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

GENERAL LEAVE

Mr. GOODLING. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that all Members may have 5 legislative days in which to revise and extend their remarks on H.R. 1715, a bill to reverse the Supreme Court's decision on Adams Fruit versus Barrett.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Pennsylvania?

There was no objection.

HARRY KIZIRIAN POST OFFICE BUILDING

Mr. MCHUGH. Mr. Speaker, I move to suspend the rules and pass the bill (H.R. 1606) to designate the United States Post Office building located at 24 Corliss Street, Providence, RI, as the "Harry Kizirian Post Office Building."

The Clerk read as follows:

H.R. 1606

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

SECTION 1. DESIGNATION.

The United States Post Office building located at 24 Corliss Street, Providence, Rhode Island, shall be known and designated as the "Harry Kizirian Post Office Building".

SEC. 2. REFERENCES.

Any reference in a law, map, regulation, document, paper, or other record of the United States to the United States Post Office building referred to in section 1 shall be deemed to be a reference to the "Harry Kizirian Post Office Building".

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to the rule, the gentleman from New York [Mr. MCHUGH] and the gentlewoman from Michigan [Miss COLLINS] each will be recognized for 20 minutes.

The Chair recognizes the gentleman from New York [Mr. MCHUGH].

Mr. MCHUGH. Mr. Speaker, I yield myself such time as I may consume.

Mr. Speaker, the Committee on Government Reform and Oversight voted favorably on the measure before us. Congressman REED of Rhode Island introduced H.R. 1606 and was joined by his State delegation in cosponsoring his bill, as required by committee policy. This legislation designates the main U.S. Post Office in Providence, RI, be named the "Harry Kizirian Post Office."

The measure before us honors Mr. Kizirian, a World War II marine veteran and former Providence Postmaster. Mr. Kizirian is Rhode Island's most decorated living veteran and was a career postal worker who held the position of Providence Postmaster for 25 years until his retirement.

Mr. Speaker, I urge our colleagues to support H.R. 1606, a bill which would name a Post Office after the postal employee who served as Postmaster at the facility for 25 years.

Mr. Speaker, I reserve the balance of my time.

Miss COLLINS of Michigan. Mr. Speaker, I yield myself such time as I may consume.

Mr. Speaker, I again join my colleague and chairman of the Subcommittee on the Postal Service in support of H.R. 1606, legislation naming the U.S. Post Office, located at 24 Corliss Street in Providence, RI as the, "Harry Kizirian Post Office Building."

It gives me great pleasure to acknowledge Mr. Kizirian. He retired from the Post Office as the Postmaster of the facility being named after him and is the most decorated World War II veteran in Providence.

Mr. Speaker, I yield such time as he may consume to my colleague, the gentleman from Rhode Island, Mr. JACK REED, sponsor of the bill.

Mr. REED. Mr. Speaker, I would first like to thank Chairman MCHUGH and the ranking member, Representative COLLINS of the Subcommittee on Postal Service and Chairman CLINGER of the Government Reform and Oversight Committee for helping me bring this bill to the floor. I would also like to thank my colleague from Rhode Island, Mr. KENNEDY, who cosponsored this bill with me, and Senators CHAFFEE and PELL, who have introduced an identical bill in the Senate.

This bill would designate the main U.S. Post Office in Providence, RI, as the "Harry Kizirian Post Office." Because some of you may not know Harry, I would like to tell you a little about this outstanding Rhode Island citizen.

Harry Kizirian is the most decorated living veteran in Rhode Island. On Okinawa, he was severely wounded while leading an infantry assault. For his extraordinary heroism, Harry was awarded the Navy Cross, the Bronze Star with V Device for Valor, the Purple Heart with a Gold Star, and the Rhode Island Cross.

When Harry returned to the United States, he immediately went to work at the main post office in Providence where he had worked during high school to support his widowed mother. Displaying the same commitment and teamwork he showed on the frontlines at Okinawa, he worked his way up to an appointment as the Postmaster. He was confirmed by the U.S. Senate in 1961, and held the position of Postmaster for 25 years.

Throughout his career with the Postal Service, Harry also devoted much of his time to the community, serving on numerous boards and committees. Harry served on the board of directors for Butler Hospital, Big Brothers of Rhode Island, Rhode Island Blue Cross, the Rhode Island Heart and Lung Associations, and numerous others.

Harry and his wife, Hazel, also successfully raised a wonderful family.

They have five children: JoAnne, Thomas, Janice, Shakay, and Richard; four grandchildren: Rebecca, Thomas, Joseph, and Janice; and three step-grandsons: Dylan, Collin, and Matthew.

Harry has served his country in every capacity: in the military, as a civil servant, as a devoted husband and father, and as a loyal American. Harry Kizirian is a source of inspiration for the young and old, and he is a particularly cherished member of Rhode Island's proud and vibrant Armenian community.

This bill would commemorate his generosity and valor for future generations, and it would pay tribute to a remarkable gentleman who has given so much to his Nation, his community, and his family. I urge my colleagues to join me in honoring Harry Kizirian by supporting this bill.

Miss COLLINS of Michigan. Mr. Speaker, I yield as much time as he may consume to the gentleman from Rhode Island [Mr. KENNEDY].

Mr. KENNEDY of Rhode Island. Mr. Speaker, I rise today in strong support of H.R. 1606, a bill that will designate the main post office in Providence, RI, as the "Harry Kizirian Post Office."

Harry Kizirian is a shining example of someone who has fully realized the American Dream. A dedicated individual, Harry grew up in my own neighborhood of Mount Pleasant in Providence and worked hard to support his widowed mother.

As a high school graduate, Harry enlisted in the Marine Corps and served in the South Pacific, where he would lead a Marine fire team to victory despite sustaining multiple gunshot wounds. For this selfless heroism, Harry was awarded the Navy Cross, the Bronze Star with a device for Valor, the Purple Heart with a Gold Star, and the Rhode Island Cross.

Harry's service to our country did not end with the Allied Victory in World War II. For the next 35 years, Harry would demonstrate the same commitment to duty and service at the Post Office in Providence as he did during his days in Okinawa. In 1961, the honor and respect that Harry had earned from, not only his colleagues, but also the people of Rhode Island, reached a pinnacle as Harry was confirmed by the Senate as Postmaster.

During his tenure as Postmaster, Harry went well beyond his required duties and served many important social causes. As a leading member of the Big Brothers of Rhode Island, the Providence Human Relations Commission and the Providence Heritage Commission, Harry demonstrated his high regard for his friends and citizens of his community.

Perhaps Harry's greatest achievement is shared with his wife Hazel as they have successfully raised five children, who now have several children of their own, Shakay and Richard. When asked about all his achievements,

Harry humbly responded: "I'm just an ordinary American boy who loves dealing with people from all walks of life."

In my opinion, Harry Kizirian is anything but ordinary. Raised with a strong Armenian heritage, Harry is a living tribute to his family, his friends, and his country.

Mr. Speaker, I am honored to stand with my colleague, JACK REED, to offer this bill which will honor Harry Kizirian's commitment and generosity for generations to come.

Miss COLLINS of Michigan. Mr. Speaker, I have no further requests for time, and I yield back the balance of my time.

Mr. MCHUGH. Mr. Speaker, I have no further requests for time, and I yield back the balance of my time.

The SPEAKER pro tempore (Mr. RIGGS). The question is on the motion offered by the gentleman from New York [Mr. MCHUGH], that the House suspend the rules and pass the bill, H.R. 1606.

The question was taken; and (two-thirds having voted in favor thereof) the rules were suspended and the bill was passed.

A motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

GENERAL LEAVE

Mr. MCHUGH. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that all Members may have 5 legislative days within which to revise and extend their remarks on H.R. 1606, the bill just considered.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from New York?

There was no objection.

WINFIELD SCOTT STRATTON POST OFFICE

Mr. MCHUGH. Mr. Speaker, I move to suspend the rules and pass the bill (H.R. 1026) to designate the U.S. Post Office building located at 201 East Pikes Peak Avenue in Colorado Springs, CO, as the "Winfield Scott Stratton Post Office."

The Clerk read as follows:

H.R. 1026

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

SECTION 1. DESIGNATION.

The United States Post Office building located at 201 East Pikes Peak Avenue, Colorado Springs, Colorado, shall be known and designated as the "Winfield Scott Stratton Post Office."

SEC. 2 REFERENCES.

Any reference in a law, map, regulation, document, paper, or other record of the United States to the building referred to in section 1 shall be deemed to be a reference to the "Winfield Scott Stratton Post Office".

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to the rule, the gentleman from New York [Mr. MCHUGH] will be recognized for 20 minutes, and the gentleman from Michigan [Miss COLLINS] will be recognized for 20 minutes.

The Chair recognizes the gentleman from New York [Mr. MCHUGH].

Mr. MCHUGH. Mr. Speaker, I yield myself such time as I may consume.

Mr. Speaker, I am pleased to report that the legislation before us, H.R. 1026, was approved unanimously by the Committee on Government Reform and Oversight. This legislation, designating the U.S. Post Office located at 201 East Pikes Peak Avenue, Colorado Springs, CO, be named the "Winfield Scott Stratton Post Office," was introduced by the gentleman from Colorado [Mr. HEFLEY], and was cosponsored by his full State Delegation, as required by committee policy.

H.R. 1026 honors the late Mr. Stratton, a Colorado Springs philanthropist and benefactor. Mr. Stratton was one of many adventurers who came to Colorado seeking their fortune. He literally struck gold in discovering a rich deposit in the mines of Cripple Creek, CO.

Mr. Stratton believed it was the duty of the fortunate to use their wealth in the development of their community. In keeping with this personal philosophy, he dedicated the rest of his life to helping others less fortunate and to advancing the development of Colorado Springs and Colorado.

Mr. Speaker, I support the passage of H.R. 1026 and urge our colleagues to do the same.

Mr. Speaker, I yield such time as he may consume to the gentleman from Colorado [Mr. HEFLEY].

Mr. HEFLEY. Mr. Speaker, I would like to first thank the gentleman from Pennsylvania [Mr. CLINGER] the chairman of the full committee, and the gentleman from New York [Mr. MCHUGH], chairman of the Subcommittee on the Postal Service, for allowing H.R. 1026 to be brought up on the Suspension Calendar today. I think it is a fitting tribute to a man who gave so much to Colorado, and particularly to the area of Colorado that I am fortunate enough to represent.

Mr. Speaker, H.R. 1026, which as has been indicated, will designate the U.S. Post Office building located at 201 Pikes Peak Avenue in Colorado Springs, CO, as the "Winfield Scott Stratton Post Office."

Working as a carpenter and as a prospector, Mr. Stratton became wealthy after finding gold in Cripple Creek, CO. His sudden wealth allowed him to pursue life's pleasures any way that he would like to do it, but instead he spent much of his life and much of his fortune helping those that were less fortunate. In addition to helping the needy, he also played an integral part in the development of Colorado Springs as a community by providing money for a city hall, a new courthouse, the streetcar system, and perhaps his most generous, important contribution that he made was the Myron Stratton Home, which was a foster home for children and for impoverished elderly.

Mr. Speaker, it still exists today. It is an interesting concept in that they had children who did not have parents.

In the early days it was an orphanage, but it was not the image that you have of the Charles Dickens orphanage. It was an orphanage where the kids that went there had many of the things that money could buy in terms of living a good life under the circumstances of not having a family. And he combined that with elderly people to create an intergenerational type of concept that has worked very well even to this day.

Especially pertinent to H.R. 1026, is that Mr. Stratton sold the property where the post office is located, and which we are asking to be named today, to the Federal Government for half its value on the condition that they would build a post office there.

Mr. Speaker, I did not know Mr. Stratton. He was before my time there. But I have been able to see his work in the Colorado Springs area over the years.

Finally, Mr. Speaker, I would like to thank Mr. John Zorack, a former resident of the Stratton Home, who has worked closely with me to see that this fitting tribute be enacted. I would add that H.R. 1026 has the support of the Colorado Delegation and the Colorado Springs City Council. Mr. Speaker, I thank the gentleman from New York [Mr. McHUGH] for his support of this legislation.

Mr. McHUGH. Mr. Speaker, I reserve the balance of my time.

Miss COLLINS of Michigan. Mr. Speaker, I yield myself such time as I may consume.

Mr. Speaker, I join my colleague and chairman of the Subcommittee on the Postal Service in support of H.R. 1026, legislation designating the U.S. Post Office at 201 East Pikes Peak Avenue in Colorado Springs, CO, as the Winfield Scott Stratton Post Office.

The late Mr. Stratton was well known as a great philanthropist and most deserving to have a Post Office named after him.

Mr. Speaker, I have no further requests for time, and I yield back the balance of my time.

Mr. McHUGH. Mr. Speaker, I have no further requests for time, and I yield back the balance of my time.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The question is on the motion offered by the gentleman from New York [Mr. McHUGH] that the House suspend the rules and pass the bill, H.R. 1026.

The question was taken; and (two-thirds having voted in favor thereof) the rules were suspended and the bill was passed.

A motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

GENERAL LEAVE

Mr. McHUGH. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that all Members may have 5 legislative days within which to revise and extend their remarks on H.R. 1026 the bill just considered.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from New York?

There was no objection.

BIOTECHNICAL PROCESS PATENTS

Mr. MOORHEAD. Mr. Speaker, I move to suspend the rules and pass the bill (H.R. 587) to amend title 35, United States Code, with respect to patents on biotechnological processes.

The Clerk read as follows:

H.R. 587

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

BIOTECHNOLOGICAL PROCESS PATENTS

SEC. 101. CONDITIONS FOR PATENTABILITY; NONOBVIOUS SUBJECT MATTER.

Section 103 of title 35, United States Code, is amended—

(1) by designating the first paragraph as subsection (a);

(2) by designating the second paragraph as subsection (c); and

(3) by inserting after the first paragraph the following:

“(b)(1) Notwithstanding subsection (a), and upon timely election by the applicant for patent to proceed under this subsection, a ‘biotechnological process’ using or resulting in a composition of matter that is novel under section 102 and nonobvious under subsection (a) of this section shall be considered nonobvious if—

“(A) claims to the process and the composition of matter are contained in either the same application for patent or in separate applications having the same effective filing date; and

“(B) the composition of matter, and the process at the time it was invented, were owned by the same person or subject to an obligation of assignment to the same person.

“(A) shall also contain the claims to the composition of matter used in or made by that process; or

“(B) shall, if such composition of matter is claimed in another patent, be set to expire on the same date as such other patent, notwithstanding section 154.

“(3) For purposes of paragraph (1), the term ‘biotechnological process’ means—

“(A) a process of genetically altering or otherwise inducing a single- or multi-celled organism to—

“(i) express an exogenous nucleotide sequence,

“(ii) inhibit, eliminate, augment, or alter expression of an endogenous nucleotide sequence, or

“(iii) express a specific physiological characteristic not naturally associated with said organism;

“(B) cell fusion procedures yielding a cell line that expresses a specific protein, such as a monoclonal antibody; and

“(C) a method of using a product produced by a process defined by (A) or (B), or a combination of (A) and (B).”.

SEC. 102. PRESUMPTION OF VALIDITY; DEFENSES.

Section 282 of title 35, United States Code, is amended by inserting after the second sentence of the first paragraph the following: “Notwithstanding the preceding sentence, if a claim to a composition of matter is held invalid and that claim was the basis of a determination of nonobviousness under section 103(b)(1), the process shall no longer be considered nonobvious solely on the basis of section 103(b)(1).”.

SEC. 103. EFFECTIVE DATE.

The amendments made by section 101 shall apply to any application for patent filed on or after the date of enactment of this Act and to any application for patent pending on such date of enactment, including (in either case) an application for the reissuance of a patent.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to the rule, the gentleman from California [Mr. MOORHEAD] will be recognized for 20 minutes, and the gentleman from Colorado [Mrs. SCHROEDER] will be recognized for 20 minutes.

The Chair recognizes the gentleman from California [Mr. MOORHEAD].

(Mr. MOORHEAD asked and was given permission to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. MOORHEAD. Mr. Speaker, I yield myself such time as I may consume.

Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of H.R. 587, the Biotech Process Patent Protection Act of 1995. I would like to commend the gentleman from Virginia [Mr. BOUCHER] and thank him for working so hard with us over the past 5 years to make this legislation possible. I also want to thank the gentlewoman from Colorado [Mrs. SCHROEDER] for her support and cooperation.

From an economic point of view, the U.S. biotech industry has gone from zero revenues and zero jobs 15 years ago to $8 billion and 103,000 jobs today. The White House Council on Competitiveness projects a $30 to $50 billion market for biotech products by the year 2000, and many in the industry believe this estimate to be conservative.

Companies that depend heavily on research and development are especially vulnerable to foreign competitors who copy and sell their products without permission. The reason that high-technology companies are so vulnerable is that for them the cost of innovation, rather than the cost of production, is the key cost incurred in bringing a product to market. The award of patent protection ensures a greater degree of protection for businesses in the United States who make major investment in innovation.

The House Judiciary Committee took the first step in protecting innovation in 1988 when the Congress enacted two bills which I introduced relating to process patents and reform of the International Trade Commission. However, our work will not be complete until we enact this legislation. This bill modifies the test for obtaining a process patent, a problem that was created by In Re Durden (1985), a case frequently criticized and cited by the Patent Office as grounds for denial of biotech patents. The legislation impacts only one element of patentability of biotech processes and that is the element of nonobviousness. The process must still satisfy all other requirements of patentability.

Because so many of the biotech inventions are protected by patents, the future of that industry depends greatly on what Congress does to protect U.S. patents from unfair foreign competition. America's foreign competitors, most of whom have invested comparatively little in biotechnology research, have targeted the biotech industry for major and concerted action.

In conclusion, Mr. Speaker, this is important legislation. The biotech industry is an immensely important industry started in the United States with many labs housed in California. In the decade ahead, biotechnology research will improve the lives and health of virtually every American family. It will put people to work and it will save people's lives. Identical legislation has already passed the other body, S. 1111.

Mr. Speaker, I reserve the balance of my time.

Mrs. SCHROEDER. Mr. Speaker, I yield myself such time as I may consume.

Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of H.R. 587.

One of the most important tasks faced by the Intellectual Property Subcommittee is to make sure that our patent law keeps pace with technological change. The importance of this task is nowhere more evident than in the area of biotechnology, where industry has encountered difficulty in obtaining timely and adequate process patent protection because of conflicting case law and inconsistency in PTO examination practices resulting from the conflicting holdings of relevant court cases.

It is critical to our economy and to our quality of life that biotechnology research and development can take place on a level playing vis-a-vis foreign competitors, and without excessive uncertainty or delay in patent protection.

This bill will achieve those goals: It will mitigate the uncertainty in the patent examination process, and it will bring about a more level playing field for U.S. biotechnology companies and their overseas competitors.

The bill before us today is supported by the administration, and it has bipartisan support from the Judiciary Committee. The roadblocks faced by predecessor bills have been removed by making the bill biotechnology industry-specific. I believe, through this bill, that we have fashioned a fair and effective means of addressing the uncertainties and inadequacies in patent law as it applies to biotechnology, and I urge my colleagues to support it.

I also want to acknowledge the hard work on both sides of the aisle over a number of years to resolve this problem. Our subcommittee chairman, the gentleman from California, the gentleman from Massachusetts [Mr. FRANK], and the gentleman from Virginia [Mr. BOUCHER], have all worked diligently to address this problem, and I congratulate them for their efforts.

Mr. Speaker, it looks like this is the year it will really happen. I congratulate them.

Mr. Speaker, I reserve the balance of my time.

Mr. MOORHEAD. Mr. Speaker, I yield 5 minutes to the gentleman from California [Mr. ROHRABACHER].

Mr. ROHRABACHER. Mr. Speaker, I rise to support this bill, which will establish an objective standard to determine if biotechnology patent applications involve nonobvious material.

This standard is necessary to clarify patent law for one of our Nation's most important growth industries, the biotechnology industry, and I congratulate Chairman MOORHEAD for his leadership in bringing this bill to the floor.

We need, however, to deal with the fundamental problem, the lack of a minimum guaranteed patent term. For over 100 years, this country had a patent term of 17 years from grant. That term acted to encourage and reward innovation. Unfortunately, the GATT implementing legislation established an uncertain term of 20 years from filing. Many biotech patents take years to be issued, which under the new rules results in a vastly reduced patent term biotech companies and anyone else whose breakthrough technology takes longer than usual to get through the Patent Office are victimized. I have introduced legislation, H.R. 359, which will establish a term of 20 years from filing or 17 years from grant, whichever is longer. That's consistent with the GATT agreement and with our Nation's tradition of strong intellectual property rights. That tradition has fueled the growth of new, dynamic industries in America and will continue to do so as long as this Congress continues to respect the creativity and hard work of the Nation's independent inventors.

The subcommittee chairman and I continue to have honest differences on this and other issues, such as unconditional publication of all patent applications 18 months after filing. Such publication will allow unscrupulous people to copy and infringe on the inventions of biotech companies and other innovative industries. I am encouraged that we will have a hearing on November 1 to examine these problems, just as I am encouraged that the chairman has shown concern for the biotechnology industry with H.R. 587. I look forward to the day when the Congress will decide, on this floor, up or down, on whether to restore the fundamental patent rights of all of America's inventors.

Mrs. SCHROEDER. Mr. Speaker, I yield such time as he may consume to the gentleman from Michigan [Mr. CONYERS], the distinguished ranking member.

Mr. CONYERS. Mr. Speaker, first of all, congratulations to the gentleman from California [Mr. MOORHEAD], the subcommittee chairman, and the gentlewoman from Colorado [Mrs. SCHROEDER], who has worked with him across the years.

I am a cosponsor and strong supporter of H.R. 587 which resolves the confusion created by two conflicting appellate court decisions on the standards for granting process patents to biotechnology companies.

Though this is a matter that could have been resolved by the courts, the matter has been pending since November 1992 without any resolution. Further delays could be costly to American biotech companies.

The legislation prohibits the Patent and Trademark Office from rejecting applications for process patents using or resulting in a composition of matter that is novel and nonobvious.

This legislation serves the important purpose of protecting the rights of American companies to bring patent infringement claims against importers who are able to evade the law by processing cells outside the United States and importing the finished products into the United States on the technicality that there has been no use of patented host cells in the United States. Without a process patent, the importation of the final product cannot be challenged. I urge passage of this worthy bill.

Mrs. SCHROEDER. Mr. Speaker, I yield 3 minutes to the gentleman from Massachusetts [Mr. FRANK] who has been working on this bill forever and ever, and I am sure is glad to see it on the floor.

Mr. FRANK of Massachusetts. Mr. Speaker, I thank the ranking minority member of the subcommittee for yielding.

The chairman has been congratulated and deservedly. This is an important issue that has more complexity than one might think, as we explain it, I think the reaction is, well, gee, this is just so straightforward. But people should understand that there were issues to be resolved, whether this was going to be a change in patent law in general or whether it was better to make it specific to an industry.

There were traditional practitioners of patent law who had objections to this. What we are doing today and, as I understand the parliamentary situation since we are taking up the Senate bill, we are sending this right to the President. One of the striking things about the current situation people should understand is that on those occasions, and I say this is clearly in order because it explains why we are doing what we are doing and why we are taking the Senate bill. On those occasions when the U.S. Senate can be persuaded to do anything at all, one then grabs it and takes it and does not take the chance of sending it back.

So this will now go right to the President for signature. It is a mark of the successful chairmanship of the gentleman from California that this important piece of legislation will within a few weeks be law. We are not simply passing a bill through the House today, but we are sending it to the President who we know is going to sign it. I can simply say I am not an expert on this as are few of my colleagues but, talking to the people in the biotechnology industry in Massachusetts, this was very high on their list of things that will help. It is one of these things that does good in a multiplicity of ways.

In the first place, it will help produce the products, and this is of greatest importance, that cure people, that alleviate illnesses. We are here doing something that will facilitate better health care for people, and that is of course fundamental.

It will also promote jobs in the State that I represent and in other States because it will help the biotechnology industry improve its market. It will help exports. It will help the American economy.

So this is something which has all positive and no negative. But, despite that, given the world we live in, it was not an easy thing to bring it here. As I said, this may look to people like kind of a ho-hum thing. It is to the credit of the gentleman from California and his management of this issue that something that had a lot of pitfalls and a lot of potential controversies does come forward in this guise.

I also wanted to express my appreciation to the gentleman who spoke just before me, the other Member from California, he has his own very strong interests in patent issues, some of which I agree with him on, and his willingness to collaborate with us in getting this bill through is something I very much appreciate, thanks to the ranking member for her leadership, to the chairman. I think we have shown today that we are able to function in a very positive way to advance a number of goals.

Mrs. SCHROEDER. Mr. Speaker, I yield such time as he may consume to the gentleman from Virginia [Mr. BOUCHER]. He has worked so hard on this bill. I am sure for his sake he is very happy to have this happen.

(Mr. BOUCHER asked and was given permission to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. BOUCHER. Mr. Speaker, for the last several years, I have been involved in a very productive partnership with my friend and colleague, the gentleman from California [Mr. MOORHEAD], in an effort to extend better patent protection to the biotechnology industry. Today I am pleased to be here on the floor joining with him as we culminate that effort and as we send to the President legislation that will enact this much needed reform.

The biotechnology industry is a bright promise for our Nation's success in the international market of the future. The industry was originated and developed in the United States. This uniquely American enterprise is expected to confer an annual benefit of approximately $50 billion on the American economy by the year 2000. And even today, it has created more than 100,000 new highly paid, highly skilled jobs in this economy.

But more important than its economic contributions are the benefits biotechnology is bringing to the fields of medicine and agriculture. Through biotechnology, new strains of plants are being produced that are resistant to disease, that can thrive in hostile terrain, and can survive adverse climatic conditions.

Through biotechnology, new human drugs are on the market today that, when administered to heart attack victims, save lives by dissolving dangerous blood clots.

Other drugs treat anemia, reducing need for blood transfusions in patients who are suffering from chronic kidney failure. And human growth hormone is today enriching the lives of children throughout the world.

American companies are now developing treatments or even potential cures for a variety of hard to treat diseases, including AIDS, Alzheimer's disease, cystic fibrosis, and Lou Gehrig's disease.

And yet the promise of biotechnology is seriously challenged today by a simple and obvious inadequacy in America's patent law. That inadequacy opens the door for foreign firms to expropriate American inventions and compete in this country directly with the inventing firm. In essence, the patent law confers and advantage on foreign companies not enjoyed by the American inventing firm and actually encourages a pilfering of United States creativity. We have examples today of that very practice occurring.

It is that defect in the patent law that H.R. 587 is designed to address. In most cases, biotechnology products are genetically engineered forms of chemicals which naturally occur. The goal of biotechnology is to create the chemicals in larger and commercially viable quantities. To do that, the company engineers a host cell to produce the product. The firm then treats the host cell with a frequently straightforward and well-known process to create the naturally occurring chemical in commercially viable quantities.

The company cannot patent the end product because it occurs in nature. All the company is doing is creating that product in larger quantities. The company can patent the host cell but, under current law, the use of a patented host cell abroad to manufacture a product for importation into the United States is not an infringement of the American host cell patent.

Under a series of court decisions, most prominently In Re Durden, the inventor has great difficulty in obtaining a patent on the process that is used to produce the product. The legislation that the gentleman from California [Mr. MOORHEAD] has brought to the House today and which I have been pleased to work with him on over the last several years will open the door to a more certain award of process patents.

In turn the biotechnology firms that have the assurance of receiving those process patents will exhibit a greater willingness to make research investments totaling hundreds of millions of dollars on an annual basis, the very research investments that are essential to sustain and advance this highly important American industry.

Mr. Speaker, I am pleased to urge support for this measure and passage of it by the House, and I join with our colleague, the gentleman from Massachusetts [Mr. FRANK], in commending the gentleman from California for his legislative skill which has brought the measure to this point which, when added to the Senate bill already passed by that body, can then send this measure directly to the President for his signature and for enactment into law. It is a positive measure. It will advance a very important industry, and I join with the gentleman from California [Mr. MOORHEAD] in strongly urging its passage.

Mrs. SCHROEDER. Mr. Speaker, I have no further speakers, and I yield back the balance of my time.

Mr. MOORHEAD. Mr. Speaker, I yield myself such time as I may consume.

Mr. Speaker, I wish the congratulate each member of our subcommittee for the hard work they have done on this legislation over a long period of time. This is a fine moment today as we get this bill adopted, and every single Member of both sides of the aisle have worked hard, put their effort in. I know that the gentleman from Virginia [Mr. BOUCHER] has really put his heart and soul into it over a period of years, and we had Bill Hughes, who was the chairman of our subcommittee, who worked hard on it. We have the gentleman from Colorado [Mrs. SCHROEDER] and the ranking member of the full committee. Everyone in our committee has really worked on this: The gentleman from Virginia [Mr. BOUCHER], the gentleman from Massachusetts [Mr. FRANK], the gentleman from Oklahoma [Mr. COBURN], the gentleman from Wisconsin [Mr. SENSENBRENNER], and I want to thank each and every one of them for the product that we are presenting.

Mr. Speaker, I have no further requests for time, and I yield back the balance of my time.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. (Mr. RIGGS). The question is on the motion offered by the gentleman from California [Mr. MOORHEAD] that the House suspend the rules and pass the bill, H.R. 587.

The question was taken; and (two-thirds having voted in favor thereof) the rules were suspended, and the bill was passed.

A motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

Mr. MOORHEAD. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to take from the Speaker's table the Senate bill (S. 1111) to amend title 35, United States Code, with respect to patents on biotechnological processes, and ask for its immediate consideration in the House.

The Clerk read the title of the Senate bill.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from California?

Mrs. SCHROEDER. Mr. Speaker, reserving the right to object, I do so to yield to the gentleman from California [Mr. MOORHEAD] to explain the purpose of the request.

Mr. MOORHEAD. Mr. Speaker, will the gentlewoman yield?

Mrs. Schroeder. I yield to the gentleman from California.

Mr. MOORHEAD. Mr. Speaker, this is the companion Senate bill. This action will enable the bill to go immediately to the President. The Senate bill is identical to the recent House-passed legislation.

Mrs. SCHROEDER. Mr. Speaker, I salute the gentleman for this very adept explanation. That is exactly what we hope to do, get this right to the President. I thank the gentleman for being so expeditious.

Mr. Speaker, I withdraw my reservation of objection.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from California?

There was no objection.

The Clerk read the Senate bill, as follows:

S. 1111

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

Section 282 of title 35, United States code, is amended by inserting after the second sentence of the first paragraph the following: “Notwithstanding the preceding sentence, if a claim to a composition of matter is held invalid and that claim was the basis of a determination of nonobviousness under section 103(b)(1), the process shall no longer be considered nonobvious solely on the basis of section 103(b)(1).”.

SEC. 3. EFFECTIVE DATE.

The amendments made by section 1 shall apply to any application for patent filed on or after the date of enactment of this Act and to any application for patent pending on such date of enactment, including (in either case) an application for the reissuance of a patent.

The Senate bill was ordered to be read a third time, was read the third time, and passed, and a motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

DIGITAL PERFORMANCE RIGHT IN SOUND RECORDINGS ACT OF 1995

Mr. MOORHEAD. Mr. Speaker, I move to suspend the rules and pass the bill (H.R. 1506) to amend title 17, United States Code, to provide an exclusive right to perform sound recordings publicly by means of digital transmissions, and for other purposes, as amended.

The Clerk read as follows:

Section 106 of title 17, United States Code, is amended—

(1) in paragraph (4) by striking “and” after the semicolon;

(2) in paragraph (5) by striking the period and inserting “; and”; and

(3) by adding at the end the following:

“(6) in the case of sound recordings, to perform the copyrighted work publicly by means of a digital audio transmission.”.

SEC. 3. SCOPE OF EXCLUSIVE RIGHTS IN SOUND RECORDINGS.

Section 114 of title 17, United States Code, is amended—

“(d) LIMITATIONS ON EXCLUSIVE RIGHT.—Notwithstanding the provisions of section 106(6)—

“(1) EXEMPT TRANSMISSIONS AND RETRANSMISSIONS.—The performance of a sound recording publicly by means of a digital audio transmission, other than as a part of an interactive service, is not an infringement of section 106(6) if the performance is part of—

“(A)(i) a nonsubscription transmission other than a retransmission;

“(ii) an initial nonsubscription retransmission made for direct reception by members of the public of a prior or simultaneous incidental transmission that is not made for direct reception by members of the public; or

“(iii) a nonsubscription broadcast transmission;

“(B) a retransmission of a nonsubscription broadcast transmission: Provided, That, in the case of a retransmission of a radio station's broadcast transmission—

“(i) the radio station's broadcast transmission is not willfully or repeatedly retransmitted more than a radius of 150 miles from the site of the radio broadcast transmitter, however—

“(I) the 150 mile limitation under this clause shall not apply when a nonsubscription broadcast transmission by a radio station licensed by the Federal Communications Commission is retransmitted on a nonsubscription basis by a terrestrial broadcast station, terrestrial translator, or terrestrial repeater licensed by the Federal Communications Commission; and

“(II) in the case of a subscription retransmission of a nonsubscription broadcast retransmission covered by subclause (I), the 150 mile radius shall be measured from the transmitter site of such broadcast retransmitter;

“(ii) the retransmission is of radio station broadcast transmissions that are—

“(I) obtained by the retransmitter over the air;

“(II) not electronically processed by the retransmitter to deliver separate and discrete signals; and

“(III) retransmitted only within the local communities served by the retransmitter;”

“(iii) the radio station’s broadcast transmission was being retransmitted to cable systems (as defined in section 111(f)) by a satellite carrier on January 1, 1995, and that retransmission was being retransmitted by cable systems as a separate and discrete signal, and the satellite carrier obtains the radio station’s broadcast transmission in an analog format: Provided, That the broadcast transmission being retransmitted may embody the programming of no more than one radio station; or

“(iv) the radio station’s broadcast transmission is made by a noncommercial educational broadcast station funded on or after January 1, 1995, under section 396(k) of the Communications Act of 1934 (47 U.S.C. 396(k)), consists solely of noncommercial educational and cultural radio programs, and the retransmission, whether or not simultaneous, is a nonsubscription terrestrial broadcast retransmission; or

“(C) a transmission that comes within any of the following categories:

“(i) a prior or simultaneous transmission incidental to an exempt transmission, such as a feed received by and then retransmitted by an exempt transmitter: Provided, That such incidental transmissions do not include any subscription transmission directly for reception by members of the public;

“(ii) a transmission within a business establishment, confined to its premises or the immediately surrounding vicinity;

“(iii) a retransmission by any retransmitter, including a multichannel video programming distributor as defined in section 602(12) of the Communications Act of 1934 (47 U.S.C. 522(12)), of a transmission by a transmitter licensed to publicly perform the sound recording as a part of that transmission, if the retransmission is simultaneous with the licensed transmission and authorized by the transmitter; or

“(iv) a transmission to a business establishment for use in the ordinary course of its business: Provided, That the business recipient does not retransmit the transmission outside of its premises or the immediately surrounding vicinity, and that the transmission does not exceed the sound recording performance complement. Nothing in this clause shall limit the scope of the exemption in clause (ii).

“(2) SUBSCRIPTION TRANSMISSIONS.—In the case of a subscription transmission not exempt under subsection (d)(1), the performance of a sound recording publicly by means of a digital audio transmission shall be subject to statutory licensing, in accordance with subsection (f) of this section, if—

“(A) the transmission is not part of an interactive service;

“(B) the transmission does not exceed the sound recording performance complement;

“(C) the transmitting entity does not cause to be published by means of an advance program schedule or prior announcement the titles of the specific sound recordings or phonorecords embodying such sound recordings to be transmitted;

“(D) except in the case of transmission to a business establishment, the transmitting entity does not automatically and intentionally cause any device receiving the transmission to switch from one program channel to another; and

“(E) except as provided in section 1002(e) of this title, the transmission of the sound recording is accompanied by the information encoded in that sound recording, if any, by or under the authority of the copyright owner of that sound recording, that identifies the title of the sound recording, the featured recording artist who performs on the sound recording, and related information, including information concerning the underlying musical work and its writer.

“(3) LICENSES FOR TRANSMISSIONS BY INTERACTIVE SERVICES.—

“(A) No interactive service shall be granted an exclusive license under section 106(6) for the performance of a sound recording publicly by means of digital audio transmission for a period in excess of 12 months, except that with respect to an exclusive license granted to an interactive service by a licensor that holds the copyright to 1,000 or fewer sound recordings, the period of such license shall not exceed 24 months: Provided, however, That the grantee of such exclusive license shall be ineligible to receive another exclusive license for the performance of that sound recording for a period of 13 months from the expiration of the prior exclusive license.

“(B) The limitation set forth in subparagraph (A) of this paragraph shall not apply if—

“(i) the licensor has granted and there remain in effect licenses under section 106(6) for the public performance of sound recordings by means of digital audio transmission by at least 5 different interactive services: Provided, however, That each such license must be for a minimum of 10 percent of the copyrighted sound recordings owned by the licensor that have been licensed to interactive services, but in no event less than 50 sound recordings; or

“(ii) the exclusive license is granted to perform publicly up to 45 seconds of a sound recording and the sole purpose of the performance is to promote the distribution or performance of that sound recording.

“(C) Notwithstanding the grant of an exclusive or nonexclusive license of the right of public performance under section 106(6), an interactive service may not publicly perform a sound recording unless a license has been granted for the public performance of any copyrighted musical work contained in the sound recording: Provided, That such license to publicly perform the copyrighted musical work may be granted either by a performing rights society representing the copyright owner or by the copyright owner.

“(D) The performance of a sound recording by means of a retransmission of a digital audio transmission is not an infringement of section 106(6) if—

“(i) the retransmission is of a transmission by an interactive service licensed to publicly perform the sound recording to a particular member of the public as part of that transmission; and

“(ii) the retransmission is simultaneous with the licensed transmission, authorized by the transmitter, and limited to that particular member of the public intended by the interactive service to be the recipient of the transmission.

“(E) For the purposes of this paragraph—

“(i) a ‘licensor’ shall include the licensing entity and any other entity under any material degree of common ownership, management, or control that owns copyrights in sound recordings; and

“(ii) a ‘performing rights society’ is an association or corporation that licenses the public performance of nondramatic musical works on behalf of the copyright owner, such as the American Society of Composers, Authors and Publishers, Broadcast Music, Inc., and SESAC, Inc.

“(i) the exclusive right to publicly perform a musical work, including by means of a digital audio transmission, under section 106(4);

“(ii) the exclusive rights in a sound recording or the musical work embodied therein under sections 106(1), 106(2) and 106(3); or

“(iii) any other rights under any other clause of section 106, or remedies available under this title, as such rights or remedies exist either before or after the date of enactment of the Digital Performance Right in Sound Recordings Act of 1995.

“(C) Any limitations in this section on the exclusive right under section 106(6) apply only to the exclusive right under section 106(6) and not to any other exclusive rights under section 106. Nothing in this section shall be construed to annul, limit, impair or otherwise affect in any way the ability of the owner of a copyright in a sound recording to exercise the rights under sections 106(1), 106(2) and 106(3), or to obtain the remedies available under this title pursuant to such rights, as such rights and remedies exist either before or after the date of enactment of the Digital Performance Right in Sound Recordings Act of 1995.”; and

(4) by adding after subsection (d) the following:

“(e) AUTHORITY FOR NEGOTIATIONS.—

“(1) Notwithstanding any provision of the antitrust laws, in negotiating statutory licenses in accordance with subsection (f), any copyright owners of sound recordings and any entities performing sound recordings affected by this section may negotiate and agree upon the royalty rates and license terms and conditions for the performance of such sound recordings and the proportionate division of fees paid among copyright owners, and may designate common agents on a nonexclusive basis to negotiate, agree to, pay, or receive payments.

“(2) For licenses granted under section 106(6), other than statutory licenses, such as for performances by interactive services or performances that exceed the sound recording performance complement—

“(A) copyright owners of sound recordings affected by this section may designate common agents to act on their behalf to grant licenses and receive and remit royalty payments: Provided, That each copyright owner shall establish the royalty rates and material license terms and conditions unilaterally, that is, not in agreement, combination, or concert with other copyright owners of sound recordings; and

“(B) entities performing sound recordings affected by this section may designate common agents to act on their behalf to obtain licenses and collect and pay royalty fees: Provided, That each entity performing sound recordings shall determine the royalty rates and material license terms and conditions unilaterally, that is, not in agreement, combination, or concert with other entities performing sound recordings.

“(f) LICENSES FOR NONEXEMPT SUBSCRIPTION TRANSMISSIONS.—

“(1) No later than 30 days after the enactment of the Digital Performance Right in Sound Recordings Act of 1995, the Librarian of Congress shall cause notice to be published in the Federal Register of the initiation of voluntary negotiation proceedings for the purpose of determining reasonable terms and rates of royalty payments for the activities specified by subsection (d)(2) of this section during the period beginning on the effective date of such Act and ending on December 31, 2000. Such terms and rates shall distinguish among the different types of digital audio transmission services then in operation. Any copyright owners of sound recordings or any entities performing sound recordings affected by this section may submit to the Librarian of Congress licenses covering such activities with respect to such sound recordings. The parties to each negotiation proceeding shall bear their own costs.

“(2) In the absence of license agreements negotiated under paragraph (1), during the 60-day period commencing 6 months after publication of the notice specified in paragraph (1), and upon the filing of a petition in accordance with section 803(a)(1), the Librarian of Congress shall, pursuant to chapter 8, convene a copyright arbitration royalty panel to determine and publish in the Federal Register a schedule of rates and terms which, subject to paragraph (3), shall be binding on all copyright owners of sound recordings and entities performing sound recordings. In addition to the objectives set forth in section 801(b)(1), in establishing such rates and terms, the copyright arbitration royalty panel may consider the rates and terms for comparable types of digital audio transmission services and comparable circumstances under voluntary license agreements negotiated as provided in paragraph (1). The Librarian of Congress shall also establish requirements by which copyright owners may receive reasonable notice of the use of their sound recordings under this section, and under which records of such use shall be kept and made available by entities performing sound recordings.

“(3) License agreements voluntarily negotiated at any time between one or more copyright owners of sound recordings and one or more entities performing sound recordings shall be given effect in lieu of any determination by a copyright arbitration royalty panel or decision by the Librarian of Congress.

“(4)(A) Publication of a notice of the initiation of voluntary negotiation proceedings as specified in paragraph (1) shall be repeated, in accordance with regulations that the Librarian of Congress shall prescribe—

“(i) no later than 30 days after a petition is filed by any copyright owners of sound recordings or any entities performing sound recordings affected by this section indicating that a new type of digital audio transmission service on which sound recordings are performed is or is about to become operational; and

“(ii) in the first week of January, 2000 and at 5-year intervals thereafter.

“(B)(i) The procedures specified in paragraph (2) shall be repeated, in accordance with regulations that the Librarian of Congress shall prescribe, upon the filing of a petition in accordance with section 803(a)(1) during a 60-day period commencing—

“(I) six months after publication of a notice of the initiation of voluntary negotiation proceedings under paragraph (1) pursuant to a petition under paragraph (4)(A)(i); or

“(ii) The procedures specified in paragraph (2) shall be concluded in accordance with section 802.

“(5)(A) Any person who wishes to perform a sound recording publicly by means of a nonexempt subscription transmission under this subsection may do so without infringing the exclusive right of the copyright owner of the sound recording—

“(i) by complying with such notice requirements as the Librarian of Congress shall prescribe by regulation and by paying royalty fees in accordance with this subsection; or

“(ii) if such royalty fees have not been set, by agreeing to pay such royalty fees as shall be determined in accordance with this subsection.

“(B) Any royalty payments in arrears shall be made on or before the twentieth day of the month next succeeding the month in which the royalty fees are set.

“(1) Except in the case of a subscription transmission licensed in accordance with subsection (f) of this section—

“(A) a featured recording artist who performs on a sound recording that has been licensed for a subscription transmission shall be entitled to receive payments from the copyright owner of the sound recording in accordance with the terms of the artist's contract; and

“(B) a nonfeatured recording artist who performs on a sound recording that has been licensed for a subscription transmission shall be entitled to receive payments from the copyright owner of the sound recording in accordance with the terms of the nonfeatured recording artist's applicable contract or other applicable agreement.

“(2) The copyright owner of the exclusive right under section 106(6) of this title to publicly perform a sound recording by means of a digital audio transmission shall allocate to recording artists in the following manner its receipts from the statutory licensing of subscription transmission performances of the sound recording in accordance with subsection (f) of this section:

“(A) 2½ percent of the receipts shall be deposited in an escrow account managed by an independent administrator jointly appointed by copyright owners of sound recordings and the American Federation of Musicians (or any successor entity) to be distributed to nonfeatured musicians (whether or not members of the American Federation of Musicians) who have performed on sound recordings.

“(B) 2½ percent of the receipts shall be deposited in an escrow account managed by an independent administrator jointly appointed by copyright owners of sound recordings and the American Federation of Television and Radio Artists (or any successor entity) to be distributed to nonfeatured vocalists (whether or not members of the American Federation of Television and Radio Artists) who have performed on sound recordings.

“(C) 45 percent of the receipts shall be allocated, on a per sound recording basis, to the recording artist or artists featured on such sound recording (or the persons conveying rights in the artists' performance in the sound recordings).

“(1) If the copyright owner of a sound recording licenses an affiliated entity the right to publicly perform a sound recording by means of a digital audio transmission under section 106(6), the copyright owner shall make the licensed sound recording available under section 106(6) on no less favorable terms and conditions to all bona fide entities that offer similar services, except that, if there are material differences in the scope of the requested license with respect to the type of service, the particular sound recordings licensed, the frequency of use, the number of subscribers served, or the duration, then the copyright owner may establish different terms and conditions for such other services.

“(2) The limitation set forth in paragraph (1) of this subsection shall not apply in the case where the copyright owner of a sound recording licenses—

“(A) an interactive service; or

“(B) an entity to perform publicly up to 45 seconds of the sound recording and the sole purpose of the performance is to promote the distribution or performance of that sound recording.

“(i) NO EFFECT ON ROYALTIES FOR UNDERLYING WORKS.—License fees payable for the public performance of sound recordings under section 106(6) shall not be taken into account in any administrative, judicial, or other governmental proceeding to set or adjust the royalties payable to copyright owners of musical works for the public performance of their works. It is the intent of Congress that royalties payable to copyright owners of musical works for the public performance of their works shall not be diminished in any respect as a result of the rights granted by section 106(6).

“(j) DEFINITIONS.—As used in this section, the following terms have the following meanings:

“(1) An ‘affiliated entity’ is an entity engaging in digital audio transmissions covered by section 106(6), other than an interactive service, in which the licensor has any direct or indirect partnership or any ownership interest amounting to 5 percent or more of the outstanding voting or non-voting stock.

“(2) A ‘broadcast’ transmission is a transmission made by a terrestrial broadcast station licensed as such by the Federal Communications Commission.

“(3) A ‘digital audio transmission’ is a digital transmission as defined in section 101, that embodies the transmission of a sound recording. This term does not include the transmission of any audiovisual work.

“(4) An ‘interactive service’ is one that enables a member of the public to receive, on request, a transmission of a particular sound recording chosen by or on behalf of the recipient. The ability of individuals to request that particular sound recordings be performed for reception by the public at large does not make a service interactive. If an entity offers both interactive and non-interactive services (either concurrently or at different times), the non-interactive component shall not be treated as part of an interactive service.

“(6) A ‘retransmission’ is a further transmission of an initial transmission, and includes any further retransmission of the same transmission. Except as provided in this section, a transmission qualifies as a ‘retransmission’ only if it is simultaneous with the initial transmission. Nothing in this definition shall be construed to exempt a transmission that fails to satisfy a separate element required to qualify for an exemption under section 114(d)(1).

“(7) The ‘sound recording performance complement’ is the transmission during any 3-hour period, on a particular channel used by a transmitting entity, of no more than—

“(i) by the same featured recording artist; or

“(ii) from any set or compilation of phonorecords lawfully distributed together as a unit for public performance or sale in the United States,

if no more than three such selections are transmitted consecutively:

Provided, That the transmission of selections in excess of the numerical limits provided for in clauses (A) and (B) from multiple phonorecords shall nonetheless qualify as a sound recording performance complement if the programming of the multiple phonorecords was not willfully intended to avoid the numerical limitations prescribed in such clauses.

“(8) A ‘subscription’ transmission is a transmission that is controlled and limited to particular recipients, and for which consideration is required to be paid or otherwise given by or on behalf of the recipient to receive the transmission or a package of transmissions including the transmission.

“(9) A ‘transmission’ includes both an initial transmission and a retransmission.”

SEC. 4. MECHANICAL ROYALTIES IN DIGITAL PHONORECORD DELIVERIES.

Section 115 of title 17, United States Code, is amended—

(1) in subsection (a)(1)—

(A) in the first sentence by striking out “any other person” and inserting in lieu thereof “any other person, including those who make phonorecords or digital phonorecord deliveries,”; and

(B) in the second sentence by inserting before the period “, including by means of a digital phonorecord delivery”;

(2) in subsection (c)(2) in the second sentence by inserting “and other than as provided in paragraph (3),” after “For this purpose,”;

(3) by redesignating paragraphs (3), (4), and (5) of subsection (c) as paragraphs (4), (5), and (6), respectively, and by inserting after paragraph (2) the following new paragraph:

“(3)(A) A compulsory license under this section includes the right of the compulsory licensee to distribute or authorize the distribution of a phonorecord of a nondramatic musical work by means of a digital transmission which constitutes a digital phonorecord delivery, regardless of whether the digital transmission is also a public performance of the sound recording under section 106(6) of this title or of any nondramatic musical work embodied therein under section 106(4) of this title. For every digital phonorecord delivery by or under the authority of the compulsory licensee—

"(i) on or before December 31, 1997, the royalty payable by the compulsory licensee shall be the royalty prescribed under paragraph (2) and chapter 8 of this title; and

"(ii) on or after January 1, 1998, the royalty payable by the compulsory licensee shall be the royalty prescribed under subparagraphs (B) through (F) and chapter 8 of this title.

"(B) Notwithstanding any provision of the antitrust laws, any copyright owners of nondramatic musical works and any persons entitled to obtain a compulsory license under subsection (a)(1) may negotiate and agree upon the terms and rates of royalty payments under this paragraph and the proportionate division of fees paid among copyright owners, and may designate common agents to negotiate, agree to, pay or receive such royalty payments. Such authority to negotiate the terms and rates of royalty payments includes, but is not limited to, the authority to negotiate the year during which the royalty rates prescribed under subparagraphs (B) through (F) and chapter 8 of this title shall next be determined.

"(C) During the period of June 30, 1996, through December 31, 1996, the Librarian of Congress shall cause notice to be published in the Federal Register of the initiation of voluntary negotiation proceedings for the purpose of determining reasonable terms and rates of royalty payments for the activities specified by subparagraph (A) during the period beginning January 1, 1998, and ending on the effective date of any new terms and rates established pursuant to subparagraph (C), (D) or (F), or such other date (regarding digital phonorecord deliveries) as the parties may agree. Such terms and rates shall distinguish between (i) digital phonorecord deliveries where the reproduction or distribution of a phonorecord is incidental to the transmission which constitutes the digital phonorecord delivery, and (ii) digital phonorecord deliveries in general. Any copyright owners of nondramatic musical works and any persons entitled to obtain a compulsory license under subsection (a)(1) may submit to the Librarian of Congress licenses covering such activities. The parties to each negotiation proceeding shall bear their own costs.

"(D) In the absence of license agreements negotiated under subparagraphs (B) and (C), upon the filing of a petition in accordance with section 803(a)(1), the Librarian of Congress shall, pursuant to chapter 8, convene a copyright arbitration royalty panel to determine and publish in the Federal Register a schedule of rates and terms which, subject to subparagraph (E), shall be binding on all copyright owners of nondramatic musical works and persons entitled to obtain a compulsory license under subsection (a)(1) during the period beginning January 1, 1998, and ending on the effective date of any new terms and rates established pursuant to subparagraph (C), (D) or (F), or such other date (regarding digital phonorecord deliveries) as may be determined pursuant to subparagraphs (B) and (C). Such terms and rates shall distinguish between (i) digital phonorecord deliveries where the reproduction or distribution of a phonorecord is incidental to the transmission which constitutes the digital phonorecord delivery, and (ii) digital phonorecord deliveries in general. In addition to the objectives set forth in section 801(b)(1), in establishing such rates and terms, the copyright arbitration royalty panel may consider rates and terms under voluntary license agreements negotiated as provided in subparagraphs (B) and (C). The royalty rates payable for a compulsory license for a digital phonorecord delivery under this section shall be established de novo and no precedential effect shall be given to the amount of the royalty payable by a compulsory licensee for digital phonorecord deliveries on or before December 31, 1997. The Librarian of Congress shall also establish requirements by which copyright owners may receive reasonable notice of the use of their works under this section, and under which records of such use shall be kept and made available by persons making digital phonorecord deliveries.

"(E)(i) License agreements voluntarily negotiated at any time between one or more copyright owners of nondramatic musical works and one or more persons entitled to obtain a compulsory license under subsection (a)(1) shall be given effect in lieu of any determination by the Librarian of Congress. Subject to clause (ii), the royalty rates determined pursuant to subparagraph (C), (D) or (F) shall be given effect in lieu of any contrary royalty rates specified in a contract pursuant to which a recording artist who is the author of a nondramatic musical work grants a license under that person's exclusive rights in the musical work under sections 106(1) and (3) or commits another person to grant a license in that musical work under sections 106(1) and (3), to a person desiring to fix in a tangible medium of expression a sound recording embodying the musical work.

"(ii) The second sentence of clause (i) shall not apply to—

"(1) a contract entered into on or before June 22, 1995, and not modified thereafter for the purpose of reducing the royalty rates determined pursuant to subparagraph (C), (D) or (F) or of increasing the number of musical works within the scope of the contract covered by the reduced rates, except if a contract entered into on or before June 22, 1995, is modified thereafter for the purpose of increasing the number of musical works within the scope of the contract, any contrary royalty rates specified in the contract shall be given effect in lieu of royalty rates determined pursuant to subparagraph (C), (D) or (F) for the number of musical works within the scope of the contract as of June 22, 1995; and

"(II) a contract entered into after the date that the sound recording is fixed in a tangible medium of expression substantially in a form intended for commercial release, if at the time the contract is entered into, the recording artist retains the right to grant licenses as to the musical work under sections 106(1) and 106(3).

"(F) The procedures specified in subparagraphs (C) and (D) shall be repeated and concluded, in accordance with regulations that the Librarian of Congress shall prescribe, in each fifth calendar year after 1997, except to the extent that different years for the repeating and concluding of such proceedings may be determined in accordance with subparagraphs (B) and (C).

"(G) Except as provided in section 1002(e) of this title, a digital phonorecord delivery licensed under this paragraph shall be accompanied by the information encoded in the sound recording, if any, by or under the authority of the copyright owner of that sound recording, that identifies the title of the sound recording, the featured recording artist who performs on the sound recording, and related information, including information concerning the underlying musical work and its writer.

"(H)(i) A digital phonorecord delivery of a sound recording is actionable as an act of infringement under section 501, and is fully subject to the remedies provided by sections 502 through 506 and section 509, unless—

"(1) the digital phonorecord delivery has been authorized by the copyright owner of the sound recording; and

"(II) the owner of the copyright in the sound recording or the entity making the digital phonorecord delivery has obtained a compulsory license under this section or has otherwise been authorized by the copyright owner of the musical work to distribute or authorize the distribution, by means of a digital phonorecord delivery, of each musical work embodied in the sound recording.

"(ii) Any cause of action under this subparagraph shall be in addition to those available to the owner of the copyright in the nondramatic musical work under subsection (c)(6) and section 106(4) and the owner of the copyright in the sound recording under section 106(6).

"(I) The liability of the copyright owner of a sound recording for infringement of the copyright in a nondramatic musical work embodied in the sound recording shall be determined in accordance with applicable law, except that the owner of a copyright in a sound recording shall not be liable for a digital phonorecord delivery by a third party if the owner of the copyright in the sound recording does not license the distribution of a phonorecord of the nondramatic musical work.

"(J) Nothing in section 1008 shall be construed to prevent the exercise of the rights and remedies allowed by this paragraph, paragraph (6), and chapter 5 in the event of a digital phonorecord delivery, except that no action alleging infringement of copyright may be brought under this title against a manufacturer, importer or distributor of a digital audio recording device, a digital audio recording medium, an analog recording device, or an analog recording medium, or against a consumer, based on the actions described in such section.

"(K) Nothing in this section annuls or limits (i) the exclusive right to publicly perform a sound recording or the musical work embodied therein, including by means of a digital transmission, under sections 106(4) and 106(6), (ii) except for compulsory licensing under the conditions specified by this section, the exclusive rights to reproduce and distribute the sound recording and the musical work embodied therein under sections 106(1) and 106(3), including by means of a digital phonorecord delivery, or (iii) any other rights under any other provision of section 106, or remedies available under this title, as such rights or remedies exist either before or after the date of enactment of the Digital Performance Right in Sound Recordings Act of 1995.

"(L) The provisions of this section concerning digital phonorecord deliveries shall not apply to any exempt transmissions or retransmissions under section 114(d)(1). The exemptions created in section 114(d)(1) do not expand or reduce the rights of copyright owners under section 106(1) through (5) with respect to such transmissions and retransmissions."; and

(5) by adding after subsection (c) the following:

"(d) DEFINITION.—As used in this section, the following term has the following meaning: A 'digital phonorecord delivery' is each individual delivery of a phonorecord by digital transmission of a sound recording which results in a specifically identifiable reproduction by or for any transmission recipient of a phonorecord of that sound recording, regardless of whether the digital transmission is also a public performance of the sound recording or any nondramatic musical work embodied therein. A digital phonorecord delivery does not result from a real-time, noninteractive subscription transmission of a sound recording where no reproduction of the sound recording or the musical work embodied therein is made from the inception of the transmission through to its receipt by the transmission recipient in order to make the sound recording audible."

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to the rule, the gentleman from California [Mr. MOORHEAD] will be recognized for 20 minutes, and the gentlewoman from Colorado [Mrs. SCHROEDER] will be recognized for 20 minutes.

The Chair recognizes the gentleman from California [Mr. MOORHEAD].

(Mr. MOORHEAD asked and was given permission to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. MOORHEAD. Mr. Speaker, I yield myself such time as I may consume.

Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of H.R. 1506, the Digital Performance Right in Sound Recordings Act of 1995. I would like to thank the gentlewoman from Colorado [Mrs. SCHROEDER] for her co-operation and hard work on this important legislation. I also want to commend the gentleman from Michigan [Mr. CONYERS], an original cosponsor of H.R. 1506, for his support and leadership in bringing about the compromise that made this legislation possible. The Subcommittee on Courts and Intellectual Property began last Congress to try and construct legislation to take care of what all parties agree is a likely problem for U.S. record companies and the people who sing and play music. The problem concerns home subscription services for the digital transmission of music offered by different companies. This type of service permits the home subscriber, for a monthly fee, to select music. The company providing a subscription service can purchase a single record and play it for hundreds of subscribers and by so doing displace record sales.

Under current law, owners of almost every kind of copyright work have exclusive rights to authorize the public performance of that work. But sound recordings and the artists and companies that produce them have no such performance rights. Records sold at a store is the primary source of income for the record companies and for the singers. When a song is played on the radio or a digital audio cable service, neither the musicians who perform the work nor the record company have a legal right to control or receive compensation. H.R. 1506 will provide a very limited right for this purpose.

This new right is limited in that it only applies to digital audio transmission services that are sold primarily to the home. It does not apply to traditional radio and TV broadcasts, or to background music services, such as Muzak or 3M nor does it apply to public radio, restaurants, department stores, hotels, amusement parks.

The purpose of this legislation is to insure that performing artists, record companies and others whose livelihood depends upon effective copyright protection for sound recordings will be protected as new technologies affect the ways in which their creative works are marketed.

WHAT ABOUT THE PUBLIC INTEREST

The Department of Justice's Antitrust Division reviewed the compromise agreement and sent a letter to the subcommittee supporting the compromise saying that it will "advance competition" and by adopting the two amendments that they recommended the new language will preclude the recording companies from acting as a cartel and exploiting the combined market power associated with the pooling of intellectual property rights and thereby prevent the driving up of prices that consumers will have to pay for their product.

This legislation will also permit the development of new technologies that will be used and enjoyed by the consumer. It will also provide the consumer with access to a variety of choices of new entertainment which will be regulated by the market. We must remember that our copyright industries contribute more to the U.S. economy and employ more workers than any single manufacturing sector in the United States Between 1977 and 1993, employment in the U.S. copyright industries more than doubled to 3 million workers, which is 2.5 percent of the total U.S. work force. During the same period, the U.S. copyright industry employment grew almost four times the annual rate of the whole economy—2.6 percent versus 0.7 percent. In 1993, the U.S. copyright industries achieved estimated foreign sales of $45.8 billion. After automobiles and parts, the copyright industry is the second largest industry in exports.

Again, I want to thank the committee members for their patience and support and I would like to congratulate the parties of interest for working together and coming up with what I believe is a good, solid piece of legislation, that's both good for the industry and good for the American consumer.

Mr. Speaker, in conclusion, this legislation is the first step in bringing our copyright industries closer to the information superhighway. As we enter the digital and information age, the protection of America's intellectual property is essential. It's essential for two reasons. First, for the development, use, and advancement of new technology, and second, such protection will encourage more creative works from which society is the ultimate benefactor.

I am not aware of any opposition to this legislation. It has the support of the American Federation of Musicians, the American Federation of Television and Radio Artists, the record industries, the songwriters, the radio and TV broadcast industry, and the administration.

I urge a favorable vote on H.R. 1506.

Mr. Speaker, I reserve the balance of my time.

Mrs. SCHROEDER. Mr. Speaker, I yield myself such time as I may consume.

Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of H.R. 1506, and yield myself such time as I may consume.

I strongly support the establishment in our copyright law of a digital performance right in sound recordings. In the digital age, creation of this right becomes imperative if we are to ensure that creators and copyright owners receive fair compensation for their property.

I also want to emphasize how important the creation of this right is with respect to our efforts to ensure strong protection for intellectual property on a global basis. While complete harmonization of our copyright laws with those of other countries is not possible, it is difficult for us to persuade other countries to protect intellectual property if our own laws are not sufficiently strong.

I particularly want to commend the various interested parties who have spent long and arduous hours in negotiations with respect to this bill. Under the leadership of our subcommittee chairman, the gentleman from California, we have seen the parties negotiate successfully in a way that makes the bill before us today as strong as possible. I think the result is a positive one for all parties involved, and I urge my colleagues to support it.

Mr. Speaker, I reserve the balance of my time.

Mr. MOORHEAD. Mr. Speaker, I yield such time as he may consume to the gentleman from Wisconsin [Mr. SENSENBRENNER].

Mr. SENSENBRENNER. Mr. Speaker, I rise in support for H.R. 1506, the Digital Performance Right in Sound Recordings Act of 1995. This bill gives recording artists and their recording companies copyright protection over the transmission of digital sound recordings. Under current law, songwriters, but not recording artists or companies, receive royalties when their music is played on radio or television.

Artists and companies receive much of their compensation through the sale of compact discs, records, and tapes that are often promoted on radio and television. However, new interactive services are being created which allow consumers to use their TV's and computers to order any recording at any time. These subscriber services threaten sales of CD's, records and tapes. With this legislation recording artists will have a performance right in digital transmissions which will afford them the opportunity to receive compensation when their performances are transmitted digitally. Presently, under American copyright law, owners of almost every kind of copyrighted work have exclusive rights to authorize the public performance of that work. It is time to provide recording artists and companies some copyright protection.

H.R. 1506 is equally important for what it doesn't do. This bill does not require businesses, such as bars and restaurants to pay an additional performance royalty when they play music. Such businesses should be allowed the play "incidental" or background music without having to pay fees to music performers. Background music is not now and will never be a substitute for consumer purchases of prerecorded music.

I congratulate Chairman MOORHEAD and all the parties who contributed to the negotiations on this issue and made this compromise legislation possible. H.R. 1506 brings copyright law up-to-date to accommodate the new digital technologies in today's marketplace. I strongly urge its passage.

Mrs. SCHROEDER. Mr. Speaker, I yield 4 minutes to the distinguished gentleman from Michigan [Mr. CONYERS], the ranking member of the subcommittee.

(Mr. CONYERS asked and was given permission to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. CONYERS. Mr. Speaker, my congratulations again to the chairman of the subcommittee, the gentleman from California [Mr. MOORHEAD], who was joined by the gentlewoman from Colorado [Mrs. SCHROEDER] and the gentleman from California [Mr. BERMAN] to make sure that we got to this point.

Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of the measure. The sounds of harmony that I hear today on H.R. 1506 are, well, music to my ears.

I am truly delighted that our friends in the recording industry, the performing rights societies, the broadcasters and the background music services have, under the auspices of this subcommittee, done the tough job of hammering out a compromise agreement that is acceptable to all.

When Mr. MOORHEAD asked me to join with him as a lead cosponsor of H.R. 1506, we both knew that such a process would be essential to the final resolution of this matter. We both knew that H.R. 1506 as introduced would not be the final word, but rather the logical starting point of a process which broke down in an unfortunate manner last year.

Three major issues were critical to the resolution of this matter.

First, there was disagreement about the exclusive rights to license performances of digital music on interactive or audio-on-demand services and whether this would be a right shared with the performance rights societies.

Second, the commercial music services, like MUZAK, wanted an exemption such as provided for them in the House bill but not in the Senate bill.

Third, there was a dispute over when there is a digital delivery which affects the record companies' ability to collect royalties.

Under your leadership, Mr. Speaker, these three sticky matters have now become transformed into harmonic convergence.

The agreement requires the interactive music distributor to obtain licenses from both the record company, for the sound recording, and from the performing rights societies, for the musical composition. That seems fair to me.

Commercial background services, so long as they do not alter their operations to make copying easier, are fully exempt, and that, too, is similar to the exemption for broadcasters.

Finally, the recording industry will pay mechanical royalties at two different rates, one when records are actually sold and the customer makes a permanent copy, and one in situations where there may be copying of albums by someone who is paying only for the right to listen to the music. This settles a dispute that received a lot of discussion at the June 21 hearing.

By passing this legislation, Congress will open the door to a golden age of digital technology where—as described in a Boston University Law Review article—consumers may never have to set foot in a record store, yet have the ability to choose a musical selection from everything ever recorded without fear that it is out of stock, and be able to copy the album, at any time of the day or night, over a fiber optic cable by using a remote control while sitting in the comfort of their living rooms.

Best of all, all this will be possible without the industrial meltdown that many had feared would put the record companies out of business as a result of the new digital technology or cut off a stream of income to the creative geniuses who are America's composers and song writers.

I am especially pleased that performing artists will also benefit from this legislation. One estimate is that in 1987, performing artists should have received as much as half of the $120 million that is collected worldwide for the public performance of sound recordings; now they stand to recover royalties when recordings of their performances are distributed digitally. I urge strong support for this compromise.

Mrs. SCHROEDER. Mr. Speaker, I yield 4 minutes to the distinguished gentleman from California [Mr. BERMAN] who probably knows more about this issue than I could ever learn.

Mr. BERMAN. Mr. Speaker, I thank the gentlewoman for yielding time to me. I know longer about this bill, I do not know more about this bill. I am happy to voice my strong support of H.R. 1506, the Digital Performance Right in Sound Recordings Act, and I want to congratulate my colleague from California, CARLOS MOORHEAD, because it is on his watch that this long overdue legislation is finally coming to fruition.

The proliferation of new technologies capable of transmitting the fruits of American musical genius directly to consumers with compact disc quality, and what is more, transmitting to Americans what they want to hear when they want to hear it—commands a congressional response. It is not the technology itself which I lament; rather it is the fact that if we fail to act, then American intellectual property is highly likely to lose all meaningful protection.

The constitutional imperative that the Congress protect copyright compels us from time to time to adjust our laws to fit new circumstances. While I have long felt that a performance right in sound recordings is the unfinished business of the omnibus overhaul of our copyright code in 1976, it is the proliferation of new technologies which makes the legislation before us today more important than ever.

Some have criticized the bill for falling short of the ideal, but I have always been loathe to view the best as the enemy of the good. As a member of the Subcommittee on Intellectual Property who proudly represents many of the segments of the music industry with a deep interest in H.R. 1506, I am delighted that this legislation has finally come to fruition, and that it does justice to legitimate concerns which have been raised with us.

This legislation is long overdue, and I commend it to my colleagues for their approval.

Mrs. SCHROEDER. Mr. Speaker, I yield 2 minutes to the distinguished gentleman from Maryland [Mr. HOYER].

Mr. HOYER. Mr. Speaker, I thank the gentlewoman for yielding time to me.

Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong support of this legislation. As has been said in this modern age of technological advancement, this type of legislation is needed. Current copyright law cannot adequately address the numerous issues which arise when digital technology is used. Moreover, the number of subscribers obtaining access to digital transmissions is ever-increasing. Therefore, certain modifications to the law are necessary to ensure that recording artists' and record companies' rights are protected. This carefully crafted legislation will ensure that the recording community will not only have the ability to control the distribution of their work, but receive payment for the use of their creative works. From hip-hop to country, reggae to classical, this bill helps to ensure our talented recording artists and recording companies are fairly compensated for public performance of their work. Without this legislation many situations could and, I am sure, would arise where the artists and music companies would not be compensated for their creative work. For many of them, their livelihood depends upon their being appropriately compensated for the use of the songs they have created. It takes much time, energy, and labor to produce material which provides public enjoyment. The creators of these materials deserve to be adequately compensated.

Mr. Speaker, as I am sure some on this floor know, Stephen Foster died essentially a pauper. He died a pauper not because his music was not popular, not because many thousands of people did not play or sing or enjoy his music on a daily, weekly, monthly, and annual basis. It was because there was no system for compensating the genius that was Stephen Foster.

We have geniuses among us today, some of whom are incredibly well compensated, but unfortunately, some of the most creative, perhaps not the most famous or well-known, have not been fairly compensated. This legislation, targeted, is important in a particular area. There are many areas which copyright fails to adequately compensate those who create. Therefore, I think it is incumbent upon us, as has been said, I know, by the chairman and by the ranking member, in an increasingly technological age in which the reproduction of what others have done is much easier, and frankly, the copying and dissemination of that, without any compensation to those who created it, is becoming epidemic, it is important that this Congress act to protect those who create.

Mrs. SCHROEDER. Mr. Speaker, I yield myself such time as I may consume.

Mr. Speaker, I want to once again urge people to please vote for this. As we see the information highway coming up, this is the information that will go over the highway. If we cannot protect the creators of that information so that they can get compensated when people pull this down and copy it, then there will not be any information on the highway. This is terribly important to the future of the country in the 21st century.

I thank everyone who has worked so hard on this, especially my chairman and especially the industry, who negotiate the long and hard coming to this agreement.

Mr. Speaker, I yield back the balance of my time.

Mr. MOORHEAD. Mr. Speaker, I yield myself such time as I may consume.

Mr. Speaker, this is important legislation. It has been made possible by the leadership of the chairman of our full committee, by the ranking member of our full committee, by the ranking member of our subcommittee, and each and every member of the subcommittee. It is a group endeavor that has made it possible for us to move forward with this important bill in the new superhighway that we are building in the telecommunications industry. I ask every Member to vote "aye" on this bill.

Mr. Speaker, I yield back the balance of my time.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The question is on the motion offered by the gentleman from California [Mr. MOORHEAD] that the House suspend the rules and pass the bill, H.R. 1506, as amended.

The question was taken; and (two-thirds having voted in favor thereof) the rules were suspended and the bill, as amended, was passed.

A motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

Mr. MOORHEAD. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to take from the Speaker's table the Senate bill (S. 227) to amend title 17, United States Code, to provide an exclusive right to perform sound recordings publicly by means of digital transmissions, and for other purposes, and ask for its immediate consideration.

The Clerk read the title of the Senate bill.

The SPEAKER pro tempore (Mr. RIGGS). Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from California?

Mrs. SCHROEDER. Mr. Speaker, reserving the right to object, I do so basically to yield to the gentleman from California [Mr. MOORHEAD] to explain the purpose of his request.

Mr. MOORHEAD. Mr. Speaker, this is the companion Senate bill. This action will enable the bill to go to the President. Both this bill and the former bill basically originated in the House, but the Senate was able to get it passed in their House first, and we want the bills to go immediately to the President of the United States without having to go back to the Senate, so we are incorporating it into the Senate legislation.

Mrs. SCHROEDER. I thank the gentleman from California for his explanation. That is exactly what we want to do. We want to get these bills moving as quickly as possible.

Mr. Speaker, since the gentleman's motion does that, I withdraw my reservation of objection.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from California?

There was no objection.

The Clerk read the Senate bill, as follows:

S. 227

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

This Act may be cited as the "Digital Performance Right in Sound Recordings Act of 1995".

Section 106 of title 17, United States Code, is amended—

(1) in paragraph (4) by striking "and" after the semicolon;

(2) in paragraph (5) by striking the period and inserting "; and"; and

(3) by adding at the end the following:

"(6) in the case of sound recordings, to perform the copyrighted work publicly by means of a digital audio transmission."

SEC. 3. SCOPE OF EXCLUSIVE RIGHTS IN SOUND RECORDINGS.

Section 114 of title 17, United States Code, is amended—

(1) in subsection (a) by striking "and (3)" and inserting "(3) and (6)";

(2) in subsection (b) in the first sentence by striking "phonorecords, or of copies of motion pictures and other audiovisual works," and inserting "phonorecords or copies";

(3) by striking subsection (d) and inserting:

"(d) LIMITATIONS ON EXCLUSIVE RIGHT.—Notwithstanding the provisions of section 106(6)—

"(1) EXEMPT TRANSMISSIONS AND RETRANSMISSIONS.—The performance of a sound recording publicly by means of a digital audio transmission, other than as a part of an interactive service, is not an infringement of section 106(6) if the performance is part of—

"(A)(i) a nonsubscription transmission other than a retransmission;

"(ii) an initial nonsubscription retransmission made for direct reception by members of the public of a prior or simultaneous incidental transmission that is not made for direct reception by members of the public; or

"(iii) a nonsubscription broadcast transmission;

"(B) a retransmission of a nonsubscription broadcast transmission: Provided, That, in the case of a retransmission of a radio station's broadcast transmission—

"(i) the radio station's broadcast transmission is not willfully or repeatedly retransmitted more than a radius of 150 miles from the site of the radio broadcast transmitter, however—

"(I) the 150 mile limitation under this clause shall not apply when a nonsubscription broadcast transmission by a radio station licensed by the Federal Communications Commission is retransmitted on a nonsubscription basis by a terrestrial broadcast station, terrestrial translator, or terrestrial repeater licensed by the Federal Communications Commission; and

"(II) in the case of a subscription retransmission of a nonsubscription broadcast retransmission covered by subclause (I), the 150 mile radius shall be measured from the transmitter site of such broadcast retransmitter;

"(ii) the retransmission is of radio station broadcast transmissions that are—

"(I) obtained by the retransmitter over the air;

"(II) not electronically processed by the retransmitter to deliver separate and discrete signals; and

"(III) retransmitted only within the local communities served by the retransmitter;

"(iii) the radio station's broadcast transmission was being retransmitted to cable systems (as defined in section 111(f)) by a satellite carrier on January 1, 1995, and that retransmission was being retransmitted by cable systems as a separate and discrete signal, and the satellite carrier obtains the radio station's broadcast transmission in an analog format: Provided, That the broadcast transmission being retransmitted may embody the programming of no more than one radio station; or

"(iv) the radio station's broadcast transmission is made by a noncommercial educational broadcast station funded on or after January 1, 1995, under section 396(k) of the Communications Act of 1934 (47 U.S.C. 396(k)), consists solely of noncommercial educational and cultural radio programs, and the retransmission, whether or not simultaneous, is a nonsubscription terrestrial broadcast retransmission; or

"(C) a transmission that comes within any of the following categories:

"(i) a prior or simultaneous transmission incidental to an exempt transmission, such as a feed received by and then retransmitted by an exempt transmitter: Provided, That such incidental transmissions do not include any subscription transmission directly for reception by members of the public;

"(ii) a transmission within a business establishment, confined to its premises or the immediately surrounding vicinity;

"(iii) a retransmission by any retransmitter, including a multichannel video programming distributor as defined in section 602(12) of the Communications Act of 1934 (47 U.S.C. 522(12)), of a transmission by a transmitter licensed to publicly perform the sound recording as a part of that transmission, if the retransmission is simultaneous with the licensed transmission and authorized by the transmitter; or

"(iv) a transmission to a business establishment for use in the ordinary course of its business: Provided, That the business recipient does not retransmit the transmission outside of its premises or the immediately surrounding vicinity, and that the transmission does not exceed the sound recording performance complement. Nothing in this clause shall limit the scope of the exemption in clause (ii).

"(2) SUBSCRIPTION TRANSMISSIONS.—In the case of a subscription transmission not exempt under subsection (d)(1), the performance of a sound recording publicly by means of a digital audio transmission shall be subject to statutory licensing, in accordance with subsection (f) of this section, if—

"(A) the transmission is not part of an interactive service;

"(B) the transmission does not exceed the sound recording performance complement;

"(C) the transmitting entity does not cause to be published by means of an advance program schedule or prior announcement the titles of the specific sound recordings or phonorecords embodying such sound recordings to be transmitted;

"(D) except in the case of transmission to a business establishment, the transmitting entity does not automatically and intentionally cause any device receiving the transmission to switch from one program channel to another; and

"(E) except as provided in section 1002(e) of this title, the transmission of the sound recording is accompanied by the information encoded in that sound recording, if any, by or under the authority of the copyright owner of that sound recording, that identifies the title of the sound recording, the featured recording artist who performs on the sound recording, and related information, including information concerning the underlying musical work and its writer.

"(3) LICENSES FOR TRANSMISSIONS BY INTERACTIVE SERVICES.—

"(A) No interactive service shall be granted an exclusive license under section 106(6) for the performance of a sound recording publicly by means of digital audio transmission for a period in excess of 12 months, except that with respect to an exclusive license granted to an interactive service by a licensor that holds the copyright to 1,000 or fewer sound recordings, the period of such license shall not exceed 24 months: Provided, however, That the grantee of such exclusive license shall be ineligible to receive another exclusive license for the performance of that sound recording for a period of 13 months from the expiration of the prior exclusive license.

"(B) The limitation set forth in subparagraph (A) of this paragraph shall not apply if—

"(i) the licensor has granted and there remain in effect licenses under section 106(6) for the public performance of sound recordings by means of digital audio transmission by at least 5 different interactive services: Provided, however, That each such license must be for a minimum of 10 percent of the copyrighted sound recordings owned by the licensor that have been licensed to interactive services, but in no event less than 50 sound recordings; or

"(ii) the exclusive license is granted to perform publicly up to 45 seconds of a sound recording and the sole purpose of the performance is to promote the distribution or performance of that sound recording.

"(C) Notwithstanding the grant of an exclusive or nonexclusive license of the right of public performance under section 106(6), an interactive service may not publicly perform a sound recording unless a license has been granted for the public performance of any copyrighted musical work contained in the sound recording: Provided, That such license to publicly perform the copyrighted musical work may be granted either by a performing rights society representing the copyright owner or by the copyright owner.

"(D) The performance of a sound recording by means of a retransmission of a digital audio transmission is not an infringement of section 106(6) if—

"(i) the retransmission is of a transmission by an interactive service licensed to publicly perform the sound recording to a particular member of the public as part of that transmission; and

"(ii) the retransmission is simultaneous with the licensed transmission, authorized by the transmitter, and limited to that particular member of the public intended by the interactive service to be the recipient of the transmission.

"(E) For the purposes of this paragraph—

"(i) a 'licensor' shall include the licensing entity and any other entity under any material degree of common ownership, management, or control that owns copyrights in sound recordings; and

"(ii) a 'performing rights society' is an association or corporation that licenses the public performance of nondramatic musical works on behalf of the copyright owner, such as the American Society of Composers, Authors and Publishers, Broadcast Music, Inc., and SESAC, Inc.

"(4) RIGHTS NOT OTHERWISE LIMITED.—

"(A) Except as expressly provided in this section, this section does not limit or impair the exclusive right to perform a sound recording publicly by means of a digital audio transmission under section 106(6).

"(B) Nothing in this section annuls or limits in any way—

"(i) the exclusive right to publicly perform a musical work, including by means of a digital audio transmission, under section 106(4);

"(ii) the exclusive rights in a sound recording or the musical work embodied therein under sections 106(1), 106(2) and 106(3); or

"(iii) any other rights under any other clause of section 106, or remedies available under this title, as such rights or remedies exist either before or after the date of enactment of the Digital Performance Right in Sound Recordings Act of 1995.

"(C) Any limitations in this section on the exclusive right under section 106(6) apply only to the exclusive right under section 106(6) and not to any other exclusive rights under section 106. Nothing in this section shall be construed to annul, limit, impair or otherwise affect in any way the ability of the owner of a copyright in a sound recording to exercise the rights under sections 106(1), 106(2) and 106(3), or to obtain the remedies available under this title pursuant to such rights, as such rights and remedies exist either before or after the date of enactment of the Digital Performance Right in Sound Recordings Act of 1995."; and

(4) by adding after subsection (d) the following:

"(1) Notwithstanding any provision of the antitrust laws, in negotiating statutory licenses in accordance with subsection (f), any copyright owners of sound recordings and any entities performing sound recordings affected by this section may negotiate and agree upon the royalty rates and license terms and conditions for the performance of such sound recordings and the proportionate division of fees paid among copyright owners, and may designate common agents on a nonexclusive basis to negotiate, agree to, pay, or receive payments.

"(2) For licenses granted under section 106(6), other than statutory licenses, such as for performances by interactive services or performances that exceed the sound recording performance complement—

"(A) copyright owners of sound recordings affected by this section may designate common agents to act on their behalf to grant licenses and receive and remit royalty payments: Provided, That each copyright owner shall establish the royalty rates and material license terms and conditions unilaterally, that is, not in agreement, combination, or concert with other copyright owners of sound recordings; and

"(B) entities performing sound recordings affected by this section may designate common agents to act on their behalf to obtain licenses and collect and pay royalty fees: Provided, That each entity performing sound recordings shall determine the royalty rates and material license terms and conditions unilaterally, that is, not in agreement, combination, or concert with other entities performing sound recordings.

"(f) LICENSES FOR NONEXEMPT SUBSCRIPTION TRANSMISSIONS.—

"(1) No later than 30 days after the enactment of the Digital Performance Right in Sound Recordings Act of 1995, the Librarian of Congress shall cause notice to be published in the Federal Register of the initiation of voluntary negotiation proceedings for the purpose of determining reasonable terms and rates of royalty payments for the activities specified by subsection (d)(2) of this section during the period beginning on the effective date of such Act and ending on December 31, 2000. Such terms and rates shall distinguish among the different types of digital audio transmission services then in operation. Any copyright owners of sound recordings or any entities performing sound recordings affected by this section may submit to the Librarian of Congress licenses covering such activities with respect to such sound recordings. The parties to each negotiation proceeding shall bear their own costs.

"(2) In the absence of license agreements negotiated under paragraph (1), during the 60-day period commencing 6 months after publication of the notice specified in paragraph (1), and upon the filing of a petition in accordance with section 803(a)(1), the Librarian of Congress shall, pursuant to chapter 8, convene a copyright arbitration royalty panel to determine and publish in the Federal Register a schedule of rates and terms which, subject to paragraph (3), shall be binding on all copyright owners of sound recordings and entities performing sound recordings. In addition to the objectives set forth in section 801(b)(1), in establishing such rates and terms, the copyright arbitration royalty panel may consider the rates and terms for comparable types of digital audio transmission services and comparable circumstances under voluntary license agreements negotiated as provided in paragraph (1). The Librarian of Congress shall also establish requirements by which copyright owners may receive reasonable notice of the use of their sound recordings under this section, and under which records of such use shall be kept and made available by entities performing sound recordings.

"(3) License agreements voluntarily negotiated at any time between one or more copyright owners of sound recordings and one or more entities performing sound recordings shall be given effect in lieu of any determination by a copyright arbitration royalty panel or decision by the Librarian of Congress.

"(4)(A) Publication of a notice of the initiation of voluntary negotiation proceedings as specified in paragraph (1) shall be repeated, in accordance with regulations that the Librarian of Congress shall prescribe—

"(i) no later than 30 days after a petition is filed by any copyright owners of sound recordings or any entities performing sound recordings affected by this section indicating that a new type of digital audio transmission service on which sound recordings are performed is or is about to become operational; and

"(ii) in the first week of January, 2000 and at 5-year intervals thereafter.

"(B)(i) The procedures specified in paragraph (2) shall be repeated, in accordance with regulations that the Librarian of Congress shall prescribe, upon the filing of a petition in accordance with section 803(a)(1) during a 60-day period commencing—

"(I) six months after publication of a notice of the initiation of voluntary negotiation proceedings under paragraph (1) pursuant to a petition under paragraph (4)(A)(i); or

"(II) on July 1, 2000 and at 5-year intervals thereafter.

"(ii) The procedures specified in paragraph (2) shall be concluded in accordance with section 802.

"(5)(A) Any person who wishes to perform a sound recording publicly by means of a nonexempt subscription transmission under this subsection may do so without infringing the exclusive right of the copyright owner of the sound recording—

"(i) by complying with such notice requirements as the Librarian of Congress shall prescribe by regulation and by paying royalty fees in accordance with this subsection; or

"(ii) if such royalty fees have not been set, by agreeing to pay such royalty fees as shall be determined in accordance with this subsection.

"(B) Any royalty payments in arrears shall be made on or before the twentieth day of the month next succeeding the month in which the royalty fees are set.

"(g) PROCEEDS FROM LICENSING OF SUBSCRIPTION TRANSMISSIONS.—

"(1) Except in the case of a subscription transmission licensed in accordance with subsection (f) of this section—

"(A) a featured recording artist who performs on a sound recording that has been licensed for a subscription transmission shall be entitled to receive payments from the copyright owner of the sound recording in accordance with the terms of the artist's contract; and

"(B) a nonfeatured recording artist who performs on a sound recording that has been licensed for a subscription transmission shall be entitled to receive payments from the copyright owner of the sound recording in accordance with the terms of the nonfeatured recording artist's applicable contract or other applicable agreement.

"(2) The copyright owner of the exclusive right under section 106(6) of this title to publicly perform a sound recording by means of a digital audio transmission shall allocate to recording artists in the following manner its receipts from the statutory licensing of subscription transmission performances of the sound recording in accordance with subsection (f) of this section:

"(A) 2½ percent of the receipts shall be deposited in an escrow account managed by an independent administrator jointly appointed by copyright owners of sound recordings and the American Federation of Musicians (or any successor entity) to be distributed to nonfeatured musicians (whether or not members of the American Federation of Musicians) who have performed on sound recordings.

"(B) 2½ percent of the receipts shall be deposited in an escrow account managed by an independent administrator jointly appointed by copyright owners of sound recordings and the American Federation of Television and Radio Artists (or any successor entity) to be distributed to nonfeatured vocalists (whether or not members of the American Federation of Television and Radio Artists) who have performed on sound recordings.

"(C) 45 percent of the receipts shall be allocated, on a per sound recording basis, to the recording artist or artists featured on such sound recording (or the persons conveying rights in the artists' performance in the sound recordings).

"(h) LICENSING TO AFFILIATES.—

"(1) If the copyright owner of a sound recording licenses an affiliated entity the right to publicly perform a sound recording by means of a digital audio transmission under section 106(6), the copyright owner shall make the licensed sound recording available under section 106(6) on no less favorable terms and conditions to all bona fide entities that offer similar services, except that, if there are material differences in the scope of the requested license with respect to the type of service, the particular sound recordings licensed, the frequency of use, the number of subscribers served, or the duration, then the copyright owner may establish different terms and conditions for such other services.

"(2) The limitation set forth in paragraph (1) of this subsection shall not apply in the case where the copyright owner of a sound recording licenses—

"(A) an interactive service; or

"(B) an entity to perform publicly up to 45 seconds of the sound recording and the sole purpose of the performance is to promote the distribution or performance of that sound recording.

"(i) NO EFFECT ON ROYALTIES FOR UNDERLYING WORKS.—License fees payable for the public performance of sound recordings under section 106(6) shall not be taken into account in any administrative, judicial, or other governmental proceeding to set or adjust the royalties payable to copyright owners of musical works for the public performance of their works. It is the intent of Congress that royalties payable to copyright owners of musical works for the public performance of their works shall not be diminished in any respect as a result of the rights granted by section 106(6).

"(j) DEFINITIONS.—As used in this section, the following terms have the following meanings:

"(1) An 'affiliated entity' is an entity engaging in digital audio transmissions covered by section 106(6), other than an interactive service, in which the licensor has any direct or indirect partnership or any ownership interest amounting to 5 percent or more of the outstanding voting or non-voting stock.

"(2) A 'broadcast' transmission is a transmission made by a terrestrial broadcast station licensed as such by the Federal Communications Commission.

"(3) A 'digital audio transmission' is a digital transmission as defined in section 101, that embodies the transmission of a sound recording. This term does not include the transmission of any audiovisual work.

"(4) An 'interactive service' is one that enables a member of the public to receive, on request, a transmission of a particular sound recording chosen by or on behalf of the recipient. The ability of individuals to request that particular sound recordings be performed for reception by the public at large does not make a service interactive. If an entity offers both interactive and non-interactive services (either concurrently or at different times), the non-interactive component shall not be treated as part of an interactive service.

"(5) A 'nonsubscription' transmission is any transmission that is not a subscription transmission.

"(6) A 'retransmission' is a further transmission of an initial transmission, and includes any further retransmission of the same transmission. Except as provided in this section, a transmission qualifies as a 'retransmission' only if it is simultaneous with the initial transmission. Nothing in this definition shall be construed to exempt a transmission that fails to satisfy a separate element required to qualify for an exemption under section 114(d)(1).

"(7) The 'sound recording performance complement' is the transmission during any 3-hour period, on a particular channel used by a transmitting entity, of no more than—

"(A) 3 different selections of sound recordings from any one phonorecord lawfully distributed for public performance or sale in the United States, if no more than 2 such selections are transmitted consecutively; or

"(B) 4 different selections of sound recordings

"(i) by the same featured recording artist; or

"(ii) from any set or compilation of phonorecords lawfully distributed together as a unit for public performance or sale in the United States,

if no more than three such selections are transmitted consecutively;

Provided, That the transmission of selections in excess of the numerical limits provided for in clauses (A) and (B) from multiple phonorecords shall nonetheless qualify as a sound recording performance complement if the programming of the multiple phonorecords was not willfully intended to avoid the numerical limitations prescribed in such clauses.

"(8) A 'subscription' transmission is a transmission that is controlled and limited to particular recipients, and for which consideration is required to be paid or otherwise given by or on behalf of the recipient to receive the transmission or a package of transmissions including the transmission.

"(9) A 'transmission' includes both an initial transmission and a retransmission."

SEC. 4. MECHANICAL ROYALTIES IN DIGITAL PHONORECORD DELIVERIES.

Section 115 of title 17, United States Code, is amended—

(1) in subsection (a)(1)—

(A) in the first sentence by striking out "any other person" and inserting in lieu thereof "any other person, including those who make phonorecords or digital phonorecord deliveries,"; and

(B) in the second sentence by inserting before the period "including by means of a digital phonorecord delivery";

(2) in subsection (c)(2) in the second sentence by inserting "and other than as provided in paragraph (3)," after "For this purpose,";

(3) by redesignating paragraphs (3), (4), and (5) of subsection (c) as paragraphs (4), (5), and (6), respectively, and by inserting after paragraph (2) the following new paragraph:

"(3)(A) A compulsory license under this section includes the right of the compulsory licensee to distribute or authorize the distribution of a phonorecord of a nondramatic musical work by means of a digital transmission which constitutes a digital phonorecord delivery, regardless of whether the digital transmission is also a public performance of the sound recording under section 106(6) of this title or of any nondramatic musical work embodied therein under section 106(4) of this title. For every digital phonorecord delivery by or under the authority of the compulsory licensee—

"(i) on or before December 31, 1997, the royalty payable by the compulsory licensee shall be the royalty prescribed under paragraph (2) and chapter 8 of this title; and

"(ii) on or after January 1, 1998, the royalty payable by the compulsory licensee shall be the royalty prescribed under subparagraphs (B) through (F) and chapter 8 of this title.

"(B) Notwithstanding any provision of the antitrust laws, any copyright owners of nondramatic musical works and any persons entitled to obtain a compulsory license under subsection (a)(1) may negotiate and agree upon the terms and rates of royalty payments under this paragraph and the proportionate division of fees paid among copyright owners, and may designate common agents to negotiate, agree to, pay or receive such royalty payments. Such authority to negotiate the terms and rates of royalty payments includes, but is not limited to, the authority to negotiate the year during which the royalty rates prescribed under subparagraphs (B) through (F) and chapter 8 of this title shall next be determined.

"(C) During the period of June 30, 1996, through December 31, 1996, the Librarian of Congress shall cause notice to be published in the Federal Register of the initiation of voluntary negotiation proceedings for the purpose of determining reasonable terms and rates of royalty payments for the activities specified by subparagraph (A) during the period beginning January 1, 1998, and ending on the effective date of any new terms and rates established pursuant to subparagraph (C), (D) or (F), or such other date (regarding digital phonorecord deliveries) as the parties may agree. Such terms and rates shall distinguish between (i) digital phonorecord deliveries where the reproduction or distribution of a phonorecord is incidental to the transmission which constitutes the digital phonorecord delivery, and (ii) digital phonorecord deliveries in general. Any copyright owners of nondramatic musical works and any persons entitled to obtain a compulsory license under subsection (a)(1) may submit to the Librarian of Congress licenses covering such activities. The parties to each negotiation proceeding shall bear their own costs.

"(D) In the absence of license agreements negotiated under subparagraphs (B) and (C), upon the filing of a petition in accordance with section 803(a)(1), the Librarian of Congress shall, pursuant to chapter 8, convene a copyright arbitration royalty panel to determine and publish in the Federal Register a schedule of rates and terms which, subject to subparagraph (E), shall be binding on all copyright owners of nondramatic musical works and persons entitled to obtain a compulsory license under subsection (a)(1) during the period beginning January 1, 1998, and ending on the effective date of any new terms and rates established pursuant to subparagraph (C), (D) or (F), or such other date (regarding digital phonorecord deliveries) as may be determined pursuant to subparagraphs (B) and (C). Such terms and rates shall distinguish between (i) digital phonorecord deliveries where the reproduction or distribution of a phonorecord is incidental to the transmission which constitutes the digital phonorecord delivery, and (ii) digital phonorecord deliveries in general. In addition to the objectives set forth in section 801(b)(1), in establishing such rates and terms, the copyright arbitration royalty panel may consider rates and terms under voluntary license agreements negotiated as provided in subparagraphs (B) and (C). The royalty rates payable for a compulsory license for a digital phonorecord delivery under this section shall be established de novo and no precedential effect shall be given to the amount of the royalty payable by a compulsory licensee for digital phonorecord deliveries on or before December 31, 1997. The Librarian of Congress shall also establish requirements by which copyright owners may receive reasonable notice of the use of their works under this section, and under which records of such use shall be kept and made available by persons making digital phonorecord deliveries.

"(E)(i) License agreements voluntarily negotiated at any time between one or more copyright owners of nondramatic musical works and one or more persons entitled to obtain a compulsory license under subsection (a)(1) shall be given effect in lieu of any determination by the Librarian of Congress. Subject to clause (ii), the royalty rates determined pursuant to subparagraph (C), (D) or (F) shall be given effect in lieu of any contrary royalty rates specified in a contract pursuant to which a recording artist who is the author of a nondramatic musical work grants a license under that person's exclusive rights in the musical work under sections 106(1) and (3) or commits another person to grant a license in that musical work under sections 106(1) and (3), to a person desiring to fix in a tangible medium of expression a sound recording embodying the musical work.

"(ii) The second sentence of clause (i) shall not apply to—

"(I) a contract entered into on or before June 22, 1995, and not modified thereafter for the purpose of reducing the royalty rates determined pursuant to subparagraph (C), (D) or (F) or of increasing the number of musical works within the scope of the contract covered by the reduced rates, except if a contract entered into on or before June 22, 1995, is modified thereafter for the purpose of increasing the number of musical works within the scope of the contract, any contrary royalty rates specified in the contract shall be given effect in lieu of royalty rates determined pursuant to subparagraph (C), (D) or (F) for the number of musical works within the scope of the contract as of June 22, 1995; and

"(II) a contract entered into after the date that the sound recording is fixed in a tangible medium of expression substantially in a form intended for commercial release, if at the time the contract is entered into, the recording artist retains the right to grant licenses as to the musical work under sections 106(1) and 106(3).

"(F) The procedures specified in subparagraphs (C) and (D) shall be repeated and concluded, in accordance with regulations that the Librarian of Congress shall prescribe, in each fifth calendar year after 1997, except to the extent that different years for the repeating and concluding of such proceedings may be determined in accordance with subparagraphs (B) and (C).

"(G) Except as provided in section 1002(e) of this title, a digital phonorecord delivery licensed under this paragraph shall be accompanied by the information encoded in the sound recording, if any, by or under the authority of the copyright owner of that sound recording, that identifies the title of the sound recording, the featured recording artist who performs on the sound recording, and related information, including information concerning the underlying musical work and its writer.

"(H)(i) A digital phonorecord delivery of a sound recording is actionable as an act of infringement under section 501, and is fully subject to the remedies provided by sections 502 through 506 and section 509, unless—

"(I) the digital phonorecord delivery has been authorized by the copyright owner of the sound recording; and

"(II) the owner of the copyright in the sound recording or the entity making the digital phonorecord delivery has obtained a compulsory license under this section or has otherwise been authorized by the copyright owner of the musical work to distribute or authorize the distribution, by means of a digital phonorecord delivery, of each musical work embodied in the sound recording.

"(ii) Any cause of action under this subparagraph shall be in addition to those available to the owner of the copyright in the nondramatic musical work under subsection (c)(6) and section 106(4) and the owner of the copyright in the sound recording under section 106(6).

"(I) The liability of the copyright owner of a sound recording for infringement of the copyright in a nondramatic musical work embodied in the sound recording shall be determined in accordance with applicable law, except that the owner of a copyright in a sound recording shall not be liable for a digital phonorecord delivery by a third party if the owner of the copyright in the sound recording does not license the distribution of a phonorecord of the nondramatic musical work.

"(J) Nothing in section 1008 shall be construed to prevent the exercise of the rights and remedies allowed by this paragraph, paragraph (6), and chapter 5 in the event of a digital phonorecord delivery, except that no action alleging infringement of copyright may be brought under this title against a manufacturer, importer or distributor of a digital audio recording device, a digital audio recording medium, an analog recording device, or an analog recording medium, or against a consumer, based on the actions described in such section.

"(K) Nothing in this section annuls or limits (i) the exclusive right to publicly perform a sound recording or the musical work embodied therein, including by means of a digital transmission, under sections 106(4) and 106(6), (ii) except for compulsory licensing under the conditions specified by this section, the exclusive rights to reproduce and distribute the sound recording and the musical work embodied therein under sections 106(1) and 106(3), including by means of a digital phonorecord delivery, or (iii) any other rights under any other provision of section 106, or remedies available under this title, as such rights or remedies exist either before or after the date of enactment of the Digital Performance Right in Sound Recordings Act of 1995.

“(L) The provisions of this section concerning digital phonorecord deliveries shall not apply to any exempt transmissions or retransmissions under section 114(d)(1). The exemptions created in section 114(d)(1) do not expand or reduce the rights of copyright owners under section 106(1) through (5) with respect to such transmissions and retransmissions.”; and

(5) by adding after subsection (c) the following:

“(d) DEFINITION.—As used in this section, the following term has the following meaning: A ‘digital phonorecord delivery’ is each individual delivery of a phonorecord by digital transmission of a sound recording which results in a specifically identifiable reproduction by or for any transmission recipient of a phonorecord of that sound recording, regardless of whether the digital transmission is also a public performance of the sound recording or any nondramatic musical work embodied therein. A digital phonorecord delivery does not result from a real-time, noninteractive subscription transmission of a sound recording where no reproduction of the sound recording or the musical work embodied therein is made from the inception of the transmission through to its receipt by the transmission recipient in order to make the sound recording audible.”.

GENERAL LEAVE

Mr. MOORHEAD. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that all Members may have 5 legislative days in which to revise and extend their remarks on the bills just considered.

PROVIDING FOR DISTRIBUTION OF USIA FILM “FRAGILE RING OF LIFE”

Mr. SMITH of New Jersey. Mr. Speaker, I move to suspend the rules and pass the bill (H.R. 2070) to provide for the distribution within the United States of the U.S. Information Agency film entitled “Fragile Ring of Life.”

H.R. 2070

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

SECTION 1. DISTRIBUTION WITHIN THE UNITED STATES OF THE UNITED STATES INFORMATION AGENCY FILM ENTITLED “FRAGILE RING OF LIFE”.

(1) the Director of the United States Information Agency shall make available to the Archivist of the United States a master copy of the film entitled “Fragile Ring of Life”; and

(A) reimburse the Director for any expenses of the Agency in making that master copy available;

□ 1545

Mr. Speaker, I yield myself such time as I may consume.

(Mr. SMITH of New Jersey asked and was given permission to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. SMITH of New Jersey. Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of H.R. 2070 as introduced by our colleague, Mr. MORAN. This legislation authorizes the distribution within the United States of a specific film, “The Fragile Ring of Life” produced by the U.S. Information Agency.

This legislation is necessary because section 501 of the Smith Mundt Act of 1948 prevents the release within the United States of products commissioned by the U.S. Information Agency for 12 years.

The intent of the Smith Mundt Act is to prevent the executive branch from using the U.S. Information Agency as a political tool within the United States. While this is a reasonable objective, over the years Congress has approved the early release of several films and videotape programs through legislative action. The decision to waive the Smith Mundt Act restriction on domestic dissemination is usually based on finding the material offers worthwhile educational or cultural information of interest or value to American citizens.

The “Fragile Ring of Life” does meet these standards. The film discusses programs operating around the world that are focused on protecting sea life and coral reefs. In addition, it provides a useful summary of various efforts to establish environmentally sound practices within countries that rely upon the sea for food, commerce, or tourism.

I urge support for H.R. 2070 so that this film may be made available to domestic viewers.

Mr. Speaker, I reserve the balance of my time.

Mr. MORAN. Mr. Speaker, I yield myself such time as I may consume.

This is a very simple, straightforward, noncontroversial bill. It simply allows the film that the U.S. Information Agency sponsored, the “Fragile Ring of Fire,” to be distributed within the United States.

If it were not for this legislation, this film could not be shown for another 12 years, because, as the gentleman from

New Jersey [Mr. SMITH] said, the Smith-Mundt Act of 1948, and I gather that was no relation to the gentleman from New Jersey [Mr. SMITH], it was another Mr. Smith, but in 1948 to prevent the executive branch from using the U.S. Information Agency as a political tool, and it said that the film has to be around for 12 years before it can be shown initially in the United States.

We have passed any number of other pieces of legislation because of this restrictive law. The Thomas Jefferson papers show, which commemorated the 250th anniversary of Thomas Jefferson's birth; we had a documentary about crimes against humanity regarding the conflict in Yugoslavia; we had a film called "The Long Way Home," about the humanitarian crisis in Afghanistan; a tribute to Mickey Leland; photographs of military operations-related activities in the Republic of Vietnam for the purpose of developing and publishing military histories. All of these films served an important purpose, but they all had to get this kind of specific legislative authority before they could be shown in the United States.

The "Fragile Ring of Fire" is important because it will contribute to scholarly efforts and public awareness of these undersea issues. There are a number of private sector efforts going on to protect the world's coral reefs by revealing the incredible beauty and productivity of coral reefs in generating food, income, and employment to communities around the world. This film shows some stark examples of the environmental degradation that has occurred and highlights the most successful reef conservation programs. The filmmakers went all the way around the Florida keys, Sri Lanka, Jamaica, Egypt, Israel, Jordan, and shot some stunning underwater scenes in all of these locations. It is just so ironic that it cannot be shown in the United States.

Coral reefs are one of the most diverse and important of all natural ecosystems. They are considered the rain forests of the ocean. They are located within eight States, U.S. States and territories, and the third largest reef in the world is located next to the Florida keys. It spans 150 miles from the south of Miami to the Gulf of Mexico, and over 6 million tourists every year visit the keys to boat, fish, and snorkel and scuba dive and see more than 6,000 species of plants, fish, and invertebrates.

Because the keys are so important, not only commercially but because of protein they provide, any number of environmental contributions that coral reefs make, it is disturbing that 10 percent of the reefs have been lost already, and scientists estimate another 20 to 30 percent could be lost over the next 15 years.

That is why this is important to be shown. The State Department has a coral reef initiative that brings seven countries together to more effectively manage coral reef ecosystems.

The Department of State already has a long list of organizations that want to participate in this within the United States, schools, museums, environmental groups, and they need to be able to show this film.

I cannot imagine any reason why all of the Members would not want them to be able to show this film, and, in fact, many of the Members may want to make it available to their school systems.

I do want to express my appreciation to the gentleman from Indiana [Mr. HAMILTON], the ranking Democrat on the full committee, and the gentleman from New York [Mr. GILMAN], the chairman of the Committee on International Relations, in moving this through the committee, and lastly, I want to put in a plug in recognition to the superb staff of the Committee on International Relations, Beth Ford and Kristen Gilley. They have done a terrific job, as well as Kris King, on my staff, who has followed this for months and made sure it got legislated, as well as putting all of these thoughts together.

Mr. Speaker, I have no further requests for time, and I yield back the balance of my time.

Mr. SMITH of New Jersey. Mr. Speaker, I yield myself such time as I may consume.

I do thank the gentleman for his kind words. It is a good bill.

Mr. Speaker, I have no further requests for time, and I yield back the balance of my time.

The SPEAKER pro tempore (Mr. RIGGS). The question is on the motion offered by the gentleman from New Jersey [Mr. SMITH] that the House suspend the rules and pass the bill, H.R. 2070.

The question was taken.

Mr. SMITH of New Jersey. Mr. Speaker, I object to the vote on the ground that a quorum is not present and make the point of order that a quorum is not present.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to clause 5 of rule 1 and the Chair's prior announcement, further proceedings on this motion will be postponed.

The point of no quorum is considered withdrawn.

GENERAL LEAVE

Mr. SMITH of New Jersey. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that all Members may have 5 legislative days within which to revise and extend their remarks on H.R. 2070, the bill just considered.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from New Jersey?

There was no objection.

THE FALL RIVER VISITOR CENTER ACT OF 1995

Mr. ALLARD. Mr. Speaker, I move to suspend the rules and pass the bill

(H.R. 629) to authorize the Secretary of the Interior to participate in the operation of certain visitor facilities associated with, but outside the boundaries of, Rocky Mountain National Park in the State of Colorado.

H.R. 629

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

This Act may be cited as "The Fall River Visitor Center Act of 1995".

SEC. 2. EXPENDITURE OF FUNDS OUTSIDE AUTHORIZED BOUNDARY OF ROCKY MOUNTAIN NATIONAL PARK.

(a) VISITOR CENTER.—The Secretary of the Interior is authorized to collect and expend donated funds and expend appropriated funds for the operation and maintenance of a visitor center to be constructed for visitors to and administration of Rocky Mountain National Park with private funds on the privately owned lands described in subsection (b).

(b) DESCRIPTION OF PARCELS OF LAND.—The lands referred to in subsection (a) are described as follows:

Being land owned by H.W. Stewart, Inc., and more particularly described as follows:

Beginning at the southwest corner of the north one-half of section 16, township 5 north, range 73 west of the sixth principal meridian, Colorado; thence south eighty-seven degrees six minutes east, eight hundred and fifty-four feet; thence north two degrees west, three hundred and forty-six and one-tenth feet to the south boundary of the right-of-way of U.S. Highway 34; thence northwesterly along said south boundary nine hundred and sixty feet to the west line of said section 16; thence south along the west line of said section 16 to the point of beginning.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to the rule, the gentleman from Colorado [Mr. ALLARD] will be recognized for 20 minutes, and the gentleman from California [Mr. MILLER] will be recognized for 20 minutes.

The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Colorado [Mr. ALLARD].

Mr. ALLARD. Mr. Speaker, I yield myself such time as I may consume.

(Mr. ALLARD asked and was given permission to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. ALLARD. Mr. Speaker, this bill was brought before the Natural Resources Committee's Subcommittee on National Parks, Forests and Lands last year but could not be moved forward because of concerns raised during the planning process. I am happy to report that all of those concerns have now been addressed and the proposal was approved by the Larimer County Planning Commission in January. The Larimer County Commissioners approved the plan in March. Finally, last year the Park Service suggested a technical change to the bill language which was incorporated into this year's bill. This legislation is a fine example of how the Government and private sector can work together and I appreciate the opportunity to bring the bill before the House today.

This bill is a simple piece of legislation, but one that will have a noticeable impact on the people who enjoy the beauty and recreational opportunities at Rocky Mountain National Park. The legislation simply allows the National Park Service to enter into a cooperative agreement to operate and maintain a visitor center at the Fall River entrance to the park. The bill gives the Secretary of Interior the authority to collect and expend donated funds and expend appropriated funds for the operation and maintenance of the visitor center, which will be located outside the boundary of Rocky Mountain National Park. I introduced this legislation on January 23, 1995, and Senator HANK BROWN introduced a companion bill in the Senate on February 7, 1995.

Mr. Speaker, this is a unique project that deserves our attention and utmost consideration. For some time now there has been tremendous support to construct a visitor center at the Fall River entrance of Rocky Mountain National Park. With 1 million tourists entering the park at this entrance every year, the need to provide an orientation and interpretation facility is well known. As you can imagine, park visitation through this entrance is expected to increase in coming years, not decrease.

The need and desire for a visitor center at the Fall River site is not new. It was first documented in a plan prepared by the Park Service in 1976, and again in 1989. However, due to budget pressures and fiscal constraints this plan was never set into motion.

It was not until early 1993 that the prospect for constructing a new visitor center actually became possible. It was then that Mr. Bill Carle, owner of H.W. Stewart, Inc., approached the park superintendent with his idea for the creation of the Fall River Visitor Center.

Under the Fall River proposal, the visitor center would be built with private funds on land that will remain privately owned. The National Park Service, with assistance from the Shirley S. Scrogin Charitable Trust, the Rocky Mountain Nature Association, and the Rocky Mountain National Park Associates, would operate and maintain the visitor center. The park will use existing staff and operational funds to operate the center. Besides covering the cost of construction, the Shirley S. Scrogin Trust would also contribute funds annually for the maintenance of the center. The Rocky Mountain Nature Association, a friends of the park group, will provide a book sales operation and staff support for the center. Revenue generated from book sales will assist in defraying costs associated with the visitor center's operation. The Rocky Mountain National Park Associates, another friends of the park group, will assume the financial expenses for exhibit planning, design, and construction.

Mr. Speaker, as a member of the House Budget Committee, I can attest to the difficulty the committee faces all the time when trying to stay within the budget requirements and utilize taxpayer's money judiciously. We are constantly looking for ways to reduce spending, cut duplicative programs, and put Congress on a path toward fiscal responsibility. I believe H.R. 629 fulfills these goals and will yield savings for the Federal Government, as well as produce rewards.

I am sure you understand the financial constraints that face our National Park Service today. Due to the scarcity of dollars, it is doubtful that Rocky Mountain National Park will be appropriated—at any time in the near future—the funds necessary to construct a new visitor center from start to finish. Thus, the opportunity before us today is unique and one that we must not let fall through the cracks. The idea of a private-public partnership is one that I know many in Congress and the administration support. It makes sense from both a fiscal and practical point of view.

As I have tried to note, the benefits of this proposal are numerous: Visitors who come to Rocky Mountain National Park can enjoy the new visitor center; the Park Service will be allowed to collect fees at the Fall River entrance; and the developer will be able to reopen his businesses that were lost during a fire.

In summary, this proposal brings together the best qualities in both the public and private sectors. It combines the strengths and visions of both entities and provides a blueprint for similar joint ventures in the future. Whenever Congress has the opportunity to provide the public with the services it needs, while at the same time saving taxpayer's money, it must seize that opportunity. By passing this legislation today, we will have taken the first important step on the road to similar public-private partnerships in the future.

Mr. Speaker, I reserve the balance of my time.

Mr. MILLER of California. Mr. Speaker, I yield myself such time as I may consume.

(Mr. MILLER of California asked and was given permission to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. MILLER of California. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman from Colorado has quite accurately reflected the content of H.R. 629. It had bipartisan support coming out of the committee. We continue to support it.

Mr. Speaker, if enacted this legislation would allow the National Park Service to enter into cooperative agreements with private and not-for-profit entities in order to construct, maintain, and operate a visitors center on private land outside park boundaries of the Rocky Mountain National Park. This would be the first ever such public/private venture to address a park need.

Rocky Mountain National Park is the No. 1 tourist attraction in the State of Colorado with an annual visitation of almost 3 million people. Currently, almost 1 million of those visitors enter the park through the Fall River entrance and do so without benefit of a National Park Service facility. Such a facility would greatly enhance the stay of the park visitor by providing information on camping, trails, park rules, safety tips, and historical data on the terrain and wildlife.

There has been much local input on this proposal and I believe all parties have addressed the foreseeable issues. I look forward to the outcome of this joint venture as I believe it may be a model for similar agreements in the future.

Mr. YOUNG of Alaska. Mr. Speaker, H.R. 629 is a noncontroversial bill which will authorize the National Park Service to spend Federal funds to operate a new visitor center. The center will be developed with private funds and located on private lands just outside the entrance of Rocky Mountain National Park. The bill is consistent with Park Service plans, supported by the administration and will be funded from existing funds.

Mr. Speaker, Rocky Mountain National Park is the No. 1 tourist attraction in the State of Colorado and a new visitor center will serve to educate the visitors about the park and its resources, while encouraging a partnership with the private sector. I urge my colleagues to support this bill.

Mr. MILLER of California. Mr. Speaker, I have no further requests for time, and I yield back the balance of my time.

Mr. ALLARD. Mr. Speaker, I have no further requests for time, and I yield back the balance of my time.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The question is on the motion offered by the gentleman from Colorado [Mr. ALLARD] that the House suspend the rules and pass the bill, H.R. 629.

The question was taken; and (two-thirds having voted in favor thereof) the rules were suspended and the bill was passed.

A motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

GENERAL LEAVE

Mr. ALLARD. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that all Members may have 5 legislative days within which to revise and extend their remarks and include extraneous material on H.R. 629, the bill just passed.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Colorado?

There was no objection.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to the rule, the gentleman from California [Mr. DOOLITTLE] will be recognized for 20 minutes, and the gentleman from California [Mr. MILLER] will be recognized for 20 minutes.

The Chair recognizes the gentleman from California [Mr. DOOLITTLE].

Mr. DOOLITTLE. Mr. Speaker, I yield myself such time as I may consume.

(Mr. DOOLITTLE asked and was given permission to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. DOOLITTLE. Mr. Speaker, the primary intent of H.R. 1743 is to extend the authorization for the State Water Resources Research Institutes. Through the act, the institutes have established a Federal/State partnership in water resources, education, and information transfer. There are 54 of these institutes located at the land grant university in each of the 50 States and several of the territories. These institutes are a primary link between the academic community, the water-related personnel in Federal and State government, and the private sector. The institutes provide a mechanism for promoting State, regional, and national coordination of water resources research and training. They also serve as a network to facilitate research coordination and information transfer. Their programs are coordinated with the general guidance of the Secretary of the Interior.

This is a popular program because research from the water institutes is often directed at finding solutions to water problems that have local and regional relevance. Research results from the program are often applied to real-world problems in water management.

H.R. 1743 would expand the act's findings and focus on the need for long-term planning and policy development, support for States in water resources management, and maintaining productivity of natural resources and agricultural systems.

H.R. 1743 sets forth new requirements for the Interior Department to coordinate and cooperate with other departments and agencies of the Federal Government on water resources problems and requires an annual report on these efforts to Congress.

Mr. Speaker, I reserve the balance of my time.

Mr. MILLER of California. Mr. Speaker, I yield myself such time as I may consume.

(Mr. MILLER of California asked and was given permission to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. MILLER of California. Mr. Speaker, again, on this legislation, H.R. 1743, the Water Resources Research Act reauthorization, the gentleman from California [Mr. DOOLITTLE], the subcommittee Chair, has accurately described the bill, and it has bipartisan support, and I believe bipartisan support both here and in the Senate.

We would urge the passage of the bill. Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of H.R. 1743, a bill to amend the Water Resources Research Act of 1984.

This legislation extends the authorization of this important program for 5 years and also provides new flexibility for the program. New cost-sharing requirements are also specified in this legislation.

The Water Research Program has provided us with extraordinary benefits for 30 years. We now have water research institutes in every State, as well as in the Virgin Islands, Guam, the District of Columbia, and Puerto Rico. The program supports our educational institutions by training engineers and scientists skilled in all aspects of water research and management.

With help from the Water Research Program and the State research institutes, we have improved our capability to manage floods and to plan community growth to avoid flood damages. We have improved our ability to clean up chemical contamination of our water supplies. And we have trained hundreds of scientists, technicians, and engineers to help us solve complex water management problems.

The Water Resources Research Program authorized by H.R. 1743 is a cost-effective and inexpensive program. Costs of operating the program are shared with non-Federal interests. The program provides valuable research that is useful to local and State water managers throughout the Nation. The water research program has given us years of service and deserves our continued support.

I urge my colleagues to support H.R. 1743.

Mr. Speaker, I have no further requests for time, and I yield back the balance of my time.

Mr. DOOLITTLE. Mr. Speaker, I yield myself such time as I may consume.

I would like to thank the gentleman from California [Mr. MILLER] for his support on this.

Mr. Speaker, I have no further requests for time, and I yield back the balance of my time.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The question is on the motion offered by the gentleman from California [Mr. DOOLITTLE] that the House suspend the rules and pass the bill, H.R. 1743, as amended.

The question was taken; and (two-thirds having voted in favor thereof), the rules were suspended and the bill, as amended, was passed.

A motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

GENERAL LEAVE

Mr. DOOLITTLE. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that all Members may have 5 legislative days within which to revise and extend their remarks and include extraneous material on H.R. 1743, the bill just passed.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from California?

There was no objection.

REMOVAL OF NAME OF MEMBER AS COSPONSOR OF H.R. 2066

Mr. MILLER of California. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that my name be removed from the list of cosponsors of H.R. 2066.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from California?

There was no objection.

Mr. SAXTON. Mr. Speaker, I move to suspend the rules and pass the Senate bill (S. 268) to authorize the collection of fees for expenses for triploid grass carp certification inspections, and for other purposes.

The Clerk read as follows:

S. 268

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

SECTION 1. COLLECTION OF FEES FOR TRIPLOID GRASS CARP CERTIFICATION INSPECTIONS.

(a) IN GENERAL.—The Secretary of the Interior, acting through the Director of the Fish and Wildlife Service (referred to in this section as the "Director"), may charge reasonable fees for expenses to the Federal Government for triploid grass carp certification inspections requested by a person who owns or operates an aquaculture facility.

(b) AVAILABILITY.—All fees collected under subsection (a) shall be available to the Director until expended, without further appropriations.

(c) USE.—The Director shall use all fees collected under subsection (a) to carry out the activities referred to in subsection (a).

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to the rule, the gentleman from New Jersey [Mr. SAXTON] will be recognized for 20 minutes, and the gentleman from California [Mr. MILLER] will be recognized for 20 minutes.

The Chair recognizes the gentleman from New Jersey [Mr. SAXTON].

Mr. SAXTON. Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of S. 268. This legislation establishes a fee-for-service system whereby the Secretary of the Interior may collect fees from private fish producers for the cost of grass carp certification inspections. It also allows the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service to retain those funds for that program.

This legislation is important because many States require that grass carp, which are imported by these States to eat aquatic vegetation, must be certified as sterile or triploid. This is to ensure that these carp do not reproduce and have an adverse effect on the environment.

The Fish and Wildlife Service has been certifying the sterility of grass carp since 1979. In fiscal year 1994, over $70,000 was spent by the Service on this program. Due to budget constraints, however, the Fish and Wildlife Service has announced that it is no longer able to bear the cost of this program. Private producers have notified the Service that they are willing to pay certification costs. This legislation will allow the fee-for-service to be established so the Service can continue the program at no cost to the Federal Government.

This legislation was the subject of a hearing in my subcommittee on June 8 and it was unanimously approved by the House Resources Committee.

It is an excellent example of how a user fee can be established that is both beneficial to those who receive the inspection services and to our taxpayers.

I want to compliment our distinguished colleague from Arkansas, BLANCHE LAMBERT LINCOLN, for her leadership on this legislation.

I urge an "Aye" vote on S. 268.

Mr. Speaker, I reserve the balance of my time.

Mr. MILLER of California. Mr. Speaker, I yield myself such time as I may consume.

(Mr. MILLER of California asked and was given permission to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. MILLER of California. Mr. Speaker, I strongly support this legislation, which is a very good example of a private-public partnership that benefits the taxpayers, private industry, and the environment.

Mr. Speaker, I yield such time as she may consume to the gentlewoman from Arkansas [Mrs. LINCOLN].

(Mrs. LINCOLN asked and was given permission to revise and extend her remarks.)

Mrs. LINCOLN. Mr. Speaker, I would like to thank the gentleman from California, Mrs. MILLER, as well as the gentleman from New Jersey, Chairman SAXTON, for their assistance in this matter.

Mr. Speaker, I rise to urge adoption of this legislation before the House today that epitomizes the type of relationship that should exist between private industry and the Federal Government.

For the past several years the Fish and Wildlife Service has conducted a certification program for the triploid grass carp. This beneficial fish is utilized by 29 States to help control aquatic vegetation in lakes ponds, and streams. The triploid grass carp provides an effective, economical method of caring for these environments without the use of chemical agents.

As the use of the fish has increased over the years, a number of States have adopted regulations which require the grass carp to be certified as sterile. If a reproducing carp were introduced into these environments it could cause serious damage to the existing fish species. The certification process has assured States that the fish were sterile, thereby allowing their shipment by private aquaculturists.

In the past year the Fish and Wildlife Service conducted 550 triploid grass carp inspections at no charge to the producer. The cost of the program was $70,000. However, this year because of the dire fiscal situation that faces many agencies, the Fish and Wildlife Service has indicated that it cannot afford to operate the program.

The producers who have utilized this program have agreed to pay a fee that would cover the entire cost of the program with the understanding that the funds would be utilized for this purpose only. The Fish and Wildlife Service supports this arrangement but lacks the authority to implement it without congressional authorization.

This bill is identical to one that I introduced earlier this year and I appreciate the support of Chairman SAXTON, Chairman YOUNG, and Congressmen STUDDS in bringing this measure to the floor today. I urge my colleagues to support this legislation.

Mr. MILLER of California. Mr. Speaker, I yield myself such time as I may consume.

Mr. Speaker, I want to commend the gentlewoman from Arkansas [Mrs. LINCOLN] for her work on this legislation. She has garnered partisan support for this legislation. We urge support of the bill.

Mr. Speaker, I yield back the balance of my time.

Mr. SAXTON. Mr. Speaker, I yield myself such time as I may consume.

Mr. Speaker, I would just like to build on the comments of the gentleman from California, Mr. MILLER. The gentlewoman from Arkansas, Mrs. LINCOLN, has in fact done a yeoman's job on this bill in an atmosphere where partisan politics seems to play an overly aggressive role around here, both on the committee level and here on the House floor.

She has been able to, No. 1, fashion a bill that makes sense and, No. 2, to get support, I believe almost unanimous support, on the committee in a very, very businesslike and professional way. We appreciate that approach and are glad to have been able to work with the gentlewoman on this.

Mr. YOUNG of Alaska. Mr. Speaker, I strongly support S. 268 and feel it is appropriate to allow private fish producers to fully reimburse the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service for the costs of their certification to triploid grass carp.

The U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service began its involvement in the DNA certification of triploid grass carp nearly two decades ago. Since that time, the program has grown to more than 550 inspections per year for private producers whose fish are shipped to some 30 States. In fiscal year 1994, over $70,000 was spent by the Service on this program.

This certification process is necessary to ensure that only sterile grass carp are released in public and private waters to control aquatic vegetation.

Earlier this year, the Fish and Wildlife Service announced its intention to terminate this certification program. Since States will not allow the release of grass carp without the Service's stamp of approval, this legislation has become necessary.

S. 268 will establish a fee-for-service system and it will allow the Fish and Wildlife Service to retain those collected funds to cover the expenses of the triploid grass carp certification inspections.

I urge an "aye" vote on this measure and compliment our colleague, BLANCHE LAMBERT LINCOLN, for her leadership in bringing this matter to our attention.

Mr. SAXTON. Mr. Speaker, I have no further requests for time, and I yield back the balance of my time.

The SPEAKER pro tempore (Mr. RIGGS). The question is on the motion offered by the gentleman from New Jersey [Mr. SAXTON] that the House suspend the rules and pass the Senate bill, S. 268.

The question was taken; and (two-thirds having voted in favor thereof) the rules were suspended and the Senate bill was passed.

A motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

GENERAL LEAVE

Mr. SAXTON. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that all Members may have 5 legislative days within which to revise and extend their remarks and include extraneous material on S. 268, the bill just passed.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from New Jersey?

There was no objection.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to the rule, the gentleman from Arizona [Mr. STUMP] will be recognized for 20 minutes, and the gentleman from Mississippi [Mr. MONTGOMERY] will be recognized for 20 minutes.

The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Arizona [Mr. STUMP].

GENERAL LEAVE

Mr. STUMP. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that all Members may have 5 legislative days within which to revise and extend their remarks and include extraneous material on H.R. 2353.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Arizona?

There was no objection.

Mr. STUMP. Mr. Speaker, I yield myself such time as I may consume.

(Mr. STUMP asked and was given permission to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. STUMP. Mr. Speaker, H.R. 2353 would extend various authorities of the Department of Veterans Affairs relating to delivery of health care for eligible veterans.

These include: Hospital care and medical services for Persian Gulf veterans; use of nursing home care alternatives; care for homeless veterans; and extension of the VA Health Scholarship program.

H.R. 2353 would also: Provide for the daily display of the POW/MIA flag at VA medical centers; authorize VA to contract for utilities at the Audie Murphy Memorial Veterans Hospital in San Antonio, TX; and, change the name of the Walla Walla, Washington VA Medical Center to the Jonathan M. Wainwright VA Medical Center.

As with all VA medical care authorizations, these provisions would be subject to annual appropriation levels.

The Congressional Budget Office has stated this bill would not affect direct spending or receipts; thus it would have no pay-as-you-go implications under budget rules.

As always, I want to thank the VA Committee's ranking member, my distinguished colleague SONNY MONTGOMERY for his cooperation and assistance on this bill.

I also want to thank CHRIS SMITH, vice-chairman of the VA Committee, the chairman of the Hospital and Health Care Subcommittee, TIM HUTCHINSON, and the subcommittee's ranking member, CHET EDWARDS, for their bipartisan work on this measure.

They worked in a very constructive fashion with other members of the committee to resolve differences of opinion and accommodate Members desires in regard to this legislation.

Mr. FOX, a member of the Hospitals and Health Care Subcommittee should be acknowledged for his instruction of the provision regarding flying the POW/MIA flag at VA medical centers.

Additionally, I would like to acknowledge the contribution of Mr. NETHERCUTT of Washington, for his leadership in renaming the VA medical center in Walla Walla, in honor of Gen. Jonathan M. Wainwright.

General Wainwright was an extremely distinguished military and civic leader, so it is very fitting that we take this action in his memory.

Mr. Speaker, I yield such time as he may consume to the gentleman from New Jersey [Mr. SMITH], the vice chairman of the committee, for an explanation of the bill.

Mr. SMITH of New Jersey. Mr. Speaker, I strongly support H.R. 2353, legislation to extend eight needed expiring authorities for the Department of Veterans Affairs, including other important provisions. Before I summarize the bill I would like to express my sincere appreciation for the bipartisan effort and the outstanding work by those who brokered the compromises reflected in the bill. Through the efforts of Chairman HUTCHINSON and Chairman STUMP, along with full committee ranking member MONTGOMERY, and CHET EDWARDS, the ranking member of the subcommittee, we were able to reach a compromise that reflects not only the specific concerns of each of the members but also the needs of our veteran constituents. We were also, in the spirit of compromise, able to address the concerns of Mr. NETHERCUTT and the entire Washington State delegation to rename the Walla Walla VA

Medical Center for a Great Washingtonian, Gen. Jonathan M. Wainwright.

Under this bill, hospital and medical care services for Persian Gulf veterans will be extended for 3 years, until December 31, 1998.

This bill also extends the following seven authorities: Contract authority for alcohol and drug abuse care through December 31, 1997; the nursing home care alternatives program through December 31, 1997 with an evaluation due to Congress March 31, 1997; The Health Scholarships program to December 31, 1997, with a report by a private contractor due to Congress March 31, 1997; enhanced-use lease of real property authority to December 31, 1997 with a report due to Congress March 31, 1997; the community-based residential care for homeless chronically mentally ill veterans to December 31, 1997; the demonstration program of compensated work therapy and therapeutic transitional housing to December 31, 1997; and the homeless veterans pilot program to December 31, 1998.

Section 2 of the bill requires the VA to submit to Congress by March 1, 1997 a report on the advantages and disadvantages of consolidating the following programs: Alcohol and drug abuse contract care, community-based residential care to homeless chronically mentally ill veterans, and compensated work therapy and therapeutic transitional housing.

Section 2 also includes a compromise provision which authorizes a report on the scientific evidence concerning the health consequences of military service in the Persian Gulf war.

Section 3 of the bill repeals the authority of the VA to provide grants to the Veterans Memorial Medical Center in the Philippines.

Section 4 of the bill permits the daily display of the POW/MIA flag at Department of Veterans Affairs medical centers.

Section 5 authorizes contract authority for utilities at the Audie L. Murphy Memorial Medical Center, San Antonio, Texas.

Finally, Section 6 authorizes the name change of the Walla Walla VA Medical Center to the Jonathan M. Wainwright Department of Veterans Affairs Medical Center, a great American hero and son of the State of Washington.

Mr. Speaker, this legislation is strongly supported by the Department, professional organizations representing the affected groups, and the Committee on Veterans' Affairs. Both the Subcommittee on Hospitals and Health Care and the full committee unanimously reported this measure. I strongly support passage of this legislation.

Mr. MONTGOMERY. Mr. Speaker, I yield myself such time as I may consume.

Mr. Speaker, I want to start by thanking the gentleman from Arizona [Mr. STUMP], the chairman of the committee, for bringing this bill to the floor. I also want to commend the gentleman from Arkansas [Mr. HUTCHINSON], and also the gentleman from New Jersey, [Mr. CHRIS SMITH], who handled the bill today. The gentleman from Arkansas [Mr. HUTCHINSON] is the chairman of the Subcommittee on Hospitals and Health Care, and also, the gentleman from Texas [Mr. CHET EDWARDS], the ranking member on this side, for their work in moving this measure to the House today.

As the gentleman from Texas [Mr. EDWARDS] said last week, along with the gentleman from Arizona [Mr. STUMP], we like to do things that affect veterans in a nonpartisan fashion, and this bill demonstrates our commitment to that principle.

Mr. Speaker, I would like to take a minute or two to talk about two important areas of this legislation. The first is the authority to provide health care on a priority basis to Persian Gulf veterans. Although the vast majority of these veterans do not have health concerns, there has been a great deal of attention paid to those with undiagnosed illnesses.

I would like to point out, Mr. Speaker, that in fact we passed historic legislation last year that if there is an undiagnosed illness of a veteran who was in the Persian Gulf, who served over in that faraway land, that that veteran can draw disability either for his or her family on a temporary basis until the research gets forward and helps us decide what the cause of that illness is. Both the Congress and the President are determined to get answers for those undiagnosed illnesses.

Mr. Speaker, I want to assure those veterans that if they need health care, I would hope they would go to the veterans hospital where they are, and they can try and we will try to search out the answers to some of these cases that have not been solved on the illness.

The second topic that I would like to briefly touch upon is the extension of the authorization for programs addressing the problems of veterans with mental illnesses. This bill authorizes the VA to continue to help veterans who are homeless or who have been recently discharged from the hospital.

The VA has a number of different programs to provide medical care, transitional housing and work therapy for these veterans. These are very important programs because they provide hope and dignity to veterans who have served their country and who are now suffering from the most invisible pain of mental illness. These veterans are very dependent on the Government for basic human needs and we have a special duty to continue to care for them.

Mr. Speaker, I urge my colleagues to support this bill.

Mr. Speaker, I yield such time as she may consume to the gentlewoman from Florida [Mrs. THURMAN].

Mrs. THURMAN. Mr. Speaker, I thank the gentleman from Mississippi

[Mr. MONTGOMERY] for yielding me this time, and I stand here ready to support H.R. 2353 and commend the work that has been done on this by the gentleman from Arizona [Mr. STUMP], the chairman of the committee. However, Members will hear me more than once on this issue for the next, at least for the 104th Congress, because I think there is something that needs to continue to be pointed out about veterans health care.

Mr. Speaker, in the U.S. Senate there was a Member that actually brought this up as well. I think the gentleman from Arizona [Mr. STUMP] might be well aware because he and I actually share some similar problems with Arizona and Florida.

As most of you know, Florida is a very popular veteran's destination. Between 1980 and 1990, the veterans population within my district increased immensely. For example, in Pasco County the number of veterans increased 56 percent; for Gilchrist County, it increased 63 percent; and in Marion County, the number of veterans increased 76 percent.

In the past, the VA has attempted to better allocate limited resources through the resource planning and management system [RPM]. Unfortunately, the Department of Veterans Affairs is reluctant to implement the proposals and findings of the RPM and relocate resources to meet this shifting demand. According to a July 19, 1995, GAO report, the Department has failed to fully implement the new budgeting method known as the resource planning and management system.

The GAO stated:

Because VHA lacked resources to fund all facilities' expected needs, it chose to limit the resources given to facilities with growing workloads. . . . For facilities with decreasing workloads, VHA chose not to reduce their funding in proportion to the expected decreases in workload. These decisions led only to small adjustments in the funding for the projected cost of increased workload, while facilities with decreasing workloads received more resources than they were projected to need.

In other words, those that were decreasing in workload actually were getting almost the same amount, while we that were increasing were getting less, or at least not meeting our needs.

Throughout the country, as well as in my home State of Florida, inequities exist in veterans health funding which need to be addressed. For example, the national average cost per veteran for medical services and administration as contained in the Department of Veterans Affairs Summary of Expenditures by State for fiscal year 1993 was $574. Florida, however, was allocating $405 per veteran for a veteran population of 1,719,022, the second largest veteran population in the Nation. Earlier in the summer, I pointed out that the total VA health care expenditures in Florida for fiscal year 1994 were the same as total expenditure levels in Illinois and Pennsylvania, even though Florida's veteran population is 620,000 greater than Illinois and 330,000 greater than Pennsylvania's. In short, I would just like the chairman and the ranking member to know, I really believe we need to push for the Department of Veterans Affairs to allocate funding to ensure that veterans have equal access to quality health care regardless of what region they live in or which facility provides them services.

I think that is something all of us in this Congress believe we need to do to make sure that those men and women who fought for this country, some which have lost their lives, but those that returned, are given the same opportunities no matter where they live.

Again, Mr. Speaker, I thank the gentleman from Mississippi [Mr. MONTGOMERY] very much for his giving me the opportunity to bring this to the Congress' attention.

Mr. MONTGOMERY. Mr. Speaker, I would like to thank the gentlewoman for her comments. It is a problem we certainly will take a look at, and I think the gentleman from Arizona [Mr. STUMP] has about the same problem as she does as far as veterans moving into your area.

Mr. Speaker, I yield such time as he may consume to the gentleman from Texas [Mr. EDWARDS], the ranking member on the Subcommittee on Hospitals and Health Care. The gentleman from Texas has done a splendid job on that subcommittee and as a committee member of the Committee on Veterans' Affairs.

Mr. EDWARDS. Mr. Speaker, I thank the gentleman from Mississippi [Mr. MONTGOMERY] and I rise in support of H.R. 2353, as amended.

This bill, H.R. 2353, as amended, would extend VA's authority to provide needed services to veterans. Of particular importance, the bill would extend the period during which VA may furnish priority care to Persian Gulf veterans, without regard to whether health problems from which they suffer have been adjudicated as service incurred.

The bill would also permit VA to continue several high-visibility programs which help in rehabilitating homeless and chronically mentally ill veterans. These and other extensions in the bill are needed because in each instance the underlying legal authority to furnish care will expire on or before January 1, 1996.

H.R. 2353, as amended, would also underscore our commitment to achieving a full accounting of the status of American prisoners of war and missing in action by providing for display of the POW/MIA flag at VA medical centers.

Mr. Speaker, I especially want to pay tribute to the gentleman from Pennsylvania [Mr. FOX] for his leadership effort and fighting so that all Americans can be reminded of the fact that we do still have American MIA's and that we should never forget either our MIA's or our American POW's who have served this country. Had it not been for that gentleman's particular leadership on this effort, I do not think this provision would be in the bill and he deserves our credit and our support for that leadership.

This bill also provides a framework for VA to achieve cost savings at the Audie Murphy VA Medical Center in San Antonio, TX, through contracts with a non-Federal institution for construction and shared use of an energy production facility.

I would like to commend my friend and colleague, the gentleman from Texas [Mr. TEJEDA], for his hard work on this provision. While Mr. TEJEDA is not here on the floor today because of a recent operation, our debt of thanks goes out to him. And if he happens to be watching this today, I know I speak on behalf of all of my colleagues in this House in saying we wish him well and appreciate his leadership and input on this bill.

Mr. Speaker, once again, it must be either a Monday or a Tuesday and it must once again be veterans legislation, because the chairman of the committee, the gentleman from Arizona [Mr. STUMP], and the ranking member, the gentleman from Mississippi [Mr. MONTGOMERY], have done their business one more time. They have crafted, with the help of the gentleman from Arkansas [Mr. HUTCHINSON], a bipartisan piece of legislation that is important to our Nation's veterans and they have brought it to the floor without discord, without fighting.

Mr. Speaker, there will not be anyone in the press gallery reporting on this, but, hopefully, once again, as happened last week and so many times before, the cooperative efforts of Mr. STUMP and Mr. MONTGOMERY have resulted in positive, good, constructive legislation coming through this House that will benefit millions of our Nation's veterans who have served our country.

Mr. MONTGOMERY. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman yield?

Mr. EDWARDS. I yield to the gentleman from Mississippi.

Mr. MONTGOMERY. Mr. Speaker, I appreciate the gentleman's mentioning the gentleman from Texas [Mr. TEJEDA], who is a member of the committee, and we are certainly pulling for him.

One thing I talked to the gentleman from Arizona [Mr. STUMP] about is, usually veterans bills are always up first in number. This time we are at the bottom, but I am sure that correction will be looked into, and I appreciate the gentleman's yielding.

Mr. EDWARDS. Mr. Speaker, I thank the gentleman. I am sure they just saved the best for last.

Mr. Speaker, I also want to congratulate the gentleman from Mississippi, [Mr. MONTGOMERY] and the gentleman from Arizona, [Mr. STUMP] and I urge support of this bill.

Mr. STUMP. Mr. Speaker, I yield myself such time as I may consume.

Mr. Speaker, I would like to acknowledge the very diligent work of the gentleman from Texas [Mr. EDWARDS]. He is always there, always willing to compromise, and stays right there. I thank both he and the gentleman from Pennsylvania [Mr. FOX] for resolving the issues of the POW-MIT problem of flying the flag at the VA centers and in working out their differences, and I commend both of them.

Mr. Speaker, I yield such time as he may consume to the gentleman from Pennsylvania [Mr. FOX].

Mr. FOX of Pennsylvania. Mr. Speaker, I too want to thank very much the gentleman from Arizona [Mr. STUMP], the chairman of the committee, and the ranking member, the gentleman from Mississippi [Mr. MONTGOMERY], and, of course, my colleague who has worked with me on this bill, the gentleman from Texas [Mr. EDWARDS], for his help in making this day possible, and also to the gentleman from Arkansas [Mr. HUTCHINSON], the chairman of the subcommittee, and to my good friend, the gentleman from New Jersey [Mr. SMITH], for his efforts in moving ahead this important veterans legislation.

In addition to extending expiring health care authorities, we act today to honor our commitment to the 2,202 brave American soldiers who are still missing or unaccounted for, and to their families.

It is our duty to remember these proud warriors and their families and to do everything within our power to obtain a full accounting. Particularly in light of the President's recent normalization of relations with Vietnam, we must ensure that we remain vigilant. Mr. Speaker, in our duty to American POW and MIA's. Today I am proud to join my colleagues on the Veterans' Affairs Committee in offering H.R. 2353, which includes a provision to have the POW/MIA flag flown daily at each Department of Veterans Affairs Medical Center until the President determines that the fullest possible accounting has been made.

As you know, Mr. Speaker, the National League of Families POW/MIA flag has been recognized by law as the Symbol of the Nation's concern and commitment to resolving as fully as possible the data on Americans still prisoner, missing, and unaccounted for. It is appropriate that this flag be flown at the institutions which we have established to care for those who have served our great country.

The POW/MIA flag is already flown daily at the Coatesville VA Medical Center in Coatesville, PA. Veterans there are grateful for this visible symbol of the concern and commitment of the U.S. Government to their missing brethren.

I would like to thank again Chairman STUMP, ranking member MONTGOMERY, Chairman HUTCHINSON, ranking member EDWARDS, with whom I have worked with so long, the gentleman from New Jersey, Mr. SMITH, the American Legion, and the national POW/MIA legislative network for their support and I urge my colleagues to fully support H.R. 2353.

Mr. MONTGOMERY. Mr. Speaker, I have no further requests for time, and I yield back the balance of my time.

Mr. STUMP. Mr. Speaker, I have no further requests for time, and I yield back the balance of my time.

The SPEAKER pro tempore (Mr. RIGGS). The question is on the motion offered by the gentleman from Arkansas [Mr. STUMP] that the House suspend the rules and pass the bill, H.R. 2353, as amended.

The question was taken.

Mr. SMITH of New Jersey. Mr. Speaker, on that I demand the yeas and nays.

The yeas and nays were ordered.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to clause 5 of rule I and the Chair's prior announcement, further proceedings on this motion will be postponed.

RECESS

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to clause 12 of rule I, the Chair declares the House in recess until 5 p.m.

Accordingly (at 4 o'clock and 28 minutes p.m.), the House stood in recess until 5 p.m.

AFTER RECESS

The recess having expired, the House was called to order by the Speaker pro tempore (Mr. RIGGS) at 5 p.m.

ANNOUNCEMENT BY THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to clause 5, rule I, the Chair will now put the question on each question on which further proceedings were postponed earlier today in the order in which that question was entertained.

Votes will be taken in the following order:

First, the approval of the Journal, followed by votes on H.R. 2070 de novo and H.R. 2353 by the yeas and nays.

The Chair will reduce to 5 minutes the time for any electronic vote after the first such vote in this series.

THE JOURNAL

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to clause 5 of rule I, the pending business is the question of the Speaker's approval of the Journal of the last day's proceedings.

The question was taken; and the Speaker pro tempore announced that the ayes appeared to have it.

Ms. MOLINARI. Mr. Speaker, I object to the vote on the ground that a quorum is not present and make the point of order that a quorum is not present.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Evidently a quorum is not present.

The Sergeant at Arms will notify absent Members.

So (two-thirds having voted in favor thereof), the rules were suspended and the bill, as amended, was passed.

The result of the vote was announced as above recorded.

A motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

Mr. BARCIA. Mr. Speaker, due to difficulties with return air flights from Michigan today, I was unable to vote on rollcalls 714, 715, and 716.

Had I been present, I would have voted "yea" on rollcall 714, the motion to approve the Journal, "aye" on rollcall 715 providing for U.S. distribution of the "Fragile Ring of Life" film, and "yea" on rollcall 716, extending certain Veterans' Affairs Health and Medical Care Expiring Authorities.

PERMISSION FOR COMMITTEE ON THE BUDGET TO FILE REPORT ON THE BUDGET RECONCILI-ATION ACT

Mr. MILLER of Florida. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that the Committee on the Budget may have until midnight tonight to file the report to accompany the Budget Reconciliation Act.

The SPEAKER pro tempore (Mr. FOGLIETTA). Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Florida? There was no objection.

SPECIAL ORDERS

The SPEAKER pro tempore (Mr. FOLEY). Under the Speaker's announced policy of May 12, 1995, and under a previous order of the House, the following Members will be recognized for 5 minutes each.

INCREASE DEBT CEILING NOW

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Under a previous order of the House, the gentleman from Florida [Mr. GIBBONS] is recognized for 5 minutes.

Mr. GIBBONS. Mr. Speaker, I am talking to the regularly elected Speaker of the House of Representatives, who happens to be the head of the Republican Party here in this Congress.

Mr. Speaker, three times the Secretary of the Treasury has written you this year asking you to move on increasing the debt ceiling. Every Member of your party has already voted to increase the debt ceiling to $5.5 trillion.

Why the delay, Mr. Speaker? Are you attempting to cause a Government wreck? You know, Mr. Speaker, that the Government runs out of borrowing authority. In fact, it is already out of borrowing authority, but is can only be stretched until the end of this month.

This is a serious matter. It is already costing the Federal taxpayers money. It already is acting as a tax increase to the tune of about $15 billion over a 6-year period. And your refusal to allow the debt ceiling legislation to come to the floor so that it can be extended can only be classified, as far as I am concerned, as an attempt to perpetuate a government wreck upon the American people.

Today the Treasury had to suspend selling special obligations to States and local governments. This will prevent the States and local governments from refinancing the debt that they had planned to refinance to reduce interest payments of their own citizens on those local debts. Already a number of States, including my own State of Florida, have had to cancel their refinancing because the Treasury window is not open, because the Treasury can no longer issue these obligations. This is just the first of a series of cascading events that are already in process.

Mr. Speaker, you have done some remarkable things in your short career around here, but you are the first person, Mr. Speaker, to remove and put the Federal obligations in the role of having a risk factor added to them. In 200 years the U.S. Government has never defaulted on an obligation.

Mr. Speaker, you said the other day that you did not care whether we defaulted on an obligation or not, you would keep the window closed on increasing the debt for as much as 60 days. I do not know who you are trying to bluff, but you ought to know, Mr. Speaker, that this is already costing the American taxpayers money, just like a tax would cost them money, this increase in interest rates.

A 10-point increase in basis points will cost the American taxpayers $15 billion over a 6-year period. This increase in basis points will also reduce the value of American private pension funds. Let me repeat this: This 10-point basis-point increase in interest rates that has already occurred and is occurring at this very moment, and it can get worse, has already cost the private pension plans $8 billion in assets.

Mr. Speaker, your actions are reckless. You need to bring up the debt ceiling legislation as rapidly as possible. Your obstinacy in doing this will prove nothing. Every Member of your party in both the House and the Senate have already voted to direct an increase in the debt ceiling until 1997, and the amount of money increase in the debt ceiling has already been fixed in legislation they are voting on.

I cannot think of anything you are doing, Mr. Speaker, except trying to blackmail the Government into a government wreck. This is irresponsible action. You should back off of that course of action immediately, Mr. Speaker.

CONGRESS SHOULD KEEP IN

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Under a previous order of the House, the gentleman from Georgia [Mr. KINGSTON] is recognized for 5 minutes.

Mr. KINGSTON. Mr. Speaker, you know, there are a lot of great statesmen that have walked through the halls of Congress for many years from both parties, people who have done so much with the budget, people who have done a lot with the Judiciary, people who have done a lot with the House rules and appropriations process. Fair men and women on both sides of the aisle have added so much to the institution. Sometimes people ask me, well, what is your identity? What great issue have you done?

I guess after thinking about this, oh, for a long time, Mr. Speaker, I would say, maybe I could be best described as the Congressman in the carpool line. Not really glamorous, but you know, I do, every Monday, drive the carpool. Then often after driving the carpool, I go over to the Piggly Wiggly, buy a little milk or whatever we happen to run out of. Then if you see me on a Saturday, I am at the soccer field. Our daughter plays soccer.

Often I will go to other things. Last weekend, for example, I went to Midway, GA, for an opening of a school down there, actually not an opening, but a new building of a school in the community that was an African-American community in coastal Georgia over 100 years ago. We are trying to restore that area. There is a lot of good leadership on that.

After that meeting I went to the Farm Bureau meeting in Folkston, GA. Then the next day, Mr. Speaker, I went to Odom, GA, to the Odom homecoming. The population of Odom last year went from 692 to over 700 people this year.

During this period, all day long, whether I am in the carpool line or at the grocery store or at the Farm Bureau meeting or at the Odom homecoming, people are coming up to me and asking me about Medicare, asking me about the budget, asking me about the debt ceiling. They are giving me opinions on Bosnia, and all kinds of different things, the space station B-2. Sometimes the questions are from people that know more about the issue than I do. Other times they are general questions. Generally they just want me to listen to them. I try my best to do that, Mr. Speaker, as I know every other Member of Congress does.

I think we can be proud that so many of our Members are good listeners. They do return back home. They do listen. But now let us compare ourselves to the other body. In this House, in this great U.S. Capitol, we have two bodies. We have the lower House and then we have the other body, which decorum does not permit me using their name. When we refer to the folks on the other side of the Capitol as the other body, I did not know we were speaking of a corpse. But that is what we are. We are speaking of folks who are not coming home and are not listening and not going to the grocery store and are not going to the homecomings and listening to the man and woman on the street on their different views.

I think as a result of that, Mr. Speaker, our product of government is not as good as it should be, because I believe that one of the key things we have to do as representative government is always remember who sent us here, why they sent us here, and remember the promises and the representations that were made to these folks.

We are going into a very critical period, Mr. Speaker. We have passed 12 appropriations bills. They are now in that other body. Some of them have come back and we have had some conference committee meetings on them. But the bulk of our work is still yet to be done. The bulk of our work, including not just finalization of the appropriations process, but the reconciliation, where we amass all the bills, all the legislation into one monster bill that we have to pass on both sides.

Through this process, I believe House Members in both parties have paid close attention to the constituents back home. A lot of our constituents in Georgia, for example, are saying you all are not going far enough. You are backing off on your promises. You are not doing what you said you are going to do. Maybe in some areas you have gone too far too fast. But people want us to listen, and they want to be assured that what we are doing is in the interests of what is best for the Republican Party but for the American public.

I believe that that is the case, Mr. Speaker. But I must say I worry about our friends on the other side of the aisle, if they are listening to the degree that they need to be listened to. I would urge the folks back home, because of that, to continue writing Members of the House and the Senate and give opinions on how they feel, because I do not think the message in every case is getting through. As we go into the budget process, right now it is even more important than other times.

Mr. Speaker, I yield to the gentleman from California [Mr. DORNAN], if he would like some time.

Mr. DORNAN. Mr. Speaker, I just wanted to tell the gentleman, I want to associate myself with his remarks. I am going to ask for a 5-minute special order here myself to discuss the infamous O.J. Simpson trial. I wanted to let the Chair know that I was going to ask for that when the gentleman is through. I certainly appreciate the 5-minute special order.

Mr. KINGSTON. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman from California is never without an opinion and never without truth and righteousness. It was refreshing to see the gentleman the other night spouting some of his views.

THE PROBLEM OF MEDICARE FRAUD AND ABUSE

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Under a previous order of the House, the gentleman from Connecticut [Ms. DELAURO] is recognized for 5 minutes.

Ms. DELAURO. Mr. Speaker, I am proud to kick off a series of 5-minute special orders this evening to address the growing problem of Medicare fraud and abuse. It is shameful that Members of Congress have been virtually denied the opportunity to discuss the leadership's proposal to cut Medicare by $270 billion, and it is unprecedented its rollback of Medicare fraud law enforcement.

The Republican plan would devastate Medicare to pay for a tax giveaway for the wealthy, but it also misses a golden opportunity to fix a major problem with Medicare. In fact, it actually makes this serious problem worse. The GOP plan actually will make it easier for Medicare cheats to get away with their health care scams. This plan rips off American taxpayers and American seniors.

Many of us are genuinely concerned with strengthening the Medicare system, and we have urged a crackdown on Medicare fraud. I am happy that some of my colleagues have joined with me tonight to talk about this critical issue. I am proud to commend the gentleman from Michigan [Mr. LEVIN] for his commitment to combatting fraud and abuse in Medicare. The gentleman from Michigan plays a key role on the Committee on Ways and Means in the effort to toughen the punishments for fraud and strengthening our enforcement capabilities.

I would like to recognize the gentleman from Illinois [Mr. DURBIN], an original cosponsor of my legislation, the Health Care Prosecution Act, to combat fraud and abuse in our health care system. The gentleman has been a leader in the fight to defeat the GOP's Medicare cuts and to restore integrity to the Medicare program for our elderly.

I also would like to thank the gentleman from New Jersey, Mr. FRANK PALLONE, and the gentleman from Ohio, Mr. SHERROD BROWN, for joining us tonight. Their work on the Committee on Commerce to remedy fraud and abuse in the Medicare system has been invaluable.

We are here tonight, Mr. Speaker, to let the American people know that the Republican bill does not, let me repeat, it does not toughen enforcement measures. It does not even defend the status quo. Far worse, the Republicans turn back the clock on Medicare fraud enforcement.

Just today, Mr. Speaker, the Inspector General of Health and Human Services and the Justice Department that monitors, the policemen, if you will, the fraud that occurs in the health care system said that the Republican proposal would make it harder for the government to obtain convictions under an anti-kickback statute, and, in fact, would cripple the Justice Department's ability to crack down on health care fraud.

The Congressional Budget Office estimates that stopping the growing problem of fraud could save as much as $80 billion. And despite this evidence, the GOP plan does nothing to crack down on waste, fraud and abuse. That is because the plan has nothing to do with fixing Medicare, it has everything to do with providing the Republicans' rich political supporters with a fat tax giveaway.

Mr. Speaker, while I am sadly disappointed, I am not surprised, as the Washington Times, not exactly a liberal publication, reported last week Speaker Gingrich dismissed the necessity of cracking down on Medicare cheats by suggesting that we have insufficient jail space to lock up all the crooks in the system. The GOP shows no hesitation to crack down on the elderly, the sick, the disabled, the poor, and the young in their plan. But when it comes to targeting the real bad guys, the Republicans suddenly express concern about inadequate vacant correctional facility space.

The congressional leadership is not interested in correcting and punishing the criminal elements in the Medicare system. However, I have introduced legislation in this Congress, the Health Care Prosecution Act, to do just that. My bill stops health care cheats in their tracks. It retrieves the financial losses in restitution and fines and it puts the criminals behind bars so that they are unable to pull off more health care scams in the future.

Further, my legislation establishes a temporary health care fraud and abuse commission to study the nature and the extent of fraud in our system. This blue ribbon panel would make recommendations to Congress on innovative approaches to attack fraud.

Mr. Speaker, there are a lot of good ideas out there about how to attack Medicare fraud, waste and abuse. I am sorry that my Republican colleagues have chosen to pursue none of that.

Mr. Speaker, I am delighted to be joined by additional colleagues tonight who will also address this issue of Medicare fraud and abuse and the way that we might address it, and that it is not addressed in the Republican proposal.

REPUBLICANS WEAKEN FRAUD AND ABUSE PROVISIONS IN THEIR BILL

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Under a previous order of the House, the gentleman from Michigan [Mr. LEVIN] is recognized for 5 minutes.

Mr. LEVIN. Mr. Speaker, I congratulate the gentlewoman from Connecticut [Ms. DELAURO] for talking about this issue, and I would like to say a few words as a Member of the Committee on Ways and Means.

Mr. Speaker, we worked on this issue. I was deeply disappointed with the product that came out of the committee: $270 billion in Medicare cuts in order to pay for a tax break, mostly for wealthy families, is bad enough, doubling the monthly premium for seniors in part B, the physician and other provider part of Medicare, is bad enough, especially when we take into account, for example, looking at Michigan, that 85 percent of the seniors in Michigan have an income annually of less than $25,000 and $15,000 is the annual income of 70 percent of the seniors.

So doubling the premium is bad enough, Mr. Speaker, but the Republicans went further and they weakened the fraud and abuse provisions of Medicare. They weakened them.

Mr. Speaker, I want to refer to a few documents. There are two sets of penalties involved: one is criminal, where there is intentional serious fraudulent action; and the other is monetary civil penalties, where the offense is less serious. Both of them are weakened.

The criminal is weakened by adding a provision requiring that the significant purpose of the effort must have been inducing essentially fraudulent or other similar activity.

On this, here is what the Justice Department says, Mr. Speaker. This is of the Republicans that is now in the bill that will be before us on Thursday. "The proposed amendment will seriously undercut our anti-kickback enforcement efforts". This is the Justice Department. The Republicans did not listen to them.

Here is what the Inspector General of the Health and Human Services department says. "These proposals would cripple the efforts of law enforcement agencies to control health care fraud and abuse in the Medicare program and to bring wrongdoers to justice".

Here is what the GAO says about the change in the Republican bill in the criminal statute. "The effect could well be to make it easier to disguise the intent behind kickback arrangements or make disguises currently used more effective in evading prosecution".

In a word, Mr. Speaker, when it comes to criminal sanctions against fraud and abuse, the bill that will be before us on Thursday would make it much more difficult and would weaken our efforts. And, look, the HHS IG points out that the GAO estimates loss to Medicare from fraud and abuse at 10 percent of total Medicare expenditures, or about $18 billion.

Why then, Mr. Speaker, are the Republicans weakening these provisions?

There is also a weakening of the monetary provisions, the civil provisions, and, here again, there is no reason to do it. Here is what the GAO says. "We agree with the Inspector General of HHS that this new definition of 'should know', which essentially would require proof of reckless activity, would, as drafted, significantly curtail enforcement under the Medicare civil monetary penalty provisions". Significantly curtail enforcement.

Now, why is this being done? The Washington Times, October 4, the headline is GOP's Medicare plan takes hit for weakness in stopping fraud. Why are the Republicans doing this? It is terribly misguided.

Searching for a reason, the Speaker, on October 12, said this. "The speaker defended GOP moves to reduce penalties and enforcement efforts against Medicare fraud by saying it is more important to lock up murderers and rapists than dishonest doctors".

I think the answer is, Mr. Speaker, we can do both. We should, obviously, lock up everybody, everybody who is convicted of murder and rape. However, that is not an excuse to let dishonest providers off the hook.

Mr. Speaker, I urge everybody to take a look at this. This Republican effort is terribly misguided.

REPUBLICANS MEDICARE BILL WORSENS PROBLEM OF FRAUD AND ABUSE

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Under a previous order of the House, the gentleman from New Jersey [Mr. PALLONE] is recognized for 5 minutes.

Mr. PALLONE. Mr. Speaker, I also want to address the problem of waste, fraud, and abuse in Medicare and say that I am very pleased to be a cosponsor, an original cosponsor, of the gentleman from Connecticut, Ms. DELAURO's, bill to deal with the problem.

As she pointed out, she is trying to address this problem. But, unfortunately, the Republican leadership, in their Medicare bill, which we are going to vote on, I understand, this Thursday, does not. In fact, Speaker GINGRICH's proposal, the Republican leadership proposal on Medicare actually makes the problem of waste, fraud, and abuse in the Medicare Program seriously worse.

The reason for that is, essentially what the Republican leadership is doing with this Medicare bill is trying to achieve savings by cutting Medicare to provide money for a tax cut primarily for the well-to-do. So their concern about problems dealing with waste, fraud, and abuse is really relatively minor in the overall bill that they have and that they will bring before the House.

I am concerned, Mr. Speaker, because we had a hearing, we were not allowed a hearing in the Committee on Commerce, which I sit on, to actually deal with the Republican Medicare proposal, but we decided that we would have our own hearing. And the day after the bill was first presented to us last week, we had our own Democratic hearing on Medicare. Interestingly enough, a number of representatives from the various Federal agencies that go after those who abuse the Medicare System, or commit fraud on the Medicare System, testified to the problems that exist in this bill with fraud and abuse.

Essentially, Mr. Speaker, what they say is that the Medicare restructuring proposed by Speaker GINGRICH and the Republican leadership actually weakens the Government's ability to weed out bad practices and Medicare scams. Over the course of 7 years, $126 billion could be saved by reducing fraud and abuse, but the GOP bill makes the existing civil monetary penalties and the antikickback laws considerably more lenient. According to the inspector general of the Department of Health and Human Services, the Medicare restructuring legislation by the Republicans would substantially increase the Government's burden of proof in cases under the Medicare-Medicaid antikickback statute. And although a fund would be created to direct money recovered from wrongdoers, this fund would not go to further law enforcement efforts.

Now, just to put this in perspective, here we are, pursuant to this Republican proposal, squeezing every last dime or nickel out of the Medicare Program with these spending caps that limit how much can be spent on Medicare, and in the context of that, with our health care system and the quality of our health care system significantly declining because of these cuts, we are now, instead of addressing fraud and abuse and trying to save some more money there, actually making it easier for fraud and abuse to take place.

Mr. Speaker, I think one of the speakers mentioned that the Congressional Budget Office actually estimated that over the 7 years of this Republican Medicare Program, the regulatory relief would actually incur an additional expense of $1.1 billion. In other words, it would cost us another billion dollars or more in this Medicare Program because of the relaxation of the laws that deal with fraud and abuse.

Now, I just want to just give some brief statements that were made by June Gibbs Brown, the inspector general of the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, at our Commerce alternative hearing on October 3, because she basically specifies why it is true that this Republican bill will cripple efforts of the Federal and State law enforcement agencies to control fraud and abuse in the Medicare system.

She says, "We believe that H.R. 2425 contains several provisions which would seriously erode our ability to address Medicare and Medicaid fraud and abuse."

Here are some of the examples she cites. "The bill would make the existing civil monetary penalty and antikickback laws considerably more lenient." She goes on to say, "The bill would relieve providers of the legal duty to use reasonable diligence for ensuring that the claims they submit to Medicare and Medicaid are true and accurate. This will have the effect of increasing the government's burden of proof in cases under the civil monetary penalties law. In an era where there is great concern about fraud and abuse in the Medicare and Medicaid Programs, it would not be appropriate to relieve providers of the duty to use reasonable diligence to ensure that their claims for payment are truthful and accurate."

She then says, "The bill would substantially increase the government's burden of proof in cases under the Medicare-Medicaid antikickback statutes. For the vast majority of present-day kickback schemes, the proposed legislation would place an insurmountable burden of proof on the government."

She then says, "The bill would create new exemptions to the Medicare-Medicaid antikickback statute, which could be readily exploited by those who wish to pay rewards or incentives to physicians for the referral of patients."

But worst of all, Mr. Speaker, even though the bill creates a fund for directing moneys recovered from wrongdoers, the moneys do not go to the enforcement agencies within the Government to continue their efforts to try to stop fraud and abuse. It is incredible to me, Mr. Speaker, that in all the talk about Medicare, that this is what we have in this Republican bill.

O.J. SIMPSON IS GUILTY

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Under a previous order of the House, the gentleman from California [Mr. DORNAN] is recognized for 5 minutes.

Mr. DORNAN. Mr. Speaker, I said earlier during someone else's 5-minute special order that I was going to discuss the O.J. Simpson case. I used to represent, for 6 years, the precinct in Los Angeles, the real estate name is Brentwood, CA, where Nicole Simpson had her throat slashed to her spine, and where young Ron Goldman, doing a simple act of kindness, bringing over a pair of reading glasses belonging to Nicole Simpson's mother, then stumbled on to a situation where he yelled either hey, hey, hey or hey, O.J.

The word on the streets of Brentwood, in Los Angeles, from the lawyer of the Goldman family is that one of the defense witnesses lied on the stand.

That he actually told all of his friends that, "O.J. is going to kiss me if he beats this," and that he actually physically saw O.J. Whether that is true remains to be seen. This is somebody who should be polygraphed, should be arrested for perjury, if in fact he told all of his friends that he heard Goldman say, "Hey, O.J.," which means he gave his life beyond common courtesy as a Good Samaritan in trying to interfere into what he thought was a beating, until he saw the flash of the knife in the moonlight. I believe that Ron Goldman, at age 25, did die as a hero.

Mr. Speaker, in these short few minutes I want to discuss what I would like to do in an hour special order. If this truly was the double murder or the trial of the century, then it should be discussed on the floor of this, the world's most important legislative body, this Knesset, this House of Commons, this Duma. This House should discuss this issue.

Last night I watched an hour on the murder of Stanford White, the New York architect, on the roof garden of Madison Square Garden which he designed. If that was the trial of the century, and it was only 6 years into the century, or the Lindbergh trial, when I was an infant, was the trial of a century, and this has eclipsed all of that; if more people were aware of the O.J. murder than the atrocity of the bombing in Oklahoma City, or just about anything other than the assassination of President Kennedy or Pearl Harbor, for those of us old enough to remember that, then it should be discussed on this floor.

In this brief, 5-minute introduction to what I intend to do here for an hour, let me say three things. One, of course, O.J. Simpson did it. Of course he did it. Of course the jury did not hear Nicole's statements, because it was hearsay, to several friends. "He will kill me and he will get away with it. He will O.J. his way out of it. He thinks he is above the law."

O.J. Simpson is now called the butcher of Brentwood, my former area that I raised five of my children in. Two of my children came home from the hospital to a little house on Chenault three short blocks from the murder scene. Of course he did it.

No. 2, Mr. Speaker, I am going to, with my last breath, defend cameras in the courtroom, because about 50 million people in this country became the 13th juror. They knew more than the alternates did. We must never sequester human beings like this again. They feel they are locked up with less contact with the outside world than Simpson, so of course they felt they were angry with the State. But we must keep the cameras in the courtroom or we would not have know more evidence than the jury itself knows.

No. 3, we must reopen this case. I said this to Mr. Garcetti. I said this to my friend, Sheriff Sherwin Block. And I have said it to the detectives, the prime detectives, one of the trio of detectives that handled most of the evidence. And he said to me on the phone last week, "Congressman, we had gobs of evidence we did not use."

How can Garcetti stamp his foot like a petulant child, when a third of this country believes O.J. Simpson was not just not found guilty, not that he was acquitted, but that he is innocent. You cannot leave a third of this country in a fog that a murderer or double killers, maybe more than one, Colombian necklacing drug lords are out there going to terrorize some other family.

We must put this to rest. And here is what I told the detectives and in 4 short minutes, they bought my case. Reopen it. Take Johnny Cochran and Simpson at his word and go look for the killer or killers. Let us reinterview everybody that was interviewed in this case and then a second and a third tier of potential witnesses.

Go over every speck of evidence. It is locked up. Play one lab in this country off against the other. And then come out with a paper or report 6 months or a year from now. And those of us who were the 13th jurors who followed this trial know what the verdict will be. It was the butcher of Brentwood. Mr. Simpson, who if he had any decency, would not ruin his children's lives. He slaughtered their mother. He would go to Mexico, or some foreign country, and get out of our face.

He is shocked that we are not groveling and accepting him back. He told the gentleman from California [Mr. DREIER], on the Tuesday before the murder, that he voted for Bush and that he told that to Clinton's face when they played golf.

I will do this in a 60-minute special order, Mr. Speaker. But let me close on this line. As I told the Presidential candidates in New Hampshire, that Republican millionaires who voted for Bush are more a jury of his peers and they would have found him guilty.

These poor, emotionally distraught jurors were not his peers. Not his peers. He did it. He simply did it, and he has not gotten away with it yet; not in the court of public opinion.

REPORT ON RESOLUTION PROVIDING FOR CONSIDERATION OF H.R. 2259, DISAPPROVAL OF CERTAIN SENTENCING GUIDELINE AMENDMENTS

Ms. PRYCE, from the Committee on Rules, submitted a privileged report (Rept. No. 104-279) on the resolution (H. Res. 237) providing for the consideration of the bill (H.R. 2259) to disapprove certain sentencing guideline amendments, which was referred to the House Calendar and ordered to be printed.

AMERICANS SHOULD PAY ATTENTION TO THE REPUBLICAN MEDICARE REFORM AGENDA

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Under a previous order of the House, the gentleman from Illinois [Mr. DURBIN] is recognized for 5 minutes.

Mr. DURBIN. Mr. Speaker, there are many items and subjects debated on the floor of the House, as the previous speaker indicated, from the O.J. Simpson trial to some items that are considered to be very parochial, very regional, very specific.

But there will be a debate on the floor of the House this week which I am afraid has not caught the attention of the American people. The reason I have this fear is because of the gravity and importance of this debate, not only to tens of millions of senior citizens across America, but to all of their families as well.

You can measure the importance of an item in the U.S. House of Representatives by the time we dedicate to that item, in most cases, but not when it comes to this Gingrich Medicare reform. Take a look at this chart as an indication of the time that we have spent in committee hearing on the Medicare reform plan of NEWT GINGRICH.

Well, we spent 10 days looking into Ruby Ridge. We spent 10 days looking into Waco. We have spent 28 days of committee hearings on Whitewater. And how many days have we spent on a $270 billion cut in Medicare? Look closely. One. One day.

The fact of the matter is that even as of this weekend, we are just learning what is included in this bill; a bill which will literally affect every family in America.

My mother is 86 years old. She lives by herself. She has had some medical problems. Thank goodness for Medicare. It's been there when she needed it, and that story is told over and over again. She is happy, but equally important, her family is happy.

As her son, and my brothers, we are all very content that she is under Medicare and has quality health care available to her and a quality of life, which was not around 30 years ago.

So, the Republicans come to the floor and say, We are just trying to preserve Medicare. Well, excuse me if I am skeptical. Medicare was created by the Democrats. A person like BOB DOLE voted against the Medicare plan when it was originally proposed, and many Republicans did as well.

This plan for Medicare has been in place for 30 years, a creation of the Democrats, has worked and worked well. We fear, many of us on the Democratic side of the aisle, that the Gingrich Medicare reform plan is a disaster.

Mr. Speaker, I think the Republicans know it as well. They will not bring it out in the light of day. They will not let us see the details of it. They will not let us have committee hearings. They will not even let us offer but one amendment, one substitute. They are talking about maybe 2 hours of debate on the floor of the House for something that could literally affect American families for decades to come.

Let me tell my colleagues several of the things they should know about it. The Republicans want to cut $270 billion out of Medicare spending. They say that is to save Medicare. That is not what the trustees say.

The trustees say we need to reduce spending by $90 billion, one-third of the amount. Why did they triple the cuts to increase premiums for seniors, to reduce the services available? They need the money for other purposes, and the purposes are very clear. They want to create a tax-break package. A package which, frankly, goes way beyond what working families need.

It is a tax-break package primarily for the wealthiest people in this country: $245 billion dollars. Nothing new. This is the old Republican philosophy. The big business philosophy. The trickle-down philosophy. If you give enough money to the wealthiest people in this country, the Republicans believe that somehow it will eventually get down to working families.

Well, I applaud them for their consistency, even though they have been proven wrong historically and economically. But here they go again. To find the money for it, they want to cut Medicare.

The other thing that troubles me greatly is if you talk to people who receive Medicare payments, the providers, you will find that by and large they are honest and ethical people who are working hard to provide good quality health care, and God bless them for their hard work.

But they will also acknowledge that there are a lot of wrongdoers as well.

One to two percent of the people who turn in bills to Medicare are frankly trying to rip-off the Government through fraud and waste and abuse. We know it and we know it costs us dearly.

We estimate 10 percent of all Medicare billing each year is fraudulent; $18 billion lost that should be spent to help people and reduce our deficit. We have had some tough laws on the books. They should get tougher. But know what? The Gingrich Republican approach on Medicare reform lightens the load; makes it harder to prove fraud on the part of those who would try to rip-off the system.

They say it is a sweetheart deal which the Speaker cut with some of the interest groups. I do not know if it is or not, but the bottom line is the Federal prosecutors who have looked at the Republican Medicare reform plan have come to the conclusion that it is going to make it tougher to go after the wrongdoers. That is not fair and it is not fair to the seniors and it is not fair to the taxpayers.

Mr. Speaker, I hope the people of the United States will tune into this debate this week. The Republicans have tried to keep it under wraps. Now it is time to bring it out into the light of day and make sure America knows what is in store for them if these Gingrich Medicare reform plans go through.

MEDICARE REFORM SHOULD ROOT OUT FRAUD AND ABUSE

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Under a previous order of the House, the gentleman from Ohio [Mr. BROWN] is recognized for 5 minutes.

Mr. BROWN of Ohio. Mr. Speaker, I have conducted numerous town meetings and hearings in my district on Medicare. As my friend, the gentleman from Illinois [Mr. DURBIN], just said, unfortunately, hearings have not taken place in this institution in this body for the public to hear them.

But at these hearings which I have conducted, and in town meetings, I have heard over and over again people's anger about the $270 billion in Medicare cuts in order to pay for tax breaks for the wealthiest citizens in this country, the people who need them the least.

But what also concerns me and what troubles me is something else that I hear at these hearings, these town meetings, and that is people believe there is a good deal of fraud in the Medicare system. That fraud is something we have to aggressively pursue and prosecute and root out and do something about.

That is why it particularly troubles me and concerned me to see an article in USA Today, an editorial on Friday, and the headline reads, "Medicare Reform Invites Doctors To Bend the Rules. Easing Limits on Physicians' Self-Referral Is Bound To Cost the Medicare Program Billions of Dollars That It Can't Afford."

USA Today goes on to say:

No wonder the American Medical Association has signed on to Medicare reform, with the deal that they made with Republican leadership. The Republican Medicare bill actually promotes fraud, waste and abuse in several areas, particularly in its weakening of the ban on physician referral of Medicare and Medicaid patients for tests and treatment in places where the doctor has a financial interest.

Another newspaper talking about this agreement made between Republican leadership and the American Medical Association says:

Regrettably the Speaker's concessions made an already bad Medicare bill substantially worse. The Gingrich bill was never designed to give the elderly high-quality health care. It is less likely to do so now.

Unfortunately, this piece of legislation, this Medicare bill which the American people have not been able to find out much about, because there have not been hearings in this institution, that Gingrich Medicare bill eliminates fraud by legalizing it. It simply makes things legal that were not legal before. It encourages more fraud, instead of less.

Not too long ago, about a week ago, in the Committee on Commerce, a committee on which I sit, the committee that heard the Medicare and Medicaid bills. Rather, did not really hear them, because we were not allowed to have hearings, but a committee that discussed Medicare and Medicaid and allowed amendments and we talked about the bill, my colleague, the gentleman from Michigan [Mr. STUPAK], offered a substitute bill that would have, instead of cutting $270 billion in Medicare in order to give tax breaks to the wealthiest citizens in this country, would have gone directly after fraud and abuse in the Medicare program.

Unfortunately the chairman of the committee ruled the Stupak substitute out of order. We were not able to debate this or discuss this and we were not allowed to vote for a bill, instead of $270 billion in cuts to Medicare beneficiaries and to give tax breaks to the wealthiest citizen, instead it would have devoted resources to rooting out fraud.

The Office of Inspector General reports that every year for every $1 spent on going after fraud and investigators and inspectors and prosecutors, that $80 is recovered that can go back into the Medicare system. So why are we cutting $270 billion out of Medicare to pay for tax breaks for the wealthy and why are we cutting back on the enforcers and the investigators and the prosecutors and the people that for every dollar spent can recover $80?

I think it goes back to that editorial in USA Today about the arrangement that the American Medical Association made with the Republican leadership in this House. It is troubling to me that we could save much more than even the trustees said. They said that we need to cut $89 billion in order to keep Medicare strong for the next decade or so. We are saying that pursuing fraud the way that we can save almost $100 billion. The inspector general says that 10 percent of Medicare moneys are fraudulent, that over the space of the next 7 years, $200 billion will be lost to fraud. If we can go after that fraud, whether it is durable medical equipment reform, whether it is putting in civil penalties for kickbacks, whether it is strengthening conflict of interest rules, whether it is grand jury disclosure, increased subpoena authority, all these together, if we can only save half, if we can only recover half of the fraud in the Medicare system, we will have more than enough to meet the trustees' recommendation, to keep Medicare strong for the next 10 years.

Mr. Speaker, it simply does not make sense to make these cuts in Medicare to give tax breaks to the wealthy. We should go after fraud aggressively. We should crack down on fraud, not cut senior citizens' ability to get health care.

MEDICARE DECEPTION

The SPEAKER pro tempore (Mr. GUTKNECHT). Under the Speaker's announced policy of May 12, 1995, the gentleman from Washington [Mr. McDERMOTT] is recognized for 60 minutes as the designee of the minority leader.

Mr. McDERMOTT. Mr. Speaker, in these Halls in 2 days we will have a vote on H.R. 2425. It is the Republicans' plan to slash Medicare by $270 billion over the next 7 years. Now, if you believe the Republican rhetoric, every one of us here would think that these drastic cuts are necessary to prevent the Medicare program from going bankrupt. Nothing could be further from the truth. These cuts have little to do with saving Medicare or the part A trust fund.

Let me say, we throw terms around in this House that are often not well understood by the public. Medicare is divided into two pieces: part A, which is the hospital payments, and part B, which is the payments to doctors and other providers of services to the elderly. These cuts have little to do with saving part A.

The Republicans are cutting $270 billion from Medicare because they want to use that money to offset the $245 billion in tax cuts for wealthy Americans.

Now, ask yourself this: If the Republicans were so concerned about the impending bankruptcy of the Medicare trust fund, how come they never mentioned it before November 1994? It is ironic, when you think about it, that with all of the Republican rhetoric about saving the trust fund, the only action they took this year in 1995 was to approve a tax provision in the Contract on America which takes money out of the hospital trust fund through a reduction in the amount of Social Security taxes paid. Over $36 billion would be removed from the fund over the next 7 years as a result of that legislation that has already passed this floor.

You heard me right. The first thing the Republicans did was to take $36 billion out of the trust fund. They will stand out here and say we have to put this money into the trust fund, but the first thing they did was to take it out.

Furthermore, the issue of the insolvency of the part A trust fund has simply nothing to do with Medicare's supplementary insurance that is part B, the report of the part B trustees, which you never hear mentioned on this floor, is that part B is actuarially sound. It is absolutely financed.

Therefore, if you are making cuts in Medicare which are being made solely to save part A, the hospital part, there is no need to take $140 billion in cuts out of part B. Almost $54 billion is in increased premiums to seniors that they pay each month. That is not necessary to save part A.

Not 1 cent of the money cut from part B in their proposal, which you will see on Thursday, will go into part A. The dollars go into the general fund to take care of the tax cuts which will follow.

As a result of the increasing public opposition to these drastic cuts in Medicare, the Republicans had to do something, which is saying, you are just shifting the money around. So they said, we will create a lockbox which they claim will sever the connection between the Medicare savings and the tax cut. They are going to try and divide it.

One of the reasons why we are voting on Medicare this week and the tax breaks next week is they do not want you to think there is any connection. This lockbox is simply an illusion. It is really a return to the kind of smoke and mirrors budget gimmickry that they hope will fool the American people.

The Republicans think that the American people are stupid. They want us to believe that by depositing the money they cut from Medicare into a separate account, they can prove that the Medicare cuts will not pay for tax breaks.

Now, we all know that money is green. The term we use around here is fungible. You can use it here, you can use it there. It makes absolutely no difference which government account the money is put into or taken out of. The Government must pay its bills, and it does not matter which checking account it is in. You can have a bunch of different checking accounts. It is still government money. It comes from taxes. They are just simply trying to hide it.

The bottom line is that the Republican lockbox is just a new Federal bank account. The Republican Medicare bill and the rhetoric that makes it sound as if no spending is allowed out of the lockbox is simply an illusion.

Their bill allows borrowing. They put it into the lockbox. You cannot spend it, they say, but you can borrow it. In fact, it requires the lockbox to lend money to the Department of the Treasury.

Coincidentally, of course, the Treasury Department needs these funds because of the Republican tax break. The American people need to know that the money from the cuts in Medicare not only goes into the new lockbox, but the money goes right through the lockbox and into the pockets of the wealthiest taxpayers who will benefit from the Republican tax cut. Over half of that $245 billion in tax breaks goes to people making more than $100,000.

Now, to further mislead the American people, the Republican leadership has suddenly decided that this Medicare legislation will have a separate vote in the House of Representatives. The Medicare legislation will be considered separate from reconciliation. On Thursday we do Medicare. Next week or sometime thereafter, who knows, we will have the reconciliation bill which will have all the tax breaks in it, and the Medicare legislation will be incorporated by reference.

That is a fancy term we use in the Congress to say, what happened a few days ago applies today. They will say they are totally disconnected, but in fact the bill contains an incorporation by reference.

Without that phrase, without that incorporation by reference, the Congressional Budget Office would not be able to count the Medicare cuts in determining whether the reconciliation bill includes enough deficit reduction to allow the $245 billion in tax breaks to go forward.

The Republican leadership has created a perfect scenario for spin control and deception. They can argue that the $270 billion in Medicare cuts are separate from the $245 billion in tax breaks while at the same time counting the savings from Medicare toward the amounts needed to balance the budget.

Now, you can get as fancy parliamentarily as you want to here, but no amount of procedural vote wrangling or accounting gimmicks can hide the fact that the $270 billion in Medicare cuts are tied to the $245 billion in tax breaks. The numbers match.

In addition to creating this lockbox, which could be raided at any time, the Republican bill does not extend the solvency of the part A hospital trust fund any longer than the Democratic substitute bill but it slashes Medicare by three times as much. The Republicans cannot hide this any longer.

Although they claim that their plan will extend the solvency of part A until 2014, and you will hear this on Thursday, you will hear 2014, it is not true. The net impact of the Republican plan is to extend the solvency of the hospital trust fund, part A, until 2006 at a cost of $270 billion.

I dropped in a bill, H.R. 2422, which also extends the Medicare trust fund until 2006, but it costs $90 billion, not $270 billion, $90 billion.

Four of the Medicare trustees and the HCFA Administrator—HCFA is

Health Care Financing Administration, for those of you who have forgotten—the HCFA Administrator, who runs this thing, says that the reductions in part A are approximately $89 billion and would be enough to ensure solvency to 2006.

The Republicans can only achieve $270 billion in cuts by drastically reducing benefits to seniors and shifting the costs onto beneficiaries; that means senior citizens and their families. The Republicans want to reduce the Medicare Program to a worthless shell.

Medicare that seniors know today will exist in name only while providing no real health care or economic security to the beneficiaries and their families. People will pay more and get less.

Despite the $270 billion in Medicare cuts, the Republican bill does nothing to solve the problem of baby boomers entering the Medicare Program in 2010.

Now, lots of people throw this term baby boomers around. I am not always sure they understand what we mean by that. If you were born after 1945, you will be 65 in 2010, and you come into Medicare. Anybody born after 1945 is a baby boomer. They are the people who come into the program in 2010.

On December 27, 1995, I introduced a bill, the Medicare Security Act, which extends the solvency of the Medicare trust fund until 2006 and creates a bipartisan commission to deal with this problem of the baby boomers.

In response to the introduction of my alternative Medicare bills, the Committee on Ways and Means chairman, the gentleman from Texas [Mr. ARCHER], stated in a press release: "Any proposal that fails to save Medicare until the eve of the baby boom retirement must be considered a failure."

Well, Mr. Speaker, the chairman by his own standard failed in his Medicare bill. According to the actuaries for the Medicare trust fund, the Republican plan would extend the life of the hospital trust fund, part A, through the third quarter of calendar year 2006. That is a quote from a letter dated 11 October 1995 to the gentleman from Florida [Mr. GIBBONS] from the HCFA Administrator, Bruce Vladeck, based on data from the Medicare actuaries.

The year 2006 is 5 years before the first baby boomers begin to retire in 2011 and 8 years shorter than the Republican claims of solvency until 2014.

In addition to cutting three times more than is needed for Medicare to stabilize the part A trust fund until 2006, the Republican bill is loaded with sweeteners for various interest groups to silence any opposition.

As a doctor, it is troubling to me to see members of the American Medical Association put their own interests ahead of their patients by cutting backroom deals with the Speaker in exchange for their support of the Republican bill. In a bill in which beneficiaries are being asked to contribute $53 billion more, the doctors were negotiating provisions allowing them to create their own health care plans and avoid further reductions in their fees.

The Republican bill will allow doctors, as well as hospitals, to create doctor-hospital networks to sell health insurance plans directly to Medicare beneficiaries. These new networks will be called provider-sponsored networks or PSN's. It is a new term for you to learn because you are going to hear it endlessly on Thursday. Provider-sponsored networks; that means doctors are out there doing whatever they want with hospitals under special Federal rules which will preempt, which will preempt, override, existing State laws. It will allow the PSN's to operate with lower financial reserve requirements and other standards than are required for HMO's and private insurers. That means the insurance commissioner in the 50 States will not be able to control and regulate what these PSN's are out selling to beneficiaries.

To allow these PSN's to operate immediately, Mr. Speaker, the Medicare plan by the Republicans changes existing antitrust laws and says that the States do not need, the PSN's do not need, State licenses. Clearly, being exempt from existing State regulation will give these PSN's an unfair competitive advantage for doctors and hospitals over existing HMO's. If that was not enough, other giveaways to doctors are limits on medical malpractice awards for pain and suffering to $250,000.

The approach taken by this bill is extremely one-sided and does nothing to protect and promote the legal rights of injured patients. The Republican bill only seeks to protect doctors from full legal and financial accountability for their negligent behavior while restricting the ability of patients and their families to receive fair and adequate compensation.

The list of benefits for doctors goes on, rolling back vital Federal oversight of clinical laboratories in doctor's offices. In other words, doctors can refer to their own laboratories. They eliminate provisions on doctors' self-referral. They provide unwarranted antitrust relief for physicians. They provide the ability to charge Medicare Plus, and that is what they are going to try and push all the seniors into, is Medicare Plus. They are going to allow the doctors to charge higher fees, and they also set a new formula for setting fees in the old traditional Medicare. Mr. Speaker, it is clear that the only interest the American Medical Association has in Medicare is a financial interest for themselves.

The Republican plan also offers beneficiaries some false choices and false promises of security. The Republican plan creates Medicare Plus; I mentioned it earlier. It is a program which is advertised as offering seniors more choice of health care options, but in reality will create divisions and inequalities within Medicare. Medicare Plus will actually force beneficiaries to pay more for less while initiating what I call a death watch for the traditional Medicare Program. Medicare Plus under the Republican plan will be available as an alternative to traditional Medicare fee for service.

Now what is Medicare Plus? Well, it really is managed-care plans, some new types of specifically specially structured health plans such as the PSN's I talked about, medical savings accounts, and health plans offered by qualified associations like the Chamber of Commerce. I do not know; it is not clear in the bill. It is simply there.

Unfortunately for seniors all these new choices for health care are based on a false promise because Medicare Plus, Medicare's contribution to these plans, will be a defined contribution or a fixed amount of money which will be given each year which will decline over time resulting in seniors being able to purchase less and less health insurance. It is right in the bill.

Now what does that mean for seniors? Well, it is pretty simple. It means that an underfunded voucher, they hand you something that will buy for this year what next year will buy you 20 percent less, and this time, instead of the Government sending the voucher to the beneficiary, to the senior, they are going to send it to the health plan.

Under the Republican plan, Mr. Speaker, the total annual growth in the size of vouchers for health care plans is set at 4.7 percent. Now where did that number come from? It came out of the air. There is no basis for that. We expect, and CBO expects, that private health insurance premiums will grow at 7.1 percent. So, if it is growing for everybody else in the society at 7.1 percent, but we are going to only pay 4.7 for seniors under this Medicare Plus, you can see that gradually the buying power of senior citizens is going down by a couple of percent every year. By the time we get to 2002, you will be paying a thousand dollars more out of your pocket if you are a senior citizen buying health care than you are today.

Now that is a rate of 30 percent higher than the Medicare vouchers are allowed to grow. The private sector is still going to grow 30 percent faster than Medicare will be allowed to grow. It does not take a rocket scientist to figure out that the Republican vouchers are putting seniors on a road to second-class health care. The vouchers will quickly buy less and less coverage on their Medicare Plus, and beneficiaries will have to pay the difference, or their families. If you realize that there are more than 3 million widows in this country living on less than $8,000, and you are talking about the year 2002 they are going to have to come up with another grand out of their pocket, you know they cannot do it. Their kids will have to do, if they are lucky to have kids who have the money to do it. Somebody else is going to have to pay for it because these seniors are not going to be able to do it.

Mr. Speaker, the additional out-of-pocket costs which will be paid by seniors makes it clear that the additional choices provided by Medicare Plus do nothing to reduce the health care costs overall. It is an arbitrary 4.7 annual growth limit on vouchers. That saves money to be given for a tax break to the richest Americans.

In addition to having to pay the difference between the value of the voucher and the cost of the benefit package, seniors enrolled in Medicare Plus will also be liable for extra charges by providers trying to compensate for Medicare's declining provider reimbursement rates, so if we cut the doctors what they are paid under Medicare, and you allow the doctors to balance bill, they can get it back out of the senior because we have taken off the protection against balance billing.

These extra charges, as I say, are called balance billing. It is a practice by which providers charge beneficiaries more than Medicare approves. The restrictions in current law on balance billing, which permits no balance billing by hospitals and only limited balance billing by seniors, will not exist for seniors enrolled in the Medicare Plus plan. This is a very important concept. There will be no protection for seniors against these hidden new charges, and doctors will have a financial incentive to no longer see patients in traditional Medicare. If you stay in traditional Medicare, they cannot charge you balance billing. If you go into Medicare Plus, they can get you. Now that is what I call a real revolution.

One of the most egregious examples of waste in this Medicare plan are the Medicare savings accounts which are an option under Medicare Plus. Every legitimate health care expert has agreed that a MSA, medical savings account option, will result in extra costs for the Medicare program and weaken the hospital trust fund. MSA's allow beneficiaries to choose a high-deductible health plan combined with a fixed deposit from the Government into an MSA to cover their routine health care costs.

Let us say the Government gives you $5,000, and you take a thousand of it and buy a $10,000 deductible program. Then you got $4,000 in the plan, and you can use that to cover your routine health costs. If you do not spend anything, you got $4,000 bucks for yourself, and the healthy seniors will do very well on that, but people who have real problems are going to be a problem for the system.

Mr. Speaker, CBO says that the MSA's in this bill will increase, I emphasize increase, Medicare costs by $2.3 billion. It is not a savings mechanism for the system. It is a giveaway to people who opt out of the Medicare system.

Now this money that could have been spent on health care for senior citizens will instead go to the healthiest and wealthiest of seniors. Medicare loses money with MSA's because healthy people will choose the MSA option while Medicare lacks the ability to adjust the MSA payments for the risk factors. Furthermore, the idea that MSA's will protect freedom of choice for seniors is a sham. Once this product, once the MSA's are out there and become widespread, the insurance companies will take over the MSA product, and they will change it to managed care. The result for seniors will be a high-deductible plan with a managed-care product at the end of your deductible.

Mr. Speaker, this is not Medicare reform. It is one of the first steps in the destruction of the traditional Medicare and elimination of the guarantee of health care for all senior citizens.

The impact of $148 billion in cuts to Medicare providers under the Republican plan will create severe hardships in rural areas. It is not just a city problem. We are talking about rural areas where hospitals exist in many cases almost totally on Medicare and Medicaid payments because retired seniors are living out there, and that is what keeps those rural hospitals going. Rural hospitals and clinics already are in financial difficulty, and they will be hard pressed to absorb the reductions mandated by the Republican bill. In addition, the urban hospitals will be forced to accept added reductions and special Medicare payments for uncompensated care. Big-city hospitals take care of a lot of people who come in who do not have any way to pay, and Medicare gives them money to cover that. It is called dish payments, disproportionate share. Those payments are made by Medicare, and, when we cut those out in this bill, those hospitals are going to be in even worse shape.

Now, if all of this was not bad enough, in addition to the $148 billion cut from providers, that is doctors and other people who provide services, the Republican bill includes something called a fail-safe mechanism requiring an additional $37 billion in cuts from providers if Medicare spending does not meet the arbitrary targets set in this budget resolution. What they are admitting here is they do not know how it is going to come out, and just in case it does not work, they will cut another $37 billion out of doctors and whatever with no specificity. You do not know what is going to happen. What will happen to home health care? Who knows. What will happen to nursing visits, Visiting Nurse Association kinds of things? Who knows? That $37 billion is sort of sitting there waiting to take a whack out of these things someplace down the road.

Now this fail-safe mechanism will only affect the traditional fee-for-service Medicare system. Is that fair? Why only the traditional one that people have known, and have lived with and felt secure with? Why not the MedicarePlus? Well, it is pretty obvious. It is simply an assault on the Medicare plan that every senior citizen in this country knows and understands.

Slashing reimbursements to doctors who remain in the traditional fee-for-service system will result in more and more doctors leaving Medicare to join these PSN's, these provider service networks, where they can escape State regulation and charge beneficiaries more.

Over time, Medicare beneficiaries will find that the Republican Medicare bill will force their family doctors to leave them and join a provider service network.

If you do a survey of seniors and ask them for suggestions on how to control the rate of growth of the Medicare Program, nine out of 10 seniors will respond that the Government needs to crack down on fraud and abuse in the Medicare system. The Republican plan does nothing, nothing to curtail fraud and abuse, and instead, does the exact opposite by weakening the administration's efforts to combat fraud and abuse.

The GAO, that is the Government Accounting Office, they are the people who go in and look and see if the numbers really add up, they estimate that fraud and abuse in the health care industry account for an estimated 10 percent of our yearly private and public health care expenditures. Based on that estimate, fraudulent payments in 1994 amounted to nearly $94 billion in this country. Broken down, that amounts to approximately $258 million a day, or $11 million every single hour.

As the General Accounting Office stated in testimony before the Committee on Ways and Means, Medicare has already begun to address the problem, and actually leads the private sector in health care anti-fraud and abuse efforts. Unfortunately, in spite of all the rhetoric you hear about fraud and abuse, the Republican proposal loosens the rules that outlaws kickbacks and that requires providers to exercise due diligence in submitting accurate and true Medicare claims.

That is not just Democrat rhetoric against the Republican bill. Under the Republicans, the Congressional Budget Office has estimated that the Republican fraud and abuse provisions will cost, cost the Medicare program over $1 billion from 1996 to 2002. That is right. Get it straight. The Republican bill encourages $1 billion in fraud and abuse in the Medicare program. All three of the Federal Government's health law enforcement agencies have spoken out against the Republican plan. It is too bad, in my opinion, that the Republicans are too stubborn to listen to the people who actually enforce the law.

It really is time to focus on the facts. The Republicans are cutting Medicare by $270 billion to pay for unnecessary tax cuts, and they at the same time are starting the death spiral of the traditional Medicare program. My bill, H.R. 2422, the Medicare Security Act, shows the American people that we can protect the Medicare program without hurting our beneficiaries, or disrupting our health care delivery system.

I would be the last person in this House to dispute the fact that Medicare is growing too rapidly, and its rate of growth needs to be controlled, if we are going to avoid bankrupting the Federal Government. However we do not need to cut $270 billion from the Medicare program over the next 7 years. Cuts of this magnitude do nothing to save the Medicare program, or extend the solvency of the part A hospital trust fund any longer than is extended by my bill to 2006. Medicare is being cut for one reason and one reason only: That is, to balance the budget and pay for the tax cuts in the amount of $245 billion.

My bill shows Medicare spending by $90 billion over the next 7 years, which would keep the part A solvent until 2006. This gives the Congress and the President 10 years to fix the problem of the baby boomers entering the Medicare system, without imposing any hidden costs on seniors or impeding their access to care.

As a reasonable alternative, my bill cuts $67 billion from Medicare part A and $23 billion from part B. All of the part B savings go into Part A to make it solvent. These cuts are basically technical adjustments that the health care delivery system can absorb and that will preserve the same level of Medicare coverage and benefits that beneficiaries have today, which is quite different than the Republican bill. Equally important, my bill ensures that the savings in the Medicare program will not create profound disruptions in the health care delivery system, or our teaching hospitals, or access to quality care by our seniors.

My approach avoids the substantial increases in both the cost of private insurance and the number of uninsured persons which the Republican plan guarantees. The cuts in my bill are distributed throughout the health care system in an equitable manner to doctors, hospitals, home health agencies, and skilled nursing facilities. In my bill, there are no increased costs to beneficiaries, and adjustments to provider reimbursements have been specifically tailored to protect the basic elements of our health care infrastructure.

The Medicare Security Act will not place any additional financial burdens on our elderly poor or their families. You have to understand that fully 83 percent of Medicare expenditures are for beneficiaries in this country, senior citizens in this country, with incomes of less than $25,000. We are talking about people who are living a comfortable life, they are not in poverty, but they are not rolling in money. This is a program that protects the basic American infrastructure that has built this country, people that paid their way, that made this country what it is.

Beneficiary payments and copayments should be increased only as a last resort, because these seniors simply cannot afford a doubling of the part B premium, which is what is anticipated under the Republican plan. Their part B premium, that is, for the doctors, already rises from $46 a month to $87 a month by the year 2002.

Under my plan, the premiums, as they have grown each year a little bit, will be increased to $58 per month. That is a savings of $30 a month for senior citizens. The real problem, and I think the thing that has been missed in all this debate, because most people walk around thinking this is a senior citizens issue, it really is not a senior citizens issue only. It is partly theirs, but it really is also everyone else's in the population, because the problem for Medicare starts in 2010, when the baby boomers enter the program.

Many young people in this country do not believe that Medicare will be there for them when they reach that age. They say, "Why should I pay for Medicare, because it is not going to be there when I get to be 65." That is a legitimate concern. The Republicans' proposal to slash Medicare does nothing to solve that problem. For that reason, my bill, like the Republican bill, creates a bipartisan commission to specifically address the changes needed in Medicare and in health care coverage and finance generally to accommodate those aging baby boomers in 2010.

You may say, "Why another commission?" In 1983, this House was worried about Social Security. There were thoughts it was going to be insolvent. It would not be there at some point in the future. They formed a commission, made recommendations to this House, we changed some of the laws, and it is now solvent to about 2040. It is that proposal that we have before this House in terms of a bipartisan commission to facilitate the national debate, which is necessary to determine what kind of Medicare program we want for older Americans, and whether or not we as a Nation are willing to pay for that program.

We have to make a decision again that was made in 1965. The reason we have to make it now is that we have been so successful. Medicare has been successful. People are living longer. They are living more productive lives. We have more ways in which we can extend life and make life meaningful, and it is costing more. We have to have that debate again. Are we willing to do that for the rest of the society when they get to be 65, and are we willing to pay for it?

This blue ribbon commission created by my bill will be charged with the responsibility of building a national consensus on the future of Medicare. This commission will make recommendations to the Congress by January 1, 1998. That is 8 years before any future Medicare collapse in 2006. It is clearly possible for them to do that over the next 2 years, and they should do it. I firmly believe that this commission is the most important part of the bill, and the most important part of this Medicare debate.

Before making radical changes in the structure of Medicare, let us have an open and honest debate about what we can do to fix Medicare without destroying it. Changes in Medicare of the magnitude proposed by the Republicans should not be rammed through the House of Representatives after one day of floor debate. Four hours and we are going to ram it out of here.

We had not one day of testimony before the Committee on Ways and Means on the proposal that was voted out last week. We had many days talking about what the problem was. You will hear people say, "We had days and days of hearings on it;" yes, describing the problem, but not a single day was spent in careful examination, with people coming in from the outside to talk about what the effects of their proposal really would be, so we are going to ram something out of here destroying Medicare, and it does not have to happen.

My bill lays down a marker for honesty and simplicity. According to the Congressional Budget Office, this bill and the Republican Medicare bill take the Nation to the same destination, 2006. Fortunately, my bill costs one-third as much, and I believe that is what the House ought to go for. I can see no reason to dismantle Medicare simply for the sake of a tax cut for the wealthiest Americans.

Mr. Speaker, I yield to my colleague, the gentleman from Vermont [Mr. SANDERS].

Mr. SANDERS. Mr. Speaker, I thank the gentleman for yielding to me. I applaud him on his work.

Mr. Speaker, I would remind the gentleman that several years ago we were in discussion about another issue.

Mr. MCDERMOTT. If you are talking about single-payer, I am ready to go.

Mr. SANDERS. At that time we were not talking about making savage cuts in Medicare or making savage cuts in Medicaid. At that time what the gentleman was doing and many other Members of this House, and what I was trying to do, is bring forth a program that would not be cutting programs for the seniors or the low-income people, but in fact, in a cost-effective way, would be guaranteeing health care to every man, woman, and child in this country without out of pocket expense. In fact, it would be providing health care to all of our people without spending any more than we are currently spending. We have come a long way in 2 years. Unfortunately, we have moved rapidly in the wrong direction.

Today, instead of talking about how we are going to cover everybody, what we are talking about is how we are going to throw huge numbers of people off of health insurance altogether.

What I wanted to focus on for a few moments is the impact of the cuts in Medicare and Medicaid on small, rural States like the State of Vermont. As the gentleman indicated, in terms of the Medicare cuts, we are talking about a $270 billion cut over a 7-year period. In terms of Medicaid, we are talking about a $180 billion cut over 7 years. I want to make a point here that is not made often enough, I think, that the cuts in Medicare and the cuts in Medicaid are only part of an overall attack by the Republican leadership on senior citizens in general. Medicare, yes; Medicaid, yes, cuts. The LIHEAP program, the fuel assistance program that is very important in the cold weather States like Vermont, is being proposed for elimination by the Speaker, the gentleman from Georgia [Mr. GINGRICH], and the other leaders in the House. What that means is that many elderly people throughout this country are going to find it very difficult to pay the fuel bills when the weather gets to be 20 below zero in the State of Vermont.

I would also mention that senior citizen housing, which is very important in the State of Vermont, and I am sure important in Washington State as well, is targeted for no more new construction. In Vermont senior citizen housing is terribly important. I used to be the mayor of Burlington, VT. We had long waiting lists of elderly people who wanted to get into the reasonably inexpensively comfortable senior citizens housing. No more senior citizen housing.

Furthermore, we are talking about the elimination of the RSVP program and other senior citizen programs, so we should look at the cuts in Medicare and Medicaid within a broader scope, and that is part of a savage attack on the needs of elderly people.

The gentleman is correct when he talks about the fact that the real reason behind these terrible cuts in Medicare and also in Medicaid have far more to do with tax breaks for the wealthy than they do with protecting the Medicare system.

The Republican leadership is proposing a $245 billion tax break over a 7-year period, and much of those tax breaks are going to the wealthiest people in America. In addition to the individual tax breaks, we should reemphasize the point, reiterate the point, that the Republicans are proposing to repeal the minimum corporate tax, so on one hand we are going to be telling elderly people that they must pay more for health care when they cannot afford it. On the other hand, we are telling the largest corporations in America who make billions of dollars in profits, whose profits now are at an all-time high, that they are not going to have to pay any taxes at all.

Furthermore, we are talking about increases in military spending, more money for B-2 bombers, more money for star wars.

Furthermore, we are talking about the maintenance of a system which provides $125 billion a year in corporate welfare.

Now, why, in God's name, are we cutting back on Medicare, cutting back on Medicaid, but not making significant cuts in corporate welfare, which is tax breaks for the wealthy and subsidies for large corporations.

In my State of Vermont, as a result of the Republican Medicare cuts, some 80,000 senior citizens and disabled Vermonters will be paying higher premiums for a weakened Medicare system. In Vermont, these cuts represent a $356 million loss of revenue. As a result of the Republican proposal, Medicare part B premiums will rise from the current cost of $46.10 a month to $87 per month in the year 2002. Under current law, the part B premiums would have increased to $61 a month.

In other words, the Republican proposal will cost Vermont senior citizens and disabled people, by the year 2002, $312 a year more in part B premiums.

What I would point out is that there may be some people who are not senior citizens who think, well, Medicare is providing great coverage right now. Is that not great? As I know the gentleman from Washington knows, that is not the case. In my State of Vermont, I talk to many seniors who have Medicare who today cannot afford the high cost of prescriptions. They cannot afford to pay their fuel bills. They are hurting, despite Medicare, as the gentleman, I think, knows. Elderly people are paying a larger percentage of their fixed incomes out of their own pockets for health care today than before Medicare because of the escalating cost of Medicare in America. So with Medicare today untouched, many of the elderly are having a hard time affording their health care needs. With these cuts, there will be an absolute disaster.

I also want to say a word on the issue of Medicaid. Medicaid, of course, applies to many senior citizens who use Medicaid for long-term care in nursing homes, but it also applies to the low-income disabled, and it applies to low-income children, and I would hope that the American people would take a deep breath and take a look at the values of a society which say, yes, more money for star wars, more money for B-2 bombers, more money for corporate welfare, more money for tax breaks for the rich, but we are going to go after the weakest and most vulnerable people in our society, low-income elderly people, low-income disabled people, and low-income children. What a set of values. It does not make a whole lot of sense to me.

I would also point out that in the State of Vermont and all over the country, when these cuts come to Medicaid and these cuts come to Medicare, many, many middle-class families today that are struggling with declining incomes are suddenly going to wake up and find out that they are going to have to pay more out of their limited incomes to take care of their parents who are in senior citizen nursing homes or wherever, because Medicaid will not be covering those needs.

I would also point out that in rural States these Medicaid cuts are going to be very devastating, and the Medicare cuts as well, for our hospitals. We do not have huge hospitals. Many of the hospitals in the State of Vermont are small, rural hospitals which today are barely hanging in, and when we appreciate the fact that in the State of Vermont, a rural State, 55 percent on average, 55 percent of the revenue that comes into the hospitals comes from Medicare or Medicaid, there is no debate that in rural America and in rural Vermont, many of the hospitals, we have hospitals, Central Vermont Hospital, 60 percent of the revenue comes from Medicare and Medicaid, Grace College, 66 percent, North Country Hospital, 64 percent, Northeastern, 59 percent, Northwestern, 59 percent, Springfield Hospital, 61 percent, Mt. Ascutney, 68 percent of their revenues coming in from Medicare and Medicaid. How do these hospitals continue if there are savage cuts in those programs?

The last point I want to make, and the gentleman from Washington has already made this point, is we are talking about drastic cuts in programs which are going to affect tens of millions of Americans all over this country. The calls coming into my office now are primarily calls which say, "Bernie, do not cut Medicare. Do not Medicaid. We just can't survive if those programs are cut." I am sure that is true of most of the Members of this House.

One would think, one might think that when we are talking about drastic cuts in programs which affect the lives of tens and tens of millions of American people, there would be very long, serious debates in committee and on the floor of this House, that these debates would go on day after day, we would hear discussion from the most knowledgeable people in America as well as from the senior citizens and the low-income people who are going to be impacted. But as the gentleman has already points out, that debate is very, very limited, and we know the reason why.

I think the Republican leadership understands that the more the American people learn about their proposals, and the polls all indicate this, the less support there is for that. So they are trying to push these things through and in, I think, a very unfair and undemocratic way.

I thank the gentleman from Washington very much for the opportunity, to say a few words.

Mr. McDERMOTT. Your last point reminds me of the fact that Seattle is playing, tonight, baseball against the Cleveland Indians. The pitcher on the mound is a guy named Randy Johnson, who throws about a 95-mile-an-hour fast ball. The Republicans are throwing a 95-mile-an-hour fast ball past the American people. They want this jammed through here so fast that nobody can really figure it out. That is really what this is all about, only they do not understand it. The American people have seen that pitch before, and they are going to hang in there and clobber it. I hope the Cleveland Indians cannot clobber Randy Johnson tonight.

Mr. SANDERS. I would remind the gentleman a couple of years ago we did a poll in the State of Vermont. We asked Vermonters if, given a choice between raising taxes on upper-income people or cutting Medicare, what would they prefer. Overwhelmingly, people said if the choice is cutting Medicare or raising taxes on upper-income folks, we should raise taxes on upper-income folks.

What would be the poll results if we said should we lower taxes on the richest people in America and cut Medicare? I do not know of 5 percent of the population who thinks that is a good idea. That is why they want to move this thing through the House so very fast.

Mr. McDERMOTT. Absolutely. I thank the gentleman very much.

THE PROGRAM TO SAVE MEDICARE

The SPEAKER pro tempore (Mr. GUTKNECHT). Under the Speaker's announced policy of May 12, 1995, the gentleman from Florida [Mr. MILLER] is recognized for 60 minutes as the designee of the majority leader.

Mr. MILLER of Florida. Mr. Speaker, we are finally coming down to the time we are actually going to be able to vote on the Medicare Program. I am excited about the fact that we are finally going to have the chance to really vote and pass a good Medicare Program that saves the Medicare Program. That is something we are proud of over on this side of the aisle.

All we hear from the other side of the aisle, all we hear are fear and scare tactics. You know, the saying is Medicare or medicare. All we are hearing is, "Oh, my gosh, what are we going to do?"

Listen to the truth. We are saving Medicare. It is going to become a better program. You know, Medicare is a very, very important program. It is very important for me in my district in Florida. I have got more seniors than any congressional district in the United States. So I have large numbers of seniors. It is very important for jobs in my district. It is the largest employer in my district. My mother, my 86-year-old mother, is on Medicare, and my in-laws, whom I just lost recently, were on Medicare. It is very important to me personally. So we have to save Medicare. No one wants to get rid of Medicare.

The simple question is, and I do not understand what they are screaming about, Medicare should not be a partisan issue. Everybody on both sides of the aisle agree Medicare is going bankrupt. We do not disagree with that issue, and Medicare, we need to save it. We agree on that.

We have the plan. We have the only plan, actually. The Democrats are saying they want to save Medicare, too. So we are all in agreement on that. All we want to do is offer choices.

What is wrong with offering choices? The previous speakers said we do not want to have these choices; this is a bad choice, that is a bad choice. What is wrong with choices? As a Federal employee, I have choice. You have choice, I say to the gentleman from Arizona [Mr. HAYWORTH]. You have a choice when you choose next month. We are going to get a choice next month. As a Federal employee, we have the same plan as anybody in the Department of Agriculture and Commerce. We are going to get a list of choice, and we choose. Why should not seniors get a right to choose?

Mr. HAYWORTH. If the gentleman will yield, I think that is absolutely the key point to this debate, and we have to ask ourselves, realizing that good people can disagree, and indeed we come to this Chamber to discuss issues of vital importance, such as Medicare preservation and Medicare improvement; we have to simply give people choice. You know, I listened with great interest, Mr. Speaker, as our friends preceded us in this special order, and I noted with interest a couple of remarks from my good friend from Washington State, and just to put this in some perspective, in my former profession, where I talked a great deal about athletics, I think my friend from Washington State offered the improper analogy. He was claiming that the new majority was trying to throw a Randy Johnson-like fast ball past the American people. I would take issue with that. Instead I would say that our friends, who are really guardians of the status quo and the old order, the new minority, is trying to throw the American people a hanging curve ball, because let us make no mistake about it, my good friend from Washington State who preceded us here in the well, those who studied the health care debate of a year and a half to 2 years ago realize that our friend from Washington State was the proponent of a health care plan, a national health care plan that can be safely said was even to the left of President Clinton's plan.

It was as if my friend from Washington State wanted to transmogrify the United States into the Dominion of Canada to try to bring that type of health care to this country, cradle to grave, soup to nuts, State-sponsored triage that was, in my humble opinion, irresponsible, with a massive centralized bureaucracy and putting health care decisions in the hands of government.

What we are trying to do is to change that, to say that the time for scaring the American people is over. It is time to provide options. We have options in every other walk of life. Why should we change at age 65 and only have one plan in a one-size-fits-all scenario? That is the wrong route.

Let us provide more choices even as we restrain the rate of growth. We still have growth in expenditures.

But I was also struck by one diagnosis that my friend from Washington State, as a psychiatrist, I think, was very appropriate in offering. In the early days of this Congress, as things changed, he talked about the fact that the guardians of the old order were, to quote him now, "in a state of denial about the way things have changed here, and the new philosophies predominant on the Hill." I would simply add a footnote to that. Not only were members of the new minority in a state of denial, that denial has been followed by rage, and one of the lessons I have learned here, and I will be very candid with my friend from Florida, to my eternal regret, in the wake of the historic shift within this body, what we find so often now is that the debate has very little to do with policy and everything to do with power from the perspective of my friends in the new minority.

So jealous are they of the change in power that they will do anything, say anything, claim anything, to scare people about changes that need to take place, and so, again, I think that we ought to stretch out a hand and say good people can disagree, but let us suffer no illusions or delusions about what is going on here. We have a plan, a responsible plan to deal with the sobering realization that the trustees' report brought to the floor that Medicare, if we do nothing, goes bankrupt in the next 7 years.

Again, I hear our friends in the mass media, many of them almost acting as if in collusion with the new minority to claim it is to pay for some sort of tax cut. Nothing could be further from the truth. This is, as my friend from Florida knows, through the stewardship of the Committee on the Budget, the hard work of the gentleman from Ohio chairing that committee, we took care of making sure that all Americans could have more of their hard-earned money in their pocket, and this instead is in response to a bipartisan trustees' report that compels us to act now.

In fact, as I see here, the gentleman has brought something to the floor from a publication not typically sympathetic to conservative points of view.

Mr. MILLER of Florida. I just do not understand what the point they are making from the other side of the aisle is. They agree we are saving Medicare. They say we are having choices. What is wrong with choices? They cannot disagree with the fact we are not changing the deductibles, we are not changing the coinsurance. They cannot disagree with that.

The premiums are going to continue going up, but at a slower rate than they have been going up in the past. So they cannot disagree with that. We are going after waste, fraud, and abuse. What is wrong with going after waste, fraud, and abuse? I do not understand what their point is.

The Washington Post, not known as a Republican paper, says the congressional Republicans have confounded the skeptics. Our plan is credible, gutsy, and it addresses the genuine problem that is only going to get worse.

Let us see what the Washington Post says about the Democrats. My friend from Arizona, look what they are saying about the Democrats.

Mr. HAYWORTH. This is something. To use the words you have up here for us, let me recite it for the folks on what the Post has to say about the Democrats' MediScare campaign. "Crummy stuff." "Demagoguery, big time." "Scare talk." "Expostulation." Finally, quoting again, "It is irresponsible."

The fact is, as my good friend from Florida knows, we have yet to really see a definitive plan. And this is part of the frustration that I am sure the gentleman encounters in his district. As the gentleman's experience warrants in Florida, so too is my experience in Arizona. Many seniors living in the Sixth Congressional District of Arizona are saying to me, "You know, you are right to try and fix this problem, and not wait on a commission or not take a Band-aid approach to say, 'Okay, there is a problem, but let us just try to solve it through the next election.'"

Believe me, from the old days of politics, the easiest thing to do would be to stick our heads in the sand or try a little change here in the hopes that we could paper over it through the next election. But I know that is not what the people in Arizona or Florida or Connecticut sent us here to do. We are here to make the changes needed, responsible, reasonable changes, to improve this system; thus the name, Medicare Plus.

This is one other note we really have to reinforce, despite all the scare talk: If people like conventional Medicare, as they have it now, they are free to keep it. You mentioned the experience of your mother. My granddad is 91. He does not want a lot of things to complicate his lifestyle. He may very well want to stay on the program that has served him, and that, too, will be his choice.

Mr. MILLER of Florida. Let us define the problem. I am sure everybody listening here this evening understands what happened. The fund is going broke. It is going bankrupt. There is no dispute of that issue. The trustees, most of them are members of the Cabinet of President Clinton, but this is not a partisan issue. We are doing it together. The fund is projected to be exhausted in 2001. That is not politics; it is the facts, folks. We have to do something about saving Medicare. It is a simple fact it is going to be totally bankrupt in 7 years.

We have a trust fund. The only money going into this trust fund is payroll taxes. Under the Medicare part

A, there is 2.9 percent payroll taxes that goes into a trust fund. The only money going out of that trust fund is to pay for Medicare part A. Next year, for the first time in the history of the Medicare Program, actually this year, which started October 1, more money will be going out than going in. For the first time in history we are going to spend more money out of that trust fund than money coming in in payroll taxes.

It is going broke. All the reserves, which are about $129 billion, are going to be completely gone in the year 2002, and then we have a disaster. And the real problem hits in the year 2010, because in 2010, that is the baby-boomer year, 65 years after the close of World War II, and when the baby-boomers start retiring. Everything blows up. So if we just put it off, the decision about Medicare, if we just put it off, what happens is it gets worse and worse every year.

We cannot put our head in the sand to try to solve this problem. We need to remember that the spending on Medicare has been going up at over 10 percent a year, and the private sector health care costs are going up much less. All we need to do is slow the rate of growth in spending.

This always bothers me, when they say we are cutting Medicare. Our plan does not cut Medicare. We increase spending every year on Medicare. Over the next 7 years we are going to spend $354 billion more than we spent on Medicare for the past 7 years. We are increasing spending by $354 billion more during the next 7 years than we did for the past 7 years.

It is going up every year. We keep saying only in Washington do you call an increase in spending a cut. I just do not understand how you keep increasing spending and saying you are cutting spending. The facts are the facts. We are increasing spending $354 billion over 7 years.

Mr. HAYWORTH. I just do not think we can state this enough. Now, I do not know by what mathematical gauge we are dealing here in Washington. I know George Orwell wrote of a "Newspeak," a different type of language that said ignorance is strength, war is peace, and things of that nature. I cannot help but see the same type of pattern here with what goes on in terms of Washington numbers.

Now, I know the gentleman has been well respected in the world of business. Would the gentleman just review the numbers here again on this chart and explain again very slowly, so the American people can understand, and especially those who reside inside this Beltway, can understand what in essence is going to transpire.

Mr. MILLER of Florida. I am a former statistics professor, I have a Ph.D. and taught statistics for many years. It does not take a Ph.D. in statistics to understand this. These are simple numbers. The way you get these numbers, in 1995, we are spending $179 billion on Medicare, which is $4,816 per person for every man and woman on Medicare. The total amount of money we are spending right now is $4,816 per person on Medicare.

Now, in 7 years, we are going to spend $6,734 per person on Medicare. That is an increase per person, whether we talk about a total amount of dollars or on a per person basis.

Mr. HAYWORTH. An increase of almost $2,000, it appears.

Mr. MILLER of Florida. That is right, per person, almost $2,000 more. It is MediScare, fear tactics.

Mr. HAYWORTH. I notice, without having the privilege of taking one of your statistics courses when I was at North Carolina State, but just to put it in real terminology, I offered this example before and I think it has some validity here, in real live terms. When my daughter asked for an increase in her allowance, I gave her $5 a week until junior high. By the time she got to high school, we said, Honey, live a little. We doubled it to $10. I do not know if it was fiscally responsible or not. She did not grouse and complain and say, Daddy, you did not take it to $15. Therefore, you cut my allowance by $5. She had a genuine increase. Her allowance was doubled.

I think the point the gentleman is making is this is not rocket science, but is, as in the mid-to-late fifties, what Dwight Eisenhower used to call the study of government and description of politics, "sophisticated nonsense." Lost among the sophisticated nonsense and fear tactics and rhetoric is this very simple message that is the foundation of what it is we are doing.

Again, I yield to my friend from Florida, because I do not think we can repeat this enough.

Mr. MILLER of Florida. One other chart that shows it is, let us look at it on a monthly basis over the next 7 years. This is what the Federal Government is spending per month for every person, beneficiary, on Medicare: In 1995, $401 per month; 1996, $423; $440; $460; $481; up to $561 per month per beneficiary on Medicare.

I just do not understand where you get a cut when you go from $401 a month to $561 a month. That is an increase in spending. In fact, when I explained it one time at a meeting back in my district in Sarasota, somebody got mad at me. Why are we increasing it so much? We can live within these numbers. They are live, and we can have a good program. I am proud of the program that we have on Medicare. It is an exciting program, giving more choices and options.

I am glad our colleague from Connecticut, Mr. SHAYS, is with us today.

Mr. SHAYS. Mr. Speaker, I just would like to weigh in on this. I was listening to both of you in my office and I felt compelled to join you, because this is something that we have been working on for years, particularly this last year.

We are going to spend $675 billion of additional new dollars in the next 7 years as opposed to the last 7 years. We spent about $926 billion between these last 7 years, and in the next 7 years we expect to spend about $1.6 trillion. That is an extraordinary amount of new dollars. Those new dollars are going to be used to help beneficiaries.

What amazes me is that when I listen to the plan, described by some of my constituents, that was described candidly by Members on the other side of the aisle, I thought, I do not like that Medicare plan.

They described to me a plan that created new copayments and increased existing copayments. That is a not. They described a plan that created new deductions and new deductibles and increased the deductibles that exist. That is a not. The hospital deductible, the doctor deductible is going to stay the same. They described premiums where they were going to have to pay more, and the fact is they are going to pay 31.5 percent, which is exactly what they pay now, and it will stay that way. As health care rises that premium cost will go up, as it has during the last 7 years.

I thought, none of that is true. As I talk to my constituents, they say it is a not. I have been told it was. It is not true. The bottom line is no copayment, no deductible, no increase until premiums. But they say, but I have been told I cannot have my doctors. I am going to be forced out to get private care. That is a not as well. It is not going to happen.

Beneficiaries can stay in the same program they are in now. If they have a doctor for their heart, kidneys, or stomach, or any other ill they have, they can keep those doctors. No change whatsoever.

I am excited about this plan, because it allows people to stay in the existing plan, but it then allows them to get into private care plans if they want. They can even have a medical savings account and buy a large deductible if they want to do that. They have so many options. They can stay in fee for service.

So I look at what we are trying to do, which is slow the growth of this program to about 6.3 percent. I would just come back to the original point: In the 7th year we are going to spend 54-percent more than we spend today. That is a gigantic increase. In the 7th year, beneficiaries, per beneficiary, are going to get 40-percent more per beneficiary.

I look at the plan and say this is a job well done. I would defend this program anywhere. I would debate anyone on this issue. It simply is a plan we can be very proud of. I hope ultimately the American people are focused in on what this plan is and not a plan described by people on the other side of the aisle who simply want to prevent this from happening.

Mr. HAYWORTH. Mr. Speaker, I think you make such an outstanding point, that we have to remember that we are offering again, as our good friend from Florida pointed out at the outset of this time together, we are offering choices. And the ultimate choice is if people like what they have, they can keep it.

Again, I am struck by the difference. It is interesting to see some Members of the fourth estate try to cover this debate and try to draw an analogy with the failed soup to nuts, cradle to grave, socialized plans that were offered 2 years ago and say that somehow there is a synergy between the two things.

Nothing could be further from the truth. Going back to our analogy of the hanging curve ball, how interesting it is that guardians of the old order and proponents of socialized medicine are now coming to this floor saying that we denied, or that we would deny people their choice of their own physician.

Nothing could be further from the truth. There is no synergy between these two episodes in history. We are offering something profoundly different, predicated on what is, I believe, the essence of being an American, the chance to take a look economically and personally at what is best for our future destiny and having an option to determine what is best.

It is so interesting to hear the descriptions, as if latitude in personal decisions is something to be feared or as if there is some sort of unseen compulsory action that will take place that will force people into certain programs.

Nothing could be further from the truth. We are enlarging choice for the American people and renewing freedom that heretofore has been denied for the past 30 years, despite the virtues of this program, when people magically hit the age of 65.

Mr. SHAYS. Mr. Speaker, one of the plans we are allowing, we are allowing doctors and hospitals to have their own program. In other words, they can now compete directly with the insurance industry; they can compete with HMO's, health maintenance organizations. They can participate in this process. I believe that they will be able to provide patients extraordinary care at significant reductions in price.

One of the things that happens is in this process of choice, they can stay in their fee-for-service. The only way they have to leave is they have to choose to leave. And the only way they will choose to leave is if they can get better health care in one of the private plans.

So, for instance, if a private plan wants to say that their premium will be less, they will get a rebate or, in fact, their deductible, which presently is on hospitals and doctors, would be reduced, they can get that. Some plans might entice individuals to participate because they will get drug care for the first time, or eyeglass care or dental care, which they might not get now. The only way that happens is if they can convince individuals they should leave their plan.

Now, if they leave their plan, under our proposal, we are allowing Medicare patients every month to go back into their old system. There is a 2-year window where they can simply go back the next month. And then, in the third year, it would be every year. So we are saying if an individual really wants to test it, and they are not sure they will like it, they can go right back to what they have.

I have tremendous confidence a lot will choose to do the private care and they will stay there because they will find they will be better.

Mr. MILLER of Florida. I think those are very important points to remember. Two important points the gentleman has made. Traditional Medicare will be there. My 86-year-old mother is not going to change, and that is fine. I think she should have the right to stay in the system the way she is. She is not going to want to change. So everybody has the right to stay in the system.

The other important point is, during the first couple years of this, with 30 days notice, an individual can change back to the system. They can change every month if they want. What is wrong with that? Why would someone object to having the chance to choose, and if they do not like it, change again? It is their right to choose. Just like as a Federal employee we get to choose once a year. That makes sense. What is wrong with that? I don't understand what the scare tactics.

Mr. HAYWORTH. If the gentleman would continue to yield, I know we listened to our colleague from Vermont [Mr. SANDERS] bemoaning prescription costs. Again, the gentleman from Connecticut [Mr. SHAYS] has pointed out what may very well be one of the virtues of these many different plans, that there may be copayments and reduced fees for the very prescription drugs that my friend from Vermont was so concerned about.

This is really the essence of the debate we are having here. Again, good people can disagree. There are some who legitimately believe that it is the domain and the responsibility of the Federal Government to act not only as the charity of first recourse, but to be the principal architect and the principal provider of about every service here in the late 20th century. I think, fundamentally, the American people reject that notion, but the American people look for a plan that empowers the populace, that empowers the citizenry, and that can give them the very choice they need to make responsible decisions. Again, those decisions governed by their particular situations and their particular lifestyles. That is what is so important.

So the very thing that our friend seemed to fear, may, in the final analysis, be a phantom.

Mr. SHAYS. If the gentleman would yield, we basically have a plan that has no increase in the deductible, no increase in copayment, keeps the same premium cost, allows individuals to keep the present system they have, allows them to move into private care, if they do not like the private care, they can come right back in.

Someone said, well, why not take the premium, which is 31.5 percent and have it go down? What they are saying is, on Medicare part B, which is what the premium pays for, all the health care services, we are saying the taxpayer is going to continue to pay 68.5 percent. If we allow the premium to go down, we are then saying the taxpayers are going to have to pay 70 percent and 80 percent and so on.

So we are saying taxpayers will stay at 68.5 percent for Medicare part B, and those who receive the care are going to stay at 31.5 percent. To me, that is a very honest and straightforward way. The taxpayers will have to pay more as health care costs go up, and the premium will also go up slightly as well, but we are keeping that bond and that protection.

While we are not always mentioning this, it is something that I think should be put on the table. We are trying very hard to make sure that there is not a transfer of wealth from families to senior citizens. We have to be straight with everyone here; that the Federal Government cannot continue to pick up more of the percentage, because, otherwise, we will make families poorer and poorer. And it is not easy for a family today with two children, that makes $40,000, that now does not have the same deduction per child that my parents had. My parents had, in today's dollars, the equivalent, $8,000, they could take for each child, and a family today has $2500. My parents paid about 20 percent of their income in Federal, State and local taxes. A family today pays 30 to 40 percent.

We have to, when we talk about what we are doing for our elderly so we can protect Medicare, we also have to focus in on what we are trying to do for families.

Mr. HAYWORTH. If the gentleman would yield, I think he makes a very, very valid point. And, quite candidly, there have been those seniors that have come to me, and perhaps other Members in your respective districts have found this to be true as well, and they say, now, wait a minute, what about this whole notion of tax cuts? So many of those seniors I talk to I ask, and many of them were starting a family in 1948, maybe had a couple of kids. Back from the war, starting a career. And for an average family of four in 1948, 3 percent of that family's income went to the Federal Government in terms of taxation. Now, compare and contrast that with last year, when a typical family of four surrendered almost one quarter, 24 percent, of its income to the Federal Government.

As the gentleman from Connecticut [Mr. SHAYS] points out, with State and local taxes, with the hidden cost, the hidden taxes, if you will, of regulation, more and more people are surrendering 40, almost 50 percent of their income to the Federal Government.

So, again, what this new majority is trying to do, what we are trying to do in the Congress of the United States is empower people, not only the seniors but the families, to have more of their hard earned money. The people of the 6th district of Arizona last November sent a very simple message to Washington through my election, and that is this. We work hard for the money we earn. Let us hang on to more of it and send less of it to Washington. That is not born of a selfish impulse. Simply people realize that the place for charity does not come from the Federal Government being the charity of first resort.

And while there have been many innovative programs designed to empower people, we cannot empower people on one hand and yet enslave others with the same type of equation. There has to be opportunity across the board.

And I thank the gentleman from Connecticut for bringing up that very real challenge, whether it is income tax or payroll tax for part B Medicare in that trust fund. We have to understand that the work force today is called on more and more to pay taxes and they need to hang on to their money, and we have to find a way to get that done.

And that is why this plan, I believe, offers the best alternative yet devised to empower people and to work this problem through.

Mr. SHAYS. I wonder if the gentleman would yield again. I want to point out that we are a family in this place, in terms of our desire to take on some very tough issues. I have been here 8 years, and this is the first time we have had an honest dialog with our constituents about the need to deal with entitlements and control their growth. Slow the growth. Allow them to grow faster than any other part of the Government, but to slow the growth and to make some very necessary spending reductions in domestic spending.

We have been very honest to say that we have to get our financial house in order and balance the budget. That is our first task. Our second task is to save our trust funds, particularly Medicare, which the gentleman from Florida [Mr. MILLER] has focused so eloquently on. And our third task is to change the social corporate welfare state into an opportunity society.

We are going to do our best to save this American civilization and have a society where people can prosper.

Mr. MILLER of Florida. I am excited about the plan we will vote on on Thursday. It really is a great plan, and I am proud to be able to be part of the process of being able to introduce it on Thursday.

When we talk about the process, the gentleman mentioned talking to your constituents, and our friend from Arizona also. The thing that made our plan I think a successful plan is that we have been talking to the people that make the difference, that make the decisions that it impacts.

So often they want to have these hearings and we have all the policywonks, and maybe some from your State and my State, that come up here and say here is the theory. This is the way it should happen. I think that was the mistake in the plans last year. We have had over a thousand town hall meetings throughout the country listening to people. I am having another one this Saturday in Sarasota. I had one in a mobile home park in Ellington, FL, a week ago. I have them all the time, listening to the people and getting their input.

In addition, we have listened to the organizations that are on the front line. We have listened to the AARP, we have listened to the hospital groups and the physician groups. We have listened to the different groups that are on the front line and delivering care, and they believe what we are doing is the right direction.

There may be some differences. They may not wholeheartedly support this. They may not like something in it. The trial lawyers may not like us, of course. But the thing is we have listened to the people. That is the most important thing, the ones on the front line, rather than just the policywonks. The message basically is save Medicare and no Band-Aids. Let us fix it now and let us address the problem.

Mr. SHAYS. I wonder if the gentleman would continue to yield, so that I can point out and use real numbers. One of the points I want to make, and the gentleman from Florida, I think, represents an extraordinary number of senior citizens and your input, as in my work, as we have worked together on the Committee on the Budget on Medicare and Medicaid, has helped shape this plan, and that plan has been shaped by what we have been hearing.

My constituents have said, I have to keep my own doctor. Done. I have had other constituents say I want some choice. Done. I have had other constituents say I would like the opportunity for plans to give me eyeglass care or dental care. Done. Or prescription drug care. Done. I have had other constituents who have said I want the opportunity to have a medical savings account and to buy only catastrophic care. Done.

I mean we have been listening. That is not the way our plan started out. It has been shaped by the constituents we represent.

Now, I have had a number of constituents, I have had, candidly, I went to a funeral last night, where the member who passed away was a member of the Republican town committee. And I had one of my best supporters walk down the stairs and say, "Don't you dare. Don't you dare make any change in my Medicare plan." I said, "Tell me what are you concerned about." She said, "I am concerned you are cutting my medicare plan." I said, "Well. We are allowing it to grow at 6.3 percent." "No, I heard you were cutting. I heard this from the AARP." I said, "We are slowing the growth." Then she said, "Well, AARP told me I cannot have my own doctors." I said, "Well, that is not accurate." I said, "Hold it." We just went through the entire plan. And she said, "If that is the plan, I support it."

My conviction is that there are a lot of people right now who are being told a lot of things. I have had some of my colleagues go to nursing homes saying nursing homes will be closed next year. I have had some of my colleagues having press conferences with doctors saying they will not be able to have their doctor anymore. None of that is true.

Now, what is my conviction in voting for this plan? We have worked on it for an extraordinarily long period of time. We have had the input of so many different people who have told us what they want in the plan, and that is what we are doing. I am absolutely convinced that next year, when people see this plan unfold, and, candidly, that is when I have to face the electorate. I would not want to be so stupid as to do a plan that is unfolded and then does not work. That does not make sense for our country and it certainly does not make sense for anyone that has to go back to the electorate.

I am proud to defend and promote this bill when we debate it on Thursday, and I will be proud to defend it and promote it during the course of all next year. And I predict that people next year will say "What a great plan, and thank you for making sure that I could keep my existing health care, and if I want, I can change it and get other kinds of health care that meet more of my personal needs."

Mr. MILLER of Florida. I agree with the gentleman completely. I think 5 years from today people will sit back and look at what we had in Medicare, the one-size-fits-all model, and people will say, "Why did we wait so long before we made the changes in Medicare; before we gave choices?"

We were criticized that, oh, we had one day of hearing. Wrong. We had hearing after hearing. We worked together in the Committee on the Budget. We had representatives from industry in and actuaries and different groups in at different committees. At least 38 hearings this year on Medicare. So we have had the official hearings, lots and lots of them. Plus, we have built on all the hearings we have had for years.

I was lucky to serve on the health care task force that the gentleman from Florida [Mr. MICA] had for the past couple of years and, really, we had a lot of hearings and worked very hard on the plan there. So we listened. And when people came with ideas, we would go and say, "Can we do this?"

I will tell my colleagues some ideas that senior groups advocated. Any plan that is offered under our Medicare choice program has to offer benefits at least as good as current Medicare. So any plan they choose, they are going to have at least the same benefits or better.

Mr. SHAYS. Let me get this straight. So if a private plan, when the private plan steps forward, they have to tell and make sure that their health care plan covers everything that Medicare presently does plus.

I do not know if the gentleman from Florida was the one who had thought of the name of Medicare plus, but it is such an apt description of what our health care plan does. It allows them to have their existing health care plan plus.

Mr. MILLER of Florida. Right. Because the current Medicare system is going to continue. For those that want to stay with it, fine. But why not give those choices? As long as any choice they choose has benefits as good as the current Medicare, what is wrong with that?

We are hearing people that have these other options for people that are low income. There are some choices out there that are going to be less money. It is going to cost them less and they get more benefits, if we just allow the marketplace to help bring the costs under control.

So, I am excited about the options, because we are going to give people the choice and they are going to say, "Great, why did we insist that it could not be changed?" It is exciting, what we are going to have, and I look forward to that.

Let me talk about the some of the choices we have. We always start off with the fact that the current Medicare stays. The plan, basically, is that every year beneficiaries are going to get some forms and they get to choose. If they want to change plans, fine. If they do nothing, they stay in current Medicare. If they want to change, they get assigned a form to change. But if they want to stay in the current plan, they stay in it. It is automatic. Nothing to do but just stay in the plan and it continues just the way it is. There are no changes.

But then we have these choices: Medical savings accounts, or the HMO-like organizations, or the provider service networks. I think these provider service networks are going to be exciting in local communities. When you think about it, most health care is local. Ninety-eight percent of the health care we receive is our local doctors, our local hospital, our local home health care agency.

Why not encourage the local doctors and the hospitals to go together and form their own program? As long as they meet the financial standards and they can buy reinsurance to provide those financial guarantees to make it sound, why not encourage those local hospitals and doctors to go together to form their group? They know their patients and communities best.

What is good in Florida may not be necessarily good in Connecticut or Spokane or Arizona. I have hospitals with 80 percent Medicare populations because of my high senior population. They are going to be most interested in this.

I am very concerned about Medicare. We cannot let that program go bad. We cannot let it go bankrupt. It is job in our community and for the senior citizens in our community. My own mother. We have choices that are going to bring it under control.

We have had over a thousand town hall meetings and coming up with some great ideas. Our leadership and our committees have listened and put the ideas that our Members found in town hall meetings into the plan. One of the biggest things they talk about is waste, fraud, and abuse. We all agree that we need to get tough on waste, fraud, and abuse. This is where a lot of the money is.

We believe that the marketplace is one area that is going to help drive that out. When we have competition for the business and we have to satisfy those patients, if they do not like it, they leave and go some place else.

I have a restaurant. If customers do not like my restaurant, they can go down the street to the other restaurants. We have to keep people satisfied, and if the doctor is not doing a good job, the patients will go down the street. That is going to force it out.

They have to efficiently provide the service at the same time. We are going to give seniors an option to help us root out the waste, fraud, and abuse. It is hard for the bureaucracy in Washington to discover all the waste in the system. It is hard to discover it out here, but patients come up to me all the time and tell me about the problems.

One case was on network news. The lady was talking about being billed for an autopsy when she was in the hospital. That is a little bit extreme, but if they can locate the problems, let us give incentives to seniors to go out and find that waste, fraud, and abuse. So much of this is related to defensive medicine where the lawyers have driven up the cost. If we can do that, we can have benefits that are going to address that issue.

I am glad that my colleague, the gentleman from Florida [Mr. MICA] is here, because he has a large number of seniors in his district just north of Orlando.

Mr. MICA. Mr. Speaker, I thank the gentleman for yielding. I cannot think of anyone in the Congress who probably represents more seniors than the gentleman from Florida [Mr. MILLER], and who has been more active in trying to bring some fiscal responsibility to this Nation and also to the Congress.

I am also pleased to join the gentleman from Connecticut [Mr. SHAYS]. I know many of the Members, particularly on this side of the aisle, and there is no one who has greater sense of compassion for the people of this country, their needs, and who cares more about human beings in our Nation. I have seen him work in this fashion and toward a compassionate solution to many of the problems that confront us. I am extremely pleased to join both of my colleagues this evening to talk about Medicare reform.

I have really remained somewhat silent. I have held my town hall meetings and looked at what the Republican proposal was. Tonight, I am here to strongly endorse the House Medicare reform proposals.

I have looked at them. I have talked with our seniors. The nice thing about senior citizens is they were not born yesterday and they have seen a lot of water over the dam and heard a lot of rhetoric and they have been able to sort through some of the smoke and charges and rhetoric from the other side of the aisle.

It is unfortunate that some of these people have not come up with what is a new idea, or some new solutions, in more than three decades to some of the mounting problems of this country. I am here tonight to say that, in fact, I think the greatest threat to our senior citizens is the national deficit and we must do something about it.

I brought a couple of charts that I blew up. They are not very colorful, but one of them I wanted to show to our seniors and other Members tonight was the fact that our Federal budget in 1995 now is composed of $153 billion in entitlements. That is some of the welfare programs; $333 billion in Social Security, and that we hope will stay off budget and is not affected by anything that is proposed by our side of the aisle; Medicaid is another $90 billion; and you see Medicare $176 billion. Then you add in interest on the national debt and we are looking at somewhere around two-thirds to three-quarters of our entire expenditure for the Nation.

What this says is that we must do something to bring some of these costs into check. The two biggest Government programs are the health care programs, Medicare and Medicaid. And even a simple mathematics computation will tell us, and the President's own trustees, and I brought a copy of that, that basically, that the trust fund is projected to become exhausted.

What I said about simple math is we have been spending somewhere between 11 percent, 10.5 percent, and 13 percent per year. And simple math will tell us that in about 7½ years, if we continue at that rate, those huge expenditures will bankrupt the system and this chart again goes completely awry and we cannot bring the finances of this country into order.

Now, what is even of concern not only to seniors, but what should be of concern to working men and women, is the country's population and its worker base actually starts to decrease. The ratio of active workers to Medicare beneficiaries in 1995, as you can see, is way up here on this chart: 3.3. And if you look at the year 2035, it is down to 2.0.

So, what is going to happen is people who are now concerned about what is being taken out for Social Security and other taxes and Medicare, there will be a smaller pool to draw from. They will be able to take home very little and we will be taxing them to an unheard of degree. We will not be able to support the system.

So, we did not create the mess. We may have been here while the mess was created, but, in fact, the other side has had control of both the House and the other body here. We see the same thing, whether it is the District of Columbia, it is Amtrak, whether it is Medicaid, whether it is the pension funds that I oversee for the Federal Government on the House side as chair of the House Civil Service Subcommittee. All of these programs are basically bankrupt. We have robbed from the cookie jars and now we have to face reality.

But I think that the plan that we have come up with, you have heard my colleagues, Mr. MILLER and Mr. SHAYS, outline some of the things that we have done. We addressed the real problems here.

Everyone knows, every senior who has attended any town hall meeting that I have held has come forward and said, Mr. MICA, look at the waste, fraud, and abuse. Look how much I was charged for this 15 minute service. And they hold up a bill. Look how much this item cost, this overbilling.

The Miami Herald in Florida did an article on Medicaid fraud and they estimated a $1 billion fraud and abuse of the system in just the State of Florida.

Mr. SHAYS. The gentleman said 1 billion?

Mr. MICA. Yes, $1 billion in waste, fraud, and abuse. And that is the cornerstone of the Republican plan, is to tackle some of that. Every senior has seen it when they have sat in an office and seen how the system is abused. When they have seen the billing, they see the net results.

We had one individual come to a town hall meeting and talk about what he was forced to pay for a wheelchair. He could have purchased probably four or five wheelchairs for what the system required him, or the system and the taxpayers to pay for under this ridiculous system. So waste, fraud, and abuse are an important cornerstone.

Medicaid is the same thing and we will not get into that tonight. But I sit on the subcommittee and we oversaw Medicaid with the gentleman from New York [Mr. TOWNS], and Medicaid in Florida is somewhere in the neighborhood of $1 billion in waste just by estimates of the General Accounting Office report that our subcommittee received last year. So, the cornerstone is doing something about waste, fraud, and abuse.

Then, the second point is tort reform, and we know we have to face tort reform. We sent to the other body litigation and legal and tort reform that is so necessary, whether it involves medical expenses. And we see that again. Someone said a doctor charged so much for an office visit. And I checked with the doctor to see what his liability was. His premium is $50,000 a year. That is a thousand dollars a week. If you do 100 visits, that is tacked on at the front end of every visit.

We have to do something to bring some of the need for reform into place here as far as tort and liability reform. A second major point.

And then again my colleagues have described the opportunity for choices. No one is forced out of Medicare. No one is forced into any plans under what we are proposing. Beneficiaries are given choices. What is wrong with choices? And choices that we offer will create competition. We think we will drive prices down. We are not positive it will work, but we think from the models that we have seen, from pure logic, that competition and also having various plans such as we have in the Federal Health Benefits Program that I oversee, also as chair as the House Civil Service Subcommittee, people will have the opportunity to choose from a variety of plans which will begin to be self-policing.

And we have seen that. They bring down costs. They offer more options for folks. Things like medical savings accounts, which makes so much sense. What is wrong with providing an alternative to bankruptcy?

It is all done, too, on the House side we say no change in copayments. No change in deductible and the premiums remain the same. Seniors can stay in Medicare. We can reform Medicare and also offer choices, and I think that makes sense. The most important thing is it helps bring the finances of the country and the system into some balance and we will not bankrupt the system or the country.

Mr. SHAYS. When the gentleman said not positive it will work, I am absolutely as positive as I can be that this system will work extraordinarily well. The issue is will the savings be 270? 260? 280? How many people will choose private care? Will it be 24 percent that the Congressional Budget Office says? My judgment, based on all the people that we have interviewed, says that well more than 50 percent by the seventh year will have chosen private care. They are going to choose it because they get better opportunities.

The certainty is no one can predict exactly what it will be in the seventh year. Is it 45 percent who are in private care? 60 percent? 70 percent? That is the uncertainty. To what extent will that happen? But the one thing we are certain of, we are certain that we will provide $4,800, as we do not, per beneficiary. We are certain that we will provide $6,700 in the seventh year. That is a 40 percent increase per beneficiary.

There is over $600 billion into the plan. Doctors will get more; hospitals will get more; all the people who provide quality service will get more, not less.

There is not anything like an increase in the number of hospitals and doctors of 40 percent. So those who are in the system now that are being told that somehow they are going to have to make extraordinary sacrifices, it is just not accurate.

Mr. MICA. Well, again, Mr. Speaker, nothing is certain. We are trying to do our best. We all have relatives. I have aunts who are on Medicare and trying to make it from week to week and month to month. We are concerned about these people. But our number one concern should be that we do not bankrupt the country. And simple math will show you that this whole structure we have created, this huge government program is going to collapse. Even the President's commission says that.

So we are willing to work with the other side. We are willing to work with the administration. We are willing to work with people who have ideas. We have held hundreds of hearings on this and Members have held literally thousands of town hall meetings trying to bring together the best ideas into a plan that makes sense.

The last thing we would want to do is hurt any senior citizen, someone in need or someone who needs that care. We think we can do a better job, and it is not necessarily throwing more money at the problem. That seems to be the only solution around here.

Do we do a better job, as proposed by some folks on the other side of the aisle or the administration, just by ignoring the problem or letting the waste continue? Well, we will let the waste go to 89 billion or let the waste go to 100 billion. This does not make sense. We need to make the system work and it should operate and function in a responsive, accountable fashion and give the people the choices that others have. Why confine them to one failed choice?

Mr. MILLER of Florida. You are chairman of the committee that is involved in Federal employee health insurance. We looked at that. That is basically what we are going to offer senior citizens, a separate system that gives a choice just like all Federal employees have a choice.

The Medicare program is a very complex system. If you are under Medicare you have to have three different insurance plans. You have a Medicare part A with one insurance company handling that. You have Medicare part B, which costs $46.10 that another insurance company handles, and then you have a Medigap policy. That is a complicated system. That is part of the inefficiencies of Medicare. And as a Federal employee, we only have one insurance plan. Anybody in the private sector has one insurance plan. That simplifies it. It is going to be so much simpler. The benefits are going to be better, and we are going to slow the rate of growth. I do not see where the argument is, why anyone could disagree. We have more money every year.

Mr. SHAYS. I would love to just emphasize that point. I had more constituents who said, I want the same kind of choices you have, Mr. Congressman, hopefully they call me CHRIS, but the bottom line is, they are saying as a Federal employee I get to choose a wide range of programs. I have to pay 28 percent of health care costs. But I can choose any kind of program. I can choose one that is more expensive, less expensive and so on. I just want to emphasize, the gentleman from Florida is right on target. We are doing what our constituents have asked: Give us the same kind of choices you have.

Mr. MILLER of Florida. I am excited about the plan. I think we have been debating health care for almost 3 years. Now we are going to be able to do it. We are going to make the changes. We are going to give a better system to the seniors of our country. We are going to preserve a program that is so essential that we have to have it, and it is going to be there and it is going to be a much better plan. I do not understand what all this scare rhetoric is. It is politics. People do not want politics on this issue. It is too important for politics. I am getting tired of the scare tactics that keep coming in from the other side.

Mr. HAYWORTH. I guess it is just a situation where Halloween came a little bit early and lasted for the better part of 3 months. The chances now for us to expand choices, to offer real reform rather than a Band-Aid approach for the American people and preserve this program so that we can take the steps necessary in later years, indeed to preserve it for future generations, it is summed up in the name Medicare Plus. And as both my colleagues from Florida, Mr. Speaker, have indicated, it offers choice. And as my good friend from Connecticut so articulately phrased it, what is wrong with having that type of choice. We will leave it to the American people who duly elected us to debate this issue and make the necessary changes to preserve, protect, and improve Medicare.

Mr. SHAYS. I would just like to say, if I could, I compliment the President on one issue. He said to the American people, we need to deal with health care. It was a big wake-up call for a lot of Members of Congress. And what the President did is set in motion a number of us, if not all of us, giving this our number one priority and studying this issue tremendously. And so for that, it has been extraordinarily helpful because this is not something we just started working on.

You started and others and my colleagues started well before the President asked, but the general bottom line is that we have been working on this health care issue for over 3 years now and we think we have come to a plan that the American people really will find is what they want.

Mr. MICA. In closing, I just want to say again that I do not think there is any greater threat to senior citizens or all Americans, if this Congress does not act responsibly on the fiscal problems.

And they are not just Medicare, it is a big item, but it is also providing jobs and opportunity for this and future generations. And some of that does involve changing our tax policy. So we are going to have to do all of this. I think if we work together we can do a better job and we do not have to scare anyone in the process. But I think all of us working together we can improve what we have.

Mr. MILLER of Florida. Mr. Speaker, just in closing, for the seniors of this country, we have a good program. You are going to be excited by this program when it comes out next year. It is going to save a system that is essential to keep up.

Do not get scared by the rhetoric out there. It is going to be a good program. You are going to be very pleased with it. It is going to continue to exist and that is what we are here for. We are going to preserve and protect Medicare.

STATE OF EMERGENCY

The SPEAKER pro tempore (Mr. GUTKNECHT). Under a previous order of the House, the gentleman from New York [Mr. OWENS] is recognized for 60 minutes.

Mr. OWENS. Mr. Speaker, the state of emergency continues. You have just heard some of the brightest and most decent human beings in the Congress make a long statement about Medicare and health care funding, and neither one of them admitted that Medicaid will cease to be an entitlement under their bill. Millions of Americans who are now covered right now by Medicaid will no longer be covered as a result of the legislation that they want to pass.

They have not admitted that we are the only industrialized nation, we are the only industrialized nation other than South Africa that does not have universal health care coverage of some kind, are not moving in that direction. We were moving in that direction with Medicaid coverage for the poor, but they are going to take away the Medicaid entitlement. They say that we are going to be happy when we see the package. Americans will be happy when they see that less people are covered as a result of this legislation than were covered before. We are going backward and we should be happy.

There is a state of emergency that ought to be recognized here. Nearly half a million dedicated troops were here in Washington yesterday. Unfortunately, they had no commanders to tell them about the state of emergency. Unfortunately, no one told them to concentrate on the place where the real battles are being fought. They do not understand where the real battles are taking place. They do not understand that the state of emergency directly impacts on their lives.

They came, they are engaged, and I hope they will remain so. I want to discuss tonight how they must be energized and informed and directed to become a part of defending themselves against the big guns that are aimed at them and their way of life.

Nearly half a million dedicated troops were in Washington yesterday. Nearly half a million young black males marched yesterday. But they were not told the nature of the war they are in and the danger they face, and they were not told how best to engage the enemy.

I want to talk about how they must engage the enemy.

First I want to just describe what happened yesterday. I want to use the language of some of the editorials and columnists who have commented on it. In the Daily News of New York City, the Daily News language I think was very sensitive to what happened. I quote from the Daily News editorial of today, October 17:

The pain of generations of hope denied brought a sea of seekers to Washington. They came seeking solutions to the problems that divide them from the rest of the nation and from themselves. From the cold of early morning to the setting of the sun over the Nation's Capitol, they stood patiently, admirably, listening, waiting for words to heal them, to inspire them. Most waited in vain. But the power of their presence was so strong that it captured the attention of a nation. The power of their presence was so strong that it captured the attention of the nation.

I think it is important to note that these dedicated young men who came, according to one poll that has been taken, came for many different reasons. Unfortunately, too few of them came to Washington, the capital of power, and understood that not only could they capture the attention of the Nation but they could do more.

They could have focused in on some of the emergencies that exist right here in this legislative hall. We are going to have a vote this Thursday on Medicare, Medicaid. Nobody talks about Medicaid very much, but Medicaid is part of the package, too. There is going to be a huge cut in Medicare. That is horrible. We want to stop that cut. I do not think we have the votes. It is going to pass the House with that huge $270 billion cut over a 7-year period. More than $180 billion will be cut from Medicaid. And Medicaid will no longer be an entitlement. Right now it is an entitlement.

In case people do not know what entitlement is, entitlement, in summary, is the Federal Government saying that you as a citizen of the United States have a right to this particular benefit if you qualify for it. It is a means-tested entitlement. It is not like the farm subsidies or cash subsidies in the farm program. No matter how rich you are, you are entitled to your cash subsidy for the growth of tobacco or peanuts or whatever.

Medicaid is a means-tested entitlement. You have to profess you are poor. You have to prove you have great need before you can qualify for Medicaid. And Medicaid is as close as we have gotten in this country to coverage of the poorest people with some kind of health care plan.

We are like South Africa in that we do not have any effort going forward to move toward universal coverage. So, even that which exists already under Medicaid will be taken away. And the only hope that is being held out is in the Senate where the great debate in the Senate is, they will leave the entitlement in place for pregnant women and children. They will leave the entitlement in place for pregnant women and children. They can get Medicaid. But the young black males and all the other poor males of America, you will not be entitled to Medicaid, no matter how you qualify.

If you have an accident on your job, the likelihood is that you will be in a situation where you do not have health care coverage because so many of the kinds of jobs that these young black males will have or young males entering the work force are not jobs where you have a health plan. There is no health plan. So young males are in jeopardy in terms of not only accidents on the job, which there might be some relief in terms of workmen's compensation, but they are in jeopardy in terms of other kinds of illnesses.

They are certainly in jeopardy in terms of the violence that takes place and I have seen by visiting some hospitals where they have convalescing people who are receiving therapy, large numbers of young men who are the victims of gun shots, gun play, and other kinds of violence that have partially disabled them, not only black men but white men also. Violence often causes young men to need a great deal of health care, very expensive health care, also, health care for people with great disabilities.

So they have the guns aimed at them. Speaker GINGRICH has said that politics is war without blood. So I do not hesitate to use the analogy of guns. Politics is war without blood. While we dillydally these few days, it is very slow around here, not much happened on the floor today. We had a few votes, we had a few suspensions discussed, but the guns are being maneuvered into position. Those guns will be aimed at the programs that have been put in place over the last 50 years, programs which are compassionate and programs which seek to help poor people, people who qualify because they are poor and they need help.

We have all kinds of programs in America which help people. We have programs that help people that have been victimized by earthquakes, and they do not have to have means tests, does not matter who it is. People have been victimized by floods. There is no means test necessary to get government assistance. There are those victimized by drought or by hurricanes. There are ways to get help without means tests. So we have a humane society in many ways that extends help, but we are saying for people who are in dire need of help because their health is a problem, "We are going to cut it off. We are not going to have the Federal Government stand behind that. We are going to dump it off on the States." And the States have already made it quite clear that there is a minimum amount that they are going to offer in terms of additional help beyond what the Federal Government provides at present.

The big guns are aimed at the young men who were here yesterday. The earned income tax credit benefits poor families. It is a way to benefit working families. It is a way to reward people for working. We say we want people to go to work, and the earned income tax is one idea that brings to life the notion that people should be rewarded for work, but that is going to be cut, too. The gun is aimed at the earned income tax credit.

The guns are aimed at job training. We understand there are a lot of people being thrown out of work. There is a change in the industrial situation, and companies are changing in terms of technology. Downsizing, streamlining is taking place. I have talked about this before, and the only answer to it is in this transition period maximize the amount of education and job training so that people can recycle themselves, be helped to recycle themselves, but job training has been cut, too. Job training has been cut by $5 billion by this Republican-controlled Congress. Job training programs cut, education programs have been cut, by $4 billion.

The guns are aimed at the young persons who were here yesterday, and they did not hear anybody really focus on how important it was for them to understand and to rise up in very concrete, nonviolent, political ways to defend themselves.

Summer youth employment; many of the youngest youngsters there qualify for a summer youth employment program which has existed since the Great Society programs were created by Lyndon Johnson. Every summer minimum-wage jobs are available for 25 to 30 hours, and youngsters who are given those jobs and given some kind of training and prepare for the world of work as well as help to earn, allowed to earn, some money to go back to school, and I know from direct experience many of them end up contributing to their very poor families from the meager amounts of money they make in the summer youth employment program. That is zeroed out. The summer youth employment program, it is not just for men. It is for women, too, for females, too. That is zeroed out. It will exist no more as a result of legislation passed by this Republican-controlled House of Representatives.

The Senate, I think, have pretty much followed suit. I do not know of any effort to revitalize it. Title I, direct education program, Federal money flowing into the schools which have the younger sisters and brothers of the males who came here yesterday. Their nephews and nieces and their children are in those schools. Title I is the only Federal program that helps elementary and secondary schools all across the Nation, and we have cut that by $1.1 billion, which is one-seventh of the total amount.

Those young men and their families are targeted by the guns that are aimed at them, and they did not realize it. We must get to them and make them understand that there is a state of emergency and they must be involved in the fight to reverse this state of emergency. Their survival is at stake.

The crime prevention programs that were passed in the last Congress are on the chopping block. There is no more crime prevention of any significance in the bills that were passed by the Republican-controlled Congress. There are more prisons in greater amounts, and there are harsh regulations which force prisons to focus primarily on punishment and not on rehabilitation, but the young men who were here yesterday were not told about these changes.

Drug treatment is out of the window. Nothing of significance is going to happen with respect to drug treatment. The funding is no longer there.

One in three black males now are somewhere in the criminal justice system, either in prison, on parole, or probation, or under some kind of court supervision, one in three black males in America. A few years ago it was one in four. When these statistics came out, everybody was shocked. One in four black males in America are in the criminal justice system somewhere. Now it is one in three. In a few years will it be one in two? There is nothing to stop us from moving in that direction. But not much discussion of that took place yesterday either. We have to deal with the one in three right here.

There are bills on the floor in the next 2 weeks dealing with the prison system directly. The Sentencing Commission has recommended that we stop the discrepancy between the sentencing for people that have crack cocaine and those who have powdered cocaine because large numbers of blacks, females, and males, are being imprisoned for the possession of crack cocaine when more expensive and larger amounts of powdered cocaine, which are generally the choice of richer people, more affluent people, middle-class people, more white people; those persons are not sentenced in the same harsh way that those who have crack cocaine are. The Sentencing Commission has recommended a change, but the Republican-controlled majority does not want to allow that change to take place. The Sentencing Commission sees it as being the only just way to go, but that kind of justice is not accepted by the Republican majority control in this House.

The men who came yesterday are in serious trouble. They are in jeopardy, and they had some sense of the fact that they are in jeopardy. But men everywhere are in trouble, and too often they do not know it. Large numbers of men are in trouble, large numbers of families are in trouble, and I hate to continue to be repetitive and quote this article by Lester Thurow, but it is the best summary. It drives straight to the heart of the matter that you are going to find anywhere. Lester Thurow's article that I quoted several times in the past month is an article which appeared September 3, in the Sunday, New York Times just before Labor Day, and he was talking about the state of the working man in the world, not just in America. That article began with a statement that no country without a revolution or military defeat and subsequent occupation has ever experienced such a sharp shift in the distribution of earnings as America has in the last generation. At no other time have median wages of men fallen for more than two decades. Never before have a majority of American workers suffered real wage reductions while the per capita domestic product was advancing.

I read it because it needs to be read over, and over, and other again.

Now here is some parts I have not read and emphasized before. Let me just tell you how Lester Thurow brings this all together and focuses on families and focuses on males. Quote another paragraph that I have not read before although I have entered this entire article into the RECORD:

Wages of white men are falling slightly faster than those of black men, and the young have been clobbered. Wages are down 25 percent for men 25 to 34 years of age. Median wages for women didn't start to fall until 1989, but are now falling for every group except college-educated women. The pace of decline seems to have doubled in 1994 and early 1995.

This is Lester Thurow, professor of economics at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, a recognized expert in this area of manpower, the economy, technology, et cetera. He has testified innumerable times before Congress in various committees. Let me just quote two more paragraphs:

Thirty-two percent of all men between 25 and 34 years of age earn less than the amount necessary to keep a family of four above the poverty line. Thirty-two percent of all men between 25 and 34 years of age earn less than the amount necessary to keep a family of four above the poverty line.

Now he is not talking about black males, just black men. He is talking about American men, 34 percent of all American men, black and white. To continue quoting Lester Thurow:

Using the language of capitalism in today's economy children have shifted from being profit centers to being cost centers. To support them parents have to be willing to make large economic sacrifices.

Now listen closely. Men have a strong economic incentive to bail out of family responsibility since, when they do, their real standard of living rises 73 percent, although that of the family left behind falls 42 percent.

Listen carefully. I will repeat it. He is not talking about black males or black men only. Men have a strong economic incentive to bail out of family responsibility since, when they do so, their real standard of living rises 73 percent, although that of the family left behind falls 42 percent.

To continue Lester Thurow, I quote: "Whether it is fathering a family without being willing to be a father, whether it is divorce and being unwilling to pay alimony or child support, or whether it is being an immigrant from the Third World and after a time failing to send payments to the family back home, men all around the world are opting out. The Japanese seems to be the only exception," quoting Lester Thurow. Men all over the world are opting out under the pressure of not having enough wages to take care of families.

Let me just repeat the last paragraph. Whether it is fathering a family without being willing to be a father, whether it is divorce and being unwilling to pay alimony or child support, whether it is being an immigrant from the Third World and after a time failing to send payment to the family back home, men all around the world are opting out. The Japanese seem to be the only exception.

The men who came here yesterday came, and it was advertised as a day of atonement. From the very first this march, called by Louis Farrakhan, it was Farrakhan's march, spoke of a day of atonement for the sins that have been committed against black women and families, a day of atonement for the sins that have been committed. The men came to deal with taking personal responsibility, and that is very important. That is very important. Nobody should minimize the importance of men and women, human beings, taking personal responsibility.

The problem is that in this world there is a government responsibility that is also very much tied to what happens to individuals and what happens to families, and to oversimplify, not understand, that you must change the way your government operates in order to be able to take care of your family, that it is child neglect not to be involved in the political process, it is child neglect and family neglect not to exercise your responsibilities as a citizen and try to change the policies of your government.

That has to be understood. Medicare and Medicaid are not individual responsibilities, except the way they utilized, and the way individuals pay taxes into a system which helps to support Medicare and Medicaid. But you cannot have your family taken care of properly, with respect to health care, by yourself, no matter how much you reform and change your own lifestyle, which is highly desirable in many cases, and I am told that the men who came yesterday, the police have remarked that rarely have they seen such an orderly group, such a purposeful group, such a group that was intent on making a good impression, so great things will happen as a result of those individuals who came yesterday. I expect there will be personal changes that are very important.

However, to ignore the Medicare emergency, ignore the Medicaid emergency, to have the leaders not really focus more on the earned income tax credit, the job training, the summer youth employment, the title I cuts, the crime prevention cuts, the drug treatment cuts, to not understand that the economy is shaped by forces that are beyond the control of individuals and families, and to not address the fact that Government policies at this point are at the root of the problems being faced by families and their inability to cope, in many cases.

My evaluation of the Million Man March is mixed. Many people will wonder why I am going out in praise of the young men who came. I agree with the sensitivity expressed by the Daily News editorial, that their intent was magnificent and they came for good reasons. The overall impression is a good one, that made a Martin Luther King on the conscience of America.

I am one of the people who did not support the march. I did not endorse the march. I did not participate. Today, after proclaiming that it made a good impression on the conscience of America, I still have no apologies for not participating. The young men who came, came for various reasons. I know, because I have talked to dozens of them over and over again, over the past 3 months. They have told me.

I would summarize by saying the greatest percentage of them came in order to be a part of the positive energy of so many black males gathered in one place. They wanted to be a part of the positive energy. They wanted to bond with their black brothers. They did not have a political agenda, unfortunately. They also did not have an agenda to support Minister Louis Farrakhan in his endeavors. They were not interested in a philosophy of isolationism. They were not interested in a separatist philosophy. They were not interested in anti-Semitism. The great majority of them did not have that as an agenda.

As a member of the leadership, I could not participate because I knew very well the danger of supporting an activity which is led by a minister, Louis Farrakhan, who refuses, basically, to change his agenda. Let it be clearly understood that I am pleasantly surprised and quite happy and optimistic about the fact that there was a moderate statement made, a moderating statement, a conciliatory statement made, about moving toward unity, about sitting down with people that the Nation of Islam has had differences with, about sitting down with the Jewish community. I think all of that should be applauded. I think it is a great step forward. Blessed are the peacemakers. All of us should look forward to wanting to move through those kinds of hurdles and get over bigotry, racism, and any kind of religious condemnation or anti-Semitism. We should all want to do that. I applaud that, and am happy that it happened.

We have to see, however, how it develops. I did not support the Million Man March, but I respect those leaders who did participate. I consider myself a follower of Martin Luther King, who has taken a totally opposite approach to Minister Louis Farrakhan. Martin Luther King preached integration, not isolation, not segregation. Martin Luther King preached love, Martin Luther King preached moving forward in a positive way to overcome the difficulties of this society. Yet, when he died, he was planning a poor people's march on Washington, so economics was also a concern of Martin Luther King.

That agenda that he had was awesome. Segregation was the major problem. He had gotten around, on to economics, and dealing with a change in the way America does business and the way it treats people, black people in particular, economically, only because he had had to go through such a rigorous agenda on segregation and the violation of civil rights, so it was not because Martin Luther King did not understand the need to address basic problems such as jobs, businesses, and sharing in the great American economy.

I am a follower of Martin Luther King, the way of Martin Luther King, not a way of isolationism or hate or bigotry. There were others who were also followers of Martin Luther King who chose to join the march and participate, other leaders. I certainly think all the young people who participated are not in one category, and there is no question about their choice.

I think the leaders who participated, there is a slight philosophical difference between me and them in terms of those who are followers of Martin Luther King and felt they had to participate and feel that there is a danger in following an isolationist leader, a leader who preaches hate, segregation, et cetera. I respect them, and I do not consider myself as having a monopoly on wisdom.

I went through several stages in reaching the decision that I should not participate in the Million Man March. The Congressional Black Caucus considered whether it should endorse the Million Man March. At that time I led the opposition. I was in favor of issuing a statement by the Caucus which said:

We welcome all marchers. We certainly want to encourage maximum participation in this political process. We welcome more letter writing to Congressmen, we welcome lobbying, we welcome more petitioning, and above all we welcome more demonstrations and marches.

The Caucus would issue that agenda. For that reason we developed an 11-point program. I offered to the caucus an 11-point program which summarized what is going on here in Washington that all black people ought to be concerned about, which part of this war without blood affects them, which part of this effort to remake America impacts on black people. If you look at the list that I drew up, the 11 points, I think it is pretty well covered there.

I made that argument and I lost. The overwhelming percentage of Caucus Members voted to endorse the march. We do not deal with the numbers and that and so forth, but suffice it to say an overwhelming percentage endorsed the march, and I felt I had to respect that decision. I certainly was not going to go out and campaign against a decision in the Caucus when I had participated in the debate, in the process, but I did tell people that I was not going to participate.

When I was confronted with numerous young people who wanted to participate and other people who wanted to participate, I listened to their arguments and I came to the conclusion that the best recommendation was, to those people who wanted to participate and who had reasons for participating which had nothing to do with a day of atonement for the sins committed against black women and their children or families, they wanted to go for other reasons, of the dozens that I talked to, at least one-quarter of them wanted to go for religious reasons, and they identified with the Nation of Islam's religious agenda.

Another one-quarter did have some political agenda. They understood that Medicare was under attack, that Medicaid was under attack. They understood that programs which had benefited the black community for years were about to be destroyed. They wanted to be a part of the march in order to protest that. At least half of them had no agenda, politically or religious. They wanted to bond with the million men who came. They wanted to be a part of the positive energy.

Given that agenda, I respected it. I told everybody that if they go, they should go and carry their own banner, to say what they are in the march for, give out their own leaflets. I even offered leaflets to people which had the Congressional Black Caucus 11-point agenda. I came to that conclusion, and verbally made that statement to individuals who asked me. I made the same statement to many press people who called.

However, it became obvious that the march was too big, the issues were too great, to just make verbal statements. I prepared a draft of a written statement, and was about to issue that draft last Thursday when several new developments took place that made me revise the draft. My draft, first draft, said that I understood from talking to young black males in my community, I understood from talking to black males in general, that large numbers of people would come and large numbers of people who could not come to the Million Man March yesterday wanted to come.

I understood their sentiments, and I hoped that with the momentum of the occasion, I hoped that having that many young black males who felt that strongly about their presence being important in Washington, would make Minister Farrakhan rise to the occasion. I said in that statement that I hoped that he would renounce all anti-Semitism, all isolationism and hostility toward the idea of one world, and the fact that the black community cannot exist alone.

I hoped that he would abandon the philosophy which endangers the black community, that philosophy which makes it appear that somehow blacks can exist alone; no other group has attempted to exist alone, but somehow blacks can go it alone and be hostile toward traditional allies. We do not need allies. History has clearly shown, a number of studies have shown, that minorities above all need allies. In order for minorities to survive, they must have allies.

Studies have shown that no matter how good a minority may be in terms of measuring up to the standards of the majority, the majority will inevitably, if the minority does not have some protection, turn on the minority. It is not a matter of how good you are and how you measure up to the standards that are set by the majority, the minority is always in danger. The Jews in Germany excelled in many fields, so envy took over and they were in danger, as they were in the inquisition in Spain. There were a number of occasions where the excelling and the measuring up to the standards of a given society did not please the majority. They found some other excuse.

There are blacks who think that what you have to do is measure up to the standards set by whites, get an education, raise your moral standards, do all the things that middle-class America says its values, and automatically the race problem will go away, automatically being a minority will no longer be a problem. That is not what history bears out. If you do that, you will be an object of envy, and the same racism will be there, because majorities behave in that way toward minorities, usually. Usually there is some demagogue who comes along and takes advantage of the fact that there is a minority, and they can use that minority and the persecution of that minority to galvanize the majority.

Minorities are always vulnerable, for that reason. Either you are condemned and treated with contempt and labeled as inferior, as the Bell Curve does, and a number of other respectable scientists and philosophers are attempting to do, and that is the excuse for the oppression of the minority, or you are too rich, too talented, and taking too much of the resources, and therefore, you must be persecuted, so minorities are always in danger.

Only a philosophy which says we are going to continually reach out for allies, we are going to continually try to be less of a minority, and continue to integrate into a larger society of what I call the caring majority. There are people in the world of all colors that we want to identify with, people in the world of all religions that we want to identify with. They label themselves. They become a kind of caring majority that must be joined.

I have used the word "barbarian" here many times, and I have had people here recently tell me "You are as hostile and militant and uncompromising as some of the people you criticize." I use the word "barbarian" and I have defined it every time I use it. I say there are high-technology barbarians running the majority here. They are in control. I have defined it, not as the Romans defined barbarian. The Romans defined barbarian as anybody who was not a Roman. I have not defined barbarians in that way. That is a racist definition.

I defined clearly, barbarians are people who have no compassion. They cannot empathize. They have no feeling for anyone except those in their immediate family or their immediate friends, but they cannot feel or have compassion for other people. That is a barbarian. I have defined high-technology barbarians as people who are very bright, people who know how to use communications, modern communications media, people who have computers and know how to use computers, people who have gone to the best colleges. Those are the people who I call the high-technology barbarians.

It has nothing to do with color. There are black high-technology barbarians, there are white high-technology barbarians, there are Jewish high-technology barbarians, there are Protestant, Catholic high-technology barbarians. I define people by conditions they have control over.

We are not born a barbarian. We can become a barbarian as a result of our own actions and our own attitudes or our own philosophy. Nobody is a barbarian because of the color of their skin or the religion they happen to have adopted. They are barbarians because of their attitudes. When they are public officials and in powerful places, they are dangerous barbarians.

So Mr. Speaker, I want to make it clear that my use of the term is not a racist definition of everybody who is not black, or everybody who is not a Baptist, a Protestant, a Christian. I clearly label barbarians as those who have no compassion, those who would sit and make policies which disenfranchise from health care millions of people and not have any feeling or any compassion in the process. Those are barbarians.

Let me just continue, Mr. Speaker. My first draft appealed to Minister Farrakhan to rise above his own prejudices, his own past agenda of isolationism, and segregationist strategies. I said in that draft that I hoped that he would do that. And then, 3 days before the reports began to come out about the charge of bloodsuckers; that Jews were called bloodsuckers. And when an explanation was sought, it was expanded to not only Jews but Koreans and Arabs and everybody in the black community who takes money out of the black community are bloodsuckers. It looked as if there would be no opportunity to have Minister Farrakhan on the podium rising above the occasion, so I rewrote my draft and did not make an appeal that would look stupid.

I want to enter the entire statement for the record, Mr. Speaker. The statement is labeled "Statement of Congressman Major Owens on the October 16 Million Man March sponsored by the Nation of Islam". The statement was issued on Monday morning, October 16, 1995. It has an attachment, which is called "The fight for the CBC and caring majority agenda".

The 11 points that I talked about before, in which I said the Congressional Black Caucus should put out as reasons to march, are attached, and I want to enter the statement in its entirety, but let me just read from the statement in a few areas to clarify what I have just said.

My statement on the Million Man March begins as follows:

In my activist bones there is something that makes me always yearn to support a demonstration or a march. Certainly, given the vicious unrelenting attack on public policies which benefit the majority of Blacks, there is an urge to applaud any non-violent action that makes the Gingrich hit-tech barbarians a target. As a manifestation of massive people empowerment a march on Washington by the Caring Majority could be very much in order and long overdue.

But the October 16th march is not a Caring Majority march. Is Minister Louis Farrakhan's march focused on the current outrages of the Washington Republican majority? Is the anger of this march targeted at the pending legislation which will eradicate the entitlement of all poor children, including Black children, to receive Aid For Families with Dependent Children? Are the voices of the organizers denouncing the proposals to eradicate the entitlement for Medicaid? Are the idealistic youth headed for Washington being told that they should vent their rage on those who have cut billions of dollars from low-income housing, job training, education and other vital programs? Unfortunately in most march organizing circles the answer to these questions is "No".

Despite my activist instincts I refuse to participate in the October 16th Million Man March because the agenda of the March is purposefully shrouded in contradictions and conflicting messages. As a leader and elected member of Congress I can not endorse and engage in an activity which has leaders who loudly call for ecumenical and united action, but who thrive on autocratic planning and decision-making. I can not agree to blind and unconditional unity with those slogans and platforms have consistently been reckless and divisive. I cannot support a major statement by a group whose continuing isolationist posture and separatist strategy pose a long-term threat to the survival of the African American community.

Those who want to participate should not be denounced or even discouraged. I have talked to several dozen young men who are planning to join the March. One quarter of them clearly see the March as a religious affirmation experience. Approximately one half see it as an opportunity to "bond" with males and be a part of a massive generation of "positive energy". One fourth state that they are going in order to personally protest the "political situation".

Given this obvious intense desire to participate, my advice to these young men has been: If you go carry your own banner and give out your own leaflets to state the reason you are there.

This March is a golden opportunity to send a powerful message to America. But this March is Minister Louis Farrakhan's March. His picture has been on every recruitment poster. Farrakhan will determine who speaks and for how long on the program in Washington. This assemblage in Washington could have been Farrakhan's golden opportunity.

It could have been a golden opportunity. I did not know at that time what would happen. Fortunately, nothing terrible happened in Farrakhan's speech, but nothing was done to eradicate some of the policies that have been clearly set forth in the past. I am optimistic. I am willing to wait. I hope that the few things that were said in the spirit of conciliation will go forward.

In another part of this statement I say that one problem that is a major problem relates to the fact that as the march progressed, I am quoting from the statement, "As the march progressed," and this happened at a church in Brooklyn. The speech was made by this gentleman. "As the march progressed, Khalid Muhammed continued to view the march as primarily a religious march with the date chosen to be as near the birthdate of the Honorable Elijah Muhammed as possible. For him this march is still primarily "a day of atonement for the sins of black men against black women and their families."

This was taken from a newspaper article which quoted a speech made by Mr. Khalid Muhammed in a church in Brooklyn.

Leadership by an unrepentant Khalid Muhammed emphasizing the presence of Black men in Washington for the purpose of "atonement" for their sins is the one certain way to guarantee a dangerous and harmful message from this massive March. Speaker Gingrich and his hi-tech barbarians will welcome such a "confession" by Black men. This "atonement" validates the repeated Republican attacks on the Black community.

If the sins of Black men are the problem, then 232 years of slavery and a hundred years of brutal oppression after slavery are not part of the problem. If the collective sins of Black men are the major problem, then government policies which have denied economic development to the great cities and generated long-term unemployment for Blacks are not a significant part of the problem.

If the collective sins of Black men are the primary problem, then there is no need to fight the eradication of the entitlement of public assistance for poor children. There is no need to fight the proposals to end the entitlement to health care through Medicaid. If sin is the primary problem then government policies and actions have almost no role to play in the struggle to rebuild African American Communities. Sin is the province and responsibility of religions, ministers, churches, mosques, synagogues, temples and other similar groupings. Government only causes confusion and division when it mixes with religion.

Not sin, but public policies, government laws, rules, regulations and actions must be the primary concerns of elected officials and other secular leaders. No one should ever underestimate the role of personal morality in human affairs. We know that individuals are ultimately the masters of their own fates. But it is the duty of government to facilitate human and family positive development. Government and public policies must always strive to remove as many obstacles to "life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness" as possible. The Nation of Islam should not oversimplify the problems of our complex society and allow those in power to wash their hands and forget the problems they have created.

Instead of the Congressional Black Caucus endorsing a primarily religious march which had a planning process and an agenda which the Caucus could not influence, I urged the members of the CBC to issue its own agenda for action and invite all interested groups to march and fight for this Caring Majority Agenda.

In the final analysis time, intellect and energy spent denouncing the actions of others represent resources not being most effectively used. Let us leave the Nation of Islam to crusade with its religious focus on sin.

It is for us, the Caring Majority, to define ourselves not merely with words but the mass actions. From coast to coast, throughout this nation, Manifestations of Empowerment must be organized by the Caring Majority with high visibility, and a powerful focus. With representatives from both sexes, all races and ethnic groups, all religions and creeds; in union with all who care about the expansion of freedom, jobs, justice, and health care, the Caring Majority must move beyond October 16th and seize the initiative. And, as a climactic statement to those in Washington who want to "remake America" for the convenience of an oppressive elite minority, the Caring Majority must convene its own assembly of one million persons on the mall in Washington. We shall overcome!

The important thing is now that almost a half million young black males were engaged. I hope they stay engaged. There were some positive things that were recommended by Minister Farrakhan. He told them to go back and join organizations, join churches, adopt one person in jail, register eight voters, pledge not to commit violence themselves against anyone, pledge not to strike women, pledge not to dishonor women.

Mr. Speaker, I think those were agendas for returning that are important. The most important agendas, however, have still to be supplied. Elected officials, whether Congressmen or city councilmen, assembly persons, State Senators must supply that agenda. We must enter the battle for the minds of our young males. They are engaged, we must guarantee that they remain engaged in a constructive way. We must guarantee they understand that a state of emergency exists. It is a political problem, and they must step forward to deal with that problem.

The full text of the statement is as follows:

STATEMENT OF CONGRESSMAN MAJOR R. OWENS ON THE OCTOBER 16 MILLION MAN MARCH SPONSORED BY THE NATION OF ISLAM

In my activist bones there is something that makes me always yearn to support a demonstration or a march. Certainly, given the vicious unrelenting attack on public policies which benefit the majority of Blacks, there is an urge to applaud any non-violent action that makes the Gingrich hi-tech barbarians a target. Are the idealistic youth headed for Washington being told that they should vent their rage on those who have cut billions of dollars from low-income housing, job training, education and other vital programs? Unfortunately in most march organizing circles the answer to these questions is "NO".

Despite my activist instincts I refuse to participate in the October 16th Million Man March because the agenda of the March is purposefully shrouded in contradictions and conflicting messages. As a leader and elected member of Congress I can not endorse and engage in an activity which has leaders who loudly call for ecumenical and united action, but who thrive on autocratic planning and decision-making. One fourth state that they are going in order to personally protest the "political situation".

Given this obvious intense desire to participate, my advice to these young men has been: If you go carry your own banner and give out your own leaflets to state the reason you are there.

This March is a golden opportunity to send a powerful message to America. But this March is Minister Louis Farrakhan's March. His picture has been on every recruitment poster. Farrakhan will determine who speaks and for how long on the program in Washington. This assemblage in Washington could have been Farrakhan's golden opportunity.

Minister Farrakhan could have used this platform to truly unify Black America by endorsing the ideals and principles which place the African American community on the very highest moral ground. Farrakhan could have wiped out the past and taken a great leap forward by following the example of Nelson Mandela and denouncing all racism, sexism, anti-semitism and other religious bigotry, homophobia, prejudice, immigrant bashing and oppression of the poor.

A pledge to cleanse anti-semitism from the Nation of Islam's literature, videos, radio and television scripts would have constituted a dramatic first step toward the rising of a new sun of unity in the firmament of the Black community. The doors would have been opened wide for the full embracing of our allies among all ethnic, religious, national and economic groups. The Nation of Islam, in unison with the African American Community, would have been able to assume its rightful place as a critical part of the greater Caring Majority.

This March offered a golden opportunity for Minister Farrakhan. But the speeches within the last forty eight hours have indicated that he has chosen to trample on this option for conciliation. Basic steps to establish an environment which rejects bigotry and anti-semitism have been rejected. Farrakhan's speeches trumpeting the charge of "bloodsuckers" has grown more shrill. At the same time that Black college professors are working to prepare a more detailed political manifesto, Minister Khalid Muhammad, one of the nation's crudest and most notorious anti-semites, has been given the pivotal role of instructing the young Marchers.

As the march progressed, Khalid Muhammed continued to view this March as primarily a religious one with the date chosen to be as near the birthdate of the Honorable Elijah Muhammed as possible. For him the March is still primarily "a day of atonement for the sins of Black men against Black women and their families".

Leadership by an unrepentant Khalid Muhammed emphasizing the presence of Black men in Washington for the purpose of "atonement" for their sins is the one way to guarantee a dangerous and harmful message from this massive March. Speaker Gingrich and his hi-tech barbarians will welcome such a "confession" by Black men. This "atonement" validates the repeated Republican attacks on the Black community.

If the sins of Black men are the problem, then 232 years of slavery and a hundred years of brutal oppression after slavery are not part of the problem. If the collective sins of Black men are the major problem, then government policies which have denied economic development in the great cities and generated long-term unemployment for Blacks are not a significant part of the problem.

If the collective sins of Black men are the primary problem, then there is no need to fight the eradication of the entitlement to public assistance for poor children. There is no need to fight the proposals to end the entitlement to health care through medicaid. If sin is the primary problem then government policies and actions have almost no role to play in the struggle to rebuild African American Communities. Sin is the province and responsibility of religions, ministers, churches, mosques, synagogues, temples and other similar groupings. Government only causes confusion and division when it mixes with religion.

Not sin, but public policies, government laws, rules, regulations and actions must be the primary concerns of elected officials and other secular leaders. No one should ever underestimate the role of personal morality in human affairs. We know that individuals are ultimately the masters of their own fates. But it is the duty of government to facilitate human and family positive development. Government and public policies must always strive to remove as many obstacles to "life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness" as possible. The Nation of Islam should not oversimplify the problems of our complex society and allow those in power to wash their hands and forget the problems they have created.

Instead of the Congressional Black Caucus endorsing a primarily religious march which had a planning process and an agenda which the Caucus could not influence, I urged the members of the CBC to issue its own agenda for action and invite all interested groups to march and fight for this Caring Majority Agenda. (See Attached) For the sake of our families and our communities we must never engage in actions that are wasteful and counterproductive. But all Americans must understand that these are desperate times. The oppressive forces in control of the Congress have created a political state of emergency. In support of a Caring Majority Agenda all concerned groups must lobby, write letters, petition, demonstrate, and march!

In the final analysis time, intellect and energy spent denouncing the actions of others represent resources not being most effectively used. Let us leave the Nation of Islam to crusade with its religious focus on sin.

It is for us, the Caring Majority, to define ourselves not merely with words but with mass actions. From coast to coast, throughout this nation, Manifestations of Empowerment must be organized by the Caring Majority with high visibility, and a powerful focus. With representatives from both sexes, all races and ethnic groups, all religions and creeds; in unison with all who care about the expansion of freedom, jobs, justice, and health care, the Caring Majority must move beyond October 16th and seize the initiative. And, as a climactic statement to those in Washington who want to "remake America" for the convenience of an oppressive elite minority, the Caring Majority, in the Spring of 1996, must convene its own "Tianamen Square" assembly of one million persons on the mall in Washington. We shall overcome!

ATTACHMENT CONGRESSMAN MAJOR R. OWENS'
STATEMENT ON THE MILLION MAN MARCH
FIGHT FOR THE CBC AND CARING MAJORITY AGENDA

In support of the Congressional Black Caucus and Caring Majority Agenda we strongly urge all concerned groups to lobby, demonstrate, petition, write letters and march in these critical days ahead when the President will be negotiating with the Republican controlled Congress to save the nation from devastating budget cuts.

Fight Aggressive Racist Attacks in All Forms: the attacks on affirmative action, school desegregation, set asides and the voting rights act. Fight government and unofficial acts which encourage sexism, anti-semitism, homophobia, immigrant persecution or denial of basic rights to any group.

Fight for Education as a national priority. The CBC Alternative Budget demands a 25 per cent increase in funding for education. President Clinton is also proposing a large increase for education. The Summer Youth Employment Program must also be funded. The Republicans have voted zero for next years Summer Youth Employment Programs.

Fight to stop all cuts in Medicaid as well as Medicare. This nation still needs a National Health Insurance Program with universal coverage.

Fight to end the monstrous cuts in HUD programs for low income housing. More than seven billion dollars have already been cut. That is already too much taken from the poorest families in the nation and the homeless.

Fight to support the retention of adequate wages and pensions for the military, federal workers and other public service workers.

Fight to increase the minimum wage, to guarantee the right to organize unions, to end striker replacement and to maintain safe and healthy conditions in the workplace.

Fight to balance the nation's tax burden lowering taxes on families and individuals while forcing corporations to pay their fair share. At present corporations cover only 11 per cent of the tax burden while individuals and families shoulder 44 per cent of the tax load.

Fight for cuts in defense which downsize the CIA, the overseas bases and wasteful weapons.

Fight for an increase in foreign aid to Africa, the Caribbean, Haiti and other third world nations to assist with vital health and education needs.

Fight for increase in funding for youth crime prevention programs and for a decrease in the billions being voted to build prisons.

Fight and unite with the Caring Majority for the retention of Social Security as it is now. Stop moving the age requirement back and stop tampering with the COLAS.

Fight for ourselves—fight for America

Mr. Speaker, I want to close with a quote from the New York Times again. Columnist Russell Baker, a white man, felt very strongly about what happened yesterday. Columnist Russell Baker spoke his mind and I want to quote. I am going to enter the entire article in the RECORD, but I want to quote columnist Russell Baker from the New York Times' October 17 issue in the RECORD.

So it was left to Louis Farrakhan to act. It is hard to say why without speaking realistically of the state of American politics, which has less and less to do with anything of consequence.

Surely somebody of stature, Democrat or Republican, ought to have felt obliged to act long ago. It is hardly a secret that one of the country's most dangerous problems is the increasingly desperate situation of its young black male citizens.

The portrait of a nation in trouble is etched in the statistics on black unemployment rates, black school dropouts, rising imprisonment of young blacks and killings of black youngsters by black youngsters.

When a large portion of a nation's youth is being thrown away, or hustled into prisons, or lowered into graves, it takes a remarkable capacity for indifference to say that, well, it's a pity, but it's not our problem, it's a problem for the black community, black churches, black neighborhood leaders.

It is hard to see how a multiracial nation can avoid damage if its leaders refuse to deal with its gravest problems on ground that they are distinctively problems of race.

I am quoting from Russell Baker's article in the New York Times today.

Everybody now knows about the problem of the young black male, and nobody with power has done anything about it. To be sure, President Clinton has gone into the occasional black church and made the correct sounds, but where is the highpowered, bipartisan, interracial Presidential commission empowered to recommend executive and legislative action?

Have the leaders of the black community put pressure on White House and Congress to wake up? If so, the pressure has been as that of a feather pillow on the pyramid of Cheops.

Who are the leaders of this black community, anyhow? Are there any, or are they just fictional creations of the media? Maybe the "black community" is fictional, too. Why shouldn't it be? After all, there is no such thing as a "white community," no group who can sensibly be called "white leaders."

Maybe it is tired old racist thinking to keep talking about a "black community" complete with "black leaders." Maybe it makes more sense nowadays to drop all that separatist language and say, "There's nobody here but us Americans."

The Clinton administration was not the first to do nothing about the desperate situation of the young black American. Doing nothing about it has been the unswerving policy of Presidents back as far as Richard Nixon.

Not incidentally, it was Mr. Nixon's so-called southern strategy that rebuilt the Republican party on white hostility to the Democratic record on civil rights. Nor are the dynamic Newt Gingrich conservatives engaged with the problem. The Contract With America may ask us to assume this its blessings will lead one of these days to more secure childhoods, better schooling, better jobs, and a full dinner pail for young black men. But in the meantime, the Contract With America is explicit about the need to cut welfare.

If a single Republican presidential candidate has spoken on the matter that produced the Million Man March, it has been a pianissimo performance. Let's not forget, either, that some kind of action is overdue. Some kind of action was overdue. There was a vacuum to be filled. Politics has declined into a game for overgrown boys and their high-tech toys. You win by finessing reality.

So, finally it was left for Louis Farrakhan to act. It made a lot of people so mad they could spit. That often happens when good people have done nothing.

HE FILLED A VACUUM

(By Russell Baker)

So it was left to Louis Farrakhan to act. It is hard to say why without speaking realistically of the state of American politics, which has less and less to do with anything of consequence.

Surely somebody of stature, Democrat or Republican, ought to have felt obliged to act long ago. It is hardly a secret that one of the country's most dangerous problems is the increasingly desperate situation of its young black male citizens.

The portrait of a nation in trouble is etched in the statistics on black unemployment rates, black school dropouts, rising imprisonment of young blacks and killings of black youngsters by black youngsters.

When a large portion of a nation's youth is being thrown away, or hustled into prisons, or lowered into graves, it takes a remarkable capacity for indifference to say that, well, it's a pity, but it's not our problem, it's a problem for the black community, black churches, black neighborhood leaders.

It is hard to see how a multiracial nation can avoid damage if its leaders refuse to deal with its gravest problems on ground that they are distinctively problems of race.

This mistake was made by President Eisenhower 40 years ago and swiftly regretted, for Eisenhower was a serious man, serious about government's duties. He tried to avoid the multiracial reality of America in the Arkansas school desegregation crisis by arguing that race passions resided in the human heart, which could not be changed by government action.

When Arkansas's white Governor Faubus proposed to let the white human heart express itself by defying a court desegregation order, however, Eisenhower used the Army to preserve government by law.

Everybody now knows about the problem of the young black male, and nobody with power has done anything about it. To be sure, President Clinton has gone into the occasional black church and made the correct sounds, but where is the high-powered, bipartisan, interracial Presidential commission empowered to recommend executive and legislative action?

Have the leaders of the black community put pressure on White House and Congress to wake up? If so, the pressure has been as that of a feather pillow on the pyramid of Cheops.

Who are the leaders of this black community, anyhow? Are there any, or are they just fictional creations of the media? Maybe the "black community" is fictional, too. Why shouldn't it be? After all, there is no such thing as a "white community," no group who can sensibly be called "white leaders."

Maybe it is tired old racist thinking to keep talking about a "black community" complete with "black leaders." Maybe it makes more sense nowadays to drop all that separatist language and say, "There's nobody here but us Americans."

The Clinton Administration is not the first to do nothing about the desperate situation of the young black American. Doing nothing about it has been the unswerving policy of Presidents back as far as Richard Nixon. Not incidentally, it was Mr. Nixon's so-called "Southern strategy" that rebuilt the Republican Party on white hostility to the Democratic record on civil rights.

Nor are the dynamic new Gingrich conservatives engaged with the problem. The Contract With America may ask us to assume that its blessings will lead, one of these days, to more secure childhoods, better schooling, better jobs and a full dinner pail for young black men, but in the meantime it is explicit about the need to cut welfare.

If a single Republican Presidential candidate has spoken of the matter that produced the Million Man March, it has been a pianissimo performance.

Let's not forget, either, the fierce and forbidding tetchiness of many black people, which discourages whites from discussing the problem. It is understandable that a politician might ignore the subject entirely when he fears that getting involved may earn him the epithet of "racist."

Some kind of action was overdue. There was a vacuum to be filled. Politics has declined into a game for overgrown boys and their high-tech toys. You win by finessing reality. So finally it was left for Louis Farrakhan to act. It made a lot of people so mad they could spit. That often happens when good people have done nothing.

MEDICARE AND VA HEALTH BENEFITS

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Under a previous order of the House, the gentleman from Pennsylvania [Mr. FOX] is recognized for 5 minutes.

Mr. FOX of Pennsylvania. Mr. Speaker, I want to take this opportunity to address the House this evening to address a couple of major issues, not the least of which is the bill we passed today, H.R. 2353, which I was a cosponsor of with the gentleman from Arkansas [Mr. HUTCHINSON] to extend certain VA health and medical care benefits.

We extended the priority care for Persian Gulf veterans, the alcohol and drug abuse care, nursing home care alternatives, health scholarships, and we have also included within that legislation, which received bipartisan support, almost unanimous vote of the House, residential care for homeless and chronically mentally ill veterans, compensated work therapy and therapeutic transitional housing demonstration grants, and homeless veterans pilot programs, along with a displaying of the POW/MIA flag at all of our VA medical health centers, until the President has confirmed to the House and Senate that all the POW's and MIA's are accounted for.

This legislation was part of our committee work and we are happy to see that it was adopted today in the House and now moves on to the Senate.

One of the areas in which the general public has great interest, and especially the seniors who we are trying to protect with Medicare, we have this legislation coming before the House this week. And for those in the House who have been working on this issue for a long time, many others may ask why are you discussing it this year and why are you trying to reform it?

It was only in April that the President's trustees came back to the House and Senate and said that in 7 years, if we do nothing with Medicare, we will actually run out of money to have a Medicare health care system for our seniors.

Medicare is the Nation's primary medical assistance program for seniors and the disabled. It is composed of two parts: Part A, for which an individual automatically qualifies for at age 65. It provides hospital, home health, and skilled nursing facility coverage, and is paid for by payroll taxes. Those taxes go into the hospital trust fund which, by law, serves as the exclusive source of part A funding.

Part B, a voluntary system in which individuals who qualify for part A may choose to enroll, pays for doctor and outpatient service as well as medical equipment costs. It is paid for out of the general fund of our Government and from premiums paid by beneficiaries.

At this point, health care costs in the country, Mr. Speaker, are rising about 4 percent a year. But Medicare has been rising at the rate of 10 to 11 percent a year. Anyone can say: How is there such a disparate difference? Why is it that health care is a 4-percent increase and Medicare is going up at 10 percent?

A large part of that is the fraud, abuse, and waste which exists in the Medicare system, unfortunately.

Mr. Speaker, $30 billion a year goes to pay for fraud, abuse, and waste.

Under legislation that is before the House this week that legislation will address for the first time the enforcement, the speeding up of the prosecution of, investigation of fraud abuse and waste that we have in the Medicare system. It will establish through legislation that I cosponsored with the gentleman from Connecticut [Mr. SHAYS] and the gentleman from New Mexico [Mr. SCHIFF], this legislation will in fact increase the penalties and create for the first time the crime of Medicare fraud.

Mr. Speaker, that will go a long way to making sure that our Medicare system will become solvent and will in fact be secure and strengthened for many years to come.

But the other alternatives, which are also important to discuss tonight, Mr. Speaker, offer not only the fee for services, as has been traditional under Medicare, but also offer to beneficiaries the choice of a managed care option or medical savings accounts.

Under the managed care option there could be additional services, such as pharmaceuticals available, hearing aids, dentures, and the like. Under medical savings accounts, we now have an investment of $4,800 per subscriber in Medicare, which under the proposal now before the House could go to $6,700 by the year 2002.

And this increase for medical savings accounts, for the subscriber that does not use all the funds for 1 year, they could either keep the savings, Mr. Speaker, or have it roll over to the next year's medical health care provided.

In addition to providing the option of fee for service, managed care, and also for the medical savings accounts, it would allow providers to establish provider-sponsored organizations that can offer the Medicare Plus option. That would be for doctors or hospitals to provide, as well as the managed care companies, such options for our senior constituents.

It would establish under the legislation a commission to recommend long-term structural changes to preserve, protect, and strengthen Medicare. It would strengthen the Federal efforts, I may have made it very clear, to have the fraud addressed. I said that previously. But it would also create a new trust fund funded from both Medicare and the Federal Treasury to finance teaching hospitals and graduate medical education programs.

I believe, Mr. Speaker, that while the time is running short, I did want to say that to do nothing with Medicare would have us go bankrupt. So, it is important that we Republicans and Democrats work together this week, the House and the Senate together with the executive branch, to make sure that we not only keep a strong Medicare for this generation's seniors, but for seniors that follow so that we have a strong medical system for many years to come.

Thank you Mr. Speaker. I yield back the balance of my time.

DEBATE OMITTED FROM THE RECORD OF THURSDAY, OCTOBER 12, 1995, ON THE OMNIBUS CIVILIAN SCIENCE AUTHORIZATION ACT OF 1995

Mr. CRAMER. Mr. Chairman, will the gentleman yield?

Mr. WAMP. I yield to the gentleman from Alabama.

Mr. CRAMER. Mr. Chairman, I want to quickly point out that, as the gentleman and I both know, our areas have been designated by the National Research Council as likely among the most vulnerable gap areas in the country with the modernization plan and the recommended placement of NEXRADs. The gentleman and I have been so budget-conscious that we have talked about sharing a NEXRAD, if in fact we get that opportunity, as we hope we will, placing it somewhere between our respective districts, so we can in fact protect our citizens, but at the same time save as much money as possible. I wanted the Members to know that is how well we worked together.

Mr. WAMP. Reclaiming my time, Mr. Chairman, it can be in the State of Alabama, as long as it covers Chattanooga and southeast Tennessee adequately. I appreciate that, and commend the gentleman.

Mr. SOUDER. Mr. Chairman, I move to strike the requisite number of words.

Mr. Chairman, I commend the gentleman from Alabama. I am a cosponsor of his amendment, and I want to thank the chairman of the committee for his willingness to hold hearings. We appreciate his willingness to work through problems in northeast Indiana, as well as northwest Ohio, and the tri-state region I represent. I also understand we are moving to new radar systems, and I think those changes in science are very important, and will provide more protection.

However, we have gaps in that system. While we are going through those gaps, if we close our local weather service, we are unprotected over the next few years. If we do not have a whole country covered in the radar systems, it becomes more problematic about the weather stations. Our constituents rely greatly on the National Weather Service to provide advanced warnings of tornadoes and other severe storms. Current law prohibits the National Weather Service from closing weather stations unless it can certify that the closing will cause no degradation in the warning service the stations provide to local residents. Without this amendment, that protection would be struck. A few years ago, the city of Kendalville in my district was hit without warning by a tornado that injured 28 people, destroyed 29 buildings, and damaged over 150 businesses and residences. I happen to be very familiar with that, because I was just south of where the tornado was going, heard the warning on the radio, and turned south so I did not get caught in the path.

All of northeast Indiana, as well as at least 30 other areas of this country, now face the prospect of losing their weather service warnings, even though independent experts at the National Research Council recently acknowledged that they face a potential for a degraded service. We in our area, in the current proposals for the new radar system, are covered by four different systems, and it leaves us very vulnerable in the middle of that.

I was also at a fair last summer where a tornado went from western Ohio and came back west, rather than going west to east, and had there not been a weather service in Fort Wayne, they would have had to relay that to Cincinnati, back to Indianapolis, back to Fort Wayne, and this way in minutes they were able to get us to a shelter.

I know in a very personal way 125,000 people in my districts have sent postcards to NOAA with concerns for this. It is very important. There are a couple of concerns. This bill saves $15 million, this amendment, but $35 million additional, I understand, could be saved. I have been working to cut the budget on appropriations bills and will continue to do that, but we also in this bill, I have supported the space program, I supported the space station, I think the chairman of this committee and the subcommittees have done well in battling for science, but if we can have $100 million for space and Russia, we can afford to protect our own citizens in this country.

It is not just a matter of children's lives being lost and the homes being lost and lives; in my case, it is my wife, my children, myself, people who I grew up with and who are friends, and this is far too important to lose in a transition where, overall, the program is very effective, but some lives could be lost by this degradation of service.

Mr. HERGER. Mr. Chairman, I move to strike the requisite number of words.

Mr. Chairman, I rise in strong support of the Cramer amendment. Mr. Chairman, the modernization of the National Weather Service's purpose is to consolidate weather service offices nationwide without jeopardizing the quality of weather service to any region. While I strongly support this goal, weather service users, the public, and elected officials have repeatedly expressed deep concern that the modernization plan might actually degrade services in some regions of the country.

In response to these concerns, Congress enacted Public Law 102-567, which stipulates that the weather service will not close any of its stations without first certifying that doing so will not degrade weather service to the affected region. Mr. Chairman, I have grave concerns about the provisions of this bill that repeal this mandate. No one in this Chamber is more committed to streamlining Government than I am. However, we should not do so at the expense of the safety of the people in northern California and elsewhere in the country. Yet, that is precisely what will happen if we do not adopt the amendment offered by the gentleman from Alabama.

Mr. Chairman, let me illustrate by describing several situations in my own district of northern California.

Presently, the National Weather Service plans to close its office in the city of Redding, the largest population center in California north of Sacramento. This decision has been made despite mountains of credible scientific evidence, including findings by the weather service meteorologists in California, that doing so could have a potentially devastating impact on Redding and the communities further north. The mountains to the north of Redding, including the Interstate 5 corridor, which provides the primary transportation route between Oregon and California, are subject to severe storms that have been the source of some of the worst flooding in California history. Last spring, for example, floods ravaged the 10 counties in my district, leaving each a Federal disaster area. During this tragedy, the weather service in Redding provided critical, up-to-the-minute information to local officials, enabling them to react almost instantaneously to individual emergencies.

“(4) TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF IMPOSING PREMIUMS.—Each MedicarePlus organization shall permit the payment of monthly premiums on a monthly basis and may terminate election of individuals for a MedicarePlus product for failure to make premium payments only in accordance with subsection (c)(3)(B).

“(5) RELATION OF PREMIUMS AND COST-SHARING TO BENEFITS.—In no case may the portion of a MedicarePlus organization’s premium rate and the actuarial value of its deductibles, coinsurance, and copayments charged (to the extent attributable to the minimum benefits described in subsection (a)(1) and not counting any amount attributable to balance billing) to individuals who are enrolled under this part with the organization exceed the actuarial value of the coinsurance and deductibles that would be applicable on the average to individuals enrolled under this part with the organization (or, if the Secretary finds that adequate data are not available to determine that actuarial value, the actuarial value of the coinsurance and deductibles applicable on the average to individuals in the area, in the State, or in the United States, eligible to enroll under this part with the organization, or other appropriate data) and entitled to benefits under part A and enrolled under part B if they were not members of a MedicarePlus organization.

“(ii) such portion of the weighted aggregate premium, which the Secretary annually estimates would apply to such an individual, as the Secretary annually estimates is attributable to that service or services, but adjusted for differences between the utilization characteristics of the individuals electing coverage under this part and the utilization characteristics of the other enrollees with the organization (or, if the Secretary finds that adequate data are not available to adjust for those differences, the differences between the utilization characteristics of individuals selecting other MedicarePlus coverage, or individuals in the area, in the State, or in the United States, eligible to elect MedicarePlus coverage under this part and the utilization characteristics of the rest of the population in the area, in the State, or in the United States, respectively).

“(ii) If the plan places a physician or physician group at substantial financial risk (as determined by the Secretary) for services not provided by the physician or physician group, the organization—

“(I) provides stop-loss protection for the physician or group that is adequate and appropriate, based on standards developed by the Secretary that take into account the number of physicians placed at such substantial financial risk in the group or under the plan and the number of individuals enrolled with the organization who receive services from the physician or the physician group, and

"(i) LOWEST SERVICE UTILIZATION COHORT.—For areas assigned to the lowest service utilization cohort, 9.7 percent plus the additional percent provided under subparagraph (B)(ii).

"(ii) LOWER SERVICE UTILIZATION COHORT.—For areas assigned to the lower service utilization cohort, 8.0 percent.

"(iii) MEDIAN SERVICE UTILIZATION COHORT.—For areas assigned to the median service utilization cohort, 5.1 percent.

"(iv) HIGHER SERVICE UTILIZATION COHORT.—For areas assigned to the higher service utilization cohort, 4.7 percent.

"(v) HIGHEST SERVICE UTILIZATION COHORT.—For areas assigned to the highest service utilization cohort, 4.0 percent.

"(B) BUDGET NEUTRAL ADJUSTMENT.—In order to assure that the total capitation payments under this section during 1996 are the same as the amount such payments would have been if the per capita growth rate for all such areas for 1996 were equal to the national average per capita growth rate, specified in paragraph (3) for 1996, the Secretary shall adjust the per capita growth rates for payment areas as follows:

"(i) INCREASE UP TO FLOOR FOR LOWEST SERVICE UTILIZATION COHORT.—First, such additional percent increase as may be necessary to assure that the annual MedicarePlus capitation rate for each payment area is at least 12 times $250 for 1996.

"(ii) RESIDUAL INCREASE TO LOWEST SERVICE UTILIZATION COHORT.—Next, for payment areas assigned to the lowest service utilization cohort, such additional percent increase as will assure that the total capitation payments under this section during 1996 are the same as the amount such payments would have been if the per capita growth rate for all such areas for 1996 were equal to the national average per capita growth rate. The increase under this clause may apply to a payment area described in clause (i) and shall be applied after the increase provided under such clause.

"(2) FOR SUBSEQUENT YEARS.—

"(A) IN GENERAL.—For purposes of this section and subject to subparagraph (B), the Secretary shall compute a per capita growth rate for each year after 1996, for each payment area as assigned to a service utilization cohort under subsection (d), consistent with the following rules:

"(i) MEDIAN SERVICE UTILIZATION COHORT SET AT NATIONAL AVERAGE PER CAPITA GROWTH RATE.—The per capita growth rate for areas assigned to the median service utilization cohort for the year shall be the national average per capita growth rate for the year (as specified under paragraph (3)), subject to subparagraph (C).

"(ii) HIGHEST SERVICE UTILIZATION COHORT SET AT 75 PERCENT OF NATIONAL AVERAGE PER CAPITA GROWTH RATE.—The per capita growth rate for areas assigned to the highest service utilization cohort for the year shall be 75 percent of the national average per capita growth rate for the year.

"(iii) LOWEST SERVICE UTILIZATION COHORT SET AT 187.5 PERCENT OF NATIONAL AVERAGE PER CAPITA GROWTH RATE.—The per capita growth rate for areas assigned to the lowest service utilization cohort for the year shall be 187.5 percent of the national average per capita growth rate for the year, subject to subparagraph (C).

“(iv) LOWER SERVICE UTILIZATION COHORT SET AT 150 PERCENT OF NATIONAL AVERAGE PER CAPITA GROWTH RATE.—

“(I) IN GENERAL.—Subject to subclause (II), the per capita growth rate for areas assigned to the lower service utilization cohort for the year shall be 150 percent of the national average per capita growth rate for the year.

“(II) ADJUSTMENT.—If the Secretary has established under clause (v) the per capita growth rate for areas assigned to the higher service utilization cohort for the year at 75 percent of the national average per capita growth rate, the Secretary may provide for a reduced per capita growth rate under subclause (I) to the extent necessary to comply with subparagraph (B).

“(v) HIGHER SERVICE UTILIZATION COHORT.—The per capita growth rate for areas assigned to the higher service utilization cohort for the year shall be such percent (not less than 75 percent) of the national average per capita growth rate, as the Secretary may determine consistent with subparagraph (B).

“(B) AVERAGE PER CAPITA GROWTH RATE AT NATIONAL AVERAGE TO ASSURE BUDGET NEUTRALITY.—The Secretary shall compute per capita growth rates for a year under subparagraph (A) (before the application of subparagraph (C)) in a manner so that the weighted average per capita growth rate for all areas for the year (weighted to reflect the number of medicare beneficiaries in each area) is equal to the national average per capita growth rate under paragraph (3) for the year.

“(C) FINAL ADJUSTMENT OF GROWTH RATES.—After computing per capita growth rates under the previous provisions of this paragraph the Secretary shall—

“(i) reduce the per capita growth rate for areas assigned to the median service utilization cohort by the ratio of .1 to 5.3, and

“(ii) increase the per capita growth rate for areas assigned to the lowest service utilization cohort by such proportion as the Secretary determines will result in an increase in outlays resulting from this clause equal to the reduction in outlays resulting from clause (i) for the year involved.

“(3) NATIONAL AVERAGE PER CAPITA GROWTH RATES.—In this subsection, the ‘national average per capita growth rate’ for—

“(A) 1996 is 5.3 percent,

“(B) 1997 is 3.8 percent,

“(C) 1998 is 4.6 percent,

“(D) 1999 is 4.3 percent,

“(E) 2000 is 3.8 percent,

“(F) 2001 is 5.5 percent,

“(G) 2002 is 5.6 percent, and “(H) each subsequent year is 5.0 percent.

“(d) ASSIGNMENT OF PAYMENT AREAS TO SERVICE UTILIZATION COHORTS.—

“(I) IN GENERAL.—For purposes of determining per capita growth rates under subsection (c) for areas for a year, the Secretary shall assign each payment area to a service utilization cohort (based on the service utilization index value for that area determined under paragraph (2)) as follows:

“(A) LOWEST SERVICE UTILIZATION COHORT.—Areas with a service utilization index value of less than .80 shall be assigned to the lowest service utilization cohort.

“(B) LOWER SERVICE UTILIZATION COHORT.—Areas with a service utilization index value of at least .80 but less than .90 shall be assigned to the lower service utilization cohort.

“(C) MEDIAN SERVICE UTILIZATION COHORT.—Areas with a service utilization index value of at least .90 but less than 1.10 shall be assigned to the median service utilization cohort.

“(D) HIGHER SERVICE UTILIZATION COHORT.—Areas with a service utilization index value of at least 1.10 but less than 1.20 shall be assigned to the higher service utilization cohort.

“(E) HIGHEST SERVICE UTILIZATION COHORT.—Areas with a service utilization index value of at least 1.20 shall be assigned to the highest service utilization cohort.

“(2) DETERMINATION OF SERVICE UTILIZATION INDEX VALUES.—In order to determine the per capita growth rate for a payment area for each year (beginning with 1996), the Secretary shall determine for such area and year a service utilization index value, which is equal to—

“(A) the annual MedicarePlus capitation rate under this section for the area for the year in which the determination is made (or, in the case of 1996, the average annual per capita rate of payment (described in section 1876(a)(1)(C)) for the area for 1995); divided by

“(B) the input-price-adjusted annual national MedicarePlus capitation rate (as determined under paragraph (3)) for that area for the year in which the determination is made.

“(3) DETERMINATION OF INPUT-PRICE-ADJUSTED RATES.—

“(A) IN GENERAL.—For purposes of paragraph (2), the ‘input-price-adjusted annual national MedicarePlus capitation rate’ for a payment area for a year is equal to the sum, for all the types of medicare services (as classified by the Secretary), of the product (for each such type) of—

“(i) the national standardized MedicarePlus capitation rate (determined under subparagraph (B)) for the year,

“(ii) the proportion of such rate for the year which is attributable to such type of services, and

“(iii) an index that reflects (for that year and that type of services) the relative input price of such services in the area compared to the national average input price of such services.

In applying clause (iii), the Secretary shall, subject to subparagraph (C), apply those indices under this title that are used in applying (or updating) national payment rates for specific areas and localities.

“(B) NATIONAL STANDARDIZED MEDICAREPLUS CAPITATION RATE.—In this paragraph, the ‘national standardized MedicarePlus capitation rate’ for a year is equal to—

“(i) the sum (for all payment areas) of the product of (I) the annual MedicarePlus capitation rate for that year for the area under subsection (b)(2), and (II) the average number of medicare beneficiaries residing in that area in the year; divided by “(ii) the total average number of medicare beneficiaries residing in all the payment areas for that year.

“(C) SPECIAL RULES FOR 1996.—In applying this paragraph for 1996—

“(i) medicare services shall be divided into 2 types of services: part A services and part B services;

“(ii) the proportions described in subparagraph (A)(ii) for such types of services shall be—

“(I) for part A services, the ratio (expressed as a percentage) of the average annual per capita rate of payment for the area for part A for 1995 to the total average annual per capita rate of payment for the area for parts A and B for 1995, and

“(II) for part B services, 100 percent minus the ratio described in subclause (I);

“(iii) for the part A services, 70 percent of payments attributable to such services shall be adjusted by the index used under section 1886(d)(3)(E) to adjust payment rates for relative hospital wage levels for hospitals located in the payment area involved;

“(iv) for part B services—

“(I) 66 percent of payments attributable to such services shall be adjusted by the index of the geographic area factors under section

1848(e) used to adjust payment rates for physicians’ services furnished in the payment area, and

“(II) of the remaining 34 percent of the amount of such payments, 70 percent shall be adjusted by the index described in clause (iii);

“(v) the index values shall be computed based only on the beneficiary population described in subsection (b)(5)(A).

The Secretary may continue to apply the rules described in this subparagraph (or similar rules) for 1997.

“(e) PAYMENT PROCESS.—

“(I) IN GENERAL.—Subject to subsection (f), the Secretary shall make monthly payments under this section in advance and in accordance with the rate determined under subsection (a) to the plan for each individual enrolled with a MedicarePlus organization under this part.

“(2) ADJUSTMENT TO REFLECT NUMBER OF ENROLLEES.—

“(A) IN GENERAL.—The amount of payment under this subsection may be retroactively adjusted to take into account any difference between the actual number of individuals enrolled with an organization under this part and the number of such individuals estimated to be so enrolled in determining the amount of the advance payment.

“(B) SPECIAL RULE FOR CERTAIN ENROLLEES.—

“(i) IN GENERAL.—Subject to clause (ii), the Secretary may make retroactive adjustments under subparagraph (A) to take into account individuals enrolled during the period beginning on the date on which the individual enrolls with a MedicarePlus organization under a product operated, sponsored, or contributed to by the individual’s employer or former employer (or the employer or former employer of the individual’s spouse) and ending on the date on which the individual is enrolled in the organization under this part, except that for purposes of making such retroactive adjustments under this subparagraph, such period may not exceed 90 days.

“(ii) EXCEPTION.—No adjustment may be made under clause (i) with respect to any individual who does not certify that the organization provided the individual with the disclosure statement described in section 1853(a) at the time the individual enrolled with the organization.

“(f) SPECIAL RULES FOR INDIVIDUALS ELECTING HIGH DEDUCTIBLE/MEDISAVE PRODUCT.—

“(I) IN GENERAL.—In the case of an individual who has elected a high deductible/medisave product, notwithstanding the preceding provisions of this section—

“(A) the amount of the payment to the MedicarePlus organization offering the high deductible/medisave product shall not exceed the premium for the product, and

“(B) subject to paragraph (2), the difference between the amount of payment that would otherwise be made and the amount of payment to such organization shall be made directly into a MedicarePlus MSA established (and, if applicable, designated) by the individual under paragraph (2).

“(2) ESTABLISHMENT AND DESIGNATION OF MEDICAREPLUS MEDICAL SAVINGS ACCOUNT AS REQUIREMENT FOR PAYMENT OF CONTRIBUTION.—In the case of an individual who has elected coverage under a high deductible/medisave product, no payment shall be made under paragraph (1)(B) on behalf of an individual for a month unless the individual—

“(A) has established before the beginning of the month (or by such other deadline as the Secretary may specify) a MedicarePlus MSA (as defined in section 137(b) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986), and

“(B) if the individual has established more than one MedicarePlus MSA, has designated one of such accounts as the individual's MedicarePlus MSA for purposes of this part. Under rules under this section, such an individual may change the designation of such account under subparagraph (B) for purposes of this part.

"(3) LUMP SUM DEPOSIT OF MEDICAL SAVINGS ACCOUNT CONTRIBUTION.—In the case of an individual electing a high deductible/medisave product effective beginning with a month in a year, the amount of the contribution to the MedicarePlus MSA on behalf of the individual for that month and all successive months in the year shall be deposited during that first month. In the case of a termination of such an election as of a month before the end of a year, the Secretary shall provide for a procedure for the recovery of deposits attributable to the remaining months in the year.

"(g) PAYMENTS FROM TRUST FUND.—The payment to a MedicarePlus organization under this section for individuals enrolled under this part with the organization, and payments to a MedicarePlus MSA under subsection (f)(1)(B), shall be made from the Federal Hospital Insurance Trust Fund and the Federal Supplementary Medical Insurance Trust Fund in such proportion as the Secretary determines reflects the relative weight that benefits under part A and under part B represents of the actuarial value of the total benefits under this title.

"(h) SPECIAL RULE FOR CERTAIN INPATIENT HOSPITAL STAYS.—In the case of an individual who is receiving inpatient hospital services from a subsection (d) hospital (as defined in section 1886(d)(1)(B)) as of the effective date of the individual's—

"(1) election under this part of a MedicarePlus product offered by a MedicarePlus organization—

"(A) payment for such services until the date of the individual's discharge shall be made under this title through the MedicarePlus product or Non-MedicarePlus option (as the case may be) elected before the election with such organization,

"(B) the elected organization shall not be financially responsible for payment for such services until the date after the date of the individual's discharge, and

"(C) the organization shall nonetheless be paid the full amount otherwise payable to the organization under this part; or

"(2) termination of election with respect to a MedicarePlus organization under this part—

"(A) the organization shall be financially responsible for payment for such services after such date and until the date of the individual's discharge,

"(B) payment for such services during the stay shall not be made under section 1886(d) or by any succeeding MedicarePlus organization, and

"(C) the terminated organization shall not receive any payment with respect to the individual under this part during the period the individual is not enrolled.

"(1) RECOMMENDATIONS OF NAIC.—The Secretary shall request the National Association of Insurance Commissioners to develop and submit to the Secretary, not later than 12 months after the date of the enactment of the Medicare Preservation Act of 1995, proposed standards consistent with the requirements of this part for MedicarePlus organizations (other than union sponsors, Taft-Hartley sponsors, and provider-sponsored organizations) and MedicarePlus products offered by such organizations, except that such proposed standards may relate to MedicarePlus organizations that are qualified associations only with respect to MedicarePlus products offered by them and only if such products are issued by organizations to which section 1851(b)(1) applies.

"(2) REVIEW.—If the Association submits such standards on a timely basis, the Secretary shall review such standards to determine if the standards meet the requirements of the part. The Secretary shall complete the review of the standards not later than 90 days after the date of their submission. The Secretary shall promulgate such proposed standards to apply to organizations and products described in paragraph (1) except to the extent that the Secretary modifies such proposed standards because they do not meet such requirements.

"(3) FAILURE TO SUBMIT.—If the Association does not submit such standards on a timely basis, the Secretary shall promulgate such standards by not later than the date the Secretary would otherwise have been required to promulgate standards under paragraph (2).

"(4) USE OF INTERIM RULES.—For the period in which this part is in effect and standards are being developed and established under the preceding provisions of this subsection, the Secretary shall provide by not later than June 1, 1996, for the application of such interim standards (without regard to any requirements for notice and public comment) as may be appropriate to provide for the expedited implementation of this part. "(2) PUBLICATION OF NOTICE.—In carrying out the rulemaking process under this subsection, the Secretary, after consultation with the National Association of Insurance Commissioners, the American Academy of Actuaries, organizations representative of medicare beneficiaries, and other interested parties, shall publish the notice provided for under section 564(a) of title 5, United States Code, by not later than 45 days after the date of the enactment of Medicare Preservation Act of 1995.

"(3) TARGET DATE FOR PUBLICATION OF RULE.—As part of the notice under paragraph (2), and for purposes of this subsection, the 'target date for publication' (referred to in section 564(a)(5) of such title) shall be September 1, 1996.

"(4) ABBREVIATED PERIOD FOR SUBMISSION OF COMMENTS.—In applying section 564(c) of such title under this subsection, '15 days' shall be substituted for '30 days'.

"(B) the nomination of a facilitator under section 566(c) of such title by not later than 10 days after the date of appointment of the committee.

"(6) PRELIMINARY COMMITTEE REPORT.—The negotiated rulemaking committee appointed under paragraph (5) shall report to the Secretary, by not later than June 1, 1996, regarding the committee's progress on achieving a consensus with regard to the rulemaking proceeding and whether such consensus is likely to occur before one month before the target date for publication of the rule. If the committee reports that the committee has failed to make significant progress towards such consensus or is unlikely to reach such consensus by the target date, the Secretary may terminate such process and provide for the publication of a rule under this subsection through such other methods as the Secretary may provide.

"(7) FINAL COMMITTEE REPORT.—If the committee is not terminated under paragraph (6), the rulemaking committee shall submit a report containing a proposed rule by not later than one month before the target publication date.

"(8) INTERIM, FINAL EFFECT.—The Secretary shall publish a rule under this subsection in the Federal Register by not later than the target publication date. Such rule shall be effective and final immediately on an interim basis, but is subject to change and revision after public notice and opportunity for a period (of not less than 60 days) for public comment. In connection with such rule, the Secretary shall specify the process for the timely review and approval of applications of entities to be certified as provider-sponsored organizations pursuant to such rules and consistent with this subsection.

"(d) COORDINATION AMONG FINAL STANDARDS.—In establishing standards (other than on an interim basis) under the previous provisions of this section, the Secretary shall seek to provide for consistency (as appropriate) across the different types of MedicarePlus organizations, in order to promote equitable treatment of different types of organizations and consistent protection for individuals who elect products offered by the different types of MedicarePlus organizations.

"(e) USE OF CURRENT STANDARDS FOR INTERIM STANDARDS.—To the extent practicable and consistent with the requirements of this part, standards established on an interim basis to carry out requirements of this part may be based on currently applicable standards, such as the rules established under section 1876 (as in effect as of the date of the enactment of this section) to carry out analogous provisions of such section or standards established or developed for application in the private health insurance market.

"(f) APPLICATION OF NEW STANDARDS TO ENTITIES WITH A CONTRACT.—In the case of a MedicarePlus organization with a contract in effect under this part at the time standards applicable to the organization under this section are changed, the organization may elect not to have such changes apply to the organization until the end of the current contract year (or, if there is less than 6 months remaining in the contract year, until 1 year after the end of the current contract year).

"(g) RELATION TO STATE LAWS.—The standards established under this section shall supersede any State law or regulation with respect to MedicarePlus products which are offered by MedicarePlus organizations and are issued by organizations to which section 1851(b)(1) applies, to the extent such law or regulation is inconsistent with such standards.

Such program shall provide for certification of compliance of MedicarePlus organizations and products with the applicable requirements of this part not less often than once every 3 years.

"(2) EFFECT OF CERTIFICATION UNDER STATE PROCESS.—A MedicarePlus organization and MedicarePlus product offered by such an organization that is certified under such program is considered to have been certified under this subsection with respect to the offering of the product to individuals residing in the State.

"(3) USER FEES.—The State may impose user fees on organizations seeking certification under this subsection in such amounts as the State deems sufficient to finance the costs of such certification. Nothing in this paragraph shall be construed as restricting a State's authority to impose premium taxes, other taxes, or other levies.

"(4) REVIEW.—The Secretary periodically shall review State programs approved under paragraph (1) to determine if they continue to provide for certification and enforcement described in such paragraph. If the Secretary finds that a State program no longer so provides, before making a final determination, the Secretary shall provide the State an opportunity to adopt such a plan of correction as would permit the State program to meet the requirements of paragraph (1). If the Secretary makes a final determination that the State program, after such an opportunity, fails to meet such requirements, the provisions of subsection (b) shall apply to MedicarePlus organizations and products in the State.

"(5) EFFECT OF NO STATE PROGRAM.—Beginning on the date standards are established under section 1856, in the case of organizations and products in States in which a cer-

"(2) INVOLVEMENT OF SECRETARY OF LABOR.—Such process shall be established and operated in cooperation with the Secretary of Labor with respect to union sponsors and Taft-Hartley sponsors.

"(3) USE OF STATE LICENSING AND PRIVATE ACCREDITATION PROCESSES.—

"(A) IN GENERAL.—The process under this subsection shall, to the maximum extent practicable, provide that MedicarePlus organizations and products that are licensed or certified through a qualified private accreditation process that the Secretary finds applies standards that are no less stringent than the requirements of this part are deemed to meet the corresponding requirements of this part for such an organization or product.

"(B) PERIODIC ACCREDITATION.—The use of an accreditation under subparagraph (A) shall be valid only for such period as the Secretary specifies.

"(4) USER FEES.—The Secretary may impose user fees on entities seeking certification under this subsection in such amounts as the Secretary deems sufficient to finance the costs of such certification.

"(1) IN GENERAL.—The Secretary shall establish a process under which a State may propose to provide for certification of entities as meeting the requirements of this part to be provider-sponsored organizations.

"(2) CONDITIONS FOR APPROVAL.—The Secretary may not approve a State program for certification under paragraph (1) unless the Secretary determines that the certification program applies standards and requirements that are identical to the standards and requirements of this part and the applicable provisions for enforcement of such standards and requirements do not result in a lower level or quality of enforcement than that which is otherwise applicable under this title.

"(d) NOTICE TO ENROLLEES IN CASE OF DECERTIFICATION.—If a MedicarePlus organization or product is decertified under this section, the organization shall notify each enrollee with the organization and product under this part of such decertification.

"(e) QUALIFIED ASSOCIATIONS.—In the case of MedicarePlus products offered by a MedicarePlus organization that is a qualified association (as defined in section 1854(c)(4)(C)) and issued by an organization to which section 1851(b)(1) applies or by a provider-sponsored organization (as defined in section 1854(a)), nothing in this section shall be construed as limiting the authority of States to regulate such products.

"CONTRACTS WITH MEDICAREPLUS ORGANIZATIONS

"SEC. 1858. (a) IN GENERAL.—The Secretary shall not permit the election under section 1805 of a MedicarePlus product offered by a MedicarePlus organization under this part, and no payment shall be made under section 1856 to an organization, unless the Secretary has entered into a contract under this section with an organization with respect to the offering of such product. Such a contract with an organization may cover more than one MedicarePlus product. Such contract shall provide that the organization agrees to comply with the applicable requirements and standards of this part and the terms and conditions of payment as provided for in this part.

"(b) MINIMUM ENROLLMENT REQUIREMENTS.—

"(1) IN GENERAL.—Subject to paragraphs (1) and (2), the Secretary may not enter into a contract under this section with a MedicarePlus organization (other than a union sponsor or Taft-Hartley sponsor) unless the organization has at least 5,000 individuals (or 1,500 individuals in the case of an organization that is a provider-sponsored organization) who are receiving health benefits through the organization, except that the standards under section 1856 may permit the organization to have a lesser number of beneficiaries (but not less than 500 in the case of an organization that is a provider-sponsored organization) if the organization primarily serves individuals residing outside of urbanized areas.

"(2) EXCEPTION FOR HIGH DEDUCTIBLE/MEDISAVE PRODUCT.—Paragraph (1) shall not apply with respect to a contract that relates only to a high deductible/medisave product.

"(2) TERMINATION AUTHORITY.—In accordance with procedures established under subsection (h), the Secretary may at any time terminate any such contract or may impose the intermediate sanctions described in an applicable paragraph of subsection (g) on the MedicarePlus organization if the Secretary determines that the organization—

"(A) has failed substantially to carry out the contract;

"(B) is carrying out the contract in a manner inconsistent with the efficient and effective administration of this part;

"(C) is operating in a manner that is not in the best interests of the individuals covered under the contract; or

"(D) no longer substantially meets the applicable conditions of this part.

"(3) EFFECTIVE DATE OF CONTRACTS.—The effective date of any contract executed pursuant to this section shall be specified in the contract, except that in no case shall a contract under this section which provides for coverage under a high deductible/medisave account be effective before January 1997 with respect to such coverage.

"(4) PREVIOUS TERMINATIONS.—The Secretary may not enter into a contract with a MedicarePlus organization if a previous contract with that organization under this section was terminated at the request of the organization within the preceding five-year period, except in circumstances which warrant special consideration, as determined by the Secretary.

"(5) NO CONTRACTING AUTHORITY.—The authority vested in the Secretary by this part may be performed without regard to such provisions of law or regulations relating to the making, performance, amendment, or modification of contracts of the United States as the Secretary may determine to be inconsistent with the furtherance of the purpose of this title.

"(2) ENROLLEE NOTICE AT TIME OF TERMINATION.—Each contract under this section shall require the organization to provide (and pay for) written notice in advance of the contract's termination, as well as a description of alternatives for obtaining benefits under this title, to each individual enrolled with the organization under this part.

"(3) DISCLOSURE.—

"(A) IN GENERAL.—Each MedicarePlus organization shall, in accordance with regulations of the Secretary, report to the Secretary financial information which shall include the following:

"(i) Such information as the Secretary may require demonstrating that the organization has a fiscally sound operation.

"(ii) A copy of the report, if any, filed with the Health Care Financing Administration containing the information required to be reported under section 1124 by disclosing entities.

"(iii) A description of transactions, as specified by the Secretary, between the organization and a party in interest. Such transactions shall include—

"(I) any sale or exchange, or leasing of any property between the organization and a party in interest;

"(II) any furnishing for consideration of goods, services (including management services), or facilities between the organization and a party in interest, but not including salaries paid to employees for services provided in the normal course of their employment and health services provided to members by hospitals and other providers and by staff, medical group (or groups), individual practice association (or associations), or any combination thereof; and

"(III) any lending of money or other extension of credit between an organization and a party in interest.

The Secretary may require that information reported respecting an organization which controls, is controlled by, or is under common control with, another entity be in the form of a consolidated financial statement for the organization and such entity.

SEC. 15003. DUPLICATION AND COORDINATION OF MEDICARE-RELATED PRODUCTS.

(a) TREATMENT OF CERTAIN HEALTH INSURANCE POLICIES AS NONDUPPLICATIVE.—

(1) IN GENERAL.—Effective as if included in the enactment of section 4354 of the Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1990, section 1882(d)(3)(A) (42 U.S.C. 1395ss(d)(3)(A)) is amended—

(A) by amending clause (i) to read as follows:

"(i) It is unlawful for a person to sell or issue to an individual entitled to benefits under part A or enrolled under part B of this title or electing a MedicarePlus product under section 1805—

"(I) a health insurance policy (other than a medicare supplemental policy) with knowledge that the policy duplicates health benefits to which the individual is otherwise entitled under this title or title XIX,

"(II) in the case of an individual not electing a MedicarePlus product, a medicare supplemental policy with knowledge that the individual is entitled to benefits under another medicare supplemental policy, or

"(III) in the case of an individual electing a MedicarePlus product, a medicare supplemental policy with knowledge that the policy duplicates health benefits to which the individual is otherwise entitled under this title or under another medicare supplemental policy."; and services to the extent paid for under this title, and a health insurance policy providing for benefits which are payable to or on behalf of an individual without regard to other health benefit coverage of such individual is not considered to 'duplicate' any health benefits under this title.

"(v) For purposes of this subparagraph, a health insurance policy (or a rider to an insurance contract which is not a health insurance policy), including a policy (such as a long-term care insurance contract described in section 7702B(b) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as added by the Contract with America Tax Relief Act of 1995 (H.R. 1215)) providing benefits for long-term care, nursing home care, home health care, or community-based care, that coordinates against or excludes items and services available or paid for under this title and (for policies sold or issued after January 1, 1996) that discloses such coordination or exclusion in the policy's outline of coverage, is not considered to 'duplicate' health benefits under this title. For purposes of this clause, the terms 'coordinates' and 'coordination' mean, with respect to a policy in relation to health benefits under this title, that the policy under its terms is secondary to, or excludes from payment, items and services to the extent available or paid for under this title.

"(vi) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, no criminal or civil penalty may be imposed at any time under this subparagraph and no legal action may be brought or continued at any time in any Federal or State court if the penalty or action is based on an act or omission that occurred after November 5, 1991, and before the date of the enactment of this clause, and relates to the sale, issuance, or renewal of any health insurance policy during such period, if such policy meets the requirements of clause (iv) or (v).

"(vii) A State may not impose, with respect to the sale or issuance of a policy (or rider) that meets the requirements of this title pursuant to clause (iv) or (v) to an individual entitled to benefits under part A or enrolled under part B or enrolled under a MedicarePlus product under part C, any requirement based on the premise that such a policy or rider duplicates health benefits to which the individual is otherwise entitled under this title."

In preparing such report, the Secretary shall seek the advice of the National Association of Insurance Commissioners and shall take into account the standards established under section 1807 of the Social Security Act for the electronic coordination of benefits.

(1) LIMITATION ON NONECONOMIC DAMAGES.—The total amount of noneconomic damages that may be awarded to a claimant for losses resulting from the injury which is the subject of a health care liability action may not exceed $250,000, regardless of the number of parties against whom the action is brought or the number of actions brought with respect to the injury.

(2) JOINT AND SEVERAL LIABILITY.—In any health care liability action brought in State or Federal court, a defendant shall be liable only for the amount of noneconomic damages attributable to such defendant in direct proportion to such defendant's share of fault or responsibility for the claimant's actual damages, as determined by the trier of fact. (4) BIFURCATION.—At the request of any party, the trier of fact shall consider in a separate proceeding whether punitive damages are to be awarded and the amount of such award. If a separate proceeding is requested, evidence relevant only to the claim of punitive damages, as determined by applicable State law, shall be inadmissible in any proceeding to determine whether actual damages are to be awarded.

(5) DRUGS AND DEVICES.—

(A) IN GENERAL.—(i) Punitive damages shall not be awarded against a manufacturer or product seller of a drug or medical device which caused the claimant's harm where—

(C) PERIODIC PAYMENTS FOR FUTURE LOSSES.—

(1) GENERAL RULE.—In any health care liability action in which the damages awarded for future economic and noneconomic loss exceeds $50,000, a person shall not be required to pay such damages in a single, lump-sum payment, but shall be permitted to make such payments periodically based on when the damages are found likely to occur, as such payments are determined by the court.

(2) FINALITY OF JUDGMENT.—The judgment of the court awarding periodic payments under this subsection may not, in the absence of fraud, be reopened at any time to contest, amend, or modify the schedule or amount of the payments.

“(I) is a hospital that may otherwise receive payments under this subsection, “(II) is not a public hospital, and “(III) incurs capital-related tax costs for the fiscal year.

“(iii)(I) In the case of a hospital that first incurs capital-related tax costs in a fiscal year after fiscal year 1992 because of a change from nonproprietary to proprietary status or because the hospital commenced operation after such fiscal year, the first fiscal year for which the hospital shall be eligible for such adjustment is the second full fiscal year following the fiscal year in which the hospital first incurs such costs.

“(II) In the case of a hospital that first incurs capital-related tax costs in a fiscal year after fiscal year 1992 because of a change in State or local tax laws, the first fiscal year for which the hospital shall be eligible for such adjustment is the fourth full fiscal year following the fiscal year in which the hospital first incurs such costs.

“(vi) The system shall provide that the Federal capital rate for any fiscal year after September 30, 1995, shall be reduced by a percentage sufficient to ensure that the adjustments required to be paid under clause (i) for a fiscal year neither increase nor decrease the total amount that would have been paid under this system but for the payment of such adjustments for such fiscal year.”.

"(2) The term 'rural emergency access care hospital services' means the following services provided by a rural emergency access care hospital and furnished to an individual over a continuous period not to exceed 24 hours (except that such services may be furnished over a longer period in the case of an individual who is unable to leave the hospital because of inclement weather):

"(1) IN GENERAL.—Subject to subsection (c), a skilled nursing facility shall receive interim payments under this title for covered non-routine services furnished to an individual during a cost reporting period beginning during a fiscal year (after fiscal year 1996) in an amount equal to the reasonable cost of providing such services in accordance with section 1861(v). The Secretary may adjust such payments if the Secretary determines (on the basis of such estimated information as the Secretary considers appropriate) that payments to the facility under this paragraph for a cost reporting period would substantially exceed the cost reporting period limit determined under subsection (c)(1)(B).

"(2) RESPONSIBILITY OF SKILLED NURSING FACILITY TO MANAGE BILLINGS.—

"(A) CLARIFICATION RELATING TO PART A BILLING.—In the case of a covered non-routine service furnished to an individual who (at the time the service is furnished) is a resident of a skilled nursing facility who is entitled to coverage under section 1812(a)(2) for such service, the skilled nursing facility shall submit a claim for payment under this title for such service under part A (without regard to whether or not the item or service was furnished by the facility, by others under arrangement with them made by the facility, under any other contracting or consulting arrangement, or otherwise).

"(C) MAINTAINING RECORDS ON SERVICES FURNISHED TO RESIDENTS.—Each skilled nursing facility receiving payments for extended care services under this title shall document on the facility's cost report all covered non-routine services furnished to all residents of the facility to whom the facility provided extended care services for which payment was made under part A during a fiscal year (beginning with fiscal year 1996) (without regard to whether or not the services were furnished by the facility, by others under arrangement with them made by the facility, under any other contracting or consulting arrangement, or otherwise).

"(1) LIMIT BASED ON PER STAY LIMIT AND NUMBER OF STAYS.—

"(A) IN GENERAL.—If a skilled nursing facility has received aggregate payments under subsection (b) for covered non-routine services during a cost reporting period beginning during a fiscal year in excess of an amount equal to the cost reporting period limit determined under subparagraph (B), the Secretary shall reduce the payments made to the facility with respect to such services for cost reporting periods beginning during the following fiscal year in an amount equal to such excess. The Secretary shall reduce payments under this subparagraph at such times and in such manner during a fiscal year as the Secretary finds necessary to meet the requirement of this subparagraph.

“(B) COST REPORTING PERIOD LIMIT.—The cost reporting period limit determined under this subparagraph is an amount equal to the product of—

“(i) the per stay limit applicable to the facility under subsection (d) for the period; and

“(ii) the number of stays beginning during the period for which payment was made to the facility for such services.

“(C) PROSPECTIVE REDUCTION IN PAYMENTS.—In addition to the process for reducing payments described in subparagraph (A), the Secretary may reduce payments made to a facility under this section during a cost reporting period if the Secretary determines (on the basis of such estimated information as the Secretary considers appropriate) that payments to the facility under this section for the period will substantially exceed the cost reporting period limit for the period determined under this paragraph.

“(2) INCENTIVE PAYMENTS.—

“(A) IN GENERAL.—If a skilled nursing facility has received aggregate payments under subsection (b) for covered non-routine services during a cost reporting period beginning during a fiscal year in an amount that is less than the amount determined under paragraph (1)(B), the Secretary shall pay the skilled nursing facility in the following fiscal year an incentive payment equal to 50 percent of the difference between such amounts, except that the incentive payment may not exceed 5 percent of the aggregate payments made to the facility under subsection (b) for the previous fiscal year (without regard to subparagraph (B)).

“(B) INSTALLMENT INCENTIVE PAYMENTS.—The Secretary may make installment payments during a fiscal year to a skilled nursing facility based on the estimated incentive payment that the facility would be eligible to receive with respect to such fiscal year.

“(d) DETERMINATION OF FACILITY PER STAY LIMIT.—

“(1) LIMIT FOR FISCAL YEAR 1997.—

“(A) IN GENERAL.—Except as provided in subparagraph (B), the Secretary shall establish separate per stay limits for hospital-based and freestanding skilled nursing facilities for the 12-month cost reporting period beginning during fiscal year 1997 that are equal to the sum of—

“(i) 50 percent of the facility-specific stay amount for the facility (as determined under subsection (e)) for the last 12-month cost reporting period ending on or before September 30, 1994, increased (in a compounded manner) by the SNF market basket percentage increase for fiscal years 1995 through 1997; and

“(ii) 50 percent of the average of all facility-specific stay amounts for all hospital-based facilities or all freestanding facilities (whichever is applicable) during the cost reporting period described in clause (i), increased (in a compounded manner) by the SNF market basket percentage increase for fiscal years 1995 through 1997.

“(B) FACILITIES NOT HAVING 1994 COST REPORTING PERIOD.—In the case of a skilled nursing facility for which payments were not made under this title for covered non-routine services for the last 12-month cost reporting period ending on or before September 30, 1994, the per stay limit for the 12-month cost reporting period beginning during fiscal year 1997 shall be twice the amount determined under subparagraph (A)(ii).

“(2) LIMIT FOR SUBSEQUENT FISCAL YEARS.—The per stay limit for a skilled nursing facility for a 12-month cost reporting period beginning during a fiscal year after fiscal year

1997 is equal to the per stay limit established under this subsection for the 12-month cost reporting period beginning during the previous fiscal year, increased by the SNF market basket percentage increase for such subsequent fiscal year minus 2 percentage points.

“(3) REBASING OF AMOUNTS.—

“(A) IN GENERAL.—The Secretary shall provide for an update to the facility-specific amounts used to determine the per stay limits under this subsection for cost reporting periods beginning on or after October 1, 1999, and every 2 years thereafter.

“(B) TREATMENT OF FACILITIES NOT HAVING REBASED COST REPORTING PERIODS.—Paragraph (1)(B) shall apply with respect to a skilled nursing facility for which payments were not made under this title for covered non-routine services for the 12-month cost reporting period used by the Secretary to update facility-specific amounts under subparagraph (A) in the same manner as such paragraph applies with respect to a facility for which payments were not made under this title for covered non-routine services for the last 12-month cost reporting period ending on or before September 30, 1994.

“(e) DETERMINATION OF FACILITY-SPECIFIC STAY AMOUNTS.—The ‘facility-specific stay amount’ for a skilled nursing facility for a cost reporting period is the sum of—

“(1) the average amount of payments made to the facility under part A during the period which are attributable to covered non-routine services furnished during a stay; and

“(2) the Secretary’s best estimate of the average amount of payments made under part B during the period for covered non-routine services furnished to all residents of the facility to whom the facility provided extended care services for which payment was made under part A during the period (without regard to whether or not the services were furnished by the facility, by others under arrangement with them made by the facility, under any other contracting or consulting arrangement, or otherwise), as estimated by the Secretary.

“(f) INTENSIVE NURSING OR THERAPY NEEDS.—

“(1) IN GENERAL.—In applying subsection (b) to covered non-routine services furnished during a stay beginning during a cost reporting period beginning during a fiscal year to a resident of a skilled nursing facility who requires intensive nursing or therapy services, the per stay limit determined for the fiscal year under the methodology for such resident shall be the per stay limit developed under paragraph (2) instead of the per stay limit determined under subsection (d)(1)(A).

“(2) PER STAY LIMIT FOR INTENSIVE NEED RESIDENTS.—Not later than June 30, 1996, the Secretary, after consultation with the Medicare Payment Review Commission and skilled nursing facility experts, shall develop and publish a methodology for determining on an annual basis a per stay limit for residents of a skilled nursing facility who require intensive nursing or therapy services.

“(3) BUDGET NEUTRALITY.—The Secretary shall adjust payments under subsection (b) in a manner that ensures that total payments for covered non-routine services under this section are not greater or less than total payments for such services would have been but for the application of paragraph (1).

“(g) SPECIAL TREATMENT FOR MEDICARE LOW VOLUME SKILLED NURSING FACILITIES.—This section shall not apply with respect to a skilled nursing facility for which payment is made for routine service costs during a cost reporting period on the basis of prospective payments under section 1888(d).

“(h) EXCEPTIONS AND ADJUSTMENTS TO LIMITS.—

“(1) IN GENERAL.—The Secretary may make exceptions and adjustments to the cost reporting limits applicable to a skilled nursing facility under subsection (c)(1)(B) for a cost reporting period, except that the total amount of any additional payments made under this section for covered non-routine services during the cost reporting period as a result of such exceptions and adjustments may not exceed 5 percent of the aggregate payments made to all skilled nursing facilities for covered non-routine services during the cost reporting period (determined without regard to this paragraph).

“(2) BUDGET NEUTRALITY.—The Secretary shall adjust payments under subsection (b) in a manner that ensures that total payments for covered non-routine services under this section are not greater or less than total payments for such services would have been but for the application of paragraph (1).

“(i) SPECIAL RULE FOR X-RAY SERVICES.—Before furnishing a covered non-routine service consisting of an X-ray service for which payment may be made under part A or part B to a resident, a skilled nursing facility shall consider whether furnishing the service through a provider of portable X-ray service services would be appropriate, taking into account the cost effectiveness of the service and the convenience to the resident.”.

(a) IN GENERAL.—Section 1839 (42 U.S.C. 1395r) is amended by adding at the end the following:

"(h)(1) Notwithstanding the previous subsections of this section, in the case of an individual whose modified adjusted gross income for a taxable year ending with or within a calendar year (as initially determined by the Secretary in accordance with paragraph (3)) exceeds the threshold amount described in paragraph (5)(B), the Secretary shall increase the amount of the monthly premium for months in the calendar year by an amount equal to the difference between—

“(A) 200 percent of the monthly actuarial rate for enrollees age 65 and over as determined under subsection (a)(1) for that calendar year; and

“(B) the total of the monthly premiums paid by the individual under this section (determined without regard to subsection (b)) during such calendar year.

“(2) In the case of an individual described in paragraph (1) whose modified adjusted gross income exceeds the threshold amount by less than $25,000, the amount of the increase in the monthly premium applicable under paragraph (1) shall be an amount which bears the same ratio to the amount of the increase described in paragraph (1) (determined without regard to this paragraph) as such excess bears to $25,000. In the case of a joint return filed under section 6013 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 by spouses both of whom are enrolled under this part, the previous sentence shall be applied by substituting ‘$50,000’ for ‘$25,000’. The preceding provisions of this paragraph shall not apply to any individual whose threshold amount is zero.

“(3) The Secretary shall make an initial determination of the amount of an individual's modified adjusted gross income for a taxable year ending with or within a calendar year for purposes of this subsection as follows:

“(A) Not later than October 1 of the year preceding the year, the Secretary shall provide notice to each individual whom the Secretary finds (on the basis of the individual's actual modified adjusted gross income for the most recent taxable year for which such information is available or other information provided to the Secretary by the Secretary of the Treasury) will be subject to an increase under this subsection that the individual will be subject to such an increase, and shall include in such notice the Secretary's estimate of the individual's modified adjusted gross income for the year.

“(B) If, during the 30-day period beginning on the date notice is provided to an individual under subparagraph (A), the individual provides the Secretary with information on the individual's anticipated modified adjusted gross income for the year, the amount initially determined by the Secretary under this paragraph with respect to the individual shall be based on the information provided by the individual.

“(C) If an individual does not provide the Secretary with information under subparagraph (B), the amount initially determined by the Secretary under this paragraph with respect to the individual shall be the amount included in the notice provided to the individual under subparagraph (A).

“(4) (A) If the Secretary determines (on the basis of final information provided by the Secretary of the Treasury) that the amount of an individual's actual modified adjusted gross income for a taxable year ending with or within a calendar year is less than or greater than the amount initially determined by the Secretary under paragraph (3), the Secretary shall increase or decrease the amount of the individual's monthly premium under this section (as the case may be) for months during the following calendar year by an amount equal to $\frac{1}{2}$ of the difference between—

“(i) the total amount of all monthly premiums paid by the individual under this section during the previous calendar year; and

“(ii) the total amount of all such premiums which would have been paid by the individual during the previous calendar year if the amount of the individual's modified adjusted gross income initially determined under paragraph (3) were equal to the actual amount of the individual's modified adjusted gross income determined under this paragraph.

“(B) In the case of an individual who is not enrolled under this part for any calendar year for which the individual's monthly premium under this section for months during the year would be increased pursuant to subparagraph (A) if the individual were enrolled under this part for the year, the Secretary may take such steps as the Secretary considers appropriate to recover from the individual the total amount by which the individual's monthly premium for months during the year would have been increased under subparagraph (A) if the individual were enrolled under this part for the year.

“(C) In the case of a deceased individual for whom the amount of the monthly premium under this section for months in a year would have been decreased pursuant to subparagraph (A) if the individual were not deceased, the Secretary shall make a payment to the individual's surviving spouse (or, in the case of an individual who does not have a surviving spouse, to the individual's estate) in an amount equal to the difference between—

“(i) the total amount by which the individual's premium would have been decreased for all months during the year pursuant to subparagraph (A); and “(ii) the amount (if any) by which the individual's premium was decreased for months during the year pursuant to subparagraph (A).

“(5) In this subsection, the following definitions apply:

“(A) The term ‘modified adjusted gross income’ means adjusted gross income (as defined in section 62 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986)—

“(i) determined without regard to sections 135, 911, 931, and 933 of such Code, and “(ii) increased by the amount of interest received or accrued by the taxpayer during the taxable year which is exempt from tax under such Code.

“(B) The term ‘threshold amount’ means—

“(ii) $125,000, in the case of a joint return (as defined in section 7701(a)(38) of such Code), and

“(iii) zero in the case of a taxpayer who—

“(I) is married at the close of the taxable year but does not file a joint return (as so defined) for such year, and

“(II) does not live apart from his spouse at all times during the taxable year.”.

(b) CONFORMING AMENDMENT.—Section 1839(f) (42 U.S.C. 1395r(f)) is amended by striking “if an individual” and inserting the following: “if an individual (other than an individual subject to an increase in the monthly premium under this section pursuant to subsection (h))”.

“(vi) the amounts excluded from such taxpayer's gross income by sections 931 and 933 to the extent such information is available.

“(B) RESTRICTION ON USE OF DISCLOSED INFORMATION.—Return information disclosed under subparagraph (A) may be used by officers and employees of the Health Care Financing Administration only for the purposes of, and to the extent necessary in, establishing the appropriate monthly premium under section 1839 of the Social Security Act.”.

(a) IN GENERAL.—Not later than 1 year after the date of the enactment of this Act, the Secretary of Health and Human Services (in accordance with the process described in subsection (b)) shall adopt uniform coverage, administration, and payment policies for clinical diagnostic laboratory tests under part B of the medicare program.

(b) PROCESS FOR ADOPTION OF POLICIES.—The Secretary shall adopt uniform policies under subsection (a) in accordance with the following process:

(1) The Secretary shall select from carriers with whom the Secretary has a contract under part B during 1995 15 medical directors, who will meet and develop recommendations for such uniform policies. The medical directors selected shall represent various geographic areas and have a varied range of experience in relevant medical fields, including pathology and clinical laboratory practice.

(2) The medical directors selected under paragraph (1) shall consult with independent experts in each major discipline of clinical laboratory medicine, including clinical laboratory personnel, bioanalysts, pathologists, and practicing physicians. The medical directors shall also solicit comments from other individuals and groups who wish to participate, including consumers and other affected parties. This process shall be conducted as a negotiated rulemaking under title 5, United States Code.

(3) Under the negotiated rulemaking, the recommendations for uniform policies shall be designed to simplify and reduce unnecessary administrative burdens in connection with the following:

(A) Beneficiary information required to be submitted with each claim.

(B) Physicians' obligations regarding documentation requirements and recordkeeping.

(C) Procedures for filing claims and for providing remittances by electronic media.

(D) The performance of post-payment review of test claims.

(E) The prohibition of the documentation of medical necessity except when determined to be appropriate after identification of aberrant utilization pattern through focused medical review.

(F) Beneficiary responsibility for payment.

(4) During the pendency of the adoption by the Secretary of the uniform policies, fiscal intermediaries and carriers under the medicare program may not implement any new requirement relating to the submission of a claim for clinical diagnostic laboratory tests retroactive to January 1, 1995, and carriers may not initiate any new coverage, administrative, or payment policy unless the policy promotes the goal of administrative simplification of requirements imposed on clinical laboratories in accordance with the Secretary's promulgation of the negotiated rule-making.

(5) Not later than 6 months after the date of the enactment of this Act, the medical directors shall submit their recommendations to the Secretary, and the Secretary shall publish the recommendations and solicit public comment using negotiated rule-making in accordance with title 5, United States Code. The Secretary shall publish final uniform policies for coverage, administration, and payment of claims for clinical diagnostic laboratory tests, effective after the expiration of the 180-day period which begins on the date of publication.

(6) After the publication of the final uniform policies, the Secretary shall implement identical uniform documentation and processing policies for all clinical diagnostic laboratory tests paid under the medicare program through fiscal intermediaries or carriers.

(c) OPTIONAL SELECTION OF SINGLE CARRIER.—Effective for claims submitted after the expiration of the 90-day period which begins on the date of the enactment of this Act, an independent laboratory may select a single carrier for the processing of all of its claims for payment under part B of the medicare program, without regard to the location where the laboratory or the patient or provider involved resides or conducts business. Such election of a single carrier shall be made by the clinical laboratory and an agreement made between the carrier and the laboratory shall be forwarded to the Secretary of Health and Human Services. Nothing in this subsection shall be construed to require a laboratory to select a single carrier under this subsection.

“(B) for each subsequent fiscal year, is an amount equal to the national per visit payment rate in effect for the preceding fiscal year, increased by the home health market basket percentage increase for such subsequent fiscal year minus 2 percentage points.

“(3) REBASING OF RATES.—The Secretary shall provide for an update to the national per visit payment rates under this subsection for cost reporting periods beginning not later than the first day of the fifth fiscal year which begins after fiscal year 1997, and not later than every 5 years thereafter, to reflect the most recent available data.

“(c) PER EPISODE LIMIT.—

“(1) AGGREGATE LIMIT.—

“(A) IN GENERAL.—Except as provided in paragraph (2), a home health agency may not receive aggregate per visit payments under subsection (a) for a fiscal year in excess of an amount equal to the sum of the following products determined for each case-mix category for which the agency receives payments:

“(ii) the per episode limit determined for such case-mix category for such fiscal year.

“(B) ESTABLISHMENT OF PER EPISODE LIMITS.—

“(i) IN GENERAL.—The per episode limit for a fiscal year for any case-mix category for the area in which a home health agency is located is equal to—

“(I) the mean number of visits for each type of home health service described in subsection (a)(2) furnished during an episode of such case-mix category in such area during fiscal year 1994, adjusted by the case-mix adjustment factor determined in clause (ii) for the fiscal year involved; multiplied by

“(II) the per visit payment rate established under subsection (b) for such type of home health service for the fiscal year for which the determination is being made.

“(ii) CASE MIX ADJUSTMENT FACTOR.—For purposes of clause (i), the case-mix adjustment factor for a year is the factor determined by the Secretary to assure that aggregate payments for home health services under this section during the year will not exceed the payment for such services during the previous year as a result of changes in the number and type of home health visits within case-mix categories over the previous year.

“(iii) REBASING OF PER EPISODE AMOUNTS.—Beginning with fiscal year 1999 and every 2 years thereafter, the Secretary shall revise the mean number of home health visits determined under clause (i)(I) for each type of home health service visit described in subsection (a)(2) furnished during an episode in a case-mix category to reflect the most recently available data on the number of visits.

“(iv) DETERMINATION OF APPLICABLE AREA.—For purposes of determining per episode limits under this subparagraph, the area in which a home health agency is considered to be located shall be such area as the Secretary finds appropriate for purposes of this subparagraph.

“(C) CASE-MIX CATEGORY.—For purposes of this paragraph, the term ‘case-mix category’ means each of the 18 case-mix categories established under the Phase II Home Health Agency Prospective Payment Demonstration Project conducted by the Health Care Financing Administration. begin during a cost reporting period and end in a subsequent cost reporting period.

“(E) EXEMPTIONS AND EXCEPTIONS.—The Secretary may provide for exemptions and exceptions to the limits established under this paragraph for a fiscal year as the Secretary deems appropriate, to the extent such exemptions and exceptions do not result in greater payments under this section than the exemptions and exceptions provided under section 1861(v)(1)(L)(ii) in fiscal year 1994, increased by the home health market basket percentage increase for the fiscal year involved (as defined in subsection (b)(4)).

“(A) OVERPAYMENTS TO HOME HEALTH AGENCIES.—Subject to subparagraph (B), if a home health agency has received aggregate per visit payments under subsection (a) for a fiscal year in excess of the amount determined under paragraph (1) with respect to such home health agency for such fiscal year, the Secretary shall reduce payments under this section to the home health agency in the following fiscal year in such manner as the Secretary considers appropriate (including on an installment basis) to recapture the amount of such excess.

“(B) EXCEPTION FOR HOME HEALTH SERVICES FURNISHED OVER A PERIOD GREATER THAN 165 DAYS.—

“(i) IN GENERAL.—For purposes of subparagraph (A), the amount of aggregate per visit payments determined under subsection (a) shall not include payments for home health visits furnished to an individual on or after a continuous period of more than 165 days after an individual begins an episode described in subsection (c)(1)(D) (if such period is not interrupted by the beginning of a new episode).

“(ii) REQUIREMENT OF CERTIFICATION.—Clause (i) shall not apply if the agency has not obtained a physician’s certification with respect to the individual requiring such visits that includes a statement that the individual requires such continued visits, the reason for the need for such visits, and a description of such services furnished during such visits.

“(C) SHARE OF SAVINGS.—

“(i) BONUS PAYMENTS.—If a home health agency has received aggregate per visit payments under subsection (a) for a fiscal year in an amount less than the amount determined under paragraph (1) with respect to such home health agency for such fiscal year, the Secretary shall pay such home health agency a bonus payment equal to 50 percent of the difference between such amounts in the following fiscal year, except that the bonus payment may not exceed 5 percent of the aggregate per visit payments made to the agency for the year.

“(ii) INSTALLMENT BONUS PAYMENTS.—The Secretary may make installment payments during a fiscal year to a home health agency based on the estimated bonus payment that the agency would be eligible to receive with respect to such fiscal year.

“(d) MEDICAL REVIEW PROCESS.—The Secretary shall implement a medical review process (with a particular emphasis on fiscal years 1997 and 1998) for the system of payments described in this section that shall provide an assessment of the pattern of care furnished to individuals receiving home health services for which payments are made under this section to ensure that such individuals receive appropriate home health services. Such review process shall focus on low-cost cases described in subsection (e)(3) and cases described in subsection (c)(2)(B) and shall require recertification by intermediaries at 30, 60, 90, 120, and 165 days into an episode described in subsection (c)(1)(D).

“(e) ADJUSTMENT OF PAYMENTS TO AVOID CIRCUMVENTION OF LIMITS.—

“(1) IN GENERAL.—The Secretary shall provide for appropriate adjustments to payments to home health agencies under this section to ensure that agencies do not circumvent the purpose of this section by—

“(B) altering corporate structure or name to avoid being subject to this section or for the purpose of increasing payments under this title; or

“(C) undertaking other actions considered unnecessary for effective patient care and intended to achieve maximum payments under this title.

“(2) TRACKING OF PATIENTS THAT SWITCH HOME HEALTH AGENCIES DURING EPISODE.—

“(A) DEVELOPMENT OF SYSTEM.—The Secretary shall develop a system that tracks home health patients that receive home health services described in subsection (a)(2) from more than 1 home health agency during an episode described in subsection (c)(1)(D).

“(B) ADJUSTMENT OF PAYMENTS.—The Secretary shall adjust payments under this section to each home health agency that furnishes an individual with a type of home health service described in subsection (a)(2) to ensure that aggregate payments on behalf of such individual during such episode do not exceed the amount that would be paid under this section if the individual received such services from a single home health agency.

“(3) LOW-COST CASES.—The Secretary shall develop a system designed to adjust payments to a home health agency for a fiscal year to eliminate any increase in growth of the percentage of low-cost episodes for which home health services are furnished by the agency over such percentage determined for the agency for the 12-month cost reporting period ending on June 30, 1994. The Secretary shall define a low-cost episode in a manner that provides that a home health agency has an incentive to be cost efficient in delivering home health services and that the volume of such services does not increase as a result of factors other than patient needs.

“(f) REPORT BY MEDICARE PAYMENT REVIEW COMMISSION.—During the first 3 years in which payments are made under this section, the Medicare Payment Review Commission shall annually submit a report to Congress on the effectiveness of the payment methodology established under this section that shall include recommendations regarding the following:

“(1) Case-mix and volume increases.

“(2) Quality monitoring of home health agency practices.

“(3) Whether a capitated payment for home care patients receiving care during a continuous period exceeding 165 days is warranted.

“(4) Whether public providers of service are adequately reimbursed.

“(5) The adequacy of the exemptions and exceptions to the limits provided under subsection (c)(1)(E).

“(6) The appropriateness of the methods provided under this section to adjust the per episode limits and annual payment updates to reflect changes in the mix of services, number of visits, and assignment to case categories to reflect changing patterns of home health care.

“(7) The geographic areas used to determine the per episode limits.

“(g) NO EFFECT ON NON-MEDICARE SERVICES.—Nothing in this section may be construed to affect the provision of or payment for home health services for which payment is not made under this title.”.

(b) PAYMENT FOR PROSTHETICS AND ORTHOTICS UNDER PART A.—Section 1814(k) (42 U.S.C. 1395f(k)) is amended—

"(iv) For services furnished by home health agencies for cost reporting periods beginning on or after October 1, 1996, the Secretary shall provide for an interim system of limits. Payment shall be the lower of—

"(I) costs determined under the preceding provisions of this subparagraph, or

"(II) an agency-specific per beneficiary annual limit calculated from the agency's 12-month cost reporting period ending on or after January 1, 1994 and on or before December 31, 1994 based on reasonable costs (including non-routine medical supplies), updated by the home health market basket index. The per beneficiary limitation shall be multiplied by the agency's unduplicated census count of Medicare patients for the year subject to the limitation. The limitation shall represent total Medicare reasonable costs divided by the unduplicated census count of Medicare patients.

"(v) For services furnished by home health agencies for cost reporting periods beginning on or after October 1, 1996, the following rules shall apply:

"(I) For new providers and those providers without a 12-month cost reporting period ending in calendar year 1994, the per beneficiary limit shall be equal to the mean of these limits (or the Secretary's best estimates thereof) applied to home health agencies as determined by the Secretary. Home health agencies that have altered their corporate structure or name may not be considered new providers for payment purposes.

"(II) For beneficiaries who use services furnished by more than one home health agency, the per beneficiary limitation shall be pro-rated among agencies.

"(vi) Home health agencies whose cost or utilization experience is below 125 percent of the mean national or census region aggregate per beneficiary cost or utilization experience for 1994, or best estimates thereof, and whose year-end reasonable costs are below the agency-specific per beneficiary limit, shall receive payment equal to 50 percent of the difference between the agency's reasonable costs and its limit for fiscal years 1996, 1997, 1998, and 1999. Such payments may not exceed 5 percent of an agency's aggregate Medicare reasonable cost in a year.

"(vii) Effective January 1, 1997, or as soon as feasible, the Secretary shall modify the agency specific per beneficiary annual limit described in clause (iv) to provide for regional or national variations in utilization. For purposes of determining payment under clause (iv), the limit shall be calculated through a blend of 75 percent of the agency-specific cost or utilization experience in 1994 with 25 percent of the national or census region cost or utilization experience in 1994, or the Secretary's best estimates thereof."

(d) USE OF INTERIM FINAL REGULATIONS.—The Secretary shall implement the payment limits described in section 1861(v)(1)(L)(iv) of the Social Security Act by publishing in the Federal Register a notice of interim final payment limits by August 1, 1996 and allowing for a period of public comments thereon. Payments subject to these limits will be effective for cost reporting periods beginning on or after October 1, 1996, without the necessity for consideration of comments received, but the Secretary shall, by Federal Register notice, affirm or modify the limits after considering those comments.

(e) STUDIES.—The Secretary shall expand research on a prospective payment system for home health agencies that shall tie prospective payments to an episode of care, including an intensive effort to develop a reliable case mix adjuster that explains a significant amount of the variances in costs. The Secretary shall develop such a system for implementation in fiscal year 2000.

(f) PAYMENTS DETERMINED ON PROSPECTIVE BASIS.—Title XVIII is amended by adding at the end the following new section:

"(b) Such a system shall include the following:

"(1) Per episode rates under the system shall be 15 percent less than those that would otherwise occur under fiscal year 2000 Medicare expenditures for home health services.

"(2) All services covered and paid on a reasonable cost basis under the Medicare home health benefit as of the date of the enactment of the Medicare Enhancement Act of 1995, including medical supplies, shall be subject to the per episode amount. In defining an episode of care, the Secretary shall consider an appropriate length of time for an episode the use of services and the number of visits provided within an episode, potential changes in the mix of services provided within an episode and their cost, and a general system design that will provide for continued access to quality services. The per episode amount shall be based on the most current audited cost report data available to the Secretary.

"(c) The Secretary shall employ an appropriate case mix adjuster that explains a significant amount of the variation in cost.

"(d) The episode payment amount shall be adjusted annually by the home health market basket index. The labor portion of the episode amount shall be adjusted for geographic differences in labor-related costs based on the most current hospital wage index.

"(e) The Secretary may designate a payment provision for outliers, recognizing the need to adjust payments due to unusual variations in the type or amount of medically necessary care.

"(f) A home health agency shall be responsible for coordinating all care for a beneficiary. If a beneficiary elects to transfer to, or receive services from, another home health agency within an episode period, the episode payment shall be pro-rated between home health agencies."

PROCEEDINGS AND DEBATES OF THE 104th CONGRESS, FIRST SESSION

Vol. 141

WASHINGTON, TUESDAY, OCTOBER 17, 1995

No. 160

Senate

(Legislative day of Tuesday, October 10, 1995)

The Senate met at 9:45 a.m., on the expiration of the recess, and was called to order by the President pro tempore [Mr. THURMOND].

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Dr. Lloyd John Ogilvie, offered the following prayer:

O God, our help in ages past, free us to be open to Your gift of hope for years to come. Particularly, we pray for a lively hopefulness for today. Grant that we may not allow our experience of You in the past to make us think You are predictable or limited in what You can do today. Help us not to become so familiar with Your customary, daily blessings that we lose a sense of expectancy for Your special interventions in the complexities and challenges of this day. Today we will expect great things from You and we will attempt great things for You. In our worries and cares, give us the joy of knowing that You are with us. In our Lord's burden-banishing name. Amen.

RECOGNITION OF THE ACTING MAJORITY LEADER

The PRESIDENT pro tempore. The able Senator from Mississippi is recognized.

At 2:15, the Senate will resume consideration of H.R. 927, the Cuba sanctions bill, with a cloture vote on the substitute amendment to occur today at a time to be determined by the majority leader after consultation with the minority leader.

In accordance with rule XXII, Senators have until 12:30 today to file second-degree amendments to the substitute amendment to H.R. 927. Also, for the information of all Members, a third cloture motion was filed on Friday. Therefore, if cloture is not invoked today, another cloture vote will occur on Wednesday. There will be no votes before the 5 o'clock hour today.

MORNING BUSINESS

Mr. LOTT. Mr. President, I believe we have time reserved now for morning business, and I would like to proceed now under morning business.

The PRESIDENT pro tempore. The Senator is correct. There will now be a period for morning business.

The Senator is recognized for 30 minutes.

A TIME FOR HISTORIC DECISIONS

Mr. LOTT. Mr. President, we have a long, hard few weeks ahead of us, probably the most crucial 6 or 7 weeks or so that we have had in many years—at least 12 or 15 years, in my own experience. Between now and Thanksgiving, every Member of this Congress will make decisions that can only be described as historic. The votes we cast in the weeks ahead on Medicare, Medicaid, welfare, and the whole legislative package known as the reconciliation bill, will determine the course of the American Republic for at least the next generation.

When I go home to Mississippi and I use this word "reconciliation," constituents ask what that means. I explain that "reconciliation" is just a fancy word for saying this is the time when we keep our word, when we actually do what we said we were going to do in earlier legislation we passed this year—in the budget resolution, for instance.

So, this is an historic time. That is no exaggeration. This year's budget showdown is quite different from the budgetary experiences of past years. In the past, we have implemented budgets with so-called spending cuts that never seem to reduce spending and with revenue increases that got spent before the taxpayers ever saw what they had earned. This time I really believe it is going to be different. This time the reductions in spending are going to be real. They are going to be structural, that is, actually changing the nature of many programs to build into them fiscal safeguards.

As long as most of us have been in the Congress, everyone has talked a good game about entitlement reform. It never happened. But this time it is actually underway. This time around, the taxpayers are going to get the benefit of our holding down spending.

Radical as it may seem to much of official Washington, we are going to leave more money in the hands of those who actually earn it; the workers, the families, and investors of America. That is the goal we have been working toward all year. It has been our guiding light, our polar star during the tough contests over the budget, the balanced budget constitutional amendment, the appropriations bills, and entitlement reform. We have won some. We have lost a few. But all the while we have kept our focus on the greater goal of the financial independence of the American home.

In that way, we have laid the groundwork for reducing the size and scope of the Federal Government. We started the process of returning decisionmaking to the States and to the citizens of the States. What we are doing this year is only the beginning of the most profound power shift this country has seen since King George's colonial governors were sent packing back from where they came.

That is what makes our work this autumn so historic. By themselves, tax cuts come and, sadly, tax cuts usually go. But once you downsize Government, once you break its appetite for the public's purse, once you take away its reason for devouring so much of the public's resources, then you have started a process that is almost impossible to reverse. You have rewritten the equation of power, if you can do that. You have changed the rules of the game, and that is what we want to do. That is what is happening in Congress this year, and that is what we will be focused on for the next 6 weeks or so.

The transfer of power is seldom a neat process. Our effort to return power to the American people through the reconciliation bill of 1995 is no exception. None of us will get exactly what we want in this legislation. There is bound to be something in there that makes each one of us swallow a little hard, perhaps something that hits too close to our own home States. So be it. Some losses will be well worth the overall result: Medicare preserved and strengthened, welfare finally tied to work and to personal responsibility, the tax burden eased for families with children, and the Federal Government locked on track toward a balanced budget within 7 years.

That last item is worth repeating. The bill will put the Federal Government on track to budgetary balance by the year 2002.

Through all my years in the House and Senate, I have heard the naysayers insist that it could not be done, it just could not be done, but now that we are actually doing it, they have changed their tune. Now they say it should not be done. It is too fast; it is too much; it is too soon; too little spending; too much tax relief. In short, just too much change.

And yet in today's Washington Post, a very interesting editorial column by James Glassman pointed out that even with these spending controls, Federal spending will increase by $2.6 trillion over the next 7 years, while revenues will increase by $3.3 trillion. Yet there are those in Washington who are screaming: Oh, you are cutting things so deeply. How do you reconcile an increase of several billion dollars over what we are now spending with the accusation that we are cutting spending? In fact, we are not really cutting. We are just controlling the rate of growth of Government. In fact, in my State, many people say: Why is it taking 7 years to balance the budget? You really should do it sooner.

But the important thing is that we are doing it. We are getting locked in on this path, and the Congressional Budget Office is going to certify that we are actually getting the job done.

When it comes to restraining the size and spending of Government, the citizens I hear from do not think there is such a thing as too much change. They do not understand why their elected officials cannot restrain the spending appetite and habit in this city. They do not understand why a handful of Senators abandoned their longstanding support for the balanced budget constitutional amendment and voted to kill that amendment earlier this year. And most of all, they do not understand why the President has made himself the defender and guardian of the status quo.

I do not know how to explain President Clinton's extraordinary record this year on the budget except to describe it as "Bill's Peculiar Adventure." This is why; here is the script.

Earlier this year, the President submitted to Congress a budget that was so shamelessly out of step with the wishes of the public that the Senate voted 99 to zero to reject it. That vote, for the record, occurred on May 19. Thereafter, both the Senate and the House passed budget resolutions which the Congressional Budget Office said would result in a balanced budget in the fiscal year 2002. CBO's assurance was, of course, critical because, as President Clinton said himself, the "Congressional Budget Office was normally more conservative than what was going to happen and closer to right than previous Presidents have been."

Those were wise words then, and I believe they still are applicable today. For whatever reason, perhaps because he was left behind in an untenable position, President Clinton took the exceptional step of devising another budget, President Clinton's Budget II. This he submitted to Congress on June 13, contending that it would achieve balance in the fiscal year 2005. This second Clinton budget was an interesting effort and in some ways a definite improvement over the administration's first try.

CBO estimates that it would achieve savings of $120 billion in Medicare through the year 2002, and $295 billion through 2005. Note these savings were not described as cuts but as savings. CBO also estimated that Clinton II would reduce Federal revenues—that means allowing for tax cuts—by $97 billion over 7 years and $156 billion over 10 years. Those amounts were more than offset by President Clinton's proposed savings—not cuts—from Medicare. That did not mean, of course, that he was using Medicare money for tax breaks because, as we all know, the two items are entirely separate, as should be our decisions concerning them.

So far so good. But the CBO had some bad news, too. The President's second budget would result in deficits in excess of $200 billion in each of the next 10 years. Let us add that up. By my calculation, that comes to a 10-year deficit of more than $2 trillion. In fact, even that figure of $2 trillion underestimates the President's proposed deficit, for he included in revenues the surpluses that are expected in Social Security. He counted against his deficit spending the resources of the old age, survivors and disability insurance trust funds. Whether this was an ominous sign of long-range intentions or whatever else might have been involved, perhaps just sloppy book-keeping at OMB, I leave for others to determine. But it is an area of concern for those who have looked at how these trust funds might be impacted.

In any case, the Congressional Budget Office, in which President Clinton had, quite accurately, told the Nation to repose its trust, scored President Clinton's second budget as a loser. But even so, the President has never renounced it. In fact, he still refers to it on occasion, though only in passing, and he still cultivates the illusion that he has offered Congress something to work with when really there is not much there except some broad principles.

I wonder how many of my colleagues on the other side of the aisle believe that Clinton II is something with which we can work. Perhaps we should find out. We will be casting scores of budget-related votes in the weeks ahead, and a vote on Clinton II might well be one of them. That would be a clear referendum on what the President has done and has not done with regard to spending, taxes, Medicare and the deficit. I suspect it would fail by a wide margin.

With all due respect to the Presidency and to President Clinton, the office he holds has a way of insulating its occupants from the realities the rest of us have to face. That is the most charitable explanation I can devise from some of the things that are being said from the White House. For example, in a conference call with hospital administrators last week, President Clinton opined that "the budget cuts that Republicans are pushing in Congress are excessive and not necessary—not necessary—to balance the budget."

How would he propose to do it? Obviously, he does not propose to do it. His inaction in that regard is as unacceptable as his proposal just last week that we move toward a grand compromise on spending and taxes by adopting the administration's economic projections. Never mind what he said in the past to a joint session of Congress about the accuracy of the Congressional Budget Office as opposed to the politically slanted estimates that come from OMB. All of a sudden, we are being told we have these big differences between what the Congress is trying to do and what the President wants to do, and the way to solve that problem is just to have different economic assumptions.

I have seen that happen before, unfortunately, in previous administrations and previous Congresses. It is not the way to do business.

We have not come this far in fulfilling our pledges to the American people just to cop out by using phony numbers. Speaker GINGRICH spoke for many of us in his response to the President when he said, "This is exactly what's sick about this city. [Somebody says] Let's find another smoke-and-mirrors.

It's only been, after all, 60 years of deficits." It is time to get the job done.

Now, I am no stranger to differences between parties. We have a two-party system. That is so we can have good, wholesome debates between competing programs. But eventually we need to vote and get the job done, and I think we are prepared to do that.

We can take our politics straight up, face to face, but when that is done, we have got to face the budget problems. We must deal with tax relief for the American people, and we must move toward a balanced budget.

Official Washington is looking toward mid-November for what is commonly called a legislative train wreck. I think it is a misnomer, but that's the term being used to describe a show-down over the budget, the appropriations bills and the debt ceiling. I prefer to think of that conjunction in a different way. I think of it as a day of accounting, a time when truth will finally prevail.

The President and his senior staffers have been talking a lot lately about using the veto to block virtually everything that would move this country toward a balanced budget. President Clinton has made his veto pen the last desperate defense of big government.

Over the past 20 years, I have watched the budgets we have dealt with and the appropriations bills. I don't remember a President threatening to veto appropriations bills because they did not spend enough. It was always because Congress could not control its insatiable appetite in spending too much. Now we have a President who is threatening to veto almost all the appropriations bills, with only one or two exceptions, because he wants more spending, increases over last year, increases that will add to the deficit.

So we have a tough task before us. Many people wonder if we will be able to get the job done. I believe we will. I would like for it to be done with cooperation between the two Houses of Congress, across the aisle between the two parties, and, yes, with the President. I encourage the President to join us in this discussion.

This is a crucial time. Over the next few weeks we have to make tough decisions. It is time that we engage. We need the President to get involved, to roll up his sleeves and say we are going to do what is right for our country's future.

Today Senate Republicans look both to the immediate opinion of the American people and to the judgment of their posterity. It is, after all, our children and our grandchildren, most of all, for whom we are doing this. They, rather than any party, will be the big winners in the reconciliation bill in 1995.

That is why I and my colleagues approach the arguments, the decisions, and perhaps the crises ahead with a confidence that goes beyond political assurance. Like the Quaker poet of the last century, John Greenleaf Whittier, said, we know we have "the safe appeal of truth to time." That is what this is all about. And now is the time for historic decisions.

Mr. President, I yield the floor. And I observe the absence of a quorum.

The PRESIDING OFFICER (Mr. THOMAS). The clerk will call the roll.

The assistant legislative clerk proceeded to call the roll.

Mr. BURNS. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the quorum call be dispensed with.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

MEDICARE REFORM

Mr. BURNS. Mr. President, with the press and all the reports and the dialog continuing on Medicare, I guess for most of us who are trying to do some things to reform Medicare, to strengthen it and save the program, which has broad-based public support, we have become frustrated about what is really at issue here. We know that there have been ways devised in order to save and strengthen the program and to increase the spending on each beneficiary between now and the year 2002.

With those that would be critical of the plan that has been put forward and with continuing to call what some would say are cuts in Medicare, then maybe we should approach it from a situation that maybe if you think it is a big cut, let us just freeze it, let us just freeze it at current levels. And I wonder if they would start counting the apples that are in their basket.

You know, it seems to me that math is a funny subject to study. But, nonetheless, if you have 48 apples in your basket, and by the year 2002 we are going to add some apples to that basket to where you have 67, in other words, 2½ apples—that is pretty tough to do, add a half apple a year to your basket—that does not sound like a cut to me. It sounds like an increase to me. But the cost per beneficiary will go from $4,800 presently being spent per beneficiary to $6,700 in the year 2002. That is under the plan that is presently called for in the budget resolution that passed this body and this Congress.

What started this whole debate is right here, this little report. Now we cannot get very many of them because they did not print very many of them. But it is the status of Social Security and Medicare programs done by the trustees, of which four of the seven are President Clinton's own appointees.

They said it pretty plainly, "The Medicare Program is clearly unsustainable in its present form"—in this little report.

There have been other reports that have come out in the past that said Social Security will run out of money. Other reports say, in 2 years, Medicare will run out of money. Those reports are OK, but this one is a little bit different because next year is the first time in the history of the Medicare Program, which is 30 years old this year, the first time when we will be spending more money in outlays to the beneficiaries than we have money coming in—for the first time. That changes the debate a little bit, and it also should change the way we look at this problem and the way we want to deal with it.

So the trustees say we have to do something about Medicare. Secretary of Health and Human Services Shalala, Secretary Reich of Labor, Secretary Rubin of Treasury, Commissioner of Social Security, Shirley Chater, all appointees of President Clinton, said:

We feel strongly that comprehensive Medicare reforms should be undertaken to make this program financially sound now and over the long term.

We went through a situation in Montana, when I was a county commissioner, of falling property values. We had an initiative passed in Montana that froze all property taxes, the mills that we could levy, and we were in pretty tough straits trying to finance county government. That may not sound very important to us who work in this town but, nonetheless, the people who live in our counties and our cities across the Nation would say that is pretty important because that operates our schools, takes care of our sheriff departments, public safety, our roads, bridges.

You had to act then to make some adjustments to our outlays, or we would find ourselves in financial difficulty that we could not get ourselves out of. If you do not take into consideration that next year we will be paying out more than taking in, and as that escalates, pretty soon if we go 2 or 3 years, then you will find even this Government will be incapable of dealing with the debt that has been created by overextension of payments out of the Medicare Program.

So, basically, what they said was that we had to take some actions now.

Let me show another chart. They also said:

We strongly recommend that the crisis presented by the financial condition of the Medicare trust funds be urgently addressed on a comprehensive basis, including a review of the program's financing methods, benefit provisions, and delivery mechanisms.

In other words, let us take a look at the whole program, and we tried to do that.

Today, Medicaid and Medicare are going up three times the rate of inflation. We propose to let it go up at two times the rate of inflation. That is not a Medicare or Medicaid cut. So when you hear all this business about cuts, let me caution you that is not what is going on. We are going to have increases in Medicare and Medicaid, and a reduction in the rate of growth.

Guess who said that? President Clinton, October 5, 1993.

Who is fooling whom? We have to take a look at all of it. This is what the President wants. He is saying, let us limit the growth to 7 percent; the budget resolution says 6.4. We have an area where we can really, really compromise and come up with a program.

So we have established that there are not going to be any cuts in Medicare. So how do we deal with it? We say, "Mr. President, that is exactly what we have proposed in this Congress." So how is it that President Clinton proposes a reduced growth rate and it seems acceptable and yet, when the Republicans propose the exact same thing, it is splashed all over papers and televisions and all across our States by the folks on the other side of the aisle as "devastating cuts." I think it is time for a little fairness here, and I also advise all of us, you cannot have it both ways.

So if you do not like the cuts, let us just freeze them. Think about that for a little bit. We will freeze it at levels right now. I am wondering if that will be acceptable to the other side. The senior Senator from Montana recently wrote a guest column in the Missoula paper. He said, "There is no crisis here." Their report clearly states the crisis needs to be urgently addressed. It does not say we should start to think about maybe making some changes. It says now is the time to do it. That is, deal with it when we have the ability to deal with it. We cannot stick our heads in the sand, not for very long anyway, because you know what is exposed the most.

We have to worry about the financing. Any savings in this plan—any savings—even in part B, goes back into the plan. It can go nowhere else. It must stay in the system of Medicare, either part A, which is the hospital trust fund, or part B, which is the dollars. It has to stay there. Any savings goes back into the plan. It can go nowhere else. It can finance no other part of government. So the trustees' report requires us to act.

Anyone who says otherwise is not being very candid with the American people. It is not being very honest if we are to preserve the system while expanding the choices the beneficiaries will have if we do nothing at all. With the proposal now on the table, spending continues to increase around 6.4 percent a year. That is twice the rate of inflation. That means spending per beneficiary will go from $4,800 a year to $6,700 in just 7 short years. And I ask you, can that be a cut?

So when the other side and the media say we are cutting Medicare to give tax cuts to the rich—we have heard all about that—it sells good but it "ain't" necessarily so. In fact, it is not so.

A colleague of mine recently remarked the new Democratic mascot should be the ostrich. We do not want to get into a situation like that.

I also heard the expression other day that maybe it is not Medicare, maybe it is "Mediscare." Every day is Halloween for the other side, because they just like to scare folks.

Mr. President, I say to my colleagues, we are trying to be honest with America, just honest with America. Get the figures down and make sure that we do what this report says we should do and also maybe accept some leadership from our President who said, yes, we have to do some things, and he said it on October 5, 1993.

I do not think he is too far off the mark, and I do not think America thinks that either. I know we do not, and we have undertaken this very, very seriously.

Mr. President, I yield back the remainder of my time, and I yield the floor.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Who seeks time?

Mr. BURNS. Mr. President, I suggest the absence of a quorum.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The clerk will call the roll.

The legislative clerk proceeded to call the roll.

Mr. ASHCROFT. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the order for the quorum call be rescinded.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

Mr. DORGAN. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to be recognized for up to 15 minutes following the presentation of the Senator from Missouri.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there objection?

Without objection, it is so ordered.

The Senator from Missouri is recognized.

TERM LIMITS

Mr. ASHCROFT. Mr. President, the 1994 elections were elections about reform. Those of us sent here by the people of America were asked to make substantial changes in the way this body conducts business, the way in which Government is carried out in this country. The people asked us to make significant changes. In return, we made promises which resulted in their entrusting to us the sacred opportunity to serve the people. The promises we made were important promises. They were promises to end politics as usual, to curtail an imperial Congress. They were promises to balance the budget. They were promises to change the welfare system profoundly.

Mr. President, I believe they were important promises. I believe they were promises upon which the people relied, and have a substantial expectation. We have made progress in satisfying those promises in a significant way.

Earlier this year, the American people were optimistic about our efforts, about our willingness to change Washington. This fall, though, the American people tell a different story. Those who keep their finger on the pulse of the American public have indicated a signal from the people—a serious discomfort with what is coming. The public's faith in their elected officials has again plummeted to an all-time low. Once more, Ross Perot, talks about putting an end to the two-party system, and once more he is heard.

What has happened? What is the reason for the new season of discontent? I believe it is, in part, because the people have asked us to commit to the reforms we promised and they feel that some of their agenda is being ignored. One of those agenda items which we have not directly addressed, that we have not spoken too clearly on, one that is on the minds of the American people indelibly, is the idea and concept of term limits. People are familiar with that. Forty Governors have term limits. Twenty-three States have, out of their own capacity and ability, attempted to impose term limits on the Congress. They see the Congress as being a place which bogs down in beltway politics instead of reflecting the agenda of America, and does so because of individuals who come here and just stay. Certainly, it is an agenda that the people expected us to carry forward. Seventy-four percent of the people support the concept of term limits. They believe, and I believe, it ought to be a part of the agenda of the 104th Congress.

Leadership is about the messages that we send, the signals we give—signals not of rhetoric but of action, signals of real reform. Last March, our class came to the floor to support a constitutional amendment to balance the budget. We spoke of a common commitment to change and a new day in the Congress. It mattered very little that we fell short of the 67 votes we needed. It was clear what we were doing and the depth of our commitment and the sense of our real dedication to that objective. I think the people understood there were some who stood in the way of that objective. But what truly mattered was the signal we sent as a class. It was a signal of promises made and promises kept.

What matters is that we fought the fight, we kept the faith, we kept our promise, and we will keep moving toward that objective. We have already moved toward the objective in the budget, and we are moving toward the objective in the appropriations, and we will again move toward that objective by way of a resolution to have a constitutional amendment.

We must decide what signals we will be sending this fall as the American people monitor our performance. It is out of concern for those signals that I believe we should vote on a sense-of-the-Senate amendment relating to the limitation of terms of Members of Congress. We are talking about the number of terms people in the Congress can serve.

This afternoon, barring any legislative maneuvering, we will have a vote on that amendment. It will be the first time in 50 years that there has been a vote on term limits in the U.S. Senate. I believe it will be an important vote, it will be a historic vote. It does not carry with it the power of law, so it is not a binding amendment. It is, however, an identifying amendment. It is the power of a clear and principled statement of the purpose and resolve of this body to enact term limits, to provide the people of this country with an opportunity to change the Constitution of this country, to reflect the fact that the biggest perk of all in Washington is the perk of incumbency. The playing field is so inordinately tilted toward incumbents that individuals from outside have a very difficult time challenging.

I am glad that the majority leader has expressed his commitment to voting on this sense-of-the-Senate term-limit amendment. We will send an important signal to the American people that we remain serious about serious reform, that we have an agenda which is the agenda of the American people. We will again say that those of us who were sent here in 1994 made promises—promises that we will be keeping.

The promises we made are not options—they are commitments, they are our mandate. We did not cook up the idea of term limits as an election gimmick. Term limits are part of the fabric of the political philosophy of the same American people who have seen it work for hundreds of years at both the State and local level. They have seen it work when voluntarily embraced by Presidents from George Washington forward. They have enacted it into the Constitution of the United States in the 22d amendment. They expect us to make it possible to enact term-limits into the Constitution of the United States and provide real reform in the U.S. Congress.

Promises made, promises kept. These promises are not an option, they are our mandate.

Mr. President, I yield the floor and suggest the absence of a quorum.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The clerk will call the roll.

The legislative clerk proceeded to call the roll.

Mr. DORGAN. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the order for the quorum call be rescinded.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

Mr. DORGAN. Mr. President, I am recognized for 15 minutes, I understand.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. That is correct.

MEDICARE

Mr. DORGAN. Mr. President, I have listened this morning to a discussion about Medicare, and I want to make a couple of points about it, although that was not why I originally sought to take the floor this morning.

It is interesting to me that people say this is not about politics. This is about the sanctity of the Medicare Program, about the solvency of the Medicare Program. Nothing to do with tax cuts, tax cuts for the affluent, but the Medicare Program and its solvency.

I cannot resist pointing out when Medicare was initially offered, 97 percent of the Republicans voted against it. They did not like it. They did not want it. We still have some today who think it is a terrible program, that it is tantamount to socialism.

Now, most people, including most Republicans, think the Medicare Program is a pretty decent program and has been very helpful to people in this country.

No one should misunderstand what is going on here. No amount of discussion on the floor of the Senate should be allowed to persuade people this is something other than what it really is.

I brought a chart to the floor that describes what Kevin Phillips, a Republican political analyst, noted author, noted Republican analyst, says: "The revolutionary ideology driving the new Republican Medicare proposal is also simple. Cut middle-class programs as much as possible and give the money back to private sector business, finance, and high-income taxpayers."

That is not from me. That is a description of what this is about from a Republican.

Let me give another comment from Kevin Phillips—again, a Republican. This is not a Democrat, but a Republican speaking. "Let's be blunt. If the Republican Medicare form proposal was a movie, its most appropriate title would be 'Health Fraud II.'"

Do not say that is a Democrat standing up attacking a Republican plan. This is a Republican telling us what the Republican plan is all about.

I flew into Minot, ND, on Saturday morning this week. A lady at the airport asked if she could speak to me, and we stepped off to the side where there was a big crowd. She quietly began to ask me a couple of questions.

She was probably 75 or 80 years old. As she began to speak, her chin began to tremble and quiver and she began to get tears in her eyes. She said, "My husband is in a nursing home and he has been there 3 years. I am paying for the nursing home care. We had a few quarter sections of land. We owned a farm. I have sold most of that farm now to pay for his nursing home care. I cannot get Medicaid help for him, and now I am worried that I will lose my house and not be able to continue to live in my house."

By then she was a person with tears in her eyes and expressing the anguish that a lot of Americans have about what is going on in this country. This is not about statistics or theory; this is about someone who lives on a farm for 55 years, does not take, always contributes, always helps, always extends and reaches out, and then they reach the end of their life and one spouse is in a nursing home and the other is worried about losing their home.

Or an Indian school that I visited not so long ago where children who come from dysfunctional families, from backgrounds of alcoholism and chemical abuse, are trying to make a go of it and get an education, get some therapy, get some help, told me about one little fourth grader who, when she came to the Indian boarding school, would show up every day down at the school administrative office and ask whether a letter had come from home.

"Has a letter come from home?" Every day they said, "No, no letter for you." Every day for weeks, the same routine. "Has a letter come from home?" Actually, her home was not her parents'. It was her aunt and uncle, because her parents were elsewhere. She was living with an aunt and uncle. Finally, she stopped coming to the office to ask whether a letter had come.

The last week of the school year she got her letter and it was the $5—$5 that she was given by her aunt and uncle for the year, $5 spending money that this poor little girl had counted on because they said they would try to send her some help. Every day she went to see whether that money had come, but it had not. She finally got $5 at the end of the year.

That is the kind of human condition that exists in this country. Policies are wonderful to debate here on the floor of the Senate, but we are talking about little fourth graders, little kids whose lives are profoundly impacted by public policies. We are talking about senior citizens, 75 and 80-year-olds who fear that they will lose their home, who fear they will not have health care, who fear they will get sick and have no money.

People say we are not cutting Medicare; it is growing. We will cut $270 billion from what is needed to fund Medicare at its current level. That is a fact.

Yes, it will increase, but the fact is we will have more senior citizens. That is why it is increasing. And you have health care inflation. That is why it is increasing. But the $270 billion necessary to provide the same kind of care will not be available.

They say this is not about anything other than trying to make the system work. This is about cutting taxes for the rich. That is what Kevin Phillips, a Republican, says it is about. "Let's be blunt. If the Republican Medicare reform proposal was a movie, its most appropriate title would be 'Health Fraud II.'"

We will have more debate on Medicare. Do we need to make some adjustments? Yes. Should we take money out of the Medicare Program, a program that works and is so important to people, in order to provide a tax cut to Donald Trump, Ross Perot, and the folks who have it pretty well in this country? I do not think so. That is not what we need to do at this point.

GROSS DOMESTIC PRODUCT

Mr. DORGAN. Mr. President, let me turn to another subject. One of the things that is interesting to me is why we are told daily in the newspapers that the GDP, the gross domestic product, in America is up, our economy is moving forward and we are doing so well. The economists, some politicians, say, gee, things are really moving along. We measure progress in America by the gross domestic product. They say NAFTA and GATT—more jobs, more progress. We are better off because the GDP goes up. Experts worship it. Economists worship at the altar of the GDP.

The Federal Reserve Board comes to the Congress in the last year and a half and says the economy is growing too fast based on the GDP. What we really need to do is create more unemployment and less economic growth. That is what we hear from some of these economists.

Why, when Americans are working longer and harder just to keep up, why are we told that things are so good, that the GDP is a measure of enormous progress?

Finally, there is a cover story in the recent issue of the Atlantic Monthly that provides some clue. It is called, "If the Economy Is Up, Why Is America Down?" I urge my colleagues to read this article because it helps explain the big gap between what the economists talk about in economic progress and what the American people feel or actually experience.

Economists, this article says, view the economy through kind of a warped and myopic system, a counting system called the gross domestic product. The GDP was invented actually during the Second World War to guide the Nation's production through the Second World War. It is basically a tool of planning of industrial policy that was never really designed to serve as a guide to how well the economy is doing, but that is how the experts, economists, and politicians use it here in Washington.

Essentially, the gross domestic product adds up everything Americans spend and declares that as the total good. The more money people have to spend, the better this weird accounting system says we are doing.

As a result, all of the pain and all the misery, the social breakdown, shows up in the computer screens in Washington, DC, as economic gain. The hundreds of billions of dollars that Americans spend to cope with crime, the lawyers, the social breakdown costs is all GDP—car crashes, fender benders in front of the Capitol—gross domestic product increasing. Mr. President, $200 billion a year in repair bills and hospital bills, car accidents give this country a real boost.

Americans lose some time with their children because wages are falling, so they work longer these days, and both parents often have to work. When the kids go into day care, that is more GDP. When the roads are so congested it takes more time to drive to work, the gas people burn in their car to sit and wait, that is more GDP.

The lists goes on. Almost everything Americans experience as bad shows up in the gross domestic product as good. They do not take account—the economists—of the contribution of the family and the household as an example.

It is a curious circumstance that the sectors of the economy which are crucial to economic well-being in this country, the social realm—that is the economic functions performed by households, by the communities and all across the country, by people in their natural habitat—those do not count. Those are not part of the national accounting system. Most of the Nation's important work that goes on, from caring for children to older people volunteering their work in many different forms—that is the social glue in this country. Yet because no money changes hands, no one scores that. That is invisible to the conventional economists.

GDP does not count at all in these circumstances, because it means the more our families and communities decline and a monetized service sector takes over, the more the GDP goes up and the more these economists think our country is doing better. They count the poisons in our air and water as double gain, once when the factory spews it out and also, then, again when we have to buy bottled water and air purifiers to deal with it. Then the Government has to spend billions to clean up the Superfund site, so it gets counted again.

We are awash in this kind of phony accounting. It is like a gas gauge on a car that goes up as your car is running out of gas. That is the problem with the GDP measurement and, as the authors in the Atlantic article point out, by the curious standards of the GDP, the Nation's economic hero is a terminal cancer patient who is going through a divorce. They say the happiest event is an earthquake or a hurricane.

I pointed out on the floor before that when hurricane Andrew came through and leveled Florida, the economists counted that as a one-half of 1 percent gain of the gross domestic product in our country. The same phony accounting labels lead to political double-talk when you are talking about GDP and what makes the economy tick. When politicians want to push tax breaks for big corporations or for top executives, they talk about growth, by which they mean GDP. When they want to earn political Brownie points, they blast Time Warner for gangsta rap, for example. Gangsta rap is GDP.

Entertainment is one of the fastest growing parts of the economy and so is gambling and so is prison building. It is all GDP. So, when the politicians say they want more GDP, what are they calling for, more television programs with violence? That is GDP. Is there any distinction between what is good and what is bad, what advances our country's interests and what retards it?

The family or business that uses this kind of a system to measure its progress would not last very long at all. They would be bankrupt in a month. Yet, America has been making economic policy by using this indicator of progress for 50 years, and we need to change.

I do not agree with everything in the article that I referred to in the Atlantic. Some things I disagree with. But I think it is a useful thing for us in this country to begin exploring. Does the gross domestic product really measure anything, anything useful—a gross domestic product that leaves out the value of the care that someone gives for a sick parent, that includes the value of the cleanup from a hurricane but does not include the damage from a hurricane, does not include the damage from a car accident?

You know, another economic all star with the GDP is someone with a cardiac problem. You talk about a heart attack, we are talking about real GDP. The whole system swings into action with a heart attack, and that advances the country's economic interests, right? Of course it does not. Of course it does not.

I hope my colleagues will read not only the Atlantic article, but I am going to include in the RECORD an article written by Lars-Erik Nelson in the Daily News and an article in the Financial Times by Michael Prowse on this same issue.

This is an important issue, and I hope we will begin to look at it in a thoughtful way and evaluate what do you measure to determine what advances American economic interests.

Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to have those articles printed in the RECORD, and I yield the floor.

There being no objection, the articles were ordered to be printed in the RECORD, as follows:

[From the Daily News, Sept. 29, 1995]

A FUNKY WAY OF LOOKING AT U.S. "GROWTH"

Washington—If the economy is growing as all the economists tell us, why are Americans in such a foul mood? This is the question that undermined Reaganomics, defeated President George Bush and has President Clinton muttering about a national funk.

And now we have an answer, both simple and blindingly clear. The people are not wrong. The economists are. What they measure as growth in the Gross Domestic Product is merely increased spending—not what that spending actually buys.

Under the currently accepted definition of growth, if you sit stuck every day in a traffic jam, burning gasoline and wasting your time, you are contributing to growth. If you spend more and more money, $65 billion a year, to protect your self against crime—locks, insurance policies, replacement of stolen goods—that's growth.

The GDP does not care whether the money is spent for useful purposes or for decay. Spending on food and pornography rank equally. Divorce is a major contributor to our "economic growth" since it piles up lawyers' fees, the cost of a second home and counseling.

And the GDP assigns no value to intangibles like air pollution or the loss of leisure time. If you're too busy to cook or read stories for your children and so you buy them prepared meals and leave them in front of a VCR that's counted as pure economic growth.

This flash of insight is spelled out in the October Atlantic Monthly by Clifford Cobb. Ted Halstead and Jonathan Rowe, "By the curious standard of the GDP," they write, "the nation's economic hero is a terminal cancer patient who is going through a costly divorce. The happiest event is an earthquake or a hurricane. The most desirable habitat is a multi-billion-dollar Superfund site. All these add to the GDP because they cause money to change hands."

The most bizarre example is the $32 billion diet industry. "[The GDP] counts the food that people wish they didn't eat and then the billions they spend to lose the added pounds that result."

Instead of GDP, the authors propose a different measure—a Genuine Progress Indicator—that would total up the nation's expenditures (including intangibles like the value of parenting) and then subtract the obviously negative components: costs of crimes, family breakdown, loss of leisure time, commuting, automobile accidents, pollution and environmental damage.

Lo and behold, they come up with figures—debatable to be sure—indicating that in terms of genuine progress we have not come very far since 1960. We have an abundance of gadgets but the costs—in family breakdown, safe neighborhoods, good public schools, jobs that let a single earner raise a family—have offset the technological gains.

The "growth" myth has been a terrific weapon in persuading Americans to accept a worse quality of life. NAFTA, the Mexican trade agreement, is good for us because it will add to "growth"—never mind what it does to a community that loses a factory. Cutting down old-growth forests adds to growth. The gambling industry is growth. Gangster rap is growth. "Showgirls is growth. The millions spent on the O.J. Simpson trial—it all adds to our economic "growth".

What the three authors have figured out is that we spend so much of our incomes not to add to our quality of life but merely to insulate ourselves from a world that has grown less civil. We work harder, spend more, have less time, and the economists tell us we are growing. No wonder there's a funk.

[From the Financial Times, Oct. 2, 1995]

BETTER WAYS TO MEASURE PROGRESS

It may be time to consider new yardsticks of economic and social progress. Gross domestic product has grown robustly for years in the US and many other countries. Yet, ordinary families believe they are worse off than in the past. The official data do not appear to measure economic life as it is experienced by real people. They ignore the "feel bad" aspect of growth.

GDP has acquired an extraordinary aura of authority over the years. Yet it is worth recalling that national accounts in their present form were invented quite recently. They were a response to the needs of the generation that endured the Great Depression and fought in the second world war. The priority then was to find ways of utilizing spare resources, first to combat unemployment and then to further the war effort. A measure of "final monetary demand" was essential if Keynesian policies were to succeed. GDP filled the bill perfectly. And, in an age of slide rules, it was not practicable to supplement it with more sophisticated measures of economic well-being.

Today's needs are different. Our ability to sustain the growth of monetary demand is not in question. The focus of attention is now on ecological and social concerns. After decades of rapid industrial expansion, we worry that growth may inflict irreparable damage on the natural environment. We also worry that the social fabric of nations is being ripped apart. Economic growth will not bring happiness if the quality of life is simultaneously being destroyed by social shortcomings, such as rampant crime, family breakdown, inadequate education and so forth.

The Roosevelt generation devised the statistical measures it required to solve its problem. Should we not do the same? This seems to be the thought underlying two recent attempts to devise broader measures of economic well-being. A group at the World Bank argues that economic health is best measured by a broad yardstick of wealth or net worth, not by the annual flow of monetary income. Instead of simply focusing on "produced assets"—the products of the market economy—it draws attention to three other classes of assets: natural capital (such as forests and mineral deposits); human resources (the value represented by education) and social capital (the value of human organisations and institutions).

A Californian think-tank called Redefining Progress has a somewhat similar philosophy. It is promoting a new measure of economic health called the Genuine Progress Indicator (GPI), which adjusts for many social and ecological factors ignored in GDP figures. The group has persuaded 400 US economists to sign an anti-GDP manifesto stating that "new indicators of progress are urgently needed to guide our society: ones that include the presently unpriced value of natural and social capital". Luminaries backing the GPI initiative include Prof Herbert Simon, a Nobel economics laureate, Alvin Toffler, the futurologist, and Ted Turner, the media magnate.

How economic well-being is measured makes a bigger difference than you might suspect. Measured by per capita GDP, the US is one of the world's richest nations. Yet it ranks a poor 12th on the bank's per capita wealth measure, behind countries such as Norway and Denmark. Per capita GDP figures indicate that the US has been growing robustly for decades. Per capita GPI, on the other hand, peaked in 1969 and has since fallen substantially.

These large discrepancies are not altogether surprising if you remember that the alternative measures are trying to capture wealth not reflected in monetary transactions. The bank team discovered, to its surprise, that the value of human resources—accounts for about two-thirds of the typical nations's total wealth. One reason is that people tend to become more valuable over time; they learn as they generate income and so become capable of generating more income. Produced assets such as durable goods and factories, by contrast, rapidly become obsolescent. Yet this principal source of national wealth is ignored in conventional national accounts.

The rationale for GPI is explored at length in the October issue of the Atlantic Monthly magazine. The main reason why it shows a decline in US economic welfare is because it insists on fully accounting for the depletion of non-renewable natural resources, the cost of pollution and many other forms of environmental degradation not captured in GDP figures.

But it also allows for many aspects of social welfare ignored in official statistics, such as the economic value of housework, volunteer labour and leisure time. It treats many types of market transaction as negatives rather than positives; for example the spending associated with crime, family breakdown and commuting are regarded as costs not benefits. It even adjusts for income distribution, deeming greater inequality a negative for social and economic progress.

I have reservations about all "macro" indicators. Any attempt to measure "social welfare" involves a host of subjective judgments. A measure such as GDP that fails to value natural capital or non-market labour can hardly be construed as neutral or objective. The issue is not whether we have macro indicators, but whether we have indicators that are relevant to people's needs. We cannot live forever on the Roosevelt generation's intellectual capital. We have to move beyond GDP.

The PRESIDING OFFICER (Mr. DEWINE). The Senator from Wyoming is now recognized for up to 1 hour.

CHANGE

Mr. THOMAS. Mr. President, my purpose in requesting an hour was to share with my freshman colleagues an opportunity to talk some about change, an opportunity to talk about the real chance we have to bring about change here in the next 3 weeks. So I intend to take 10 minutes and share the rest, then, with other members of the freshman and sophomore class. I wanted to talk just a little bit about change. I wanted to talk a little bit about the development of policy.

I must confess, I am concerned we are seeking increasingly to formulate public policy in this country based on something other than facts, to formulate public policy based on what seems to be a marketing technique to oppose change. I want to talk about that just a little bit.

My friend from North Dakota just finished. He just finished talking in some areas I think are not factual, that I think probably do not represent where we are really going with policymaking in Medicare.

What we are doing is, those who are opposed to change in Medicare are seeking to use scare tactics to cause people to think Medicare is going out the window, we are not going to do it, when the fact is if we do not make some changes, then we will lose Medicare. Those of us who want Medicare for the elderly, for those of us who want Medicare soon for ourselves and others, know you have to make some changes. The idea we are going to cut and ravage Medicare just is not true. Whether it is Phillips or whoever it is, the fact is that the spending is going to increase. What we are talking about doing is changing a growth pattern that is not maintainable—more than 10 percent—bringing it down to 6.5 percent.

Mr. DORGAN. Mr. President, inasmuch as the Senator from Wyoming mentioned my name, I wonder if I might just ask the Senator from Wyoming a brief question. If the Senator from Wyoming believes—

Mr. THOMAS. The Senator has had his time. I really do not yield to him. I would like to go ahead and make my presentation, sir. You have made yours.

Mr. DORGAN. The only reason I ask the question is the Senator from Wyoming suggested they were not facts coming from this side; in fact, we were misstating facts. I wonder if the Senator would be prepared during the hour at some point to discuss specifically what he means by that, so we can discuss what he means is factual and not factual.

Mr. THOMAS. If the Senator will yield back my time, I will be happy to, because I intend to do that. We are talking here that it is being done to save taxes. That is not true. That is just not true. If there was no budget crisis at all, if there were no tax reductions being talked about, you have to do something with part A of Medicare. Kevin Phillips and others seem to ignore that.

The fact is, the money that goes into part A of Medicare is taken from your salary and mine, 2.9 percent, and goes into this fund. And this fund, according to the trustees, three out of six of whom are Cabinet members, they say that by the year 2002 that fund will be paying out more than it is taking in. That is a fact.

The fact is, even if you did not have anything to do with the budget, you would have to do something if you want to continue to have Medicare based on that premise of paying for part A from what is withheld from salary and from the employer. That is a fact.

So, that is where we are. The people who oppose change do not talk about that. They get into this tax thing, which really, really has nothing to do with it. And, on the contrary, the opposite is they do not have any suggestions. They simply want to complain about the idea that people are saying we need to make some changes there. And our friends stand up and say "Oh, yes, we need to make changes," and then resist every change that is made.

So, I think we need to start talking a little more about the facts and get a little off this idea of a marketing rhetoric that is designed, simply, to oppose what it is we are doing. We have a basic difference in philosophy. I understand that. That is perfectly legitimate. That is what elections are about. That is what two parties are about.

I happen to think we are better with less government and less taxes, and trying to find a way to reduce the costs of Medicare, not to simply find more money to put in it.

Do you want to talk about fraud? The Senator mentioned fraud. Most experts indicate that there is $30 billion of fraud in Medicare now. So I feel very strongly that, if we are going to have public policy that is good public policy for all of us, public policy needs to be made based on some facts and not simply some kind of marketing technique.

The other is change. Mr. President, we have a great opportunity now to make change. We have an opportunity in the next several weeks to finish the job the American voters asked us to start last November, to finish the job we said we would do: To have a less intrusive Government, to have a Government that costs less, to have a Government where the programs that are in place have been evaluated in terms of their effectiveness, whether or not the expenditure of taxpayers' money is getting to the people it is designed to assist. For a program such as welfare, the job is evaluating whether it is indeed accomplishing what it set about to do, and that is to help people who need help and then to help those people into a position to help themselves. Is that happening? The answer is no.

So, if you would like to have different results, I think it is imperative that you change. It is pretty hopeless to look for something to happen, to continue to do the same thing and expect different results. Mr. President, that does not happen.

We have a great opportunity in the next several weeks to talk about fundamental change for the first time in 40 years; for the first time in 25 years, to balance the budget. Who would argue with the idea that we need to balance the budget, that it is not morally and fiscally responsible to balance the budget? We hear that—yes, yes, that is a good thing to do. But, when we seek to do it, all we hear is resistance to it.

We are going to do that. We are going to save Medicare, and Medicare has to be changed to be saved. We are going to reform welfare. These are the things we are setting about, necessarily, to do.

It is tough when you talk about change. It is hard to change the direction of Government. It is increasingly difficult as the Government is in more and more programs, that more and more people are involved in lobbying for those programs, that more and more people are involved in the bureaucracy that supports those programs. So it is difficult to make change.

Change is what President Clinton talked about almost 3 years ago when he was elected. Has he brought about change? The biggest change was the largest tax increase we have had in the history of this country. But I think change was the basis for the 1994 elections. I think change is something that almost everybody embraces, but it is difficult to do, and I do understand that. But if we are to have different results, we have to change the way we do things.

Mr. President, we have worked now for a number of months. We are down to the critical decision time, when all this work now will result in a decision and we will decide whether we are going to balance the budget. We will decide what kind of country we want to transfer to our kids and their kids, as we go into another century.

What happens if we do not? In a few weeks we will be talking about voting on a debt extension to $5 trillion. In just a year or two, unless we change, we will find that all the available tax revenues will be used for entitlements and interest on the debt. If we do not change, we will not have a Medicare Program by the year 2002.

So, change is not an option, in my view. Change is exactly what has to be done, and, of course, there are different views of how you do it. But the idea that you use a marketing rhetoric designed to scare people and say change will devastate the programs that the country is committed to carrying out just is not the case.

I think we need to continue to say, here are the good things that happen when we balance the budget and ultimately reduce the amount of money we take out of families to pay for Government. We can reduce the growing inflation. We can create more jobs by putting more dollars into the private sector. And we can be more effective in what we do.

So we are talking about change. We are talking about public policy based on facts. We disagree, then, as to the remedy. But we ought to start, at least, by recognizing these facts that are there, that are described not by the Members of Congress but by the trustees of Medicare.

Mr. President, our time is to be shared among several of our freshman colleagues, so I would like now to yield to my colleague and friend from Georgia. And he then will be followed by another. I yield to the Senator from Georgia.

Mr. COVERDELL addressed the Chair.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator from Georgia.

HISTORIC DECISIONMAKING

Mr. COVERDELL. Mr. President, as my good colleague from Wyoming has noted, the contemporary custodians of this great democracy are coming upon a decision in the next several weeks that will be historic. For the first time, we will be considering major questions with regard to how we are going to govern ourselves. We will be taking under advisement major changes. We will be talking about balancing the budget for the first time in 32 years. We will be talking about dramatically changing the welfare system that has been developed over the last 30 or 40 years. We will have before us a proposal to protect Medicare, and we will be talking about lowering the economic burden on every working family and business by lowering taxes.

Obviously, when you are talking about changes of this magnitude, which I believe the vast majority of Americans believe should occur, they want taxes lowered. They are tired of a welfare program that does not work. They cannot believe we do not balance our budgets, and they are worried about a Medicare Program that is collapsing.

In the midst of this, of course, you will have very adversarial debate, contentious debate. Essentially, the debate is centered between two very different ideas about governing America. On the one hand, mostly on the other side of the aisle, we have defenders of Washington as it is, that we should not balance our budgets, it is too difficult to balance our budgets; we do not need to lower taxes—in fact, we should raise them; Medicare is just fine the way it is, put a Band-Aid on it and it will be OK; and we ought to leave the welfare system just the way it is today. Obviously, these two views take the country into the new century very differently. If we leave things the way they are, I think we are turning our back on the American people.

Coming back to my point, though, about the contentious debate, I was with a group of people from my State last week. I was very interested, as they tried to sort out these two presentations, change or leave it the way it is, and I purposely asked them were they aware of the Medicare trustees' report? They really were not.

Then I asked them: Do you know about the bipartisan entitlement commission work that was issued earlier this year? They had not even heard of that.

So the point I would like to make this morning to every citizen who may be listening is, in addition to listening to this debate, which is historic, on their own they ought to get a copy of the bipartisan entitlement commission report, which was chaired by Senator KERREY, a Democrat, and Senator DANFORTH, a Republican, appointed by President Clinton, and they should for themselves read the report, or scan it. Beyond listening to the debate going on back and forth, go get a copy of the report. It was issued early this year. Get a copy of the Medicare trustees' report for themselves and their family and look at what it says. That is not a political ad. That is not a political speech. That is just an objective statement about the condition of the financial affairs of the United States. Read it for yourselves. You can skip the ads. You can almost skip these debates, but just look at the documents themselves among your own family.

What does the bipartisan entitlement commission report say? It says that within 10 years, maybe 8, maybe 12, all U.S. resources are exhausted—all of our revenues, the vast revenues of the United States are exhausted—by just five expenditures.

The five expenditures are: Social Security, Medicare, Medicaid, Federal retirement, and the interest on our debt. And then there is nothing left. So we will not be arguing about the size of the Defense Department; there will not be one. And the debate that went on in the House about school lunches, we will not have to worry about that; there will not be enough to deal with it.

Five expenditures; nothing left. Social Security, Medicare, Medicaid, Federal retirement, and the interest on our debt, and it is all gone. That ought to be a wakeup call for anybody.

Now, the Medicare trustees' report came out in April. It says the first entitlement to run out is Medicare in 2001, 6 years and it is all over; there will not be any money to write a check. And then it goes on to say the Congress and the President need to take bold and corrective actions to make this program solvent.

The balanced budget that we will be dealing with in the next 3 to 4 weeks attacks all of these issues. It balanced the budget so it quits adding debt. That is a plus. It takes Medicare and tries to reconfigure it, save money, so that it stays solvent longer. That is a plus. It takes Medicaid and starts to restructure it and move it to the States so that it can be more efficiently run. That is a plus. It lowers taxes, which expands the economy, which makes it easier for us to deal with these problems. That is a plus.

Now, meanwhile, the President first said he was not going to give us a budget. Then he gave us a budget that was unbalanced as far as the eye could see. And then he said, "I'm going to give you a balanced budget. It will balance in 10 years." He has gone across the country saying that. And the Congressional Budget Office says that is phony, that that budget does not balance in 5 years, which he promised when he ran for President. It does not balance in 7 years, like the majority of this Congress is trying to do. And it does not balance in 10 years like he said it does. It is never balanced.

I do not think you have to be a math major to understand that if you just keep submitting budget after budget and it never balances, we are not going to solve these problems that these two reports have told America about.

Mr. President, in conclusion, let me just say that while these are sober messages and this is an important debate, we ought to remember that if the United States, this great democracy, this only superpower, takes control of its own finances and manages them, we will create unlimited opportunity for America as it comes into the new century. And we will start reaping the benefits very quickly.

We are going to lower interest rates because our budgets are balanced. That means every family that buys a car, borrows money to educate, or buys a refrigerator or new home saves money that they can use to carry out their mission in their own family. It means we are going to create millions of new jobs. And it means America is going to be strong when it comes into the new century, able to defend itself and its stature in the world and make this a more peaceful world and a more secure world for every son and daughter of America and the world itself.

Mr. President, we have everything to gain and everything to lose. And the decision about what this country is going to be as we get into the new century is going to be made on our watch. I like to tell Americans whenever I am speaking to them that they are sitting next to the American right now that is going to make the decision. We cannot pass this to another generation. We are going to make this decision.

If we do it right, we will have done what every generation of Americans has done, protected the great democracy and given it to the future with broader and greater opportunity.

Mr. President, I yield the floor.

Mr. GRAMS addressed the Chair.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator from Minnesota.

TAX CUTS

Mr. GRAMS. Mr. President, as an author of the $500 per child tax credit, I want to join other Republicans this morning and am very pleased to express my support for the Senate Finance Committee's tax-cut package. I want to congratulate the chairman of the Finance Committee, Senator ROTH, for keeping his pledge to fight for the entire $245 billion tax-cut package and also for making the $500 per child tax credit the centerpiece of the committee's plan.

This plan represents the true change that the American voters called for last November. Contrary to the long-standing belief inside the Washington beltway, tax dollars do not belong to the Government; they belong to the taxpayers. Cutting taxes is not some kind of reward to the American people; it is rightfully their money to keep.

Now, when I introduced the $500 per child tax credit as part of my Family First legislation in 1993, I had high expectations, but I never thought we would make so much progress so quickly. But then, again, I never counted on a revolution in 1994.

As we Americans know, revolutions do occur over tax policy. Just think of the Boston Tea Party, which paved the way toward the American Revolution, which was staged over a tax of just one-half of 1 percent. Now, that does not seem like much when it is compared to the President's $255 billion tax hike that we were fighting just 2 years ago, the largest tax increase in American history.

Then came November 1994, a second American revolution, which turned the Washington elite on their heads. With it, along with the dramatic change demanded by the voters, comes the opportunity to disprove the liberals' well-worn philosophy that your salary somehow belongs to the Government. With just one election the American people stopped this tax-and-spend trend in its tracks, and it reminded Washington to get off our backs and to get out of our back pockets.

By passing the $500 per child tax credit, the Senate will give nearly $500 million a year in tax relief to families in Minnesota every year. It will be $25 billion in tax relief for Americans across this country every year. And the benefits of this tax credit will be directed where it is needed most, and that is to the middle-class Minnesotans and all Americans who work hard, pay their bills, and finance the Federal Government with their tax dollars.

But most important, we will keep the promises we made to the American people. Minnesotans elected me to the Senate to balance the budget, reduce the size of Government, and to allow average working-class people to keep more of their hard-earned tax dollars. And the passage of the $500 per child tax credit is the best message that we can send that our promises will be kept.

While we still may need to work out all the details of this plan, we should all agree on the overall thrust of empowering people, not Government; rewarding taxpayers, not the bureaucrats; and take money out of Washington and leave it in the hands of the people who have earned it.

We cannot back down now. We must continue to push ahead in spite of the criticism that is aimed our way by the defenders of the status quo. They will try to chip away at this tax cut in an attempt to maintain the grip that they have held on your salary for the past 40 years. So I encourage my colleagues to resist these attacks, to be proud of our efforts to cut taxes, because it is the right thing to do.

Mr. President, I again commend Chairman ROTH and the majority leader for producing this tax package. I look forward to supporting a balanced budget and a $245 billion tax-cut plan here on the Senate floor. We can do both. We must. We will cut taxes and we will balance the budget this year.

Thank you very much. I yield the floor.

Mr. KYL addressed the Chair.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator from Arizona.

A BALANCED BUDGET

Mr. KYL. Mr. President, earlier this year the Congress had the opportunity to pass the balanced budget amendment and put an end to chronic budget deficits. As we know, the amendment failed by a single vote. A number of those who opposed it did so saying it was not needed, that Congress could balance the budget if only it had the courage and the will to do so.

Well, those of us who heard the message that the American people sent so loudly and clearly just about a year ago pledged that with or without the balanced budget amendment, we would work to balance the budget by the year 2002, just as we promised the American people last fall. Failing to address the budget problem not only threatens the economic well-being of generations to come, but also the ability of our Government today to respond to our needs.

The national debt now amounts to about $18,500 for every man, woman, and child in the country. In 1994, every American paid an average of about $800 in taxes just to pay the interest on the national accident. My new grandson, born just 5 months ago, can expect to pay $187,000 in his lifetime just to service the debt, just to pay the interest on the debt. I cannot look at him without thinking of that obligation, without thinking of our responsibility to every child like him where this Congress and the Congresses before us have run up the credit card debt and, in effect, as we leave the stage, we will be handing that to our children and our grandchildren. It is immoral, Mr. President.

The gross interest on the national debt will amount to nearly $300 billion this year. That is $300 billion of lost opportunity now, money that cannot be spent on health care or housing for the poor, nutrition, law enforcement, and defense—anything else. We cannot afford not to balance the budget given these realities.

A failure to balance the budget means condemning our children and grandchildren to a declining standard of living just because we are unwilling to pay our bills today.

Balancing the budget will not only pay dividends to future generations in that they will have less in taxes to service the debt and thus get more out of their Government for every dollar they pay, it will also pay dividends to our generation as well.

The Congressional Budget Office predicts that a balanced budget by the year 2002 would facilitate a reduction in long-term real interest rates of between 1 and 2 percent.

For business, a 2-percent interest rate reduction would result in lower investment costs, opening up new opportunities for job creation and business expansion.

A 2-percent reduction on a typical 30-year $80,000 mortgage would save homeowners $107 a month, that is $1,284 a year, or over $38,000 over the life of the mortgage.

A 2-percent reduction in interest rates on a 4-year $15,000 new car loan would save the car buyer $676.

A 2-percent reduction on a typical 10-year student loan for a 4-year private college would save students and their parents nearly $9,000 in interest costs, an 8.5-percent cost reduction.

Critics will not argue these points, but they are not willing to make the difficult choices to balance the budget either. They are avoiding their responsibility.

Frankly, as the Senator from Georgia pointed out a moment ago, President Clinton has no plan to balance the budget and, therefore, must accept key responsibility today. The CBO projects that the President's so-called balanced budget plan would result in $200 billion annual deficits for the foreseeable future. So that is not an alternative.

Let us put the Republican budget into perspective. This year, the Federal Government will spend about $1.59 trillion, a sum of money that none of us can really comprehend, Mr. President, but that is $1,590,000,000,000.

In 7 years, by the year 2002, we will be spending $1.88 trillion—$1,880,000,000,000 that is an additional $300 million, or an increase of 18 percent.

One of the areas of growth is Medicare. Even under the Republican budget, Medicare spending will rise from about $178 billion this year to $274 billion in the fiscal year 2002, that is an average increase of about 6.4 percent per year. Medicare spending will be 54 percent higher by the year 2002.

Mr. President, I was just informed before I came over to the floor that my office has begun receiving a lot of telephone calls from seniors who have received a bulletin from the AARP warning of a cut in Medicare. With all due respect to the people who prepared that bulletin, I think we need to assure the senior citizens of this country that that bulletin is wrong; that they need not be worried about a cut in Medicare because, as I just said, under the budget that is being criticized, Medicare spending will rise from $178 billion today to $274 billion 7 years from now. In other words, we will be spending 50 percent more in 7 years than we spend today.

Total Medicare spending will be $1.6 trillion over the next 7 years, 73 percent higher than what was spent over the previous 7 years. And on average, per beneficiary, Medicare spending will increase from about $4,800 per person this year to $6,700 by the year 2002. That is a $1,900 increase. I think that it is totally irresponsible for any organization to be scaring America's senior citizens, asserting that a $1,900 increase is a cut.

The money that we are spending on Medicare is a lot of money, but we believe it is necessary to care for our senior citizens. We also know that it is necessary to prevent the Medicare Program from going broke. The Republican budget will slow the growth in Medicare because the Medicare trustees have warned us that without doing so, the system will go broke.

But are we cutting the growth in Medicare in order to pay for tax cuts for the rich? No. Revenues in fiscal year 1996 are projected to be $1.4 trillion. By 2002, they will total $1.88 trillion. That is 34 percent more than this year. So revenues to the Federal Treasury are increasing, not declining. We are proposing that those revenues just not increase quite so much, just like we are proposing that spending just not increase by quite so much; that a tax cut is not reducing the revenues to the Federal Treasury. They are still going up by 34 percent.

Many in the opposition do not want to concede that Medicare spending constraint is needed because, frankly, they like big Government—the Government that chooses the doctors people see, the procedures that they perform. They do not want to see tax relief because it deprives them of the revenue to expand Government even further into our lives.

Let me conclude by talking for a moment about our proposed tax cuts. Tax relief is really the dividend we are giving the American people from the downsizing of the other parts of the Government: The $200 million reduction in the congressional budget, which the President has vetoed; elimination of the Commerce Department, which he threatens to veto; reforming welfare to get people back to work, to strengthen families and force deadbeat dads to pay support; and consolidate and eliminate other programs. So the tax relief is the dividend to the American people for Congress downsizing this Government.

Some oppose tax relief because they do not believe the American people can make better decisions on how to spend the money that they worked so hard to earn. The Republican Party puts faith in the American people and the States. I would not be rich but I would be wealthier than I am if I had a dollar for every time somebody on the other side of the aisle proclaimed that it was necessary for the Federal Government to make these decisions because we cannot trust the States.

Mr. President, you and I know it is a whole lot easier to influence directly the people at the State and local levels who are making the decisions than it is to get the Federal Government to slow down, to change direction and to begin moving in the right direction.

The opposition's bottom line is, support big Government. They do not want to see programs and agencies eliminated. But the bottom line is that the Government is the problem. As Bill Bennett, former Education Secretary said earlier this year in testimony before the Senate Budget Committee:

We have created a nanny state that takes too much from us in order to do too much for us. This has created inefficiency, sapped individual responsibility, and intruded on personal liberty.

Mr. President, I could not say it better. It is time for us to take a stand. Congress cannot duck its responsibility and neither can the President.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Under the previous order, the Senator from Tennessee has 15 minutes.

THE REPUBLICAN COMMITMENT TO THE AMERICAN PEOPLE

Mr. FRIST. Mr. President, I rise today to join my freshman Republican colleagues in discussing further the Republican commitment to the American people, initially made last year in the elections and carried through to today. We promised essentially four things: to balance the Federal budget, and to do that in 7 years; to end welfare as we know it; to save Medicare, to have the courage to save Medicare and, at the same time, as pointed out by my colleague from Arizona, to strengthen Medicare and preserve it for that next generation, and to not just put Band-Aids on a system that is literally hemorrhaging but to prepare that system and strengthen that system on into the next century; fourth, to reduce taxes in a way that provides relief to families with children, allowing them to keep some of the money they have earned in their own pockets, and to stimulate growth and generate jobs.

The bottom line is very clearly that the future of our Nation and the future of our children depends upon whether we have the courage to balance the budget, to save Medicare, to strengthen Medicare, to end welfare as we know it, and to give some degree of tax relief.

The current path of this country leads to uncontrolled Federal spending and borrowing, skyrocketing annual deficits—$200 to $300 billion by the year 2000 and even higher deficits thereafter. In fact, the deficit spending increases approximately $320,000 every minute, which means just in the short period of time that I have been talking, it has increased about a million dollars.

Our current path leads to another $1.2 trillion added to our national debt. It is unacceptable. It will bring, by the year 2000, that debt to about $6.7 trillion. Our current path, if we were to do nothing, leaves a Medicare Program that goes broke, a Medicaid Program that doubles in size, with no tax base that can support that.

Our current path, if we do nothing, leads to an enormous, unsustainable tax burden on young workers, on our children today, who will be forced to face an 82-percent tax burden over the course of their lives. Unless we do something, and do something courageously and aggressively, our current path will lead to the first generation of Americans in our history who have fewer opportunities than their parents.

What will happen if we balance the budget? The Senator from Arizona pointed out a number of interesting facts. Again, we have to face the truth. We have to return to see what the facts actually are. A lot of scare tactics are being used today—especially in the field of health care, against our seniors—which are in essence, I think, cruel. In that same debate, we have to come back to the facts of what can be accomplished, what the realities are today.

Similarly, by just balancing the budget, what are the facts? Economists calculate, again—everyone that has come through—that interest rates will fall incrementally by 1 to 2 percent once we balance the budget. The higher interest rate people pay today because of the debt means that people pay more for car loans, for mortgages, for credit card balances, and for equipment for their small businesses.

Thus, if we can balance the budget—and we need to do it within 7 years, again, with no phony numbers, but accurate numbers—we can do the following: lower interest rates, which to the average family will mean that they can save as much as $1,200 each year on a $75,000, 30-year mortgage. It means on the purchase of a car, say $15,000, over the life of that loan a family will be able to keep $1,000 additionally in their pocket to invest, put in their small business or to put in education. For a typical credit card balance of $1,800—which is what it is in this country—an individual or family will save $36 per year by just balancing the budget. Over the next 6 to 8 weeks, the blueprint will be out there. A family can save as much as $1,100 over the life of a loan on a small business or for a typical piece of farm equipment.

For business, lower interest rates will mean that businesses—by that, I mean small businesses—one- and two-person operations, as well as large businesses—will be able to grow because an investment will cost less. Profit margins will exist or be higher. Short-term loans will be less expensive. Inventories will cost less to store. Expansion will increase and innovation will be less costly.

By simply putting a blueprint out there in law over the next 6 to 8 weeks to balance the budget, we will also, in addition to allowing interest rates to come down, allow businesses to grow, new jobs to be created. And as businesses invest and grow and our Nation's output begins to rise, opportunities for every American will expand. According to recent studies, as many as 6 million new jobs—new jobs—will be created.

According to a well-known economic forecasting firm, if we balance the budget by the year 2002, the gross national product will be $170 billion higher than if we do nothing and we do not balance the budget. That represents, overall, a 2.5-percent increase in productivity for businesses. That translates down to an average family's standard of living being increased by about $1,000 a year.

What does it take? Courage. It takes us acting as elected representatives in a responsible way. The outcome of the budget battle will clearly determine in what direction our country will move for the remainder of this century, the next 6 years, but also well into the next. It will take the courage of each of us, the President of the United States, every Member of Congress, and every American citizen, to make sure that the direction we choose is the right one.

We will either have the courage to make tough choices, to face facts, so we can march into the future secure in the knowledge that the promise of America will be as bright for our children as it was for our parents.

The alternative is to sink deeper and deeper into debt, until the despair that many Americans now register in the polls will be justified. The President talks a lot about common ground today, but really what this country needs is common sense—common sense and the courage to carry out the blueprint.

Thank you, Mr. President.

Mr. SANTORUM addressed the Chair.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator from Pennsylvania is recognized.

THE MISSION BEFORE US

Mr. SANTORUM. Mr. President, I rise to join today with my freshman and sophomore colleagues to talk about the mission before us here in the next several weeks. We here in the Senate, and in the House, and the American public are now focused on the mission at hand, which is to try to balance this budget over the next 7 years and come up with a plan for reforming a number of areas of Government.

It is, I think, one of the most important times in our country's history, certainly from a financial standpoint and a long-term economic security standpoint. I think this debate is as important as the debate that occurred during the Great Depression when we were trying to right the ship of state and preserve a long-term future during that crisis.

We are at a similar crisis, I believe, in our country's time, with the mountains of debt that we continue to pile up, and, really, no end is in sight. The fact is that we have over half of our Government on automatic pilot, spending money without any idea of how much it is going to go up. We have projections that Medicare is going to go up 10 percent a year, Medicare 8 percent a year, whatever the case may be. But we do not know what it is. We add up the bills at the end of the year and that is what we pay out.

Can you imagine a family or a business saying, well, half of the money we spend, we have absolutely no idea what it is going to be at the end of the year because we promised people we were going to pay these things, and whether we have enough money or not, it does not matter because we promised we were going to pay it. That is the insanity we are in that causes the deficits to be at this level—now almost $5 trillion in the national debt.

We have an opportunity to do something about that now. It is really the first time since I have been in the Congress—I was in the House 4 years prior to coming to the Senate. This is the first chance I have had to seriously address the issue which, when I first got elected to the House of Representatives, I promised I would come down here and do—to do things differently, to put our fiscal house in order, to establish America—as many speakers here talked about the moral authority of a Government that lived within its means and understands that we cannot continue to tax and penalize and put through very difficult times, because of the excesses of today. I think we have that moral obligation to act from that perspective.

We also have an obligation, I think, a moral obligation, to act from the perspective that we promised. We promised back in 1994—and many of us who ran for office promised many times throughout our careers—we promised to come to Washington and seek to balance the budget.

It is not an easy thing to do. I think if it was easy, it would have been done a long time ago. It is difficult. I think the American public understands it is difficult. But we promised. We have a Contract With America that says we will balance the budget.

I think almost every Member on this side, and I know many Members on the other side when they ran for election talked about how crucial it was for the long-term future of this country to get our fiscal house in order and to balance the budget. We promised.

You can put up all the arguments, charts, and graphs and say we should do this because it will help future generations, we are going to do this because it will lower interest rates or it will create more economic growth, or we will get rid of wasteful programs or create more freedom and opportunity, we will reform the welfare system, we will save Medicare.

Those are all very good reasons to balance the budget. All very good reasons why we should act on the reconciliation package that will be coming up in the next several weeks. I have listed only a few. There are innumerable reasons why we should balance this budget. Possibly paramount among all of those is the fact that we promised.

One thing I have heard from people, whether it is Democrats or Republicans, liberals or conservatives, the reason they are so disgruntled with government, whether it is at the State or national level, is there is a lack of trust that people who get elected actually follow through with what they promised when they run their campaigns. There is a dislink. There is the politician the candidate, and then the politician the elected official. What one says during the campaign does not jive with what one does when they are elected to office.

We elect leaders of this country who promise all sorts of things and come down and do exactly the opposite. Then you ask people, how can you support someone who does that? Well, they all do it. It does not make any difference. They all say what they need to say to get elected. But they all do it. Why is he or she any worse than the rest? We can forgive that, I guess.

I think those days are gone. I do not think the public will forgive that any more. I do not think they should forgive it in the first place, and I hope they do not. I think the least people should expect out of their elected representatives is they keep their promises. We made 10 promises in a Contract With America. I think probably paramount of all those promises was to balance the budget.

Promises are important. If people do not have faith in their elected officials and institutions, that erosion of faith in support of our Government has very long-term consequences to the future and safety and freedom of this country.

This is a big one. This is not a little white promise, a little white lie that we will tell. This is a big one. This is a major promise that we made to the American public.

I heard a preacher the other day tell the story about this subject—not the balanced budget—but about the importance of that trust. He talked of a man who headed up a college, I believe it was in South Carolina, a Bible college.

His father had started this school, and all throughout his life growing up his dream was to succeed his father and run this school where people would have their avocation to become preachers and ministers. This was very important for him. He felt it was a calling from God to do this.

He did. He succeeded his father in that position and ran that college very, very well. Unfortunately, his wife of many years contracted Alzheimer's disease. Alzheimer's is a devastating disease that eventually deteriorates the mind to the point where a person is no longer able to take care of themselves and needs full-time care. This happened to this woman at a very young age, unfortunately. She did deteriorate to the point where she was simply not able to take care of herself and needed full-time care.

This husband, the man who had been called to run this college, this passion of his, decided to resign as president of the college, to take the time and spend the time to take care of his wife, who was a victim of Alzheimer's.

His friends and people on the board of the college came up to him and said:

Why are you doing this? She has Alzheimer's. She has no idea who you are. She has no idea who is taking care of her. Anyone can take care of her. Anyone can take care of her. You have a calling. You are serving the Lord. You are doing what you are good at. You may be the only one who can do this. How can you leave that to do something that anyone can do?

He said two things. First, he said: "She may not know who I am, but I know who she is and I promised her when we got married to be there until death do us part. I promised."

Promises mean something. Promises are important for relationships, for the future of this country, between its elected representatives and the people. We promised. Now it is time to deliver. I yield the floor.

Mr. DEWINE. Mr. President, I inquire of the Chair how much time is remaining on the time of the Senator from Wyoming?

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The time is 13 minutes 20 seconds.

RECONCILIATION

Mr. DEWINE. Mr. President, I want to congratulate my freshman colleagues who have been on the floor the last hour. I think they have brought to the floor today an understanding of what this national debate that is going on is all about and what the debate that we will be having for the next few weeks in this Chamber is all about.

It is appropriate that the freshman Members, myself included, are making this debate today as we have in the past, because we were the ones who came through the last election and listened to what the American people had to say, as, of course, all our colleagues did. In a sense, we were a little closer to that.

My colleagues who preceded me today have talked very eloquently. I think if I could summarize, I would say that what they have talked about is to try to give us real understanding about what this debate that we are engaging in this Congress is all about.

The term "reconciliation" may be a term that is not familiar to the American people today, but I suspect in the next 3 or 4 weeks it may become more familiar.

We are going to be talking about a lot of specifics that are contained in the reconciliation bill. We will talk about some provisions of this bill that, frankly, I may not like. I suspect there are few Members on this floor, if they were very candid, who would not point out a provision or two or more of the reconciliation bill that we will be considering that they may not like.

But, instead of focusing on the minutiae, I think it is important for us to step back, as we tried to do during this last 50 minutes of debate, and keep our eye on the ball and talk about the big picture and what is at stake.

My colleague from Pennsylvania, Senator SANTORUM, who just concluded, I think, said it very, very well when he talked about promises that were made. What are those promises? What were those promises? How will this Congress be judged? I think we will ultimately be judged on four things, the four big promises that were made.

First, to balance the budget; to do something that this Congress has not done since I was a senior at Miami University in Ohio in 1969—a long time ago, a quarter of a century—that is to balance the Federal budget, and to set us on the path so that we will, within that reasonable period of time of 7 years, have a balanced budget and do something we have not done for a quarter of a century and to make sure the figures are real, the promises kept.

Second, to save Medicare. I use the term save because, as my colleague from Tennessee, who is currently presiding, has very eloquently pointed out, that is what this debate about Medicare is really all about: to save it, to preserve it, to strengthen it.

Third, is to reform welfare. We passed a welfare bill. The House has passed one. We understand if we are really going to change the direction of this country, we have to first start with a change in welfare.

And the fourth: commitment. The fourth thing I think this Congress will be judged on is our commitment to have a modest tax cut—it is a modest tax cut—for working men and women in this country. So, I think it is important for us to truly keep our eye on the ball.

Let me conclude by saying the comments of my colleague from Tennessee I thought were most appropriate as was the chart that was displayed here a few moments ago. What these promises, once they are kept, will really do is to improve dramatically the quality of life for the average man, woman, and child—particularly child—in this country. Because, as he so eloquently pointed out, interest rates and other things that silently affect our ability to purchase a home, for a young, newly married couple to purchase a home, have their interests rates down, to have a newer car, a safer car, all of these will be affected by what we do with the Federal deficit. The quality of life of people who are struggling to get out of poverty will be affected by what we have done and will do in regard to true welfare reform.

I think sometimes we forget the big picture. Sometimes we spend a lot of time on this floor talking about individual bills, which we should, and what impact some small bill, relatively small bill, is going to have on individuals. Sometimes we forget what we do in regard to the big picture, what we do in regard to welfare reform, what we do in regard to a meaningful tax cut for working men and women, what we do in regard to balancing the budget, what we do in regard to saving Medicare. This big picture will affect, ultimately, the quality of life of our children much more than what we do on any individual program.

I again congratulate my colleagues, congratulate my friend and colleague from Tennessee, whose statistics and chart I think pointed that out very, very well. So, as we head into this debate and as we talk about the minutiae of reconciliation—I see my friend from New Mexico, the chairman of the Budget Committee, who is, obviously, going to be involved very much in that debate—I think it is important to keep our eye on the ball, keep our eye on the commitments, what we told the American people we were going to do, why we were coming to Washington. And, as we cast these tough and, frankly, very unpleasant votes we are going to have to cast in the weeks ahead, it is important for us to do that, to keep our eye on the ball and remember the big picture.

Remember, it is the big actions that we take in the four areas I have talked about that are going to impact the quality of life of our children and our grandchildren much more than any one particular bill, any one particular amendment, any one particular vote.

Mr. President, I yield the floor.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator from New Mexico.

Mr. DOMENICI. Mr. President, parliamentary inquiry. Is there any order that we have agreed upon? I do not want to impose if there is.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Senators can have up to 5 minutes. The Senator from Illinois has 45 minutes reserved, which he has not yet used.

Mr. DOMENICI. I wonder if we could complete our argument in about 6 or 7 minutes and then the Senator could have his time?

Mr. SIMON. I yield to my colleague from New Mexico, as I almost always do.

THE PRESIDENT'S BUDGET

Mr. DOMENICI. Mr. President, I am very, very proud of the Republican Senators who have taken to the floor today to talk about the most significant issue for the American people, all of the American people. I know some ask, on whose side are we? We are on everybody's side. Because if you do not get a balanced budget, sooner rather than later, you are probably never going to get one. And if you do not get one soon, you are literally giving away a legacy to the next generation and the next generation that could have been prosperity, economic gain, a better chance to take care of yourselves—you are giving that away by imposing a silent tax on all the young people, all the children yet unborn, where they will have to pay our debt.

You cannot escape it. Some say, what is this debt? This debt means that millions of people, banks, insurance companies, foreign countries, lent us money. We gave them a nice little promissory note, and we said: "Thank you for lending us the money. We will pay you back."

So we owe it—in fact, we owe part of it to the Social Security trust fund. Frankly, sooner or later, the bell will toll. And this is our last best chance to get a real balanced budget. When they ask who are they who are for it, a vision comes to my mind of a big American shopping center with people in the center from all walks of life. If you are in a shopping center in New Mexico, you will see a cowboy with cowboy boots, and you will see a dressed up, almost aristocratic person, and then you will see all ages, some with new T-shirts with their latest words on it of support for the Bulls or the Cavaliers or even the march.

All of those people—not one piece of them, all of them—anxiously expect that the U.S. Government will not let them and their children down as we promise them a decent life and, if they will work hard, a decent return and if we will do our job, that they expect a little better life with each passing decade.

Almost all of that is tied up in whether we get a balanced budget, Mr. President. And I thank you very much, I say to the Senator from Tennessee, for your comments of just how important to every day events a balanced budget is.

I wish to talk today about the President's budget, and I do not know if Members on the other side are up here in the Chamber defending the President's budget. I think we voted on his first budget, did we not, in the budget debate? And I do not think one Senator voted for it. We all forget that. Not one. I think every single Member including everyone on that side voted no.

Now the issue comes, since the President gave us a new budget about 3 months ago, how many on that side of the aisle would vote for it. I am going to try in about the next 5 or 6 minutes to convince the American people that none of them would, and that a great big hoax is being perpetrated on the American people by the President.

So let me start by saying to all of you if you do not have to cut anything because you have jimmied up the numbers, you can run across America beating up on the Republican budget. You can say I did not do that. I do not have to do that. You can say I wish to go slower. I do not want to change the programs that fast.

Let me remind you. The only way you can do that and have a balanced budget is to phony up the numbers.

Let me give you a little history. In the Reagan era, there became a rather famous asterisk which I think my friend, Senator SIMON, recalls, the Stockman asterisk. My memory is not precise; it was either $24 billion or $34 billion. It was sort of we don't know how we are going to get that last amount, but let's just put an asterisk there and say we will get it.

Now, friends, the President of the United States has a $475 billion asterisk. And it says I changed what the Congressional Budget Office says, the authenticator of the budget. In whose name and under whose power did the Congressional Budget Office become the authenticator of the budget? None other than the President of the United States.

Two years ago, in a State of the Union Message, he said the CBO was normally more conservative in what is really going to happen and closer to right. Why is it, I say to my good friend, Senator SIMON, who is advocating a balanced budget, who came down here talking about a constitutional amendment, why is it that the President of the United States decided 1 year after he admonished us to abandon the Congressional Budget Office and do what? Use his own numbers. You know he has experts. The Congressional Budget Office is the expert for everybody. He has an OMB. He has economic advisers, I say to my friend from Tennessee, and what he decided to do was to let them make the predictions for the future—make the predictions for the future.

The best I can tell you, fellow Senators and Americans, it is tough to explain, but I looked around for an explanation of what the President has done, and the best I could find is the former Congressional Budget Office Director. If he is not a Democrat, he is an independent but, indeed, he is independent and here is what he said about how this administration got to the balanced budget that they run across America now and say we are not like those bad Republicans because we do not have to do all those things.

Listen to a quote from the former Director, a very simple quote:

The administration conveniently lowered the bar and jumped over it.

The administration conveniently lowered the bar and jumped over it.

That means if the world record was 6 foot 6 on the high jump, and the Republicans had jumped it, the President comes along and what does he do? He lowers the bar and then jumps it. So he puts it down to 6 feet and he jumps it, and he said, lo and behold, I set the same record you did.

If the bar is the balanced budget and the President decides with his own experts to lower the bar and jump it, what does that tell us? Mr. President and fellow Senators and Americans, it tells us that the Congressional Budget Office is warning us that if you use the President's bar, the lowered bar, you will never get to balance.

I do not want to take a lot of time talking about the manipulation, the smoke and mirrors. In fact, it is so much smoke and mirrors I was trying to find a new word or new words to describe it, but I cannot. Somebody suggested the fog machine instead of smoke and mirrors. But let me just give you an example of what has happened.

I say to Senator SIMON, had your balanced budget constitutional amendment passed and the Senate had come together and said it is law now, let us have a balanced budget in 7 years, and we said let us listen to the Congressional Budget Office on how we should do it, and we did it, along comes the President and he says, "Whoa there. You do not have to do all that." In fact, he said in his second budget you can get there by doing $475 billion less. Got it. He lowered the bar $475 billion.

Let me tell you just precisely how he did that. I do not know if in his negotiations he lowered the bar a little bit at a time or just waited around until his own estimators lowered it all the way, but here is what he did.

First, Medicare spending will come down over 7 years by $55 billion. Got it. Fifth-five billion dollars less in Medicare savings, I say to the occupant of the chair. But he did not change anything about the program. He did not say this or that or the other. He just said it is going to cost less.

I ask for 3 additional minutes.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there objection? Without objection, it is so ordered.

Mr. DOMENICI. He merely said we have decided that Medicare will cost $55 billion less. Put it down. Take the bar down $55 billion. He did not change anything, did not reform anything, did not make it more solvent excepting that they came up with new numbers on what it would cost and disagreed with the Congressional Budget Office, which we were told to follow, which we think is closer to right over the last 14 years, especially long-term figures, much more accurate than Democrat or Republican executive branch estimates.

Medicare, the bar has been taken down by $55 billion. Now he comes along and says, do not worry so much about Medicaid because it, too, is going to come down, I say to the Senator from Illinois, on its own. You do not have to change anything. It is going to come down $68 billion. So he brought the bar down $68 billion.

He has not done anything yet, has not changed the program, has not reformed an entitlement, has not cut a single program of any type but now that is $68 billion. And then he looked out at the farm subsidy program, other pensions and the welfare programs and he said oh, even if we do not change anything, they are going to come down $85 billion.

Now the bar has come down $55 billion in Medicare without changing anything, $68 billion in Medicaid by wishing and hoping that it will not cost so much, $85 billion from farm pensions and others, and we are not there yet. Hold on—$70 billion from lower interest rates. And then, believe it or not, $175 billion because he assumes better economic assumptions, rosy economic assumptions. They will say they are small. The differences with the Congress are small. That one is $175 billion without changing anything.

When you add them up, $475 billion that we had to work at, to change programs, to say entitlements are coming down instead of going up, the President of the United States found them like a bird's nest on the ground by putting his team together and saying it really is not going to cost all that much to run our Government. So why do we not just change the numbers?

Now, let me suggest to everyone who takes the floor and says to the Republicans, "You should not be doing this, you should not be doing that," I ask them, are you following the President's blueprint in suggesting that we do not have to do that? If you are, you will be startled, and so will the American people, because if we did it your way, there would be no balanced budget come time that we commit it.

I ask unanimous consent for 1 additional minute. I will wrap it up now.

Mr. SIMON. I will be generous with my colleague.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

Mr. DOMENICI. I thank the Senator.

Let me say this is part of the reason that the U.S. Congressional Budget Office has said the President's budget never comes into balance.

But I think it is more serious than that. It is the real reason that the President can stop over here and there picking the issues and say, "The Republicans are cutting too much. We ought not have to do that. We can take a longer time to get it," when, as a matter of fact, if we did it his way, we would be inventing 475 billion dollars' worth of reductions that the experts say are probably not going to happen and running around and saying, "It doesn't matter which budget, they are both in balance." I submit that is not the case.

I yield the floor.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Under the previous order, the remaining time is under the control of the Senator from Illinois and the Senator from Iowa.

Mr. SIMON. I ask unanimous consent, Mr. President, since we originally agreed to 45 minutes, that the time be extended to 12:45.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there objection?

Without objection, it is so ordered.

STUDENT DIRECT LENDING

Mr. SIMON. Mr. President, Senator HARKIN and I are going to talk a little bit about direct lending and what is happening in the area of student aid. Here is an area where we can save real money. It is very interesting what happened when direct lending was under consideration. Sallie Mae, the student loan marketing association which we created—the chief executive officer of Sallie Mae, I say to the Presiding Officer and about to be Presiding Officer—they said that direct lending would cost the average school $219,000. Here is what they said in their letter of March 31, 1993.

As a result of our indepth visit with 10 schools, it is abundantly clear that direct lending will mean increased costs, additional personnel, and upfront investment.

This is Sallie Mae. They had big ads about what a great job they are doing. And they have done some good.

(Mr. ASHCROFT assumed the chair.)

Mr. SIMON. What is the experience now that we have had direct lending? The experience, Mr. President, is that it cuts redtape, it eliminates layers of bureaucracy—how many speeches have we made about that on the floor—uses competition and market forces, and is simple and consumer friendly, promotes accountability, is flexible, and provides education opportunity.

My colleague from Iowa went to Iowa State University. Instead of having the experience that Sallie Mae talked about, Iowa State University has been able to shift four people from student loans over to other fields, and they have canceled eight computers, at a savings of $200 each month. Less bureaucracy; direct lending.

Here is a student newspaper. "Direct Loan Ends Long Lines," from the Daily Egyptian of Southern Illinois University. The Milwaukee Journal, "Direct Student Loans Pay Off." The Chicago Sun Times, "Direct Loan Program Is Good Deal for All." The St. Louis Post-Dispatch—Mr. President, I know the Presiding Officer is familiar with that newspaper—"Loans Should Help Students, Not Bankers." The St. Louis Post-Dispatch is right.

"Student Loans: The Wrong Cuts, With This Vital Program Republicans Appear to Prefer a Wasteful Monopoly to Effective Competition." That is the Washington Monthly.

The University of Florida. Here is their experience in the first week of classes under the old program. They had $3.7 million in for students. Their first year under direct student lending, the first week they had $9.1 million. But this current year, $21 million in the first week. And it is similar in the other statistics here.

The University of Colorado in Boulder, under the old program, 3,068 loans disbursed; under the new program, the first year 4,800, the second year 6,500.

Here is a USA Today editorial: "Banks Cash In, Taxpayers Lose on Loan Program." And then it says in a subheading in this editorial in USA Today, "Congress in a sweet deal for the banks is on the verge of killing direct student loans."

We hear a lot about unfunded mandates around here. If we go ahead with the bill that came out of our committee, Mr. President, what we are saying to the banks and the guarantee agencies is, "You have an 80 percent monopoly, 20 percent will be limited for direct lending."

In my State of Illinois, because they have seen what a good program it is, over half the loans right now are direct loans. It is interesting that not a single college or university that has gone to direct lending is moving away from it; not a single one anywhere in the 50 States, including Missouri and Illinois.

Unfunded mandates? What we are doing is we are imposing costs on universities if we do not take that 20-percent cap off and permit choice—that is all I ask. I am not going along with the administration that says it ought to be 100 percent direct lending. I recognize that would save money. But let us give colleges and universities the choice. Let competition prevail.

What did we do in order to somehow make the old program, the guaranteed loan program, appear to be a money saver? Well, in the words of the Chicago Tribune editorial, "Cooking the books on student loans," that is what we did. We passed in the budget resolution a provision that said on the old guaranteed student loans, "You will not count administrative costs, while you will on the direct loans."

We asked CBO—and my colleague who is presiding, and I see my colleague from Michigan here—we asked CBO, "If you don't take this rigging that took place in the budget resolution, if you just put under the old law what we would save or what it would cost"—under the old Congressional Budget Act the cost of going to this 20-percent limitation would be $4.64 billion instead of a phony savings—I heard Senator DOMENICI talking about phonying up numbers. That is what we did in a major way in order to protect the banks and the guarantee agencies. I think we have to do what is right.

Our former colleague—and, Mr. President, you did not serve with him nor did the Senator from Michigan—but Senator David Durenberger said, "This is not the free market. It is a free lunch." He is talking about the old guaranteed student loan program.

Take a look at the numbers of Government personnel involved in the old program: 2,500 or more in the guarantee system, only about 500 under full direct lending. And this does not count college and university personnel. Every college and university says that a direct loan program reduces paperwork, reduces personnel demands. Just take a look at the personnel under the Federal Government and the guarantee agencies paid for by the Federal Government under the direct loan program and under the guaranteed loan program and add on top of this, Mr. President, the colleges and universities.

Now, why, if this is so obviously good, why are we having opposition? Why do we have this 20-percent limitation? The banks, my friends—and I am all for healthy banks; I have a house mortgage on my home in southern Illinois—the banks make more money on student loans than they do on house mortgages, on car loans, on any other enterprise other than on their credit cards. And they are interested.

And the guarantee agencies are interested. Take a look at what happens—forget all the other things—what happens on the collection of defaulted loans. Under the old program—Mr. President, I direct this to you because I know you are a fiscal conservative. Under the old program we want to guarantee 80 percent to the old programs. We say to these financial institutions, "You get 27 percent on defaulted loans for collection."

Take a look at what happens under the direct program. Instead of just giving people a monopoly, we put it out for competitive bidding. Do you know what it is turning out to be? Fourteen percent. You want to save money? Here are millions and millions of dollars that you can save.

Why are the guarantee agencies, which do not have—these are not stockholders. This is not private enterprise versus Government. It is Government versus Government. But the guarantee agency in Indiana, called USA Group—their CEO incidentally, Roy Nicholson's 1993 salary was $619,949, not too bad for an agency that does not have any private funds in it. We pay the President of the United States $200,000 a year. They are spending $750,000 to lobby against direct lending. This is just one group.

Let me tell you, this Guaranteed Student Loan Program was fine for its time, and I would say in fairness to these groups, they helped students when we were trying to find our way, but we certainly ought to do it the right way. I ask unanimous consent, Mr. President, to print in the RECORD a letter from the president, Dallas Martin, of the National Association of Student Financial Aid Administrators.

There being no objection, the letter was ordered to be printed in the RECORD, as follows:

OCTOBER 16, 1995.

Hon. PAUL SIMON,
U.S. Senate, Dirksen Senate Office Building,
Washington, DC.

DEAR SENATOR SIMON: On behalf of the National Association of Student Financial Aid Administrators (NASFAA) representing professional student aid administrators at over 3,100 postsecondary institutions across the nation, I am writing to strongly urge you to include in any floor amendment to the Reconciliation bill four provisions to benefit students and postsecondary institutions. We believe any amendment must include retention of the grace period for student loan borrowers; elimination of the .85 percent tax on annual school loan volume; allowing schools the choice to join in the Direct Loan Program without elimination of current participating institutions; and, retention of the current interest rate calculation and caps in the PLUS loan program. Each of these provisions is so critical for students and postsecondary institutions that NASFAA would seriously consider not supporting any amendment package that does not include each of these four provisions.

Retention of the grace period is important to ensure students do not have even greater loan debt as they begin their chosen careers. Depending on how much a student borrowed, elimination of the grace period would add up to $2,500 to their loan debt possibly leading students to alter career plans, default in greater numbers, or defer major life and consumer decisions for the future.

Every student in the country and every postsecondary institution would be affected by the .85 percent tax on a school's annual loan volume. If this fee is approved, postsecondary institutions would either cut their budgets in various areas leading to decreased academic or student services, or schools will pass this cost onto their enrolled students in the form of increased tuition or fees. This would be an unfortunate escalation of student costs imposed by Congress at a time when American families are already having difficulties financing postsecondary education.

NASFAA believes Congress should follow through on its earlier commitment to operate a Federal Direct Loan Program, along with the Federal Family Education Loan Program for a minimum five-year period. In 1993, when the William D. Ford Federal Direct Loan Program was authorized, institutions were assured this new program would operate for a minimum five-year period in order to determine whether such an approach might prove more cost-effective and efficient than the existing Federal Family Education Loan Program. For the first time in many years there is healthy competition occurring between the two Federal loan programs.

The quality of service being offered by both programs, however, is much better than it was with a single program, and students and institutions are being better served. Therefore, NASFAA supports inclusion in any amendment to the Reconciliation bill "plus demand" language to ensure postsecondary institutions have the freedom to choose the Direct Loan Program if that best serves the needs of its students. Under the committee-reported bill reducing loan volume to twenty percent, half of the current Direct Lending Program participants would be arbitrarily removed from that program. Further, the committee-reported bill would eliminate scores of schools from participating in the current award year since the legislation mandates a drop of Direct Loan Program volume to thirty percent in academic year 1995-96. This would not be a "minor inconvenience" to these postsecondary institutions that have invested heavily in changing operating procedures, hardware and software systems, and explanatory materials to students.

The cost of a PLUS loan could increase by as much as $5,000 unless this provision is stricken from the bill. This large increase could potentially lead to greater defaults in this program when combined with an increase in the PLUS loan cap or discourage parents from assuming their responsibility to pay for their children's postsecondary education expenses.

NASFAA is thankful for your leadership efforts to develop an amendment reducing the impact of cuts mandated by the Reconciliation bill. While we appreciate your efforts, again, NASFAA must strongly urge you to include in any amendment all of the above four elements benefiting students, families, and schools.

Sincerely,

DALLAS MARTIN,
President.

Mr. SIMON. Mr. President, they say what I think makes sense: Give people the choice. We are going to have an amendment to do precisely that.

Then, finally, Mr. President, the inspector general of the Department of Education testified that with these guarantee agencies who are handling Federal funds, we have $11 billion at risk. Indiana University, "What we have learned": Ninety percent less paperwork, this is under direct lending; 25 percent fewer errors, easier adjustments, faster disbursement.

Director of financial aid, University of Idaho:

On registration day, we had 46 percent more funds available for students who did not have to wait for the whole process. Every school that has gone with the direct loan program sees it as a simpler program for students. It saves taxpayers money and provides the students with more options.

Kay Jacks, director of financial aid, Colorado State University:

I can hardly talk about eliminating the direct lending program without crying. Students are happy, universities are happy. Why they want to cut it, I just don't get it.

Every college and university, I repeat, that has the direct lending program wants it to continue. Not a single one wants to back off.

It ought to be clear, Mr. President, that we ought to give colleges and universities choice, and when reconciliation comes up on the floor, there will be an amendment, I hope a bipartisan amendment, which will save money for taxpayers, save paperwork, give colleges and universities the choice. That is what it ought to be about.

One other not so minor point, Mr. President, under the old program, many, many students could not qualify. Under the changes we made when we first adopted this program, any student can qualify, including middle-income students. I hope we do the sensible thing.

I am pleased to yield the remainder of this time to my colleague from Iowa.

Mr. HARKIN addressed the Chair.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator from Iowa.

Mr. HARKIN. Mr. President, I thank Senator SIMON for his statement. I want to also thank him for being a great leader on direct lending all these years and especially the statement just made this morning.

I might differ one little bit from my friend and colleague from Illinois. I happened to have gone to college in the late fifties, and I remember a program came in under the Eisenhower administration. I did not have it my first couple years of college, but I had it in my last years of college, the National Defense Student Loan Program, a direct lending program. You went to the window and got your money.

I always thought it was a great program for a lot of reasons: You got your money right there. There was not a lot of hassle. It was right there at the school. And then when you got out of college, well, if you went in the military, you did not have to pay anything. No interest accrued on the loan during the time you were in college.

If you went in the military, no interest accrued during that time or if you went on to school after that. I am quite frank to admit that after college, I spent 5 years in the military and then 3 years in law school. I had a year's grace period after that. So no interest accrued for almost 9 years from the time I graduated from college.

For someone like me whose parents had no income at all—my father was on Social Security when I started college, very modest Social Security, we had no assets whatsoever—it was a godsend. So I always thought it was a great program.

Then we went to the guaranteed student loan program. Maybe it did work all right for a period of time. But, the banks, frankly, made a lot of money on that. Fine, good, that's their business. But why should we continue doing business as usual when we have a better way of doing it, and the better way of doing it is the direct lending program.

The Senator from Illinois started his comments by saying about how the long lines have dwindled. I always say one picture is worth a thousand words. This is at the University of Northern Iowa, one of our regent schools in Iowa. This is a picture last year before we had direct lending. This is the line for students to get their guaranteed student loans and get it processed. These are all the students that are having problems with their loans.

I was told the picture does not do it justice, because if you look back to the doorway, the line goes on down the hall. But you get the idea. There is a line of students waiting to get their guaranteed student loans. That was last year. They have now instituted direct lending.

Here is the same picture, same place, same financial aid office. No lines at all. No one waiting in line, and that has been the story at all of the schools in Iowa that have used direct lending. We have 38 Iowa schools right now. What I have heard from all of them is just positive comments about how the direct lending program is working. No lines, no hassle, students get their loans, and they are able to get about their business of studying.

Earlier the Senator from New Mexico was on the floor talking about the budget. We do have to bring our deficit down. No one is arguing about that. The Senator from Illinois has been a leader in the effort to reach a balanced budget and to get us moving toward a balanced budget. That is not the debate here. The debate is how we get there, out of whose hide do we take it? Who pays the most? Who sacrifices the most? That is the debate. I am sorry I have to disagree with my friend from New Mexico. He makes it seem as though the debate is whether or not we are going to have a balanced budget. That is not the debate. We all agree on the need to bring down the deficit. The debate is how, who pays, and what is the end result if one group pays more than the other.

I daresay that if we are going to take it out of the hides of our students, if we are going to make it tougher on middle-income and below-middle-income students to get a college education, then I daresay that our deficit will not come down, it will probably grow in the future. To get out of the debt we are in, we are going to need the best work force possible, the most motivated, and you are not going to get out of our debt situation, you are not going to lower our national debt by increasing the debt of students in college.

The Senator from Illinois—and, again, I commend him—has been a leader in this effort. I might also add, Mr. President, that Iowa State University, my alma mater, was one of the first 104 schools to participate in direct lending. Last spring, Earl Dowling, the financial aid director, testified at an oversight hearing on direct lending. He told the committee that ISU is running a larger loan program with fewer staff. That is not a bad deal. He has been involved in the administration and management of student financial aid programs for 23 years and said, "Direct lending is the first new program in those 23 years that was such a definite improvement over its predecessor."

The financial aid director for the University of Northern Iowa, Roland Carrillo, said that direct lending has been a "resounding success." He said, " there is no question that direct lending is the most efficient method of delivering financial aid dollars to students."

As the Senator from Illinois pointed out, in the collection of those loans later on, we pay less money under the direct loan program by putting out for competitive bids than we did under the old program. So, again, Mr. President, the direct lending program has worked. It is working well. The last thing we need to do is throw that overboard, in some kind of mistaken idea that somehow this is going to help reduce the deficit. Absolutely not. It is going to do just the opposite. I want to take most of my time, Mr. President, to talk about taxes and about the taxes that are being levied by the GOP's proposal that will be before us here in the so-called budget resolution. There is going to be a lot of talk about cutting taxes. I understand there is a big tax break in that bill. But what is not going to be talked about, and what I want to talk about, are the hidden taxes that are included in that reconciliation bill that will be before us.

As I said—and I will keep repeating the argument—the debate is not about reducing the deficit. It is, who pays and how much do they pay, and does it reach a good result in the end? It will be middle-class working families already pinched that will be asked to pay these new hidden taxes, stealth taxes. Most Americans will get less, but pay more, so that a few people on the top can get a tax break.

People ask me, Mr. President, to describe what is going on in Washington these days and I say it is not easy to explain it. When ideology gets ahead of common sense, when I see the agenda of these extremists, I have to say they have turned the Nike ad slogan on its head. You know, the ad that says, "just do it." I think the new motto for the GOP ought to be, "just undo it." Do not analyze, do not question, do not even have hearings, just undo it. Undo laws that give our seniors quality health care. Undo laws to protect workers on the job, and undo our Nation's commitment to quality education.

The GOP says provide more tax breaks for the wealthiest. Pump billions more into the Pentagon—$7 billion more than they asked for. Put education on the chopping block. To that, I say: We have been there, we have done that. We tried that in the 1980's, and it dug us into the biggest debt hole our Nation has ever been in. Let us use some common sense and cut down the spending for the Pentagon. Let us cut the waste, fraud, and abuse. Let us cut the tax breaks.

We do not need tax breaks now. I figured it out. It would be maybe a dollar a day, at the most, to people in the upper income brackets. I do not know what they are going to do with that—maybe buy another Big Mac and a Coke. You cannot even get that for a buck anymore. Maybe you can get a giant Coke. In downtown Washington, maybe you can get a cup of coffee. Maybe it will buy an extra cup of coffee a day. That means if we are going to have those tax breaks, we are going to have these hidden taxes on student loans.

The budget proposal cuts about $11 billion from student loans. This will result in increased student debt, a new direct tax on schools, elimination of the successful direct lending program, about which Senator SIMON spoke. The GOP plan adds an extra $700 to $2,500 of debt per student. How? By eliminating the interest subsidy during the 6-month grace period. People say, well, that is not a big deal, 6 months. Well, it is a big deal. When you are out of school and trying to find a job and jobs are hard to find, and maybe you want to get married and start raising a family, you bet it is a big deal. Well, you say maybe it is a little bit of a hit.

This is the seventh time, Mr. President, since 1981, we have increased the cost of student loan programs. It is always just a little bit, a little bit, and a little bit, until finally the straw breaks the camel's back. That is what is happening here. Not only is it more than just a little bit, what is worse about it is that the lower income the student, the higher their debt load. Why? Well, the poorer student borrows the most money, so they have the most debt. They get out of school and have to start paying interest during the grace period, and they have to start paying more money right away than higher income students. What kind of sense does that make? Well, also, the GOP plan adds up to $5,000 in additional costs for families who use the PLUS loan by raising interest rates, and a new Federal tax of 0.85 percent on colleges and universities participating. Well, they say that is not much. But it is a lot when you look at a college in my State of Iowa. Where are these colleges going to get it? They have to pass it on to students. The plan will also force at least half of the schools participating in the direct student loan program out by rolling back the successful program.

So we are going to hear a lot about tax breaks. How about the taxes that are in the GOP plan? Taxes on students, taxes on their families, taxes on the schools. All of it added together—you can say, this is a little bit here and here. But you add it all up, and it is a direct assault on higher education, a direct assault on middle and lower-income students having the ability to go to college, and to get ahead and to work and be productive members of society and help us reduce the deficit in our country.

Mr. President, I heard a comment a week or so ago in the committee about how students are going to have to sacrifice, too, because we have this big debt and we have to reduce the debt. As I said, we all want to reduce the debt. I think we ought to think about this and look at history a little bit. I know the occupant of the Chair heard me say this because he was in the committee when I said it. I will say it again because it needs repeating and repeating and repeating. Right now, our debt to gross national product is somewhere in the neighborhood of 70 to 75 percent. That is bad. I am not saying that is good. That is bad. It ought to be reduced. As our gross national product goes up, we have to start reducing that debt so that gap widens. Well, we had another period of time when our debt to gross national product was bad. That was after World War II. Our debt was actually greater than our gross national product.

Now, did President Truman and the Congress stick their heads in the sand and say, oh, my gosh, our debt is more than our gross national product, so we cannot afford student loans, to send kids to college? No. What they recognized was that the best way out of the debt situation was to send kids to school. So President Truman and the Congress passed the GI bill.

Now, I just might point out, in 1945 our debt was 122 percent of our gross national product. This year it is estimated to be 69.9 percent. I was close, 70 percent.

What happened, in 1945, our debt was 122 percent of gross national product. They passed the GI bill. Mr. President, this was not even a loan. They gave the money to them. They built housing all over America, sent the kids to school, and did not ask them to pay back a cent.

Did they pay us back? You bet they did.

Mr. SIMON. Would my colleague yield?

Mr. HARKIN. I am happy to yield to the Senator.

Mr. SIMON. I think the point is extremely important. The GI bill was a grant. If you were to take the average grant and put the inflation factor on it, today it would be a grant of $9,400—an incredible amount. There is not a school in Iowa or Illinois or any other State where students get that kind of a grant.

Let me point out one other little bit of history that I did not know. The immediate past national commander of the American Legion stopped in my office last week and he said in the old GI bill which we all—everyone looks back to and said what a great thing it was—the American Legion and the other veterans groups were in a fight. The other veterans groups wanted a cash bonus instead of the GI bill for education. The American Legion prevailed.

Ironically, we are going through the same fight today. Is it a cash bonus of tax reduction, or do we put the money into education?

We ought to learn from history. The lesson from history is that the Nation benefits when instead of a cash bonus we put the money invested in education.

I thank my colleague for yielding.

Mr. HARKIN. I thank the Senator from Illinois for pointing that out. That is a good lesson in history. I was unaware of that.

What the Senator said, if you took the GI bill, what they gave as a grant to those students to go to college, in today's dollars, it would be $9,400—a grant to go to college. I do not know of any grant program around that is anywhere near that. Pell grants are down to about $2,000, if I am not mistaken.

Mr. SIMON. Pell grants are about $2,400, and you have to be below a certain income level. Most students do not qualify.

The GI bill was available to everyone no matter what your income was. Of course, you had to be a veteran.

Mr. HARKIN. There were no income guidelines. They just gave the money to students to go to college.

I point out because it is interesting another little tidbit of history. These students went to college, got out. They made higher incomes—probably the greatest period of productivity, inventiveness, innovations, in our Nation's history and the world's history.

The debt in 1945 was 122 percent of our gross national product. By 1981, it had gone down to 33 percent—the lowest point that we had ever had. I think that is because we were riding on the shoulders of those GI's who went to school and got an education and produced this miracle of innovation and inventiveness in America.

I think if you look at what has happened since 1981, we have retreated and gone the other way in education. We are making it tougher. As I said, Mr. President, seven times since 1981 we have taken a hit on students, and made them pay more, make it more costly to go to college.

What is happening? Our national debt keeps getting bigger and bigger and bigger. I am not saying that is the only cause. There are a lot of other causes.

I will say this: Unless and until we invest upfront in education and in higher education and in making sure students can go to college and not be burdened with heavy debts themselves, unless and until we do that, we will never get out of our deficit situation.

I do not care what we do around here. You can cut programs, you can cut all the things the Government does, but if our productivity does not stay high, if we do not have the kind of high paying jobs that are going to take us into the next century, forget it. We will not work ourselves out of this debt.

Mr. President, I went to college under a direct loan program, as I said. I went up to the window, got a direct loan. I did not have to pay it back for about 9 years. I had the GI bill when I went to law school. I still had the GI bill available to go to law school. I did not have to pay it back. They just gave me money to go to school.

Well, I think it is time we learned from that. All I can say is I understand that the Speaker of the House also went to school under that kind of a program. All I can say, if it was good enough for the Speaker of the House, it ought to be good enough for students today. It was good enough for me, it ought to be good enough for students today, too.

Here is what is happening in Iowa with the student debt. Right now, this is a percentage of financial aid dollars awarded as loans out of the total financial aid grants and everything, percent as loans. Here at the University of Northern Iowa, at the top, it has gone from slightly over 40 percent to almost 60 percent. This is a regent school, not a private college. Here is Iowa State, which went from about 34 percent to 48 percent, my alma mater. That is from 1991 to 1995, not a long period of time, 3 to 4 years.

Here is the University of Iowa, which went from about 28 percent to about 38 percent—again in the last 4 years. So what has happened is that students are taking on bigger and bigger debt loads, all the time making it tougher for them to pay it back.

Now, it has another impact. Right now, indebtedness for a student graduating from the University of Iowa last spring is about $11,278; from Iowa State, $14,900; the University of Northern Iowa, $14,681. On average they pay about $170 per month for student loans.

You say that does not sound like much. Sure it does. You know what a starting salary for a secondary school teacher in Iowa is? About $18,000 a year. That $170 a month they are paying they could be using to buy a home, maybe even to buy a new car, to maybe get their lives going and start building our economy. But no, they be will saddled with more and more debt to pay for their education.

Grant aid has declined at our three universities in Iowa. It was 30 percent in 1990, and now is down to 25 percent.

Instead of creating more debt per student, why not go after the deadbeats who owe about $50 billion to the U.S. taxpayers in nontax debt? There is a lot of debt out there that people owe the Federal Government. I am not just talking students but a lot of people. We ought to go after those rather than hitting the students.

Finally, I just wanted to bring this to an end and close my remarks by showing what it means for an individual. The average loan on a per-student basis at the University of Northern Iowa, our smallest regent school in the State of Iowa, the average loan indebtedness, in 1992 was $2,589. Now it is $4,395 per student basis.

When they graduate, the indebtedness will be $14,641. But this is the average debt per student, per year at the University of Northern Iowa; not quite doubled, but pretty darned close to doubling in just the last 4 years.

So, yes, the debt of the United States is bad. We have to reduce our deficit and our total debt. We do want to reach a balanced budget. But the way the GOP is going about it with their reconciliation bill, especially how they are hitting students, is going to cause more debt in our country, less productivity, less ability for us to raise our gross national product and get out of this debt. It is almost as if the proponents of our reconciliation bill with all of the cuts they have, taking away the direct loans for students—it is almost like, "We are in debt, so let's go to debtors prison."

That is not the answer. The answer is to provide our people in this country with the wherewithal to earn more, make more, climb that ladder of opportunity and success, pay more when they earn more so more revenue comes into the Government, so we are able to make better products and sell better products and compete around the world. That is the way. That is the way out of the mess we are in. This GOP proposal, I must say in all frankness, is a "stick your head in the sand" approach to the deficit problems we have in America.

The Senator from Illinois has it exactly right. By keeping our commitment to direct student loans, we are saving a bundle of money. We are making it easier for students to go to college. Beyond that, we have to do whatever we can, I believe, to point out the hidden taxes in the GOP proposal: The taxes on students, the taxes on their parents, and the taxes on the schools. This is a direct hit at education in this country. All for what reason? To reduce the deficit? No. To pay for a big tax break that might amount to about a dollar a day, about a dollar a day for people in upper-income brackets. What a foolish waste of money.

If we want to use our money wisely, put it into education. I thank the Senator from Illinois for yielding me this time.

Mr. SIMON. Mr. President, in the 2 minutes that are remaining, let me just thank my colleague and underscore what he is saying. We face, really, the same choice we faced right after World War II. The Presiding Officer was not here when it was mentioned. The GI bill, which we look to now with so much pride, was a matter of great controversy. The American Legion wanted the GI bill. The other veterans groups wanted a cash bonus. And now we face the same question: A cash bonus in a tax reduction or investing money in education?

I am pleased the Senator from Iowa, along with the Senator from Washington, are among those who voted for a balanced budget constitutional amendment. Our experience with legislative efforts is they last about 2 years and then there is too much political drag.

The particular difficulty of this approach right now, with the tax cut, is without a constitutional amendment, basically the budget amendment that we adopted—and in the Budget Committee, I voted along with the Senator from Washington for that goal of balancing in 7 years—but it is like a New Year's resolution on a diet. Only we are going to start the diet with a great big dessert called the tax cut.

What we are saying here is, let us see if we cannot get bipartisan agreement to reduce that dessert just a little bit. Let us take $10 billion of that dessert and put it into education. And we are going to have a much better country if we do it. That should not be a partisan thing. We ought to be able to agree on that across the aisle and I hope we can work something out on that line.

Mr. HARKIN. If I might just ask the Senator from Illinois, all this talk about these tax cuts—what the heck, I will be honest about it, I have friends who make over $100,000 a year, because the Senator from Illinois is a friend of mine. We are paid more than that every year, the Senators. But I have friends who make more than $100,000 a year. I will be frank about it. I have not had one person come to me and say they need a tax break; not one.

I would ask the Senator from Illinois, has he had anyone coming to him begging for tax breaks?

Mr. SIMON. I share that experience, including people who make many times what the Senator and I make, who tell us this really does not make sense.

Mr. HARKIN. It does not make sense. Mr. SIMON. I commend our colleague, Senator FEINGOLD from Wisconsin, for leading a fight on this. We are going to have an amendment on this on the floor. I hope sounder heads will prevail.

We all love to hand goodies out. But this is a time for restraint and not handing goodies out, and certainly not taking back from educational opportunity.

Mr. President, I see I am getting a signal up there our time is expired. I thank my colleague from Iowa again.

ABSENCE OF SENATOR MIKULSKI

Mr. SARBANES. Mr. President, as many of my colleagues know, our colleague, Senator BARBARA MIKULSKI, was robbed Sunday evening in front of her home in Fells Point in Baltimore. She was knocked to the ground in the course of this robbery and injured her hand. We expect she will be back tomorrow, and she asked that I share with our colleagues this statement of hers:

I regret that I will be necessarily absent today, as I recuperate from Sunday's unfortunate experience. While I share the pain and anger of other victims of this type of crime, I have been heartened by the many good wishes I received from my friends and colleagues. I look forward to returning to duty tomorrow.

I know my colleagues look forward to having her return to duty tomorrow, and I know they join me in wishing Senator MIKULSKI a very speedy recovery.

I thank the Chair and yield the floor.

CUBAN LIBERTY AND DEMOCRATIC SOLIDARITY [LIBERTAD] ACT OF 1995

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Under the previous order, the Senate will now resume consideration of H.R. 927, which the clerk will report.

The legislative clerk read as follows:

A bill (H.R. 927) to seek international sanctions against the Castro government in Cuba, to plan for support of a transition Government leading to a democratically elected Government in Cuba, and for other purposes.

The Senate resumed consideration of the bill.

Dole amendment No. 2898, in the nature of a substitute.

Ashcroft amendment No. 2915 (to amendment No. 2898), to express the sense of the Senate regarding consideration of a constitutional amendment to limit congressional terms.

Ashcroft amendment No. 2916 (to amendment No. 2915), to express the sense of the Senate regarding consideration of a constitutional amendment to limit congressional terms.

Mr. ASHCROFT. Mr. President, I observe the absence of a quorum.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The absence of a quorum has been noted. The clerk will call the roll.

The legislative clerk proceeded to call the roll.

Mr. BRYAN. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that further proceedings under the quorum call be dispensed with.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

Mr. BRYAN. Mr. President, I would like to move to morning business for the purpose of giving a statement of about 7 or 8 minutes. I would ask unanimous consent that I might speak as in morning business for a period not to exceed 8 minutes.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there objection?

Without objection, it is so ordered. The Senator from Nevada is recognized.

Mr. BRYAN. Again, I thank the Chair.

HIGH-LEVEL NUCLEAR WASTE

Mr. BRYAN. Mr. President, I want to bring to the attention of my colleagues an issue of great importance to Nevada, but should be of concern to those from other States as well.

Mr. President, for 13 years, since 1982, Nevada has been the prime target of the nuclear power industry for the disposal of its high level commercial nuclear waste.

In spite of the fact that Nevada has no nuclear reactors, commercial or otherwise, and never benefited from nuclear power, Nevada has been identified by the nuclear power special interest lobby as its chosen site for the disposal of one of the most poisonous, dangerous substances known to mankind.

Since 1987, as the result of a back-room deal reached during the deliberations of a conference committee, Yucca Mountain, 90 miles northwest of Nevada, has been the sole site being studied by the Federal Government for a high-level nuclear waste dump.

As many of my colleagues are aware, the repository program has been a dismal failure.

Despite the expenditure of nearly $5 billion, a repository is no closer to being built today than it was in 1982, when the original Nuclear Waste Policy Act was passed by Congress.

Faced with the failure of the permanent repository program, and frustrated by the Federal Government's obvious inability to accept nuclear waste from commercial reactors anytime near the originally planned 1998 deadline, the nuclear power industry and its advocates decided to initiate another, even more dangerous, assault on Nevada.

Raising the specter of widespread shutdowns of nuclear power reactors across the Nation, and demanding adherence to the obviously impossible 1998 deadline, the nuclear power industry now demands that the Federal Government immediately build so-called interim storage facilities at the Nevada test site.

This new attack on the health and safety of Nevadans is coming at us from all angles.

Numerous bills have been introduced in the House and Senate to target Nevada for interim storage—all written by the nuclear power industry, and all fiercely opposed by Nevada's Governor and congressional delegation, and the vast majority of Nevadans.

At the same time, we face the prospect of another back room deal on a conference report singling Nevada out for a dump it wants no part of.

In spite of the fact that neither the House or Senate energy and water appropriations bills would allow interim storage to be constructed in Nevada, by all indications, the conference report may target Nevada as the sole site for interim storage.

Mr. President, nothing could be less fair to the citizens of my State and I, and the rest of the Nevada congressional delegation, will do everything possible to see that this provision does not pass.

Mr. President, as you may expect, we in Nevada fear that should a nuclear waste dump of any type ever be built in our State, the health and safety of Nevadans will be severely threatened.

With 16,000 shipments of highly toxic waste arriving from across the Nation, the potential for a catastrophic accident near Las Vegas, a community of 1 million residents, is enormous.

Mr. President, while Nevada faces the greatest risk, and is at the most peril should the nuclear power industry get its way with Congress, every Senator should take a careful look at exactly what is being proposed.

As citizens across the Nation are slowly beginning to realize, the nuclear power industry is proposing to ship, at the earliest date possible, an unprecedented volume of shipments of extremely poisonous, highly toxic high level nuclear waste—over 16,000 shipments across 43 States, by both rail and truck.

Mr. President, I invite my colleagues' attention to the proposed shipment routes. Each Senator will note that his or her State may be a candidate for this massive shipment with all the risks that are here by way of accident or other unforeseen consequence. Even though the plan sadly targets Nevada out here as the ultimate repository, it will pass through the States of most of my colleagues. I emphasize that they too and their constituents are at risk, as are my constituents.

Mr. President, my colleagues should look closely at this map, because this map shows the likely routes for the transportation of high-level waste in the very near future.

As I pointed out a moment ago, nearly every State would be effected.

The nuclear power industry, of course, is quick to claim that we have nothing to worry about, that nuclear waste transport is perfectly safe.

Mr. President, I doubt many of my constituents, or those of other Members, would put much faith in the nuclear power industry's assertions.

Quite simply, accidents do happen. While only a relative few make the national news, the United States has nearly 1,500 rail derailments a year.

Heavy truck accidents occur approximately six times for each million miles traveled which, if applied to the thousands of truck shipments under the nuclear power industry's plan, would result in at least 15 truck accidents involving nuclear waste each and every year.

The events of the past week raise even more frightening possibilities. In addition to the potential for accidents, nuclear waste shipments could become prime targets for acts of sabotage or terrorism.

Monday's sabotage of the Sunset Limited near Hyder, AZ, is a stark reminder of the dangers we face from criminals and terrorists every day. In a matter of minutes, those responsible for the Sunset Limited wreck created a derailment which took the life of one passenger, and injured numerous others.

From the reports that I have read, Mr. President, that sabotage took approximately 10 minutes to effect.

In an ironic twist, this week's act of sabotage appears to be a copycat of the August, 1939 derailment near Harney, NV, that killed 24 passengers.

The simple fact is that no one, not the nuclear power industry, not the Department of Energy, and not the Nuclear Regulatory Commission, no one can guarantee the safety of the transportation of nuclear waste.

Sound public policy dictates a cautious approach to the transport of such hazardous materials. They should only be moved if absolutely necessary. This is simply not the case with nuclear waste.

Nuclear waste is currently stored on-site, at the 109 nuclear power reactors in the United States—80 percent of them east of the Mississippi River.

These sites, of necessity, will remain storage facilities for nuclear materials at least as long as the reactor continues to operate—several decades, if not longer. Technology Mr. President, currently exists—dry cask storage—that is licensed by the Nuclear Regulatory Commission and available for utilities to purchase if they need additional storage.

Numerous utilities have taken advantage of this technology, and have moved to dry cask storage. Outside of the local political problems many reactors face when they try to increase storage, there is simply no reason any utility needing additional storage could not do the same.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Chair would advise the Senator that his 8 minutes has expired.

Mr. BRYAN. Mr. President, I would like to ask unanimous consent for an additional 2 minutes.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

Mr. BRYAN. I thank again the Chair for his courtesy.

Mr. President, the point I would seek to make this afternoon is this is not just a Nevada issue. Look at the map. Forty-three States are affected by these proposed nuclear waste shipment proposals. And each State bears a risk of an accident or an act of sabotage, an act of terrorism with all of the frightening consequences that brings to bear on those States and the constituents of those States being represented here in the U.S. Senate.

The plans being advanced by the nuclear power industry threaten the health and safety of citizens across the Nation, for no good reason.

The crisis mentality generated by nuclear power industry propaganda is nothing new. In the early 1980's, advocates for the nuclear power industry argued on the Senate floor, and elsewhere, that unless some away-from-reactor plan called AFR storage was provided by the Federal Government soon, reactors across the Nation would shut down, creating an electricity crisis for millions of Americans. Of course, no reactors have ever shut down for lack of storage, and there is no crisis. The same is true today.

Mr. President, the reality is that the nuclear power industry is a dying industry. No new reactors have been ordered for over a decade, not because of lack of storage, but because nuclear power is simply not competitive in the marketplace. In an ill-founded and irresponsible attempt to jump-start a dying industry, nuclear utilities have advanced a proposal that places the population of 43 States at risk, all for the benefit of the bottom line of the commercial nuclear power industry.

I urge my colleagues to reject the nuclear power industry's interim storage proposal.

Mr. President, I yield the floor.

Mr. ASHCROFT addressed the Chair.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator from Missouri.

CUBAN LIBERTY AND DEMOCRATIC SOLIDARITY [LIBERTAD] ACT OF 1995

The Senate continued with the consideration of the bill.

AMENDMENT NO. 2916, AS MODIFIED

Mr. ASHCROFT. Mr. President, I send a modification of my second-degree amendment to the desk.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, the amendment is so modified.

The amendment, as modified, is as follows:

Strike all after the word "SEC. ." and insert the following:

SENSE OF THE SENATE REGARDING CONSIDERATION OF A CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT TO LIMIT CONGRESSIONAL TERMS.

It is the sense of the Senate that the United States Senate should pass a constitutional amendment limiting the number of terms Members of Congress can serve.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator from Missouri.

Mr. ASHCROFT. Mr. President, I offer this amendment to clarify the sense of the Senate that would be expressed, and the amendment makes very clear the simplicity of this sense-of-the-Senate resolution.

The sense-of-the-Senate resolution would read as follows:

It is the sense of the Senate that the U.S. Senate should pass a constitutional amendment limiting the number of terms Members of Congress can serve.

I think that is a straightforward statement of the intention and sentiment which I believe the American people have as their agenda for reform, and I believe we should advance that agenda of reform in accordance with their clear mandate last fall.

Mr. President, I yield the floor and suggest the absence of a quorum.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The clerk will call the roll.

The legislative clerk proceeded to call the roll.

Mr. GORTON. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the order for the quorum call be dispensed with.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

Mr. GORTON. Mr. President, what is the pending business?

The PRESIDING OFFICER. H.R. 927 is the pending business.

Mr. GORTON. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that I may proceed for not to exceed 10 minutes as in morning business.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered. The pending business, H.R. 927, is set aside and the Senator is recognized for 10 minutes to proceed as in morning business.

ECONOMIC ASSUMPTIONS

Mr. GORTON. Mr. President, one habit or custom that the President and I have in common is that we are runners—I know I can say in my case, I believe in his case, not particularly gifted or particularly fast, but nonetheless we are runners as a method of keeping in good physical condition. I believe that the President, as I have, has on some occasions run in these rather large races where there are a large number of people and one tests oneself against the clock.

We always will attempt to beat our previous best time in a given race, but at least in this connection, we never attempt to do so by saying, "Gosh, I just can't break 45 minutes for 10 kilometers, so I'll shorten the race. I'll shorten it to 8 kilometers, but I'll call it 10, and then I will have broken 45 minutes."

The President of the United States would not consider doing that in a road race, but that is precisely what he has done with respect to our dispute over a balanced budget.

Shortly after Mr. Clinton took the Office of the Presidency of the United States, he sought to lay to rest a dispute, which the Presiding Officer will remember, as I do, over economic assumptions. Through all of the Reagan administration and all of the Bush administration, we on this side of the aisle were criticized for using assumptions about the future state of the economy that were too optimistic, too rosy and, thereby, underestimating the challenge presented to us by continuing huge deficits in the budget of the United States.

Almost without exception, those budget assumptions in the Reagan and Bush administrations presented by the administrations were more optimistic than those presented to us by the Congressional Budget Office.

So President Clinton, on taking office, said, "Let's end this dispute. Let's all agree that in the past, the Congressional Budget Office has been both more cautious and more conservative and more accurate and we will debate substance in the future. We will all work off the same set of projections. We will all work out of the same books."

I think everyone, both Republicans and Democrats, took that as a statement of good faith and a significant step forward, because the motivation to overestimate growth in the economy on the part of an administration and, thus, to make its budgeting job easier is not limited either to Republicans or Democrats. There is always an easy way out.

Unfortunately, Mr. President, when push came to shove, the President abandoned that salutary way of making estimates and has gone back into exactly what he criticized his predecessors for—estimating or projecting his way out of difficulties. And so while this Congress, both in the Senate and in the House, has accepted without reservation the economic projections of the Congressional Budget Office and has proposed to balance the budget within 7 years, under the rules which the Congressional Budget Office has set out, as difficult as they are and although as a consequence we, in order to bring the budget into balance, have been forced to propose relatively drastic changes in policies which would reduce the growth of spending in the United States across the broad spectrum of all of the items which the Government of the United States funds, we find a President saying, well, there is not really much difference between us. The President says: I want to take a little longer, 9 or 10 years to balance the budget, while the Republicans want to do it in 7. We can easily reach an agreement or an accommodation on those two goals, they are so close to one another.

But the President gets there by cooking the books. He gets there by abandoning his commitment of 1993 and doing exactly what he criticized others for doing and getting more than 50 percent of the way to a balanced budget simply by saying, "I do not think we are going to spend as much as the Congressional Budget Office says. I think interest rates are going to be lower, and I believe that the tax system will take in more money." It amounts to a tremendous amount of dollars, Mr. President.

President Clinton simply estimates $55 billion more in Medicare spending savings, without changing Medicare at all; he estimates that Medicare will cost $68 billion less; he estimates that farm programs, pension programs, and other welfare programs, will cost $85 billion less; he estimates that we will save $70 billion more in interest costs because interest rates will be lower; and he estimates that we will take in $175 billion more because the economy will grow more rapidly, for a net of $475 billion between now and the year 2002—a trillion dollars over the next 10 years, Mr. President.

Well, he could just as easily have made these estimates a little bit more optimistic and we would not have any deficit problem at all. It would go away without doing anything.

That is the great difference in the debate which we are about to begin. Are you willing to look realistically at the future of our economy and the growth in our spending programs and do something about them as a matter of substance? Or, on the other hand, Mr. President, do you just say times are going to be good, the problem will go away by itself? That is the difference.

Well, if the experience of the last 15 years holds true, the problem will not go away by itself. We need to begin from a common basis. The President is simply wrong in overestimating the strength of the economy and telling the American people that no sacrifices are needed, no changes in policies are needed. All we need to do is reestimate the economy and everything comes up smelling like roses.

Now, Mr. President, I started speaking about 10 kilometer versus 8 kilometer races. I must admit that there is one difference, one with respect to that analogy, that does not work. Neither of us, those of us who depend conservatively on the Congressional Budget Office nor the President, can be precisely certain that that side is correct. Economic projections are notoriously difficult to make even a year in advance, much less 7 years in advance. And we must admit that it is clearly possible that the President might be right in spite of the experience of the last 15 years, just as he, I suspect, if he were forced to answer the question, might be willing to admit that perhaps he is wrong and that the Congressional Budget Office projections are better.

But what are the contrasting consequences of being wrong in this case,

Mr. President? Well, if President Clinton is wrong and we are correct, the budget deficit will never be less than $200 billion a year. In the next decade, another $2 trillion will be added to the burden of debt imposed on the people of the United States, money which we spend, the bills which we send to our children and to our grandchildren. That would be the consequence, Mr. President, of President Clinton being in error. The problem of the budget will never have been addressed if we accept his policies.

By contrast, Mr. President, what would the consequences be if we are wrong, if we are too conservative, too cautious, and if in fact the economy does grow as rapidly as the President predicts in his easy-does-it budget? Well, Mr. President, the budget might be balanced in the year 1999 or 2000 rather than in 2002. Is that a horrendous consequence? No, Mr. President, that is exactly the goal we seek with our conservative projections and with the very real policy changes we propose. We only claim we will get to balance by the year 2002. But even that claim carried out by changes in policies will, from the perspective of almost every economist, itself build a stronger and better economy, provide more opportunities for generations looking for those opportunities in the future, lower interest rates, lessen the burdens of Government on not only this generation but the next generation and the generation after that. And if we do better than we thought, that burden will be even lighter and we will get rid of the deficit even earlier.

So if we are wrong and too cautious, we reach the goal all of us share more quickly. If President Clinton is wrong, we never reach that goal at all, and we continue to add to the burden of debt on our children and on our grandchildren.

Mr. President, both from a policy standpoint and from the point of view of having an intelligent debate, the rights and wrongs of which the American people can understand, and from the moral point of view of bringing to an end this huge addition to the burden of debt on future generations, we must and we should agree on the starting point, on the projections we are going to use. What better way in which to start that part of the debate, Mr. President, can there be than to have President Clinton keep the commitment that he made 2½ short years ago.

We are not going to debate the projections. We will take the projections of the neutral objective Congressional Budget Office and work our debate. We will work our debate off of them.

If we do that, we will see clearly how necessary the budget is that we have already passed, the reconciliation bill which we will debate in the next 2 or 3 weeks in order to enforce it.

Mr. President, we should start from a common ground and make that common ground the ground the President of the United States himself stood on 2½ short years ago. We should not try to shorten the race and pretend we are running faster.

Mr. SPECTER. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent I may proceed for up to 10 minutes as in morning business.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY, HILDA SPECTER MORGENSTERN

Mr. SPECTER. Mr. President, permit me a personal moment or two on the floor of the U.S. Senate and in the CONGRESSIONAL RECORD to comment on my own family values on the occasion of the 74th birthday of my sister, Hilda Specter Morgenstern. It is a major occasion for our family because Hilda is the first member of the Specter family to reach a 74th birthday. My father died at 72, my mother and brother, Morton, at 73.

An excellent indicator of family values is longevity of marriage, and I speak with great pride about the Specter family on that subject.

My parents, Harry and Lillie Specter, were married 45 years before my father's death in 1964. My brother, Morton, and his wife, Joyce, were married 51 years before his death in 1993. My sister, Hilda, and her husband, Arthur, have been married 52 years. My sister, Shirley, and her husband, Dr. Edwin Kety, were married 46 years before his death last August. Joan and I celebrated our 42d anniversary last June 14. That is a total of 236 years without a divorce.

On Sunday last, October 15, 1995, Hilda Specter Morgenstern celebrated her 74th birthday with her husband, her four children, and most of her 9 grandchildren in Teaneck, NJ, on a visit from her home in Jerusalem.

A beautiful redhead, Hilda married Arthur Morgenstern after they met in the synagogue at Rosh Hashanah services in Wichita, KS, in 1942, while Arthur was in the cavalry at Fort Riley, KS. She was a straight "A" student and a real academic inspiration for me. When she saw my report card in the seventh grade, my first testing with A's and B's, she scoffed at my one A and seven B's and offered a dollar for every "A" I got thereafter. When I graduated from college, she and Arthur handed me a check for $266.

Hilda Specter was an honor student and an excellent debater at the University of Wichita where she was a member of the prestigious Association of American University Women. She was studying for her masters degree at Syracuse University in the spring of 1942 when Arthur received his orders to embark to the South Pacific as an Army artillery officer. After a coast-to-coast train ride to San Francisco, they married. Their wartime romance gave them only a weekend together before he sailed for a 31-month tour of duty in the South Pacific.

After the war, Hilda, Arthur, and their family of four children lived in Russell, KS, without the benefit of a Jewish education, so they moved to Wichita where Hilda became super-intendent to the Hebrew school. When they found the Jewish education there insufficient, they moved to Denver. When that proved insufficient, they moved to New York City. When that was not enough, they moved to Jerusalem where Hilda and Arthur now reside—except for periodic visits to the United States to help in my many campaigns.

Hilda Specter Morgenstern is a model wife, mother, grandmother, and great-grandmother. She is a real matriarch of the family. She tackles with equal ease an analysis of the ABM Treaty to help me in my Senate duties, or the change of diapers for her new, great-grandson.

I have urged her to follow the model of Golda Meir, the Milwaukee-born American, who later became Prime Minister of Israel. Hilda responded by telling me to become President of the United States first.

Happy 74th birthday, Hilda.

IN HONOR OF MORTON SPECTER

Mr. SPECTER. Mr. President, 2 days from today, on October 19, 1993, the second anniversary will be marked of the passing of my brother, Morton Specter, an honest, hard-working American who paid more than enough taxes to be memorialized in a brief statement in the CONGRESSIONAL RECORD.

I now ask unanimous consent to have printed in the CONGRESSIONAL RECORD the eulogy which I delivered at his funeral in October 1993.

There being no objection, the material was ordered to be printed in the RECORD, as follows:

Ours is a very close family, so Morton's passing came as a real shock—not that it was totally unexpected because he had many medical problems—but perhaps a family is never really prepared for the finality of it all.

The words "family value" were never used in the Specter household. It wasn't necessary because we had them without talking about them. They evolved naturally from the example of our parents who struggled to achieve for their children what they never had—education and opportunity. As the oldest of four children, Morton set the example for Hilda, Shirley, and me. None of us would even consider doing less than our best or doing anything to embarrass our parents, considering their sacrifices.

The 1920's Depression left its mark on Morton at the tender age of ten. From his earliest days, he was a tireless worker—the hardest worker I've ever seen. At 11 or 12, he rode his bicycle on the streets of Wichita delivering bills of lading to railroad offices for Beyer Grain Co. As a teenager, he would go after dark to the golf courses, and wade the lakes to find golf balls which he would make sparkling white with peroxide bleach and sell in downtown office buildings.

When he wanted to get a job to earn money right after high school, my father talked him into going to Wichita U. for one year which turned into four and a college degree. In college he boxed, careful to protect his strikingly handsome face, and acted in the school plays. He made a short trip to Hollywood when he was 19 or 20—hoping, I think to meet—or maybe even to become another Robert Taylor.

During World War II he answered the call of his country and went to Officers Candidate School and became an Ensign. We talked about reading the text books at that school after lights were out with a flashlight under his blanket.

After the war, he sold magazines door to door. His crew chief Walter Lewis said he covered twice as many houses as anyone else. I joined him in Sioux Falls, South Dakota, in June 1945 and at the first house we visited, where he was showing me the sales speech, the lady complimented him on being a super salesman. When he approached one house, a young girl ran excitedly to the house shouting: "Mommie, Mommie, here comes Dennis Morgan"—then a famous movie actor.

After the war he joined our father and Hilda's husband, Arthur Morgenstern, at the Russell Iron & Metal Co.—at first a junkyard, then an oil field equipment company and ultimately modest oil production.

He worked long hours Monday through Saturday, making telephone calls in the evenings, and on Sundays he would drive to the surrounding counties to look at oil rigs to salvage.

Morton did find time to meet and marry a beautiful young woman, Joyce Hacker. She stood by his side sharing his strenuous work schedules and the Kansas hot summers and windy cold winters. Last November 19th, they celebrated their 50th anniversary—a very rare quality in modern America. Joyce's steadfast devotion to Morton—especially during the last difficult years—was extraordinary.

Hilda, Shirley, and I returned to Kansas often to visit Morton and Joyce just as they traveled to our homes—as long as he was able. Our family was always on the telephone. Morton would also often call his nephews and nieces and their children and his aunts and uncles and cousins. He was a generous man, making certain his contribution to Allied Jewish Appeal was completed before the end of each year.

Morton made many trips to and through Pennsylvania to help on our many campaigns. There's nothing like a brother or a sister traveling upstate to local newspaper and radio stations to talk about their candidate brother.

When I saw him last Monday at the Wesley Hospital in Wichita, he wanted to know what was going on in the Senate and how Bob Dole was doing.

Bob's father and our father were friends in Russell more than 50 years ago. In the 1940's Harry Specter weighed truckloads of junk at the Russell Grainery operated by Doran Dole.

Our parents were very proud of him. How often I heard our mother Lillie Shanin Specter call him her "Motala." He will rest beside her as he expressed his wish during his lifetime in Montefiore Cemetery. For my sisters and me, he was a role model of integrity and hard work. He was a man of total honesty who valued his good name and impeccable reputation.

We have not waited until his funeral to tell him how we feel. We have expressed our feelings over the years—by words, but more importantly by deeds—visits and calls and caring.

For Joyce and our entire family and his many friends—I say: We all loved him very much and we all will miss him very much.

CUBAN LIBERTY AND DEMOCRATIC SOLIDARITY [LIBERTAD] ACT OF 1995

The Senate continued with the consideration of the bill.

Mr. SPECTER. Mr. President, I support the cloture motion which will be voted on this afternoon at 5 o'clock, because I believe that it is very important that this legislation be considered by the Senate and acted upon by the Senate.

While I ordinarily support an active international role for the United States and active involvement with other nations around the world, I believe that the current situation in Cuba presents a situation where we ought not to do anything to strengthen the hand of Fidel Castro. I believe that the legislation will increase the pressure on the Castro regime and lay the groundwork for future U.S. support for a democratic transition.

The State Department's 1994 human rights report to Congress paints a grotesque picture of repression by the Castro regime. It shows Government-organized mob attacks on dissidents. It shows nationwide political surveillance. It shows extrajudicial killings of Cubans attempting to flee; for example, the sinking of boats loaded with refugees by Government forces last year. It shows, by every significant human rights standard, the Castro regime has an appalling record on freedom of speech, of assembly, and freedom from arbitrary arrest.

Castro has been largely immune to the democratic changes that have swept the hemisphere during the past 10 years and what that regime has in common with totalitarian states such as the ones created by Erich Honecker in East Germany and Kim Il-song in North Korea.

Mr. President, the legislation will be a significant step forward in isolating Fidel Castro and in hastening the day when democracy can return to Cuba so that that community, that nation, may be liberated from Castro's totalitarian regime and may take its place in the family of nations as a productive nation and a productive society.

Ms. MOSELEY-BRAUN. Mr. President, at the outset, I want to make it clear that I strongly endorse the central objective of H.R. 927, namely, the peaceful transition to democracy in Cuba. The Cuban people have too long been deprived the freedoms of speech, association, and self-expression. Like almost every American, I want to see that the repression of the Cuban people by the Cuban Government is ended. And, like almost every American, I want to see that long overdue economic reforms in Cuba are implemented, so that ordinary Cuban people can improve their standard of living.

These are not, however, the questions before the Senate. What is before the Senate is H.R. 927, and what we have to decide is whether the provisions of this bill will help move Cuba toward freedom, democracy, and greater economic opportunity, or not. I would like to say that I believe the bill will work, but the simple fact is that it will not.

This legislation pursues a laudable objective the wrong way. It seeks to increase the pressure and isolation of Cuba by further tightening the trade embargo and encouraging United States allies and trading partners to terminate their trade relations with Cuba through punitive and retributive measures. That policy cannot and will not work.

The United States approach to Cuba has been virtually unchanged since the early 1960's. Since then, the United States has maintained a comprehensive trade embargo to isolate the Castro regime politically, to weaken it economically and, thereby, to pressure the Cuban Government into making the desired reforms. H.R. 927 is simply the latest in a series of legislative proposals that purport to provide the final push that will force the Cuban Government over the brink.

This new final push, though, is perhaps even less likely than the series of past final pushes to succeed, because it is not based on the economic, political, and diplomatic facts. Despite close to 35 years of U.S. trade embargo, the Castro regime remains in place.

Even more importantly, the embargo represents a policy orientation that the rest of the world seems to be abandoning. Our most loyal allies and other countries do not support the United States position on Cuba. In fact, the United States is the only country in the Western Hemisphere with a trade embargo of Cuba and one of only five countries that does not have formal ties with Cuba.

Moreover, it was only last year, October 1994, that the world community soundly rejected a proposal that was similar to H.R. 927—one that would broaden the embargo against Cuba—by a vote of 101 to 2. Apparently, our neighbors in the hemisphere and allies around the world believe that dialog and engagement, not confrontation, isolation, and threats, are the best ways to encourage change in Cuba.

The fact is that, without support of our allies and other countries, unilateral United States action against Cuba is unlikely to succeed and could have the unintended effect of unnecessarily increasing friction between the United States and its allies and trading partners.

For economic sanctions to work, strong international cooperation is required. When we have that cooperation, as in the case of South Africa, sanctions can work and can make sense as a policy alternative. The success of the sanctions directed at South Africa was due, almost exclusively, to our ability to convince our allies and other countries, through moral suasion, not punitive or retributive legislation, to support economic sanctions to change the domestic policies and behavior of South Africa.

On the other hand, when the United States acts unilaterally and tries to bludgeon the rest of the world into line with our policy, the result is often failure. It is worth keeping in mind what happened when the United States acted unilaterally to try to prevent a natural gas pipeline in the former Soviet Union from being completed. The policy was a failure; the pipeline was built. However, major U.S. exporters were hurt. Caterpillar, in my own State of Illinois, lost a major sale to its largest international competitor, Komatsu, weakening Caterpillar, and strengthening Komatsu, in international markets for a long time.

Moreover, the United States policy created a major controversy with our closest NATO ally, Great Britain, and with France. They saw the U.S. policy as an infringement on their sovereignty.

This legislation raises important governmental, as well as practical and diplomatic, issues. Many experts see it as an encroachment on the President's authority under the Constitution to conduct the foreign affairs of the United States. For example, the President would be prohibited from providing foreign aid or international development aid credits to Russia and the other Newly Independent States if they continue to trade with or give money to Cuba. As the only remaining world superpower, we have widespread global interests, interests which do not all turn on the status of a particular country's trade relations with Cuba.

Mr. President, H.R. 927 is therefore unlikely to advance United States interests in Cuba. Instead, what it is more likely to do is to damage other U.S. interests. Increased political and economic pressure on Cuba is more likely to enable Castro to play his nationalistic card and use the United States as a scapegoat to explain away Cuba's economic problems than to weaken his grip on Cuba.

And even though it is unlikely to achieve the objectives for Cuba we all share, title III of this legislation will create a nightmare for the United States judicial system, potentially costing United States taxpayers billions of dollars to provide access to United States courts for property claim lawsuits filed by or on behalf of individuals who were not legally entitled to have their claims adjudicated in United States courts when their claims initially arose. The bill, in effect, extends a benefit to Cuban-Americans denied to other groups, including Polish-Americans, Italian-Americans, Americans of Eastern European descent, Chinese-Americans, and Vietnamese-Americans. Finally, U.S. taxpayers will also have to foot the bill for the litigation of trade suits pursuant to NAFTA and GATT/WTO.

Mr. President, what we really need is a new, innovative, and bold approach to Cuba, an approach based on the realities of the situation, an approach that can and will succeed. We need a policy based on our successes. If we can create a situation where we can get the same kind of cooperating on sanctions against Cuba that we were able to put together in the case of South Africa, then a sanctions policy could work, and could be pursued. But if we cannot, we ought to take a lesson from some of our other successes. After all, we did not win the cold war by isolating the now former-Soviet Union, through a sophisticated, flexible policy that engaged the U.S.S.R. where that made sense.

Since unilateral United States sanctions are unlikely to be effective, and since legislation designed to force our trading partners into tighter sanctions against Cuba is more likely to create new problems than to solve the Castro problem, we ought to at least consider new approaches. We need to at least examine, for example, whether more extensive United States contacts with Cuba would strengthen Castro or strengthen the prospects for real democratic and economic reform in Cuba. What we cannot afford to do is to continue to pursue a policy that has not succeeded in the past, and that offers even smaller chances of success in the future. Unfortunately, that is fundamentally what H.R. 927 is all about; I therefore cannot support it. I urge the Senate to defeat this legislation, and to work toward a new policy toward Cuba that offers a better chance of bringing long overdue, fundamental democratic and economic reform to the Cuban people.

Mr. BOND. Mr. President, I rise to address the vote for cloture on the Dole-Helms amendment to the Sanctions Act.

I will be voting for cloture because I wish to see this process move along. This bill has been pending all year, and it is time we addressed it and moved on. In voting for cloture, however, I want to make clear that I do not support this legislation. I think it is a mistake, and I do not believe it will achieve the intended results.

First, this bill will impose trade sanctions on many of our closest allies and trading partners throughout the world. That is not going to help the people of Cuba in any way, but it is going to hurt American companies doing business around the world.

Second, the bill creates an unprecedented right of action for legal claims of former property owners in Cuba. Not only will that impose a severe burden on our court system, it will do so without, in anyway helping the people who need it most—families and small property owners who lost their homes and businesses to the Castro regime. This new right of action will also put us into conflict with some companies headquartered in some of our closest allies who are now operating plants in Cuba.

As a result of both of these problems, the United States will find itself under immediate attack in the World Trade Organization.

This legislation will only add to the already overwhelming misery of the Cuban people. I do not want to do that, and I know none of my colleagues do either. Certainly, we all want to see an end to the Castro regime—a cold war relic whose time has passed. I believe, however, that Castro's days are numbered. Communism has fallen around the world, and it will fall in Cuba as well. We should let it fall of its own weight, and then be there to assist the Cuban people in developing and nurturing a new democratic successor. This bill will not achieve that goal—in fact, it will move in the other direction. I urge Senators to oppose it.

Mr. President, I suggest the absence of a quorum.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The clerk will call the roll.

The legislative clerk proceeded to call the roll.

Mr. DEWINE. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the quorum call be dispensed with.

The PRESIDING OFFICER (Mr. INHOFE). Without objection, it is so ordered.

Mr. DEWINE. Mr. President, I also ask unanimous consent to now proceed as in morning business.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

SCHOOLBUS SAFETY

Mr. DEWINE. Mr. President, I rise this afternoon to discuss a matter that I have discussed on several other occasions on this floor over the last few months, and that is the issue of schoolbus safety in this country. I would like to update the Senate on the progress that we are making in this particular area.

The bad news, Mr. President, is that there are still, we believe, over 100,000 unsafe schoolbuses on the road in this country today, 100,000 schoolbuses that at this moment, at least in the Eastern time zone, the Eastern part of the country, are in the process of taking children home from school.

I have been involved in, and my staff has been involved in, trying to alert the school officials, schoolbus safety officials, in all the 50 States to this particular problem. And I think we are making progress on a number of fronts.

First, one of the major causes, as I have talked about before on this floor, of schoolbus fatalities is the drawstrings that appear around the waist and other parts of clothing of the coats worn by many schoolchildren today. As children get off of schoolbuses, this drawstring is liable to get snagged in the gap that exists between the bus wall and the handrail itself.

Since 1991, at least five children that we know of have been killed in this manner, have been stuck on the bus that that particular drawstring has caught, and they have been dragged by the bus and they have been killed.

I am pleased, Mr. President, to report that the Consumer Product Safety Commission is taking action on this problem. Last month they recommended to the American Society of Testing Materials, the ASTM, that the drawstrings be shortened. Experts agree that this measure will help prevent these accidents.

This is, Mr. President, a big step—a big step—in the right direction. As a result of CPSC's recommendation, the ASTM has already announced a voluntary standard for the drawstrings. Drawstrings that are 4 or 5 inches in length are now banned.

The ASTM also announced plans for a research project to determine if there is any ideally safe drawstring length. The results of this study are to be announced on November 30.

Second, we, as a country, are starting to fix the buses. A bus manufacturing company bought some of the assets of another bus company, a company had gone out of business, a defunct bus company that was purchased. And the new bus company has decided voluntarily to provide materials to retrofit many of the dangerous buses made by the defunct company. It will do this at cost. That particular company is also trying to identify other unsafe buses that are still on the road so they, too, can be retrofitted.

Third, I have brought with me to the floor, Mr. President, a copy of a pamphlet that children are getting in an elementary school in my hometown of Cedarville, OH. This particular pamphlet gives good advice to parents. "Teach your children to look out for the straps and drawstrings. Be very careful when you are getting on and off the schoolbus."

This was provided courtesy of the Pupil Transportation Safety Institute, 1-800-836-2210. It is a very simple brochure, but a brochure that we hope will do some good.

Mr. President, in conclusion, I think parents all over America should get a pamphlet just like this. It is available from the Pupil Transportation Safety Institute. Let me again repeat the number, 1-800-836-2210. As the pamphlet says, "Schoolbus safety is a team effort." So, Mr. President, let us work together to make all these schoolbuses as safe as they can be.

RECONCILIATION

Mr. DEWINE. Mr. President, I would also like to talk about another issue this afternoon, and that is an issue that I discussed briefly this morning, an issue that we in the Senate will be debating for the next few weeks and an issue that has, I believe, historic importance, not just in this Senate but to this country, not just to this generation but to our children's generation and our grandchildren's.

I rise specifically today, Mr. President, to discuss the reconciliation bill that we expect to reach the floor sometime in the next 2 weeks.

This bill embodies the decision that the American people expressed last November. The American people last December decided that we need to make a fundamental change in course for our U.S. Government.

Many of us ran, many of us talked about these issues, and what were the commitments? I think we can summarize them as follows. There are many, but four essential commitments were made last November, four commitments that we will work over the next few weeks to carry out:

First, we need to balance the budget.

Second, we need to replace the welfare system with a system that rewards work and creates opportunity.

Third, we need to rescue Medicare from bankruptcy.

And fourth, we need to give some tax relief to the hard-working families of this country. Four basic simple things that I believe, if passed, if enacted, will fundamentally change the direction of this country.

While these are simple, I think it is fair to say that this is really an extremely ambitious agenda. Even to consider an agenda of this magnitude would make this a truly historic Congress. But in this reconciliation package, the Senate is about to pass this agenda, to actually pass it, and to send it on to the President of the United States.

Except for a few days at the beginning of 1953, the last time a Democratic President had to deal with a Republican Congress—with a Republican Congress—was from 1947 to 1949. In the 1948 election, the Democratic President accused the Republicans of running a do-nothing Congress. The current President is very well equipped with rhetorical ammunition. They work very hard on this at the other end of Pennsylvania Avenue, but I think that the charge that this is a do-nothing Congress is not one the White House will be using any time soon, or at least the White House will be using successfully any time soon, because the fact is, this Congress has stepped up to the plate and made some extremely tough decisions.

This Congress has passed a balanced budget plan for the first time, if we carry it out, since 1969. This Congress is fundamentally overhauling the welfare system, and just a few weeks ago on this floor, this Senate passed a historic welfare bill.

I believe this Congress will take the steps to save Medicare from bankruptcy.

This Congress is working to relieve the tax burden on working families.

Mr. President, this is the historic agenda the 104th Congress is prepared to send to the President of the United States. Let us make no mistake, this reconciliation package is the only proposal on the table that will achieve the goals of the American people.

Our national goals are to balance the budget and to let working families keep more of their own money. The Republican reconciliation package accomplishes both of these goals. Indeed, Mr. President, if you look at it a certain way, these two are, in fact, the same goal. If we do not take action now to balance the budget, the tax burden will only get worse and worse for American families in the future.

The report of the bipartisan entitlement commission could not be more clear: If we do not change our present course by the year 2012, every single penny in the Federal budget will be consumed by entitlements and interest on the national debt. If in the year 2012 we want Government to do anything at all, such as run the Army, Navy, Air Force, Marines, run a program for women, infants, and children, the WIC Program, or any other things we consider important, it would have to mean a tax increase, a huge, staggering tax increase. You would have to have a tax increase, because there is no money left to do these things.

Let me try to put our present course in historical perspective and talk about an American family.

When my parents graduated from high school in early 1940's, the debt on each child who graduated that year was approximately $360. By the time my wife, Fran, and I graduated in 1965, it was up to $1,600 for each child.

When our older children, Patrick, Jill, and Becky, graduated in the mid-1980's, that figure had risen per child. The debt for each child graduating those years was $9,000. If we continue to go the way we have been going, by the year 2012, just 1 year after our grandson, Albert, graduates from high school and just 1 year after our daughter, Anna, enters college, by that year 2012, that figure will be $25,000. That will be $25,000 in debt for each person—each man, woman, child—in this country.

What a staggering debt, what a horrible legacy we would be leaving to our children and our grandchildren. Clearly, the longer we wait to change course, the worse it will be for the American people.

The reconciliation package that we will be considering balances the budget by slowing the rate of growth of Federal spending. Let me repeat that. It balances the budget by slowing the rate of growth.

Columnist James Glassman of the Washington Post has proposed a useful way of looking at this bill, this package. Add up all the spending by the Federal Government over the last 7 years and compare it with the total this budget proposes to spend over the next 7 years. The result: Spending over the next 7 years will increase over the last 7 years by $2.6 trillion.

Let me repeat that. Spending will increase. The truth is that by limiting spending growth to just a little more than the expected rate of inflation, by doing this, what would seem to be, simple act, we can balance the budget.

If we as a nation cannot summon the will and the courage to make that relatively small sacrifice, how on Earth can we expect the next generation to face a budget with no money in the discretionary account, no money for defense, no money for social programs, and $25,000 of debt owed by every single American?

Mr. President, over a working lifetime, the interest alone on the national debt will cost an American child born today a total of $187,000.

It is clear to me as well as to the American people this could very well be our last chance to solve this problem before it is really too late. This is a grave responsibility, and I do not believe that we can back away from it.

Is there an alternative? Is there anything else we can do? The President has proposed a different approach. His budget, according to the nonpartisan Congressional Budget Office, the budget office that he told us we should be following, contains deficits, according to their calculation. His budget, the President's budget, contains deficits of $200 billion as far as the eye can see, for the foreseeable future. His budget never gets to balance. Let me repeat that. According to CBO, the President's budget never gets to balance. In other words, no balanced budget, staggering deficits as far as the eye can see.

Mr. President, I do not believe that is how America wants to begin a new millennium. For over 200 years, we have given hope to all the nations of the world—hope that free men and women are, in fact, capable of self-government, capable of making responsible choices to ensure a prosperous future for our families, our children, and for our country.

Mr. President, a vote for the Republican reconciliation package is a vote to balance the budget so that we can start reducing the national debt and so we can put America on course toward a future we can be proud to leave our children.

The administration's budget proposal would take today's staggering deficits, add 24 percent, and then ask our children and grandchildren to pay our bills. Often in the past, Americans have faced up to a choice, a choice between two futures. The choice we make in this historic Congress will rank with some of the most important in our Nation's history. As Congress decides and as America decides, I believe we should stay true to our national calling. We should prove, Mr. President, that America is in fact capable of responsibility. We must balance the budget so that our children and grandchildren do not have to pay our bills. We must, we should, put the future first and support the reconciliation bill.

Mr. President, I yield the floor, and I suggest the absence of a quorum.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The clerk will call the roll.

The assistant legislative clerk proceeded to call the roll.

Mr. BYRD. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the order for the quorum call be rescinded.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

CUBAN LIBERTY AND DEMOCRATIC SOLIDARITY [LIBERTAD] ACT OF 1995

The Senate continued with the consideration of the bill.

Mr. BYRD. Mr. President, I appreciate the passion with which the author of this term limitation amendment believes in his cause. I can also appreciate the fact that he is adamant in having the Senate debate the issue of term limits. But I strongly suggest that the remaining days of the first session of the 104th Congress are not the time to undertake this debate. There will be plenty of opportunity when we return next year, as the able and distinguished majority leader has indicated, for the Senate to consider a constitutional amendment limiting the terms of service. I urge my colleagues to not vote for cloture today and to reject the amendment.

Notwithstanding the logistics, I believe that the Founding Fathers were exactly correct when they declined to establish in the Constitution arbitrary limits beyond those that are set forth in the Constitution regarding congressional service. It is not that the idea had not occurred to them. On the contrary, the Framers of our great charter deliberately rejected this structural prescription—one might call it a proscription; it is both a prescription and a proscription. Instead, they opted for having the number of terms a Member could serve limited not by the calendar, but rather by the Member's performance, measured through regular and periodic elections. After more than 200 years under that principle, we would all be correct to question why it deserves radical change.

Proponents may argue that it is, in fact, necessary to amend our Constitution in order to preserve the Framers' original vision of a citizen-legislator who would set aside his plow to serve the Republic, only to return to his fields as swiftly as possible. But when I think about those men who painstakingly crafted our Constitution—men like Madison, Washington, Franklin, Hamilton, Wilson, Mason, and others—I have serious doubts about the strength of such vision. These were men who devoted nearly all of their adult lives to public service. And that such men could truly embrace that bucolic notion is dubious, at best. The fact is that the citizen-legislator has long been a political myth. Now, with the ever-increasing complexities of public affairs, it is also an unrealistic myth.

For the same reason we have professional doctors, professional accountants, professional teachers and professional engineers, we need an experienced Congress. In each of the cases I have mentioned, experience counts, and it should count. No one would go to an untrained and inexperienced heart surgeon. If they want to do that, they could come to me. That surgeon only becomes so professional through a long period of schooling and an equally long residency at a hospital.

In the same light, the only way to become a better, more efficient, more professional legislator is through years of practical experience here in the Congress. Richard Russell, Everett Dirksen, Sam Rayburn, and Hubert Humphrey did not become the legislators that they became through limited terms. Just the opposite is true. They became proficient and experienced lawmakers through long years of dedicated service, learning their craft and honing their skills.

And finally, Mr. President, although I will have more to say to this issue at the appropriate time, I hope Senators will reject this notion of term limits for the most obvious of reasons: the surest and most effective term limit is that which can already be imposed by the voters. When the term of any Member of the House of Representatives or the Senate expires, the American voter can turn any Member of this body or of the House of Representatives out of office for any reason. They, the voters, alone pick and choose whom they wish to have represent them. They alone, and not some arbitrary calendar, determine who will serve in this body. And no constitutional amendment, no matter how well intentioned, can improve upon that situation.

I suggest the absence of a quorum.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The clerk will call the roll.

The assistant legislative clerk proceeded to call the roll.

Mr. HOLLINGS. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the order for the quorum call be rescinded.

The PRESIDING OFFICER (Mr. INHOFE). Without objection, it is so ordered.

Mr. HOLLINGS. What is the pending business, Mr. President?

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The pending business is H.R. 927.

Mr. HOLLINGS. Mr. President, I gather there is no time agreement other than the set rollcall, as I understand it, at 5 o'clock?

The PRESIDING OFFICER. There is no time limit at this time.

Mr. HOLLINGS. Mr. President, as I understand it, the matter of strengthening sanctions on the Cuban Government is the underlying legislation, with the pending amendment being one offered by the distinguished colleague from Missouri with regarding term limits. I wish to talk on a subject relating to term limits, specifically the need to retain a sense of history around this place. I oppose term limits by way of any further provision other than that in the Constitution, that we in the Senate have to run every 6 years. I have faced the voters in six elections since I first came to the U.S. Senate.

In attempting to change the existing restraints, we are in danger of losing the sense of history that is necessary in a democratic government. Specifically, I want to address the budget and the reconciliation measure that will soon be considered, the so-called train wreck, to see if we can all talk in one vocabulary relative to this budget, and to specifically demonstrate that there is no plan at the present time that balances the budget.

If you were to go out on the sidewalk and ask any of the relatively informed passers-by, they would tell you, "Well, there is a Republican plan to balance the budget by the year 2002, but the Democrats want to spend more money." The fact is, neither the President nor the Democrats nor the Republicans have a plan to balance the budget by the year 2002—or 2005, for the simple reason we refuse to face the truth; to face the reality.

Let me ask the staff to put copies of our budget tables around on all the desks and some upstairs for the media.

When Senator Howard Baker was the majority leader back in 1981, we saw that we were on a collision course. Specifically, we knew you could not cut taxes and raise revenues. Finally, the press seems to be catching on. I read with pleasure the first "truth in budgeting" article that I have seen this year, entitled "GOP Tax Cuts Will Add $93 Billion to the United States Debt, Budget Analysts Say," by Jackie Calmes.

I have called to congratulate the young lady since yesterday. I am going to continue to try to find her, because she really has made history.

I ask unanimous consent the article be printed in its entirety at this point in the RECORD.

There being no objection, the article was ordered to be printed in the RECORD, as follows:

[From the Wall Street Journal, Oct. 16, 1995]
GOP TAX CUTS WILL ADD $93 BILLION TO U.S. DEBT, BUDGET ANALYSTS SAY

(By Jackie Calmes)

WASHINGTON.—Despite Republicans' claims to the contrary, their tax cuts will add billions to the nation's nearly $5 trillion debt even as the GOP seeks to balance the budget by 2002.

An estimated $93 billion in extra debt will pile up as a result of the Republicans' proposed $245 billion in seven-year tax cuts, according to calculations from GOP congressional budget analysts. And that's assuming the economy gets the huge $170 billion fiscal stimulus that Republicans are counting on as a consequence of balancing the budget over seven years, thanks mostly to lower interest rates.

GOP leaders agreed last summer, as part of a House-Senate budget compromise, to apply that hypothetical $170 billion "fiscal dividend" toward their proposed $245 billion in tax cuts. That left $75 billion in revenue losses unaccounted for. Interest on that amount would add about $18 billion, for the total $93 billion in debt.

Meanwhile, the Republican architects of the plan boast that the tax cuts are all paid for with spending cuts. Senate Finance Committee Chairman William Roth, announcing his panel's draft $245 billion tax-cut package last Friday, said it would be completely financed with lower interest rates and smaller government. "Other factors like that will add up to $245 billion," the Delaware-Republican said.

And Oklahoma Sen. Don Nickles, another Finance Committee panelist and a member of the Senate GOP leadership, added, "We will not pass this tax cut until we have a letter" from the Congressional Budget Office reporting that Republicans' proposed spending cuts through 2002 will give us a balanced budget and a surplus of at least $245 billion." He added, "It's all paid for."

The confusion has to do with the frequently misunderstood distinction between the nation's accumulated debt, now approaching $4.9 trillion, and its annual budget deficits, which have built up at roughly $200 billion a year.

Republicans' spending cuts, it's projected, generally will put the annual deficit on a downward path until the fiscal 2002 budget shows a minimal surplus. But the annual deficits until then, while declining, together add nearly $1 trillion more to the cumulative debt. Meanwhile, the GOP tax cuts add to those annual deficits in the early years—in fact, the fiscal 1997 deficit would show an increase from the previous year. Thus the debt, and the interest on the debt, would be that much higher.

Interviews in recent weeks indicate that many House and Senate GOP members are unaware of the calculus. And some are unfazed even when they hear of it. "It would bother me if I thought we were adding to the debt," said Texas Sen. Phil Gramm, now seeking the presidency on his record as a fiscal conservative, "but I don't think we are."

Mr. HOLLINGS. Mr. President, I worked with Senator Baker when he was in the majority, and the majority leader, in pushing for a freeze; namely, to take this year's budget for next year. We reasoned that if we could just hold the line, we would save billions and billions of dollars.

I was asked to go ahead and offer the budget freeze. Senator Baker gave some laudatory remarks. He could not endorse it. Unfortunately, we were tackled from behind, by Don Regan, the Secretary of Treasury, and Dave Stockman. Since I have started putting articles in, let me get right to the subject of tax cuts.

Mr. President, let me quote what the Director of the Office of Management and Budget, Mr. Stockman had to a couple of years ago, when I quote from an article in which he wrote:

The root problem goes back to the July 1981 frenzy of excessive and imprudent tax cutting that shattered the Nation's fiscal stability. A noisy faction of Republicans have willfully denied this giant mistake of fiscal governance and their own culpability in it ever since. Instead, they have incessantly poisoned the political debate with a mindless stream of antitax venom while pretending that economic growth and spending cuts alone could cure the deficit. It ought to be obvious by now that we can't grow our way out of it.

We have had none other than the better words of Mr. Stockman, who was one of the leaders of the tax-cut Reaganomics, Kemp-Roth approach.

I have heard the distinguished Chair and others talk about a balanced budget, and I want to shed some light on the reality that you are not saving money or making money with tax cuts. If we are going to get rid of the deficit and the debt, we are going to have to have spending cuts, spending freezes, tax loophole closings, and we are going to have to deny ourselves programs. I support the idea of voluntarism and helped to start the Peace Corps. But when went to start AmeriCorps, I withheld my support because there was a new multi-billion-dollar program that we just could not afford. So, it takes sacrifices, but it also takes a balanced approach with spending freezes, spending cuts, loophole closings, withholding of new programs, and a revenue increases.

The reason we are in this particular dilemma is that nobody in public office can use the expression "tax increase" and get by with it. They describe it as some kind of lunatic fringe. The media, which is charged with the responsibility of exposing the truth and bringing us in public office to task, has joined the conspiracy. They are one of the major culprits—by constantly quoting inaccurate deficit numbers and to budget that are balanced when they should know otherwise.

Take this particular budget we will soon be discussing. I ask you to refer to Mr. KASICH, the chairman of the House Budget Committee, concurrent resolution on the budget for fiscal year 1996. Mr. KASICH in the conference report on page 3, and I read under the entitlement subsection 4, "deficits," fiscal year 2002, a deficit of $108.4 billion. So, please, spare me from all this balanced budget talk. The media, the politicians, the White House, both parties and everybody else—let us start talking reality. The Republican plan that claims to balance budgets has no idea of being balanced. Indeed, Chairman KASICH himself in his conference report projects a deficit of $108.4 billion.

Let me focus for a moment on this tax-cut nonsense that we have to listen to in our debate. We talk about whether the cut is for the middle class, or the rich, or whether you are going to get credit, or we get credit or how much, or whatever it is, but no one really wants to come and say that the tax cut is going to lose revenues. That is why I have inserted this article that appeared yesterday in the Wall Street Journal, entitled "GOP Tax Cuts Will Add $93 billion to the United States Debt."

Going just to the October 23 issue of the New Republic, let me quote:

Neocoinman in the late 1970's and early 1980's, Irving Crystal, editor of the Public Interest, helped lend intellectual credibility to the supply side theory that cutting taxes would not increase the deficit. Crystal opened the public interests to supplysiders and introduced Jack Kemp, author of the Kemp-Roth tax bill that initiated the era of disastrous deficits, to supply side guru Jude Wannisky. In the 30th anniversary of the Public Interest, Crystal now confesses that he and his allies never really understood economics. They were merely after a something-for-nothing gimmick that could help elect Republicans.

Now he quotes from that particular statement in Public Interest, and I quote it.

Among the core social scientists around the Public Interest there were no economists. They came later as we matured. This explains my own rather cavalier attitude toward the budget deficit and other monetary or fiscal problems. The task, as I saw it, was to create a Republican majority so political effectiveness was the priority, not the accounting deficiencies of Government.

I quote just a couple other sentences from that particular article:

Now he tells us. Thanks anyway, Irving, for the confession of complete political cynicism. The accounting deficiencies of Government, by the way, at last count add up to $4.9 trillion.

If you look at the historical budget tables that I have distributed, I started back when we balanced the budget. This Senator has voted for a balanced budget. Yes, I am an endangered species—one of a very few left around here. But in 1968–1969, under President Lyndon Baines Johnson, you can see that the unified budget was in surplus by $3.2 billion, or the real budget surplus was $2.9 billion.

These are CBO figures, by the way. And I have researched them all the way back to the 1940's. But I wanted to have these figures on one piece of paper showing the Government budget in outlays, the trust funds and the unified deficit—which together make up for the real deficit—the gross Federal debt, and the gross interest costs.

I know people get bored listening to figures, but they better listen to this because they are going to have to live with these figures. You cannot avoid them. You cannot avoid death. You cannot avoid taxes. And you cannot avoid the interest costs on the national debt.

Right here in 1996, the present fiscal year, you can see that the Congressional Budget Office has projected an interest cost on the national debt of $348 billion. That is $1 billion a day. There are only 365 days in a year. So we have got automatic spending—or, rather, spending on automatic pilot of $1 billion a day.

This cancer has got to be excised. It cannot be defrauded. It cannot be finessed.

The present budget for 1996 increases spending. You will find at the bottom of the page not only the Kasich conference report which shows a $108 billion deficit in the year 2002—where they say on the face of the document itself there is a deficit and not a balanced budget—but also the 1996 budget outlay of $1.5756 trillion. Then look just below that, of course, is 1995, last year's, $1.518 trillion. So as you go from 1995 to 1996, you have increased spending.

Here is the best of the best that have come to town, the 74 freshmen on the House side that are controlling the agenda and are said to be beyond the control of the distinguished Speaker. And instead of cutting spending, they have increased spending $57.6 billion. That envisions, of course, abolishing the Department of Commerce, the Office of Technology and Assessment, the Advanced Technology Program, cutting education, cutting housing, cutting all of these other things, and Government outlays still increase.

Mr. President, here we have also listed the CBO baseline assuming passage of legislation to enact the budget resolution. The outlays for the year 2002 are $1.876 trillion, and the revenues of $1.883 trillion. So that is close enough. We call that a balanced budget. But now look down below, how they get to that particular outlay figure. They do that by extending the freeze on discretionary spending through the year 2002.

This fact is assumed rather than stated in the document prepared by the Republican Budget Committee staff entitled, "Conference Agreement Compared to Baseline." It is used by Senator DOMENICI, our distinguished chairman and shows $1.876 trillion in outlays. The way you get it down to those outlays is starting from a figure at the top of the sheet called "Current Law Deficit."

Well, if you have not been in the budget game, you might say, "Wait a minute. What in the world is a current law deficit?" Translated into reality, it says, "Assume that the discretionary caps do not expire in 1998 and continue them for the year 1999, the year 2000, the year 2001, and the year 2002." They pick up $91 billion—by extending the discretionary freeze through 2002.

Then they say, "the necessary spending cuts of total deficit reduction" on the work sheet. This is using the chairman of the Republican Budget Committee's own document. I am not playing games with figures. I want to assume everything they say is true and show you they still do not have a cause of action.

If we assume everything they say is true, they still do not have a balanced budget. Why? Because they say you have got to cut in the year 2002 a reduction of $235 billion in addition to the freeze of $91 billion. And then comparing apples to apples, we must subtract from that $1.876 trillion, the $109 billion surplus in the Social Security trust fund. So the total reduction needed in the year 2002, is a $435 billion reduction.

Now, Mr. President, look at what we are doing here. In the year 1996 we are trying to get a $10 billion reduction in non-defense spending—$10 billion. And, at the present time, we cannot get it. That is why we have not passed all of the appropriations bill. Our colleagues on the Republican side, as well as the colleagues on the Democratic side, are struggling to find $10 billion in discretionary cuts, much less $435 billion.

In the debate on the State, Justice, Commerce Appropriations bill, I used the expression that if the present budget plan balanced by the year 2002, I would jump off the Capitol dome. The chairman of the Budget Committee, my colleague, Senator DOMENICI, said, "Well, you better take hang gliding lessons." I said, "I'm not going to take them from you because I know I will crash, just like this budget."

I can tell you here and now, if we cannot cut $10 billion in this struggle with the best of the best and the sincere intent of the newcomers claiming that all we have to do is cut spending, I know I have a safe bet when you look at the year 2002, and try to cut $435 billion.

Now, that is a swing, Mr. President, from this present year of a $57.6 billion increase. If you want to talk reality, rather than increasing $57.6 billion, you need to turn around and cut $435 billion. That is an almost $500 billion change in position. It is not going to happen.

Why do the distinguished newcomers have such difficulty in stomachaching these cuts? The mistaken assumption is that Government began when they got elected—that we had not been cutting. President Ronald Reagan, the best of the cutters, was here for 8 years, and I worked with him. I was on the Grace Commission. That is when we tried the freeze, and then Gramm-Rudman-Hollings. When we could not get the freezes, we said we had to have automatic cuts across the board. If the budget did not come out as you had predicted, what you had to do was automatically cut across the board, otherwise known as a sequester. A majority of the Democrats and a majority of the Republicans voted for Gramm-Rudman-Hollings.

Now, right to the point, Senator GRAMM went along with the repeal of that on October 19, 1990, at 12:41 a.m. Look at the RECORD. I raised the point of order. I said that if we did not follow through with automatic cuts across the board, we would instead start increasing spending. We do not have truth in budgeting.

We not only cut under President Reagan, we cut under President Bush. Incidentally, I had gone from the attempts of the freeze and cuts across the board with Gramm-Rudman-Hollings to supporting of closing of tax loopholes. We worked it out with the Finance Committee, and passed the Tax Reform Act of 1986. We had supposedly done away with corporate welfare, but now they are beginning to talk about it again.

Then in 1989 and 1990, I talked to the President, and particularly to Dick Darman, the Director of his Office of Management and Budget. I said, "This thing is getting out of hand. The debt is so big and interest is so high that we are not getting on top of just paying the interest on the national debt." It was something like Alice in Wonderland's character whereby you have to run faster to stay where you are.

So I said to Darman, what we need is a value-added tax across the board in America. He said, "How are you going to get votes for it?" I said, "We will get it in the Budget Committee. If you and the President will come out for it, we will run with them and get on top of it.

If you don't, by 1992, you are going to be in real trouble."

The truth is, in 1992, President Bush was in real trouble. The deficit was up to $400 billion and President Clinton did not so much as win that election as President Bush lost it. The people said: "We hear all the rhetoric about what all they are going to do with balanced budgets, but like Tennessee Ernie, another day longer and deeper in debt;" and there we are, Mr. President, you can understand exactly what I am talking about.

We had been to the Budget Committee and we got eight votes to increase taxes across the board. We had Senator Boschwitz. We had Senator Danforth. It was bipartisan. We got eight votes in the Budget Committee, but the Bush administration would not follow through. As a result, as I stated in 1992, we were up against $400 billion deficits.

President Reagan came to office in 1988 and pledged to balance the budget in 1 year. Of course, he soon backtracked and said, "Oops, this is way worse than I ever thought. It is going to take me 3 years." Well, here was the pledge made; they are all talking about pledges and I want to get to this one. The pledge made was to balance the budget in a year, and then in 3 years, and they instead paved the way for truly astronomical deficits.

Mr. President, gross Federal debt in 1980 was $909 billion; in 1981, it was $994.8 billion.

Former OMB Director Stockman called this gross incompetence—let me use the exact expression he used. I had it here just a minute ago. To quote Mr. Stockman: "Willfully denying this giant mistake of fiscal governance."

Giant mistake of fiscal governance, whereby in almost 200 years of history and 38 Presidents, Republican and Democrat, we had not reached a trillion-dollar debt. Now, in 12 short years, add on 3 under Clinton, 15 years, we are up to $5 trillion. We have quintupled the debt of the United States of America.

Senator THURMOND and I are going to get by. We are up there now in age, so we do not have to worry. It is not going to be us paying. It will be our children and grandchildren. We have to constantly hear this caterwaul over on the other side of the aisle: "We want people to get out of the wagon and start pulling!"—

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The time allocated to the Senator has expired.

Mr. HOLLINGS. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent, I am about to complete my thought here, to extend for another 5 minutes.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there objection?

Mr. NUNN. Mr. President, my only question will be, there are some of us who want to speak on the Cuban matter before the vote. The vote is at 5 o'clock. I do not know how many people are lined up to speak. I am enjoying the Senator's speech. I would like to listen to it. Can we extend the vote for 5 or 10 minutes?

The PRESIDING OFFICER. It would take unanimous consent to change the time of the vote, which is now set for 5 o'clock.

Mr. HOLLINGS. I ask unanimous consent that it be extended to 5 past 5 and that I be allowed to speak.

Mr. FEINGOLD. Mr. President, I object.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Objection is heard.

Mr. FEINGOLD. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the remaining time be equally divided between the two sides in the usual form.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there objection? Without objection, it is so ordered.

Mr. HOLLINGS. Mr. President, the point should be made that for years now up here, at least for the past 15 years, we in the Congress have jumped up into the wagon. We have not paid a bill in 15 years, and we have crowded out the children; we have crowded out the hungry; we have crowded out the poor and the sick; and we have been up in that wagon. So do not give me this stuff about let us help pull the wagon when we do not pay our own way.

There is one fellow in this town, one individual that is not responsible for this deficit, and that is William Jefferson Clinton. President Clinton was down in Little Rock, AR, when this sham and fraud started. He came to town and cut the deficit 500 billion bucks. He increased taxes even on Social Security. He cut defense without a single vote on that side of the aisle.

Yet, they constantly appear talking about a balanced budget when they know it is not balanced, and continue to chastise the one person who did something about it.

Last year when the Medicare trustees reported that Medicare was going broke in the year 2001, they cried, "What is the matter? We have the best health system. There's nothing wrong." They would not do anything.

So President Clinton has tried. Now we are trying again. I ask these fellows to get off that high horse of this fraudulent nonsense about their balanced budget plan when it is far from being balanced—they report it themselves as a $108 billion deficit—and start working with us and cut out the sham about who is in the wagon.

I thank my distinguished colleague and ask that the document that I have referred to throughout my speech entitled, "Budget Tables" be printed at this point in the RECORD.

There being no objection, the material was ordered printed in the RECORD, as follows:

Mr. FEINGOLD addressed the Chair.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. There is 10 minutes for the proponents and 10 minutes for the opponents.

Who yields time?

Mr. FEINGOLD. Mr. President, I assume the proponents as being those seeking cloture?

The PRESIDING OFFICER. That is correct.

Mr. FEINGOLD. What is the amount of time for the opponents?

The PRESIDING OFFICER. There are 10 minutes on each side.

Mr. FEINGOLD. I ask the Senator from Connecticut, through the Chair, if he would yield me time to speak in opposition to the motion.

Mr. DODD. It is my understanding that the time remaining is equally divided.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Yes.

Mr. DODD. I yield 2 minutes to the Senator from Wisconsin.

Mr. FEINGOLD. Mr. President, I rise in opposition to the Helms bill on Cuba. As I have said on the floor several times before, it advances the wrong policy at the wrong time.

Fidel Castro is finally, reluctantly, finding that his government must accept the realities of the 1990's: that free trade and political liberalization are fundamental to the promotion of enlightened self-interest. As we have seen time and again, once a people have tasted the fruit of freedoms they invariably demand the only atmosphere in which free markets and human rights flourish. That, of course, is democracy and a government protective of a phalanx of rights: the free exchange of ideas and information; respect for human rights; the right to seek one's livelihood unhindered by government fiat. We are seeing the first tentative steps toward an emerging market economy in Cuba; the first steps, we can all agree and hope, which point towards and end of this dictatorship.

So I find it ironic that at the very moment when the United States is presented with the best opportunity in nearly four decades to encourage and influence the move toward positive change in Cuba, the Senator seeks to legislate that opportunity out of existence. Rather than encourage the Cuban Government to move into the 1990's, the Helms bill would have it slide back into the 1960's, dragging the administration as well into continuing and, indeed, strengthening a fossilized policy of isolation that did not work even when, it could be argued, a bipolar world justified such short-term thinking.

In fact, rather than seek to promote the kind of positive change administrations, Republican and Democratic, have sought for decades, and which at long last holds out the promise to lift the Cuban people out of the misery visited on them by Castro's totalitarian regime, the Helms bill, incredibly, would increase their pain by further isolating Cuba. It is wishful thinking—nearly 40 years of wishful thinking—that a tightened embargo will provide the final push leading to the downfall of the Castro regime. We can be certain, rather, that Castro will put this pain to good effect: if the history of recent Cuban-American relations has taught us anything, it is that to this day Castro can still rally a proud people against the bogeyman of Yanqui imperialism.

But Senator HELMS' bill does not stop at increasing the hardship of Cuba's people. It seeks to impose on other nations—close allies in many cases—extraterritorial provisions which conflict with international law and various treaties to which the United States is party. I note that the embargo is already considered by many of our allies to be a hopelessly out-dated affront to their sovereignty: the HELMS proposal will only lead to retaliation at a time when we seek their cooperation on issues of greater complexity and, frankly, of more immediate import to our national interests.

I would add, as well, that our Latin American friends see efforts such as the Helms bill as a vestige of the gunboat diplomacy which, to this day, leaves them wary of our intentions. But it is not enough that this bill would hurt the average Cuban, enrage our allies, and renew the suspicions of our Latin American friends. It would also strike at the American taxpayer. Senator HELMS would have the administration seek—in vain, in my opinion—to expand TV Marti, a failed program which figuratively and literally crashed in a Florida swamp. The Cuban people have not seen the truth from TV Marti, because they never see TV Marti.

Rather, the truth is more likely to come to them as Cuba gains more access to international television, engages in dialogs about the rest of the world, and integrates into the international community. Therefore, we should encourage policies and dialogs which will lead to the political changes and freedoms sought by the Cuban people.

The administration's October 5 announcement that it will seek to put in place measures designed to promote the flow of information into and out of Cuba is a step in that direction. To further promote, rather than strangle, democratic transition in Cuba, United States NGO's would now be authorized to help independent Cuban NGO's provide training to Cuban human rights activists. Without employing the expensive baloondoggle of taxpayer-funded TV Marti, for example, United States news bureaus would set up shop directly in Cuba and Cuban news agencies here in the United States. The new regulations are also family friendly, easing procedures for Cuban-Americans who want to visit relatives in Cuba.

However, the proposed policy will not reward a totalitarian regime which continues to violate basic human rights with impunity. In fact, the administration proposes enhanced enforcement of the embargo and the U.S. Neutrality Act. This mixed bag approach—injecting into Castro's system the poison of free thought while continuing to restrict his access to the relief found in free trade—may not be the perfect solution. I think it is time for a new strategy in Cuba, rather than more of the same, which the Helms bill advocates and which has clearly failed. I believe an incremental approach, which minimizes the pain to the Cuban people and the cost to the American taxpayer, while making clear our determination to not do business as usual with the Castro regime, offers the best current hope of effecting change. The Helms amendment does everything but that, so I urge its defeat.

Mr. President, I yield the floor.

PRIVILEGE OF THE FLOOR

Mr. FEINGOLD. I ask unanimous consent that Juan Alsace be granted the privilege of the floor during the consideration of this bill.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

Mr. DODD. Mr. President, I yield 5 minutes to the distinguished Senator from Georgia.

Mr. NUNN. Mr. President, the Cuban Liberty and Democratic Solidarity Act currently before the Senate presents us with a difficult decision. I am sure we all favor the early return of freedom in Cuba. I am sure the sponsor of this act believes that this legislation would contribute to that aim. There are those of us, though, who have grave doubts.

Mr. President, I am particularly concerned about the impact of this proposed legislation on our Nation's national security interests. For that reason, I requested the views of our responsible military commander Jack Sheehan, commander in chief of the United States Atlantic command, under whose command Cuba falls.

I would like to share the letter I received, dated October 15, from General Sheehan, who is in direct charge of the security aspects of Cuba under his command. It says:

DEAR SENATOR NUNN: I am writing to provide my assessment of the potential effect of the Cuban Liberty and Democratic Solidarity Act  could have on the United States Atlantic command and operations in Guantanamo Bay, Cuba. There are currently 8,000 Cuban migrants in camps at Guantanamo Bay, down from 20,000 5 months ago. The Department of Defense has processed more than 100,000 Cuban and Haitian migrants in Guantanamo Bay over the last few years. When the migrant population was at its peak, it cost the Department of Defense over $1 million a day in operation and maintenance—money which was not in the budget. Additionally, prior to the White House policy announcement in May, we had more than 6,000 U.S. personnel in a potentially explosive situation—guarding and caring for Cuban migrants who were frustrated because there was no hope of leaving the camps.

From a military perspective, the current version of the Helms-Burton bill could create conditions for more migrants. I believe the Cuban economy is at a low point. I have this on interviews of more than 40,000 Cubans who have been through Guantanamo. They say one of the primary reasons for leaving Cuba is to be able to provide a basic quality of food and shelter for their families. The bill in its current form could further punish the people, not Castro or the privileged elites. Furthermore, rather than promoting a peaceful transition in Cuba, the bill could give Castro an excuse to maintain his focus on "U.S. aggression," rather than his own failed ideology. I also question the bill's implied assumption that strengthening the embargo would lead to a revolt from within and create the conditions for a transition to democracy. Cuba is not Haiti—the circumstances which allowed for a successful intervention in Haiti, with only one American casualty, do not exist in Cuba. Any operations involving U.S. forces in Cuba would likely have a much higher cost in terms of lives and national treasury.

Our policy objective should be the peaceful transition of power in Cuba, and I support any congressional language that brings about that change.

Mr. President, in short, General Sheehan believes that our policy objective should be the peaceful transition of power in Cuba to democracy. But he does not believe the legislation before us will make a net contribution to this objective. He believes that this legislation, in fact, will have the opposite effect and that it will basically cause an increase in the very migration that has now finally subsided.

Mr. President, I hope we can work out, before this legislation is concluded, a satisfactory bill that can be agreed to on both sides of the aisle and supported by the administration. I do not believe this legislation meets that test.

I thank the Senator for the time. I yield back whatever time I have remaining.

I ask unanimous consent that General Sheehan's letter be printed in the RECORD.

There being no objection, the letter was ordered to be printed in the RECORD, as follows:

COMMANDER IN CHIEF,
U.S. ATLANTIC COMMAND,
October 15, 1995.

Hon. SAM NUNN,
Senate, Committee on Armed Services, Senate
Russell Office Building, Washington, DC.

DEAR SENATOR NUNN: I am writing to provide my assessment of the potential effect of the Cuban Liberty and Democratic Solidarity Act (The Helms/Burton Bill) could have on the United States Atlantic Command and operations in Guantanamo Bay, Cuba. There are currently 8,000 Cuban migrants in camps at Guantanamo Bay, down from 20,000 five months ago. I have this on our interviews of more than 40,000 Cubans who have been through Guantanamo. Our policy objective should be the peaceful transition of power in Cuba, and I support any congressional language that brings about that change.

J.J. SHEEHAN,
General, U.S. Marine Corps.

Mr. DODD. Mr. President, I do not see any of the proponents on the floor at this point. How much time remains?

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Three minutes, forty seconds.

Mr. DODD. Let me take the time. I presume the Senator from North Carolina may come to the floor shortly.

Mr. President, I want to spend some time this afternoon explaining the very complex issue of how the U.S. Government deals with property claims by U.S. citizens who have had their property expropriated by a foreign government and who failed to receive adequate and effective compensation for such action.

I believe that it is important to do so, because what we are prepared to do today, if we enact this pending legislation into law, is to totally reverse more than 46 years of practice on how we as a government have dealt with this question. Not only would it alter the scope of claimants who would be able to seek some remedy from the U.S. Government for acts against property held abroad, it would also change the manner in which the U.S. Government seeks to ensure that claimants are compensated.

So, how have property claims been handled in the past? for which countries? What have been the results?

Claims by U.S. citizens for losses arising from a foreign government's nationalization, expropriation, or other takeover of their property are administered under provisions of the International Claims Settlement Act of 1949. That act originally authorized the international claims commission to adjudicate claims pursuant to an agreement negotiated between the United States Government and the Government of Yugoslavia.

During ensuing years the act has been amended a number of times to authorize the commission—now called the Foreign Claims Settlement Commission—to determine claims against a number of other foreign governments, including Cuba that have expropriated property from our citizens.

The Foreign Claims Settlement Commission has already processed the claims of United States citizens who lost property in Cuba. That is why we can say with certainty today that there are 5,911 certified U.S. claimants who have not been compensated for their losses.

It is not the responsibility of the Commission to actually make payment of the awards for these certified claims. That responsibility rests with the Secretary of the Treasury, as funds become available for payment of claims. Funds generally come available through negotiated agreements between the U.S. and the foreign government in question.

Since 1949, the Commission has undertaken claims programs in 36 countries—including most recently—Yugoslavia, Panama, Poland, Ethiopia, Bulgaria, Hungary, Romania, Italy, the Soviet Union, Czechoslovakia, Cuba, the People's Republic of China, East Germany, Iran, Vietnam, and most recently Albania. That means that the Commission has processed or is processing claims by American citizens that their property was taken by the government in question.

Claims settlement agreements have been reached with a number of these countries including Yugoslavia, Panama, Poland, Bulgaria, Hungary, Romania, Italy, China, and Vietnam. That means that the United States and the government in question have reached agreement on a sum of money which such government has agreed to provide to the United States for distribution to the claimants.

In the case of Cuban claims, the Commission evaluated some 8,800 United States claims over a 5-year review period—1967-1972—and determined that some 5,911 were in fact valid claims. Once the United States and the Cuban Government have reached agreement on a sum of money to compensate these claimants then the funds will be paid out by the Secretary of the Treasury for these claims.

In none of these cases were property claims of non-U.S. citizens included in these claims settlement procedures. One of the key qualifications in each one of these claims programs is that the claimant must first and foremost have been a U.S. citizen at the time the property was taken. The reason for this is obvious. While we may not agree with the manner in which another government regulates or otherwise makes decisions about the property of its citizens, how that issue gets resolved is to be sorted out between that citizen and his or her government.

Now, not only are we going to jettison the Foreign Claims Settlement Commission as a method of adjudicating property claims, we are going to dramatically increase the scope of claimants. The bill would change the definition of who is eligible for U.S. assistance in resolving his or her claims.

The bill before us would have the Federal district courts be the venue for resolving these suits. Any Cuban-American whose property was taken and is currently being used in a commercial activity is eligible to sue for up to triple damages for such losses.

How many claims are we talking about? There is clearly some dispute here. In one of the earlier versions of the Helms legislation, it was asserted that this figure was in the hundreds of thousands. Analysis by outside experts have indicated that there is a range of possibilities reaching as high as $430,000. No one knows for sure. Yet some in this chamber are prepared to vote for this legislation anyway, in the name of being tough on Castro.

This is the height of irresponsibility in my view. The only one that we are being tough on is ourselves and our own judicial system. The only one we are being tough on is this administration and future administrations that will have to deal with the court logjam in the context of forging normal relations with any post-Castro government.

Mr. President, let me point out to my colleagues once again that the heart of this legislation is title III of the bill. Again, briefly, what this title III of the bill will do is expand the universe, the population of those who would be able to utilize the U.S. system in order to be compensated for lands that were expropriated from them. What it does is carve out a unique group of citizens in our country—in fact, people not even citizens of this country—to be able to take advantage of our claims compensation program.

Under more than four decades of law, Mr. President, we have provided assistance to United States citizens whose lands were expropriated by a foreign government. There are some 6,000—in fact, we know the exact number, which is 5,911 claimants, who have been certified as bona fide claimants. This legislation would say that you no longer have to be a United States citizen when it comes to Cuba, that even if you are not a citizen of the United States today, but you incorporate yourself for that purpose, you can take advantage of the law that is designed specifically to assist United States citizens.

Now, Mr. President, that would expand the universe from 5,911 certified claimants to one estimate of 430,000 people, at a cost of $4,500 to process each claim. My colleagues can do the math and see the explosive costs here. Beyond the costs, there are 37 other nations in the world with whom we have expropriation cases pending on behalf of U.S. citizens. We do not carve out or create a situation where those who have left those countries and have become citizens or are not citizens of this country, but would incorporate themselves for the purpose of having those claims processed by the United States, are included. So nations such as Poland, Vietnam, People's Republic of China, and others, would not be given the same benefits, with all due respect to Cuban-Americans, Cubans who left Cuba to seek redress under this law we are adopting.

I am sympathetic to the people who had lands expropriated without compensation, but the law was written specifically to assist U.S. citizens at the time of the expropriation. If we want to change the law, we ought to do so with all nations, not just one. Certainly, Polish-Americans, those who were left in East Germany, and others, would have just as much right, it seems to me, if we are going to carve out an exception as those so poorly treated in Cuba. For that reason, title III deserves special attention.

Let me echo the comments of my colleague from Georgia. I would love nothing more than to see democracy come this evening to Cuba. But we need to think smartly, intelligently, and prudently as to how we can expedite that conclusion.

Jude Winitisky wrote an excellent piece in the Houston Chronicle, which I inserted in the RECORD last week. I encourage my colleagues to review that article.

He makes a strong case that we have a wonderful opportunity, I think, to create that kind of a change. This legislation would set us back in that process.

For those reasons, I urge my colleagues to vote against this cloture motion in hopes we might be able to come up with some sort of a bill here that makes far more sense, with all due respect, than the one that would come before the Senate if cloture is adopted. I urge the rejection of the cloture motion.

Mr. President, I suggest the absence of a quorum.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The clerk will call the roll.

The bill clerk proceeded to call the roll.

Mr. HELMS. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the order for the quorum call be rescinded.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

Mr. HELMS. Mr. President, some opponents of the pending Libertad bill, I am sad to say, appear to be willing to say almost anything to defeat this bill, a bill that Cubans inside of Fidel Castro's land are pleading with us daily to pass so that they could have an opportunity for freedom.

These people in Cuba are writing to me every day. We have had—I do not know how many letters—50 or 60. Yet the forces who oppose this bill have repeatedly misrepresented what the bill does and have ignored the support that this bill has among the American certified claimant community as well as among Cubans inside Cuba.

Now, the record needs to be set straight about what these two groups are saying about the Libertad Act.

Last week, for example, this Senate was told that all certified claimants oppose this bill. Not so. For example, Colgate-Palmolive, a certified claimant whose stolen property is valued at over $14 million in 1960 dollars, wrote to me stating this communication is to state for the record the support of Colgate-Palmolive Co. for Senate bill S. 381. This is the bill pending right now.

Then Procter & Gamble, another company who had property seized by Fidel Castro's crowd and is therefore a certified claimant, wrote to me and said, We support this legislation as currently written, and agree with the aims and goals of the Cuban Liberty and Solidarity Act.

Then there is another claimant company, Consolidated Development Corp., whose president, Alberto Diaz-Masvidal, testified before the Foreign Relations Committee this past June in strong support of this bill.

The United States-Cuban Business Council, the largest private sector organization addressing Cuban issues of interest to businessmen—particularly American certified claimants—has actively encouraged its members to support this legislation. In September, a letter went to all of its members asserting that the Council considers the Libertad Act to be beneficial for the United States business community, protection of United States property rights, and the economic development of a free market, democratic Cuba.

Another American property owner supporting the Libertad bill is the Cintas Foundation, which is a New York charitable organization. This organization owns artwork on loan right now to the National Museum in Havana and it, too, has been victimized by Castro's thievery. In 1991, two pieces from the Cintas collection appeared for auction in London. See, what is happening? Castro is stealing this stuff and selling it overseas. The Cintas Foundation submitted testimony to the Foreign Relations Committee saying that the Libertad bill provides an important legal avenue for the Cintas Foundation to prevent any further attempts by the Castro regime to break up and sell off this valuable art collection.

These are just a few examples. Now, then, the truth deserves to be heard.

There have been specious suggestions that the Cuban people are opposed to the Libertad bill, the pending bill. Absolutely untrue. Yet it has been said on this Senate floor that that is the case.

Scores of letters and cassette tapes have been smuggled out of Castro's Cuba and delivered to me expressing support for the Dole-Helms bill or the Helms-Burton bill, or however you want to describe it.

These are Cubans who are very well aware that in speaking out against Castro they will be persecuted, to say the very least. They go ahead and speak at great personal risk because they are willing to put their lives on the line to help get this bill passed. Yet we have voices in this Senate and we have voices in the news media saying this is a terrible bill.

Mr. President, let me read from one or two of the letters. A vast number of Cuban citizens on October 8 signed a letter to me saying:

We, as members of the internal opposition to the dictatorial regime that oppresses us, ask you, in the name of the men and women who languish in Castro's prisons or who saw the ends of their days before a firing squad, that you cooperate to remove the last tyrant in our continent.

Then they said:

A vote in favor of Helms-Burton will bring joy and hope to all Cubans. It is not the embargo that keeps the Cuban people hungry and desperate, but the Castro dictatorship, and that, all of Cuba knows well.

Then there is an October 10 statement delivered by cassette tape representing the views of more than a dozen leaders of human rights and dissident groups in Cuba saying:

The U.S. embargo works. The few changes that have taken place in Cuba are a result of economic, political, and diplomatic pressures. Those pressures should be intensified. We support the Helms-Burton initiative. We call upon the Executive not to veto it, if passed. It is a peaceful measure, aimed only at preventing that foreign investors continue buying from the Cuban Government properties confiscated from and not paid to United States and other citizens. By passing this bill, you will be taking a fair ethical decision in the name of freedom and democracy.

In September, the leader of another dissident group, Democratic Solidarity Party in Cuba, wrote,

We want freedom from oppression, we want respect for our rights, but most democratic government seems to ignore this, * * * But we know that we are not alone in this problem, and you are proof of that Sir. * * * We are deeply thankful of you, and all the politicians who are not forgetting the ultimate interest of the Cuban people * * * to live in freedom and democracy.

There are many more, but I think Senators get the point, which is this: American citizens whose property was stolen by Castro want this bill passed. The Cuban people are begging that it be enacted. I simply cannot be a party to our turning our backs on them. The Cuban people deserve freedom. They are pleading for our help.

The question just will not go away. Can we in good conscience, Mr. President, turn away from them and walk away on the other side of the road?

Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the letters and statements previously referred to in my brief remarks be printed in the RECORD.

There being no objection, the material has been ordered to be printed in the RECORD, as follows:

U.S.-CUBA BUSINESS COUNCIL,
Washington, DC, September 20, 1995.

DEAR COUNCIL MEMBER: As you know, the US-Cuba Business Council has closely monitored congressional and Executive Branch action on the Cuban Liberty and Democratic Solidarity Act of 1995 [H.R. 1868], known as the LIBERTAD Act of the Helms-Burton bill. The LIBERTAD Act has undergone significant change since the bill was originally introduced. Council members have inquired as to how the Council views the potential impact of this bill on the US business community.

The measure, in its current form, addresses many of the concerns expressed by the Executive Branch, the business community and legal scholars. As modified, we believe that the LIBERTAD Act is fundamentally consistent with the goal of current US policy on Cuba designed to foster a democratic change with guarantees of freedom and human rights under the rule of law. Congressional action on the bill may take place as early as this week.

Chapter I of the bill includes measures to strengthen the embargo against Cuba. Questions have been raised about the "extra-territoriality" of these provisions. As currently drafted, LIBERTAD Act is consistent with US obligations under the North American Free Trade Agreement and the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade and does not involve secondary boycotts.

Chapter II establishes a framework for trade with, and economic assistance to, a transitional or democratic government in Cuba. Some US certified claimants have expressed concerns that Section 737 of the bill may diminish the pool of available assets for American property claimants by conditioning US assistance to Cuba on resolution of claims held by those who were not US citizens at the time of confiscation. Section 737 of the LIBERTAD Act has been significantly modified to address such concerns. As amended, this section protects the rights of certified US claimants by conditioning assistance to a transitional government in Cuba on U.S. Presidential certification that the Cuban government is taking appropriate steps to resolve property claims involving US claimants as described in Section 620(a)(2) of the Foreign Assistance Act of 1961.

A key element of the LIBERTAD Act involves measures under Chapter III to defend US property rights and discourage foreign investors from trafficking in confiscated US properties. Under these provisions, foreign firms trafficking in stolen US property in Cuba would risk action by US claimants against their US-based assets [(Chapter III) Sections 741-744] and invite US action to revoke entry visas of foreign corporate executives trafficking in confiscated US properties.

We believe these measures will enhance the leverage of US claimants seeking to discourage prospective foreign investors from trafficking in their confiscated properties in Cuba, facilitate the rapid and effective resolution of claims disputes, and level the playing field for US firms preparing to participate in the economic development of a democratic Cuba.

Some US claimants have expressed concerns about allowing Cuban American claimants to file suits against traffickers or to obtain default judgements against the Cuban government. Sections 742 and 744 of the LIBERTAD Act have also been modified to clarify that the bill does not authorize the President to espouse the claims of naturalized US citizens in any settlement with Cuba and will not dilute the pool of assets available to US claimants. As modified, the LIBERTAD Act significantly narrows and limits the filing of suits to effectively target foreign firms trafficking in confiscated US-owned property.

In the new version of LIBERTAD, it is not possible to obtain a default judgement against the current government of Cuba. Moreover, the right of action to sue a trafficker in stolen US assets applies almost exclusively to commercial property. Claimants must provide suspected traffickers with 180 days notice before filing legal action and the case must involve property worth more than $50,000. The Cuban government claims a total of 212 joint ventures on the island. Few of those enterprises are likely to have US-based subsidiaries or other assets. Thus, only a handful of cases against foreign firms in the US would qualify for consideration in US courts. Accordingly, the Congressional Budget Office estimated that the cost of enforcement of the LIBERTAD Act would be less than $7 million. Furthermore, under current law the President could halt such suits through is authority under the International Emergency Economic Powers Act once a transition regime is in power in Cuba.

On balance, the Council considers the LIBERTAD Act, in its current form, to be consistent with the Council's mission statement and beneficial for the US business community, protection of US property rights, and the economic development of the free market, democratic Cuba.

Please contact me or USCBC Executive Director Tom Cox in our Washington office (202) 293-4995 if you need further information on issues relating to this measure. I look forward to hearing from you.

Best regards.

Sincerely yours,

OTTO J. REICH.

Subject: Cuba

Chairman HELMS,

U.S. Senate, Committee on Foreign Relations,
Washington, DC.

DEAR MR. CHAIRMAN, This communication is to state for the record the support of Colgate-Palmolive Company for Senate Bill S. 381 in the form of its June 12, 1995 draft.

Sincerely,

EMILIO ALVAREZ-RECIO.

ADOLFO FERNANDEZ SAINS,
PARTIDO SOLIDARIDAD DEMOCRATICA,
Havana, September 12, 1995.

Hon. SENATOR JESSE HELMS,
U.S. Senate,
Washington, DC.

HON. SENATOR JESSE HELMS: We admire your courage, and we thank you for your help.

We regret that you are so right. Because you are right sir, if you were wrong, than we the Cuban people would be facing a lesser problem, but our problem is serious indeed. We want freedom from oppression, we want respect for our rights, but most democratic governments seem to ignore this, most important newspapers ignore this, but we know that we are not alone, in this problem, and you are a proof of that Sir.

Our problem is, that we are rule by intolerance. We are not going to ignore this, and we should not reward intolerance.

A glance at the conduct of the Cuban government will tell you, the only language they understand is might, and never reason.

Some seek dialogue, we deeply regret that they are wrong. They are trying to dialogue with a non-repentant dictator with all the power in his hands.

We would certainly prefer dialogue, but we cannot ignore the truth.

Our prisons are full of political prisoners, and convicts, that are convicts only in Cuba, their crimes are crimes only in Cuba.

Our problem is not only economic, solving the economic problem, and ignoring the political one, would leave us in the hands of tyranny.

America has the right to defend their property, economic sanctions are right, they are applied daily everywhere.

We are deeply thankful of you, and all the politicians who are not forgetting the ultimate interest of the Cuban people, the ultimate right of the Cuban people, to live in freedom, and democracy.

Our struggle is not about the right we have to invest in our own country, that is obvious. We are not opposing Fidel Castro's government, because we want to be the owners of a laundry shop, or a bar, or even a sugar factory.

We want all that for our people, but we also want to publish an article in a newspaper, to establish an association independent from the government, to create a political party without having to go to prison for that.

Nobody should forget or ignore this. We think that the U.S. government has so far understood this, and has remain firm, and we appreciate it deeply.

You have been extremely generous with the Cubans, so we are very thankful to you, Senator personally, for all you have done for us in this very difficult time, of our history, and we have a history of friendship, and understanding, and good neighborliness between our two people, and we want to go back to that situation again.

ADOLFO FERNANDEZ SAINS.

PARTY OF DEMOCRATIC SOLIDARITY,
City of Habana, October 8, 1995.

DISTINGUISHED U.S. SENATORS: Today you are not simply debating a law, you are debating the future of a nation. We, as members of the internal opposition to the dictatorial regime that oppresses us, ask you, in the name of the men and women who languish in Castro's prisons or who saw the end of their days before a firing squad, that you cooperate to remove the last tyrant in our continent. It is dishonorable to allow a dictator, who with terror maintains an entire nation in the dark ages, to continue to blatantly ignore the rights of the men and women in the land of José Martí.

A vote in favor of Helms-Burton in the Senate of the U.S. will bring joy and hope to all Cubans. It is not the embargo that keeps the Cuban people hungry and desperate, but the Castro dictatorship, and that, all of Cuba knows well.

May God illuminate you and allow you, and the rest of the world, to clearly declare enough is enough! to the bloody dictatorship that misgoverns our country.

MIGUEL ANGEL ALDANA
RUIZ,

President of the Martí Civic League.

RAMON VARELA SANCHEZ,
(In detention),
Vice-president.

ANNIA NAVARRO GONZALEZ,
OMAR ACOSTA RODRIGUEZ.

OCTOBER 10, 1995.

Message to: Senator Robert Dole, President of the Senate, Senator Jessie Helms, Chairman of the Foreign Relations Committee, the U.S. Senate.

Cuba is the country with the highest rate of suicide, prisoners, exiled nationals and abortions in the Americas, and probably in the whole world. That will be enough to oppose Castro's government, even if it were not a 36 year old dictatorship that has plunged the Cuban people into poverty, divided the Cuban family, and brought to the country an ideology, enemy of Democracy and Freedom, alien to our traditions and our environment, and on behalf of which the human rights of the Cuban people are violated.

The Cuban government has not shown the necessary political will to bring about changes in the country. We believe that the Cuban government does not understand any language, other than pressure, and coercion measures. Even if the Cuban government decided to effect a true economic reform, leading to a market economy, something it has not done, and in our opinion, will not do, we would still be in the hands of a dictatorship.

President Clinton recently announced a package of measures, adopted unilaterally by the U.S. Government in relation to Cuba. We consider it counter-productive to send the Havana regime a mixed signal, giving them a certain hope that with our holding free, fair and internationally supervised elections, an amnesty for all political prisoners and legalizing the internal opposition, they could get rid of the U.S. Embargo.

The U.S. Embargo works. The few changes that have taken place in Cuba are a result of economic, political and diplomatic pressures. Those pressures should be intensified. We support the Helms-Burton initiative. We call upon the Executive not to veto it, if passed. It is a peaceful measure, aimed only at preventing that foreign investors continue buying from the Cuban government properties confiscated from and not paid to, U.S. and other citizens. Those investments only completed to extend the suffering of the Cuban people.

Distinguished Senators, you are facing an ethical alternative, where you choose whether you support or not this Bill, know that you are choosing between the weak and the powerful. The weak are the Cuban people, torn by so much pain and suffering. The powerful are Fidel Castro's totalitarian and anti-democratic government, that continues to make decisions affecting our lives and compromising the future of the whole people, without ever submitting to the will of those people in the ballot box. By passing this Bill, you will be taking a fair ethical decision in the name of Freedom and Democracy, which you enjoy fully as their main advocates in today's civilized world.

Finally, a word of thanks to the American people and their Government, and for the support, the solidarity and generosity that historically they have extended to the Cuban people.

And now, from Cuba, signing this document on behalf of their respective organizations:

COMMENTS BY MIGUEL ANGEL ALDANA, EXECUTIVE OF THE COALITION FOR A DEMOCRATIC CUBA AND MEMBER OF THE MARTI CIVIC LEAGUE

At this time, we ask the U.S. Government and we ask President Bill Clinton to support the Helms-Burton bill, because it's the only way to free the Cuban people. It's the only way that our human rights groups and the political opposition are going to feel strong. If that bill is not passed, the Fidel Castro dictatorship, which is crushing the Cuban people, and which is committing injustices daily, is going to get stronger. It's deceiving the U.S. Government, the way it did with the boat people. It obligated the U.S. Government to sit down at the negotiations table. They're laughing at the American government, they're laughing at the entire world, and they're doing away with the Cuban people.

We ask the U.S. Senate and House of Representatives to support those Senators, and we ask the American people to support the Helms-Burton bill so that once and for all the Cuban people will be freed from a dictatorship of more than 36 years that is leading and subjecting the people of Cuba to injustice and abuses, and killing children, women and the elderly from hunger.

When here the diplotiendas [stores for the elite with cash] and the markets are full of food, the Cuban government is alleging that there's an embargo, or blockade. The only blockade here is the Fidel Castro dictatorship.

This bill has to be passed because the freedom that the people of the U.S. enjoy has to be shared. This law is necessary!

A MESSAGE TO SENATE MAJORITY LEADER BOB DOLE, SENATE FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEE CHAIRMAN JESSE HELMS, AND THE ENTIRE UNITED STATES SENATE FROM THE DEMOCRATIC SOLIDARITY PARTY

Cuba is the country with the highest rate of suicides, political prisoners, exiled nationals, in the Americas, and perhaps, in the whole world. That would be enough to oppose Castro's government even if it were not a 36 year old dictatorship that has plunged the Cuban people into poverty, divided the Cuban family, and brought to the country an ideological enemy of democracy and freedom alien to our traditions and environment and on behalf of which the human rights of the Cuba people are violated.

The Cuban government has not shown the necessary political will to bring about changes within the country. We believe that the Cuban government does understand any language other than pressure and coercive measures. Even if the Cuban government decided to effect a true economic reform leading to a market economy, something it has not done and will not do, we would still be in the hands of a dictatorship.

President Clinton recently announced a package of measures adopted unilaterally by the U.S. government in relation to Cuba. And finally, in this message from the Cuba Democratic Solidarity Party president Hector Palacio Ruiz, vice-president Osmel Lugo Guttierrez, and the national Executive; by the 30th November Democratic Party "Frank Pais"; and on behalf of Rafael Ibarra Roque who is in prison; the Association for the National Struggle for Justice, Beatrice Garcia Alvarez, president, Reinaldo Fargo Garcia, vice-president; Marti Youth Civil League, Miguel Angel Aldana Ruiz, president, Amnia Navarro Gonzalez, vice-president; the Pro-Human Rights Party of Cuba, Lazaro Gonzalez Valdes, president; Ampare Independiente, Juan Jose Perez Izquierdo, vice-president, Vincente Escobar Trabiero; the Liberal Cuban Current, Juan Jose Lopez Diaz, president; on behalf of Association of Cuban Pacificists, Leonel Morejon Almagro, president; on behalf of the Scientific Democratic Movement, Juan Rafael Fernandez Pelegrin, president; on behalf of the Cuban Committee Independent Pacifists in Opposition, Vicotrio Ruiz, president, Lazaro Garcia; Maceo Movement for Dignity, Isidro Carrera Carrillo, president; on behalf of the Women's Humanitarian Front, Gladys Linares, president; on behalf of the Independent Cuban Medical Council, Jesus Marante Pozo, president, Ana Beoneles Gonzalez, on behalf of the Maximo Gomez Front from

TRANSLATION OF INTERVIEWS WITH CUBAN DISSIDENTS, SEPTEMBER 24, 1995

New Jersey, United States, Sunday, September 24, 1995. The Revolutionary Movement of the 30th of November this week held interviews with several organizations in Cuba so as to know their opinions with regard to the bill proposed by Senator Jesse Helms and Congressman Dan Burton, a law that was approved by the Congress this past Friday, 21 of September.

The first interview is with Osmel Lugo, Vice-president of the Democratic Party, November 30 in Cuba. For those who don't know, the President of this party, Mr. Rafael Ibarra is in jail completing a 20 year sentence for his ideas contrary to those of the Castro regime:

November 30 Democratic Party, special communique that reflects the opinions of our organization.

In more than 36 years of the Castro regime never have human rights been respected and the desire for development, prosperity and liberty has been ignored for the Cuban people now for more than three decades. In Cuba, when the U.S. embargo wasn't even mentioned, and it was a time of need, already more than 70% of imports were covered by the European Communist markets. Unfortunately the Soviet Union sustained and maintained the Cuban economy in exchange for a military base called Cuba and not even then were we allowed to enjoy our civil, political and human rights and we have never been able to rid ourselves of the ration card that limits us to what and when we can eat. The Cuban government has not shown any interest in solving the serious problems affecting the country even though government and non-government organizations as well as other countries and governments have made recommendations for this out of compassion for the tough conditions the Cuban people are being put through. The Cuban government has not only not shown signs of any interest of a political process for change to a democratic and representative government, but it remains in complete immobility since it does not wish to lose the throne of absolute power with which it has been able to govern the country with an iron fist. Fidel Castro, as the most faithful representative and highest ranking official of the Cuban government has expressed and continues to express so that there will be no misunderstandings his known phrase "Socialism or death." "Socialism or death" means or his type of government or death with as much transparency as macabre is the phrase. The only solution Castro offers the Cuban people is death or to live under his system of death itself. And if several reforms have been taking place in the economic field, reform measure which, may we add, could be easily reversed, it has been simply to gain some time and accommodate his needs of the moment more than to try and solve the despairing social conditions. So we harbor no false hopes that the lifting of the economic sanctions will change the will of those who try to stay in power or that they will put the dictatorial regime which allows them to on the line. The end or lifting of the embargo would not guarantee the respect of the civic, political and human rights of the Cuban people or bring democracy to our country. Rather, it would strengthen the totalitarian and dictatorial regime that has destroyed Cuban society sinking it into misery, indigence and mental slavery, facilitating it the millions it needs to develop and perfect its repressive apparatus the base and principle of its power. The lifting of the embargo will not bring an amnesty for all the political and conscience prisoners. It will not return the life of hundreds of thousands that have died at the hands of the regime or of those who have lost their lives trying to escape through the Florida straits. Nor will it allow the recovery of the remains of more than 42 people killed during the homicide that took place in the sinking massacre of the "13 de Marzo" tugboat for which the regime hasn't even allowed flowers to be thrown in the sea. The embargo is not the cause of Cuba's problems, it is actually the solution to these. Intolerance is the only thing that should not, and cannot be tolerated. The November 30 Democratic Party Frank Pais ratifies its support for the bill for democracy in Cuba and even asks for the globalization and internationalization of sanctions against the Cuban government. We thank the U.S. legislators that voted in favor of Helms-Burton and we recognize their good will to contribute to the democratization and liberty of the Cuban nation. At this same time, we exhort the President of the United States, Bill Clinton, to not veto this law if he truly wishes that Cuba be among the democratic countries of the world where human rights are respected and recognized.

Signed by the Democratic Party November 30. Dated in the City of Havana on the 21st day of September, 1995.

Interview with Rafael Solano, president of Havana Press

SERGIO GATRIA from New Jersey. We want your opinion regarding the debate this week in the House where the name of Havana Press, your name, Jose Rivero's, who are journalists who are being persecuted in Cuba, we want to know what your opinion is with regard to these Congressmen who were defending you.

SOLANO. Well, let me tell you that when I first received the news I was very excited. Family members in Miami called me that on the U.S. TV channels my name was appearing. In other words, a series of personalities in this Congressional session spoke about persecution and where it affects me directly. As President of Havana Press I am very grateful to these people, among who are Ileana Ros-Lehtinen, Lincoln Diaz-Balart, Robert Menendez, Robert Torricelli, Senator Jesse Helms and Congressman Solomon from New York. That is an incentive for all the independent press in Cuba, that people within the U.S. government defend the independent press and that encourage us to continue our task in this country that censors the freedom of expression, it inspires us to continue exercising independent journalism. I can sincerely tell you that I am very grateful to these individuals and I believe history will one day pick up these names that fight civically so that we, the independent journalists, can continue practicing our careers without the harassment from the repressive organs of this government.

GATRIA. Have you continued to be persecuted?

SOLANO. Yes. As everyone knows, last week I was arrested by three officials of our country's State Security. I personally, as director of Havana Press, am threatened with 10 years of jail for the crime of enemy propaganda. In other words, in our country, he who expresses himself freely is considered as a person who issues enemy propaganda. However, the Constitution states that every Cuban citizen has the right to express himself freely and change ideas, but in practice, it is not allowed. Our position is that if we have to go to jail for our cause, free press, the independent press of which Jose Marti dreamt about, we are willing to take that risk.

GATRIA. Are you the only journalist that has been arrested or have there been others?

SOLANO. Well Mr. Jose Rivero was also arrested in the past few days. I was arrested on Thursday and he was arrested on Friday; he also suffers from government harassment by the State's Security Forces. I think the free press is an instrument to make public the true Cuban reality and that is what the government is afraid of, but, when we feel the support of people like the ones I mentioned we are inspired and we love our fight for a free press in Cuba even more.

GATRIA. You also said that several journalists were being attacked didn't you?

SOLANO. Well actually, I have next to me the Vice-President of Havana Press who has actually been attacked because they have launched a wave of attacks against independent journalists, supposed delinquents have attacked independent journalists and I would like you to speak to Julio Martinez so that he can tell you what happened.

GATRIA. So you were attacked?

MARTINEZ. Yes, I was attacked by two unknown assailants the morning of the 15th of September when I was headed home. They immobilized me and took my jacket, shirt and tie and they left me with pants and shoes.

GATRIA. Do you think that was a normal mugging or have there been other attacks against journalists?

MARTINEZ. Solano was attacked by two unknowns after he interviewed the ex-lieutenant Colonel Labrada. Rail Rivero was also attacked a few days before and they stole his briefcase. I was the last to be attacked.

GATRIA. So it is a strange coincidence that there have been so many muggings of Cuban journalists.

MARTINEZ. They must simply be categorized as suspicious muggings.

GATRIA. Do you have anything else to add, Martinez?

MARTINEZ. I want to congratulate those U.S. government individuals who have come out in defense of the independent journalists in Cuba. I especially want to thank Ileana Ros-Lehtinen and the gentlemen Lincoln Diaz-Balart and Bob Menendez who are Cuban.

GATRIA. You know that Helms-Burton was approved in the House . . .

SOLANO. Did it have more than the two thirds?

GATRIA. Almost 300 votes . . . Has there been any reaction from the Cuban people?

SOLANO. So it had a great majority. Well, I don't think the Cuban people are very aware of what's happened, maybe the Cuban press will have something today. You know that the Cuban government had launched a huge campaign to stop Helms-Burton, holding meetings in the streets, at work. We had a favorable reaction to the approval of the bill and we gave our reasons in Cuba's free press.

Interview with Elizardo San Pedro Marin, president of Democratic Solidarity Party

GATRIA. I need you to state your name, the organization and your opinion regarding Helms-Burton.

SAN PEDRO MARIN. We consider the approval of Helms-Burton in the House is a very positive step that brings us closer to a peaceful transition to democracy. The Cuban government has felt the effects of the U.S. economic embargo after the fall of the socialist bloc and it began to issue changes in the economic sector, not in the political but in the economic to try and retain its power. All this foreign investment and looking for foreign investors shows that they have no means within the country they have no solution to the problems we face. And so the fight against Helms-Burton has become the Cuban government's foreign relations priority and they have been using all their time and manpower to fight against it. There is still a lot of territory for the Helms-Burton bill to cover but I believe the reasonable outcome will be reached, that the bill will be approved. The Cuban government doesn't understand any other kind of language except this style, it is a government that is known for its intolerance. So I think it is very positive that this bill was approved because it is a commitment by the U.S. Congress to democracy in Cuba. And even though we Cubans know that we are the ones responsible for the changes within the island, we also need the support from the U.S. government and this time we have it.

GATRIA. Do the other dissidents in Cuba have the same criteria?

SAN PEDRO MARIN. There are all different kinds of opinions among the dissidents. Of course there are dissidents who think there are other alternatives to the situation, such as the embargo being lifted, establishing a dialogue, that Helms-Burton not be approved etc., but the Cuban government has never stated that those changes will help to bring about any kind of political change. For example, the Cuban government has never stated that in exchange for something it will release political prisoners, it does not recognize the internal opposition, it doesn't speak about a free electoral process, and it doesn't even speak about asking the people if they want "Socialism or Death", or if they want pluralism and democracy. In other words, there can be no concessions to the Cuban government if the Cuban government has no intention of solving any of its internal political problems.

GATRIA. What is the opinion of the majority of the Cuban people with whom you have spoken?

SAN PEDRO MARIN. The people don't know this bill. The legislation has not been published by the Cuban press. The people only know sections, details, partial or manipulated information so the people really don't know. And even the free press that reaches them, like Radio Marti, only broadcasts sections of the bill so the people don't know. I'm sure that there are people who don't understand it and don't share this criteria but I think what the people need right now is that this bill be approved and made law.

Interview with Raul Rivero, Cuba Press

GATRIA. Helms-Burton was passed in the House, would you like to make a statement?

RIVERO. Well, I signed a letter from the Democratic Solidarity Part (Sampedro Marin) on a personal level, I'm not a member of any political party but I signed it as a journalist and as a Cuban. I support the bill, I believe in it. It may seem strange and there has been a lot of controversy that people could want more pressure on their country, the problem is however, that there is no foreign blockade, only an internal one that causes damage, that is stuck on us by the government, that is the true blockade that hurts the people. The true blockade as I said is an internal one, issued by a group of people who wish to stay in power and that is what has this country in ruins, not just in material ruin, but a spiritual ruin.

Interview with Jose Rivero, Cuba Press

GATRIA. Your names were mentioned and the persecution suffered.

RIVERO. Well, it's something that has been happening for the past couple of months against the members of the free press and they seem to have it in especially for Solano and myself. Especially after the 13 of July, the anniversary of the sinking of the "13 de Marzo" tugboat, since the 11th or 12th we've been visited by these people who harass us and try to manipulate us and now around the 15th of this month when we were arrested for a couple of hours. We know that this is how it is going to be and it is nothing out of the ordinary where dissidents are concerned. Against members of political or human rights groups there has always been repression, against journalists it is a more sensitive issue.

GATRIA. What does the government want you to do?

RIVERO. They want us to leave. They don't care if we practice journalism is the U.S. or Europe they just don't want us here so that they can protect their public image which as you know is very important to them and that is why they have always tried to monopolize the press.

AMENDMENT NO. 2916, AS MODIFIED

Mr. ASHCROFT. Mr. President, I come to the floor to make a motion in regard to the second-degree amendment which I have submitted to this body. It is an amendment related to term limits. I believe that it is a substantial question and item on the agenda of the American people. All the polls indicate overwhelmingly that the people favor term limits. Forty States term limit their Governors; 20-some States have attempted to term limit the U.S. Congress.

The amendment before the U.S. Senate is a simple one. It says:

It is the sense of the Senate that the United States Senate should pass a constitutional amendment limiting the number of terms Members of Congress can serve.

Members of this body have debated this issue on this occasion and on previous occasions. The pros and cons are well known. I do not believe we will settle this issue with a sense-of-the-Senate resolution, but I do believe it is possible for us to identify those of us who are for term limits and those of us who are against term limits.

In order to get this vote, I have conferred with the majority leader, and I have modified the amendment so as to make it consistent with his agreement with the rest of the freshman class on the Republican side and others that the amendment itself should be voted on next April.

Thus, this amendment merely says that it is the sense of the Senate that we should pass a constitutional amendment limiting the number of terms that Members of Congress can serve. I want to express my appreciation to the majority leader for his cooperation in this respect.

Last week, he assured me that he would do his best to assist me in getting a vote on this matter at the earliest possible time this week, and here we are on the first day of our deliberations this week, and we will have an opportunity to vote in this respect.

The procedure which I intend to invoke in order to have this vote is a motion to table the amendment. Those who vote against tabling would be voting in favor of term limits; those who vote in favor of tabling, would be voting against term limits. But this will provide an opportunity for us to vote on this most important issue.

So, Mr. President, I now move to table the Ashcroft second-degree amendment regarding the limitation of congressional terms, and I ask for the yeas and nays.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there a sufficient second?

There is a sufficient second.

The yeas and nays were ordered.

Mr. DOLE addressed the Chair.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The majority leader.

Mr. DOLE. Mr. President, if I can take 1 minute or 2 minutes of leader time.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

Mr. DOLE. Mr. President, I do not have any objection to the vote. I am going to vote against tabling the resolution. But as I indicated when we were requested by nearly every group who is supporting term limits, in addition to the Christian Coalition, I thought nearly every Member, every Member of the freshman class and others, we did accommodate them by saying we would have the vote later. Some suggest next April, which would give them time to do whatever they do in that time to encourage more people to vote for term limits.

So I do not have any problems with the efforts of Senator ASHCROFT. I was prepared to bring it up 3 weeks ago, but I must say the same thing happened with the flag amendment. We asked about it, and then all the people who support the flag amendment said, "Oh, we have to have more time." All right, we will give you more time.

I am not certain when that amendment will be brought up, or if they would like to do it later this year. I am not certain we will have time. We had time last week and the week before. We had time for term limits. I assume by next April we will have some additional time. I cannot set an exact date. All this resolution says is that we should vote sometime on term limits. I do not have any problem with that. So I hope the amendment will not be tabled.

Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that letters from the supporters of term limits requesting that I reschedule the term limits vote for next year be printed in the RECORD.

There being no objection, the letters were ordered to be printed in the RECORD, as follows:

CHRISTIAN COALITION,
Chesapeake, VA, October 13, 1995.

Hon. ROBERT DOLE,
Majority Leader, U.S. Senate, Washington, DC.
DEAR SENATOR DOLE: The Cristian Coalition thanks you for granting our request to reschedule a vote on a constitutional amendment to provide for term limits until next year.

Postponement of the vote should increase our prospects for success as the Senate will not be in the midst of deliberations on reconciliation and appropriations bills, and 1996 will be an election year.

Thank you for your leadership and for your support for term limits.

Sincerely,

BRIAN LOPINA,
Director, Governmental Affairs Office.

TERM LIMITS ACTIVISTS APPLAUD SENATOR DOLE FOR RESCHEDULING TERM LIMITS VOTE; PLEDGE TO MOBILIZE GRASSROOTS SUPPORT FOR ISSUE

WASHINGTON, DC.—Term limits activists today applauded Senate Majority Leader Bob Dole (R-KS) for agreeing to their request to reschedule the Senate vote on term limits.

"We applaud the willingness of Sen. Dole to reschedule the first ever Senate floor vote on a term limits constitutional amendment," said Cleta Mitchell, Director/General Counsel of Americans Back in Charge in Washington, D.C. "We requested that Sen. Dole reschedule the vote on term limits until next year. We believe it is in the best interests of the issue to be able to focus public attention on term limits for the weeks leading up to the Senate vote and that is not possible at this time, with the congressional focus on the budget, taxes and Medicare. It would not be fair to term limits for the vote to occur now and we are pleased that Sen. Dole agreed to our request that floor action be rescheduled."

"Term limits is an issue of fundamental importance and one that the American people care about. Over 25 million votes have been cast in favor of term limits in the past five years in elections held in 22 states. Ultimately, the members of the U.S. Senate will be called upon to make a decision as to whether they intend to honor or ignore the obvious will of the American people. We want to be certain that when that day comes, the people have had a full and fair opportunity to weigh in on the issue with their Senators, reminding the Senate of the public support for term limits. We look forward to working with our principal author, Sen. Thompson and the other members of the Senate supporting term limits to build the Senate between now and next spring when SJ Res 21 comes to the Senate floor."

Americans Back in Charge is the first national term limits organization, which grew out of the 1st in the nation Colorado state term limits effort in 1989-90. Other groups participating in the Term Limits Coalition include American Conservative Union, Council for Citizens Against Government Waste, Council for Government Reform, Seniors Coalition, and the Christian Coalition.

THOMPSON THANKS DOLE FOR RESCHEDULING TERM LIMITS VOTE

WASHINGTON, DC.—Senator Fred Thompson (R-TN) today thanked Senate Majority Leader Bob Dole for his willingness to reschedule a Senate floor vote on Thompson's term limits Constitutional amendment from this week to early next year.

"The Majority Leader has provided supporters of term limits with an opportunity to maximize the public's involvement in this critical debate," Thompson said, "while at the same time giving term limits backers in the Senate the time to urge their colleagues in the strongest terms to support the amendment. Make no mistake, it is in the best interest of the term limits movement that this Senate vote come next April."

Thompson pointed out that a vote now, in the midst of the Senate debate over the budget and appropriations legislation, would not receive the public or Senate attention it deserves.

Eight other Senate freshmen joined Thompson on a letter delivered to Majority Leader Dole on October 4 requesting that the vote be rescheduled in April. In addition, the Term Limits Coalition—which includes Americans Back in Charge, American Conservative Union, Christian Coalition, Council for Government Reform, Seniors Coalition, Council for Citizens Against Government Waste and National Taxpayers Union—strongly urged in a separate letter that Dole delay the floor debate and vote.

U.S. SENATE,
Washington, DC, October 3, 1995.

Hon. BOB DOLE,
Majority Leader, U.S. Senate, Washington, DC.

DEAR SENATOR DOLE: As the primary sponsors and supporters of Senate Joint Resolution 21, the constitutional amendment to limit congressional terms, we are joining forces to request that the Senate postpone any scheduled vote on SJ Res 21 until April, 1996.

We have been meeting with and discussing the upcoming term limits vote in the Senate with those individuals and organizations who are most dedicated to passage by Congress of the term limits constitutional amendment. Those who are prepared to lead the effort to round up votes for SJ Res 21 are in agreement that it makes little sense to bring the issue to the Senate floor for a vote this fall when the Senate is otherwise wholly absorbed with the crucial budget issues.

Supporters of term limits have indicated to us that the crush of other legislative business pending before the Senate over the next two months will make it difficult, if not impossible, for term limits to receive the kind of attention from the Senate and the American people that it deserves.

We do not propose an indefinite postponement of the first recorded vote on the term limits amendment. Rather, we would specifically ask that the resolution be scheduled for a vote in April, 1996. By making this change in the schedule, we believe that it will enable the Senate leadership to work with term limits supporters inside and outside the Senate to achieve the maximum possible support for SJ Res 21.

Please let us know at your earliest possible convenience your response to this letter so that those of us committed to term limits can have the certain knowledge of exactly how and when the Senate plans to proceed in considering this vitally important issue. The American people are anxious for the Senate to consider term limits when we can give it our full attention. We believe that April, 1996 is the appropriate time for a complete and fair Senate debate on term limits. We urge your favorable consideration of this request.

Sincerely,

James M. Inhofe, Spencer Abraham, Rick Santorum, Rod Grams, Jon Kyl, Fred Thompson, Bill Frist, Craig Thomas, and Mike DeWine.

SEPTEMBER 29, 1995.

Hon. BOB DOLE,
Majority Leader, U.S. Senate, Washington, DC.

DEAR SENATOR DOLE: The undersigned organizations have been actively involved in the effort to pass the constitutional amendment to limit the terms of members of Congress. We are all deeply committed to term limits as a cornerstone of a permanent restraint on the role of the federal government. We believe that limiting the terms of members of Congress is an important structural change that the American people support overwhelmingly and we want to do all in our power to help bring term limits to reality as part of our Constitution.

To that end, we are aware that you have promised to bring the term limits constitutional amendment to the floor of the U.S. Senate for a vote in the 104th Congress and for that we are grateful. We believe it is significant that this Congress will allow, for the first time in America's history, a recorded vote on term limits in the House and the Senate. While we appreciate your commitment to bring term limits to the Senate floor this fall, we are asking that you postpone consideration of the term limits amendment to April of next year.

All of us are aware of the difficult and crowded legislative calendar facing the United States Senate during the weeks between now and the scheduled adjournment of the first session of the 104th Congress. Term limits is an issue that deserves a complete and open debate on the floor of the United States Senate. We believe that the American people are entitled to such a full and fair hearing on the issue of term limits—and we believe that this fall is not a time when such a debate can or will occur. Because of the budget, tax, Medicare and other major fiscal issues facing the Senate, not to mention the other issues remaining to be considered as part of the House Contract with America, we do not believe that term limits will be able to be given its proper consideration by the Senate if the vote is held this fall. We do not think there is adequate time available to the members or the citizens to focus the necessary national attention on term limits if it is wedged among the issues now facing Congress.

It is further our belief that the most important contribution you can make at this point in time toward helping to maximize the Senate's support for term limits is by granting to the supporters of term limits a specified time on the Senate calendar for April, 1996 to schedule a vote on term limits. If April is not acceptable, we would request that you advise us now of another time certain in the spring of next year when term limits will be rescheduled for a Senate vote.

We believe that this is more appropriate timing that will benefit the issue of term limits and the ability of the American people to focus their attention—and that of their Senators—on the importance of this vote.

We urgently request that you adopt this strategy and notify us as soon as possible as to whether we can expect a Senate vote in April of 1996, or exactly when such a vote would be rescheduled. We look forward to the opportunity to work with your leadership team to encourage passage of the constitutional amendment for term limits next year.

Thank you for your consideration.

Organizations Supporting Term Limits: Americans Back in Charge, American Conservative Union, Christian Coalition, Council for Government Reform, Seniors Coalition, and Council for Citizens Against Government Waste.

Mr. LEVIN. Mr. President, I will vote to table the Ashcroft amendment to H.R. 927, the Cuban Liberty and Democratic Solidarity Act.

I have not yet decided how I will vote on an amendment to the Constitution proposing limits on the terms of office for Members of Congress when it comes before the Senate next year.

The Ashcroft amendment is not a constitutional amendment. It is a sense-of-the-Senate resolution lacking the force of law. Its language is totally open-ended without restrictions and standards. Therefore, although I may support specific constitutional amendment language when it is offered, I cannot support and will vote to table the Ashcroft amendment.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The pending question is on agreeing to the motion to table amendment No. 2916 offered by the Senator from Missouri.

CENSUS BUREAU BURDENS ON SMALL BUSINESS

Mr. COVERDELL. Mr. President, I rise today to bring your attention to a single example of what I believe to be an all too common practice of our Government bullying small businesses with burdensome requirements.

My office recently received a letter from a small business in Georgia describing the mounds of reports required by the U.S. Bureau of the Census. I believe this case serves as an excellent example of the kind of bully Government so many of us in the Senate have worked to control through regulation reform and paper work reduction. The most troubling message to me in this letter is that this small company does not perceive such Government burdens as atypical, just as a normal course of doing business in America.

How far are we going to stretch the limited resources of our small businesses? Let me list for you the reports this company, the Great American Cookie Co., must submit to the Bureau of the Census or face Federal penalties: Report of Organization, Survey of Industrial Research and Development, Survey of Business, Investment Plans Survey, Current Retail Sales and Inventory Report, Annual Trade Report, and Annual Capital Expenditures Survey.

In addition, it also provides much of the same information to each of the more than 40 States and in some cases municipalities in which it operates retail outlets. These State reports include summaries on payroll taxes, income taxes, property taxes, sales taxes, worker's compensation, property and liability insurance, annual reports and franchise returns.

As you and my other colleagues know, we succeeded in getting a provision included in the Paper Work Reduction Act to reduce the burden of firms who are forced to file quarterly reports by the Bureau of the Census used to compile the "Quarterly Financial Report for Manufacturing, Mining, and Trade Corporations." While I am pleased this is now law, I firmly believe we can do more to reduce the formidable burdens imposed by the Bureau of the Census, especially for small businesses.

By allowing this veritable gauntlet of requirements for doing business in America to continue, I wonder at the kind of message we, the Members of the U.S. Senate, are sending to small businesses.

Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the content of the letter be printed in the RECORD.

There being no objection, the letter was ordered to be printed in the RECORD, as follows:

GREAT AMERICAN COOKIE CO., INC.,
Atlanta, GA, September 14, 1995.

Hon. PAUL COVERDELL,
U.S. Senate, Washington, DC.

DEAR SENATOR COVERDELL: I am writing this letter to express concern over reporting requirements of the Census Bureau upon The Great American Cookie Company, Inc. (the Company). The Company is currently responsible for the following reports: Report of Organization, Survey of Industrial Research and Development, Survey of Businesses, Investment Plans Survey, Current Retail Sales and Inventory Report, Annual Trade Report and Annual Capital Expenditures Survey. We understand that, as a governmental agency, the information provided by these reports is a valuable tool for monitoring certain types of business activity. However, as a small business with limited resources, these reporting requirements place an undue burden on us.

The initial difficulty arises from the fact that we currently have over 100 retail outlets located in over 40 states. As a result, we are already providing a multitude of information to each state (and in some instances, each municipality). These reporting requirements include, but are not limited to, payroll, income, property, sales and use taxes, worker's compensation, property and liability insurance, annual reports and franchise returns. Along with these requirements come the inevitable compliance audits. These reporting requirements, that are merely a cost of doing business in each locality, considerably increase our administrative costs.

Furthermore, over the past two years, our form of business organization has changed. Late in 1993, our company became subject to The Security and Exchange Commission's reporting requirements as defined in The Securities Exchange Act of 1934. To satisfy these reporting requirements, we have had to stretch our resources further.

As a company, we view our circumstances not as excuses, but rather as evidence that governmental controls can sometimes create more of a burden to certain businesses instead of a benefit. Certainly, the letter of the law can require us to continue to report the requested information or incur the penalties. However, in keeping with the spirit of the law, we respectfully submit this letter as a plea to be relieved of our Census Bureau reporting requirements.

Thank you for your consideration in this matter.

Best regards,

W. JAMES SQUIRE III, CFE,
Senior Vice President—Franchising.

THE BAD DEBT BOXSCORE

Mr. HELMS. Mr. President, the skyrocketing Federal debt, now about $25 billion short of $5 trillion, has been fueled for a generation by bureaucratic hot air; it is sort of like the weather, everybody has talked about it but almost nobody did much about it. That attitude began to change immediately after the elections in November 1994.

When the new 104th Congress convened this past January, the U.S. House of Representatives quickly approved a balanced budget amendment to the U.S. Constitution. On the Senate side, all but one of the 54 Republican Senators supported the balanced budget amendment.

That was the good news. The bad news was that only 13 Democrat Senators supported it, and that killed the balanced budget amendment for the time being. Since a two-thirds vote—67 Senators, if all Senators are present—is necessary to approve a constitutional amendment, the proposed Senate amendment failed by one vote. There will be another vote during the 104th Congress.

Here is today's bad debt boxscore:

As of the close of business Monday, October 16, the Federal debt—down to the penny—stood at exactly $4,967,827,640,196.29 or $18,857.96 for every man, woman, and child on a per capita basis.

BIOTECHNOLOGY PROCESS PATENTS

Mr. HATCH. Mr. President, this afternoon, the House gave final approval to S. 1111, a bill Senator KENNEDY and I have authored to remove barriers to the patenting of biotechnology processes by establishing a modified examination by the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office [PTO] of those patent applications.

Passage of this legislation is a tremendous testament to the foresight and capabilities of our House colleague, Representative CARLOS MOORHEAD, chairman of the House Judiciary Subcommittee on Courts and Intellectual Property. Chairman MOORHEAD drafted the original legislation this session, H.R. 587, which was approved in committee on June 7, 1995.

The bill now goes to the President for signature.

Mr. President, under the provisions of S. 1111, if a claimed biotechnology process uses or produces a patentable composition of matter, the process will be presumed nonobvious for the purpose of examining the process. This modified examination will resolve delays and inconsistent determinations faced by biotechnology patentees under present PTO practices, and thereby increase innovation and stimulate the development of new products and processes.

For the edification of my colleagues, I want to take this historic opportunity to explain the purpose of the bill and the need for the legislation.

Biotechnology: The Office of Technology Assessment defines biotechnology as "any technique that uses living organisms—or substances from those organisms—to make or modify products, to improve plants or animals, or to develop microorganisms for specific uses."

Biotechnology, in the sense of genetic manipulation, has been practiced by man for many hundreds of years. It has been used successfully by plant breeders in developing schemes for crossing plants to introduce and maintain desirable traits in various crops such as wheat or maize. Bakers and beverage producers have used yeast, a fungus, for leavening dough and for fermentation.

Today, the practice of biotechnology is far more powerful, with promising applications in diverse industries ranging from pharmaceuticals, agriculture and nutrition to environmental clean-up, new energy resources and law enforcement.

Some examples of widely known products made with the use of biotechnology include insulin, human growth hormone, home pregnancy tests, tests for diagnosing human immunodeficiency virus (HIV), vaccine against the Hepatitis B virus, and high-protein yielding corn.

The dramatic breakthroughs and future promises of biotechnology became possible in the 1950's when scientists James Watson and Francis Crick discovered the structure of DNA, or deoxyribonucleic acid. Ironically, neither scientist seemed aware that their discovery would give birth to an entire new generation of technology. In a March 12, 1953, letter to Max Delbruck, Watson wrote:

In the next day or so Crick and I shall send a note to Nature proposing our structure (of DNA) as a possible model, at the same time emphasizing its provisional nature and the lack of proof in its favor. Even if wrong, I believe it to be interesting since it provides a concrete example of a structure composed of complementary chains. If, by chance, it is right, then I suspect we may be making a slight dent into the manner in which DNA can reproduce itself.

The discovery of DNA put more than a slight dent in our knowledge of basic biology; it became the basis of a new, promising industry that has led to significant breakthroughs in the ability to improve human life.

DNA, known as the ultimate molecule of life, contains the codes that instruct cells to grow, to differentiate into specialized structures, to duplicate, and to respond to environmental changes.

DNA guides the special functions of cells by directing the synthesis of proteins. A gene, which is comprised of a specific section of DNA, contains the special instructions the cell needs to synthesize proteins. Proteins give living organisms their unique characteristics. Some proteins give the organism its structure; others mediate the many biochemical reactions that occur within the body and are necessary for organisms to function.

The DNA code for certain genes is sometimes defective. The defect may have been present at birth or later developed due to other factors such as infection, age, or exposure to ultraviolet light. When a defect occurs, the code for the synthesis of proteins is scrambled and causes the cell to produce either a defective protein or no protein at all. If the function of this defective protein is important, this can have serious consequences for the health of the organism. For human beings, the deficiency in the protein may lead to tragic disabilities like cancer and arthritis, or even lead to death. For corn and other agricultural crops, the incorrect protein may lead to limited resistance to insects or extinguishment of the crop all together.

Once scientists determine which specific protein performs which function in an organism, they, with the aid of biotechnology, are able to effectively fight disease and other abnormalities. For example, when the absence of a certain regulatory protein leads to cancer, it is possible to stop the growth of cancerous cells by replacing the defective gene with a normal one that would produce the necessary protein in the body.

It is also possible to reproduce the normal protein in another organism and then supply it in the human body. The technology enabling this method is known as recombinant DNA technology. A well-known example of such a method is the process used to produce insulin. Insulin is produced in mass quantities in microorganisms and then injected into human beings to treat diabetes.

Proteins produced through recombinant DNA technology are used not only to treat numerous diseases, such as cancer, allergies, blood disorders, and infections, but also for more prosaic tasks, such as use in laundry detergents and food production. All of the tools that currently allow scientists to perform such marvels are the product of innovative research utilizing biotechnology.

Given the complexities of developing such treatments, the underlying research is often expensive and takes many years before it yields practical results. The biotechnology industry estimates that the average cost of discovery and bringing a single drug to market exceeds $230 million. It is also estimates that bringing a drug from initial discovery to final FDA approval takes an average of 12 years.

Certain incentives are necessary to encourage biotechnology researchers to invest in the much needed, but often expensive, research endeavors. To date, the patent laws have been the source of such incentives. The biotechnology industry relies heavily on patent protection in recouping the costs of bringing new drugs to the market. Furthermore, adequate patent protection is vital in persuading investors to provide the necessary capital to the industry.

The biotechnology industry has been one of the success stories in U.S. industry, creating new jobs and pioneering exciting breakthroughs that improve our way of life. However, the biotechnology industry now faces formidable challenges in continuing its ground-breaking research. Japan and Europe have invested heavily in biotech research and Japan has targeted pharmaceutical development as an industry of vital economic importance. In facing this competition, it is vital that the United States provide adequate and effective intellectual property protection for the biotechnology industry.

General patent protection: A patent on an invention gives the patent holder the right to exclude others from making, using, or selling that invention. Under 35 U.S.C., section 101, an inventor may obtain a patent on "any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof . . ." Once an invention is determined to be of the kind that may be patentable under section 101, it must also satisfy other requirements before a patent is granted on that particular invention. The two other major requirements are that the invention be "novel" and be "nonobvious."

If a U.S. patent is granted on a particular product, the owner of the patent can prevent others from manufacturing, selling, or importing the product in the United States. However, because patents are national rights, the owner of the U.S. patent cannot prevent others from manufacturing or selling the patented product in another country. In order to prevent others from exploiting his patented product in another country, the inventor must obtain a patent in that country.

A patent may be granted for a new method of using or a new method of making a product. Such patents are referred to as "process patents." It is not uncommon for an inventor to seek both product and process patent protection relating to the same invention. A process patent must meet the same basic requirements for patentability as a product patent, that is, that the claimed invention be new, useful, and nonobvious. The owner of a process patent may prevent the sale or manufacture of a product made using that process.

The courts have described the difference between a process patent and a product patent as one relating to scope:

A product patent gives the patentee the right to restrict the use and sale of the product regardless of how and by whom it was manufactured. A process patentee's power extends only to those products made by the patented process. A process patent thus "leaves the field open to ingenious men to invent and to employ other processes. . . ." A sale of a product made by a patented process does not itself infringe the patent; it is the unauthorized use of the process that infringes the patent.

The Process Patent Amendments Act of 1988 provided additional protection for process patent owners. Under this act, the process patent owner may not only prevent unauthorized domestic use of the process, but also the importation of foreign-manufactured products if a U.S. patented process was used in making the products. This amendment provides protection to domestic U.S. process patent holders against foreign companies using the U.S. patented process overseas and importing the resulting product into the United States without any recourse by the process patent owner for infringement. Therefore, a patent on the final product, or at least a patent on the process for making that product, is necessary in order to effectively protect innovators from the unfair competition of imported "knock-offs" of their creations.

Although a product patent is generally considered to provide better protection for innovators than process patents, they are often not available for products of biotechnology. Biotechnology products are difficult to patent because they are usually the recombinant version of a naturally occurring protein. In many cases, the naturally occurring version of the protein has been identified and described in the literature to some extent. Even if this protein has not been completely characterized, the patent application on the recombinant version of the protein may be denied because, in the eyes of the PTO, it is not novel, or it is obvious in light of the previous disclosure. In patent law parlance, that product has already been discovered and does not warrant a patent under the U.S. patent code.

A good example of this problem is human insulin. Human insulin was discovered in 1921 when scientists first extracted the protein from a dog's pancreas. In 1951, Frederick Sanger identified the chemical structure of human insulin and won the Nobel Prize for this discovery. He would not have been able to obtain a patent on insulin despite the fact that his discovery earned him the Nobel Prize. Then in 1979, David Goeddel synthesized human insulin using biotechnology methods, enabling patients to gain access to the product they needed to control their diabetes. Even Goeddel would not have been able to receive a product patent on insulin.

The difficulties in obtaining patents on products of biotechnology, therefore, make the availability of effective process patent protection vital in providing a reward for the achievements of biotechnology pioneers. Moreover, adequate protection is necessary to encourage the continued investment in biotechnology research and development.

Biotechnology process patenting: The ability of the biotechnology industry to obtain process patent protection has been undermined by the lack of clarity in the rules for the patentability of such process patents. Not only does the lack of adequate and effective process patent protection affect the industry's ability to fend off unfair competition of foreign-made products using U.S. patented starting products, but it also inhibits venture capital investment in biotechnology research.

The uncertainty in the rules of process patent protection has been the result of the Patent and Trademark Office's [PTO] inconsistent and erroneous application of In re Durden, and other related and conflicting decisions issued by the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit [CAFC].

Although In re Durden did not involve a biotechnology invention, the principles espoused by the court in that case have had a significant effect on the patentability of biotechnology processes. In re Durden involved an appeal of the PTO's denial of a patent for a process to make certain new chemical compounds. The process used was similar to one already familiar to those in the industry, however, it used a novel and nonobvious starting material and produced a novel and nonobvious chemical product. As stated by the court, the issue in the case was "whether a chemical process, otherwise obvious, is patentable because either or both the specific starting material employed and the product obtained are novel and nonobvious." The court concluded that the process was not patentable. Given the particular facts of In re Durden, it held that a process using a new starting material to make a new product will not automatically be presumed nonobviousness for patentability purposes. It noted that the patentability of each process claim must be evaluated on a case-by-case basis.

Since the In re Durden decision, it has become increasingly difficult to obtain process patent protection in the United States for genetic engineering inventions. It is reported that the PTO frequently cites this case in automatically rejecting applications for biotechnology processes.

The reasoning used in rejecting biotechnology process patent applications is as follows: The basic process of genetic engineering, recombinant DNA technology, is known. It consists of inserting a DNA molecule into a living cell so that the cellular machinery produces the specific protein encoded by the inserted DNA molecule. Therefore, when a new DNA molecule has been invented, it is assumed "obvious" that it can be used in a recombinant DNA process to produce the protein it encodes. Since nonobviousness is a condition for patentability, the process for producing the protein is rejected by the PTO as obvious. Under In re Durden, the process is rejected even if the starting materials used in the process in producing the final product are new and patentable.

The Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit revisited the issue in the subsequent case of In re Pleuddemann. As with In re Durden, this case involved a challenge of the PTO's denial of a patent to a process. The challenger had a patent on a starting material that he used in the process at issue to make a patentable final product. Except for the use of the patented starting material, the process for making the final product was already known in the industry. The court held that the process in this particular case was patentable. In its opinion, the court emphasized that In re Durden was not to be read as a "per se" rule against patenting old processes that use new starting materials or produce new products.

The court distinguished In re Durden in this case on the ground that the process at issue in In re Pleuddemann involved a process of "using" rather than a process of "making," which was the claimed process at issue in In re Durden. This distinction between the two types of processes was lost on many and has caused further confusion on the status of the law on patenting processes. It is not clear why a method of "using" a starting material should be treated differently, for purposes of determining nonobviousness, from a method of "making" the end product.

Relying on In re Pleuddemann, some applicants have manipulated phrasing in crafting patent applications to explain processes in terms of "using" rather than "making." However, the PTO continues to reject such claims citing In re Durden and arguing that such claims are really a process of making claim in disguise.

Although biotechnology innovators have difficulties obtaining patents on products and processes of biotechnology, they can receive patents on new starting materials they discover. However, unlike patents on products or the process by which those products are developed, U.S. patents on the starting materials fail to provide adequate protection from unfair foreign competition.

The U.S. patent on the starting materials—typically a new DNA molecule, a genetically altered host cell or a vector—can prevent others from using them in the United States in any way, including using them to produce a final product. However, without process patent protection, the patent owner of the starting materials cannot prevent another from taking the patented materials to another country, use it to produce a product based on such material, and import the product back into this country for commercial sale.

Under the patent laws, there is no infringement of the patent on the starting materials because there is no "use" of the materials in the United States. Without process patent protection, the inventor can not challenge the unfair importation of the product and is forced to watch helplessly as foreign copy-cats reap the harvest to which he, as a pioneer, is entitled.

The uncertainty in the examination of biotechnology process patents under current U.S. law has become a serious impediment to the development of new technologies in this industry. The confusion in the case has led to inconsistent results by patent examiners. The inconsistent application of the case law, in turn, has led to severe delays or denials of issuance of process patent protection to deserving patent applicants. The resolution of this problem will provide both certainty for patent applications in this field and adequate protection against unfair foreign competition.

It is not clear if or when the CAFC will resolve the confusion in the case law relating to process patents. Currently, there are two cases pending in the CAFC relating to this issue. These two cases have been pending before the CAFC for over 3 years, and there is no indication when the court might issue a decision on them. Even if the court issues a decision on these cases, it is by no means certain that they will resolve the confusion caused by In re Durden and related cases. The PTO, in congressional hearings, testified that it does not believe it can resolve the problem administratively because of the seemingly conflicting court opinions.

S. 1111 resolves the In re Durden problem in our patent law by providing that a biotechnological process of making or using a product may be considered nonobvious if the starting material or resulting product is patentable. This change will provide a degree of certainty to the protection of biotechnology inventions and will simplify the PTO's examination of biotechnology process patent applications. This bill will also allow U.S. researchers to enforce their patents claiming a certain starting material against the unfair importation of products made overseas using such material.

As my colleagues are aware, the Senate has gone on record in support of this change in the law many times, most recently in 1994 when we approved the Deconcini-Hatch legislation. I am proud that the Congress has now given final approval to the bill, and I am hopeful the President will sign the measure as soon as it reaches his desk.

Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the text of S. 1111 and a section-by-section summary be printed in the RECORD at this point.

There being no objection, the material was ordered to be printed in the RECORD as follows:

S. 1111

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

SECTION 1. BIOTECHNOLOGICAL PROCESS PATENTS: CONDITIONS FOR PATENTABILITY; NONOBVIOUS SUBJECT MATTER.

Section 103 of title 35, United States Code, is amended—

(1) by designating the first paragraph as subsection (a);

(2) by designating the second paragraph as subsection (c); and

(3) by inserting after the first paragraph the following:

"(b) (1) Notwithstanding subsection (a), and upon timely election by the applicant for patent to proceed under this subsection, a biotechnological process using or resulting in a composition of matter that is novel under section 102 and nonobvious under subsection (a) of this section shall be considered nonobvious if—

"(A) claims to the process and the composition of matter are contained in either the same application for patent or in separate applications having the same effective filing date; and

"(B) the composition of matter, and the process at the time it was invented, were owned by the same person or subject to an obligation of assignment to the same person.

"(2) A patent issued on a process under paragraph (1)—

"(A) shall also contain the claims to the composition of matter used in or made by that process, or

"(B) shall, if such composition of matter is claimed in another patent, be set to expire on the same date as such other patent, notwithstanding section 154.

"(3) For purposes of paragraph (1), the term 'biotechnological process' means—

"(A) a process of genetically altering or otherwise inducing a single- or multi-celled organism to—

"(i) express an exogenous nucleotide sequence,

"(ii) inhibit, eliminate, augment, or alter expression of an endogenous nucleotide sequence, or

"(iii) express a specific physiological characteristic not naturally associated with said organism;

"(B) cell fusion procedures yielding a cell line that expresses a specific protein, such as a monoclonal antibody; and

"(C) a method of using a product produced by a process defined by (A) or (B), or a combination of (A) and (B)."

SEC. 2. PRESUMPTION OF VALIDITY; DEFENSES.

Section 282 of title 35, United States Code, is amended by inserting after the second sentence of the first paragraph the following:

"Notwithstanding the preceding sentence, if a claim to a composition of matter is held invalid and that claim was the basis of a determination of nonobviousness under section 103(b)(1), the process shall no longer be considered nonobvious solely on the basis of section 103(b)(1)."

SEC. 3. EFFECTIVE DATE.

The amendments made by section 1 shall apply to any application for patent filed on or after the date of enactment of this Act and to any application for patent pending on such date of enactment, including (in either case) an application for the reissuance of a patent.

SECTION-BY SECTION ANALYSIS AND DISCUSSION

SECTION 1. BIOTECHNOLOGICAL PROCESS PATENTS; CONDITIONS FOR PATENTABILITY; NONOBVIOUS SUBJECT MATTER

Section 1 provides a mechanism for applicants to facilitate the procurement of a patent for a biotechnological process that makes or uses a novel and non-obvious biotechnology product, overruling the decision in In re Durden, 763 F.2d 1406 (Fed. Cir. 1985). This section would amend section 103 of title 35, United States Code, to ensure that a biotechnological process would not be considered obvious, and thus unpatentable, if it either makes or uses a composition of matter that itself is novel and non-obvious.

The legislation has an impact on only one element of patentability of biotechnological processes—the element of non-obviousness. There is no guarantee of patentability even if the process claim satisfies the non-obvious provisions of the revised section 103. The process must still satisfy all other requirements of patentability, including novelty and utility among other requirements.

To qualify as non-obvious under this section, the claims to the process and the composition of matter, to which the process is linked, must be contained in either the same application for patent or in separate applications having the same effective filing date. Additionally, the composition of matter and the process at the time it was invented, must be owned by the same person or be subject to an obligation of assignment to the same person.

Section 1 also allows an applicant to demonstrate the independent patentability of a process under current law or proceed under the non-obviousness rule established by this section. Independent patentability may be demonstrated, for example, by showing the non-obviousness of the process through proof that the process demonstrates unpredictable results.

Finally, this section provides five possible definitions of the term "biotechnological process." These definitions limit the applicability of this section to biotechnological process patents. The new definitions are broad enough to include most genetic engineering technologies that are currently being used by biotechnology researchers.

The first proffered definition explains a "biotechnological process" as a process of inducing an organism to express a characteristic not naturally associated with it through the methods of genetic engineering or other methods. Such a process may cause an organism to "express an exogenous nucleotide sequence." An example of such a method is the process by which human insulin is produced in commercial quantities. The DNA sequence for human insulin is inserted into the bacteria E. coli so the bacteria begins expressing, or producing, human insulin in its cellular machinery.

This second definition of a "biotechnological process" specifies that such a process could be altering an organism to "inhibit, eliminate, augment, or alter expression of an endogenous nucleotide sequence." A popular example of a product produced by such a process is the Flavr-Savr Tomato. This process involves the alteration of tomatoes to eliminate the inter-cellular production of an enzyme that causes the tomato to rot. By eliminating the expression of this "rotting" enzyme, the tomato is allowed to have a longer shelf-life.

The third qualifying definition interprets "biotechnological process" as altering an organism to "express a specific physiological characteristic not naturally associated with said organism." The Hepatitis B virus vaccine is produced utilizing such a process. The "antigen," or surface protein to which the human immune system responds, for Hepatitis B is inserted into yeast to yield commercial quantities of the protein. The expression of the protein does not occur naturally in yeast but does so because its genetic coding has been altered. The protein is then removed from the yeast and injected into humans to induce the body to safely and naturally produce an immune reaction to fight the deadly virus, which causes liver damage and cancer. The use of such a process to combat many human and animal diseases, including AIDS.

The fourth qualifying definition comprises "cell fusion procedures." An example of such a process is the method used for producing monoclonal antibodies, referred to by scientists as "hybridoma technology." This technology involves fusing spleen cells that produce certain desired antibodies to a specialized "immortal" cell—usually a cancer cell—that no longer produces an antibody of its own. The resulting fused cells, or "hybridomas," grow continuously and rapidly like a cancer cell, yet they produce the desired antibodies. Monoclonal antibodies are widely used in targeting special cells to diagnose infections and cancer. The possibility of their use in the direct treatment of cancer and immune disorders is currently a major focus of biomedical researchers.

Finally, the fifth definition of a qualifying "biotechnological process" is described as any method of using a final product that has been produced by a process defined by any of the other four definitions provided or a combination of the processes thereof.

SECTION 2. PRESUMPTION OF VALIDITY

This section provides that if a patent claim to a composition of matter—either the starting material or the final product—is held invalid because the Patent and Trademark Office determines that it is non-obvious, the patent process application that is dependent on that composition of matter will no longer be entitled to rely on that composition of matter for a presumption of non-obviousness. In such a case, the inventor must show that such a process is non-obvious without relying on this legislation.

SECTION 3. EFFECTIVE DATE

The amendments made by this act are effective on the date of enactment. The amendments will apply to all patents filed on or after the date of enactment and all patent applications, including applications for the reissuance of a patent, pending on the date of enactment.

PETITIONS AND MEMORIALS

The following petitions and memorials were laid before the Senate and were referred or ordered to lie on the table as indicated:

POM-344. A resolution adopted by the Governing Board of the Northeast Ohio Areawide Coordinating Agency relative to the Environmental Protection Agency; to the Committee on Appropriations.

POM-345. A joint resolution adopted by the Legislature of the State of California; to the Committee on Appropriations:

"JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 29

"Whereas, the Congress of the United States is expected to consider funding for additional Air Force B-2 Stealth Bombers beyond the 20 currently authorized; and

"Whereas, international challenges persist, and the availability of stealth bomber technology will enable the Air Force to respond quickly and decisively; and

"Whereas, the United States' ability to respond effectively would be greatly undermined if the Air Force's current fleet of bombers is allowed to become obsolescent; and

"Whereas, according to the 1995 defense appropriations bill, 'Independent studies have concluded that the 20 B-2 aircraft currently on order are simply not enough to provide a militarily-significant and cost-effective long-range conventional bomber force . . .'; and

"Whereas, the B-2 is the only aircraft currently in production that incorporates advanced stealth technology, developed in California, that unlike the current fleet of bombers, gives the United States superiority over any adversary in the world; and

"Whereas, the B-2 program employs 9,000 people in California at Northrop Grumman Corporation, the prime contractor, and more than 2,000 suppliers throughout the state, and helps support thousands of additional jobs at local businesses: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly and Senate of the State of California, jointly, That the B-2 Stealth Bomber is acknowledged as a key element of the military strategy for the defense of the United States; and be it further

Resolved, That the Legislature of the State of California respectfully urges the President and the Congress of the United States to provide the necessary funding in the 1996 fiscal year for additional production of the Air Force B-2 Stealth Bomber, an important national resource; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the President and the Vice President of the United States, to the Speaker of the United States House of Representatives, and to each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States."

POM-346. A joint resolution adopted by the Legislature of the State of California; to the Committee on Armed Services.

"JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 40

"Whereas, the most recent base closure and realignment recommendations forwarded to the President by the federally-appointed Defense Base Realignment and Closure Commission now include an additional 20 California defense facilities; and

"Whereas, Presidents Franklin D. Roosevelt, John F. Kennedy, and Ronald Reagan led the charge in rebuilding American's defenses in the 20th Century and in practicing a policy of 'peace through strength'; and

"Whereas, the fruits of this policy were realized with the collapse of the Soviet empire, America's victory in the Cold War, and the military's stunning victory in the Persian Gulf War; and

"Whereas, Americans have a profound respect for the men and women of the United States military who faithfully serve the country; and

"Whereas, we believe that, if the men and women of the military are sent into harm's way, they must be equipped with whatever is necessary to ensure their safety and to get the job done; and

"Whereas, the world remains a dangerous place, with military involvements recently in Iraq, Haiti, and now Bosnia, and the maintenance of our defense should be a top priority; and

"Whereas, downsizing and streamlining military operations are important goals—but only as long as the security of the United States is not compromised; and

"Whereas, the bases in California, especially McClellan Air Force Base and the Long Beach Naval Shipyard, are vital national assets on the Pacific Rim; and

"Whereas, it was recently learned that technology from McClellan Air Force Base was used in the rescue of downed Air Force pilot Scott O'Grady in Bosnia; and

"Whereas, the radio beacon and transmitter, as well as the E3A AWACS aircraft equipment and radio communication system used by O'Grady and his rescuers, were repaired and serviced at McClellan Air Force Base; and

"Whereas, California has been forced to endure up to 50 percent of all national economic impact from base closures; and

"Whereas, the closure of these California facilities would represent direct and indirect job losses of up to 46,000 jobs, and since the California economy is highly reliant upon the high technology associated with national defense expenditures, these closures will only exacerbate that devastation; and

"Whereas, the California economy, already suffering from the strain of previous base closures, would be further injured by these additional closures, which would represent the loss of an estimated additional $10,200,000,000 in annual income: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly and Senate of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature of the State of California memorializes the President of the United States and the United States Congress to reject the entire base-closure list to be submitted on or before July 1, 1995, by the Defense Base Closure and Realignment Commission; and be it further

Resolved, That the President, in consultation with the Congress, is urged to develop a more balanced policy with regard to the security needs of the United States; and be it further

Resolved, That a more balanced national security policy should take into consideration the strong military strategic concerns of the United States Defense Department and the Joint Chiefs of Staff; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the President and Vice President of the United States, to the Speaker of the United States House of Representatives, and to each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States."

POM-347. A resolution adopted by the Chamber of Commerce of the City of San Angelo, Texas relative to trust fund accounts; referred jointly, pursuant to the order of August 4, 1977, to the Committee on the Budget, and to the Committee on Governmental Affairs.

POM-348. A resolution adopted by the Board of Commissioners of Caswell County, North Carolina relative to tobacco; to the Committee on Labor and Human Resources.

POM-349. A resolution adopted by the Military Chaplains Association of the United States of America relative to the Impact Aid Program; to the Committee on Labor and Human Resources.

POM-350. A joint resolution adopted by the Legislature of the State of California; to the Committee on Labor and Human Resources:

"JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 25

"Whereas, the Congress of the United States, acknowledging the fiscal burden placed on local educational agencies by the loss of revenue from traditional funding sources such as property, sales and income taxes resulting from a federal presence, in 1950 enacted Public Law 81-815/874 authorizing the Impact Aid program that was reauthorized in 1994 as Section 8003 of Title VIII of Public Law 103-382 (20 U.S.C. Sec. 236 and following); and

"Whereas, Federal impact aid is funding provided to a local school district in lieu of taxes not paid by the federal government and certain federal employees and to compensate for revenues the local community would collect if the land did not belong to the federal government; and

"Whereas, unlike other federally funded education programs, Federal impact aid is not a program designed to respond to a social need or provide supplemental state and local funding but is a program designed to help cover basic education costs; and

"Whereas, Federal impact aid is a program that imposes no federal requirements directing states or schools to develop performance standards or learning objectives; and

"Whereas, Federal impact aid is funding that goes directly to the local agency for the general support of the education program for all students as determined by the local educational agency without burdensome bureaucratic costs; and

"Whereas, there are 229 California school districts serving approximately 2,200,000 students located throughout the state from Del Norte County in the north, to San Diego County in the south, that educate 180,000 federally connected children who depend on the federal fair share financial contribution to the local educational system; and

"Whereas, withdrawal of federal impact aid funding would adversely impact the educational program of every school district that depends on federal impact aid to provide the federal government's share of support for the education of the federally connected child and force districts to curtail services to all children; and

"Whereas, the withdrawal of federal impact aid funding would result in state and local taxpayers subsidizing the education of the federally connected child; and

"Whereas, California and its citizens are struggling to overcome a severe economic crisis; and

"Whereas, the federal government's financial support for California's federally connected child and federal presence has declined below the 1981 level of funding although the numbers of children in the educational system has been increasing; Now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly and Senate of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature of the State of California proclaims its support for the maintenance and full funding of federal impact aid to local school districts; and be it further

Resolved, That the Legislature respectfully memorializes the President and Congress of the United States to uphold the responsibility of the federal government to provide funding to local school districts impacted by a federal presence; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the President and Vice President of the United States, to the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and to each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States."

POM-351. A concurrent resolution adopted by the Legislature of the State of Texas; to the Committee on Labor and Human Resources:

"SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 15

"Whereas, eighty-two national toll-free telephone hotlines provide assistance to victims of crime and disease but there is no such hotline for victims of domestic violence, who may not know whom to call or how to find a shelter; and

"Whereas, a national hotline for battered women was in operation from September, 1988, until June, 1992, receiving approximately 10,000 calls a month in its last months of operation; and

"Whereas, after the hotline closed for lack of funding, national women's organizations and statewide family violence coalitions reached a consensus that the Texas Council on Family Violence should lead a project to reestablish the hotline; and

"Whereas, the Texas Council on Family Violence has developed a plan to reestablish the national hotline after first establishing a pilot project in Texas; and the Texas Council on Family Violence has received more than $200,000 for the implementation of the Texas Pilot Hotline and has hired a hotline specialist who has worked on a detailed plan for the project; and

"Whereas, the Texas Council on Family Violence has developed a budget summary regarding the costs of the National Domestic Violence Hotline as well as the Texas pilot project; and

"Whereas, since 1978, the Texas Council on Family Violence has worked closely with the Texas Legislative, Texas state agencies, and Texas elected officials and has consistently demonstrated their organizational capacity and the requisite expertise to run a domestic violence hotline and has secured a portion of the funding to implement and maintain a statewide hotline for domestic violence victims and is poised to receive grant funding from the federal government to set up the nationwide 1-800 hotline for victims of domestic violence; and

"Whereas, section 316 of the Family Violence Prevention and Services Act (42 U.S.C. 10401 et seq.), as added by Section 40211, Violent Crime Control and Law Enforcement Act of 1994 (Pub. L. No. 103-322), signed into law by President Clinton on September 13, 1994, provides funds for a National Domestic Violence Hotline Grant to fund a 1-800 hotline for victims of domestic violence; and the Texas Council on Family Violence has worked for two years to obtain private and public money to establish such a hotline: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the 74th Legislature of the State of Texas hereby petition the Secretary of Health and Human Services to award to the Texas Council on Family Violence the National Domestic Violence Hotline Grant to set up a national hotline for victims of domestic violence; and, be it further

Resolved, That the Texas Secretary of State forward official copies of this resolution to the President of the United States, the president of the senate and speaker of the house of representatives of the United States Congress, all members of the Texas delegation to the congress, and to the Secretary of Health and Human Services with the request that this resolution be entered in the Congressional Record as a petition to the Secretary of Health and Human Services."

POM-352. A resolution adopted by the Military Chaplains Association of the United States of America relative to the Department of Veterans' Affairs Chaplain Service; to the Committee on Veterans' Affairs.

POM-353. A resolution adopted by the Council of City of Honolulu, Hawaii relative to the proposed 'Filipino Veterans Equity Act of 1995'; to the Committee on Veterans' Affairs.

POM-354. A joint resolution adopted by the Legislature of the State of Alabama; to the Committee on Veterans' Affairs.

"HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 271

"Whereas, Alabama's atomic veterans showed steadfast dedication and undisputed loyalty to their country and made intolerable sacrifices in service to America; and

"Whereas, these atomic veterans gave their all during the terribly hot atomic age to keep our country strong and free; and

"Whereas, these atomic veterans were unknowingly placed in the line of fire, after being assured that they faced no harm, and were subjected to an ungodly bombardment of ionizing radiation; and

"Whereas, the radiation to which they were exposed is now and will continue to eat away at their bodies every second of every day for the rest of their lives with no hope of cessation or cure; and

"Whereas, because their wounds were not of the conventional type, and were not caused by the enemy but by the United States Government, the atomic veterans did not receive service-connected medical disability benefits and did not receive a medal such as the Purple Heart; and

"Whereas, many atomic veterans have already died and others will die a horrible and painful death: Now therefore be it

Resolved by the Legislature of Alabama, both Houses thereof concurring, That atomic veterans be recognized by the federal government, and that the United States Senators and Representatives from Alabama support legislation granting service-connected medical and disability benefits to all atomic veterans who were exposed to ionizing radiation and legislation issuing a medal to atomic veterans to express the gratitude of the people and government of the United States for the dedication and sacrifices of these veterans, be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be sent by the Clerk of the House of Representatives to the President of the United States, the Vice President of the United States, the Speaker of the U.S. House of Representatives, the Secretary of Defense, the Secretary of Veterans Affairs, the Chairpersons of the Senate and the House of Representatives' Veterans Affairs Committees, and each member of Alabama's Congressional Delegation."

POM-355. A joint resolution adopted by the Legislature of the State of California; to the Committee on Veterans' Affairs.

"SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 14

"Whereas, the Philippine Islands became a United States possession in 1898 when they were ceded from Spain following the Spanish-American War and remained a possession of the United States until 1946; and

"Whereas, in 1934, Congress passed Public Law 73-127, the Philippine Independence Act, that set a 10-year timetable for the eventual independence of the Philippines and in the interim established a Commonwealth of the Philippines with certain powers over its internal affairs; and

"Whereas, the granting of full independence ultimately was delayed for two years until 1946 because of the Japanese occupation of the islands from 1942 to 1945; and

"Whereas, during the interval between 1934 and the final independence in 1946, the United States retained certain sovereign powers over the Philippines, including the right, upon order of the President of the United States, to call into the service of the United States Armed Forces all military forces organized by the Commonwealth government; and

"Whereas, President Roosevelt invoked this authority by executive order of July 26, 1941, bringing the Philippine Commonwealth Army into the service of the United States Armed Forces of the Far East under the command of Lt. General Douglas MacArthur; and

"Whereas, there are four groups of Filipino nationals who are entitled to all or some of the benefits to which United States veterans are entitled. These are:

"(1) Filipinos who served in the regular components of the United States Armed Forces.

"(2) Regular Philippine Scouts, called 'Old Scouts,' who enlisted in Filipino-manned units of the United States Army prior to October 6, 1945.

"(3) Special Philippine Scouts, called 'New Scouts,' who enlisted in the United States Armed Forces between October 6, 1945, and June 30, 1947, primarily to perform occupational duty in the Pacific following World War II.

"(4) Members of the Philippine Commonwealth Army who on July 26, 1941, were called into the service of the United States Armed Forces. This group includes organized guerrilla resistance units that were recognized by the United States Army; and

"Whereas, the first two groups, Filipinos who served in the regular components of the United States Army and Old Scouts, are considered United States veterans and are generally entitled to the full range of United States veterans' benefits; and

"Whereas, the other two groups, New Scouts and members of the Commonwealth Army, are eligible for certain benefits, and some of these are paid at lower than full rates. United States veterans' medical benefits for the four groups of Filipino veterans vary depending upon whether the person resides in the United States or the Philippines; and

"Whereas, the Old Scouts were created in 1901 pursuant to the Act of February 2, 1901, that authorized the President of the United States 'to enlist natives [of the Philippines] . . . for service in the Army, to be organized as scouts . . . or as troops or companies, as authorized by this Act, for the regular Army'; and

"Whereas, prior to World War II, these troops assisted in the maintenance of domestic order in the Philippines and served as a combat ready force to defend the islands against foreign invasion; and

"Whereas, during the war, they participated in the defense of and retaking of the islands from Japanese occupation. The eligibility of Old Scouts for benefits based on military service in the United States Armed Forces, including veterans' benefits, has long been established; and

"Whereas, the federal Department of Veterans Affairs operates a comprehensive program of veterans' benefits in the Republic of the Philippines, including the operation of a federal Department of Veterans Affairs office in Manila; and

"Whereas, the federal Department of Veterans Affairs does not operate a program of this type in any other country; and

"Whereas, the program in the Philippines evolved because the Philippines were a United States possession during the period 1898-1946, and many Filipinos have served in the United States Armed Forces, and because the preindependence Commonwealth Army of the Philippines was called into the service of the United States Armed Forces during World War II (1941-1945); and

"Whereas, many Filipino veterans, however, have been discriminated against by the classification of their service as not being service rendered in the United States Armed Forces for purposes of benefits from the federal Department of Veterans' Affairs; and

"Whereas, Filipinos gallantly served at Bataan and Corregidor, giving their toil, blood, and lives so as to provide the United States valuable time to rearm materiel and men to launch the counter-offensive in the Pacific war; and

"Whereas, all other nationals, even foreigners, who served in the United States Armed Forces have been recognized and granted full rights and benefits, but the Filipinos who actually were American nationals at that time were and are still denied recognition and singled out for exclusion, and this treatment is unfair and discriminatory; and

"Whereas, on March 6, 1995, House Resolution 1136 was introduced in the United States House of Representatives, and on January 4, 1995, Senate bill 55 was introduced in the United States Senate, to deem service in the organized military forces of the government of the Commonwealth of the Philippines and the Philippine Scouts during World War II to be active service for the purpose of benefits under programs administered by the Secretary of Veterans Affairs; and

"Whereas, on January 4, 1995, Senate bill 72 was introduced in the United States Senate, to direct the Secretary of the Army to issue a certificate of service to Filipino nationals whom the Secretary determines have performed any military service in the Philippine Islands during World War II that qualifies the person or a survivor to receive any military, veterans', or other benefits under federal laws; and

"Whereas, the proposed legislation would bring relief to the estimated remaining 60,000 to 80,000 Filipino veterans (out of the initial 175,000 to 200,000 troops) who risked their lives during World War II, surviving the occupation of the Philippine Islands and the infamous Bataan Death March, and who, now in their mid-60's to mid-90's, have been battling for years to obtain the benefits of other veterans of that war: Now, therefore, be it

"Resolved by the Senate and Assembly of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature of the State of California respectfully memorializes the President and Congress of the United States to act favorably on legislation pertaining to granting full veterans' benefits to Filipino veterans of the United States Armed Forces; and be it further

"Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit a copy of this resolution to the President and Vice President of the United States, to the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and to each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States."

POM-356. A joint resolution adopted by the Legislature of the State of California; to the Committee on Veterans' Affairs.

"SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 19

"Whereas, the American Legion estimates that more than 20,000 Persian Gulf War veterans are suffering from 'Gulf War illness' that is an affliction involving various undiagnosed, chronic ailments with symptoms that include fatigue, skin problems, headaches, muscle pain, joint pain, neurological symptoms, neuropsychological symptoms, respiratory system symptoms, sleep disturbances, gastrointestinal symptoms, cardiovascular symptoms, abnormal weight loss, and menstrual disorders; and

"Whereas, there is evidence that Persian Gulf War participants were exposed to chemical and biological warfare agents, chemical and biological warfare pretreatment drugs, and other hazardous materials and substances that are being linked to the symptoms of 'Gulf War illness'; and

"Whereas, there is also evidence that spouses and other family members of Persian Gulf War veterans are experiencing health problems related to 'Gulf War illness'; and

thorizing the Department of Veterans Affairs to compensate any Persian Gulf War veteran suffering from a chronic disability resulting from an undiagnosed illness or combination of undiagnosed illnesses that became manifest either during active duty in the Southwest Asia theater of operations or within a certain period following service in that area during the Persian Gulf War; and

"Whereas, despite mounting evidence that illnesses suffered by many Persian Gulf War veterans are service connected, many of the medical complaints of these veterans have yet to be diagnosed as service connected; Now, therefore, be it

"Resolved by the Senate and Assembly of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature of the State of California respectfully memorializes the President and the Congress of the United States to take action to, as soon as possible, identify and locate those veterans of the Persian Gulf War that may be suffering from 'Gulf War illness,' and make adequate federal funds available for research on 'Gulf War illness' and for full medical treatment for all of those veterans suffering from 'Gulf War illness,' particularly those veterans who have chronic disabilities resulting from military service during the Persian Gulf War; and be it further

"JOINT RESOLUTION

"Whereas, September 1995 marks the 50th anniversary of the end of World War II, the greatest armed conflict the world has ever known, in which the victory of the Allied united nations made possible the promise of peace, dignity and freedom for all peoples; and

"Whereas, in that conflict some 250,000 Americans served in the United States Merchant Marine, which carried goods, grain, armaments, food, personnel and materiel to Allied forces in both the Pacific and the Atlantic theaters, in the great ocean convoys President Roosevelt called the 'American bridge of ships'; and

"Whereas, in that conflict 6,835 United States merchant mariners and over 1,800 United States Navy personnel on merchant ships gave their lives for their country, the highest casualty rate of any United States service in World War II; and

"Whereas, in that conflict over 600 United States merchant mariners were incarcerated in Axis POW camps, suffering a casualty rate of over 10%; and

"Whereas, in that conflict Maine built and launched almost 270 Liberty ships at the Todd-Bath East and West Yards in South Poland, Maine and sent thousands of officers and enlisted personnel into the United States Merchant Marine, continuing the proud Maine tradition of 'those that go down to the sea in ships': Now, therefore, be it

"Resolved, That we, your Memorialists, respectfully recommend and urge the Congress of the United States to provide that certain service of members of the United States Merchant Marine during World War II constitutes active military service as proposed in bipartisan bills S-254 and H-44, now before the 104th Congress, as just and due recognition of the United States merchant mariners' selflessness, sacrifice and service to their country and the Allied cause; and be it further

THE ORGAN AND BONE MARROW TRANSPLANT PROGRAM REAUTHORIZATION ACT OF 1995

Mrs. KASSEBAUM. Mr. President, on behalf of Senator KENNEDY, Senator FRIST, and myself, I introduce legislation which will further improve the quality and equity of solid organ and marrow transplantation.

We can all be proud of the solid foundation that private initiatives, supported by Federal funding, have created. However, now that this infrastructure is in place, I believe that it is time for Congress to reexamine the Federal role in the oversight and the financing of solid organ and bone marrow transplantation.

The partnership between the Government, the solid-organ transplant community, and the public has worked well. However, the recent experience with the heart transplant program in my own State of Kansas, or the public distrust voiced when Mickey Mantle received his liver transplant, reminds us that improvements need to be made.

In 1994, more than 18,000 solid organ transplants were performed. Yet, more than 41,000 other Americans still await an organ for transplantation. This disparity between the supply and the demand for organs to transplant confirms that continued Federal oversight is necessary to provide the public with a sense of fairness and trust. Even though Federal oversight is still required, we must consider alternatives to fund the vital functions of the organ transplant network.

The legislation we are introducing today stresses equity for all beneficiaries and proposes a balanced approach. Governmental oversight is maintained but clarified. The Organ Transplant Network remains responsible for the development of transplant policies, and the program remains grounded in the expertise of the transplant community.

The importance of transplant candidates, patients, and their families as the real consumers of transplant services is reconfirmed, and this legislation increases their voice in the process. In addition, the phase-in of a new "data management fee" will guarantee that future transplant services will continue uninterrupted.

Mr. President, the shortage of organs for transplantation is a problem which we, as a nation, have not yet solved. Recent medical studies have shown a continued reluctance by the American public to consent to organ donation when faced with the impending death of a family member. New and innovative approaches must be developed to increase the public's acceptance of organ donation. This legislation authorizes funding—obtained through a partnership among the government, the Nation's transplant centers, and the organ procurement organizations—to address the continued shortage of organs for transplantation. A single piece of legislation cannot be expected to correct the problem of insufficient organs for transplantation, but we believe that this proposal moves the transplant program in the right direction.

Unrelated-donor bone marrow transplantation poses a different challenge. The National Bone Marrow Donor Registry was developed to facilitate and to maximize the number of bone marrow transplants for patients who do not have a matched relative. The success of this program to recruit potential marrow donors has been admirable, but as noted in the recent past by the General Accounting Office, the number of resulting transplants has been quite modest.

Increasing the number of unrelated-donor bone marrow transplantations will likely require more than just expanding the potential marrow donor pool. Improvements in technology and scientific understanding of transplantation will need to be made. Because of these biologic limitations, I question continued Federal funding and the merits of a government-funded national bone marrow registry.

Therefore, Mr. President, this legislation reauthorizes the National Bone Marrow Donor Registry, it reconfirms the goal to increase unrelated-donor bone marrow transplants, and it provides advocacy services for patients and donors. This legislation also requests the Institute of Medicine to evaluate the future role of a government-funded marrow transplant program as a means to maximize the number of unrelated-donor bone marrow transplants.

I recognize that the present Federal budget constraints and the proposed reevaluation of the Federal role in transplantation have caused some concern. However, I believe this situation provides both the transplant communities and the Congress with a unique opportunity. This legislation is a carefully crafted plan for the future. It strives for equity for all beneficiaries, an appropriate degree of Government oversight, an evaluation of the future governmental role, an appropriate level of fiscal responsibility, and the development of a system to respond to the present and future transplantation needs.

As discussion of these issues develops, I would welcome any suggestions my colleagues or others may have for improving this legislation.

Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the text of the bill and a summary be printed in the RECORD.

There being no objection, the material was ordered to be printed in the RECORD, as follows:

S. 1324

SEC. 103. ORGAN PROCUREMENT AND TRANSPLANTATION NETWORK.

(a) OPERATION.—Subsection (a) of section 372 of the Public Health Service Act (42 U.S.C. 274(a)) is amended to read as follows:

"(a)(1) Congress finds that—

"(A) it is in the public interest to maintain and improve a durable system for promoting and supporting a central network to assist organ procurement organizations in the nationwide distribution of organs among transplant patients;

"(B) it is desirable to continue the partnership between public and private enterprise, by continuing to provide Federal Government oversight and assistance for services performed by the Network; and

"(C) the Federal Government should actively oversee Network activities to ensure that the policies and procedures of the Network for serving patient and donor families and procuring and distributing organs are fair, efficient and in compliance with all applicable legal rules and standards; however, the initiative and primary responsibility for establishing medical criteria and standards for organ procurement and transplantation stills resides with the Network.

"(2) The Secretary shall provide by contract for the operation of the Network which shall meet the requirements of subsection (b).

"(3) The Network shall be recognized as a private entity that has an expertise in organ procurement and transplantation with the primary purposes of encouraging organ donation, maintaining a 'wait list', and operating and monitoring an equitable and effective system for allocating organs to transplant recipients, and shall report to the Secretary instances of continuing noncompliance with policies (or when promulgated, rules) and requirements of the Network.

"(4) The Network may assess a fee (to be known as the 'patient registration fee'), to be collected by the contractor for listing each potential transplant recipient on its national organ matching system, in an amount which is reasonable and customary and determined by the Network and approved as such by the Secretary. The patient registration fee shall be calculated so as to be sufficient to cover the Network's reasonable costs of operation in accordance with this section. The Secretary shall have 60 days, beginning on the date on which the written application justifying the proposed fee as reasonable is submitted to the Secretary, to provide the Network with a written determination and rationale for such determination that the proposed increase is not reasonable and customary and that the Secretary disapproves the recommendation of the Network under this paragraph with respect to the change in fee for listing each potential transplant recipient.

"(5) Any increase in the patient registration fee shall be limited to an increase that is reasonably required as a result of—

"(A) increases in the level or cost of contract tasks and other activities related to organ procurement and transplantation; or

"(B) decreases in expected revenue from patient registration fees available to the contractor.

The patient registration fees shall not be increased more than once during each year.

"(6) All fees collected by the Network contractor under paragraph (4) shall be available to the Network without fiscal year limitation. The contract with the Network contractor shall provide that expenditures of such funds (including patient registration fees collected by the contractor and or contract funds) are subject to an annual audit under the provisions of the Office of Management and Budget Circular No. A-133 entitled 'Audits of Institutions of Higher Learning and Other Nonprofit Institutions' to be performed by the Secretary or an authorized auditor at the discretion of the Secretary. A report concerning the audit and recommendations regarding expenditures shall be submitted to the Network, the contractor, and the Secretary.

"(7) The Secretary may institute and collect a data management fee from transplant hospitals and organ procurement organizations. Such fees shall be directed to and shall be sufficient to cover—

"(A) the costs of the operation and administration of the Scientific Registry in accordance with the contract under section 373; and

"(B) the costs of contracts and cooperative agreements to support efforts to increase organ donation under section 371.

Such data management fee shall be set annually by the Network in an amount determined by the Network, in consultation with the Secretary, and approved by the Secretary. Such data management fee shall be calculated to be sufficient to cover the reasonable costs of operation in accordance with section 373. Such data management fee shall be calculated based on the number of transplants performed or facilitated by each transplant hospital or center, or organ procurement organization. The per transplant data management fee shall be divided so that the patient specific transplant center will pay 80 percent and the procuring organ procurement organization will pay 20 percent of the per transplant data management fee. Such fees shall be available to the Secretary and the contractor operating the Scientific Registry without fiscal year limitation. The expenditure (including fees or contract funds) of such fees by the contractor shall be subject to an annual independent audit (performed by the Secretary or an authorized auditor at the discretion of the Secretary) and reported along with recommendations regarding such expenditures, to the Network, the contractor and the Secretary.

"(8) The Secretary and the Comptroller General shall have access to all data collected by the contractor or contractors in carrying out its responsibilities under the contract under this section and section 373."

(b) REQUIREMENTS.—Section 372(b) of the Public Health Service Act (42 U.S.C. 274(b)) is amended—

TITLE I—SOLID ORGAN TRANSPLANT PROGRAM REAUTHORIZATION ACT OF 1995

I. Organ Procurement Organizations:

(1) The Secretary may enter into cooperative agreements and contracts with Organ Procurement Organizations (OPOs) and other public or nonprofit entities for the purpose of increasing organ donation.

The importance of increased donation and the recruitment of minority donors is reaffirmed.

(2) The Board of Directors (or an advisory board) of an OPO shall be diversified and composed of a “reasonable balance of” individuals, including individuals who have received a transplant (or a transplant candidate) and/or their family members.

(3) OPOs will be members of the Organ Transplant and Procurement Network (Network) and will abide by the Network rules.

(4) Allocation systems at a minimum shall allocate each type of solid organ on the basis of:

A single list encompassing the entire service area, or, a list encompassing at least an entire state, or, a list that encompasses an approved alternative local unit, or, a list that encompasses another allocation system which is approved by the Network and the Secretary.

(5) The amendments included in this act do not interfere with Section 1138 of the Social Security Act (Medicare Technicals) pertaining to the relationships between hospitals and OPOs.

II. Transplant Network:

(1) The Secretary shall provide by Contract for the operation of the Network and the maintenance of a national waiting list. Implementation of the Contract will be carried out by the Network contractor.

Continuation of the partnership between the government and private entities is desirable.

The federal government shall oversee Network activities.

(2) The Network continues to be recognized as a private entity that has an expertise in organ procurement and transplantation.

(3) The Network contractor may collect a fee for listing each potential transplant recipient. This fee (known as the "patient registration fee") is to cover the cost of the Network's operation.

The fee amount will be determined by the Network, the Secretary is given 60 days after submission of a written request to increase "the fee," to disapprove the proposed request.

Patient registration fee increases must be "reasonable and customary" and shall not occur more frequently than once per year.

Patient registration fees and or contract funds will be subject to an annual audit (OMB circular no. A-133). An audit report will be submitted to the Network, the contractor, and the Secretary.

III. The Scientific Registry:

(1) The Secretary shall provide by Contract for the operation of a Scientific Registry.

(2) The Secretary may institute and collect a "data management fee" from transplant centers and OPOs. These fees shall be directed to cover the costs of the Scientific Registry.

The "data management fee" shall be set annually by the Network and approved by the Secretary.

The data management fee will be calculated on a per-transplant basis. The fee will be divided in a 80/20 split between the responsible transplant center and OPO.

Expenditure of the "data management fee" will be subject to an annual audit. The audit report will be submitted to the Network, the Scientific Registry contractor, and the Secretary.

IV. Transplant Network Governance:

(1) Composition of the Network's Board of Directors and Committees shall include "a reasonable number" of individuals from the transplant community. This act confirms the importance and need for representation of transplant recipients (or candidates) and their family members.

(2) The Health Resources and Services Administration shall be represented on the Network's Board of Directors and all Committees. The government representative will be excluded from meetings in which the internal business of the Network contractor is discussed.

(3) The Network shall submit to the Secretary a biennial report which contains center specified data including survival, waiting list time, and qualifications of transplant physicians and surgeons.

(4) The Secretary's failure to issue within one year of enactment, a "final rule" establishing Network regulations, will initiate the following process:

The proposed rule making issued on September 8, 1994, (the "proposed final rule") shall be deemed the final rule.

The Secretary will enforce the "proposed final rule" until the final rule is issued.

Instances of conflict between the "proposed final rule" and existing or new Network policies shall be resolved through the policy development as described in 121.3(a)(6) of the "Notice of Proposed Rule Making".

V. Administration:

(1) The Secretary shall withhold annually, $250,000 or 10 percent of the collected "data management fee" (whichever amount is larger), to be used to fund contracts to increase organ donation.

No contract in excess of $25,000 may be made, using the above funds, unless an application is submitted to the Secretary, recommended by the Network, and approved by the Secretary.

(2) The Secretary through contract shall prepare a triennial OPO specific data report that includes an assessment of the effectiveness of OPOs in acquiring available organs.

The first OPO specific report should be completed within 18 months of enactment.

VI. Study:

(1) The Secretary will request the Institute of Medicine (IOM) to conduct a study and evaluation of:

The role of and the impact of the federal government in the oversight and support of solid organ transplantation, the Network (which presently carries out its functions by government contract) and the solid organ transplantation scientific registry.

The access of all interested constituencies to membership on the Network's Board of Directors and all its committees.

Recommendations from the second portion of the IOM study are to be implemented within one year of study completion.

VII. Authorization of Appropriation:

(1) A five year authorization is requested.

By Mr. MCCAIN (for himself and Mr. KYL):

S. 1325. A bill to amend title XI of the Social Security Act to provide an incentive for the reporting of inaccurate Medicare claims for payment, and for other purposes; to the Committee on Finance.

THE MEDICARE WHISTLEBLOWER ACT

• Mr. MCCAIN. Mr. President, I am introducing legislation today with Senator KYL that will significantly reduce fraud and abuse by providers in the Medical Program. The Medicare Whistleblower Act of 1995 will efficiently and effectively create an army of private inspectors general intent upon wiping out Medicare provider fraud.

At Medicare town meetings throughout Arizona, we have heard over and over from senior citizens that the Medicare Program is rampant with negligent and fraudulent billings. They have told me, based on their personal experiences, that their Medicare bills frequently include services that they have not received, double billings for the same service, or charges that are disproportionate to the value of services received. Often, they have no idea what Medicare is being billed for on their behalf, and they are not able to obtain explanations from providers.

These perceptions of Medicare beneficiaries are confirmed by more systematic analyses. The General Accounting Office has estimated that fraud and abuse in our Nation's health care system costs taxpayers as much as $100 billion each year. Medicare fraud alone costs about $17 billion per year, which is 10 percent of the program's costs. A report by the Republican staff of the Senate Committee on Aging has documented a broad array of fraudulent activities, including false claims for services that were supposed to have been rendered after the beneficiaries had died.

The Medicare Program has many problems. A fundamental problem, and the source of many other problems, is that too few people are adequately concerned about its costs because the Government is paying most of the bills. One constituent informed me of a situation in which his provider double-billed for the same service and told him not to worry about it because "Medicare is paying." This is an outrage and must be stopped. When Medicare overpays, we all overpay, and costs to beneficiaries and other taxpayers spiral.

The Medicare Whistleblower Act addresses this fundamental problem of the Medicare Program. It gives beneficiaries an added incentive to carefully scrutinize their bills and to actively pursue corrections when they believe that there has been inappropriate billing of Medicare. In particular, beneficiaries would be financially rewarded if they uncover negligence or fraud to the benefit of us all. Although such provider fraud is not the entire problem, and there is other legislation that I support which also addresses beneficiary fraud, studies clearly indicate that provider fraud is most prevalent and the greatest concern.

Under this bill, beneficiaries would have a right to receive in writing from their providers, within 30 days of when their request is received, an itemized bill for Medicare services provided to them. The beneficiary would then have 90 days to raise specific allegations of inappropriate billings to Medicare. The Medicare intermediaries and carriers would then have to make one of the following determinations: That the bill was: First, accurate; second, innocently inaccurate, for example, misinterpretation; third, negligent; or fourth, fraudulent. All overpayments resulting from inaccurate bills will be reimbursed to the Medicare Program.

If the Secretary of HHS confirms that the billing was either negligent or fraudulent, the beneficiary would receive a reward of 1 percent of the overpayment up to $10,000. Because these rewards would be paid directly out of the overpayments, they would not increase costs to the Federal Government. In the case of fraud, the rewards would be paid directly by the fraudulent provider as a penalty, and would therefore not even reduce the amount of the overpayment reimbursed to the Federal Government. The Secretary would be required to establish appropriate procedures to ensure that the incentive system is not abused.

Some will argue that many seniors and other beneficiaries do not need personal rewards for fighting fraud, and in any event, this is a matter of national duty. While I agree with this contention, I also recognize that these individuals would not be able to identify and report fraud without having access to the itemized bills that this legislation provides. Moreover, I see nothing wrong with giving beneficiaries an added financial incentive. After all, we pay Federal employees for ideas that save the taxpayers money, and we pay private citizens for identifying fraud by defense contractors.

Mr. President, we must put an end to rampant Medicare fraud and abuse. This bill would contribute significantly to this goal. I believe that there is no more effective approach to detecting and fighting fraud than giving individuals a personal financial interest in doing so. Just wait and see what will happen when we empower over 36 million Medicare beneficiaries to ensure that their program is no longer looted and abused. I request unanimous consent that this bill and letters of support from the Committee to Preserve Social Security and Medicare and the Seniors Coalition be included in the RECORD.

There being no objection, the material was ordered to be printed in the RECORD, as follows:

Washington, DC, October 16, 1995.

Hon. JOHN MCCAIN,

U.S. Senate, Washington, DC.

DEAR SENATOR MCCAIN: On behalf of the nearly six million members and supporters of the National Committee to Preserve Social Security and Medicare, I offer our endorsement of the Medicare Whistleblower Act of 1995, legislation to strengthen procedures for identifying fraud and waste in the Medicare system.

A major effort to prevent fraud and abuse is essential and appropriate—particularly at a time when Congress is considering ways to reduce federal health care costs. It is essential that we enlist the cooperation of the public, beneficiaries, providers and carriers to curb fraud and waste in the Medicare program and ensure that Medicare funds go toward patient care. As you know, major and increasingly complex patterns of fraud and abuse have infiltrated many health sectors including ambulance and taxi services, clinical laboratories, home health and durable medical equipment providers.

Your legislation will strengthen the role of beneficiaries in detecting and reporting fraud and waste. Of particular importance are the provisions mandating that beneficiaries be provided, upon request, copies of itemized bills submitted on their behalf. Beneficiaries must have accurate information about bills submitted on their behalf in order to meaningfully participate in this program. It is also important for the Secretary to establish standards to prevent abuse or over-use of the reporting system.

Seniors thank you for your help in combating this growing problem.

Sincerely,

MARTHA A MCSTEEN,
President.

THE SENIORS COALITION,
October 12, 1995.

Hon. JOHN MCCAIN,

U.S. Senate, Washington, DC.

DEAR SENATOR MCCAIN: On behalf of the two million members and supporters of The Seniors Coalition, I salute your efforts to reduce the fraud and abuse which have plagued the Medicare system. We also believe that seniors themselves are excellent "Inspectors General," and, when empowered to do so will be a most effective whistleblower force.

The Seniors Coalition stands ready to work with you and every other member of Congress in taking action to put an end to rampant Medicare fraud and abuse.

Sincerely,

JAKE HANSEN,
Vice President for Government Affairs.

By Mrs. FEINSTEIN:

S. 1326. A bill respecting the relationship between workers' compensation benefits and the benefits available under the Migrant and Seasonal Agricultural Worker Protection Act; to the Committee on Labor and Human Resources.

THE MIGRANT AND SEASONAL AGRICULTURAL WORKER PROTECTION ACT AMENDMENT ACT OF 1995

• Mrs. FEINSTEIN. Mr. President, I introduce legislation that would overturn a 1990 U.S. Supreme Court decision in Adams Fruit Co. versus Barrett and restore workers' compensation as the exclusive remedy for loss under the Migrant and Seasonal Agricultural Worker Protection Act where a State workers' compensation law is applicable and coverage is provided.

This legislation embodies an agreement worked out by the National Council of Agricultural Employers and the Farmworkers Justice Fund and other farm worker advocacy groups. In the House this compromise will be offered as a substitute amendment to H.R. 1715, sponsored by Congressmen GOODLING, FAZIO and others.

By way of background, in 1985, 19 migrant farmworkers employed by the Adams Fruit Co. suffered injuries in an accident while they traveled to work in an Adams Fruit van. The company was found liable and the injured farmworkers were awarded damages to the fullest extent under Florida's workers' compensation system. In addition, 10 of the workers filed suit against Adams Fruit for motor safety violations under the Migrant and Seasonal Agricultural Worker Protection Act.

In the Adams Fruit decision, the U.S. Supreme Court held that the injured farmworkers could bring an action for damages under the Migrant and Seasonal Agricultural Worker Protection Act even though they were covered under State workers' compensation for the same injuries. In so ruling, the court disregarded one of the basic concepts of workers' compensation, the assurance of a prompt remedy in exchange for limited liability on the part of the employer. As a result, agricultural employers who pay the cost of workers' compensation for farmworkers are not receiving the protection from lawsuits that all other employers providing workers' compensation receive.

The legislation I am introducing today would reverse the effects of the Adams Fruit decision and restore the exclusivity of workers' compensation. Specifically, the bill:

Amends the Migrant and Seasonal Agricultural Worker Protection Act to provide that where workers' compensation coverage is provided under a State workers' compensation law for a migrant or seasonal agricultural worker, workers' compensation will be the farmworker's exclusive remedy and the employer's sole liability under the act for bodily injury or death;

Provides for increased statutory damages under the Migrant and Seasonal Agricultural Worker Protection Act in cases where actual damages are precluded because the worker's injury is covered under a State workers' compensation law and the court finds the defendant's actions meet certain criteria set forth in the legislation, such as the defendant knowingly permitting a driver to drive farmworkers while under the influence of alcohol;

Provides for tolling of the statute of limitations on actions brought under the Migrant and Seasonal Agricultural Worker Protection Act during the period of time a claim under a State workers' compensation law is pending;

Requires disclosure of information regarding workers' compensation coverage to migrant farmworkers and upon request to seasonal farmworkers, helping ensure that farmworkers have adequate information to file timely claims for workers' compensation; and Allows the Secretary of Labor to determine the appropriate level of liability insurance required by employers engaged in transporting farmworkers, helping increase the ability of persons to obtain insurance.

Mr. President, the appropriate relationship between workers' compensation benefits and benefits available under the Migrant and Seasonal Agricultural Worker Protection Act has been debated at great length since the Adams Fruit decision. Many have tried to reconcile the legitimate interests of both agricultural employers and farmworkers in this issue. In the 102d Congress I sponsored legislation, and I worked very hard, meeting with representatives of agriculture from around the Nation, with representatives of farmworkers, with Congressman FAZIO, with Congressman BERMAN and others, in an effort to achieve consensus. I am pleased to say that there is now agreement. I hope the Senate will be able to move quickly to approve this agreement and pass this legislation.●

By Mr. MCCAIN (for himself and Mr. KYL):

S. 1327. A bill to provide for the transfer of certain lands to the Salt River Pima-Maricopa Indian Community and the city of Scottsdale, AZ, and for other purposes; to the Committee on Banking, Housing, and Urban Affairs.

THE SADDLEBACK MOUNTAIN-ARIZONA
SETTLEMENT ACT OF 1995

● Mr. MCCAIN. Mr. President, I am pleased to join with my colleague, Senator KYL, in introducing legislation to approve an agreement to settle a long-standing dispute over 701 acres of unique and valuable land within the city of Scottsdale, AZ, currently held by the Resolution Trust Corporation [RTC]. The agreement, which was negotiated by representatives of the Salt River Pima-Maricopa Indian Community, the city of Scottsdale, and the RTC, provides for the RTC to sell part of the property to the community and the remainder to the city.

The property is located in the eastern-most part of Scottsdale, abuts 1.7 miles of the northern boundary of the community's reservation, and is undeveloped. Its most distinctive feature is Saddleback Mountain, a striking landmark that rises abruptly from the desert floor to a height of some 900 feet. Due to its location, high conservation value and other special features, the property's use and disposition are of major importance both to the community and the city.

A dispute arose after the RTC, in its capacity as receiver for the Sun State Savings & Loan Association, acquired the Saddleback property in 1989 and subsequently noticed it for sale. The community submitted the highest cash bid for the property, conditioned upon being allowed to develop the flat portion of the property. The city, concerned about the direction that the development might follow, sued the RTC to acquire the property by eminent domain. The RTC then rejected all auction sale bids and determined to transfer the property to Scottsdale through the eminent domain litigation. The community thereupon sued the city and the RTC, seeking damages.

Rather than pursue the litigation, the city, the community, and the RTC sought to resolve their dispute through negotiation. The result of their efforts is a settlement agreement that will allow all parties to realize their respective goals for the Saddleback property. Under the agreement, the RTC will sell the property to Scottsdale and the community for a total of $6.5 million. The city will pay $636,000 to acquire approximately 125 acres, located north and south of Shea Boulevard, for preservation and future road expansion. The community will pay $5,864,000 to acquire 576 acres adjoining their reservation. The two lawsuits, which are pending in U.S. District Court in Phoenix, will be dismissed.

The agreement further provides that 365 acres of the property to be acquired by the community, including Saddleback Mountain, will be forever preserved in its natural State for use only as a public park and recreation area. Except for a limited number of sites that are of particular historical and cultural significance to the community, the public will have free access to this area. Together with the preservation property to be acquired by the city, it will be jointly managed by the city and the community. The remaining 211 acres to be acquired by the community will be subject to a detailed development agreement with the city, as well as the limitations and restrictions of current community zoning.

Mr. President, the bill that Senator KYL and I are introducing today has two primary objectives. First, it will approve and ratify the settlement agreement and ensure that its terms will be fully enforceable. Second, it provides that the property purchased by the community will be held in trust by the United States and become part of its reservation. Enactment of this legislation is a necessary step for the settlement's provisions to become effective.

Achievement of the Saddleback settlement agreement demonstrates once again the value and benefit of seeking to settle disputes through negotiation rather than litigation. The Salt River Pima-Maricopa Indian Community, its president and council, and the mayor and council of the city of Scottsdale, along with their representatives and those of the Resolution Trust Corporation who cooperated to make a settlement possible, deserve great credit for their leadership and hard work to resolve their differences amicably.

I believe the legislation to approve the Saddleback settlement agreement is noncontroversial and clearly in the public interest, and I note with satisfaction that no expenditure of funds from the U.S. Treasury will be necessary for its implementation. Accordingly, I am hopeful that the Congress will consider and approve this legislation in an expeditious manner.

Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the text of the bill be printed in the RECORD.

There being no objection, the bill was ordered to be printed in the RECORD, as follows:

By Mr. DOLE (for Mr. HATCH (for himself, Mr. BIDEN, Mr. GRASSLEY, Mr. HEFLIN, Mr. SPECTER, Mr. SIMON, Mr. DEWINE, Mrs. FEINSTEIN, and Mr. ABRAHAM)):

S. 1328. A bill to amend the commencement dates of certain temporary Federal judgeships; read the first time.

THE JUDICIAL IMPROVEMENT ACT AMENDMENT ACT OF 1995

● Mr. HATCH. Mr. President, I introduce a bill to amend the commencement dates of certain temporary judgeships that were created under section 203(c) of the Judicial Improvements Act of 1990, Public Law 101-650, 104 Stat. 5101. The minor adjustment embodied in this bill should improve the efficiency of the courts involved, and is not expected to be controversial. I am pleased to have Senators BIDEN, GRASSLEY, HEFLIN, SPECTER, SIMON, DEWINE, FEINSTEIN, and ABRAHAM as original co-sponsors.

The Judicial Improvements Act of 1990 created the temporary judgeships by providing that a new district judge would be appointed to each of 13 specified districts, and by providing that the first vacancy in the office of a district judge in those districts occurring after December 1, 1995 would not be filled.

The districts are as follows: the northern district of Alabama, the eastern district of California, the district of Hawaii, the central district of Illinois, the southern district of Illinois, the district of Kansas, the western district of Michigan, the eastern district of Missouri, the district of Nebraska, the northern district of New York, the northern district of Ohio, the eastern district of Pennsylvania, and the eastern district of Virginia.

In a given district, the new judgeship is temporary but the individual judge appointed serves on a permanent basis in the same manner as any other article III judge. The overlap in judgeships—between the appointment of a judge to a temporary judgeship and the point at which a vacant permanent judgeship is left unfilled—is what effectively adds another judge to the district for a temporary period of time.

Due to delays in nomination and confirmation, however, many districts have had only a relatively brief period of time in which to take advantage of their temporary judgeship. In the district of Hawaii and the southern district of Illinois, for example, new judges were not confirmed until October 1994. Other districts have faced similar delays. Those delays mean that many of the temporary judgeships will be unable to fulfill congressional intent to alleviate the backlog of cases in those districts. Many of the districts faced a particularly heavy load of drug enforcement matters.

This bill changes the second part of the temporary judgeship calculus by providing that the first district judge vacancy occurring 5 years or more after the confirmation date of the judge appointed to fill the temporary judgeship would not be filled. In that way, each district would benefit from an extra active judge for at least 5 years, regardless of how long the appointment process takes. This will help alleviate the extra burden faced in those districts. The only district excluded from this treatment is the western district of Michigan. That district requested to be excluded because its needs will be met under the current scheme.

The Administrative Office of the United States Courts has requested that the Senate pass this bill before December 1, 1995. After that date, some vacant judgeships will be unable to be filled under current law. As Chairman of the Judiciary Committee, I will do my part to expedite this bill's passage.●

By Mr. DOLE:

S. 1329. A bill to amend title 38, United States Code, to provide for educational assistance to veterans, and for other purposes; to the Committee on Armed Services.

THE SERVICE PERSONS READJUSTMENT ACT OF 1995

Mr. DOLE. Mr. President, today I am proud to introduce the Service Persons Readjustment Act of 1995. This legislation will provide our brave service men and women with education benefits comparable to the benefits previously earned by generations of veterans. This measure is long overdue.

Fifty years ago, Congress and the American Legion worked diligently to pass the Servicemen's Readjustment Act of 1944, Better known as the GI bill of rights. That measure has been recognized as one of the greatest pieces of legislation ever enacted. As a result of educating its veterans, the United States experienced the greatest economic boom in our Nation's history. The Nation transformed from an industrial giant to a technological world leader. For the majority of veterans, including minorities and women, the dream of receiving a college education became a reality.

When the original GI bill was introduced in Congress, many Members feared that the cost of this program would bankrupt the country. Colleges and universities nationwide argued that such a program would lower educational standards. President Roosevelt initially opposed the idea because of the projected cost. Now, as history demonstrates, the dollars invested in veterans' education have returned to the Government 10 times. I ask my colleagues to demonstrate the same courage and resolve as the Members of Congress did in 1944, by making a financial investment in our Nation's future.

Unfortunately, the GI bill which once covered 100 percent of a veteran's education presently offsets educational costs by only 37 percent. Today, America's veterans are willing to work and invest more money than ever before for their educational benefits. Congress should provide them with that opportunity. The current Montgomery GI bill does not provide the flexibility to meet veterans needs. If a veteran wishes to attend a 1 year vocational school or a 4 year university, the program remains the same. The veteran who chooses a 1 year school will receive a disproportionately smaller benefit package.

Under my proposed legislation, benefits can be shaped to meet the educational or training goals of veterans by allowing them to choose the length of their benefit package.

An improved GI bill will create economic equality among many Americans. Because individuals from the lower and middle classes comprise the majority of the military, the bill will allow the less fortunate to earn their educations rather than depending on social handouts. With the percentage of women and minorities in the military growing steadily, improved benefits will also help level the playing field.

Presently, the GI bill is both a recruiting incentive and an educational opportunity. Current program values are simply inadequate to meet a veterans educational needs. Plenty of veterans sign up for the program. Few actually ever receive benefits. Sadly, once ready to start school, veterans quickly realize that their benefits pale in comparison to their financial obligations. America's veterans, thoroughly understand responsibility and sacrifice. However, veterans should not be forced to bear these burdens when other Government educational programs provide greater benefits to nonveterans with considerably less commitment.

The American Legion has repeatedly asked Congress to increase education benefits for our brave men and women who have served honorably. The legislation I am introducing will allow service members to invest more money. It will teach young men and women the value of working hard and saving money to reach one's goals and dreams. Educational assistance for veterans consistently proves to be a winning concept. Trained and educated individuals make more money, spend more money, and pay more taxes. Many of my colleagues are present today because of the GI bill. Their benefits were far more generous than today's educational package. I hope those Senators will support this measure. This new program, like the original GI bill, is a wise investment in America's future.

Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the text of the bill be printed in the RECORD.

There being no objection, the bill was ordered to be printed in the RECORD, as follows:

SEC. 210. HUD MULTIFAMILY HOUSING DISPOSITION PROCESS.

(a) FINDINGS.—The Congress finds that—

(1) the portfolio of multifamily housing project mortgages insured by the FHA is severely troubled and at risk of default, requiring the Secretary to increase loss reserves from $5,500,000,000 in 1991 to $11,900,000,000 in 1992 to cover estimated future losses;

(2) the inventory of multifamily housing projects owned by the Secretary of Housing and Urban Development has more than tripled since 1989, and, by the end of 1993, may exceed 75,000 units;

(3) the cost to the Federal Government of owning and maintaining multifamily housing projects escalated to approximately $250,000,000 in fiscal year 1992;

(4) the inventory of multifamily housing projects subject to mortgages held by the Secretary has increased dramatically, to more than 2,400 mortgages, and approximately half of these mortgages, with over 230,000 units, are delinquent;

(5) the inventory of insured and formerly insured multifamily housing projects is rapidly deteriorating, endangering tenants and neighborhoods;

(6) over 5 million families today have a critical need for housing that is affordable and habitable; and

(7) the current statutory framework governing the disposition of multifamily housing projects effectively impedes the Government's ability to dispose of properties, protect tenants, and ensure that projects are maintained over time.

(b) MANAGEMENT AND DISPOSITION OF MULTIFAMILY HOUSING PROJECTS.—Section 203 of the Housing and Community Development Amendments of 1978 (12 U.S.C. 1701z-11) is amended to read as follows:

"SEC. 203. MANAGEMENT AND DISPOSITION OF MULTIFAMILY HOUSING PROJECTS.

"(a) GOALS.—The Secretary of Housing and Urban Development (in this section referred to as the 'Secretary') shall manage or dispose of multifamily housing projects that are owned by the Secretary or that are subject to a mortgage held by the Secretary in a manner that—

"(1) is consistent with the National Housing Act and this section;

"(2) will protect the financial interests of the Federal Government; and

"(3) will, in the least costly fashion among reasonable available alternatives, further the goals of—

"(A) preserving housing so that it can remain available to and affordable by low-income persons;

"(B) preserving and revitalizing residential neighborhoods;

"(C) maintaining existing housing stock in a decent, safe, and sanitary condition;

"(D) minimizing the involuntary displacement of tenants;

"(E) maintaining housing for the purpose of providing rental housing, cooperative housing, and homeownership opportunities for low-income persons; and

"(F) minimizing the need to demolish multifamily housing projects.

The Secretary, in determining the manner in which a project is to be managed or disposed of, may balance competing goals relating to individual projects in a manner that will further the purposes of this section.

"(b) DEFINITIONS.—For purposes of this section, the following definitions shall apply:

"(1) MULTIFAMILY HOUSING PROJECT.—The term 'multifamily housing project' means any multifamily rental housing project which is, or prior to acquisition by the Secretary was, assisted or insured under the National Housing Act, or was subject to a loan under section 202 of the Housing Act of 1959.

"(2) SUBSIDIZED PROJECT.—The term 'subsidized project' means a multifamily housing project receiving any of the following types of assistance immediately prior to the assignment of the mortgage on such project to, or the acquisition of such mortgage by, the Secretary:

"(iii) housing assistance payments made under section 8 of the United States Housing Act of 1937 (excluding payments made for tenant-based assistance under section 8), if (except for purposes of section 183(c) of the Housing and Community Development Act of 1987) such assistance payments are made to more than 50 percent of the units in the project.

"(3) FORMERLY SUBSIDIZED PROJECT.—The term 'formerly subsidized project' means a multifamily housing project owned by the Secretary that was a subsidized project immediately prior to its acquisition by the Secretary.

"(4) UNSUBSIDIZED PROJECT.—The term 'unsubsidized project' means a multifamily housing project owned by the Secretary that is not a subsidized project or a formerly subsidized project.

"(c) MANAGEMENT OR DISPOSITION OF PROPERTY.—

"(1) DISPOSITION TO PURCHASERS.—The Secretary is authorized, in carrying out this section, to dispose of a multifamily housing project owned by the Secretary on a negotiated, competitive bid, or other basis, on such terms as the Secretary deems appropriate considering the low-income character of the project and the requirements of subsection (a), to a purchaser determined by the Secretary to be capable of—

"(A) satisfying the conditions of the disposition;

"(B) implementing a sound financial and physical management program that is designed to enable the project to meet anticipated operating and repair expenses to ensure that the project will remain in decent, safe, and sanitary condition;

"(C) responding to the needs of the tenants and working cooperatively with tenant organizations;

"(D) providing adequate organizational staff and financial resources to the project; and

"(E) meeting such other requirements as the Secretary may determine.

"(i) implementing a sound financial and physical management program that is designed to enable the project to meet anticipated operating and maintenance expenses to ensure that the project will remain in decent, safe, and sanitary condition;

"(ii) responding to the needs of the tenants and working cooperatively with tenant organizations;

"(iii) providing adequate organizational, staff, and other resources to implement a management program determined by the Secretary; and

"(iv) meeting such other requirements as the Secretary may determine; and

"(B) to require the owner of a multifamily housing project that is subject to a mortgage held by the Secretary to contract for management services for the project in the manner described in subparagraph (A).

"(d) MAINTENANCE OF HOUSING PROJECTS.—

"(1) HOUSING PROJECTS OWNED BY THE SECRETARY.—In the case of multifamily housing projects that are owned by the Secretary (or for which the Secretary is mortgagee in possession), the Secretary shall—

"(C) maintain all such projects for purposes of providing rental or cooperative housing.

"(ii) in the case of units requiring project-based rental assistance pursuant to this paragraph that are occupied by families who are not eligible for assistance under section 8, a contract under this subparagraph shall also provide that when a vacancy occurs, the owner shall lease the available unit to a family eligible for assistance under section 8; and

"(iii) the Secretary shall take actions to ensure the availability and affordability, as defined in paragraph (3)(B), for the remaining useful life of the project, as defined by the Secretary, of any unit located in any project referred to in subparagraphs (A) through (C) of subsection (b)(2) that does not otherwise receive project-based assistance under this subparagraph. To carry out this clause, the Secretary may require purchasers to establish use or rent restrictions maintaining affordability, as defined in paragraph (3)(B).

"(B) SUBSIDIZED OR FORMERLY SUBSIDIZED PROJECTS RECEIVING OTHER ASSISTANCE.—In the case of a subsidized or formerly subsidized project referred to in subsection (b)(2)(D)—

"(i) the contract shall be sufficient to assist at least all units in the project that are covered, or were covered immediately before foreclosure on or acquisition of the project by the Secretary, by an assistance contract under any of the authorities referred to in such subsection, unless the Secretary acts pursuant to provisions of subparagraph (C); and

"(ii) in the case of units requiring project-based rental assistance pursuant to this paragraph that are occupied by families who are not eligible for assistance under section 8, a contract under this paragraph shall also provide that when a vacancy occurs, the owner shall lease the available unit to a family eligible for assistance under section 8.

"(C) EXCEPTIONS TO SUBPARAGRAPHS (A) AND (B).—In lieu of providing project-based assistance under subparagraph (A) or (B), the Secretary may require certain units in unsubsidized projects to contain use restrictions providing that such units will be available to and affordable by very low-income families for the remaining useful life of the project, as defined by the Secretary, if—

“(i) the Secretary matches any reduction in units otherwise required to be assisted with project-based assistance under subparagraph (A) or (B) with at least an equivalent increase in units made affordable to very low-income persons within unsubsidized projects;

“(ii) low-income tenants residing in units otherwise requiring project-based assistance under subparagraph (A) or (B) upon disposition receive section 8 tenant-based assistance; and “(iii) the units described in clause (i) are located within the same market area.

“(D) CONTRACT REQUIREMENTS FOR UNSUBSIDIZED PROJECTS.—Notwithstanding actions taken pursuant to subparagraph (C), in unsubsidized projects, the contract shall at least be sufficient to provide—

“(ii) tenant-based assistance under section 8 of the United States Housing Act of 1937 for tenants currently residing in units that were covered by an assistance contract under the Loan Management Set-Aside program under section 8(b) of the United States Housing Act of 1937 immediately before foreclosure or acquisition of the project by the Secretary.

“(2) ANNUAL CONTRIBUTION CONTRACTS.—In the case of multifamily housing projects that are acquired by a purchaser other than the Secretary at foreclosure or after sale by the Secretary, enter into annual contribution contracts with public housing agencies to provide tenant-based assistance under section 8 of the United States Housing Act of 1937 to all low-income families who are eligible for such assistance on the date that the project is acquired by the purchaser. The Secretary shall take action under this paragraph only after making a determination that there is available in the area an adequate supply of habitable affordable housing for low-income families. Actions taken pursuant to this paragraph may be taken in connection with not more than 10 percent of the aggregate number of units in subsidized or formerly subsidized projects disposed of by the Secretary annually.

“(3) OTHER ASSISTANCE.—

“(A) IN GENERAL.—In accordance with the authority provided under the National Housing Act, reduce the selling price, apply use or rent restrictions on certain units, or provide other financial assistance to the owners of multifamily housing projects that are acquired by a purchaser other than the Secretary at foreclosure, or after sale by the Secretary, on terms which will ensure that—

“(i) at least those units otherwise required to receive project-based section 8 assistance pursuant to subparagraphs (A), (B), or (D) of paragraph (1) are available to and affordable by low-income persons; and “(ii) for the remaining useful life of the project, as defined by the Secretary, there shall be in force such use or rent restrictions as the Secretary may prescribe.

“(B) DEFINITION.—A unit shall be considered affordable under this paragraph if—

“(i) for very low-income tenants, the rent for such unit does not exceed 30 percent of 50 percent of the area median income, as determined by the Secretary, with adjustments for family size; and

“(ii) for low-income tenants other than very low-income tenants, the rent for such unit does not exceed 30 percent of 80 percent of the area median income, as determined by the Secretary, with adjustments for family size.

“(C) VERY LOW-INCOME TENANTS.—The Secretary shall provide assistance under section 8 of the United States Housing Act of 1937 to any very low-income tenant currently residing in a unit otherwise required to receive project-based assistance under section 8, pursuant to subparagraph (A), (B), or (D) of paragraph (1), if the rents charged such tenants as a result of actions taken pursuant to this paragraph exceed the amount payable as rent under section 3(a) of the United States Housing Act of 1937.

“(4) TRANSFER FOR USE UNDER OTHER PROGRAMS OF THE SECRETARY.—

“(A) IN GENERAL.—Enter into an agreement providing for the transfer of a multifamily housing project—

“(3) ALTERNATIVE USES.—

“(A) IN GENERAL.—Notwithstanding any other provision of law, and subject to notice to and comment from existing tenants, allow not more than—

“(ii) 5 percent of the total number of units in multifamily housing projects that are disposed of by the Secretary during any 1-year period to be used in any manner, if the Secretary and the unit of general local government or area-wide governing body determine that such use will further fair housing, community development, or neighborhood revitalization goals.

“(B) DISPLACEMENT PROTECTION.—The Secretary shall make available tenant-based rental assistance under section 8 of the United States Housing Act of 1937 to any tenant displaced as a result of actions taken by the Secretary pursuant to subparagraph (A), and the Secretary shall take such actions as the Secretary determines necessary to ensure the successful use of any tenant-based assistance.

“(2) CONTRACT RENT.—

“(A) IN GENERAL.—The Secretary shall set contract rents for section 8 project-based rental contracts issued under this section at levels that, in conjunction with other resources available to the purchaser, provide for the necessary costs of rehabilitation of such project and do not exceed the percentage of the existing housing fair market rents for the area (as determined by the Secretary under section 8(c) of the United States Housing Act of 1937) as the Secretary may prescribe.

“(B) UP-FRONT GRANTS AND LOANS.—If such an approach is determined to be more cost-effective, the Secretary may utilize the budget authority provided for project-based section 8 contracts issued under this section to—

“(i) provide project-based section 8 rental assistance; and

“(ii) provide up-front grants for the necessary cost of rehabilitation; or “(II) pay for any cost to the Government, as defined in section 502 of the Congressional Budget Act, for loans made pursuant to subsection (f)(1).

“(i) DISPOSITION PLAN.—

“(1) IN GENERAL.—Prior to the sale of a multifamily housing project that is owned by the Secretary, the Secretary shall develop a disposition plan for the project that specifies the minimum terms and conditions of the Secretary for disposition of the project, the initial sales price that is acceptable to the Secretary, and the assistance that the Secretary plans to make available to a prospective purchaser in accordance with this section. The initial sales price shall reflect the intended use of the property after sale.

“(2) COMMUNITY AND TENANT INPUT INTO DISPOSITION PLANS AND SALES.—

“(A) IN GENERAL.—In carrying out this section, the Secretary shall develop procedures to obtain appropriate and timely input into disposition plans from officials of the general local government affected, the community in which the project is situated, and the tenants of the project.

“(B) TENANT ORGANIZATIONS.—The Secretary shall develop procedures to facilitate, where feasible and appropriate, the sale of multifamily housing projects to existing tenant organizations with demonstrated capacity or to public or nonprofit entities which represent or are affiliated with existing tenant organizations.

“(C) TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE.—

“(i) USE OF FUNDS.—To carry out the procedures developed under subparagraphs (A) and (B), the Secretary is authorized to provide technical assistance, directly or indirectly, and to use amounts appropriated for technical assistance under the Emergency Low Income Housing Preservation Act of 1987, the Low-Income Housing Preservation and Resident Homeownership Act of 1990, subtitle B of title IV of the Cranston-Gonzalez National Affordable Housing Act, or under this section for the provision of technical assistance under this section.

“(ii) SOURCE OF FUNDS.—Recipients of technical assistance funding under the Emergency Low Income Housing Preservation Act of 1987, the Low-Income Housing Preservation and Resident Homeownership Act of 1990, subtitle B of title IV of the Cranston-Gonzalez National Affordable Housing Act, or under this section shall be permitted to provide technical assistance to the extent of such funding under any of such programs or under this section, notwithstanding the source of funding.

“(j) RIGHT OF FIRST REFUSAL.—

“(1) PROCEDURE.—

“(A) NOTIFICATION BY SECRETARY OF THE ACQUISITION OF TITLE.—Not later than 30 days after acquiring title to a project, the Secretary shall notify the unit of general local government and the State agency or agencies designated by the Governor of the acquisition of such title.

“(B) EXPRESSION OF INTEREST.—Not later than 45 days after receiving notification from the Secretary under subparagraph (A), the unit of general local government or designated State agency may submit to the Secretary a preliminary expression of interest in the project. The Secretary may take such actions as may be necessary to require the unit of general local government or designated State agency to substantiate such interest.

“(C) TIMELY EXPRESSION OF INTEREST.—If the unit of general local government or designated State agency has expressed interest in the project before the expiration of the 45-day period referred to in subparagraph (B), and has substantiated such interest if requested, the Secretary, upon approval of a disposition plan for a project, shall notify the unit of general local government and designated State agency of the terms and conditions of the disposition plan and give the unit of general local government or designated State agency not more than 90 days after the date of such notification to make an offer to purchase the project.

“(D) NO TIMELY EXPRESSION OF INTEREST.—If the unit of general local government or designated State agency does not express interest before the expiration of the 45-day period referred to in subparagraph (B), or does not substantiate an expressed interest if requested, the Secretary, upon approval of a disposition plan, may offer the project for sale to any interested person or entity.

“(2) ACCEPTANCE OF OFFERS.—Where the Secretary has given the unit of general local government or designated State agency 90 days to make an offer to purchase the project, the Secretary shall accept an offer that complies with the terms and conditions of the disposition plan. The Secretary may accept an offer that does not comply with the terms and conditions of the disposition plan if the Secretary determines that the offer will further the goals specified in subsection (a) by actions that include extension of the duration of low-income affordability restrictions or otherwise restructuring the transaction in a manner that enhances the long-term affordability for low-income persons. The Secretary shall, in particular, have discretion to reduce the initial sales price in exchange for the extension of low-income affordability restrictions beyond the period of assistance contemplated by the attachment of assistance pursuant to subsection (e). If the Secretary and the unit of general local government or designated State agency cannot reach agreement within 90 days, the Secretary may offer the project for sale to the general public.

“(3) PURCHASE BY UNIT OF GENERAL LOCAL GOVERNMENT OR DESIGNATED STATE AGENCY.—Notwithstanding any other provision of law, a unit of general local government (including a public housing agency) or designated State agency may purchase a subsidized or formerly subsidized project in accordance with this subsection.

“(4) APPLICABILITY.—This subsection shall apply to projects that are acquired on or after the effective date of this subsection. With respect to projects acquired before such effective date, the Secretary may apply—

“(A) the requirements of paragraphs (2) and (3) of section 203(e) as such paragraphs existed immediately before the effective date of this subsection; or

“(B) the requirements of paragraphs (1) and (2) of this subsection, if the Secretary gives the unit of general local government or designated State agency—

“(i) 45 days to express interest in the project; and

“(ii) if the unit of general local government or designated State agency expresses interest in the project before the expiration of the 45-day period, and substantiates such interest if requested, 90 days from the date of notification of the terms and conditions of the disposition plan to make an offer to purchase the project.

“(k) DISPLACEMENT OF TENANTS AND RELOCATION ASSISTANCE.—

“(1) IN GENERAL.—Whenever tenants will be displaced as a result of the disposition of, or repairs to, a multifamily housing project that is owned by the Secretary (or for which the Secretary is mortgagee in possession), the Secretary shall identify tenants who will be displaced, and shall notify all such tenants of their pending displacement and of any relocation assistance which may be available. In the case of a multifamily housing project that is not owned by the Secretary (and for which the Secretary is not mortgagee in possession), the Secretary shall require the owner of the project to carry out the requirements of this paragraph.

“(2) RIGHTS OF DISPLACED TENANTS.—The Secretary shall assure for any such tenant (who continues to meet applicable qualification standards) the right—

“(A) to return, whenever possible, to a repaired unit;

“(B) to occupy a unit in another multifamily housing project owned by the Secretary;

“(C) to obtain housing assistance under the United States Housing Act of 1937; or

“(l) MORTGAGE AND PROJECT SALES.—

“(1) IN GENERAL.—The Secretary may not approve the sale of any loan or mortgage held by the Secretary (including any loan or mortgage owned by the Government National Mortgage Association) on any subsidized project or formerly subsidized project, unless such sale is made as part of a transaction that will ensure that such project will continue to operate at least until the maturity date of such loan or mortgage, in a manner that will provide rental housing on terms at least as advantageous to existing and future tenants as the terms required by the program under which the loan or mortgage was made or insured prior to the assignment of the loan or mortgage on such project to the Secretary.

“(2) SALE OF CERTAIN PROJECTS.—The Secretary may not approve the sale of any subsidized project—

“(A) that is subject to a mortgage held by the Secretary; or

“(B) if the sale transaction involves the provision of any additional subsidy funds by the Secretary or a recasting of the mortgage, unless such sale is made as part of a transaction that will ensure that such project will continue to operate at least until the maturity date of the loan or mortgage, in a manner that will provide rental housing on terms at least as advantageous to existing and future tenants as the terms required by the program under which the loan or mortgage was made or insured prior to the proposed sale of the project.

“(3) MORTGAGE SALES TO STATE AND LOCAL GOVERNMENTS.—Notwithstanding any provision of law that may require competitive sales or bidding, the Secretary may carry out negotiated sales of subsidized or formerly subsidized mortgages held by the Secretary, without the competitive selection of purchasers or intermediaries, to units of general local government or State agencies, or groups of investors that include at least one such unit of general local government or State agency, if the negotiations are conducted with such agencies, except that—

“(A) the terms of any such sale shall include the agreement of the purchasing agency or unit of local government or State agency to act as mortgagee or owner of a beneficial interest in such mortgages, in a manner consistent with maintaining the projects that are subject to such mortgages for occupancy by the general tenant group intended to be served by the applicable mortgage insurance program, including, to the extent the Secretary determines appropriate, authorizing such unit of local government or State agency to enforce the provisions of any regulatory agreement or other program requirements applicable to the related projects; and

“(B) the sales prices for such mortgages shall be, in the determination of the Secretary, the best prices that may be obtained for such mortgages from a unit of general local government or State agency, consistent with the expectation and intention that the projects financed will be retained for use under the applicable mortgage insurance program for the life of the initial mortgage insurance contract.

“(4) SALE OF MORTGAGES COVERING UNSUBSIDIZED PROJECTS.—Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the Secretary may sell mortgages held on unsubsidized projects on such terms and conditions as the Secretary may prescribe.

"(m) REPORT TO CONGRESS.—Not later than June 1 of each year, the Secretary shall submit to the Committee on Banking, Housing, and Urban Affairs of the Senate and the Committee on Banking, Finance and Urban Affairs of the House of Representatives, a report describing the status of multifamily housing projects owned by or subject to mortgages held by the Secretary, which report shall include—

"(C) a description of actions taken to restructure or commence foreclosure on delinquent multifamily mortgages held by the Department; and

"(B) the implications of contracting out or delegating such functions for current Department field or regional personnel, including anticipated personnel or work load reductions;

"(C) necessary oversight required by Department personnel, including anticipated personnel hours devoted to such oversight;

"(D) a description of any authority granted to such public or private entities or States in conjunction with the functions that have been delegated or contracted out or that are not otherwise available for use by Department personnel; and

SEC. 2. FINDINGS.

The Congress makes the following findings:

(1) The economy of Cuba has experienced a decline of approximately 60 percent in the last 5 years as a result of—

(A) the reduction in subsidies from the former Soviet Union;

(B) 36 years of Communist tyranny and economic mismanagement by the Castro government;

(C) the precipitous decline in trade between Cuba and the countries of the former Soviet bloc; and

(D) the policy of the Russian Government and the countries of the former Soviet bloc to conduct economic relations with Cuba predominantly on commercial terms.

(2) At the same time, the welfare and health of the Cuban people have substantially deteriorated as a result of Cuba's economic decline and the refusal of the Castro regime to permit free and fair democratic elections in Cuba or to adopt any economic or political reforms that would lead to democracy, a market economy, or an economic recovery.

(3) The repression of the Cuban people, including a ban on free and fair democratic elections and the continuing violation of fundamental human rights, has isolated the Cuban regime as the only nondemocratic government in the Western Hemisphere.

(4) As long as no such economic or political reforms are adopted by the Cuban government, the economic condition of the country and the welfare of the Cuban people will not improve in any significant way.

(5) Fidel Castro has defined democratic pluralism as "pluralistic garbage" and has made clear that he has no intention of permitting free and fair democratic elections in Cuba or otherwise tolerating the democratization of Cuban society.

(6) The Castro government, in an attempt to retain absolute political power, continues to utilize, as it has from its inception, torture in various forms (including psychiatric abuse), execution, exile, confiscation, political imprisonment, and other forms of terror and repression as most recently demonstrated by the massacre of more than 40 Cuban men, women, and children attempting to flee Cuba.

(7) The Castro government holds hostage in Cuba innocent Cubans whose relatives have escaped the country.

(8) The Castro government has threatened international peace and security by engaging in acts of armed subversion and terrorism, such as the training and supplying of groups dedicated to international violence.

(9) Over the past 36 years, the Cuban government has posed a national security threat to the United States.

(10) The completion and any operation of a nuclear-powered facility in Cuba, for energy generation or otherwise, poses an unacceptable threat to the national security of the United States.

(11) The unleashing on United States shores of thousands of Cuban refugees fleeing Cuban oppression will be considered an act of aggression.

(12) The Government of Cuba engages in illegal international narcotics trade and harbors fugitives from justice in the United States.

(13) The totalitarian nature of the Castro regime has deprived the Cuban people of any peaceful means to improve their condition and has led thousands of Cuban citizens to risk or lose their lives in dangerous attempts to escape from Cuba to freedom.

(14) Attempts to escape from Cuba and courageous acts of defiance of the Castro regime by Cuban pro-democracy and human rights groups have ensured the international community's continued awareness of, and concern for, the plight of Cuba.

(15) The Cuban people deserve to be assisted in a decisive manner in order to end the tyranny that has oppressed them for 36 years.

(16) Radio Marti and Television Marti have been effective vehicles for providing the people of Cuba with news and information and have helped to bolster the morale of the Cubans living under tyranny.

(17) The consistent policy of the United States towards Cuba since the beginning of the Castro regime, carried out by both Democratic and Republican administrations, has sought to keep faith with the people of Cuba, and has been effective in isolating the totalitarian Castro regime.

SEC. 3. PURPOSES.

The purposes of this Act are—

(1) to assist the Cuban people in regaining their freedom and prosperity, as well as in joining the community of democratic countries that are flourishing in the Western Hemisphere;

(2) to strengthen international sanctions against the Castro government;

(3) to provide for the continued national security of the United States in the face of continuing threats from the Castro government of terrorism, theft of property from United States nationals, and the political manipulation of the desire of Cubans to escape that results in mass migration to the United States;

(4) to encourage the holding of free and fair democratic elections in Cuba, conducted under the supervision of internationally recognized observers;

(5) to provide for a policy framework for United States support to the Cuban people in response to the formation of a transition government or a democratically elected government in Cuba; and

(6) to protect American nationals against confiscatory takings and the wrongful trafficking in property confiscated by the Castro regime.

It is the sense of the Congress that—

(A) the completion and operation of any nuclear power facility, or

HELMS AMENDMENT NO. 2937

(Ordered to lie on the table.)

Mr. HELMS submitted an amendment intended to be proposed by him to amendment No. 2898 proposed by Mr. DOLE to the bill H.R. 927, supra; as follows:

TITLE III—PROTECTION OF PROPERTY RIGHTS OF UNITED STATES NATIONALS AGAINST CONFISCATORY TAKINGS BY THE CASTRO REGIME

SEC. 301. STATEMENT OF POLICY.

The Congress makes the following findings:

(1) Individuals enjoy a fundamental right to own and enjoy property which is enshrined in the United States Constitution.

(2) The wrongful confiscation or taking of property belonging to United States nationals by the Cuban government, and the subsequent exploitation of this property at the expense of the rightful owner, undermines the comity of nations, the free flow of commerce, and economic development.

(3) Since Fidel Castro seized power in Cuba in 1959—

(A) he has trampled on the fundamental rights of the Cuban people, and

(B) through his personal despotism, he has confiscated the property of—

(i) millions of his own citizens,

(ii) thousands of United States nationals, and

(iii) thousands more Cubans who claimed asylum in the United States as refugees because of persecution and later became naturalized citizens of the United States.

(4) It is in the interest of the Cuban people that the government of Cuba respect equally the property rights of Cuban and foreign nationals.

(5) The Cuban government is offering foreign investors the opportunity to purchase an equity interest in, manage, or enter into joint ventures with property and assets some of which were confiscated from United States nationals.

(6) This "trafficking" in confiscated property provides badly needed financial benefit, including hard currency, oil and productive investment and expertise, to the current government of Cuba and thus undermines the foreign policy of the United States—

(A) to bring democratic institutions to Cuba through the pressure of a general economic embargo at a time when the Castro regime has proven to be vulnerable to international economic pressure, and

(B) to protect the claims of United States nationals who had property wrongfully confiscated by the Cuban government.

(7) The U.S. State Department has notified other governments that the transfer of properties confiscated by the Cuban government to third parties "would complicate any attempt to return them to their original owners".

(8) The international judicial system, as currently structured, lacks fully effective remedies for the wrongful confiscation of property and for unjust enrichment from the use of wrongfully confiscated property by governments and private entities at the expense of the rightful owners of the property.

(9) International law recognizes that a nation has the ability to provide for rules of law with respect to "conduct outside its territory that has or is intended to have substantial effect within its territory".

(10) The United States Government has an obligation to its citizens to provide protection against wrongful confiscations by foreign nations and their citizens, including the provision of private remedies.

(11) To deter trafficking in wrongfully confiscated property, United States nationals who were the victims of these confiscations should be endowed with a judicial remedy in the courts of the United States that would deny traffickers any profits from economically exploiting Castro's wrongful seizures.

SEC. 302. LIABILITY FOR TRAFFICKING IN CONFISCATED PROPERTY CLAIMED BY UNITED STATES NATIONALS.

(a) CIVIL REMEDY.—(1) LIABILITY OF TRAFFICKING.—(A) Except as otherwise provided in this section, any person or entity, including any agency or instrumentality of a foreign state in the conduct of a commercial activity, that after the end of the 6-month period beginning on the date of enactment of this Act traffics in property which was confiscated by the Government of Cuba on or after January 1, 1959, shall be liable to the United States national who owns the claim to such property for money damages in an amount equal to the sum of—

(i) the amount which is the greater of—

(I) the amount, if any, certified to the claimant by the Foreign Claims Settlement Commission under the International Claims Settlement Act of 1949, plus interest;

(II) the amount determined under section 303(a)(2), plus interest; or

(III) the fair market value of that property, calculated as being the then current value of the property, or the value of the property when confiscated plus interest, whichever is greater; and

(ii) reasonable court costs and attorneys' fees.

(B) Interest under subparagraph (A)(I) shall be at the rate set forth in section 1961 of title 28, United States Code, computed by the court from the date of confiscation of the property involved to the date on which the action is brought under this subsection.

(2) PRESUMPTION IN FAVOR OF THE CERTIFIED CLAIMS.—There shall be a presumption that the amount for which a person or entity, including any agency or instrumentality of a foreign state in the conduct of a commercial activity, is liable under clause (i) of paragraph (1)(A) is the amount that is certified under subclause (I) of that clause. The presumption shall be rebuttable by clear and convincing evidence that the amount described in subclause (II) or (III) of that clause is the appropriate amount of liability under that clause.

(3) REQUIREMENT FOR PRIOR NOTICE AND INCREASED LIABILITY FOR SUBSEQUENT ADDITIONAL NOTICE.—(A) Following the conclusion of 180 days after the date of enactment of this Act but at least 30 days prior to instituting suit hereunder, notice of intention to institute a suit pursuant to this section must be served on each intended party or, in the case of ongoing intention to add any party to ongoing litigation hereunder, to each such additional party.

(B) Except as provided in this section, any person or entity, including any agency or instrumentality of a foreign state in the conduct of a commercial activity, that traffics in confiscated property after having received—

(i) a subsequent additional notice of a claim to ownership of the property by the United States national who owns the claim to the confiscated property, and

(ii) notice of the provisions of this section, shall be liable to that United States national for money damages in an amount which is the sum of the amount equal to the amount determined under paragraph (1)(A)(ii), plus triple the amount determined applicable under subclause (I), (II), or (III) of paragraph (1)(A)(I).

(C) For purposes of this section, any person or entity, including any agency or instrumentality of a foreign state, shall be deemed to have received the notices described in subsections (B)(I) and (ii) with respect to any claim certified prior to the effective date hereof by the Foreign Claims Settlement Commission.

(4) APPLICABILITY.—(A) Except as otherwise provided in this paragraph, actions may be brought under paragraph (1) with respect to property confiscated before, on, or after the date of enactment of this Act.

(B) In the case of property confiscated by the Government of Cuba before the date of enactment of this title, no United States national may bring an action under this section unless such national acquired ownership of the claim to the confiscated property before such date of enactment.

(C) In the case of property confiscated on or after the date of the enactment of this Act, no United States national who acquired ownership of a claim to confiscated property by assignment for value after such date of enactment may bring an action on the claim under this section.

(5) TREATMENT OF CERTAIN ACTIONS.—(A) A United States national who was eligible to file the underlying claim in the action with the Foreign Claims Settlement Commission under title V of the International Claims Settlement Act of 1949 but did not so file the claim may not bring an action under this section.

(B) In the case of any action brought under this section by a United States national whose underlying claim in the action was timely filed with the Foreign Claims Settlement Commission under title V of the International Claims Settlement Act of 1949 but was denied by the Commission, the court shall accept the findings of the Commission on the claim as conclusive in the action under this section.

(6) INAPPLICABILITY OF ACT OF STATE DOCTRINE.—No court of the United States shall decline, based upon the act of state doctrine, to make a determination on the merits in an action brought under paragraph (1).

(7) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, an action under this section may be brought and may be settled, and a judgment rendered in such action may be enforced, without the necessity of obtaining any license or other permission from any agency of the United States, except that this subsection shall not apply to the execution of a judgment against or the settlement of actions involving property blocked under the authority of the Trading with the Enemy Act (Appendix to title 50, United States Code, sections 1 through 44).

(8) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any claim against the Government of Cuba shall not be deemed an interest in property the transfer of which required or requires a license or permission of any agency of the United States.

(b) AMOUNT IN CONTROVERSY.—An action may be brought under this section by a United States national only where the matter in controversy exceeds the sum or value of $50,000 exclusive of costs and attorneys' fees, exclusive of interest under sections 302(a)(I), (II), and (III), and exclusive of any additional sums under section 302(a)(3)(B).

(c) SERVICE OF PROCESS.—(1) Service of process shall be effected against an agency or instrumentality of a foreign state in the conduct of a commercial activity, or against individuals acting under color of law in conformity with section 1608 of title 28, United States Code, except as provided by paragraph (3) of this subsection.

(2) Service of process shall be effected against all parties not included under the terms of paragraph (1) in conformity with section 1331 of title 28, United States Code.

(3) For all actions brought under section 302 of the Cuban Liberty and Democratic Solidarity (LIBERTAD) Act of 1995, no judgment by default shall be entered by a court of the United States against the government of Cuba, its political subdivision, or its agencies or instrumentalities, unless a government recognized by the United States in Cuba and with which it has diplomatic relations is given the opportunity to cure and be heard thereon and the claimant establishes his claim or right to relief by evidence satisfactory to the court.

(d) CERTAIN PROPERTY IMMUNE FROM EXECUTION.—Section 1611 of title 28, United States Code, is amended by adding at the end of the following:

"(c) Notwithstanding the provisions of section 1610 of this chapter, the property of a foreign state shall be immune from attachment and from execution in an action brought under section 1605(7) to the extent the property is a facility or installation used by an accredited diplomatic mission for official purposes."

(e) ELECTION OF REMEDIES.—

(1) ELECTION.—Subject to paragraph (2), and except for an action or proceeding commenced prior to enactment of this Act—

(A) any United States national that brings an action under this section may not bring any other civil action or proceeding under the common law, Federal law, or the law of any of the several states, the District of Columbia, or any territory or possession of the United States that seeks monetary or nonmonetary compensation by reason of the same subject matter; and

(B) any person who brings, under the common law or any provision of law other than this section, a civil action or proceeding for monetary or nonmonetary compensation arising out of a claim for which an action would otherwise be cognizable under this section may not bring an action under this section on that claim.

(2) TREATMENT OF CERTIFIED CLAIMANTS.—In the case of any United States national that brings an action under this section based on a claim certified under title V of the International Claims Settlement Act of 1949—

(A) if the recovery in the action is equal to or greater than the amount of the certified claim, the United States national may not receive payment on the claim under any agreement entered into between the United States and Cuba settling claims covered by such title, and such national shall be deemed to have discharged the United States from any further responsibility to represent the United States national with respect to that claim;

(B) If the recovery in the action is less than the amount of the certified claim, the United States national may receive payment under a claims agreement described in subparagraph (A) but only to the extent of the difference between the amount of the recovery and the amount of the certified claim; and

(C) If there is no recovery in the action, the United States national may receive payment on the certified claim under a claims agreement described in subparagraph (A) to the same extent as any certified claimant who does not bring an action under this section.

(D) In the event some or all actions or claims filed under this section are consolidated by judicial or other action in such manner as to create a pool of assets available to satisfy such claims, including a pool of assets in a proceeding in bankruptcy, every certified claimant who filed such an action or claim which is consolidated in such manner with other claims shall be entitled to payment in full of its claim from the assets in such pool prior to any payment from the assets in such pool with respect to any claim not certified by the Foreign Claims Settlement Commission.

(f) DEPOSIT OF EXCESS PAYMENTS BY CUBA UNDER CLAIM AGREEMENT.—Any amounts paid by Cuba under any agreement entered into between the United States and Cuba settling certified claims under title V of the International Claims Settlement Act of 1949 that are in excess of the payments made on such certified claims after the application of subsection (e) shall be deposited into the United States Treasury.

(g) TERMINATION OF RIGHTS.—(1) All rights created under this section to bring an action for money damages with respect to property confiscated by the Government of Cuba before the date of enactment of this Act shall cease upon transmittal to the Congress of a determination of the President under section 203(c).

(2) The termination of rights under paragraph (1) shall not affect suits commenced before the date of such termination, and in all such suits, proceedings shall be had, appeals taken, and judgments rendered in the same manner and with the same effect as if this subsection had not been enacted.

SEC. 303. PROOF OF OWNERSHIP OF CLAIMS TO CONFISCATED PROPERTY.

(a) EVIDENCE OF OWNERSHIP.—(1) In any action brought under this Act, the courts shall accept as conclusive proof of ownership a certification of a claim to ownership that has been made by the Foreign Claims Settlement Commission pursuant to title V of the International Claims Settlement Act of 1949 (22 U.S.C. 1643 and following).

(2) In the case of a claim that has not been certified by the Foreign Claims Settlement Commission before the enactment of this Act, a court may appoint a Special Master, including the Foreign Claims Settlement Commission, to make determinations regarding the amount and ownership of claims to ownership of confiscated property by the Government of Cuba. Such determinations are only for evidentiary purposes in civil actions brought under this Act and do not constitute certifications pursuant to title V of the International Claims Settlement Act of 1949.

(3) In determining ownership, courts shall not accept as conclusive evidence of ownership any findings, orders, judgments, or decrees from administrative agencies or courts of foreign countries or international organizations that invalidate the claim held by a United States national, unless the invalidation was found pursuant to binding international arbitration to which United States submitted the claim.

(b) AMENDMENT OF THE INTERNATIONAL CLAIMS SETTLEMENT ACT OF 1949.—Title V of the International Claims Settlement Act of 1949 (22 U.S.C. 1643 and following) is amended by adding at the end of the following new section:

"DETERMINATION OF OWNERSHIP CLAIMS REFERRED BY DISTRICT COURTS OF THE UNITED STATES

"SEC. 514. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Act and only for purposes of section 302 of the Cuban Liberty and Democratic Solidarity (LIBERTAD) Act of 1995, a United States district court, for fact-finding purposes, may refer to the Commission, and the Commission may determine, questions of the amount and ownership of a claim by a United States national (as defined in section 4 of the Cuban Liberty and Democratic Solidarity (LIBERTAD) Act of 1995, resulting from the confiscation of property by the Government of Cuba described in section 503(a), whether or not the United States national qualified as a national of the United States (as defined in section 502(1)) at the time of action by the Government of Cuba".

(c) RULE OF CONSTRUCTION.—Nothing in this Act or in section 514 of the International Claims Settlement Act of 1949, as added by subsection (b), shall be construed—

(1) to require or otherwise authorize the claims of Cuban nationals who became United States citizens after their property was confiscated to be included in the claims certified to the Secretary of State by the Foreign Claims Settlement Commission for purposes of future negotiation and espousal of claims with a friendly government in Cuba when diplomatic relations are restored; or

(2) as superseding, amending, or otherwise altering certifications that have been made pursuant to title V of the International Claims Settlement Act of 1949 before the enactment of this Act.

SEC. 304. EXCLUSIVITY OF FOREIGN CLAIMS SETTLEMENT COMMISSION CERTIFICATION PROCEDURE.

ADDITIONAL STATEMENTS

WORLD WAR II VETERANS LEAVE LEGACY OF FREEDOM

• Mr. THOMPSON. Mr. President, there are defining moments in history, as there are in all our lives. World War II was one of those times. History stood still while men and women from nations around the world struggled mightily to determine which direction the future would take.

Fifty years ago, when that war ended, America embarked on a journey toward freedom—not suppression; toward peace—not war; and toward progress for all peoples—not ignorance, fear and darkness.

While we still are far from reaching the end of that journey, we know now, as we did then, that our path would have been quite different had not so many American men and women offered their country years of personal sacrifice. More than 400,000 Americans gave their lives, and their simple, dignified graves here and around the world mark their heritage far better than words.

Among that number more than 6,000 Tennesseans died on foreign battlefields during that great conflict. Yet today 150,000 Tennessee men and women who served their country so well 50 years ago still are living.

On October 11, 1995, the United States Congress held a rare joint Senate-House meeting in the chamber of the House of Representatives to honor our World War II veterans, and those who served on the home front. I was pleased to be able to invite a Tennessee war veteran to attend this ceremony, and was honored to welcome Brig. Gen. Enoch Stephenson of Columbia, TN.

A combat pilot during the war, Stephenson flew 66 combat missions in a P-51 Mustang for the 8th Air Force, including missions over Berlin, Poland, and Czechoslovakia.

Stephenson, then a lieutenant based in Great Britain, normally "flew escort for heavy bombers—B-24s and B-17s—on their daylight raids," as he recounted. "As the Army started working its way across Europe, we continued to escort the bombers. But after they had completed their bomb run and were headed back to England, we'd leave them and go look for targets of opportunity."

After the war Stephenson returned to Tennessee and took a position with the Third National Bank in Nashville. He also served in the Tennessee National Guard until he retired 24 years later. He is currently chairman of the World War II Memorial Trust—an organization focused on creating a World War II memorial on the Tennessee Bicentennial walk planned for Nashville.

During his career Stephenson received the Legion of Merit, the Distinguished Flying Cross with Oak Leaf Cluster, the Air Medal with six Oak Leaf Clusters and the European Battle-field Ribbon with four Battle Stars.

But Stephenson represented more than one man when he traveled to Washington for the special ceremony and recognition. Sitting with him in that congressional Chamber were all of Tennessee's World War II veterans, living and dead.

With him was Sgt. Charles H. Coolidge of Signal Mountain who served in the 36th Infantry Division in France. On October 24, 1944, Coolidge's company was under heavy enemy tank and machine gun fire delivered at close range. Coolidge picked up a bazooka and moved to within 25 yards of the tanks. When the bazooka failed to function he threw it aside, crawled even closer and armed only with hand grenades inflicted heavy casualties on the advancing enemy.

With him was Sgt. Vernon McGarity of Memphis who served in the 99th Infantry Division. On December 16, 1944, near Krinkelt, Belgium, McGarity was wounded in an artillery barrage. After being treated at an aid station, he refused evacuation and returned to the men of his squad. Then, in the thick of battle and under heavy fire, he separately rescued two wounded American soldiers, immobilized the lead tank of the enemy with a rocket launcher, and ran through concerted enemy fire to recover ammunition critical to his unit's ability to continue the fight. When his squad was pinned down by a German machine gun, McGarity left cover, charged the machine gun, and single-handedly killed or wounded all the enemy gunners.

Also with Stephenson in that stately congressional Chamber was 1st Lt. Hugh B. Mott of Nashville who served in the 9th Armored Engineer Battalion in Germany. On March 7, 1945, Mott arrived with his unit at Remagen Bridge which crossed the Rhine River. Although the bridge was protected by enemy demolition charges and intense sniper, machine gun and 20 mm fire, Mott ran along the entire length of the bridge cutting the wires leading to the demolitions. By doing this he prevented the immediate destruction of the bridge and enabled U.S. forces to establish a bridge head on the east bank of the Rhine River.

Following the war Mott joined the Tennessee National Guard, from which he retired as a major general. He served in the State Legislature, and for several years was the chief of police in Nashville.

Mott was awarded the Distinguished Service Cross, among other honors.

Both Coolidge and McGarity were recipients of the Nation's highest battlefield award, the Congressional Medal of Honor.

It is sometimes hard to believe that a half-century has passed since heroes like Enoch Stephenson, Charles Coolidge, Vernon McGarity, Hugh Mott—and so many others—left their homes and families to travel into hell.

Time, however, will never diminish their sacrifices and service to our Nation. For, quite simply, their legacy is nothing less than the freedom we enjoy today. And that is the most important legacy anyone can leave.●

IN HONOR OF SISTER HENRIETTA HEBERT, SISTER WINIFRED
LEDOUX, AND SISTER STEPHEN LELEUX, SISTERS OF THE MOST HOLY SACRAMENT

● Mr. BREAUX. Mr. President, today I recognize three Sisters of the Most Holy Sacrament who have dedicated their lives to making the lives of others more rewarding both spiritually and through education.

Sister Henrietta Hebert, Sister Winifred LeDoux, and Sister Stephen Leleux have ministered primarily as educators to young women and men in my hometown of Crowley, in Acadia Parish where Crowley is located, and in south Louisiana.

On October 14, these Sisters celebrated with family and friends a mass of thanksgiving in Crowley. They celebrated and gave thanks with deep spiritual humility for one reason, that they have been able to serve others for so many years.

Sister Henrietta and Sister Winifred celebrated their Diamond Jubilee. Sister Stephen celebrated her Golden Jubilee.

As young women, these Sisters vowed solemnly to live a life of service to others. For many years they have fulfilled those vows faithfully as educators, both academic and spiritual. Today, they continue to serve through their deeply spiritual lives, through their prayers, through their example.

Their selflessness and humility stem from the deep faith which their families nurtured in them. That deep faith enabled them, as young women, to make personal and prayerful choices to serve others as Sisters of the Most Holy Sacrament.

Their dedicated service has blessed and benefited so many south Louisiana students through the academic subjects they taught and the spiritual values they instilled. In turn, the community has been blessed and has benefited as well.

I believe, Mr. President, that through their roles as dedicated Sisters, they actually have led the community as well as served it. Their commitment, their values, and their spirituality have been models of leadership and service, especially for the many young women and men they have educated.

Though they have been community leaders, in their profound humility they would see themselves as only as servants. Though they have given so much to the community, in their profound humility they would never seek or expect anything except to continue their service.

Being from Crowley, I am one of those who was so fortunate to have been taught by Sister Henrietta. On this occasion I express gratitude with all those who have learned from her, from Sister Winifred and from Sister Stephen for all that they have taught and instilled in us.

For Sister Henrietta, Sister Winifred, and Sister Stephen my personal prayers, therefore, are for many more years of peace and joy in their service to others as Sisters of the Most Holy Sacrament. Our Nation and our State are truly better off for their service to so many.●

WORLD POPULATION AWARENESS
WEEK

● Mr. ROCKEFELLER. Mr. President, next week, October 22, 1995, through October 28, 1995, has been declared as World Population Awareness Week. Over a decade ago, the United Nations estimated that by the end of this century there would be 65 countries unable to either grow sufficient food to enable their inhabitants to meet minimum nutrition levels or purchase beyond their borders sufficient food to reach these standards.

Recently, the World Food Program reported that there are already 88 low-income, food-deficit countries. With a full 4 years remaining in this century, the dire prediction made back in the mid-1980's already has exceeded by 23 countries.

Although a complete solution to the world hunger problem involves action on many, many fronts, I believe that part of the solution is to reduce global population growth. I do this with special pride over my own family's historic role in raising public awareness of population issues and their effect on the world's human condition and stability.

Last year the International Conference on Population and Development was held in Cairo to create a strategy for voluntarily reducing world population. The implementation of that strategy is the theme of World Population Awareness Week. I am proud to join Gov. Gaston Caperton of West Virginia and my fellow West Virginians in observing this week as a time to express the importance of addressing population trends. I ask that the text of the West Virginia Proclamation be printed in the RECORD designating October 22-28 as World Population Week.

The text follows:

PROCLAMATION BY GOV. GASTON CAPERTON

Whereas, the developing world is plagued by alarmingly high rates of maternal and infant mortality, environmental degradation, malnutrition and unemployment; and,

Whereas, without a reduction of population growth rates, the world's population will be subject to unprecedented economic and social hardship, hunger and political strife; and,

Whereas, world population is currently 5.7 billion and increasing by nearly 100 million per year, with virtually all of the growth added to the poorest countries and regions—those that can least afford to accommodate their current populations, much less massive infusions of human numbers; and,

Whereas, the annual increment to world population is projected to exceed 86 million through the year 2015, with three billion people—the equivalent of the entire world population as recently as 1960—reaching their reproductive years within the next generation; and,

Whereas, the environmental and economic impacts of this level of growth will almost certainly prevent inhabitants of poorer countries from improving their quality of life, and, at the same time, have deleterious repercussions for the standard of living in more affluent regions; and,

Whereas, environmental and economic problems caused by overpopulation will affect all nations of the world, including the United States;

Now, Therefore, Be It Resolved that I, Gaston Caperton, Governor of the State of West Virginia, do hereby proclaim October 22, 1995 through October 28, 1995 as: "World Population Awareness Week" in West Virginia and encourage all citizens to understand the importance of educating ourselves in order to help curb these trends and help eliminate poverty, illiteracy, unemployment, social disintegration and gender discrimination.●

WEEK

● Mr. KOHL. Mr. President, every year the United States sends billions of dollars overseas for foreign aid and military operations trying to bring peace and prosperity to troubled regions around the world. Our help often comes too late and seldom alleviates the root of the dilemma.

Overcrowding and rapid population growth exacerbates many causes of conflict around the world, like ethnic tensions, economic disparity, and struggle over scarce resources. The population of our planet has ballooned rapidly from 2 billion in 1935 to almost 6 billion today, and will reach 8 billion by 2025. Ninety percent of this growth will occur in the most troubled regions of the Third World, increasing their already difficult tasks of peace and economic development.

Stable population growth could help these regions achieve their goals by improving economic conditions, lessening the stress on scarce resources, raising the quality of life, and facilitating economic development. Increasing the awareness of population growth focuses the efforts of our Government, and governments around the world, on finding solutions to this problem.

To focus attention on population expansion, the State of Wisconsin has declared October 22-28 World Population Awareness Week. I hope Wisconsin's effort to increase sensitivity on this issue will be joined by other State and local governments. World Population Awareness Week is the first step toward stable population growth and a better and more peaceful life for everyone on the planet.●

The assistant legislative clerk read as follows:

A bill (S. 1328) to amend the commencement dates of certain temporary Federal judgeships.

Mr. DOLE. I now ask for its second reading.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there objection?

Mr. DOLE. I wish to object on behalf of the distinguished Democratic leader, Senator DASCHLE.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Objection is heard.

The bill will be read the second time on the next legislative day.

completes its business today, it stand in adjournment until the hour of 12 noon on Wednesday, October 18; that, following the prayer, the Journal of proceedings be deemed approved to date, no resolutions come over under the rule, the call of the calendar be dispensed with, the morning hour be deemed to have expired, the time for the two leaders be reserved for their use later in the day, and then there be a period for morning business until the hour of 2 p.m., with Senators permitted to speak therein for up to 5 minutes each with the following exceptions: Senator THOMAS or designee, for 60 minutes, and Senator DASCHLE or designee, for 60 minutes.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

Mr. DOLE. Mr. President, I further ask unanimous consent that the cloture vote on the substitute amendment occur at 2 p.m., with the mandatory live quorum waived; further, that under the provisions of rule XXII, Members have until 1 o'clock to file second-degree amendments.

PROGRAM

Mr. DOLE. Mr. President, for the information of all Senators, there will be a third cloture vote at 2 o'clock on the Cuban sanctions bill. If cloture is invoked, the Senate will stay on that bill until disposed of. If cloture is not invoked, the Senate may be asked to return to any of the following items: NASA authorization; Amtrak authorization; Labor-HHS appropriations—we are trying to work out some agreement on that; State Department reorganization; and it is my hope—I know that the Senator from North Carolina, Senator HELMS, has prepared for several days to proceed on that matter—that the Senator from Massachusetts, Senator KERRY, will submit some offer to Senator HELMS so we can work out that matter, as we agreed to earlier; plus any available appropriations conference reports.

ADJOURNMENT UNTIL TOMORROW

Mr. DOLE. If there is no other Senator seeking recognition, and no further business to come before the Senate, I now ask unanimous consent that the Senate stand in adjournment under the previous order.

EXTENSIONS OF REMARKS

A RENAISSANCE MAN OF VISION, HUMANITY, AND TECHNICAL EXPERTISE

HON. TOM LANTOS

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, October 17, 1995

Mr. LANTOS. Mr. Speaker, I rise to pay tribute to the leadership James D. Wolfensohn is displaying in his new role as the President of the World Bank. At the Bank's annual meeting this past week in Washington, Mr. Wolfensohn unveiled his ambitious blueprint for the global development agency's role in a changing world. He is fully cognizant of the difficulties facing the organization, but emphasizes the new opportunities for the Bank, the donor countries, and the recipient nations to forge a more effective partnership.

Of course, Mr. Wolfensohn has been forging productive partnerships in the business, academic, and philanthropic communities throughout his long and distinguished career. Prior to joining the Bank, Mr. Wolfensohn was an international banker who played a prominent role in the performing arts.

Before assuming the presidency of the World Bank on June 1, 1995, Mr. Wolfensohn was the chairman of the board of trustees of the John F. Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts. From 1980 to 1991, as chairman of New York's Carnegie Hall, he oversaw the much hailed renovation of this treasured national cultural landmark.

Mr. Wolfensohn also held several key positions in the international community in addition to leading the World Bank. He is chairman of the Institute for Advanced Study at Princeton University as well as the finance chairman of the Howard Hughes Medical Institute. In addition, he is an honorary trustee of the Brookings Institution and member of the Council on Foreign Relations.

Mr. Speaker, I would like to include in the RECORD some highlights from Mr. Wolfensohn's address to the Board of Governors of the World Bank Group at their joint annual discussion on October 10. I think he offers sound advice on the future of multilateral development assistance that all of us would do well to consider:

EXCERPTS OF JAMES D. WOLFENSOHN'S ADDRESS TO THE BOARD OF GOVERNORS OF THE WORLD BANK, OCTOBER 10, 1995

"We have made good progress on poverty reduction in several areas—in East Asia and some parts of Latin America. But there are still 1.3 billion people living on a dollar a day or less. Adequate sanitation and electricity are still beyond the reach of two-fifths of the world's people.

"This shocking poverty is fueled by continuing rapid population growth—increasing by more than 80 million people a year, 95 percent of them in the developing countries. And it is compounded developing world. . . .

"It strikes me as bitterly ironic that just as we are reaching a consensus on how to address these challenges in our changing world, the threat to development assistance has never been greater. I refer here specifically to the funding crisis facing our concessional affiliate, the International Development Association—IDA. . . .

"... IDA is the backbone of the international effort to help the poorest nations help themselves. And yet, despite the record, there is a serious question about the fulfillment of some donor commitments under IDA-10 (covering the years 1993-1996). Budget cutting by the U.S. Congress has led to delays, and probably large reductions in the size of the contribution by IDA's leading donor. And for every dollar cut by the United States, IDA could a total of $% as other nations reduce their contributions proportionally.

"This means that if congressional estimates of a U.S. cut of approximately 50 percent materialize, overall donor contributions to IDA this coming 12 months could be reduced from $6 billion to under $3 billion. Achieving an adequate IDA-11 (covering the years 1996-1999) for the next three years will be extraordinarily difficult if IDA-10 is reduced so drastically. This is not only a threat to IDA, it is a threat to the long-term viability of multilateral financing for development.

"As Michael Camdessus (Managing Director of the International Monetary Fund) has pointed out, if there is a seriously underfunded IDA, we will be faced with a world of increasingly unstable nations. . . .

"The donor community needs to understand the cons of an underfunded IDA. We must explain that world citizenship has a price and that IDA is central to the whole development process. National budget cutting exercises in the developed countries must give due weight to international considerations. Money saved now for domestic purposes will lead to huge costs later. It is the donors' own self-interest to maintain an adequate level of support.

"Obviously, IDA and its partners in government and civil society must be accountable—and must be seen to spend scarce resources wisely and well. There must be a 'compact': that in return for the donor community ensuring IDA has adequate resources, recipient countries and the bank must ensure that those resources are used more effectively. Projects must be well managed and corruption eliminated. In addition, we need to provide better information about the benefits of this important work to donor governments—and to their voters. . . .

"From my experience in the private sector I know the power of partnership. This was reaffirmed during my recent travels (to China, Mexico, and the West Bank and Gaza). . . .

"We must deepen our cooperation—as we have begun to do—with the UN system, the IMF and the WTO. We can expand our cooperation with the private sector—which plays such an increasingly important role in development. And we can do much more to reach out to NGOs and civil society. Let me also pay tribute to the regional development banks with whom we work, and to their leaders who have given me so much advice and help. . . .

"Of all our partnerships, we must remember that the most important is that with the governments to which we lend—and the people that they serve. It is a point worth repeating: we must get closer to our clients.

This will mean continuing to strengthen our field presence, while maintaining a very strong base at the center. At the same time, we must be mindful that the projects we finance are not World Bank projects—they are Chinese, or Haitian, or Malawian projects. But it is for the countries to own them and be responsible for them."

BEYOND THE GREAT SATAN

HON. CAROLYN B. MALONEY

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, October 17, 1995

Mrs. MALONEY. Mr. Speaker, the recent incidents involving China's proposed nuclear reactor deal with Iran have focused attention once again on Iran and its troubled place in the community of nations.

I commend to your attention a thoughtful piece which appeared in the Washington Post, written by Hushang Ansary, a former Iranian Ambassador to the United States and Minister of Finance in the Iranian Government before the ouster of the Shah in 1979. While I do not necessarily agree with or endorse all of Ambassador Ansary's proposals, I believe that he lays out an interesting road map for setting relations between the United States and Iran on a new course.

[From the Washington Post, July 9, 1995]

BEYOND THE GREAT SATAN

(By Hushang Ansary)

THE CLINTON administration has taken a series of steps to further isolate Iran and tighten the economic sanctions that could throttle its economy. If successful, these new U.S. initiatives against the Islamic Republic are likely to have a farreaching impact on the course of events in a region that supplies much of the West's oil needs.

At the same time, U.S. failure to win strong international backing for its containment policy would allow Iran to continue its pursuit of a nuclear development program, one that continues to raise questions.

President Ali Akbar Hashemi Rafsanjani has retorted that the United States will be the ultimate loser. And so far, America's European allies and Japan have not been supportive.

The latest move to raise the stakes in a decade and a half of hostility between the United States and Iran is no surprise. Secretary of State Warren Christopher has called Iran an outlaw state. President Clinton has used his executive authority to nullify an agreement between Iran and Conoco. A more alarming hint was dropped in February by Gen. Binford Peay, commander of the U.S. Forces in the Middle East, that the two countries might even become involved in military conflict.

By the time the last of the American hostages returned home from Tehran just over 15 years ago, even the most optimistic knew that the historic friendship between the United States and Iran has suffered a terrible setback. Successive U.S. administrations have pursued policies of accommodation, military pressure and sanctions against Iran. Some of these policies have backfired, as in the case of the Iran-contra affair. Some have inadvertently provided trading opportunities for others. By and large, this potpourri of U.S. measures has not altered the fundamental positions of Iran.

These measures have, however, helped to push Iran toward international isolation and accelerated the pace of its mostly self-inflicted social and economic ills. Even a policy of critical cooperation, advocated by Germany with French support, has not had the desired effect.

Now that the Clinton administration and the new Republican majority in Congress appear to agree on placing Iran high on the agenda of U.S. foreign policy, is it not time to address the Iranian dilemma at its roots? The United States may hold to its current course of isolating Iran, but it has to reckon with all the international forces at work on this issue. Russian and Chinese nuclear agreements, and German and Japanese debt refinancings, give evidence of the fragility of the administration's approach.

This appears to be a propitious time for a different approach and it is, therefore, worth considering how relations between the United States and Iran might be set on a new course.

Iran is now facing mass unemployment, double-digit inflation, falling productivity and massive foreign debt. The value of the Iranian currency, the rial, dropped from 75 to the dollar in 1977 to 6,000 at one point. Iran's GNP per capita is now less than half its 1977 level.

Iran is also feeling the weight of diplomatic isolation. Sixteen years after the revolution, the only Western head of state to have paid a visit to Tehran is Kurt Waldheim, the former Austrian president.

Economic and governmental disorder have unleashed political forces beyond the control of the radical clergy. In recent months, Iran has faced a number of industrial strikes and anti-government demonstrations. Important social groups, including lawyers, doctors, bazaar merchants, retired military officers, writers and journalists, have publicly challenged the government and its policies.

Even the Shiite Muslim clergy, initially the backbone of the revolutionary regime, has asserted its independence. Some senior ayatollahs have said publicly that they would support new policy makers and policies capable of turning the economy around and ending the nation's diplomatic isolation.

The constant theme of these dissenting voices is a call for a new political course, one freely chosen by the Iranian people. As the level of dissent rises, there is reason to believe that even some of the more extreme elements of the regime, their customary rhetoric notwithstanding, may now be inclined to consider a plan that would address the country's economic disorder and diplomatic isolation. General elections are scheduled in 1996 and presidential elections in 1997. A workable plan, properly monitored and performance-related, could have a positive effect on these two crucial events.

Such a plan should let the people of Iran normalize the state of the nation. At home, it should aim for democracy, respect for human rights and an agreeable quality of life. Abroad, it would need to restore the image of Iran as a responsible member of the United Nations, ready to live in peace with all other nations.

In the first phase of such a plan, Iran would have to take appropriate steps, in keeping with its constitution, to dismantle the bureaucracy it created to cope with the problems of the early years of the Islamic revolution. These steps should include the rehabilitation of those unjustly deprived of their civil rights on the basis of their political beliefs, the repeal of laws and regulations that discriminate on the basis of sex, race, ethnicity and faith, and the removal of restrictions, often unconstitutional, on freedom of expression, association and election.

The normalization of political life in Iran would facilitate the no less complex task of bringing the country's foreign policy into line with its international obligations. This would, of necessity, include measures to dispel any notion that Iran supports international terrorism and the assassination of dissidents abroad. Iran would also need to cease its campaign against the Middle East peace process, adhere to the now renewed version of the Nuclear Non-Proliferation Treaty and take steps to make credible its announced decision not to acquire nuclear weapons.

Iran could also facilitate visits by the International Committee of the Red Cross to prisons where it is alleged that prisoners of conscience and members of religious and ethnic minorities are being held, often without charges being filed. It should allow international human rights organizations access to its officials and open itself to the international media in the normal manner.

Linking its response to Iranian performance, the United States would need to give evidence of its own willingness to make positive contributions. First steps would include establishing a timetable for the final settlement of all outstanding claims between the two countries and for the release of the remaining Iranian assets, setting up a procedure in which sanctions against Iran would be lifted in stages and normalizing visa requirements for Iranian nationals visiting the United States.

The United States could encourage the formation of a Council on Trade and Economic Cooperation with Iran with the participation of the leaders of the U.S. business community. The United States might also form an appropriate body to advise on various aspects of U.S.-Iranian relations. While policies are obviously formulated by governments, this could help mobilize private resources in the services of the new set of foreign policy objectives as containment gives way to rapprochement.

In the next phase, Iran would resume its quest for democracy that started almost 100 years ago. The Iranian people would be given the opportunity to return to the electoral process and the organization of presidential and parliamentary elections in line with the provisions of Iran's constitution. These elections should be open to political parties of all denominations and conducted in a verifiably fair fashion.

The last phase of the plan would thus begin in an atmosphere of stability, without which all attempts at reviving Iran's economy through domestic and international cooperation will remain tentative and fragile. At this point, the Council on Trade and Economic Cooperation with Iran, having completed its initial studies, would be in a position to sponsor a series of conferences designed to help Iran reintegrate into the world-economy and to realize its economic potential, estimated to reach $100 billion in annual trade and economic opportunities.

The stage could thus be set for the Middle East to open a chapter in regional economic cooperation—possibly including Central Asia, which hungers for peace and development—an enterprise that could foster opportunities not dissimilar to those in the Pacific Rim nations. Moderate Arab nations too would be helped to accelerate the pace of their social and economic transformation, and the way would be paved for a more constructive relationship between the West and the world of Islam as a whole.

Is this farfetched? It is no more farfetched than the thought of a visit to Jerusalem by President Anwar Sadat of Egypt in the aftermath of the Yom Kippur War or the thought in the mid-1980s that the Berlin Wall could be brought down before the end of that decade. The Middle East has always dealt with logjams that block the normal course of its politics through courageous steps that have defied conventional wisdom. History belongs to those who do not merely contemplate the sour aspects of present reality, but labor with persistence to give birth to new possibilities of hope.

OCTOBER IS MENTOR MONTH

HON. CONSTANCE A. MORELLA

OF MARYLAND

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, October 17, 1995

Mrs. MORELLA. Mr. Speaker, I rise to pay tribute to the Montgomery County (Maryland) Task Force on Mentoring. The task force will be sponsoring a mentor training workshop on Saturday, October 21, 1995 in celebration of their theme, "October is Mentor Month."

The Montgomery County Task Force on Mentoring was established by the Montgomery County Human Relations Commission in response to a study of the plight of young black males in the county. In 1991, the commission hosted a conference on "Young Black Males: Is Mentoring a Solution?" At that conference, it became apparent that several mentor programs were in operation in the county unaware of each other's existence. It was obvious at that conference that an umbrella organization was needed to provide support for mentor activities in Montgomery County.

In Homer's "Odyssey," Mentor was the man to whom Odysseus entrusted the care and education of his son, Telemachus, when Odysseus embarked on his travels and adventures. The word "mentor" has come to mean "a trusted friend or teacher."

Mentoring has evolved into a time-honored tradition that smooths the path for newcomers to get ahead and allows seasoned-professionals to leave a legacy for the future. A mentor is someone who consciously serves as a career role model for students. A mentor can increase the confidence and self-esteem of students and provide the inspiration needed to persevere during the early stages of career development. Studies show that people who have been nurtured in their careers by mentors achieve more than individuals with equal talent who have not had an advocate encouraging their success.

Mentors often combat the isolation and fragmentation experienced by teenagers who lack guidance from adult role-models. Mentors have been especially important for single mothers who need encouragement to aspire to professional growth and higher-paying jobs. In many instances, mentors help their proteges overcome persistent barriers in the workplace.

Through their workshop on October 21, the Montgomery County Task Force on Mentoring hopes to assist young people who need adult guidance in their lives. Information and materials will be available to organizations interested in developing mentor programs.

Mr. Speaker, it is a proud moment for me to applaud the task force for providing organizations in the Montgomery County community with the technical assistance and support services they need to promote mentoring. I wish the winning combination of task force members, interested citizens, county agencies, community organizations, and students continued success as they embark on future odysseys in mentoring.

BREAST CANCER AWARENESS MONTH

HON. BARBARA F. VUCANOVICH

OF NEVADA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, October 17, 1995

Mrs. VUCANOVICH. Mr. Speaker, October is Breast Cancer Awareness Month. It is time to remember the 46,000 women who died last year, and the 182,000 women who will be diagnosed with breast cancer this year. I know the hard cold facts because I am a breast cancer survivor.

Women must play a vital role in the war against breast cancer by performing a monthly breast-self-examination, visiting a physician and obtaining an annual mammogram. Since there is no cure for breast cancer, early detection is the key to survival.

However, early diagnosis of breast cancer is of no use if the patient cannot get proper treatment once a tumor is discovered. The treatment for 50 percent of all breast cancers is limited to one drug, yet current law does not permit Medicare coverage.

Today I am introducing legislation which provides coverage of this drug under Medicare. Without this coverage, breast cancers are left untreated, and women are left to suffer.

Remember the women during Breast Cancer Awareness Month. Become a cosponsor of this life-saving legislation.

TRIBUTE TO CWO DENNIS ST. CLAIR

HON. PAUL E. GILLMOR

OF OHIO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, October 17, 1995

Mr. GILLMOR. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to pay tribute to CWO Dennis St. Clair, a dedicated public servant who will soon retire from the Ohio Army National Guard after over 41 years of distinguished service.

Dennis St. Clair began his service at the Camp Perry Training Site, located near Port Clinton, OH, on July 22, 1954. Since that time, CWO St. Clair has distinguished himself as a man of dedication, innovation, and personal accomplishment. During his tenure, CWO St. Clair's expert management was instrumental in a comprehensive building program which included the construction of four new barracks, a new beach tower, a new troop medical clinic, new officers quarters and new motel units.

As the full-time Operation and Plans officer for the Camp Perry Training Site, CWO St. Clair developed one of the most comprehensive range safety programs in the country. His legacy is an outstanding range safety record at Camp Perry.

Mr. Speaker, Dennis St. Clair is a remarkable individual whose 41 years personal competence, unwavering commitment and selfless sacrifice is a model for public servants. I ask my colleagues to join me in congratulating him for his service to the U.S. Army, the Ohio Army National Guard, and to the people of the State of Ohio.

As he begins his retirement, may he and his family fully enjoy the benefits of the freedom he has so ably defended for over four decades as a member of the Armed Forces of the United States.

MEDICARE SUBSTITUTE

HON. CHARLES B. RANGEL

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, October 17, 1995

Mr. RANGEL. Mr. Speaker, I plan to offer a substitute for H.R. 2425, the Medicare Preservation Act of 1995 when it is debated in the House of Representatives on Thursday, October 19, 1995. My substitute is very simple. It is printed in its entirety in the amendments section of this RECORD. It contains three provisions.

First, my substitute would establish a bipartisan commission to develop recommendations to strengthen and improve the Medicare Program. The commission would be required to submit its recommendations to the Congress not later than May 1, 1997.

Second, my substitute would provide for $90 billion less in tax reductions than now contemplated by the budget resolution. This would be accomplished by an across-the-board limitation on all the tax reductions.

Finally, my substitute would transfer the additional revenues resulting from the limitation on the tax reductions into the Medicare Part A Trust Fund. This would extend the solvency of that trust fund until the year 2006.

Mr. Speaker, there is no reason to do irrevocable damage to Medicare and senior citizens by cutting $270 billion from the program over the next 7 years—unless you want to grant excessive tax cuts to the very wealthiest of our citizens. The trustees of the fund made it clear that an infusion of $90 billion into the Part A Trust Fund will assure solvency through 2006.

My substitute will solve any intermediate problems of the fund now, while creating a mechanism by which any long-term problems can be addressed in a thoughtful and reasoned manner.

By this substitute, we truly can preserve, protect, and strengthen Medicare for both present and future beneficiaries.

A VISION FOR AMERICA

HON. JOHN SHADEGG

OF ARIZONA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, October 17, 1995

Mr. SHADEGG. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to pay tribute to Miss Jacquelyn Clark, a student at Horizon High School and a resident of my district in Scottsdale, AZ. Miss Clark is the Arizona State winner of the Veterans of Foreign Wars' Voice of Democracy broadcast scriptwriting scholarship contest. The contest theme this year was "My Vision For America." I commend to you, Mr. Speaker, and all of my fellow Members of Congress, both in this House and in the other body, her words:

MY VISION FOR AMERICA

In 1783, a group of men had a vision for a country based on justice and liberty for all Americans. One of the most beautifully written documents in our nation's history was created, the United States Constitution.

My vision for America is that the people of our nation maintain a faith in the ideals held by our forefathers. The United States Constitution has proven itself worthy of our respect and allegiance. It has upheld its values with fortitude, and has stood the test of time by remaining true to its original principles.

James Madison, considered the "Father of the Constitution," believed that "in framing a system which we wish to last for ages, we should not lose sight of the changes which ages will produce." Our nation has undergone many remarkable changes since its beginning. We have spread the words of liberty across our entire continent, and to all people who call our great nation their home. Amazingly, our Constitution's words are as valid today as they were when first written. These words of hope have served as a guiding light for all men. No matter where our individual paths may lead us, we always know that the rights recognized to us in the Constitution are rights we realize from birth, and rights on which we can depend to shield us from civil injustice and oppression. Included, are the rights to share in our government, the right to worship God in one's own way, and the right to a full and happy life.

We must keep in mind, however, that with these rights come responsibilities, and how we invest in our country determines how we profit from it. A wise American once said, "ask not what your country can do for you, but what you can do for your country." This message remains true today. From its beginning, our Constitution has represented a belief in the future, but this belief must be maintained in the present.

My vision for America is the hope of a shared vision between all Americans, and that they would be dedicated to protecting our nation's heritage. Today's Americans must have the desire and initiative to educate our children. Our coming generations need to realize that great accomplishments grow from average people. Every day, men and women had hopes for a brighter future and ended up making our great country what it is today. When I see veterans standing proudly to salute the American flag while the National Anthem plays patriotically in the background, and when I see small children with their hands held over their hearts stumble through the Pledge of Allegiance, I feel such pride for our nation and the principles for which it stands. We need to remember that those who come before us cannot depend on those who come after us to maintain the spirit of our Constitution. The goal of our forefathers was to assure within the wording of this great document that our nation would remain strong and would be a land of opportunity for all who supported it. Our constitutional foundation will remain firm only as long as its holders continue to protect its principles. It is up to us, today's Americans, to cherish the beliefs of our fathers and keep them alive and safe for our children.

My vision for keeping this spirit alive is through a personal involvement in our government. Americans have a responsibility to its authors to not only teach the wording of the Constitution, but to demonstrate its principles through our actions. We need to encourage all citizens to exercise their Constitutional privilege of suffrage, and to actively take part in the decisions that shape and mold our nation. By encouraging our children to participate in the KIDS VOTING program, we hope to emphasize the importance of democracy and set an example of individual responsibility and citizenship. However, individual responsibility requires active participation daily, and not merely at the polls on voting day. By keeping oneself informed about the day-to-day workings of our government, citizens can experience the enthusiasm shared by our nation's patriots as they framed our basic freedoms of religion, speech, press, and assembly. In this way, the values on which our country was founded will continue to flourish and strengthen us as we meet the challenges of the twenty-first century.

My vision for America is a shared vision, and it begins with us, the people. We hold the key to keeping our country on the path of greatness. In just two hundred years, much has been done, but many great accomplishments are yet to come. With continued support from its people, this country will remain a land of freedom and opportunity and will hold fast to the principles of "one nation, under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all!" May God bless America—Thank you.

THE PEOPLE'S FIREHOUSE CELEBRATE ITS 20TH ANNIVERSARY OF SERVICE

HON. CAROLYN B. MALONEY

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, October 17, 1995

Mrs. MALONEY. Mr. Speaker, I rise to honor the People's Firehouse, Inc. which is celebrating its 20th anniversary of service to the Williamsburg and Greenpoint communities of northern Brooklyn this November. PFI was founded when, in November of 1975, the city of New York announced that it would close fire engine company 212. The threatened loss of prevention services brought the people of north Brooklyn together to form the People's Firehouse.

In an act of courage rising out of concern for their community, residents entered the firehouse and refused to leave. They held the firetruck hostage and, for 16 months, lived and worked in the fire station, all the while pressuring the city to reopen engine company 212.

One official called off attempts to remove the protesters from the firehouse saying that the fire station was now "the people's firehouse." The name stuck and after much negotiation, engine company 212 was reopened as a fully operational fire station. Those involved in the firehouse situation decided to form a permanent organization to assist their community, and, this year, the People's Firehouse, Inc. a Housing and Community Development Co., celebrates its 20th anniversary.

Mr. Speaker, PFI offers a number of services to the community deserving of recognition. PFI provides legal rights outreach and mediation services to tenants, landlords and the homeless; housing management programs; and housing preservation and development. Seniors and immigrants are given special assistance in English, Spanish and Polish. PFI manages 16 buildings consisting of 141 residential units. The NYC Housing Preservation and Development Community Management Program provided funding for PFI to renovate and manage previously abandoned, city-owned buildings. Since beginning contracting with Housing Preservation and Development in 1979, PFI has rehabilitated nine city-owned buildings and later sold them to the tenants as limited equity cooperatives.

As if their housing and citizen-outreach programs were not enough, the PFI has received fire and arson prevention funding from the U.S. Fire Administration, the Federal Emergency Management Agency, the New York Department of State, and the mayor's office arson strike force. The PFI also offers a weatherization assistance program; participates in historic restoration; strengthens the Northside Merchants Association with marketing assistance, store renovation and a matching grant program; improves streets with the Bedford Avenue street reconstruction project; and engages in protection of the environment.

Mr. Speaker, the 20 years of service to the community provided by PFI deserve our recognition and praise. PFI takes great pride in its community and responds to the needs of its citizens throughout Greenpoint, Williamsburg, Northside and Southside. One of PFI's most recent projects includes youth job training and establishment of the People's School which offers programs designed to address issues of unemployment, poverty and neighborhood stabilization.

Mr. Speaker, I urge my colleagues to join me in recognition of the People's Firehouse Inc.'s 20 years of service to its community. At a time when many argue that neighborhoods and any "sense of community" no longer exist—PFI strives to find more and more ways to serve its citizenry.

OVERCOMING EXTREME POVERTY

HON. CONSTANCE A. MORELLA

OF MARYLAND

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, October 17, 1995

Mrs. MORELLA. Mr. Speaker, today, October 17, is the World Day To Overcome Extreme Poverty. In thousands of cities, towns, and villages across the United States and around the world, the poorest people, and those who stand beside them, will be solemnly recommitting themselves to the task of ending extreme poverty.

The first observance of October 17 took place in Paris in 1987. It was made possible by a partnership between extremely poor families and a man named Joseph Wresinski. Together, they founded the Fourth World Movement, which is now an international anti-poverty organization whose activities span the globe.

Around the world, there are 1.3 billion people living with little other than a dream of a better future. Their dreams are usually not for themselves, but for their children. It is our job as their fellow human beings, and as elected leaders, to recognize those dreams and to take up our full responsibilities in seeing that they become a reality. The poorest people are ready to join us in building a better world. It is only with their cooperation and partnership that we can succeed.

Today, we must resolve to work with these poor families to put an end to extreme poverty, just as apartheid and slavery have been abolished. Today, we must resolve that never again should a single man, woman, or child be condemned to the silence and uselessness that extreme poverty entails.

I hope that Members will join me in observing October 17, the World Day To Overcome Extreme Poverty.

Mr. GINGRICH. Mr. Speaker, I would like to share with my colleagues an excellent article regarding the Earned Income Tax Credit.

TAMING THE EITC

The Earned Income Tax Credit often is hailed by Republicans as the best welfare program around. So why are they bent on cutting it? The answer: It has grown so much that it's now doing more harm than good.

House Ways and Means Committee Chairman Bill Archer, R-Texas, hopes to cut the EITC some $20 billion over the next seven years.

President Clinton sharply attacked the move, saying it's "inconsistent with those basic, bedrock values this country should be standing for."

What's all the fuss about?

Started in 1975, the EITC was supposed to help offset the growing costs of payroll taxes on the working poor. Those eligible could get a credit on a portion of their income taxes.

For some families below a certain income threshold, the EITC worked as a negative income tax. They paid little or no income taxes to begin with.

The idea was to encourage work among the poor by boosting their after-tax income. So the EITC has come to be seen as a welfare program with a built-in work incentive.

Popular with both Republicans and Democrats, the cost of the credit grew rapidly. Presidents Bush and Clinton both expanded the credit's size and scope dramatically.

So much so, in fact, that when the Clinton expansions are fully phased in next year, the EITC's cost will have nearly quadrupled since 1990. By 1996, the credit will cost $26 billion—equal in size to the federal food stamp program.

As a modest program, the EITC worked fine. But most economists agree that today it's doing more harm than good.

The problem stems from the way the credit is structured.

It gets phased in for working families with income up to $8,900. The effect of the credit is to provide a wage subsidy of 40 cents on each dollar up to that income limit.

From there, the credit is maxed out. Families who earn up to $11,600 don't get any additional credit.

Once a family exceeds that limit, the credit is phased out. For each dollar over $11,600, the family loses 21 cents of its EITC until its income hits $28,000.

Economists say this acts like a marginal tax rate of 21 percent, on top of all the other state and federal taxes, giving these families one of the highest marginal rates around. And that, they say, provides a strong disincentive to work.

The trouble is, as the EITC expands, this disincentive looms larger, overwhelming the work incentives created when the credit is phased in.

Marvin Kosters, who has done extensive research on the EITC for the American Enterprise Institute, finds that today about 40 percent of American families are eligible for the credit.

But of these, there are nearly four times as many families in the phase-out range as in the phase-in range.

Worse, the work incentives for families in the phase-in range are mixed, Kosters notes. For example, the EITC encourages low-income families to work, rather than not—the so-called substitution effect.

But it also encourages them to work less. After all, they get a 40-percent raise without working any harder.

And, Kosters notes, the EITC imposes a marriage penalty on low-income workers—a problem made worse by the expansion of the credit in the '90s.

"Under the most adverse circumstances, the marriage penalty would amount to over $5,000," Kosters said before a House panel looking at the EITC. "(That) would be about 25 percent of the combined income of the married couple."

And, as the EITC becomes more generous, it invites fraud and abuse, which has been the focus of GOP complaints. Audits by the IRS have found higher rates of false or exaggerated EITC claims.

For now, the GOP appears to be listening to these concerns.

PERSONAL EXPLANATION

HON. JAMES C. GREENWOOD

OF PENNSYLVANIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, October 17, 1995

Mr. GREENWOOD. Mr. Speaker, on rollcall vote No. 704, it was my intention to vote "no". I was in the Commerce Committee's Medicare markup, and in my haste, I misconstrued the intent of the Roemer amendment. I ask unanimous consent that my statement appear in the RECORD immediately following rollcall vote No. 704.

RECOGNITION OF THE CENTER FOR ADVANCED FOOD TECHNOLOGY

HON. FRANK PALLONE, JR.

OF NEW JERSEY

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, October 17, 1995

Mr. PALLONE. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to pay tribute to the Center for Advanced Food Technology [CAFT] at Rutgers, the State University of New Jersey, on the occasion of its 10th anniversary.

CAFT was established by our fine State in 1985. My colleagues and I in the State Senate established CAFT and the other New Jersey Advanced Technology Centers to be administered under the auspices of the State's Commission on Science and Technology to link our State's high technology industries with some of Rutgers University's most prominent departments so as to enhance the State's economy. The resulting impacts are something of which I am particularly proud.

Over its 10-year history, the center's unique multidisciplinary approach to research and technology transfer has resulted in the development of cutting edge scientific knowledge and technologies that address the product, process, and manufacturing needs of the food industry.

As I am sure you know, the food industry is one of the major employers in our country. The food manufacturing sector is also one of the greatest contributors to our Nation's economy by adding value to our Nation's considerable agricultural commodities sector. By coordinating the research efforts of about 40 faculty members from 10 university departments who are overseeing the research of over 130 graduate and undergraduate students and post doctoral associates, CAFT is supporting the research needs of this important manufacturing sector.

CAFT's past achievements are many. Through its development of new equipment and manufacturing technologies for military rations, the Defense Logistics Agency is now better prepared to provide a variety of high quality foods to support the morale of our service men and women. By performing research aimed at understanding and enhancing food quality, these rations will continue to improve.

The facilities and equipment used for the military ration studies have been used on a cost recovery basis to assist smaller food companies and entrepreneurs to develop new businesses and to develop new or improve existing products and manufacturing operations. This type of activity is necessary to keep the food industry healthy and to enhance the viability of smaller companies which are the lifeblood of the manufacturing sector.

CAFT has also worked with food, pharmaceutical, and chemical companies which have needed highly sophisticated research analysis performed. Several of these companies have been able to bring new products to market partially because of CAFT's expert assistance.

Underlying all these efforts are the fundamental research studies through which CAFT has developed its well deserved international recognition. Companies worldwide have benefited from the cutting edge knowledge CAFT has developed. Of this, the center is understandably proud.

I am very pleased to let the people of this Nation know about the unique and wonderful research capabilities, such as those at CAFT, that have been established in New Jersey. These centers can serve as models of how industry, universities, and government can work together to make our Nation stronger.

TRIBUTE TO IVONETTE WRIGHT MILLER

HON. TONY P. HALL

OF OHIO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, October 17, 1995

Mr. HALL of Ohio. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to join the Wright family in honoring their beloved Ivonette Wright Miller who passed away this month at the age of 99. Mrs. Miller, niece of Orville and Wilbur Wright, was the last direct connection of the birth of aviation and was instrumental in preserving the Wright heritage.

Mrs. Miller became the third American woman to fly when, on August 29, 1911, she rode beside her uncle, Orville, in the Wright B Flyer. Mrs. Miller played an important role in the donation of the original 1903 Wright Flyer to the Smithsonian Institution and in the placement of the Wright papers in the Library of Congress and Wright State University in Dayton, OH.

The following are excerpts of remarks made at a memorial service by Tom D. Crouch, noted Wright brothers biographer and chairman, of the Department of Aeronautics of the National Air and Space Museum.

It is a very great honor indeed to participate in this celebration of the life of Ivonette Wright Miller. I did not know Mrs. Miller as long as some of you, but we shared a genuine friendship, and I owe her a debt of gratitude of the sort which cannot be repaid. It is a debt that I share with all of those scholars, historians, and just plain Wright enthusiasts whom she assisted over the years, and I will try to speak on their behalf this afternoon.

When I think of what I most admired about Ivonette Miller, the term "family values" comes to mind. My wife Nancy and I were privileged to attend Ivonette and Harold "Schribze" Miller's 70th anniversary celebration at Hawthorn Hill in 1989. That was a marriage you had to admire, at least I did. The two of them went through a great deal together, and through it all, they remained devoted to one another and to their daughter and her family.

Of course, Ivonette also defined herself as a member of that extraordinary family into which she was born. "It was late afternoon, on the eighth day of April in 1896," she once wrote: . . . and one could hear the tapping of a typewriter in the upstairs room at 7 Hawthorne Street in Dayton, Ohio, where Bishop Milton Wright did his writing and carried on his duties as a minister for the United Brethren in Christ denomination. . . . When he had finished a letter to [his daughter] Katharine [who was then a sophomore at Oberlin College], he picked up a small notebook in which recorded the events of each day, smiled, and wrote: "Lorin's have a little girl named Ivonette born near 4:00 this morning."

"So it was," Ivonette concluded, "that I came into this world, innocent of all that was to take place in a lifetime, in the midst of an event which had been a world wide dream as long ago as ancient Greece." Orville Wright once remarked on his own good fortune, and that of his brothers and sister, to have been born into a family where children were loved and nurtured, where genuine curiosity and self-confidence were encouraged, and real education prized. That was doubly true of the young Wrights of Ivonette's generation. She and her brothers, sister and cousins were raised in the bosom of an extended family that included not only their own loving parents, but their Wright grandfather, uncles and aunt who lived just around the block.

"When I was about seven," Ivonette once commented, "the first flight at Kitty Hawk took place. I'm sure the family was excited by it, but they all went about their daily chores as if nothing significant had occurred." Perhaps, but it is not difficult to find traces of the young Ivonette in the records of the invention of the airplane.

There is no more important or precious manuscript in the history of flight than the small pocket notebook in which Wilbur Wright recorded the results of the flight tests of his 1902 glider. The penciled notations that fill the little notebook record the career of the world's first fully controllable airplane. The document is a treasure, not simply of the history of technology, or even American history, but of the history of the world. And on one of the final sheets in the notebook you will find the name Ivonette inscribed twice in childish block printing. ". . . I was sitting on Uncle Will's lap, as I often did," she recalled many years later, "when he asked me if I could write my name. I was six years old at the time and just learning to write. He probably pulled the notebook out of his pocket (where he usually kept it) and asked me to show him how I could write my name."

As she grew older, and her Uncles emerged as the first great heroes of the 20th century, Ivonette occasionally played a more active role on the public stage. While she was not the first American woman to fly, she did take the sky at an early date. In 1910, her younger sister Leontine wrote to Wilbur and Orville, who were in Europe at the time, asking if she could be the first American girl to fly in the U.S. The next summer, when their cousin Bertha Ellwyn Wright was visiting from Kansas, Orville invited all three young ladies for a flight. The great day was August 29, 1911. Twelve year old Leontine, who had, after all, asked, went first. Their visitor and guest, fourteen year old Bertha, was next. Then it was fifteen year old Ivonette's turn.

"We used Captain [Charles DeForrest] Chandler's coat and gloves," she explained. "He was taking flight training at the time." "I wore a small hat with a scarf tied tightly under my chin to keep it on. I climbed over the wires and took my seat on the wing to the right of Uncle Orv. Our feet were braced on a cross-strut—no cockpit. We took off and soon everything on the ground was dwarfed. I remember how squared off the fields looked, just like a patchwork quilt my grandmother used to have. We circled around over the field and after some minutes Uncle Orv pointed to the interurban car approaching in the distance from Springfield. He shouted above the noise of the engine, "There comes the traction car, shall be try to catch it?" I nodded. We came down, I slid out under the wires, dropped the coat and gloves off at the hanger for Captain Chandler as I went by and by that time the traction car was slowing to a stop and we joined the passengers boarding it."

As one of the last surviving Wrights with vivid personal memories of life in the house at number 7 Hawthorn St. in Dayton, Ohio, Ivonette delighted a great many people with her recollections of her famous uncles. But her notion of the serious responsibilities of family stewardship went well beyond that.

Ivonette and "Scribe" Miller devoted themselves to insuring that the precious historical treasures in their keeping would be presented as gifts to the nation, and that the achievements of Wilbur and Orville Wright would be fully understood and appreciated in an honest and accurate fashion. The Millers, and the other heirs of the Wright estate, played a key role in negotiating the presentation of the 1903 airplane to the Smithsonian, by means of an agreement that brought the forty year old dispute between the Wrights and the Institute to a final conclusion.

Moreover, the Millers took a deep personal interest in placing the Wright Papers in an archive where they would be available to the maximum number of researchers. The bulk of the papers went to the Manuscript Division of the Library of Congress. They insisted that the information in those precious documents be made widely disseminated. The result was the publication, in 1953, of the monumental two-volume set of "The Papers of Wilbur and Orville Wright."

Ivonette and "Scribe" befriended Marvin Wilkes McFarland, the chief editor and leader of the team of scholars who produced the published papers. And Mac was not alone. The Millers befriended two generations of Wright scholars. Their friendship with the great English student of early flight, C.H. Gibbs-Smith, was forged via the mails, and cemented when Charles spent a year in the U.S. as the Smithsonian's first Lindbergh Scholar. Charles dedicated his classic study, "The Wright Brothers and the Rebirth of European Aviation," to: "Ivonette Miller of Dayton, Ohio, First Lady of the Wright Descendants."

I was fortunate to count both Marvin McFarland and C. H. Gibbs-Smith as my mentors. In 1972, I was a twenty-seven year old doctoral candidate writing a dissertation on the early history of flight technology when Mac McFarland suggested that I would find the answers to some of my questions in the books and manuscripts still in the hands of Ivonette and Harold Miller in my hometown of Dayton, Ohio. It was material that the Library of Congress had chosen not to take as part of the Wright Papers.

Mac gave me Mrs. Miller's telephone number and advised me to call her the next time I was visiting my parents in Dayton. "They are nice folks," he assured me. "They won't mind." When I did make that call, I discovered that Mac had understated both the Miller's hospitality and their capacity to put up with an inquisitive graduate student requesting permission to poke around in the boxes stored in their basement.

I had never before encountered treasure of this sort outside a public repository. There were great aeronautical books—annotated by the Wright brothers. The manuscripts included volume after volume of a diary kept by their father, Milton Wright, from the middle years of the 19th century until the time of his death in 1916. One box contained Wilbur, Orville and Katharine's report cards, school papers, and early examples of the items printed by the firm of Wright and Wright. Other boxes were stuffed with financial records, and photographs, many of which I had never seen before.

At the end of that first day, Ivonette invited me to join her in the kitchen for tea and cookies. She was the real treasure. It is difficult to explain what it meant to be sitting there across the table from the woman who had sat on Wilbur's lap and written her name in his notebook; the seven year old who could remember what it was like when the news of success had arrived from Kitty Hawk; the fifteen year old who had donned Charles DeForrest Chandler's leather coat, gloves and helmet to go flying with her Uncle Orv. She was a living link to one of the great moments in American history.

Over the next decade and a half, I recycled the material in the Miller's basement into a dissertation, two books and a dozen articles. Very early on, I suggested that, while their home was as lovely and as fire-resistant as any in Dayton, they should give some thought to selecting a final home for what amounted to an entirely new set of Wright Papers unknown to researchers. Wisely, they selected Wright State University, then a relatively new institution of higher learning named for the inventors of the airplane. A decade and a half later, that collection has provided the basis for an entire series of books, exhibitions, and educational materials.

We own Ivonette and Harold Miller, and all of the Wright heirs, our gratitude for their wise stewardship. Thanks to them, the world's first airplane hangs in the place of honor in the world's most visited museum. The priceless record of one of the world's great achievements—the letters, notebooks, photographs and other documents relating to the invention of the airplane—are safely preserved in the greatest manuscript collection in the nation. It was at their insistence that the core documents in that collection were published. They saw to it that another large collection of Wright family materials would be housed in a second great archive in the city that was home to all of them.

Such a list of achievements scarcely scratches the surface of our debt to Ivonette Wright Miller. She was our personal link to that marvelous family which nurtured the inventors of the airplane. She represented them to a curious world with grace, warmth, and dignity. Her memories helped all of us to see her uncles a bit more clearly and to appreciate their achievement a bit more deeply. The very definition of a gracious soul, she enabled those of us who knew her to touch an important moment in history. She has earned her place of honor and rest with the other members of the Wright family. We will not see her likes again, and those of us whose lives she touched can thank God for the privilege.

COMMEMORATING THE FIFTH ANNIVERSARY OF Dedicating THE FATHER JERZY POPIELUSZKO STATUE

HON. CAROLYN B. MALONEY

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, October 17, 1995

Mrs. MALONEY. Mr. Speaker, I rise to commemorate the fifth anniversary of the dedication of the statue honoring Father Jerzy Popieluszko, the young, idealistic priest who was brutally slain in October of 1984. To honor Father Jerzy and the people who built the statue in his honor, a special commemorative mass will be said on Sunday, October 22, at the Stanislaus Kostka Church. The people of Greenpoint, home of the statue, and the members of the Polish-American Congress deserve our support and praise for honoring a man as brave and good as Father Popieluszko. Father Popieluszko lived his life as an outspoken supporter of solidarity and human rights. Twelve years have passed since his death and his name has become a symbol of a heroic battle for truth and justice.

Father Popieluszko's funeral was a mass celebration which drew crowds of tens of thousands. His grave is always covered with fresh flowers and surrounded by many people—Poles as well as foreigners who visit Poland. His memory and his statue remind our community of the impact he had on his native Poles and the important message of what he preached and the way of life he showed. Many people have been and continue to be positively changed by his message of truth, justice, and moral strength.

The fifth anniversary commemoration at his statue between Bedford Avenue and Nassau Avenue in Greenpoint, Brooklyn will continue what Father Popieluszko did to unify people. His statue and his memory continue to teach us his message of forgiveness in the place of hatred and the importance of truth and courage.

Father Popieluszko was born to a poor farming family in 1947, in the village of Okopy, 20 miles from the Soviet border. From early childhood he was deeply religious: he rose every morning at 5 a.m. and walked 3 miles to serve as an altar boy before school. He became a priest in 1972 and worked as a priest for the next 8 years. He was loved by all with whom he worked. Mr. Speaker, it is important that we honor and remember a man who went wherever he was needed and worked hard, even in the face of his own serious illness.

The circumstances surrounding Father Popieluszko's abduction and murder are still unclear. But, the spirit of Father Popieluszko has outlived him and is rightfully honored in his statue and the fifth anniversary commemoration of its dedication. Mr. Speaker, I hope all of my colleagues will join me in honoring Father Popieluszko, the Polish people, and the members of the Polish-American Congress who will honor him on Sunday, October 22.

THE 72D ANNIVERSARY OF THE ALLEGHENY NATIONAL FOREST

HON. WILLIAM F. CLINGER, JR.

OF PENNSYLVANIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, October 17, 1995

Mr. CLINGER. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to challenge the notion that one shouldn't mix business and pleasure. That's exactly what we've been doing for 72 years in Pennsylvania's Allegheny National Forest, and it's worked remarkably well.

The Commonwealth's only national forest, it is one of northwest Pennsylvania's greatest assets. Selective harvesting of timber has created thousands of jobs, provides funding for schools and roads, and returns millions of dollars annually to the U.S. Treasury. The University of Pittsburgh at Bradford has estimated that "5,540 jobs are directly related to wood products, and another 12,576 are significantly impacted by the forest products industry."

But its economic benefits don't stop there. Each year, 12 million visitors—and area residents—enjoy camping, fishing, and hiking in the forest. If any of my colleagues and their families would like to visit, I'd be happy to identify some truly amazing sites.

I'm proud to say that this mix of work and pleasure is balanced with a keen awareness and diligent attention to the forest's conservation needs. By responsibly harvesting our renewable timber resources, we allow the forest to flourish and continue to fuel the economy.

The Allegheny National Forest strikes a wonderful balance between its many uses and its needs. For many, it's a source of livelihood; for millions more, a recreational haven. And, through its responsible management, it will remain so for generations to come.

The saying "don't mix business and pleasure" may have its merits, but it's also important to remember another, "there's an exception to every rule." Pennsylvania's national forest is certainly exceptional.

Thank you, Mr. Speaker, for this opportunity to recognize the Allegheny National Forest on its 72d anniversary, and to congratulate all those who have come to enjoy, respect, and benefit from it.

THE FEDERAL BUDGET

HON. ALCEE L. HASTINGS

OF FLORIDA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, October 17, 1995

Mr. HASTINGS. Mr. Speaker, a constituent of mine, Mr. Norman Hardy of West Palm Beach, FL, sent me the following article regarding balancing the Federal budget. Mr. Hardy said this article is "right on the mark" and I agree with him. The same municipalities and local governments that the new Republican majority claim were the ones to request the block grants are now the ones saying we may need to slow down. Balancing the budget and block-granting Federal funds might have sounded good in the abstract but the reality may very well be disastrous.

[From the Palm Beach Post, Sept. 24, 1995]
WASHINGTON'S MESSAGE TO AMERICA'S CITIES:
DROP DEAD

(By Nancy Graham)

I am gravely concerned about where this country seems to be heading. That puts me among the 60 percent or more of Americans who would like to join a third political party.

What I see at the state and federal levels in the way of partisan politics disgusts me. As the elected leader of the largest city in Palm Beach County, it is clear to me that our "elected representatives" at those levels, particularly those in Washington, have no knowledge of the world in which most of us live—and, frankly, I don't think they even care. If we have any hope of putting Americans first, the power plays and the ego-driven, mean-spirited partisan politics must give way to reason and logic.

There is not and should not be anything partisan about local government. We are closest to the people we serve, provide most of the services, have to pick up the pieces of people's lives fractured by the actions of the state and federal governments and still try to maintain some quality of life for all our citizens.

There is no greater example of mean-spirited, ego-driven partisan politics than in the current debate over the proposed federal budget cuts. I think I will be sick to my stomach if I see another 30-second sound bite by either party extolling the virtues of its actions on the budget, or slamming the other side's. What is frightening to me is that most Americans will sit back and take these professionally scripted sound bites for the truth. There is much not being told to Americans, particularly about how these budget cuts will affect each of us, no matter where we live.

Don't get me wrong. I strongly support the goal of balancing the federal budget, reducing the federal deficit and reforming a number of federal programs such as welfare and Medicare. We will all need to sacrifice to make them happen. West Palm Beach has to balance its budget every year, in good times and in bad. We know how to impose financial discipline. We know how to cut popular services, to raise revenues. West Palm Beach is ready to do our fair share.

Congress, however, is asking local communities to take a direct hit for its years of free-wheeling spending. The budget currently under consideration does not ask cities and counties to do their fair share to balance the budget. It asks cities and counties to do the lion's share.

Proposals in Washington would have a devastating impact on crime prevention, economic development, housing, children and our elderly. Amazingly, these proposals have received very little scrutiny.

So far, Congress has engaged in a "stealth" budget process. It appears that Congress is hoping that the American people don't figure out what's going on until it's too late.

The new Congress went to Washington promising to reform government.

Unfortunately, all they did was pass the buck.

The proposed budget doesn't actually solve problems, it just shifts the problems and shifts taxes to the local level.

Worst of all, this is a very short-sighted budget. It was put together with virtually no public input or hearings. The vast majority of the cuts being made are from only one-third of the federal spending, the domestic spending for Americans. In fact, the proposed budget adds about $7 billion in the defense budget, an increase not even requested. We are spending more for our foreign agenda than to preserve a decent quality of life for our own citizens.

ECONOMIC FUTURE SACRIFICED

The proposed budget would sacrifice the long-term economic future of this country for short-term political gain. At a time when America should be investing in our people and our economic foundation, this budget is a unilateral retreat. This budget would cut job training. It would cut education. It would cut youth programs. There is absolutely no logic or rationale to the proposed cuts. No matter what political party one comes from, we should all agree on the need to invest in our economic future.

The U.S. Conference of Mayors and National Association of Counties recently conducted a survey of mayors and county officials to see how these proposed cuts would affect our cities and our citizens. The response was overwhelming—96 percent of the mayors believe the proposed cuts would hurt their cities and residents. Ninety-three percent believe the cuts would hurt their human-investment efforts; 84 percent foresee negative effects on their cities' economies; 85 percent see negative effects on their economic development efforts; and 86 percent believe that the effects of the cuts would extend to their regional economies.

For most city residents, the cuts would be felt in loss of services and/or increased taxes. Eighty-five percent of the survey respondents said that they would have to reduce city services; 61 percent said they would be forced to lay off city workers; 41 percent said they would be forced to raise taxes.

The survey responses from the National Association of Counties were very similar.

So what does this mean for West Palm Beach? If we are to revitalize our city, we must reduce crime, clean up our decaying neighborhoods, create economic development opportunities (businesses and jobs) and focus heavily on our youth. We have started these efforts over the past few years, but much more needs to be done. We have developed partnerships with the Palm Beach County School Board, our business community and non-profit groups to save taxpayers money. We have cut staff and worked to improve services. We cannot stretch any further.

Yet, several times a day I hear from frustrated people about what they see as a declining quality of life, fear of crime, lack of affordable housing, lack of jobs and other problems that are so complex and intertwined. Balancing the federal budget almost solely on the backs of domestic programs is going to substantially aggravate these problems and increase the public's frustration with government. West Palm Beach is by no means an isolated case.

We want welfare reform—and rightly so. Yet we cut—and in some cases eliminate—job training; we cut education, cut student loans, fail to provide decent, affordable health care, and penalize poor families who try to stay together. We talk to the working poor, and we tell them, "We want you to go to work. We want to end welfare." But what does this budget do? What messages of hope does it send to the working poor? It increases the tax burden on the working poor by lowering the earned income tax credit. The working poor will pay $230 more a year in taxes. They are getting a tax increase. In many cases, that's a substantial percentage of their income. This is in the face of a proposed tax cut for the wealthy.

CUTS WILL PRODUCE MORE CRIME

Crime among our youth is rising at frightening rates. Young people are dropping out of school at record levels. We talk to them about staying in school so they can get a good, decent job. The one program that links them, while they're students, to the job market and opens up opportunities for them to get jobs is the Summer Youth Employment Program. This money is to be completely eliminated. No jobs, no job training—no question, higher crime.

West Palm Beach receives about $1 million annually in grants from the Department of Housing and Urban Development. We currently rehabilitate 25 full-scale housing units and handle 46 emergency "rehab" housing units each year. The proposed 50 percent cut would drastically reduce West Palm Beach's ability to assist low-to-moderate-income working families to maintain their homes.

We also receive $446,000 from HUD Home Funds. Seventy-five percent is used for the Mayor's Renaissance Fund for first-time home buyers. This money generates between seven and 10 times the money in the form of investments by local lending institutions. More than 30 families have been able to purchase homes in the past year. There is a waiting list in excess of 344 applicants wanting to buy a home. The city has used HUD money to create attractive, decent, affordable rental units for low-to-moderate-income people with the Harris Music Building and Ballet Villages in the downtown area.

LONG WAITING LIST FOR HOUSING

More than 1,000 people are on the waiting list for public housing in West Palm Beach. Most of these people are decent, caring human beings who have not been as fortunate as most of us who will read this article.

I recently visited Dunbar Village on Tamarind Avenue. Most of the units there leak badly when it rains, damaging walls and floors. Is that acceptable for our seniors and poor because they are throwaways?

No summer youth jobs? Consider that last summer, the city used $240,000 in federal money to get approximately 23 dropout youth back into education programs and job training. Our success rate was about 70 percent—excellent. Most are now continuing their educations, some at college. Others have jobs. One young man received his high school equivalency diploma, trained with the city to become a certified landscape sprayer and is now employed by us full time. Most of the youth we saved were headed toward becoming a criminal statistic.

We are all sadly aware of the problems in our schools. Yet the proposed budget cuts education, food for hungry children at school and money for Safe and Drug Free Schools. Can children learn with empty stomachs and daily fear of violence?

There are many more examples I could give about what these proposed cuts will mean here in Palm Beach County, but you have probably gotten the point. The proposed cuts are unfair, illogical and lack any rational basis.

We do need to balance the federal budget and reduce the deficit for future generations. We do need reform of entitlement programs. These important objectives can be achieved and still ensure a decent quality of life and vital communities for us all. This can only happen, however, if we demand that our elected representatives consider our best interests as they were elected to do and put the good of America over petty, mean-spirited partisan politics. We must accept no less—our future depends on it.

I would draw upon the maxim that the true test of a democracy is the treatment of its poor, its young and its elderly. Cuts will "write off" whole segments of our country's population rather than building upon action that can create improved national economic viability for our future.

West Palm Beach, as most cities in Florida, does not have the option of raising property taxes. We are too close to our legal limit. We can only cut services. The county can increase taxes, but that money comes from the same pocketbooks. The real irony is that if crime increases and neighborhoods decline, property values decrease, and we end up with even less revenue to meet the public demands.

GOVERNMENT FOR THE WEALTHY?

We can solve these problems, but the federal and state governments must do so in a logical, rational, thoughtful manner—not through immature bickering and posturing. Local governments can't make all of these changes overnight; we need time to adjust to some of them. We also have to make sure that the effort to balance the federal budget is not just a shift to local property taxes. Property taxes tend to be regressive taxes.

What is even more unbelievable to me is that while Washington is proposing to drastically cut domestic spending, at the cost of low- and middle-class Americans, it is proposing a tax cut for the wealthy. Is Washington being run only by the wealthy for the wealthy, with the interests of lobbyists being put over us regular and less fortunate folks?

Washington uses 30-second sound bites of abuses in domestic programs to convince us they are doing the right thing. They do not tell you the success stories. Let me tell you just one.

I was raised in a large, poor, but hard-working family. We lived for a number of years in public housing, received free school lunches and received some free medical care. I worked and put myself through college and law school with the assistance of student loans. (I have repaid every penny.) I have one sister who had a child out of wedlock.

Yet not one person in my family is on welfare or receives federal assistance. I am not the exception; there are many more like me. Under the proposed cuts, I can guarantee you I would not have been able to succeed alone.

Yes, there are abuses. But inept federal government and complex regulations cause many of them. Yes, families must also take responsibility for their well-being and that of their communities. But if the federal and state governments just dealt with their own waste first, we probably would be a lot closer to balancing the federal budget and reducing the deficit without the extreme measures being proposed.

Call or write your congressional representatives in Washington now. Demand truth in governance, responsibility and accountability to the people they represent—us—and demand that petty partisan politics stop for the sake of America's future. Let them know you are not in favor of the cuts as proposed and demand that they hold open hearings.

SHELTER ISLAND HEIGHTS FIRE DEPARTMENT 100TH ANNIVERSARY REMARKS

HON. MICHAEL P. FORBES

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, October 17, 1995

Mr. FORBES. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to pay tribute and to congratulate the men and women of the Shelter Island Heights Fire Department for 100 years of dedicated service to the people of the Heights. The residents of the Shelter Island Heights Fire District are very fortunate to have such a well-trained and devoted fire department. The Shelter Island Heights Fire department worked hard to establish itself as one of the best departments in

New York and has achieved an impeccable record.

The success of the fire department is a direct result of selfless dedication and effective management displayed by its members. Under the leadership of Chairman Frederick J. Gurney, the fire department has continued to play an active role in the life of the Shelter Island community. This leadership umbrella extends to the other members of the Board of Fire Commissioners: Charles Williams, Eugene Tybaert, Louis Cicero, and Richard Surozenski, as well as the loyalty and hard work exemplified by Chief Officer Stuart Nicoll, First Assistant Larry Lechmanski, and Second Assistant Dave Sharp. The Shelter Island Heights Fire Department consists of more than 35 professional volunteer firefighters, containing no career employees, offering further evidence of their passion and commitment to the community they serve.

On Saturday, September 30, 1995, the Shelter Island Heights Fire Department celebrated its 100th anniversary, marking a long, proud history by recognizing and honoring the efforts of those who have sacrificed and served the department and community over the years. Therefore Mr. Speaker, it is with great pride that I ask the rest of the House to join me in congratulating this all-volunteer fire department on achieving this momentous milestone. This is a much-deserved tribute and I wish them all the best on their day of recognition and glory. They give of themselves because of the love and pride they share for their community and we applaud their extraordinary service and efforts. These courageous individuals have truly earned this recognition. May they continue to serve their community for the many 100 years to come.

A TRIBUTE TO HUGH HANDLEY

HON. CALVIN M. DOOLEY

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, October 17, 1995

Mr. DOOLEY. Mr. Speaker, I rise before my colleagues today to pay a special tribute to Hugh Handley, who is retiring after serving 23 years as the agricultural commissioner of Kings County.

Over that time, Hugh has not only kept up with the myriad changes in agricultural practices in California's Central Valley, he has helped develop them. His coworkers consider him an encyclopedia of information, and they no doubt will miss his expertise.

As ag commissioner, Hugh has witnessed technological breakthroughs made by the farms in his county, and has tried to provide a supportive role to those breakthroughs. He managed to maintain this even as government budgets were reduced.

One major development in the county that Hugh was directly responsible for was the building of a one-stop agricultural government center. The center houses all of the agricultural offices for the county, the U.C. Cooperative Extension, and the U.S. Department of Agriculture, greatly benefiting farmers by simplifying the process of dealing with government agencies.

While the center is only a building, it embodies the approach to his job that Hugh has maintained—he has always sought to make the complex world of government rules and regulations more manageable to farmers so that they can spend more of their time farming rather than digging through redtape.

For that and his wealth of knowledge and impressive body of experience, the farming community in Kings County will miss Hugh. As a county farmer myself, and as a Congressman, I salute Hugh Handley and wish him a very happy retirement.

SUPPORTING TAIWAN

HON. ELTON GALLEGLY

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, October 17, 1995

Mr. GALLEGLY. Mr. Speaker, last week, on October 10, the Chinese people on Taiwan celebrated the anniversary of the Revolution of 1911 in which the last imperial dynasty in China was overthrown and the Republic of China, under the leadership of Dr. Sun Yat-sen was born.

Today, the Republic of China on Taiwan is a strong world economic leader and a growing and vibrant democracy which deserves our continued support.

As the President prepares to meet with Chinese President Jiang Zemin, we need to reaffirm the importance of peace and mutual understanding among all interests in the Asian region.

Now that Harry Wu has been returned to his home and the Chinese ambassador has been sent back to Washington, we hopefully anticipate a more normal relationship with Beijing.

However, it must be made clear by the President that our support for the freedom and democracy of Taiwan cannot be compromised and that continued attempts by Beijing to intimidate Taiwan or to undermine the political stability in Taipei, through the use of missile and artillery firings off the coast of Taiwan are unacceptable.

I hope that the Chinese leadership in Beijing has realized that it cannot undermine our support for the people of Taiwan by either holding a temper tantrum against us or by bullying Taiwan with military exercises.

Taiwan has been a long and steady friend to the United States. They are our sixth largest trading partner. They are a strong democracy committed to the freedoms enjoyed and promoted by the United States and other democracies throughout the world.

The President must communicate to President Zemin in an unequivocal manner as possible that Beijing should not attempt to test our resolve over Taiwan and that the United States will not sacrifice Taiwan's friendship, democracy, and status in the world as a way to normalize our relations with Beijing.

HONORING THE HISTORY OF GREENPOINT

HON. CAROLYN B. MALONEY

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, October 17, 1995

Mrs. MALONEY. Mr. Speaker, I rise to bring recognition to the Greenpoint World War II 50-Year Commemorative Day, October 21, 1995.

The St. Stanislaus Memorial Post 1771, Kings County's largest American Legion will honor all veterans of Greenpoint on this day. Veterans of the United States involved in any war or conflict will be honored while World War II veterans will be a focus of these observances.

Since the Civil War, Greenpoint maintains the exclusive honor of defending this Nation's freedom throughout the years with the largest number of resident representatives compared to similar urban communities anywhere in the United States. As World War II festivities honoring D-day, V-E Day, V-J Day, and signing of unconditional surrender by all aggressive nations wind to a memorable conclusion, the Greenpoint World War II 50-Year Commemorative Day will include over 13 hours of events including outdoor ceremonies, recognition of honored guests, recitation of patriotic letters and poems, an explanation of the proper flag presentation. Boy and Girl Scouts of the Greenpoint community will demonstrate flag presentations; and patriotic music will be played throughout the day by the John Erickson Junior High School (P.S. 126) band.

Acknowledgment of all Greenpoint veterans will be completed by playing of military theme songs and acknowledgment of every veteran in attendance.

Mr. Speaker, the show of community pride in this thank you to their veterans deserves our praise and notice. I am proud to represent the people of Greenpoint and other fine neighborhoods of northern Brooklyn, and I am also very pleased to offer recognition to the St. Stanislaus Memorial Post 1771's World War II 50-Year Commemorative Day.

PAUL SCHOELLHAMER—A TRIBUTE

HON. JAMES L. OBERSTAR

OF MINNESOTA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, October 17, 1995

Mr. OBERSTAR. Mr. Speaker, it is the good fortune of our colleagues and the American people that talented professionals from throughout the United States seek to serve in the national interest as staff members in the House of Representatives.

One of this company, Paul Schoellhamer, has served this institution for more than a dozen years, and we have had better public policies, I believe, for his tireless efforts most recently as Democratic chief of staff for the Transportation and Infrastructure Committee.

In this Congress, Paul has had the thankless job of reducing the most impressive committee staff in the House by 60 percent. But in so doing Paul and the just-retired ranking Democratic Member, Norm Mineta, succeeded in creating the most versatile and experienced body of professionals to help do the work of protecting the Nation's transportation and environmental investments. For this job alone, he has the respect and appreciation of this Member.

Mr. Speaker, I would like our colleagues to know something more about Paul, who is a native Californian. He is the son of Alicia and Jack Schoellhamer. Norm Mineta, in tribute 5 years ago to Paul's late mother, said that she was "loved throughout her community, for her tireless charitable work and her devotion to bettering the lives of those around her, especially those in greatest need." Of Paul's father, Norm noted his many years of service to the U.S. Geological Survey. Paul is clearly, in the work and in the friendship I've known with him, the son of his parents.

Paul received his bachelor's degree from the University of Santa Cruz and not all that many years later found his way to Norm Mineta's personal office in 1975, volunteering as an intern. Norm soon found his work indispensable, put him on his paid staff, and within 2 years assigned him to the Public Works and Transportation Committee.

Over the years, Paul built a substantive expertise throughout our committee's jurisdiction—first, on the Public Buildings and Grounds Subcommittee; next, on the Investigations and Oversight Subcommittee; and last, on the Aviation Subcommittee until 1985, when he became a vice president of Republic Airlines.

After a few more years in the private sector, we were able to lure him back to the House as chief of staff for the Public Works and Transportation Committee in one of our most productive Congresses on record—and I say that having myself been committee administrator for Chairman John Blatnik of Minnesota prior to my election to the House in 1974.

In 1993 alone, in his first year as chief of staff at the beginning of a new Congress, here's a sampling of the legislative product Paul helped our colleagues produce:

LAW

H.R. 904, to create the Airline Commission, which investigated the condition of the Nation's airlines.

H.R. 2121, legislation to resolve the costly and contentious "negotiated rates" problem affecting the trucking and shipping industries.

H.R. 3445, legislation assisting victims of the 1993 Midwest floods.

PASSED BY THE HOUSE

H.R. 5, striker replacement legislation, which would guarantee that striking employees could return to their jobs.

H.R. 2739, The Aviation Infrastructure Investment Act, a three-year program to improve airports and airways.

H.R. 3276, technical corrections to the landmark Intermodal Surface Transportation Efficiency Act of 1991.

H.R. 2440, reauthorization of the National Transportation Safety Board for three years.

H.R. 881, legislation banning smoking in Federal buildings, with very limited provisions for designated smoking areas.

PASSED BY THE COMMITTEE

H.R. 1865, legislation to create a Federal program to construct water supply systems.

H.R. 2442, to reauthorize the Economic Development Administration, including provisions to assist communities adversely affected by military base closings.

Mr. Speaker, Paul is now joining our former colleague, Norm Mineta, at Lockheed Martin's transportation systems and services division. I know that Paul's skills in the private sector will parallel those he polished in our company, both professionally and personally. Our loss here in the House is considerable, but we are far better for having had him with us for so many years.

I ask my colleagues to join me in wishing him, his wife, and their children well in their new adventure.

A LETTER FROM THE BARONA, SYCUAN, AND VIEJAS TRIBES OF SAN DIEGO COUNTY

HON. BOB FILNER

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, October 17, 1995

Mr. FILNER. Mr. Speaker and colleagues, I rise to place into the RECORD the results of a recent California statewide voter survey on Indian gaming. In the spring of this year, California tribes commissioned an independent research company, J. Moore Methods of Sacramento, to survey a cross-section of 1,000 registered voters across the State.

A letter from Clifford La Chappa, tribal chairman of the Barona Band of Kumeyaay Indians, Georgia Tucker, tribal chairperson of the Sycuan Band of Kumeyaay Indians, and Anthony Pico, tribal chairman of the Viejas Band of Kumeyaay Indians, states:

We needed reliable data to begin to understand public attitudes towards all forms of gaming. An objective survey was crucial as an intentionally-biased study would have served no one. What we now have is a solid sampling of public opinion we can share with community and state leaders. Voters were clear in their message of support.

Sixty percent of the state's registered voters back Indian gaming with support reaching a hefty 73 percent in San Diego County.

The opinion poll also reveals voters do not believe tribal gaming needs further government regulation, and they are opposed to Nevada casino interests operating gaming facilities in California.

The findings show 82 percent of San Diegans support continued operation of Indian reservation casinos, compared to 75.9 percent support statewide.

Overall, 54.7 percent of California voters approve various forms of legalized gambling in contrast to 29.2 percent opposed, with 16 percent expressing no or mixed opinions.

These figures show the general public favors reservation gaming to such an extent that politicians who are against Indians using gaming to improve economic conditions are not listening to the people.

Survey findings show 58 percent of California voters oppose Governor Pete Wilson's position not to negotiate gaming compacts with California tribes. In San Diego County, 57 percent of voters surveyed said they opposed the governor's position.

Seventy percent say they "do not feel" gambling in general required additional government regulation, and a majority of 50.3 percent expressed opposition to legislative restrictions on Indian reservation casino gaming.

By a 53 to 35 percent ratio, state voters also oppose expansion of legal gaming into new communities to compete with Indian reservation gaming. Californians agreed that the best place for new gambling facilities is on Indian reservations. This preference exceeded support for expanded gaming at race track (20.9%), additional card rooms (6.4%), and Nevada-style commercial casinos (15.1%).

Other survey findings included: 79 percent Republican men agree Indian gaming is good because it is eliminating welfare dependency among Indians.

85 percent of Republican women agree that Indians, not state governments, should be accountable for keeping tribal gaming free of corruption.

73 percent of Democratic women agree with the use of gaming revenue to improve life on the reservations.

California voters clearly are telling us that while they support gambling as a valid form of recreation, they feel it is best confined to certain areas. Voters support Indian gaming for two reasons: most facilities are located in relatively isolated rural areas, and Californians see gaming as the best opportunity Native Americans have to provide for their people and to secure a solid economic base for the future.

Reservation gaming is a fair play issue, in many respects. The public knows Indians have suffered in the past and that many continue to suffer the worst of all human statistics. Today the public can support reservation gaming because it takes nothing away from the larger population and gives tribes an even chance to become self-supporting. In fact, as you are already aware, reservation gaming in San Diego County and throughout the state creates jobs and significant economic benefits to the wider community."

SENIORS: FACES OF MEDICARE AND MEDICAID

HON. LOUIS STOKES

OF OHIO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, October 17, 1995

Mr. STOKES. Mr. Speaker, I rise to speak on behalf of the Nation's seniors who will be devastated by the GOP-destruction of the Medicare Program. Just this morning, I heard from a number of elderly in my district who are extremely concerned about the cuts to Medicare and Medicaid. In fact, Mr. Eli Strinic said that he would like the opportunity to be on the floor to talk to the Congress himself. Well, on his behalf, and that of Mrs. Beatrice Waltoncarr, and thousands of other seniors, I would like to take this opportunity to share their specific concerns with my colleagues here on the floor.

Mr. Strinic and his wife are on Medicare. He has been seeing the same doctor for more than 15 years. In fact, he sees six different doctors. Mr. Strinic is extremely concerned about the proposed funding cuts and changes to Medicare.

He expressed opposition to the way the GOP-proposal would indirectly force seniors into managed care. Mr. Strinic is concerned that the quality of care will be restricted and that the cuts in nursing home care provided under Medicaid will devastate his family. He spoke about how he was bothered by the fact that a friend of his was not allowed to see a specialist outside his HMO plan.

With respect to Mrs. Beatrice Waltoncarr of Cleveland, OH, she spoke about the fact that the $182 bill cut in Medicaid will make it impossible for her to make it. Just two prescriptions cost her more than $100. In fact, while she was able to get the prescription to the drug store to have it refilled, she had to leave the medicine behind because she did not have the money to pay for it.

Mr. Strinic's and Mrs. Waltoncarr's concerns mirror those of hundreds of thousands of other seniors who must depend on Medicare and Medicaid for their health care services, and who will be forced to pay more for less under the GOP-Medicare proposal.

Our seniors must not be forced to worry about their health care coverage. They have worked long and hard to provide for their families and for a secure retirement—that security must not be taken away. They deserve better than that. For the sake of our seniors, let's not allow the GOP to destroy Medicare.

TRIBUTE TO CASA ALLEGRA COMMUNITY SERVICES

HON. LYNN C. WOOLSEY

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, October 17, 1995

Ms. WOOLSEY. Mr. Speaker, today I rise to pay tribute to the Casa Allegra Community Services project. Casa Allegra was founded in 1975 and provides residential, job training, and community integration services to adults with disabilities. This important organization has been an instrumental component in the successful integration of Marin County's disabled adult population.

One part of the Casa Allegra's work on behalf of people with disabilities has been the Adult Community Service [ACS] program. The staff at ACS provide individualized support in employment, education, community integration as well as instruction in self-advocacy, communication, and behavioral skills. All ACS instruction is provided in the settings and contexts in which nondisabled adults participate. The goal of ACS is to team up with family members, coworkers, employers, classmates, and others to help people with disabilities succeed as productive, accepted members of the whole community.

It is this focus, one of integration coupled with a healthy respect for self determination, that makes the work of Casa Allegra so very valuable and so very important. Mr. Speaker, Marin County has been very fortunate to have Casa Allegra Community Services in its midst. This program is a model for the entire Nation.

TRIBUTE TO "GLORY GRADS," JAMES MADISON HIGH SCHOOL
CLASS OF 1935

HON. CHARLES E. SCHUMER

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, October 17, 1995

Mr. SCHUMER. Mr. Speaker, I rise to pay tribute to one of the most distinguished groups of students ever to attend New York City high school. They are members of the class of 1935 of James Madison School in Brooklyn who are coming from all parts of this land to mark the 60th anniversary of their commencement. The celebration will take place at the Stanley Kaplan Penthouse at Lincoln Center on November 12. The members of the class were named the "Glory Grads" by their teachers because of their outstanding achievements. The school was named after the fourth President of the United States, whose words are carved in stone above the entrance: "Education is the true foundation for civil liberty."

The Glory Grads attained the highest scholastic average in New York State that year and fielded a football team that won the city championship. "You are the cream and you will rise to the top," their grad advisor told them at graduation and they have fulfilled that prediction in a spectacular manner. Over the many years, they have achieved honors and national distinctions in the fields of medicine and surgery, engineering, mathematics, journalism, business, and the arts. They were children of the Great Depression, who came mostly from poor families and had to struggle to get on the first rung of the ladder of achievement. But, they were inspired by family tradition to study and work hard and, therefore, to go on to self-made success.

These Glory Grads never forgot the opportunities they were given by the country to which their parents came as immigrants. They have paid their dues many times over. The great majority of male class members served in World War II. They made their way up in professional and business careers. They also became leaders in community and civic organizations and have been unusually generous in their philanthropies.

I wish to extend special congratulations and felicitations to the chairman of the reunion committee, Stanley H. Kaplan, a friend of long standing and founder of the international chain of test-prep centers that bears his name. I congratulate, too, the members of the reunion committee, including Marty Glickman, famed sportscaster and hero of the Madison Gridiron and track oval; Martin Abramson, prize-winning author and war correspondent; businessmen Winn Heimer and Sidney Thomsahower, and travel consultant Anita Foran Fine.

I salute "Mr. Basketball Coach," Jammy Moskowitz, a spry 92, who will be making the trip from Florida to New York to attend the reunion. I also salute Principal Wendy Karp and director of alumni relations, Sonya Lerner, without whose cooperation, this return to James Madison would not have been successful.

I salute the Glory Grads. May they have many years of good health, happiness, and continued friendship.

AMERICAN CIVILIZATION TAKES A GIANT STEP BACKWARD

HON. MAJOR R. OWENS

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, October 17, 1995

Mr. OWENS. Mr. Speaker, movement toward universal health care coverage was the centerpiece of the Clinton health plan during the 103d session of Congress. Concern with the achievement of that ideal generated great complexity in the proposal prepared by the administration. It was a noble plan in pursuit of a most compassionate purpose. Among the industrialized nations our Government stands almost alone in its refusal to sponsor universal health care coverage. In this 104th Congress the majority has chosen to catapult our American civilization further backward and away from the health care coverage of the poor provided by the Medicaid entitlement. To end the provision of health care for the poorest Americans would be a barbaric act. Nevertheless the plan for this heartless public deed is going forward.

If the Republican health care bill is passed thousands of Americans who now have health care coverage will lose it. The Republicans are giving notice to the uncovered that when the Declaration of Independence declared that all men have a right to "life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness" it did not mean them.

This mean and extreme position cannot be accepted. The tree of life must be allowed to bloom for every human soul. Attached is a summary of the notice that the Republicans are sending to the uncovered.

REPUBLICAN NOTICE TO THE UNCOVERED

Health and happiness
The majority can pursue
But the tree of life
We won't let bloom for you
The medicine
Modern miracles make
Not available for your sake
A dose of penicillin
Cost less than a penny
With no HMO
You don't get any
Why should the government
Pay everybody's doctor bills
Only the evil poor
Contract expensive ills
Drugs cost dollars
The uncovered can't pay
On this beautiful earth
Not everybody
Is scheduled to stay
Health and happiness
The majority can pursue
But the tree of life
We won't let bloom for you
Your days of strife
Our policies renew
O say can you see
Your liberty to die free
From heavenly hospitals
Mothers hustle your Discharged babies home quick
Abuse will be charged
If you let them get sick
For the elderly
It is wise to stay well
Unregulated nursing homes
Will be harder than hell
Health and happiness
The majority can pursue
But the tree of life
We won't bloom for you.

BRIDGEHAMPTON FIRE DEPARTMENT 100TH ANNIVERSARY REMARKS

HON. MICHAEL P. FORBES

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, October 17, 1995

Mr. FORBES. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to pay tribute and to congratulate the men and women of the Bridgehampton Fire Department for 100 years of dedicated service to the people of Bridgehampton. The residents of the Bridgehampton Fire District are very fortunate to have such a well-trained and devoted fire department. The Bridgehampton Fire Department worked hard to establish itself as one of the best departments in New York and has achieved an impeccable record.

The success of the fire department is a direct result of the selfless dedication and effective management displayed by its members. Under the leadership of Chairman Clifford Foster, the fire department has continued to play an active role in the life of the Bridgehampton community. This leadership umbrella extends to the other members of the board of fire commissioners: William Babinski, Howell H. On Saturday, June 17, 1995, the Bridgehampton Fire Department celebrated its 100th anniversary with a parade, marking a long proud history by recognizing and honoring the efforts of those who have sacrificed and served the department and community over the years. Therefore Mr. Speaker, it is with great pride that I ask the rest of the House to join me in congratulating this all volunteer fire department on achieving this momentous milestone. MALONEY HONORS GEORGE DELIS

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, October 17, 1995

Mrs. MALONEY. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to pay tribute to a wonderful event that will be taking place in my district this weekend.

On Saturday, October 14th the Broadway-Astoria Merchants & Professionals Association will be holding their 15th Annual Dinner Dance. This year's dinner dance will pay tribute to Mr. George Delis as the Association's Man of the Year.

The life of George Delis is one of those classic American success stories. Born in Greece in 1945, George's parents left Greece to move to the United States when George was still very young. In 1962, the entire Delis family moved from Manhattan to the Astoria section of Queens, and they still live there today. I am proud to represent this wonderful community in the U.S. Congress.

George Delis' contributions to Queens are well known throughout the community. After graduation from college, George was hired by the Youth Services Agency as a youth counselor. This marked the beginning of a life devoted to helping out both those in need and the community in which he lives.

In 1974, George was appointed to Community Board 1, and was hired as district manager of the board in 1977. George wrote the proposal for the Motion Picture Museum and has worked for the development of the Steinway Industrial area, which in turn became the single largest industrial development in Queens.

In addition, George has played a large part in the organization of the Greater Astoria Historical Society, the 30th Avenue Merchants Association, and the Colon Council. He is married to Terri Angelis, a public school teacher from Forest Hills.

Mr. Speaker, I ask my colleagues to join me in commending George.

FLORIDA ENDORSES WORLD POPULATION AWARENESS WEEK

HON. KAREN L. THURMAN

OF FLORIDA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, October 17, 1995

Mrs. THURMAN. Mr. Speaker, rampant population growth causes or exacerbates many of the world's most serious problems. Civil strife, hunger, infant mortality, and soil erosion all are affected by increased population. The solution to these problems lies in striking a more equitable balance between the world's population and resources.

The first step toward solving any problem is to generate awareness of the existence of the problem. This is precisely the reason behind the recognition of World Population Awareness Week, October 22–29. I would hope that every State will join with my State of Florida in recognizing World Population Awareness Week. Population awareness is important not only to poor countries of the world that feel the impact of explosive demographic growth more directly but also to all countries, because we all have a large stake in a peaceful, harmonious world.

For the benefit of my colleagues, the proclamation of Gov. Lawton Chiles follows these remarks.

PROCLAMATION—STATE OF FLORIDA

Whereas, world population is currently 5.7 billion and increasing by nearly 100 million per year, with virtually all of this growth added to the poorest countries and regions—those that can least afford to accommodate their current populations, much less such massive infusions of human numbers; and

Whereas, the annual increment to world population is projected to exceed 86 million through the year 2015, with three billion people—the equivalent of the entire world population as recently as 1960—reaching their reproductive years within the next generation; and

Whereas, the environmental and economic impacts of this level of growth will almost certainly prevent inhabitants of poorer countries from improving their quality of life and, at the same time, have deleterious repercussions for the standard of living in more affluent regions; and

Whereas, the 1994 International Conference on Population and Development in Cairo, Egypt crafted a 20-year Program of Action for achieving a more equitable balance between the world's population, environment and resources that was duly approved by 180 nations, including the United States;

Now, Therefore, I, Lawton Chiles, by virtue of the authority vested in me as Governor of the State of Florida, do hereby proclaim October 22–29, 1995, as "World Population Awareness Week" in Florida and urge all residents to support the purpose and the spirit of the Cairo Program of Action, and call upon all governments and private organizations to do their utmost to implement that document, particularly the goals and objectives therein aimed at providing universal access to family planning formation, education and services, as well as the elimination of poverty, illiteracy, unemployment, social disintegration and gender discrimination that have been reinforced by the 1995 United Nations International Conference on Social Development, endorsed by 118 world leaders in 1995, and by the 1995 United Nations Fourth World Conference on Women.

ANTIPERSONNEL LASER WEAPONS

HON. LEE H. HAMILTON

OF INDIANA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, October 17, 1995

Mr. HAMILTON. Mr. Speaker, on August 16, 1995, I wrote to Secretary of State concerning U.S. policy on the production or use of anti-personnel laser weapons. I expressed to the Secretary my support for a worldwide ban on such weapons.

On October 13, 1995, I received a reply from the Department of State on progress on the laser weapons issue at the Review Conference of the 1980 Convention on Conventional Weapons.

I commend the correspondence to the attention of my colleagues. The text of the correspondence follows:

COMMITTEE ON INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS,
HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
Washington, DC, August 16, 1995.

Hon. WARREN CHRISTOPHER,
Secretary of State,
Department of State, Washington, DC.

DEAR MR. SECRETARY: I write concerning the upcoming conference in September, 1995 to review the 1980 Conventional Weapons Convention.

I want to urge you to support proposals at that conference to ban the production or use of anti-personnel laser weapons, since virtually all laser weapons systems have the potential to cause permanent damage of eyesight.

Lasers have valuable and legitimate uses in battle as range finders and target designators, but I believe it should be the policy of the United States to oppose development or production of anti-personnel laser weapons that can blind.

It is in the interest of the United States to work together with other technologically-advanced countries to stop the development or production of such laser weapons, to prevent their proliferation and possible future use against U.S. forces.

The upcoming September conference is a unique opportunity to achieve an outcome that is in the interest of the United States and the entire international community. Therefore, I urge you to support actively efforts to seek an international prohibition on the use of lasers for the purpose of blinding as a method of warfare.

With best regards,

Sincerely,

LEE H. HAMILTON,
Ranking Democratic Member.

U.S. DEPARTMENT OF STATE,
Washington, DC, October 13, 1995.

Hon. LEE HAMILTON,
House of Representatives,
Washington, DC.

DEAR MR. HAMILTON: Thank you for your letter of August 16, seeking Secretary Christopher's support for an international prohibition on the use of blinding laser weapons in warfare.

I am pleased to inform you that the states parties to the 1980 Convention on Conventional Weapons (CCW) have reached consensus at the Review Conference on a new laser weapons protocol, Protocol IV. Not only does it include U.S. language prohibiting the use of "laser weapons specifically designed to cause permanent blindness of unenhanced vision," but it includes a complete transfer ban on such weapons and a requirement that parties take all feasible precautions in the use of all laser systems to avoid the incidence of such blindness. We support these provisions as well.

As you noted in your letter, lasers have valuable military uses. The Administration wants to protect the legitimate uses of lasers. Our position at the Review Conference therefore balances the concerns raised regarding such weapons with U.S. military requirements. Article 4 of the new laser protocol reflects the U.S. position: "Blinding as an incidental or collateral effect of the legitimate employment of laser systems, including laser systems used against optical instruments, is not covered by this Protocol."

Thank you for your interest in this important issue. We look forward to a favorable resolution of the blinding laser issue at the conclusion of the CCW Review Conference.

Sincerely,

WENDY R. SHERMAN,
Assistant Secretary,
Legislative Affairs.

REMEMBERING BOB BILLINGS

HON. GERALD B.H. SOLOMON

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, October 17, 1995

Mr. SOLOMON. Mr. Speaker, I would like to insert into the RECORD remarks I made on the passing of a truly great American, Bob Billings.

Bob was an inspiration to me. President Reagan was also inspired by Bob's tireless efforts to promote family values and Christian ethics in Washington.

We often met with Bob and discussed Christian education, moral issues, and the promotion of legislation to protect the rights of Christians to guide their children to believe in God.

Bob's conviction and enthusiasm inspired us all as we sought to hold America to traditional values. Bob will be greatly missed. Those of us who love this country and want to see it survive will experience a large void at the passing of Bob Billings.

Our prayers are with the entire Billings family at this time.

SADDLEBACK MOUNTAIN PROPERTY SETTLEMENT

HON. J.D. HAYWORTH

OF ARIZONA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, October 17, 1995

Mr. HAYWORTH. Mr. Speaker, on behalf of the city of Scottsdale and the Salt River Pima-Maricopa Indian community in Arizona, I am introducing legislation which would approve an agreement for the settlement of litigation over property located in Scottsdale, known as the Saddleback Mountain property. Saddleback Mountain is an important conservation resource, and this agreement will preserve it for future generations. The property is a 701-acre tract of land which was owned by the failed Sun State Savings and Loan and is now held by the Resolution Trust Corporation [RTC]. The agreement approved by this legislation provides for the sale by the RTC of part of the Saddleback Mountain property to the Salt River Pima-Maricopa Indian community, to be held in trust by the United States as part of the tribe's reservation. The rest of the property will be sold to the city of Scottsdale. This legislation, which is the result of months of negotiation between the city of Scottsdale and the Salt River Pima-Maricopa Indian community, will serve to ratify and authorize the agreement and will provide that the property purchased by the tribe will be taken into trust reservation status. It does not authorize any expenditure of funds by the United States.

The Saddleback Mountain-Arizona Settlement Act of 1995 is noncontroversial and I urge my colleagues to support this important legislation.

THE DEMOCRATIC SUBSTITUTE FOR H.R. 2425

HON. SAM GIBBONS

OF FLORIDA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, October 17, 1995

Mr. GIBBONS. Mr. Speaker, during the debate on H.R. 2425, the so-called Medicare Preservation Act, later this week, Representative JOHN DINGELL and I plan, along with Representative JIM McDERMOTT, and others, to offer a substitute that takes the steps needed to assure solvency for Medicare for the next decade—through 2006. Instead of cutting $270 billion out of Medicare as the Republicans have proposed to finance their tax breaks for the wealthy, our Democratic plan reduces Medicare by $90 billion—and achieves solvency through 2006.

To assure an informed debate, I want to share a copy of the summary of the Gibbons-Dingell substitute. The legislative language of the substitute is published in the amendments section of today's RECORD. The summary follows:

A DEMOCRATIC MEDICARE REFORM PLAN

A BALANCED PACKAGE OF REFORMS TO MAKE MEDICARE SOLVENT FOR THE NEXT DECADE (2006)

The Gibbons-Dingell substitute

Peace of Mind for Medicare Beneficiaries

Assurance that Medicare—as you know it now—will be there when you need it.

Expanded choice of providers and plans.

A freeze in the part B premium.

Reduced copayments for outpatient services.

New preventive benefits—payment for more frequent mammographies, colorectal screening, pap smears, and diabetes screening.

Quality standards for nursing homes.

Reasonable Provider Reductions and Reforms

Modest reductions in hospital payments.

Protection for hospitals that serve the uninsured in urban and rural areas.

Reduced funds for hospital construction.

A new graduate medical education trust fund.

Limits on physician reimbursement.

Other "Good Government" Reforms

A prospective payment system for home health services.

Reformed nursing home reimbursement.

Tough fraud and abuse prevention.

Aggressive pursuit of payment by private insurers, to assure Medicare is the payer of last resort.

A commission on the long-term solvency of Medicare.

Total savings: $90 billion.

DETAILED SPECIFICATIONS

Subtitle A. Provisions relating to Medicare part A

A. Reasonable Hospital Reductions and Reforms

Medicare is the single largest insurer in the United States today. Reductions in payments to providers under Medicare must be carefully planned and implemented to avoid severe negative consequences for Medicare beneficiaries and the American taxpayer. Excessive reductions in hospital costs—like those proposed by the Republican majority—could be counter-productive, negatively affecting the quality of care, reducing access to care, and resulting in higher costs for the private sector. Little would be accomplished by unnecessarily blunt reductions in Medicare payments to hospitals. Our most vulnerable hospitals—those who serve a large share of the 40 million Americans who are uninsured—would carry an unfair burden.

Under this Democratic plan, reasonable reductions would be made in hospital payments. Furthermore, there would be no reductions in payments made to compensate hospitals that care for a disproportionate share (DSH) of the uninsured. In addition, funding for DSH hospitals, now paid to HMO's, would be paid directly to these high-indigent care hospitals.

Specifically, the substitute would:

1. Make modest hospital payment reductions with special protections for vulnerable rural hospitals.—Hospital payments would be limited to market basket minus one in FY '96 through FY '02 except that the rural hospital update would be set at 0.5 percent in each of these years.

2. Reduce payments for hospital capital (construction) expenses, given excess capacity.—All hospital capital payments would be reduced by 10 percent (including PPS-exempt hospitals) through 2002.

3. Retarget outlier payments.—The indirect medical education and disproportionate share hospital add-on payment would be eliminated for outlier cases.

B. Nursing Home Reforms

The Republican majority has proposed to reduce payments for skilled nursing facilities by $10 billion over seven years, through untested limits on payments that could place patients with complex needs at risk of inadequate services or, even worse, encourage facilities to avoid patients with greater resource needs.

The Republican majority also proposes to eliminate the current nursing home reform standards, leaving elderly nursing home patients and their families without protections that have improved the quality of life for millions of nursing home residents. The regulations—which the Republican majority wants to repeal—have resulted in fewer hospital visits and healthier nursing home residents, more complete and reliable medical records, a significant improvement in patient well-being, and savings to Medicare of $2 billion since the regulations took effect.

This Democratic plan would retain these essential protections for Medicare beneficiaries in nursing homes. In addition, this substitute would revamp the nursing facility reimbursement system by taking the following steps:

1. Extend the skilled nursing facility (SNF) cost limits.—The OBRA '93 SNF cost limits would be extended.

2. Establish a prospective payment system to control costs.—Beginning in FY 1997, routine costs would be paid in accordance with a prospective payment system established by the Secretary. Payments under the system would be determined on a per diem basis and would equal 112 percent of the mean per diem routine costs in a base year for freestanding skilled nursing facilities located in the same region. These limits would be determined separately for urban and rural facilities; hospital-based facilities would be held harmless. Beginning in FY 1998, all costs for skilled nursing facilities would be paid based upon the prospective payment system.

3. Reform SNF transfer policies.—Ending gaming of discharge status by hospitals who also have their own nursing home unit. Patients transferred from a hospital to a SNF unit of the hospital would be classified as a transfer and not as a discharge. Patients discharged to home health services would still be classified as a discharge.

Subtitle B. Provisions relating to Medicare part B

A. Physician Payment Reforms

Efforts to control Medicare spending require that limits be placed on reimbursements to all providers, including physicians. Since the nation's doctors have been supportive of the reforms included in HR 2425, this substitute includes those reforms with very slight modifications.

To control Medicare spending on physician payments, this Democratic plan adopts the recommendations of the Physician Payment Review Commission. This means that on January 1, 1996, the fee schedule conversion factor for all three categories of service—primary care, surgery, and all other services—would be set to a uniform $34.60. Three separate expenditure targets are retained, however, for determining updates in future years for each category.

In addition, the upward bias in the current Medicare Volume Performance System (MVPS) is corrected by assuring that the targets are cumulative—the MVPS bonuses and penalties apply for only one year, and are not built into the base-year spending target. Adjustments to the annual updates are also limited.

B. Reforms in Payments for Other Health Services

The Republican majority has proposed an unprecedented seven-year freeze on payments for clinical laboratory services, durable medical equipment, and ambulatory surgery, raising questions about whether these providers will, in the future, continue to serve Medicare beneficiaries. In addition, the Republican majority curtails the steady progress Democrats have made, over the past decade, in improving preventive benefits; under the Republican plan, no new preventive benefits are offered, despite strong evidence that the basic Medicare benefit package needs improvement in this area.

This Democratic substitute offers a package of shared sacrifice combined with modest program improvements. It would:

1. Impose a two-year freeze.—Fee schedules for clinical labs, durable medical equipment, and ambulatory surgery would be frozen for two years.

2. Eliminate excessive beneficiary copayments for outpatient services by correcting the payment formula.—The hospital outpatient department formula driven overpayment would be eliminated, on a budget-neutral basis, as the savings would be returned to the beneficiaries to reduce the effective beneficiary co-payment.

3. Add new services to prevent cancer and complications from diabetes.—Medicare's preventive benefits would be improved to more quickly detect breast, cervical and colon cancer by increasing the mammography schedule and providing payment for colorectal screening, pap smears, and pelvic examinations. In addition, payment would be authorized for diabetes outpatient self-management services and for blood-testing strips for individuals with diabetes.

4. Extend limits on payments for outpatient capital expenses.—The current 10 percent capital reduction for hospital outpatient services would be extended.

c. Freeze the Beneficiary Premium

Fully 83 percent of Medicare expenditures are for beneficiaries with incomes of less than $25,000 per year. Clearly, beneficiary premiums and copayments should be increased only as a very last resort. These senior citizens can ill-afford to pay any increase in the part B premium, however small. Under this Democratic plan, Medicare beneficiaries are protected.

Under current law, the part B beneficiary premium is $46.10 for 1995. Under the Democratic plan, the premium will remain the same for 1996. Subsequent premiums would be determined without regard to home health services transferred from Part A to Part B as a result of this proposal. The following chart shows the premium amounts under current law, the Republican proposal (HR 2425), and the Democratic plan:

	1995	1996	1997	1998	1999	2000	2001	2002
Current law	$46	$43	$48	$53	$55	$57	$59	$61
Republican plan	46	53	57	60	64	72	79	88
Democratic substitute	46	46	47	51	53	54	56	58

D. Anesthesiology Payments

Payment for anesthesia services would be clarified such that when services are provided jointly by anesthesiologists and by nurse anesthetists, both providers would be reimbursed.

Subtitle C. Provisions relating to parts A and B

A. Continue Medicare as the Payer of Last Resort

When a Medicare beneficiary also has private insurance, Medicare pays only after the other insurer has met its obligations. The authority for this policy is temporary, however, expiring in 1998. This Democratic plan extends the so-called Medicare secondary payer provisions through 2002. In addition, insurers would be required to report on secondary payer status and current rules would be clarified, given recent judicial action.

B. Expand Beneficiary Choice

Medicare beneficiaries currently select either traditional fee-for-service or an HMO for the delivery of their health care. Under this democratic plan, additional managed care choices would be provided, including preferred provider organizations (PPOs), point-of-service (POS) plans, and provider service organizations. Plans could not bar any professional from participating in a plan solely on the basis of their license or certification under State law.

C. Improve Graduate Medical Education

Prudent reforms are needed in Medicare's policies for reimbursing the costs of graduate medical education. Instead, the Republican majority has chosen to slash support for hospitals dedicated to training the next generation of health professionals. Under this Democratic substitute, only the needed reforms would be made. Specifically, the plan would:

1. Establish a graduate medical education trust fund.—Funds would be targeted to teaching hospitals by creating a graduate medical education trust fund. Funds for teaching hospitals, now paid to HMO's, would be deposited into the new graduate medical education trust fund. A commission on graduate medical education would also be established to develop a method for assuring that academic medical centers train the types of physicians that will be required to meet the nation's health needs.

2. Reform Medicare payments for graduate medical education.—A number of needed improvements would be made in Medicare policies for reimbursing the costs of graduate medical education. Specifically:

The total number and number of non-primary care residency positions reimbursed under Medicare would be frozen.

The OBRA '93 freeze on updates for nonprimary care residents would be extended for an additional two years.

Residents in training beyond their initial residency period would be counted less, for purposes of the indirect medical education adjustment.

Reimbursement would be made for work performed in non-hospital settings for indirect medical education.

Payments would be authorized for non-hospital settings for residents receiving primary care training when a hospital is not paying the resident's salary.

D. Home Health Reforms

Payments for home health services have been one of the fastest growing components of Medicare since the late 1980's. In fact, outlays for home health services more than quintupled between 1987 and 1994. This increase is, in large part, due to a 1989 court decision—Duggan v. Bowen—which liberalized the Medicare benefit and made the denial of home health claims difficult. Clearly, reforms are needed to control the growth in expenditures.

Under this Democratic substitute, payments for home health would, over time, shift from cost-based retrospective reimbursement, to a prospective payment system. Specifically, the plan would:

1. Establish a prospective payment system for home health services effective in FY 2000 with the following steps.—

Impose interim cost limits.—Through the end of FY 1996, the cost limits on home health services would equal to 112 percent of the mean labor-related and nonlabor costs per visit of free standing home health agencies.

Effective October 1, 1996, the cost limits would be reduced to 105 percent of the median costs.

Effective October 1, 1996, the Secretary would be authorized to establish a TEFRA-limits type system under which each home health agency would be subject to a total dollar cap for each beneficiary per year, based on the lesser of (1) actual costs per visit times the average number of visits per beneficiary in calendar year 1995 (the base year); or (2) the agency-specific per beneficiary limit.

Extend, through FY 1996, the OBRA '93 freeze on updates.

Modify payment rules.—Effective for FY 1996, payment to home health agencies would be based on the site where service is rendered, as opposed to the location of the site where the service is billed.

Establish a prospective payment system.—The Secretary would be authorized to impose a full per episode home health prospective payment system in FY 2000.

2. Establish a 160-visit limit.—A 160-visit limit would be imposed on home health services under part A of Medicare. Visits beyond the limit would be reimbursed under part B, as in current law.

E. Commission on the Future of Medicare and the Protection of the Health of Senior Citizens

A commission would be established to analyze the health status of the Medicare-eligible population, make recommendations on actions to improve the health of that population, analyze the effects of changes in Medicare on the private health financing system, examine the impact of the increase in the eligible population occurring after 2010, and make recommendations to the Congress on actions to preserve the program during that period.

F. Miscellaneous

Under this Democratic plan, Medicare law could not be construed to prohibit coverage of items and services associated with the use of a medical device in the furnishing of inpatient or outpatient hospital services (including outpatient diagnostic imaging services) on the grounds that the device is not an approved device if it is an investigational device or is used instead of an approved device or a covered procedure.

Subtitle D. Preventing fraud and abuse

A. Tough Anti-fraud Measures

This Democratic plan would fill the holes in the Republican fraud detection proposal by strengthening Federal anti-fraud and abuse provisions, requiring HHS to offer interpretive rulings on kick-back and self-referral legislation, and pre-emption of State corporate practice laws.

B. Mandatory Funding for the Inspector General

The HHS Inspector General (IG) is responsible for Medicare fraud detection, yet this year the Republican majority has proposed to reduce funding for the IG by 6 percent. And, given limited funds, the IG doesn't even maintain a field office in 23 States. Simply put, rhetoric alone won't result in fraud detection—and prosecution. We need an aggressive IG who has the manpower to carry out the threat.

For that reason, this Democratic plan mandates appropriation of funds from the Medicare trust funds to the HHS Office of the Inspector General. This will assure adequate funds for the IG and a field office in every State. Funding would total $130 million in FY 96, $181 million in FY 97, and $204 million in FY 98 with future amounts indexed to total increases in Medicare expenditures.

C. Enhanced Payment Safeguards

This Democratic substitute also mandates appropriation of funds from the Medicare trust funds for enhanced payment safeguard activities by the Health Care Financing Administration and its contractors to crack down on double billing, overcharging, and other abuses. Funding for these payment safeguards would total $430 million in FY 96, $490 million in FY 97, $550 million in FY 98, $620 million in FY 99, $670 million in FY 00, $690 million in FY 01, and $710 million in FY 02.

D. Commission to Prevent Medicare Fraud and Abuse

Finally, this Democratic substitute established a temporary "blue ribbon panel" to examine the full scope of waste, fraud and abuse in the Medicare system and recommend cost effective remedies. The Commission would hold hearings, take testimony, receive evidence with full subpoena power, and report to Congress within 18 months. The Commission would terminate within 90 days after submission of its report to Congress.

WORLD POPULATION AWARENESS WEEK IN NORTH CAROLINA

HON. EVA M. CLAYTON

OF NORTH CAROLINA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, October 17, 1995

Mrs. CLAYTON. Mr. Speaker, Gov. James B. Hunt, Jr., of North Carolina has recently proclaimed October 22–29 as World Population Awareness Week in the State of North Carolina. This week is being recognized by States across this country and by organizations in other countries.

The purpose of World Population Awareness Week is to focus attention on the problem of world population growth. There are more than 5.7 billion people in the world, a total that is expected to double in about 40 years. More than 90 percent of this growth is occurring in the poorest countries of the world, those that can least afford it. But it is not a problem for the developing world alone.

Mr. Speaker, I include for the RECORD a copy of the proclamation.

“WORLD POPULATION AWARENESS WEEK 1995
BY THE GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA

“Whereas, the world population is currently 5.7 billion and is increasing by nearly 100 million people per year, with virtually all of this growth added to the poorest countries and regions, which are the areas that can least afford to accommodate their current populations, much less such massive infusions of human numbers; and

“Whereas, the annual increment to the world population is projected to exceed 86 million through the year 2015, with three billion people—the equivalent of the entire world population as recently as 1960—reaching their reproductive years within the next generation; and

“Whereas, the environmental and economic impacts of this level of growth will almost certainly prevent inhabitants of poorer countries from improving their quality of life, and, at the same time, have deleterious repercussions for the standard of living in more affluent regions; and

“Whereas, the 1994 International Conference on Population and Development in Cairo, Egypt, crafted a 20-year Program of Action for achieving a more equitable balance between the world's population, environment and resources, that was duly approved by 180 nations, including the United States;

“Now, therefore, I, James B. Hunt Jr., Governor of the State of North Carolina, do hereby proclaim October 22–29, 1995, as ‘World Population Awareness Week’ in North Carolina, and commend its observance to our citizens.”
